Exceptional Education

Since its founding, Notre Dame has stressed mixing academics with faith and has done so while becoming one of the top institutions of higher learning in the nation. Featuring five undergraduate colleges (Arts and Letters, Science, Architecture, Engineering and Business), the First Year of Studies, the Graduate School and the Law School, the University finds itself attracting some of the top students and faculty in the country. Students also participate in cutting edge research and diverse study abroad opportunities, enabling Notre Dame to offer one of the top academic experiences in the world.

2	Ranking of the Mendoza College of Business by BusinessWeek , in its annual survey of undergraduate business programs.
22	Ranking of the Notre Dame Law School by U.S. News and World Report .
37	National Endowment for the Humanities fellowships won by faculty in the College of Arts and Letters, more than any other university in the nation.
5	Publications in which the University of Notre Dame is ranked among the top 25 institutions of higher learning (U.S. News and World Report , Princeton Review , Time , Kiplinger's and Kaplan/Newsweek).

First Year of Studies

The First Year of Studies program provides all first-year students with the opportunity to gain a wide-ranging liberal arts background before choosing a specific major within Notre Dame's five undergraduate colleges. A progressive advising program for all student-athletes enables the University to follow the academic progress of all student-athletes on a regular basis. Key to the program is the fact that it is not run by the athletics department but by the University administration.

Student-Athlete Success

Notre Dame expects the best out of its student-athletes just as it does of every other student on campus. Notre Dame has had unprecedented academic success among its athletes, consistently ranking among the top NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision schools in graduation rates and academic progress. With more Academic All-Americans than any other school since 2000, Irish athletes have shown themselves capable of performing in the classroom while competing on the field at an elite level.

Programs honored by the NCAA for Academic Progress Rate scores in 2009, more than any other of the 119 Football Bowl Subdivision universities. The APR measures multi-year academic success by team members.

Irish teams which recorded a perfect score of 1,000 in the NCAA's 2009 Academic Progress Rate report, more than any other Football Bowl Subdivision institution. Notre Dame also had 11 additional programs with scores of 990 or better and all 26 varsity teams placed above NCAA standards.

19

Programs which achieved a perfect 100 percent graduation rate according to the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate, second most among Football Bowl Subdivision institutions.

100

Federal graduation rate percent achieved by nine Irish teams, according to the latest NCAA figures. Notre Dame had 11 teams ranked first in their respective sport.

.863

Percentage of Irish varsity sports (19 of 22) to achieve a perfect 100 percent graduation rate according to the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate. Notre Dame was one of only 10 institutions with more than half its programs achieving a 100 percent graduation rate and no other school saw more than 80 percent of its programs achieve a perfect score.

Sports Medicine

While no athlete plans on an injury, Notre Dame is prepared with one of the top sports medicine teams in the country to help keep its athletes fit and ready to compete. With training facilities in the Joyce Center, Notre Dame Stadium and the Guglielmino Athletics Complex, the training staff is always there to care for athletes. With approximately 200 years combined experience on the full-time staff, Notre Dame also boasts a partnership with the renowned South Bend Orthopaedics to provide first-class care.

Total sports medicine staff members. Head athletic trainer Jim Russ leads three associate trainers, eight assistant trainers and two physical therapists.

8,500

Square feet of cutting-edge sports medicine technology, including two 3,500-gallon therapy pools, a full x-ray unit and an MRI machine.

Strength and Conditioning

The task of keeping athletes in top physical condition is up to the strength & conditioning staff. The strength and conditioning staff knows the demands of competing on an elite level and is committed to ensuring Irish athletes are always in the best possible condition. From weight lifting to wind sprints and from warming up to cooling down, the strength and conditioning staff has every aspect covered.

10

Full-time employees working with Irish varsity athletes. The strength and conditioning staff includes director Ruben Mendoza, eight coaches, one nutritionist and one intern.

25,000

Square feet in the Haggar Fitness Complex, which is located in the Guglielmino Athletics Complex, including a weight room, a 45-yard artificial turf agility field, a Gatorade hydration station, six plasma TVs and a 28-speaker sound system.

The University of Notre Dame

When Father Edward F. Sorin started his school in the northern Indiana wilderness, he had only $300, three log buildings badly in need of repair and a far-sighted vision of establishing a liberal arts school to meet the growing educational needs of the frontier. He dreamed of building a great university, and in 1842, he founded the University of Notre Dame du Lac.

Over the years, the University of Notre Dame du Lac would evolve into a preeminent place for Catholic thought. While becoming one of the top undergraduate institutions in the country, Notre Dame has also been at the cutting edge of research, including such innovations as the transmission of wireless messages and the development of synthetic rubber. The University also has stressed residential life, with four of five students living on campus. Students come to Notre Dame not only to learn how to think, but to learn how to live, keeping faith with the vision of Father Sorin.

1842	The University of Notre Dame was founded by Rev. Edward F. Sorin, C.S.C., as an independent, national Catholic university adjacent to South Bend, Ind., on St. Mary's and St. Joseph's Lakes.
11,733	Total enrollment at the University of Notre Dame, with 8,371 undergraduate students.
23.9	Karat gold in the famed Golden Dome, which tops the Main Building at the heart of campus.
5	Notre Dame's ranking by Princeton Review in a list of "Dream Schools" which takes into account academics and student life, among other attributes.

Student Body

Notre Dame is one of a handful of universities with a truly international student body, coming from more than 100 nations and all 50 states. The most recent freshman class featured 88 percent of students in the top 10 percent of their high school class. In addition, there are no fraternities or sororities at Notre Dame, with the school's 28 residence halls housing more than 80 percent of the student body, serving as the focal point of social, religious and athletic activities.

95	Graduation rate percentage among Notre Dame students, third in the nation behind only Harvard and Princeton.
97	Retention rate between freshman and sophomore year which thanks to the University's renowned First Year of Studies Program, ranks among the highest in the country.
80	Percent of Notre Dame students who reside in one of 28 on-campus residence halls, where approximately 40 Holy Cross religious leaders provide pastoral assistance.
50/100	States and countries, respectively, which Notre Dame students call home.

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C.

President

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., took office as the 17th president of the University of Notre Dame on July 1, 2005. He was elected by the University's Board of Trustees to a five-year term April 30, 2004.

An associate professor of philosophy and member of Notre Dame's faculty since 1990, Father Jenkins had served as a vice president and associate provost at the University from July 2000 until becoming president.

Prior to his service in the provost's office, Father Jenkins had been religious superior of the Holy Cross priests and brothers at Notre Dame for three years. As religious superior, he was a Fellow and Trustee of the University.

Father Jenkins specializes in the areas of ancient philosophy, medieval philosophy and the philosophy of religion. He is the author of Knowledge and Faith in Thomas Aquinas, published by Cambridge University Press in 1997.

Father Jenkins earned degrees in philosophy from Oxford University in 1987 and 1989. He earned his master of divinity degree and licentiate in sacred theology from the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, Calif., in 1988. Prior to entering the Congregation of Holy Cross, he earned bachelor's and master's degrees in philosophy from Notre Dame in 1976 and 1978, respectively.

Father Jenkins was ordained a priest in Notre Dame's Basilica of the Sacred Heart in 1983. He served as director of the Old College program for Notre Dame undergraduate candidates for the Congregation of Holy Cross from 1991 to 1993.

A native of Omaha, Neb., Father Jenkins was born Dec. 17, 1953.

Jack Swarbrick

Director of Athletics

John B. "Jack" Swarbrick Jr., a University of Notre Dame graduate who has risen to national prominence as a lawyer, consultant, and executive in the collegiate and Olympic sports industries, is in his second year as director of athletics at his alma mater.

His first year on campus in 2008-09 featured the announcement of plans for a new, free-standing ice hockey arena; creation of an athletic administrative division to enhance athletic performance — plus 35 All-Americans, eight Academic All-Americans and four NCAA post-graduate Scholarship winners.

Notre Dame teams in 2008-09 finished as the NCAA runner-up in both women's soccer (26-1, led by Hermann Trophy winner Kerri Hanks) and fencing (men 33-0, women 32-2), while the women's tennis squad advanced to the NCAA semifinals. The Irish men's soccer squad was seeded 14th in the NCAA bracket, while the hockey team ranked fourth in the final poll after winning CCHA regular-season and postseason crowns. Men's lacrosse finished unbeaten in the regular season (and second in the final poll) -- and women's lacrosse won its first BIG EAST title.

Notre Dame also ranked number one in the country (among Football Bowl Subdivision schools) in the most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) numbers with a 98 for all student-athletes. The 2009 Academic Progress Rate (APR) statistics included more perfect 1,000 scores by Irish teams (nine) than by any other FBS institution.

Raised in Yonkers, N.Y., and Bloomington, Ind., Swarbrick is a 1976 magna cum laude graduate of Notre Dame with a bachelor's degree in economics. Upon graduating from Stanford University Law School in 1980, he returned to Indiana to accept a position as an associate in the Indianapolis law firm Baker & Daniels. He was made partner in 1987 and spent 28 years overall with the firm.

As a member of the Indiana Sports Corporation, including the chairmanship from 1992 to 2001, Swarbrick's leadership efforts resulted in the city earning the bid to host the 2012 Super Bowl; becoming the home of the NCAA headquarters; and hosting the 1987 Pan American Games, the 1991 World Gymnastics Championships, NCAA Men's Basketball Final Fours, and other college championship competitions plus a wide array of national and world championships in the Olympic sports.

He served as sports commissioner of the 1982 U.S. Olympic Festival in Indianapolis, competition director of the '87 Pan American Games, and chairman of the '91 World Gymnastics Championships. Swarbrick has served as general counsel for numerous national governing bodies of Olympic sports, including USA Gymnastics and USRowing.

Born March 19, 1954, Swarbrick and his wife Kimberly are the parents of four children: Kate, a senior at Saint Louis University; Connor, a junior at Wake Forest University; Cal, a senior in high school; and Christopher, a high school junior.

Homes of the Fighting Irish

In the midst of a master plan that will touch nearly every varsity team, Notre Dame has shown its commitment to providing athletes with the best possible facilities to help them compete on a national level. From new facilities to the extensive renovation of existing ones, Notre Dame is committed to giving Irish athletes every edge imaginable. The plan will result in a drastically altered footprint on the south-east corner of campus, creating an athletics quad that will give every Irish athlete a place they will be proud to call home.

3	New athletics facilities which will open on campus during the 2009-10 year. Alumni Stadium will be the new home for men's and women's soccer; Purcell Pavilion renovation and expansion of the Joyce Center arena will be completed; and Arlotta Family Stadium will open as the new home for the men's and women's lacrosse teams.
3	New facilities which have opened their doors in the past five years, including the Guglielmino Athletics Complex (housing football offices and locker room, a new weight room and new sports medicine facilities), the LaBar Practice Complex (featuring two Field Turf fields and one natural grass field) and Melissa Cook Stadium (home of the Irish softball team).
26.3	Million dollars being spent on Purcell Pavilion for additions and renovations to the Joyce Center arena. Purcell Pavilion at the Joyce Center will feature a three-story addition with club seating, a hospitality area, additional area for restrooms and concessions, as well as new space for the Varsity Shop and the Notre Dame ticket office.
4	Facilities which are still on the master plan to create a comprehensive athletic quad. The track and field teams, the hockey program, the tennis squads and the rowing team all will receive new facilities in the near future.

Championship Teams

Notre Dame prides itself on competing with the best in every sport it fields. Eight different programs have won national championships since Notre Dame began its first varsity team, football in 1887. With more consensus national championships in football than any other school, other programs have begun to emerge on the national scene in the 14 years since Notre Dame joined the BIG EAST Conference.

25	National championships (11 in football, seven in fencing, two in women's soccer, two in men's tennis, one in men's golf, men's cross country and women's basketball) won by Notre Dame.
101	BIG EAST Conference championships won by Notre Dame in 14 seasons of league play.
10	Conference championships won by Irish teams during the 2008-09 year (eight BIG EAST, plus Central Collegiate Hockey Association and Great Western Lacrosse League).
13	Irish programs which finished their 2008-09 season nationally ranked.
11	Consecutive years in which Notre Dame has finished in the top 25 of the United States Sports Academy Division I Directors' Cup, sponsored by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. With a 21st-place finish in 2009, Notre Dame matched its finish from the previous year.

Championship People

To measure the success of Notre Dame's determination to have both academic and athletic success, one needs only to look at the numbers. From Academic All-Americans to BIG EAST Conference Academic All-Stars, Notre Dame continues to set the bar nationally.

210

All-time Academic All-Americans produced by Notre Dame, second most of any university.

84

Academic All-Americans since 2000, more than any other school.

Irish teams which have produced more Academic All-Americans than any other school in their respective sports – baseball and women's soccer.

Notre Dame Academic All-Americans in 2008-09.

48

Notre Dame NCAA postgraduate scholarship recipients since 1964, including four in 2008-09: Matt Besler (men's soccer), Brittany Bock (women's soccer), Lauren Buck (rowing) and Patrick Smyth (men's cross country).

Irish in the Community

In addition to academic success, Notre Dame emphasizes giving back to the community as well. Notre Dame athletes have participated in countless service projects through the years, benefiting the Notre Dame and South Bend communities and beyond. Team and individual projects have allowed Irish athletes to see the positive impact they have in the lives of others and learn how to use their talents to benefit those in their communities.

5,500	Hours of community service completed by Notre Dame student-athletes during the 2008-09 school year.
686	Community service hours completed by the women's swimming team, tops among Irish programs in 2008-09. The team assisted with programs including the Domer Run, Irish Aquatics, Relay for Life and Fit for Fun, among others.
82.5	Hours of community service completed by the women's soccer All-American Carrie Dew, more than any other Irish athlete. Dew volunteered at Healthwin Specialized Care with the elderly, Life-works children's program and Take 10, which emphasizes non-violent ways for children to resolve disputes, among other service projects.

An Exclusive Club

The Notre Dame Monogram Club was founded by athletics director Jesse Harper in 1916 to bring together varsity letterwinners to promote spirit, unity, leadership and sportsmanship. Today's active members help keep past athletes connected to Notre Dame and the current student-athletes. In addition to helping contribute to scholarships, the Monogram Club has helped contribute to new facilities, especially the renovation of Heritage Hall and the Monogram Room, located in the Joyce Center.

Postgraduate scholarships awarded by the Monogram Club in 2009. Football's Thomas Bemenderfer and volleyball's Mallorie Croal earned the first annual grants. Croal will be working towards a masters of nursing at San Diego while Bemenderfer will be enrolling in medical school at Indiana University.

3,628

Active members in the Monogram Club through the 2008-09 year. The contributions of active members entitle them to Inside Irish, a magazine for members; the annual Riehle Open golf outing; football tickets and makes their children eligible for the Brennan-Boland-Riehle Scholarship.

2.5

Million dollars which have been contributed to the Brennan-Boland-Riehle Scholarship fund, which benefits the children of former Notre Dame athletes who attend the University.

Notre Dame's Neighbor

Located adjacent to South Bend, Ind., the University of Notre Dame has always acknowledged its place in a greater community. Sitting between South Bend and Mishawaka in northern Indiana, Notre Dame has benefited the area in ways unimaginable, especially when it comes to Notre Dame football weekends. It is estimated that the average football weekend brings approximately $6.2 million dollars to the surrounding community. In addition to the financial aspect, Notre Dame feels truly invested in the surrounding community, with students participating in countless service projects to benefit the greater South Bend area.

266,678	Population of the South Bend-Mishawaka area.
5.5	Millions of dollars in voluntary contributions over the next 10 years from the University of Notre Dame to the cities of South Bend and Mishawaka, the town of Roseland and to St. Joseph County.
21	Football legends enshrined in South Bend's College Football Hall of Fame in the summer of 2009, including former Irish head coach Lou Holtz. The College Football Hall of Fame was constructed in downtown South Bend in 1995 and features what is regarded as one of the most interactive museums in the world.
1,900	Feet runs the East Race Waterway, the first and only manmade whitewater rapids facility in North America. The East Race hosted the 2004 U.S. Olympic Trials for kayak.

GIVE A GIFT and LEAVE A LEGACY

Over 650 student-athletes on 26 varsity teams excelling in academics, spirituality, community service and athletics - all made possible courtesy of the generous alumni, parents and friends who support Notre Dame's first athletics annual fund – the Rockne Heritage Fund.

The culmination of these gifts assists the University in underwriting athletics scholarships that are the lifeblood of every program that wants to recruit the best and the brightest and compete for national championships.

Our work has just begun. Scholarships are one of the largest line items in the department of athletics operating budget, accounting for roughly $14 million annually.

Director's Circle

Members donating to the Rockne Heritage Fund at the $1,500, $5,000, $10,000 and $25,000 levels, receive a corresponding benefits package.

For more information on the attractive football ticket benefit, visit our website: und.com/rockneheritagefund.

Rich
O'Leary

A Remembrance Of Former Irish Coach Rich O'Leary

Names like Ara Parseghian, Digger Phelps, Dan Devine, and Lou Holtz dot the list of those who numbered as University of Notre Dame athletic department colleagues and associates of longtime athletics staffer Rich O'Leary.

While those more high-profile varsity coaches found their names in headlines, O'Leary – who lost his battle with cancer July 17, 2009 – quietly went about impacting day-to-day athletic lives all over campus for 37 years.

Hired by Moose Krause and Dominic “Nappy” Napolitano back when the department was known as Non-Varsity Athletics, O'Leary served as director of intramurals and club sports for the Office of Recreational Sports (commonly known as RecSports).

For nearly four decades he played a major role in defining athletic opportunities for, literally, thousands of Notre Dame students, faculty and staff members.

Many of those who participated in the programs he helped shape probably never knew him. Those who did worked hand in hand with a self-effacing administrator who was more than comfortable in his behind-the-scenes role.

After Napolitano died in 1986, O'Leary became the key organizer for the famed Bengal Bouts, the signature event for Notre Dame's college boxing club. After a brief lull in popularity, the Bengals have drawn more participants in recent years than ever before – even leading to a women's version known as the Baraka Bouts.

Like Ara, Digger, Dan and Lou, Rich had his own seat in the varsity coaches' locker room in the bowels of the Athletic and Convocation Center. A stand-out lacrosse player in his college days, he first took over the Notre Dame men's club program then continued as head coach for eight more years (only one season losing more than they won) after the team achieved varsity status in 1981.

The new Arlotta Lacrosse Stadium that opened its doors in October has the O'Leary name attached to the men's team room that sits adjacent to the locker area. That's because O'Leary's former players thought so much of their mentor that their financial contributions – unbeknownst to O'Leary – made that possible.

Current Irish lacrosse coach Kevin Corrigan, who took over O'Leary's position in 1989, took his predecessor on a golf-cart tour of that area just weeks before his death.

Even more telling are the e-mail tributes that came from O'Leary's former players, many from the far more casual and informal club sport days. Way back when in a different culture for club-level athletics, O'Leary wasn't too far removed from his charges to understand they shared adult beverages on occasion. Yet it's obvious more than a few of his players cast him as something of a father figure during their on-campus growing years.

Their tributes make you laugh and cry at the same time:

From Jim Scarola '78 – “I learned from Rich that great leaders are not defined by titles or positions they have held, but rather by the impact they have had on the people around them.”

From John McLachlan '87 – “Rich would tell us, ‘If you play your best game and they play their worst game, you're still going to lose.’ It wasn't an overly inspirational pep talk, but unfortunately it was accurate once or twice a year.”

From Brian McKeon '85: “Rich was a decent and humble soul who rarely raised his voice in anger and quietly nudged his players to meet their full potential. That is the mark of a leader.”

And, from Mike Lynch '82 – “Rich is what my dad used to call a gentleman's gentleman. A guy you look up to. A guy you want to have a beer with and tell a joke to. A guy with a huge heart, a pure sense of humor and a ton of class. Quite simply, I love the guy.”

The O'Learys (including wife Linda) have been friends to dozens of athletic department staffers over the years – offering access to everything from the backyard pool of their Cedar Street home (facetiously known as the “Cedar Club”), to home-cooked meals for the young, old and in between, to large social extravaganzas such as the Home Olympics.

The new Arlotta Lacrosse Stadium that opened its doors in October has the O'Leary name attached to the men's team room that sits adjacent to the locker area. Several of O'Leary's former players made the financial contributions – unbeknownst to O'Leary – to make that possible.

Rich lost a kidney some years ago, and he quietly reached out to others on campus and in the community fighting kidney disease – including former Notre Dame athletic director Mike Wadsworth – to share his experiences.

He possessed a dry, low-key wit. Yet, as unassuming as he could be, he'd also be the one to do cannonballs into the pool and drive his beloved little MG (with the top down) around South Bend.

When you left the O'Leary home, even when disease was getting the best of him, Rich always walked you to your car and thanked you for coming, as if it was his privilege to have spent time with you.

Little did we realize we were the lucky ones.

Facilities

Arlotta Stadium

Arlotta Stadium is the new home for the Notre Dame men's and women's lacrosse programs. Construction of the facility began in August of 2008 and it held its first event on October 16, 2009 as the Notre Dame men's team played the Iroquois National Team in an exhibition contest. The official stadium dedication was held on October 17, 2009.

The stadium features over 2,000 seats, lights, an artificial-turf field, locker rooms, player lounges, restrooms and concessions areas.

The state-of-the-art facility is named after Notre Dame graduate John Arlotta, president and chief executive officer of Denver-based Coram Inc. He and his wife Bobbie pledged the lead gift toward the stadium, which was built to the east of the Joyce Center as part of the University's new athletics quadrangle. The Arlotta children - Mindy, Andy and Jon - also pledged an additional gift from The Arlotta Family Foundation toward the project. In addition to their generous donation, alumni and friends of the lacrosse programs donated over two million dollars.

The men's lacrosse player lounge, which is adjacent to the locker room, has flat-screen televisions along with abundant seating for studying and relaxing.

The press box has over 20 seats for media and support staff along with three broadcast booths.

John and Bobbie Arlotta

Arlotta Stadium opened its doors in October of 2009. The exterior displays banners of former Irish greats.

The official Arlotta Stadium dedication was held on October 17, 2009.

The field is a top-notch artificial surface.

Arlotta Stadium features over 2,000 permanent seats. Additional seating is available on a grass berm opposite of the stands.

The Isban Auditorium within the Guglielmino Athletics Complex provides an ideal setting for team meetings. The auditorium can seat up to 150 people in large chairback seats.

The Haggar Fitness Center, which is shared by both the Loftus Center and the Guglielmino Athletics Complex, features 25,000 square feet of strength and conditioning space with state-of-the-art weight equipment, a 50-yard Mondo track for speed training, a 45-yard by 18-yard Prestige Turf athletic surface for team workouts and an updated sound and lighting system that features six plasma television screens.

The Loftus Sports Center, one of the six indoor facilities in the country that plays host to Division I men's lacrosse games, is the site of Irish lacrosse games when inclement weather precludes them from being contested outdoors.

Loftus Sports Center

The Loftus Sports Center, combined with Arlotta Stadium, gives the University of Notre Dame some of the top lacrosse facilities in the country. Constructed in 1988, the Loftus Sports Center is one of just six indoor facilities in the country that plays host to Division I men's lacrosse games.

The Loftus Sports Center provides Notre Dame with one of the top multi-purpose indoor facilities in the nation. The Meyo Field is permanently marked for lacrosse competition and is used as a backup site for games and practice in the event of inclement weather.

The building is named after John R. Loftus of St. Charles, Ill., a 1949 graduate of the University. Loftus is chief executive of JRL, a real estate, investment and construction firm. Loftus is also a member of the Notre Dame Monogram Club, having played on the varsity basketball team in 1944, 1948 and 1949.

The field and surrounding track are named for Ray and Marie Meyo of Brecksville, Ohio. Meyo, who graduated from Notre Dame in 1964, is president and chief executive officer of Telxon Corp. in Akron, Ohio.

In addition to the Meyo Track and Field in the Loftus Center, the Irish lacrosse squad also benefits from the Haggar Fitness Center located in the facility. Equipped with more than 40,000 pounds of free weights, it is considered by national strength coaches to be one of the largest, and finest, college training facilities in the nation.

Loftus Sports Center saw its first intercollegiate lacrosse action on April 27, 1988, when Notre Dame posted a 10-7 victory over Michigan State.

A Championship with Meaning

By Todd Rassas

I had a tough start to my experience with the World Team. My office was in 7 World Trade Center and was destroyed due to the attack on Sept. 11. I was sitting at my desk at the time the first plane impacted the World Trade Center. After hearing the explosion we evacuated the building.

At this time a few agents and I ran towards the bottom of the World Trade Center to set up a triage center. While waiting for the injured to come out, we had to move under a walkway to avoid being hit by people and debris falling from the top floors. I remember bandaging a lady's hand, then hearing the second plane accelerate right before it exploded above us. I just hugged the pylon that held up the walkway in hope that the plane wouldn't crash down on us.

At this point I ran a block north to help with all of the emergency personnel trying to get closer. About 15 minutes later I ran from the first tower that fell.

A number of agents regrouped and returned to look for survivors. We got about a block and a half away from the remaining tower when I saw the top floor drop. I turned and started running for my life. All I could think of was my dad saying "when you have the ball, never look back because it makes you run slower." I thought I was going to get crushed. If the tower would have fallen a little more towards the Hudson River I would not be here today. I feel very fortunate to have survived this attack. The victims of Sept. 11 are in my thoughts and prayers every day.

I spent the next four weeks at Ground Zero while almost everyone else on my U.S. team was taking part in fall practice. The fall tournament was probably the worst time for me to be playing lacrosse. I don't even recall all of the teams that we played.

Though I was not ready to play then, I knew there would be no better time to wear red, white, and blue. I think every athlete has a dream at one time or another to wear his or her country's jersey. I remember when all this started Darren Lowe said, "Don't ever underestimate someone playing for his or her country." Every time I put my jersey on, I thought of someone from Sept. 11, or someone who told me, "You can't," or my family who traveled around the world to watch me play a game that I love.

This team was motivated by the so-called lacrosse scholars that predicted us to lose. I took criticism more personally than most of the others on the team. Growing up in Illinois, I have always had to battle the critics. I have six motivational letters at my house. The first is a rejection letter from the University of Notre Dame. After giving up a year of competitive lacrosse and spending a year at Holy Cross College in Indiana, I now have an acceptance letter from Notre Dame. The third letter is a rejection letter from the United States

Secret Service based on lack of experience. Two years later I was employed by the USSS. Finally I have a letter from U.S. Lacrosse explaining how I didn't make the cut for a tryout for the 1998 U.S. Team. Now there is a letter saying I made the team and a gold medal that sits with that rejection letter.

This experience was so enjoyable because the team was told that we were the underdogs from the start. Someone e-mailed me and said that we were being displayed as the "Bad News Bears." We had to bond together.

There was not one guy on our team trying to be a superstar, well at least on the field – some could argue Ryan Mollett and Ryan Boyle were superstars in the social arena. At times on defense, Mollett, John Glatzel, and I were begging someone to shoot the ball. The offense was so unselfish in its play, its motto seemed to be, "I don't want to shoot. You shoot."

We played our first game against the Iroquois Nationals and won 22-6. Then we read an Australian newspaper with some not-so-favorable quotes from the Australian coach, along the lines that it was the Australians' year and the U.S. team is over-rated and under-talented. In warm-ups, instead of running around their half of the field, the Australians took a lap all the way around to our bench. Putting it lightly, I don't think many of our guys, especially Nicky Polanco, appreciated it. From then on it seemed as though the game was over before it started, and we won 22-7. Not too bad for being over-rated and under-talented.

Then we had to get geared up for Canada. This game was the worst display of lacrosse that I have ever seen. Canada had nearly 30 minutes of penalties. Canada was taking cheap shots and late hits to take some of our players out of the game. At one point we had a 6-on-2. We won 14-9, but everyone was disappointed with the victory due to the way that the game was played.

Next we beat England and then the Iroquois in the semi-finals to set up another game with Canada for the championship.

Todd Rassas was a three-time All-America defenseman at Notre Dame who played an integral role in helping the U.S. men's lacrosse team win the 2002 International Lacrosse Federation (ILF) Championship in Perth, Australia, serving as team captain. Rassas also works as a Secret Service agent and took part in the 2006 World Championship.

We had a team meeting and went over the match-ups. I was going to cover Paul Gait. I think one way or another every lacrosse player models their game after one of the Gait brothers. I had a poster of them next to my bed when I was in high school. For me, a kid from Northfield, Ill., covering Paul Gait in his last game for the world championship, even playing with the flu, I was still excited for the match-up.

We started the game with a three-goal lead. Then Canada made some plays to come back. It was back and forth until Canada pulled ahead by two to end the half. It was the first time this Team USA was trailing, and we were getting a little hesitant.

After regrouping we pulled ahead in the third quarter. Doug Shanahan played out of his mind in the fourth quarter. Canada realized they were short on time and called a stick check on Mike Powell. Mike's stick was illegal, and then Jimmy Butler (our team stick doctor) countered their move with a stick check on Canada's John Tavares. It was found illegal and since he scored the last goal it was taken off the board. From there we were able to run out the clock and ended up winning 18-15.

At the beginning of this quest for the gold medal we were picked to finish second or third. "Team USA can't win," said the writers. I kept all the articles. I, along with this team, took the challenge. I am happy to say we are the World Champions! Memories of Nicky Polanco in leopard-skin sandals and a red, white and blue head band, as well as the punishment Trevor Tierney had after he couldn't get past the ladies tee on the golf course will be hard memories to forget. I miss sitting on the bus and playing what-if scenarios about the Secret Service with Matt Streibel, Scott Doyle and Ryan Boyle. It was a classy group of guys that I will never forget. I can't indicate how much pride I had wearing a USA jersey after my 9-11 experience. I hope my World Team experience motivates all those who at one time have been told that they "can't."

Season Preview

Senior defenseman Sam Barnes is one of six returning starters for the Fighting Irish, who open the campaign ranked ninth in the Inside Lacrosse Preseason Coaches Poll.

Fifth-year senior Scott Rodgers, a third-team All-American in 2009, will again be a steady presence for the Irish between the pipes. He led all Division I goalies in goals-against average (6.14) and save percentage (.663) one season ago.

Last season's 15-1 record will go down as one of the best season's in the 30-year history of Notre Dame men's lacrosse. However, Fighting Irish head coach Kevin Corrigan knows that success achieved last season does not automatically have a bearing on what will happen during the 2010 campaign.

"Like any other year, you don't start where you left off, you start all over," says Corrigan. "At the same time, we have a number of guys who've experienced a lot of success over the past two years and I think that comes with an appreciation for the process and what it takes to get that done. They have high demands of each other. The success we've had will hopefully provide our guys with a lot of incentive and a blueprint on how to get back there and do it again."

A new era for Notre Dame men's lacrosse will begin in 2010 as the Irish will begin play in Arlotta Stadium. The stadium features over 2,000 seats, lights, an artificial-turf field, locker rooms, player lounges, restrooms and concession areas. The state-of-the-art facility is named after Notre Dame graduate John Arlotta, president and chief executive officer of Denver-based Coram Inc. He and his wife Bobbie pledged the lead gift toward the stadium.

"It's an unbelievable facility for our guys and for our team to do what we do every day," states Corrigan. "I can't wait to be in there with a crowd and play some games in there this spring."

A new stadium will not be the only significant change for the Fighting Irish. After spending the past 16 years as a member of the Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL), Notre Dame will begin play in the BIG EAST Conference, which is entering its first season of sponsoring men's lacrosse. Joining Notre Dame in the BIG EAST will be defending national champion Syracuse along with Georgetown, Providence, Rutgers, St. John's and Villanova. The seven teams will play a six-game single round-robin regular-season schedule.

"The BIG EAST is a huge move for us," adds Corrigan. "It means we're going to have that identity. It means that we're going to have some of those top schools on our schedule year in and year out. I think it's good for us and it's good for lacrosse and we're

Irish Set To Embark On New Era

Notre Dame to begin play in Arlotta Stadium and the BIG EAST

extremely excited about establishing some new rivalries."

Here is a position-by-position and schedule breakdown for the 2010 Fighting Irish:

ATTACK

Senior Neal Hicks, who is one of four team captains this season, is the headliner for the Irish on the attack. Hicks posted a team-high 43 points last season on 25 goals and 18 assists. He is the lone returning starter at the attack.

"Neal Hicks has done a really good job of assuming some leadership this year," says Corrigan. "We're really excited about everything he's doing. Between the lines we've known what we can get from Neal, but he's become a great leader for our team on and off the field. On the field, he's kind of stepped up and taken control on that end of the field. He's playing with more poise than he ever has. I'm really excited about what he's doing."

Seniors Matt Ciambella and Colin Igoe will be two of those players looked to step into a larger role this season. Ciambella played in every game one year ago and notched four goals and two assists. Igoe missed all of last season due to a knee injury and he only played in four games the year before after suffering a knee injury. However, he did manage to tally three goals and two assists in that brief stint in 2008. If healthy, he will certainly be a big contributor for the Irish this season.

Two other juniors that will give the Fighting Irish valuable depth are Ryan Alexander and Tom Connor. Connor started his Notre Dame career at attack, but switched to midfield last season. He saw action in one game a season ago. Alexander played in two contests in 2009, which was his first campaign with the Irish after transferring from Union College.

Sophomore Nicholas Beattie came on strong at the end of last season and he will no doubt have a huge impact on the Irish this season. Beattie tallied six goals and three assists in eight games as a rookie in 2009. He plays well in the crease, but also can add a different dimension to the Irish offense.

"Nick Beattie gives us a different kind of crease guy," says Corrigan. "He's an attackman, not just a crease guy. It's going to be a little bit different in how we play down there and things we do. Nick's ability to dodge and shoot with some range, as well as be tough inside, is going to give us a guy that can contribute in a lot of ways and help us play a little bit differently."

Sean Rogers is another member of the sophomore class that figures to have an increased role this season. Due to an injury, Rogers was limited to one game last season, but will no doubt have a much bigger impact this year.

"Sean Rogers is another lefty along with Colin Igoe," states Corrigan. "That was a problem for us last year, we played three righties on our attack. Having both Sean (Rogers) and Colin (Igoe) back is going to make a big difference for us."

The Irish welcome in two freshmen in the attack. Ryan Foley hails from Glen Ridge, N.J. and Delbarton High School, while Andy Will is from Olney, Md. and Bullis School. Corrigan feels both student-athletes have bright futures at Notre Dame and will be pushing for playing time this year.

MIDFIELD

Notre Dame boasts a significant amount of depth in the midfield. The Irish will not only be relying on a core group of veterans, but also a talented freshman class.

The Fighting Irish welcome back two starters on the first midfield line. Senior Grant Krebs is coming off a season in which he earned honorable mention All-America honors as he led all Notre Dame midfielders with 38 points on 29 goals and nine assists.

"Grant can do so many things well because he really is a guy with a great sense and feel for the game," comments Corrigan. "He's a guy that a lot of people can play with because he makes himself easy to play with. He's kind of evolved from a guy who tried to fit in with everyone to a guy who can really be a leader on that end of the field."

Joining Krebs once again on the first midfield will be junior Zach Brenneman. Last season, Brenneman registered 17 goals and seven assists. The third member of the first midfield will be junior David Earl, who played in every game one year ago and notched 15 points on 12 goals and three assists.

"I love the fact that we have three two-way middies," says Corrigan. "We've got guys with different skill sets and different strengths and abilities. Even physically they are three different kinds of guys. It really makes them a unique kind of matchup problem. We need them to be an anchor and we need consistency out of them because we're going to be playing a lot of younger guys this year."

Notre Dame will rely heavily on the versatility of senior Kelly McKenna, who will serve as a team captain this season. McKenna has played both defensive midfield and in the regular midfield rotation along with facing-off during his time with the Irish. As a part of the second midfield line last season, he recorded three goals and four assists. Corrigan and the coaching staff really like his intelligence and leadership.

Providing experience at the defensive midfield position will be senior Adam Felicetti. He played in every game last season and helped the Irish boast the top defense in the nation. Felicetti also contributed on the offensive end of the field with one goal and two assists. He possesses multiple skills and a great understanding of the Notre Dame defense.

Notre Dame appears to be strong once again in the faceoff X with the return of senior Trevor Sipperly. Sipperly ranked 13th nationally in that category last season with a .559 winning percentage. He has continued to improve his game and will be a valuable asset for the Fighting Irish this season.

"Trevor Sipperly has really worked to become a better faceoff guy," explains Corrigan. "I feel he could be one of the best faceoff guys in the country. He's really excited about assuming a bigger role this year and we are too. He's become more poised with the ball once he gets it off the ground. He's gotten better at the defensive end as far as on-ball and off-ball defense so now there's not a weakness in his game."

A trio of juniors will add key depth to the midfield rotation. Twins Billy and Patrick Maloney, along with Taylor Tripucka all have game experience that will allow them to step up when asked by the coaching staff.

Another junior in the mix as a defensive midfielder is Tim Bemmer, who saw time in nine games last season. Bemmer spent the fall semester studying abroad in Australia and came back in great shape and will certainly challenge for playing time this season.

The sophomore class features two midfielder players that saw significant playing time during their rookie campaigns, yet in different roles than what they will be in this season. Eric Keppeler and Max Pfeifer combined to play in 22 games last season. Keppeler played in a defensive role last year and will move into the midfield rotation this season. Pfeifer competed on attack as a freshman, but will be a valuable part of the midfield unit in 2010. Corrigan feels both Keppeler and Pfeifer will provide a spark to the second midfield line.

Fellow sophomore Ben Ashenburg played in four games last season, yet Corrigan feels he is arguably the most improved player on the team. Ashenburg will expect to push for playing time this season as will his classmates Michael Rogers and Devon Dobson. Rogers is coming off an injury-plagued season, while Dobson, who also was injured during a portion of the 2009 campaign, saw action in five contests as a freshman and he is part of a very deep defensive midfield unit.

Providing additional depth and versatility to the defensive midfield is freshman Quinn Cully, who was a U.S. Lacrosse All-American. Corrigan and the coaching staff envision a bright future for Cully because of his physical presence and his ability to learn quickly.

Cully is just one part of Notre Dame's talented freshman midfield class. Steve Murphy, Pat Cotter and Ty Kimball expect to have a large impact on Fighting Irish lacrosse this year and in the years to come. Cotter and Murphy both were Under Armour All-Americans in 2009.

"Steve Murphy is a force on the field," says Corrigan. "He's a physical presence. He's a lefty and is a very skilled guy who sees the field well and is a determined dodger. I think he's going to play a lot for us this year."

"Pat Cotter has good all-around skills. There isn't much that he can't do pretty well. He's an easy guy to play with and he knows how to play the game. Ty Kimball is a terrific physical specimen and very skilled. Once he learns how we play and how we want him to play, he's going to see more and more opportunities come his way because there are a lot of things he can do well."

DEFENSE

The Notre Dame defense is coming off a season in which it led all NCAA Division I teams with a program record 6.19 goals-against average. Several key cogs of that Irish defense return to help the Fighting Irish again in 2010.

Senior Sam Barnes and junior Kevin Ridgway started all 16 games last season at close defense and they will look to pick up where they left off. Barnes copped honorable mention All-America honors one season ago for his efforts. Senior Mike Creighton figures to join the duo down low. Creighton, a team captain, played last season at long-stick midfielder and notched one goal and two assists.

"Sam Barnes and Mike Creighton are two guys who have really figured out how to play at this level," states Corrigan. "As a result, they're two of the better defensemen in the country. They are both athletic and tough. They are very smart and communicate well. They can play a variety of roles in our defense and they're great guys to build around at that end of the field."

"Kevin Ridgway has become probably as difficult as a matchup that you can have. He's not going to take the ball away from you, but you're not going to get around him very much. He's very consistent and he does a lot of things well."

Seniors Brant Howell, Chip Lanser and Dan Schmitt will provide depth to the defense. Howell and Schmitt have seen limited playing time during their careers, while Lanser has battled injuries during his Fighting Irish tenure, but he hopes to stay healthy and contribute in any fashion necessary. All three student-athletes will provide valuable leadership to the squad.

Occupying the long-stick midfielder spots will be junior Andrew Irving and sophomore Bobby Smith. Irving played in every contest last season and registered three points on a goal and two assists. Smith saw time in one game and collected an assist.

"Andrew Irving is a playmaker," comments Corrigan. "He's a guy who just has a knack for making plays at both ends of the field. He's savvy and he gives us something different at that end of the field where we have a lot of consistent, determined and diligent guys. Bobby Smith is like Andrew Irving with his play-making abilities."

Jake Brems, Andrew Gleason and Kevin Randall are three other members of the sophomore class that will give the Fighting Irish depth on defense. Brems was a contributor in eight games last season, yet is still overcoming a knee injury. Corrigan feels Gleason joins Ashenburg as one of the most improved players on the team. Gleason saw time in two games last season, but figures to have a larger impact this year. Randall played in eight games, including two starts, as a freshman and the coaching staff will rely on his experience and all-around skill set to help the squad in 2010.

Notre Dame welcomes in freshmen Tyler Andersen and Matt Miller to the defensive unit. Andersen can play up top or down low and Corrigan feels he can help the team with that flexibility. Miller is a smart player that learns quickly. The duo will work on developing their games this season as they provide depth to the defense.

GOAL

Notre Dame welcomes back Scott Rodgers in goal. Rodgers garnered third-team All-America honors last season in addition to being named the GWLL Player of the Year. He led the nation in goals-against average (6.14) and save percentage (.663).

"There are a lot of excellent goalies out there, but none of them were better than Scott Rodgers last year," comments Corrigan. "The challenge for him is to come back and do it again. He's got an experienced defense in front of him. He's not a guy who's going rest on anything. He's a very hard worker and he's assumed a huge leadership role on our team. It was great to see him have such a great season last year. We know he'll be playing at a high level this year."

There is plenty of competition for the back-up goalie spot. Senior Brendan Moore has impressed Corrigan with his development and will certainly be part of the mix. Moore has played in seven games during his career.

"It's unbelievable how much Brendan Moore has improved in every way over the last four years," states Corrigan. "He's really matured and gives us tremendous competition in practice every day."

Also vying to back-up Rodgers is sophomore Colt Power. Power saw action in three games as a rookie. He made 10 saves, while surrendering three goals. The coaching staff loves Power's work ethic and his determination to become a better all-around goalie.

Freshman John Kemp, the brother of former Irish All-America goalie Joey Kemp ('08), is the lone newcomer to the goalie mix. The younger Kemp resembles his older brother with his poise between the pipes. Corrigan feels that Kemp's biggest asset is that he does not have any glaring weaknesses and he will continue to improve into a top-notch goalie.

"Right now we have a great competition for our second goalie spot," says Corrigan. "We have three legitimate contenders who are working hard and bring a little something different to the table. That's a great situation for us."

SCHEDULE

The Fighting Irish have 12 regular-season games on the slate beginning with a tilt at Duke on Feb. 20 and ending with a home BIG EAST showdown against Syracuse on May 1 at the brand new Arlotta Stadium.

Following the season-opener, Notre Dame returns home to face annual rival Penn State on Feb. 28. That tilt is scheduled to take place inside the Loftus Sports Center.

The Fighting Irish will take part in the Konica Minolta Face-Off Classic on March 6 at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md. Notre Dame and Loyola will be the third and final game of the day. The first contest of the event will feature Maryland against Duke and that will be followed by Princeton versus Johns Hopkins.

Notre Dame will travel to Houston, Texas to face Fairfield on March 13 at the Kinkaid School. This will mark the second straight season that the Irish have played a game in the state of Texas. Last season, the Irish topped Vermont in Dallas.

The first regular-season game at Arlotta Stadium is slated for March 16 as Notre Dame will play host to Denver. The Irish and Pioneers are no strangers since they spent the previous 11 seasons together in the GWLL. The Fighting Irish will welcome in another former GWLL rival as Ohio State comes to town on March 20.

The final six games of the 2010 campaign all will be BIG EAST showdowns for the Irish. Notre Dame's first-ever BIG EAST clash will come against Rutgers on March 27 at Arlotta Stadium.

A two-game road trip will take the Irish to Villanova on April 3 and Georgetown on April 11. Notre Dame returns home for the first-ever meeting with Providence on April 17. The Fighting Irish will visit St. John's on April 24.

Syracuse, the winner of the past two NCAA Championships, will make its first-ever trip to Notre Dame for the regular-season finale on May 1. The two teams last met in the quarterfinals of the 2008 NCAA Tournament and the Orange escaped with an 11-9 victory.

"If you look at our first five or six games there just isn't a break there," says Corrigan. "I think everyone of those teams could end up in the top 15 and Duke is a preseason No. 1. When you play that as a run-up to the conference like the BIG EAST, I think we have our work cut out for us. We're looking forward to the challenge of playing that many good teams and hopefully do what we need to do to prepare ourselves to be at our best throughout the year and going into the end of the year."

THE BAGPIPES ... AN IRISH TRADITION

A unique tradition to the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team is the playing of the bagpipes. Prior to each game, the Fighting Irish take the field as one of their teammates plays the instrument. The tradition was started by Sean Meehan in the late 1990's and has been passed down ever since. Other Irish bagpipers have included Chad DeBolt, Daniel Hickey and 2009 graduate Regis McDermott.

Coaching Staff

In 21 seasons at Notre Dame, Kevin Corrigan has posted a 196-96 record and led the Fighting Irish to 15 conference titles and 14 NCAA Championship appearances.

Head Coach

Kevin Corrigan

Head Coach
22nd Season
Virginia '88

Kevin Corrigan is set to begin his 22nd season on the Fighting Irish sideline in 2010. Since his arrival on campus in 1988, Corrigan has built Notre Dame into one of the premier men's lacrosse programs in the nation. Few coaches in the country boast a résumé dotted with such team and individual success over an extended period of time.

Inheriting a program that had never earned a berth in the NCAA Championship, Corrigan has made the Irish a staple in the postseason. His tenure has been highlighted by quarterfinal appearances in 1995, 2000 and 2008 along with the school's first-ever final four trip in '01. Notre Dame has garnered 14 invitations to the NCAA Championship since 1990, including a current run of four straight trips. The Fighting Irish have received a national seed and a first-round home game in each of the past two NCAA Tournaments.

Corrigan's Irish squads have won 15 conference titles and finished in the top 20 of the national rankings on 17 occasions, including in 16 of the last 17 campaigns. Notre Dame has been adept at winning big games under Corrigan, registering 50 victories over nationally-ranked opponents, including 13 vs. top-10 foes. The Irish have an overall record of 196-96 (.671) during Corrigan's tenure.

Corrigan led the Irish to the program's first undefeated regular season in 2009 and finished with an overall record of 15-1. The win total and winning percentage from the '09 campaign were school records. The Fighting Irish also matched program standards by reaching #2 in the national polls and having five players receive All-America honors.

Along with being named the Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) coach of the year in 2009, Corrigan was honored with the Frenchy Julien Service Award from the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA). The award is presented in honor of former Chief Referee, Joseph R.

"Frenchy" Julien for outstanding and continuous service to the sport.

Irish student-athletes who have played under Corrigan have been highly decorated. At least one Notre Dame player has garnered All-America accolades in each of the last 17 years, with 24 individuals earning a total of 41 All-America honors. Six Irish players have been named the GWLL player of the year, while Notre Dame student-athletes have gained all-conference mention on 117 occasions, an average of more than five per season. Corrigan was named the GWLL coach of the year five times, including in 2009, which was the final season for the conference.

The 2010 campaign will open a new era for Fighting Irish lacrosse as they begin play in the BIG EAST Conference and in the new Arlotta Stadium. Playing in a top-level league and in the multi-million dollar facility will help Corrigan keep the Notre Dame program among the nation's best.

Corrigan has continued the tradition of academic success for the Irish men's lacrosse program. Since first competing on the varsity level in 1981, every Irish lacrosse senior has graduated. Three players since 1997 have gained Academic All-America honors. A total of nine Notre Dame student-athletes have been named Scholar All-Americans by the USILA during Corrigan's tenure. Most recently, Michael Podgajny and Joey Kemp earned that honor in 2008.

Many of the best players in Notre Dame history have played under Corrigan, as his graduates include each of the top five point scorers in the program's history, six of the top seven goal scorers and each of the top six players on the career assist list.

Playing beyond the college level has been a reality for a number of Corrigan's players. Twenty have been a member of a professional team in either Major League Lacrosse or the National Lacrosse League, while four of his Irish players have earned spots on United States national teams. Three of them have come away with gold medals, while the fourth, D.J. Driscoll, will compete for the U.S. at the 2010 Federation of International Lacrosse World Championship in Manchester, England.

The pinnacle of Corrigan's coaching career thus far came in 2001 when the Irish rose to an all-time high national ranking of #2 before finishing at a program-best #4 and advancing to the NCAA semifinals for the first time in Notre Dame history.

En route to its seventh GWLL championship in '01, Notre Dame beat the likes of perennial lacrosse powers Virginia (11-8) and Loyola (10-7) on the road, as the Irish started the season 5-0. The only blemish on their regular-season schedule was an 11-10 overtime loss at Hofstra. After concluding the regular season with a 12-1 mark, Notre Dame was awarded the fifth seed in the 12-team championship field, marking the first NCAA seeding in Irish history. A 12-7 first-round victory over Bucknell and a first-ever win against fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins (13-9) paved the way for a storied NCAA Tournament run. Notre Dame's fairytale '01 campaign ended with a 12-5 loss to Syracuse in the semifinals.

A program-record five players earned USILA All-America honors in '01, with attackman Tom Glatzel becoming the school's first-ever first-team selection, as well as one of five finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy, given to the nation's top player. Goalie Kirk Howell copped second-team All-America accolades while midfielder Steve Bishko was a third-team selection. In addition, attackman David Ulrich, the GWLL player of the year, and defenseman Mike Adams were named to the honorable-mention list.

Adams also became the program's third CoSIDA Academic All-American, when he garnered first-team honors in the '01 men's spring at-large program.

The accomplishments of the '01 team were even more impressive considering they came when the Irish program lacked any grant-in-aid scholarships. Shortly thereafter, it was announced by athletics director Kevin White that all Notre Dame programs would begin a process of offering the maximum number of grants-in-aid allowed by the NCAA, making future trips to the final four by the Irish lacrosse team a greater possibility.

After leading the Irish to a 7-6 record in his first season, 1989, Corrigan's 1990 squad made history, gaining the school's first-ever USILA national ranking (17th in the final poll) and earning Notre Dame's first invitation to the NCAA Championship.

Head Coach

In 1992, Notre Dame tied the then-school record for wins, going 10-5, and made its second appearance in the NCAAs, winning the Great Lakes Conference championship and the West Region bid for the second time in three seasons.

In 1993, the Irish made their third trip to the NCAA Tournament, re-established the season victory record with 11 and rose as high as 12th in the national polls, completing the season at 15th. Defenseman Mike Iorio became the first player in Irish history to be an All-American, copping third-team honors. Corrigan wound up the season with an invitation to coach the North team in the North-South All-Star Game. His North squad took home a 28-16 victory.

In 1994, Corrigan guided the Irish to one of their best seasons in the program's history. In winning its third straight conference title – and the first for the newly-formed Great Western Lacrosse League – Notre Dame posted a 10-2 overall mark, which included a 12-9 win over #17 Penn State and a thrilling 12-11 overtime victory over Michigan State clinching an NCAA bid for Corrigan's squad that finished 14th in the final poll. He also was selected GWLL coach of the year for the second time in three seasons.

His 1994 team also boasted two All-America honorees in GWLL player of the year Iorio and attackman Randy Colley, marking the first time in the program's history that multiple Irish players were named in the same year.

Corrigan helped Notre Dame reach new heights in '95, notching its first-ever NCAA Tournament win in a come-from-behind 12-10 victory at #5 Duke, which marked the first time a team from the West had won an NCAA game. The Irish finished the 1995 campaign with a 9-5 record and final ranking of 15th, as the Irish won their fourth straight league championship. Notre Dame's season culminated with an appearance in the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals, where the Irish lost to eventual national runner-up Maryland, 14-11.

Iorio and Colley, the '95 GWLL player of the year, both earned All-America honors again. Iorio was a second-team honoree, as he became Notre Dame's first three-time All-American, while Colley earned honorable-mention accolades for the second consecutive year and finished his career as the school's all-time leading scorer. His 273 points (173 G, 100 A) were 87 better than the previous Irish record.

For the first time in school history, three Notre Dame players earned All-America honors in the same season in '96, as Todd Rassas, a defenseman, was a third-team selection and midfielder Jimmy Keenan and goalkeeper Alex Cade were tabbed honorable mention. Notre Dame also cracked the national top 10 for the first time ever, climbing to seventh in the USILA poll in mid-April.

Notre Dame's highest final USILA ranking at the time came in 1997, as the Irish ended ninth. That campaign saw Notre Dame earn its first-ever victory over a top-five opponent, as the Irish defeated #4 Hofstra 10-9 at Moose Krause Stadium en route to a 9-3 overall record.

In 1998, Rassas was named the GWLL Player of the Year and became the school's second three-time

All-American when he earned third-team honors. Keenan was an honorable-mention selection that same season for the third consecutive year.

A year later, attackman Chris Dusseau finished his career as Notre Dame's second all-time leading goal scorer (113), while being named honorable mention All-America.

Corrigan reached another pinnacle in 2000, as his Irish upset fifth-ranked Loyola 15-13 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The win marked the first for Corrigan in 10 tries against the Greyhounds and the first-ever victory for a Notre Dame team in 11 games against Loyola. The victory also avenged a 12-2 loss to Loyola at home during the regular season. Notre Dame dropped its NCAA Tournament quarterfinal game to fourth-ranked Johns Hopkins, 15-11, but finished the season 10-4 and undefeated in the GWLL.

In 2003, the Irish went 9-5 and won a share of a fifth consecutive GWLL title, but just missed an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. With the core of that squad returning for the '04 season, Notre Dame opened the campaign with a 17-7 win over Penn State, which allowed them to debut at eighth in the USILA rankings and then move up to #5, becoming just the second Notre Dame team to reach the top five. A pair of disappointing last-second 9-8 losses – against #17 Ohio State and at #3 Maryland – caused the Irish to barely miss the NCAAs again with a 7-5 mark. Pat Walsh became the first player in school history to earn All-America honors as a freshman, being named an honorable mention selection in '03 before gaining third-team accolades in '04. He also was one of the 15 nominees for the Tewaaron Trophy in his sophomore campaign.

In 2005, Walsh again was a Tewaaron Trophy nominee and copped All-America honors for the third straight season, as he was an honorable-mention selection along with Driscoll. Driscoll also was named the GWLL defensive player of the year and was joined on the all-GWLL first team by Walsh. Freshman goaltender Joey Kemp led the nation with a 0.652 save-percentage and garnered all-GWLL second-team honors.

The Irish finished the 2005 season with a 7-4 overall mark and a 3-2 record in the GWLL, which placed them third in the conference. Notre Dame had a win over #21 Penn State (14-6) in the season-opener and would also claim key wins over #10 North Carolina (9-7) and #13 Hofstra (9-8) throughout the course of the season. The victory over North Carolina occurred at the The First 4 Invitational in the Home Depot Center in Carson, Calif. Notre Dame would reach as high as #9 in the USILA poll, making it the third straight season that the Irish had reached the top-10.

In 2006, the Fighting Irish returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since their trek to the semifinals in 2001. Notre Dame posted a 10-5 mark overall, including a 3-2 record in the GWLL to finish second in the conference. The Irish fell to #1, and eventual national champion, Virginia 14-10 in the first round of the postseason. The four-point margin was the closest outcome for the Cavaliers during their four-game run to the title and the second-closest margin over the course of their undefeated campaign.

With Kevin Corrigan entering his 22nd season as head coach of the Fighting Irish men's lacrosse program in 2010, he is the 12th coach in Notre Dame history to guide a team for at least 22 seasons. Here is a breakdown of the longest coaching tenures in Notre Dame history ...

For the 14th consecutive season, the Irish had at least one player earn All-America distinction as Driscoll was named to the USILA second team and Kemp was an honorable mention pick. The duo also was among the five Irish players named to the all-GWLL first team. That marked the fourth time that Notre Dame had placed at least five student-athletes on the all-GWLL first team. The Fighting Irish put a school-record seven on the list in 2001 and 2009.

The 2007 season saw the Fighting Irish post an 11-4 record, including a perfect 5-0 mark in the league to win their 10th GWLL title and their first outright championship since 2001. Notre Dame made its second straight trip to the NCAA Championship, yet history repeated itself as the Irish fell to eventual national champion Johns Hopkins, 11-10, in an overtime thriller. The Fighting Irish concluded the campaign ranked 11th in the final USILA poll. On the season, the Irish ranked fourth nationally in both scoring offense (11.65) and scoring defense (6.66).

Accolades were abundant for the '07 Irish as they boasted five honorable-mention All-America honorees in Kemp, Will Yeatman, Brian Hubschmann, Sean Dougherty and Podgajny. A total of eight Notre Dame student-athletes earned all-GWLL recognition.

The Fighting Irish swept all of the major GWLL postseason awards for the 2007 season. Corrigan was tabbed the GWLL coach of the year for the fourth time, while Kemp was named the GWLL player of the year and Yeatman was selected as the newcomer of the year. Following a 12-6 win at Ohio State that clinched the '07 GWLL title for the Irish, Corrigan was named the US Lacrosse national coach of the week.

In 2008, Corrigan guided the Irish back to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship with an 8-7 overtime triumph of Colgate in the first round. The Irish were seeded sixth in the tournament and played host to the Raiders in the opening round, making it the first time the program had ever hosted an NCAA Championship contest. Syracuse, the eventual national champion, upended the Irish, 11-9, in the quarterfinals in Ithaca, N.Y. That marked the third straight season that Notre Dame had fallen to the eventual NCAA champion in postseason play. Overall, Notre Dame went 14-3 and finished the season ranked fifth in the final USILA poll.

The Fighting Irish captured their second straight GWLL regular-season title in 2008 as they were among a three-way tie atop the league standings with a 4-1 mark. Notre Dame garnered the top seed for the inaugural GWLL postseason tournament and the Irish took home the hardware with victories over Quinnipiac and Ohio State in Birmingham, Mich.

Four Irish players (Kemp, Dougherty, Podgajny, Hoff) were tabbed as All-Americans in 2008. Kemp became just the second first-team All-American in program history and the first goalie to be named a first-teamer as he received the 2008 Kelly Award for Outstanding Goalie in Division I from the USILA. Dougherty was a third-team pick, while Podgajny and Hoff were honorable-mention selections. Those four Fighting Irish players were among six that received all-GWLL honors. The Irish ranked fifth nationally in both goals scored per game (12.09) and goals allowed per game (7.04) in 2008. Hoff became just the second player in program history to notch back-to-back 40-goal seasons. He tallied 40 as a sophomore in 2007 and followed it with 41 in 2008. Hoff concluded his career in 2009 second on Notre Dame's all-time goals scored list with 134 tallies.

The 2009 campaign was a record-setting one for Corrigan and the Fighting Irish. Along with establishing program records for wins (15) and winning percentage (.938), Notre Dame ranked first among all NCAA Division I teams in goals-against average (6.19) and winning percentage, while tying for 10th in goals per game (11.00). Senior goalie Scott Rodgers was first nationally in goals-against average (6.14) and save percentage (.663).

In addition to being named the 2009 GWLL player of the year, Rodgers was one of five Irish players to garner All-America honors. Joining him on the USILA third team were Hoff and Regis McDermott (D). Sam Barnes (D) and Grant Krebs (M) were honorable mention picks. Those five student-athletes were among seven to receive first-team all-league accolades.

After completing a 13-0 regular season, the Irish defeated Quinnipiac and Ohio State to capture the second annual GWLL tournament. That was the 15th conference title for Corrigan during his Notre Dame tenure. The Irish received the No. 7 seed for the 2009 NCAA Championship, making it the third time that a Corrigan-led Notre Dame squad was seeded for the national postseason tournament. The Fighting Irish hosted an NCAA Tournament game for the second straight season, yet fell to Maryland, 7-3, in the first round to end the historic run.

Corrigan not only has seen his team's excel on the field but also in the community. Another piece of hardware that the 2008 Irish squad received was the Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The Irish have been very active in the South Bend area, including a mentorship program at Jefferson Middle School.

Corrigan was acknowledged for his contributions to the Irish lacrosse program when Notre Dame's Monogram Club awarded him an honorary monogram in 2000.

An assistant at Virginia for two years, Corrigan became just the second head coach in Notre Dame's history on Aug. 23, 1988.

A graduate of the University of Virginia, Corrigan assisted the Cavaliers during both the 1987 and '88 seasons under head coach Jim "Ace" Adams.

During a three-year playing career at Virginia, Corrigan scored five goals and registered six assists. He played in 20 games as a midfielder. In his sophomore season in 1979, the Cavaliers reached the NCAA final before losing to Johns Hopkins in overtime.

This is Corrigan's second stint as a head coach. He directed Randolph-Macon College (Va.), a Division III program, for two seasons, compiling a 10-15 record in 1985 and 1986. He previously served as an assistant at Randolph-Macon during the 1984 campaign. In 23 years as a head coach, Corrigan holds a record of 206-111 (.650).

Corrigan also served as an assistant at Notre Dame during the 1983 season and at Western Albemarle (Va.) High School in 1982. He is the son of former Notre Dame athletic director Gene Corrigan, who retired in '97 as the commissioner of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The elder Corrigan played collegiate lacrosse at Duke and guided the Virginia and Washington & Lee lacrosse programs. He was inducted into the Lacrosse Hall of Fame in February of 1994.

Kevin's brother Tim was a three-time monogram winner as a midfielder at Notre Dame from 1984-86. Two of Kevin's other brothers, David and Brian, also served as assistants under former Irish head lacrosse coach Rich O'Leary. Another brother, Eugene "Boo", was Notre Dame's associate athletics director for corporate relations and marketing from 2004-08.

When not coaching, Corrigan still remains active by participating in various lacrosse clinics and camps and is a member of the South Bend Regional Sports Commission. He and his wife, Lis, reside in South Bend with their three children - Will, Sidney and Natale.

Assistant Coach

Gerry Byrne

Assistant Coach
Fourth Season
Massachusetts-
Amherst '86

Gerry Byrne enters the fourth season of his second stint as an assistant coach for the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team in 2010. In 2007, Byrne returned to the Fighting Irish program, where he served as an assistant from 1989-91. Prior to his return to Notre Dame, he was the head coach at Saint Anselm College in Manchester, N.H. from 2003-06.

The Fighting Irish have enjoyed tremendous success since Byrne rejoined the staff. Notre Dame has posted a 40-8 record and has captured three regular-season Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) titles and two GWLL tournament championships. The Irish have earned an NCAA Championship bid all three seasons in addition to receiving a national seed and a first-round home game in each of the past two years. Notre Dame has produced 14 All-America and 22 all-conference selections along with 10 Major League Lacrosse (MLL) draft picks over the past three seasons.

Notre Dame has reaped the benefits of Byrne's defensive knowledge. In 2009, Notre Dame led all NCAA Division I teams with a school-record 6.19 goals-against average. The Fighting Irish have ranked in the top-five nationally in team defense during the past three seasons under the guidance of Byrne. Notre Dame did not surrender more than nine goals in a game all season long, while limiting foes to six goals or fewer six times.

The 2009 Irish squad posted the first undefeated regular season in program history and finished with an overall record of 15-1. The win total and winning percentage from the '09 campaign were program records. Notre Dame received the 2009 GWLL coaching staff of the year award, making it the second time in Byrne's three seasons that the Irish staff has garnered the accolade.

The Fighting Irish also matched program standards by reaching #2 in the national polls and having five players receive All-America honors in 2009. Among the All-America selections were goalie Scott Rodgers, who also was named the GWLL player of the year, and defensemen Regis McDermott and Sam Barnes. Those three were among a group of eight Irish players that copped All-GWLL accolades during the season. The Long Island Lizards selected McDermott in the third round of the 2009 MLL Draft.

After completing a 13-0 regular season, the Irish defeated Quinnipiac and Ohio State to capture the second annual GWLL tournament. The Irish received the No. 7 seed for the 2009 NCAA Championship, yet fell to Maryland, 7-3, in the first round to end the historic run.

In 2008, Notre Dame ranked fifth nationally in both goals-against average (7.04) and goals scored per game (12.09). The Irish compiled a 14-3 record, including a 4-1 league mark to tie for first, and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship for the fourth time in school history. The Fighting Irish also played host to an NCAA Tournament game for the first time ever.

The sixth-seeded Irish defeated Colgate 8-7 in overtime to advance to the quarterfinals, where they were topped by eventual national champion Syracuse, 11-9. Notre Dame concluded the season ranked fifth in the final USILA poll.

The Irish defense came through when it counted most during the 2008 campaign. In the title game of the inaugural GWLL tournament, Notre Dame, behind a stellar effort from senior goalie Joey Kemp, shut down #10 Ohio State in a 9-2 triumph to give the Irish the title. On the season, Notre Dame surrendered 10 or more goals on just two occasions, while holding the competition to six goals or fewer eight times.

Four Irish players, including Kemp and defenseman Sean Dougherty, were tabbed as All-Americans in 2008. Kemp became just the second first-team All-American in program history and the first goalie to be named a first-teamer as he received the 2008 Kelly Award for Outstanding Goalie in Division I from the USILA. Dougherty was a third-team pick. Fellow defenseman Ross Zimmerman received first-team all-GWLL honors as he helped the Irish to a three-way tie for the league's regular-season title. In all, six Irish players garnered all-league accolades in '08. Following the season, Dougherty, Kemp and Zimmerman all were drafted into the MLL.

Another piece of hardware that the 2008 Irish squad received was the Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The Irish have been very active in the South Bend area, including a mentorship program at Jefferson Middle School.

In his first season back with the Irish in 2007, Byrne helped guide a Notre Dame defensive unit that held opponents to a then program-record 6.66 goals per game, which ranked fourth nationally. The defense played a large role in the Irish posting an 11-4 record overall, including a perfect 5-0 conference mark to win its first outright GWLL title since 2001. In addition, the Irish also ranked fourth nationally in scoring offensive with an 11.65 goals per game average. Notre Dame concluded the season ranked 11th in the final USILA poll.

The 2007 season saw five Fighting Irish players earn All-America honors. Juniors Dougherty and Kemp were two of those honorees that helped to bolster the stingy Notre Dame defense. Kemp also was named the GWLL player of the year and was selected to the all-league first team along with Dougherty, while Zimmerman was tabbed as a second-team all-GWLL performer. The Irish coaching staff also was recognized as the GWLL's staff of the year.

Byrne graduated Cum Laude from UMass Amherst in 1986 with a degree in economics. He was a two-year starter and a three-year letterman in addition to being an All-New England defenseman for the Minutemen in 1986. He was a starter in two NCAA Tournament games, including the 1986 quarterfinals versus Johns Hopkins.

Byrne then earned his MBA from Notre Dame, where he also worked as defensive coordinator for the Fighting Irish. He helped Notre Dame earn its first NCAA Tournament berth during the 1990 campaign as the Irish posted a 9-7 record, including a perfect 3-0 mark in the MLA's Great Lakes Conference, which gave them the league title.

Following his graduation from UMass, Byrne was a four-time All-United States Club Lacrosse Association member with the Brine Lacrosse Club. He was also invited to tryout with the U.S. National Team on three occasions (1989, 1997, 2001), which placed him among the top-30 defensemen in the nation. Other playing accolades for Byrne include being named an All-Lake Placid Classic performer on 11 occasions and an All-Vail Shootout competitor nine times.

One of his signature years as a player came in 1997. That season he was named a Vail Shootout All-Star in the Elite Division along with copping Vail Shootout MVP honors in the Masters Division. Byrne also was named the Lake Placid Tournament Defensive MVP in the Elite Division and was chosen as the Masters Division MVP. Finally, he was invited to the National Team Selection Camp and was the USCLA/Empire League Player of the Year for the Syracuse Lacrosse Club.

Byrne was inducted into the U.S. Lacrosse Hall of Fame - New England Chapter - in 1999 and was the 2001 New Hampshire High School Coach of the Year while at Souhegan High School. He was drafted by the New York Saints of the National Lacrosse League (NLL) in 1991 and played for them in 1992. Byrne also was drafted by the Rochester Knighthawks of the NLL as a defensive forward and went on to win a World Championship with them in 1997.

He continued his professional career following a three-year retirement when he was drafted by the Boston Cannons of Major League Lacrosse in 2000. Byrne played for the Cannons from 2000-02, while having the distinction of being the oldest active player in the league at that time. He played in the inaugural MLL Final Four in 2001 and made another appearance there the following season.

In addition to his duties at Saint Anselm, Byrne stayed active in the sporting world in several other ways. He served as managing director at Kiltegan Marketing Group, which is an integrated sports marketing services company with clients such as Reebok and Major League Lacrosse. Byrne also has spent time as the director of marketing for Cybex International and Brine, a major manufacturer of lacrosse equipment. He also owns the Premier Players Lacrosse Camps and is the founder of the Texas Top-99.

Byrne is a native of Levittown, N.Y., where he was an All-Long Island Catholic League lacrosse player at Chaminade High School before his graduation in 1982. He and his wife, Dr. Tracy Byrne, a practicing OB/GYN and a 1990 graduate of Notre Dame, are the parents of three children, Rory, Pierre and Brandon.

Assistant Coach

Brian Fisher

Assistant Coach
Fourth Season
Rutgers '01

Brian Fisher is entering his fourth season as an assistant coach for the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team in 2010. Fisher joined the Fighting Irish from his alma mater, Rutgers University, where he was an assistant coach for five seasons.

The Fighting Irish have enjoyed tremendous success since Fisher joined the staff. Notre Dame has posted a 40-8 record and has captured three regular-season Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) titles and two GWLL tournament championships. The Irish have earned an NCAA Championship bid all three seasons in addition to receiving a national seed and a first-round home game in each of the past two years. Notre Dame has produced 14 All-America and 22 all-conference selections along with 10 Major League Lacrosse (MLL) draft picks over the past three seasons.

Among other duties, Fisher works with the Fighting Irish faceoff unit, which has been one of the best in the country since his arrival on campus. Notre Dame ranked ninth in the nation in faceoff winning percentage in 2009 with a .556 mark. That fact was even more remarkable as the Irish had to fill the void of losing Taylor Clagett, one of the top faceoff men in the country, to graduation in 2008. Notre Dame ranked second nationally in 2008 with a .628 winning percentage. Notre Dame was 15th in the nation in that category during Fisher's first season with the Irish.

Notre Dame enjoyed unprecedented success in 2009 as the Irish posted the first undefeated regular season in program history and finished with an overall record of 15-1. The win total and winning percentage from the '09 campaign were program records. Notre Dame ranked first among all NCAA Division I teams with a school-record 6.19 goals-against average and tied for 10th in goals per game (11.00).

The Fighting Irish also matched program standards by reaching #2 in the national polls and having five players receive All-America honors in 2009. Among the All-America selections was senior goalie Scott Rodgers, who also was named the GWLL player of the year. Joining Rodgers on the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) All-America third team were seniors Ryan Hoff (A) and Regis McDermott (D). Juniors Sam Barnes (D) and Grant Krebs (M) were honorable mention picks.

Those five student-athletes were among a program-record tying seven first-team All-GWLL selections. Notre Dame received the 2009 GWLL coaching staff of the year award, making it the second time in Fisher's three seasons that the Irish staff has garnered the accolade.

After completing a 13-0 regular season in 2009, the Irish defeated Quinnipiac and Ohio State to capture the second annual GWLL tournament. The Irish received the No. 7 seed for the 2009 NCAA Championship, yet fell to Maryland, 7-3, in the first round to end the historic run.

An NCAA Championship quarterfinal appearance was just one of the highlights of the 2008 campaign. Notre Dame compiled a 14-3 mark, including a 4-1 league record to tie for first, and won the inaugural GWLL tournament. The Irish ranked fifth nationally in both goals-against average (7.04) and goals scored per game (12.09). Notre Dame concluded the season ranked fifth in the final USILA poll.

The Fighting Irish also played host to an NCAA Tournament game for the first time ever. The sixth-seeded Irish defeated Colgate 8-7 in overtime to advance to the quarterfinals, where they were topped by eventual national champion Syracuse, 11-9.

Notre Dame boasted four All-Americans in 2008. Senior goalie Joey Kemp became just the second first-team All-American in program history and the first goalie to be named a first-teamer as he received the 2008 Kelly Award for Outstanding Goalie in Division I from the USILA. Senior defenseman Sean Dougherty was a third-team selection, while senior midfielder Michael Podgajny and Hoff were honorable mention picks. Hoff became just the second player in program history to notch back-to-back 40 goal seasons. He tallied 40 as a sophomore and followed it with 41 in 2008. Hoff concluded his career in 2009 second on Notre Dame's all-time goals scored list with 134 tallies. The quartet of Irish All-Americans was among a group of six that capped all-conference accolades in 2008.

Another piece of hardware that the 2008 Irish squad received was the Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The Irish have been very active in the South Bend area, including a mentorship program at Jefferson Middle School.

In 2007, Fisher helped the Fighting Irish post an 11-4 record, which included a perfect 5-0 mark in conference play as Notre Dame captured its first outright GWLL title since 2001. The Irish fell to eventual national champion Johns Hopkins, 11-10, in an overtime thriller during the first round of the NCAA Championship. As a team, Notre Dame ranked fourth nationally in both scoring offense (11.65) and scoring defense (6.66). Notre Dame concluded the season ranked 11th in the final USILA poll.

Receiving honorable-mention All-America honors following the '07 season were Brian Hubschmann (M/A), Dougherty, Kemp, Podgajny and Will Yeatman (A). The Irish also had eight players cop all-GWLL accolades, including Kemp, who was the league's player of the year, and Yeatman, the newcomer of the year. The Irish coaching staff also was recognized as the GWLL's staff of the year.

Fisher was a standout midfielder and faceoff man for the Scarlet Knights for four seasons (1998-2001). As a coach at Rutgers, he worked extensively with the Scarlet Knight midfielders and was the assistant director of MVP Lacrosse Camps.

Fisher was one of the top faceoff men in the nation throughout his Rutgers career. He won 268-of-533 (.502) faceoffs in his career. In 2001, as the team's faceoff specialist, he took 76 percent of the teams faceoffs, winning 120-of-232 (.517) of them. He also led the Scarlet Knights with 69 ground balls.

Fisher was awarded the Rutgers Lacrosse Knight Cup in 2001. The Cup goes to the player "who has played the game of lacrosse to the best of his ability, who has, by example, inspired or led his teammates both on and off the field and, who, above all, has consistently demonstrated the qualities of unselfishness and loyalty to his team and Rutgers University." That same season he was named the Rutgers Lacrosse Time Scholar-Athlete.

The Morton, Pa. native also was awarded the 2000 Frederick Fitch Trophy while at Rutgers. The honor is presented to the varsity letterwinner who, through personal effort to develop his lacrosse ability, has shown the greatest improvement during the season.

Fisher was a key member of the Ridley High School team that won the Pennsylvania State Championship in 1997. During his career at Ridley, his team compiled a 56-7 record. He was also captain of his wrestling team in high school.

Fisher married the former Lauren Vader from South Orange, N.J. on December 19, 2008, in the Caribbean. Lauren teaches seventh grade social studies at Marshall Middle School in South Bend.

Lacrosse Experience

Dave Cashen '97

Academic All-America defenseman
Columbia University Medical School

"Nowhere in the country could I have found such a good education and a school surrounded by students who love their school, what it stands for and most of all their classmates. I was able to combine this with four years of competitive lacrosse on a team nationally-ranked, well-coached and most of all, created by 35 teammates devoted to each other on and off the field. It is a great feeling to have 35 friends always to support, encourage and entertain you."

Kevin O'Connor '89

Captain of the 1989 team
U.S. Attorney for the state of Connecticut

"As a candidate for United States Congress, I was amazed at the amount of attention given by the media and voters to my having served as captain of the lacrosse team at the University of Notre Dame. Indeed, of all the activities in which I have been involved, my experience as a lacrosse player at Notre Dame was the most valuable in the campaign. The traits that make Notre Dame athletics special in the eyes of the public – sportsmanship, integrity and success – are of equal value in the political arena."

Irish Reflections...

Mike Iorio '95

Three-time All-America defenseman
Employed at American National Bank in Chicago, Ill.

"Notre Dame lacrosse provided me with four years of fun and excitement, and it continues to be a part of my life. As a freshman in 1992, I was a part of the team that had the program's first top-10 win. By my senior year, we had accomplished what no other NCAA Division I men's lacrosse team had ever done – the No. 12 seed knocked off the No. 5 seed in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. In the four years that came between these two historic Notre Dame lacrosse events, I received a great education, developed the teamwork and time management skills that I utilize every day in the banking world and built friendships that will last me a lifetime."

Jimmy Keenan '98

Three-time honorable mention
All-America midfielder
Employed as an accountant at UBS in New York City and was a member of the New York Saints of the National Lacrosse League

"The decision to attend Notre Dame and play lacrosse there has turned out to be the most gratifying decision of my life thus far. This unique University fulfilled all I could have wished for as a high school senior. As a school, it offers everything from academics to athletics to nightlife and a campus atmosphere that can only be summed up with the cliché 'Notre Dame Family.' The experience, memories and friends that I have accumulated over my four years there have really defined who I am today. Playing lacrosse at Notre Dame, with its tradition and history, was certainly the proudest and most memorable experience for me. The team and the University will always remain a part of my life for it is truly a family."

Season in Review

Goalie Scott Rodgers (left) and defenseman Regis McDermott (right) were key reasons why Notre Dame led the nation with a program-record 6.19 goals-against average during the 2009 campaign.

One For The Record Books

Irish enjoy unprecedented success in 2009

WINNING WAYS ...

In 2009, Notre Dame's 15-1 mark established program records for wins and winning percentage in a single season ... the Fighting Irish compiled the first undefeated regular season in program history and it marked the fourth straight season that the Irish have reached double figures in wins ... Notre Dame's 15-game win streak was a program best.

BACK TO THE DANCE ...

Notre Dame earned its fourth straight appearance in the NCAA Championship and hosted a tournament game for the second consecutive season ... the Irish garnered one of the tournament's eight national seeds for the second year in a row ... the seventh-seeded Fighting Irish fell to Maryland, 7-3, in the tournament's first round.

STATISTICAL CHAMPIONS ...

Notre Dame was named the 2009 NCAA statistical national champion for scoring defense and winning percentage ... the stout Irish defense limited opponents to a 6.19 goals-against average, which shattered the program standard (6.66 from the 2007 season) ... Notre Dame did not surrender more than nine goals in a game all season long, while limiting foes to six goals or fewer six times ... the Irish went 15-1 for a .938 winning percentage.

RODGERS ATOP THE RANKINGS ...

Senior goalie Scott Rodgers was named the NCAA Division I statistical national champion for goals-against average and save percentage ... Rodgers registered a program-record goals-against average of 6.14 to go along with a .663 save percentage ... his 15 victories also established a Fighting Irish record.

The Irish celebrate a goal in a 9-7 triumph of No. 3 North Carolina on March 8, 2009 inside the Loftus Sports Center. The Notre Dame defense held the Tar Heels scoreless for a stretch of 29:57 during the contest.

IN THE POLLS ...

The Fighting Irish peaked at No. 2 in both the Inside Lacrosse media poll and the USILA coaches poll during the 2009 campaign ... that matched the highest ranking in program history, which was previously achieved in 2001.

ALL-AMERICA ACCOLADES ...

Five Fighting Irish players received All-America honors from the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) ... Ryan Hoff (Sr., A), Regis McDermott (Sr., D) and Scott Rodgers (Sr., G) were named to the third team, while Sam Barnes (Jr., D) and Grant Krebs (Jr., M) were honorable-mention picks.

GWLL DOMINANCE ...

Notre Dame finished its 16-year run as a member of the Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) with a 65-10 (.867) all-time record in league play (regular season and tournament) ... the Irish won 20 of their last 21 games against GWLL opponents ... Notre Dame went undefeated in GWLL play on eight occasions, including its 5-0 mark in 2009 ... Notre Dame won the GWLL regular-season title on 12 occasions, including 2009, along with winning the only two GWLL tournaments (2008 & 2009) ... the Irish won the regular-season championship title outright eight times, while earning a share of the crown four times.

RODGERS NAMED GWLL PLAYER OF YEAR ...

Notre Dame goalie Scott Rodgers was named the 2009 Great Western Lacrosse League Player of the Year ...

he became the sixth Notre Dame player to be selected as the GWLL Player of the Year and the first since fellow goalie Joey Kemp received the honor in 2007.

CORRIGAN COPS GWLL COACH OF THE YEAR HONORS ...

Irish head coach Kevin Corrigan was tabbed as the 2009 Great Western Lacrosse League Coach of the Year ... it marked the fifth time (1994, 1996, 2001, 2007, 2009) that Corrigan has been named the league's top coach ... Corrigan, who completed his 21st season as head coach of the Irish in 2009, guided Notre Dame to the first undefeated regular season in program history ... the Fighting Irish went 5-0 in conference play in 2009 to capture their 12th regular-season GWLL title, which all have come under the direction of Corrigan.

ALL-LEAGUE ACCOLADES IN ABUNDANCE ...

Eight Notre Dame players received All-Great Western Lacrosse League honors ... the Fighting Irish boasted seven first-team picks ... Scott Rodgers (Sr./G), Ryan Hoff (Sr./A), Duncan Swezey (Sr./A), Peter Christman (Sr./M), Grant Krebs (Jr./M), Sam Barnes (Jr./D) and Regis McDermott (Sr./D) all were named to the league's top team, while Neal Hicks (Jr./A) was a second-team selection ... the eight all-league members were the most from any of the conference's six schools and were tied for the second-most all-time in Notre Dame history ... the seven first-team nods also were tied for the most in program history.

HALTING THE HEELS ...

Notre Dame's 9-7 win over No. 3 North Carolina on March 8 marked the second time in program history that the Irish had defeated a team ranked in the top three of the national polls ... the Fighting Irish took down third-ranked Johns Hopkins, 13-9, during the quarterfinals of the 2001 NCAA Championship.

SCORELESS STREAKS ...

The Notre Dame defense produced a scoreless streak of at least 20 minutes in seven of its final eight games of the season ... here is a breakdown of the games (in chronological order) and the length of the streaks ... Air Force (29:06), Denver (20:39), Quinnipiac (33:02), St. John's (51:08), Ohio State (21:40), Quinnipiac (25:29) and Ohio State (22:46).

GETTING OFFENSIVE ...

Notre Dame finished the season tied for 10th among all NCAA Division I teams with an 11.00 goals per game average ... the Irish tallied at least nine goals in 14 of 16 games and scored a season-high 19 times against Dartmouth (Feb. 28) ... this marked the third straight season that Notre Dame finished in the top-10 nationally in scoring offense ... the Irish averaged 12.09 goals per game in 2008 and that placed them fifth nationally ... in 2007, Notre Dame averaged 11.65 goals per game, which ranked fourth in the nation.

SPREADING THE WEALTH ...

The Irish had 19 different players score a goal during the 2009 season ... in the 19-7 win over Dartmouth, Notre Dame had a season-high 10 players notch a goal ... Notre Dame boasted seven double-figure scorers ... senior attackman Ryan Hoff led the team with 32 goals, while junior midfielder Grant Krebs had 29 ... attackmen Neal Hicks (25) and Duncan Swezey (22) along with midfielders Zach Brenneman (17), Peter Christman (15) and David Earl (12) were the other double-figure goal scorers for the Irish.

HAT TRICKS ...

Notre Dame had seven players notch a hat trick during the 2009 season ... Ryan Hoff had a team-high five games with at least three goals, while Grant Krebs accomplished the feat four times ... Duncan Swezey, Neal Hicks and Peter Christman had three apiece, while David Earl and Zach Brenneman both had two ... included in those figures are two four-goal games from Swezey and one four-goal game from Hicks and Brenneman along with a five-goal and six-goal effort from Hoff.

HOFF POSTS A STELLAR CAREER ...

Senior attackman Ryan Hoff finished his Fighting Irish career second all-time in program history with 134 goals ... as a rookie, he tallied 21 goals before becoming the second Fighting Irish player ever to register back-to-back 40-goal campaigns with 40 in 2007 and 41 in 2008 ... Hoff notched 32 goals in 2009 ... Randy Colley (1992-95) is the program record holder with 173 career goals ... Hoff netted six goals in Notre Dame's 16-7 victory over Ohio State in the title game of the GWLL tournament on May 3 ... that marked the most goals for any Fighting Irish player during the 2009 campaign ... it was one shy of the program record that Hoff shares with Colley.

HICKS HAS CAREER SEASON ...

Junior attackman Neal Hicks produced a career-best season by leading the team with 43 points ... he was third on the squad in goals (25) and tied for second in assists (18) ... all of those numbers were single-season career-high figures for Hicks ... in the 2009 season opener, the Atlanta native returned to his home state and registered the first hat trick of his career in a 10-9 win over Loyola ... Hicks followed that up with an eight-point performance on four goals and four assists in a 13-8 win at Penn State ... the eight points were one off the program record of nine.

STREAKING ...

Junior midfielder Grant Krebs concluded the season with a team-best 32-game point streak ... he has notched 73 points on 55 goals and 18 assists during the streak ... Krebs tallied 38 points on 29 goals and nine assists in 2009 ... Krebs also owns the team's longest goal-scoring streak as he has deposited a goal in 28 straight games.

CLASS ACT ...

Notre Dame's class of 2009 posted a four-year record of 50-13 (.794) ... that is the most victories over a four-year span in the history of Notre Dame men's lacrosse ... during their time on campus, the Fighting Irish went to four straight NCAA Tournaments, including a quarterfinal berth in 2008 ... the class posted a 24-1 record at home during their career.

IRON MEN ...

Seniors Peter Christman and Ryan Hoff did not miss a game during their four-year careers at Notre Dame ... the duo played in a program-record 63 contests ... Hoff, an attackman, started 60 of those games, while Christman, a midfielder, had 36 starts ... their classmate Regis McDermott, a defenseman, ranks right behind them in the Notre Dame record books with 61 games played.

IRISH CAPTAINS ...

Seniors Peter Christman (M), Regis McDermott (D), Davey Melera (M) and Scott Rodgers (G) all were first-time captains for the Fighting Irish during the 2009 campaign.

HOME SWEET HOME ...

Notre Dame saw its national-best home win streak of 25 games come to an end in the 7-3 setback to Maryland in the first round of the NCAA Championship ... the streak also was a program record ... the Irish went three-plus seasons without losing a home contest ... the streak stemmed back to a 14-13 overtime win against Air Force on April 10, 2005 ... the Irish went 6-0 at home during the 2006, 2007 and 2008 campaigns ... six of the games during the streak were played in the Loftus Sports Center, while 12 took place outside at Moose Krause Stadium, the former home of Irish lacrosse ... six were played at Alumni Field, while one victory in 2008 took place at School Field in South Bend ... the Fighting Irish defeated seven ranked opponents during the streak ... Notre Dame owns an overall home record of 126-36 (.778) during the 29 years of varsity lacrosse at the University.

Grant Krebs scored a goal in all 16 contests during the 2009 season. Overall, he notched 38 points on 29 goals and nine assists in '09. Krebs will carry team-best streaks for points (32) and goals (28) into the 2010 campaign.

A RECORD CROWD ...

The Notre Dame-Ohio State tilt on April 25 was played in front of 30,192 fans at Ohio Stadium (The Horseshoe) ... that attendance figure is an NCAA record for a regular season men's lacrosse game ... it also marked the largest crowd to attend a contest involving Notre Dame ... the previous high was 21,103 from the 2001 NCAA semifinals against Syracuse in Piscataway, N.J. ... the Notre Dame-Ohio State contest was played before the Buckeyes' spring football game.

COVERING THE NATION ...

The trip to the Patriot Cup on March 21 marked Notre Dame's first-ever game in the state of Texas ... over the past few seasons, the Irish have helped bring the sport to new locations ... in 2008, the Fighting Irish took on Dartmouth in Atlanta, Ga. ... that marked the first-ever NCAA Division I men's lacrosse game in the state of Georgia ... the Irish returned to Georgia for the 2009 opener against Loyola in Powder Springs ... in 2006, Notre Dame faced Cornell in the first Division I men's lacrosse game in the state of Illinois as the two schools met in Lisle ... the Irish battled Denver in Bridgeview, Ill. in 2008 ... Notre Dame also competed in the GWLL Tournament in Birmingham, Mich. in 2008 and 2009.

WOUNDED WARRIOR ...

The Fighting Irish faced Vermont as part of the 2009 Patriot Cup on March 21 in Dallas, Texas ... the Patriot Cup, which also featured Bucknell taking on Air Force, benefitted the Wounded Warrior Project (WWP) ... the WWP is a nonprofit organization that seeks to assist the men and women of our armed forces who have been severely injured during the conflicts in Iraq, Afghanistan and other locations around the world ... the WWP provides unique programs and services, raises awareness and enlists public support and provides a means for veterans to help each other.

KEVIN CASSESE

SOMETIMES YOU DON'T FIND YOUR GAME, SOMETIMES IT FINDS YOU.

CASSESE WAS A FOOTBALL PLAYER WHO PICKED UP A LACROSSE STICK BECAUSE HIS BUDDIES TOLD HIM IT WAS FUN. POWELL WAS JUST A KID WHO WANTED TO PLAY WITH TWO OLDER BROTHERS. AND JOHNSON GOT STUCK IN THE GOAL BECAUSE A COACH SAW HE WASN'T AFRAID. SOMEHOW, THE GAME FOUND THEM. JUST LIKE IT FOUND YOU. NOW ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS FIND OUT WHAT YOU DO BEST. THAT'S WHY WE PUT PRO PLAYERS ON OUR R&D TEAM, TO HELP US GIVE YOU THE TOOLS YOU NEED TO FIND YOUR GAME.

National Semifinal Appearance Caps Historic Season For Notre Dame Lacrosse Team

Notre Dame completed a storybook season with its first-ever appearance in the semifinals of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship in 2001. The Irish finished 14-2, establishing new school marks for victories and winning percentage (.875). While the team's success came as a surprise to some in the lacrosse world, head coach Kevin Corrigan was not among them.

Notre Dame began its preparations for the '01 campaign in the fall of 2000 with a quiet sense of confidence. With eight starters and seven of its top eight scorers returning from a team that reached the NCAA quarterfinals in '00 for the second time in six seasons, Corrigan and his staff couldn't help but contemplate the potential for success.

Notre Dame won its first five games of the season and climbed to an all-time high of #2 in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA)/STX Poll in mid-March following first-ever back-to-back road wins at seventh-ranked Virginia (11-8) and fifth-ranked Loyola (10-7). The only blemish on the Irish record during the regular season was an 11-10 overtime loss at Hofstra.

Corrigan's squad finished the regular season with a 12-1 record and played as a top-10 team in all but one game during the season. His second straight 10-win campaign marked the first back-to-back double-digit-victory totals since 1991-93, when Irish teams registered three consecutive 10-win seasons. It also marked the sixth time in the program's 21-year history that an Irish team won 10 or more games.

Notre Dame ended with its best-ever ranking, as the Irish finished fourth in the USILA/STX, Brine/360 Lacrosse.com, and Warrior/Inside Lacrosse.com polls. When the NCAA tournament pairings were announced on May 6, the Irish earned the fifth seed in the 12-team NCAA tournament field as Notre Dame played as a seeded team for the first time in program history.

Notre Dame advanced to the national semifinals following a 12-7 win over Bucknell in the first round and its first-ever win over Johns Hopkins, 13-9, in the quarterfinals. Entering its matchup with the Blue Jays, Notre Dame was 0-2 all-time against one of lacrosse's most storied programs.

Although the season ended with a disappointing 12-5 loss to top-seeded and perennial power Syracuse in the semifinals, it was certainly a year of milestones for the Irish lacrosse program. A record five Notre Dame players earned USILA All-America honors. Attackman Tom Glatzel became the school's first first-team selection after having one of the greatest seasons ever by an Irish lacrosse player. One of five finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy, awarded to the nation's top player, Glatzel scored 40 goals and dished off 27 assists. His 67 points were the most in a single season since Randy Colley's school-record 74 during the 1995 campaign. Glatzel finished his Irish career as the school's fourth all-time leading scorer, as he registered 106 goals (fourth best) and 61 assists. After scoring just two goals and dishing off one assist during his freshman season, Glatzel averaged 34.6 goals and 20.0 assists in his final three seasons.

Goalie Kirk Howell, a second-team selection, registered a 7.07 goals-against average and .632 save percentage, as he ranked third and fourth nationally in those respective categories. Howell had the distinction of being one of just four players to serve as a team captain for two seasons. Howell helped Notre Dame establish a single-season mark for goals allowed as the Irish gave up just 6.94 per game, eclipsing the old mark of 7.23 established during the 1996 season. Midfielder Steve Bishko was a third-team honoree, as he finished with 19 goals and five assists and led the team with 69 ground balls.

Defenseman Mike Adams earned honorable mention All-America honors, as did attackman David Ulrich, who led the team in assists all four years and closed out his Irish career as the school's career assist leader. One of just two players to lead Notre Dame in scoring all four years, Ulrich finished with 110 assists, an average of nearly 28 per season. In addition to earning honorable mention All-America honors, Adams became the first first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American in the program's history.

1990 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Harvard 9, #17 Notre Dame 3

May 16, 1990/Cambridge, Mass.

Notre Dame marked its 10th year of varsity lacrosse with its first-ever NCAA tournament appearance. The Irish, after finishing tied for 17th in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) rankings, entered their contest against the fifth-seeded and co-Ivy League champion Harvard Crimson as the 12th seed and owners of the bid reserved for a team from the Midwest.

Behind freshman goalie Chris Parent, who made 11 saves in the contest, Notre Dame, which finished its season with a 9-7 record, played one of its better games, as the Irish defense held Harvard to under 10 goals for only the third time during the '90 campaign. The Irish offense, however, was stymied as coach Kevin Corrigan's squad, which averaged nearly 11 goals throughout the season, was unable to capitalize on numerous scoring opportunities.

Senior co-captain Dave Carey, a native of Sudbury, Mass., led the Irish with two goals in his homecoming. Harvard was paced in the game by Mick Cavuoti's two goals and an assist.

Harvard jumped out to a 6-0 advantage at the end of three quarters, while the Irish tallied all three of their goals in the final 15-minute stanza.

Chris Miller made 14 saves for the hosts in goal, as the Irish also failed to capitalize on five man-up opportunities.

May 10, 1992/Baltimore, Md.

Making its second NCAA tournament appearance, Notre Dame traveled to Baltimore, Md., to play perennial power Johns Hopkins. The Irish entered the contest winners of nine of their final 10 games of the regular season.

The fifth-seeded Blue Jays got off to a fast start, as Hopkins held a 7-0 halftime advantage. Notre Dame got its offense into gear in the second half, but it wasn't enough as the Blue Jays won the game 15-7.

Johns Hopkins' goalie Scott Giardina, a third-team All-America selection, had 11 saves in the second quarter and finished with 21 for the game. Two-time All-American Adam Wright paced the Blue Jays with four goals in the game.

Randy Colley scored three times to lead the Irish. Ryan Jewell came off the bench to make nine saves in goal.

Notre Dame finished the '92 campaign with a 10-5 record, while Johns Hopkins advanced to the NCAA semifinals before losing to Syracuse.

1993 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Virginia 19, #15 Notre Dame 9
May 15, 1993/Charlottesville, Va.

Notre Dame earned its second straight NCAA tournament berth and third in four years, as the Irish traveled to Charlottesville, Va., for a first-round contest against head coach Kevin Corrigan's alma mater, Virginia. The fifth-year Irish mentor, a 1988 graduate, played midfield for the Cavaliers for three years and was an assistant on the Virginia staff for two.

The 15th-ranked Irish entered the contest boasting a school-record 11 wins. Without a senior in the starting lineup, Notre Dame faced its second Atlantic Coast Conference foe of the season. During the regular season, the Irish dropped a 13-7 decision at Duke.

The Cavaliers opened up the contest by scoring seven straight goals and held a 12-2 lead at the half. After halftime, the Irish scored six unanswered goals, including four straight to end the third quarter.

Attackman Randy Colley finished the game with three goals and two assists, while midfielder Will Sutton added two goals and two assists.

Tim Whitely led the Cavaliers with four goals and three assists.

Notre Dame's final 11-3 record ranked as the best in school history in terms of winning percentage at that time.

1994 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Virginia 23, #14 Notre Dame 4
May 14, 1994/Charlottesville, Va.

Notre Dame returned to Charlottesville, Va., for the second straight year to face the Virginia Cavaliers in NCAA tournament action. It marked the third consecutive tournament appearance for the Irish and fourth in the school's history.

The 12th-seeded and 14th-ranked Irish entered the game with a 10-1 record, marking the third straight year that Kevin Corrigan's squad had won 10-plus games. The Cavaliers entered the contest ranked and seeded fifth.

Virginia, which jumped out to an early 4-0 lead in the contest, dominated the Irish to post a 23-4 victory. Notre Dame managed to stay close until midway through the second quarter. The Irish trailed 5-2 before Virginia scored six straight goals for an 11-2 halftime lead. In the second half, the Cavaliers outscored Notre Dame 8-1 in the third quarter and 4-1 in the fourth quarter.

Virginia was led by midfielders Greg Traynor and Drew Fox, who had three goals each. Tim Whitely added two goals and three assists.

Irish leading scorer Randy Colley was held to a goal and an assist. Rob Snyder scored twice for Notre Dame.

NCAA Tournament History

1995 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#15 Notre Dame 12, #5 Duke 10
May 13, 1995/Durham, N.C.

Notre Dame proved the skeptics wrong as the Irish, making their fourth straight NCAA tournament appearance, stunned the lacrosse world with a come-from-behind 12-10 victory at fifth-seeded Duke. It was the biggest win in Notre Dame lacrosse history to date.

After being outscored 57-20 in its first three tournament appearances, Notre Dame had other ideas against the highly-rated Blue Devils, champions of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The win gave credence to the Irish program, which was one of just six teams making their fourth straight trip to the NCAAs, and solidified Notre Dame as a bona fide contender and opened up the eyes of those from the East about the quality of play in the West.

For most of the first two quarters, an Irish upset looked improbable as Notre Dame trailed 7-4 at the half. But Notre Dame came back to net seven unanswered goals as senior attackman Randy Colley scored three of his game-high five goals in the third quarter. The Irish shut out the Blue Devils in the third, 4-0.

Tim Kearney tied the score at 7-7 with 6:33 left in the third before Colley's goal at 5:22 gave Notre Dame a lead it would never relinquish. The Irish increased their lead to 11-7 on two goals by Colley and scores by Kearney and Brian Erickson.

Alex Whitten ended the seven-goal Irish scoring blitz with 8:25 left in the game. It marked Duke's first goal since one with 1:29 left before the half. Kearney countered for Notre Dame with 4:41 left off an assist from Will Sutton, one of four the senior midfielder would have on the day. Scott Harrison scored the final goal of the game for Duke with 2:53 left in the contest.

Freshman Alex Cade made 18 saves in goal, one shy of his career best. The victory moved the Irish into the quarterfinals and a matchup with another ACC foe, Maryland.

1995 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#14 Maryland 14, #15 Notre Dame 11
May 20, 1995/College Park, Md.

Notre Dame nearly pulled off its second straight upset, but this time the bid fell short as Maryland withstood a dramatic Irish rally and escaped with a 14-11 victory.

Trailing 10-2 with 5:59 left in the third quarter, Notre Dame pulled to within 11-10 with 9:48 remaining in the contest on Randy Colley's third goal. The Terrapins responded with three goals over the next four minutes to secure the victory.

Maryland led 4-0 after one quarter. The Irish got on the scoreboard with 10:41 remaining when Brian Erickson tossed in the first of his two goals. Maryland closed out the second quarter by scoring four goals for an 8-1 halftime lead.

Maryland went up 9-1 to start the third quarter before Will Sutton broke the Terrapin string of five unanswered goals with 7:08 left. Matt Bordi gave Maryland a 10-2 advantage with 5:59 remaining in the third quarter.

Todd Bialous started the six-goal Irish blitz that included three tallies in the final 4:07 of the third quarter. Colley scored back-to-back goals just before the end of the period.

The Irish scored three goals in the first 3:50 of the fourth quarter as Tim Kearney, Keenan, and Erickson all tallied in the fourth-quarter spurt. Matt Hahn gave Maryland an 11-8 lead before Kearney and Colley had consecutive scores to cut the deficit to 11-10. Three straight Maryland goals ended the Irish rally, and Burke Hayes netted the game's final score for the 14-11 outcome.

Alex Cade made 15 saves in goal, while Maryland's Brian Dougherty had 16 stops.

Notre Dame finished its dramatic season with a 9-5 record, as the Irish gained the respect of the lacrosse community.

1996 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#9 Johns Hopkins 12, #11 Notre Dame 7
May 12, 1995/Annapolis, Md.

Looking to once again pull off a first-round upset in making its fifth straight NCAA tournament appearance, 11th-ranked Notre Dame played ninth-ranked Johns Hopkins for the second time in its seven NCAA contests. Their matchup with the Blue Jays marked the seventh top-20 opponent the Irish faced during the '96 campaign.

After holding a narrow 7-6 advantage after three periods, Johns Hopkins outscored Notre Dame 5-1 in the final 15-minute stanza for the 12-7 victory. Sophomore Jimmy Keenan, Notre Dame's top scorer, led the Irish with a goal and a career-high four assists, while second-leading scorer Chris Dusseau had two goals. He finished with a team-high 29 goals on the year, which established a Notre Dame freshman mark for goals in a season.

Sophomore goalkeeper Alex Cade tied his career high with 21 saves in the game, which marked the third time during the season that he had 20-plus saves in a contest.

Milford Marchant scored a personal-best four goals in the game, while Brian Evans and Dan Denihan each added two for the Blue Jays in the victory.

Evans gave Johns Hopkins an early 1-0 lead with 8:25 remaining in the first quarter, but back-to-back goals by Keenan and Dusseau put the Irish up 2-1 with 2:11 remaining. The first quarter ended with the teams deadlocked at 2-2.

Notre Dame took a 3-2 lead with 14:27 left as Tony Reid scored off a Will DeRiso assist. Johns Hopkins went up 4-3 on goals by Marchant and Matt O'Kelly. Dusseau, off a Keenan feed, tied the score at 4-4, but Marchant netted his second goal of the quarter 34 seconds later to give the Blue Jays a 5-4 lead at the half.

Both teams scored twice in the third quarter as Notre Dame trailed 7-6 after DeRiso's goal with 45 seconds remaining. Johns Hopkins tallied five unanswered goals in the fourth quarter. Burke Hayes had the lone Irish goal of the period with 29 seconds left in the contest.

1997 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#6 Loyola 21, #9 Notre Dame 5
May 11, 1997/Towson, Md.

Notre Dame's matchup with Loyola in the first round of the 1997 NCAA tournament was the second of the season between the two teams. It was a highly-anticipated meeting between two evenly-matched squads who had played to a one-goal decision early in the year.

The contest provided the Irish, who were making their sixth straight NCAA appearance, an opportunity to avenge a 12-11 loss on March 15. That game, which saw Notre Dame overcome a four-goal first-quarter deficit, see-sawed back and forth from the second quarter on. The outcome was decided in the final 2:45, when the Greyhounds produced the winning goal.

The second meeting produced a far different result, as Loyola ousted Notre Dame from the tournament with a 21-5 victory. It was the second-worst loss suffered by the Irish in eight tournament games.

After junior Ned Webster tied the game at 1-1 with 13:11 left in the first quarter, Loyola scored six unanswered goals en route to an 11-3 halftime lead.

Webster scored two goals in the contest for the Irish. Also scoring in the game were Stedman Oakey, Adam Sargent, and Brad Owen. For Sargent, it marked the first goal of his collegiate career.

Goalkeeper Alex Cade gave up 20 goals (the most of his career) and made nine saves in the game.

Loyola, which improved to 7-0 against Notre Dame, was led by Gewas Schindler's seven goals and one assist.

1999 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Georgetown 14, #14 Notre Dame 10
May 16, 1999/Towson, Md.

After a one-year hiatus, Notre Dame made a return to the NCAA tournament for the seventh time in eight years. The 14th-ranked Irish faced a first-round matchup with fifth-seeded Georgetown in Towson, Md.

Earlier in the season the two teams squared off at Notre Dame, with the Hoyas coming away with a 12-8 victory after the Irish had built an early 4-0 lead. In the NAAs, the final outcome was nearly identical, as Georgetown earned a 14-10 victory.

The Hoyas, eventual NCAA tournament semifinalists, used three unanswered goals in the third period to break a 7-7 halftime deadlock.

Senior Chris Dusseau, who closed out his Irish career with two goals in the contest, opened by tallying Notre Dame's first two scores. Georgetown jumped out to a 4-2 advantage only to have senior Brad Owen tie the game with the first of his three scores with 14:40 remaining until the break.

The two teams exchanged goals throughout most of the second period with David Ulrich and John Flandina knotting the score at 5-5 and 6-6, respectively. Owen notched his second goal of the game 33 seconds before intermission to tie the score for the sixth and final time.

Georgetown scored the first four goals of the second half and held Notre Dame scoreless for the entire third quarter. Owen's third goal of the game finally put the Irish on the scoreboard for the first time in the second half, with 10:45 remaining in the final quarter. Tom Glatzel scored two of Notre Dame's three fourth-quarter goals.

Goalie Kirk Howell finished with 13 saves in the game. The 14 goals scored by the Hoyas were the most given up by Notre Dame in 1999.

Notre Dame finished the campaign with an 8-6 record.

Attackman Tom Glatzel scored an Irish NCAA Championship record of seven points in Notre Dame's 15-13 upset of #5 Loyola in the opening round of the 2000 tournament, tallying four goals and assisting on three others.

2000 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#13 Notre Dame 15, #5 Loyola 13
May 14, 2000/Baltimore, Md.

The Notre Dame men's lacrosse team returned to the NCAA tournament for the second straight year and eighth time in nine seasons in 2000. And for the second time in school history, the 13th-ranked Irish advanced to the quarterfinals, this time with a first-round upset of fifth-seeded Loyola 15-13.

Notre Dame's victory proved just as stunning as the one five years earlier, when the Irish earned a 12-10 decision over Duke. While the win gave Notre Dame its second NCAA tournament victory, it also avenged the worst loss of the regular season, when the Irish were beaten 12-2 by the Greyhounds. In addition, it marked Notre Dame's first-ever win over Loyola in 11 meetings.

Notre Dame jumped out to an early lead just 46 seconds in the game when junior David Ulrich scored his second career NCAA tournament goal to put the Irish in the lead, 1-0. Loyola answered back when Tim Goettelmann scored the first of his seven goals on the day to tie the game 1-1.

The Irish then ripped off four consecutive goals by different players. Junior Chris Young got the Notre Dame run started, with classmate Tom Glatzel, senior Stedman Oakey, and sophomore John Flandina following, to open up the contest as the scoring burst gave Notre Dame a lead it would never relinquish.

Ending the first half with a 10-5 advantage over the Greyhounds, the Irish dominated the play on the field. Loyola would make a run at the end of the game, but the Irish defense and senior goaltender Kirk Howell, who had 13 saves in the game, would enable the Irish to hold their lead.

Loyola's Gunnar Goettelmann, Tim Goettelmann, Bobby Horsey, and Mike Battista combined to score eight goals in the final 20 minutes of the game to close the gap. Loyola took 15 shots in the fourth period, but Howell, who had five saves in the quarter, and the Irish defense kept the Irish lead intact.

Eleven different players scored for the Irish on the day, helping to solve the Greyhound defense that only allowed two goals in the first meeting. The Irish were led by Glatzel's four goals and three assists.

2000 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#4 Johns Hopkins 15, #13 Notre Dame 11
May 21, 2000/Baltimore, Md.

After an upset win over fifth-ranked Loyola, the Irish put their best efforts up against fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins in the quarterfinal round of the NCAA tournament. The Blue Jays, with a strong offensive attack and playing on their home field, proved to be a tough second-round matchup for the Irish, who were bidding for their first appearance in the national semifinals.

Dan Denihan led the Johns Hopkins attack with four goals and four assists, as the fourth-seeded Blue Jays posted a 15-11 victory over the Irish, who closed out the campaign with a 10-4 record. The loss snapped a seven-game winning streak for the Irish, as Notre Dame posted its fourth 10-win season during head coach Kevin Corrigan's tenure.

Leading 7-6 with 5:10 to play in the second quarter, Denihan and Bobby Benson scored three goals each to key an 8-2 run that saw the Blue Jays pull out to an insurmountable 15-8 lead with 3:50 remaining in the third quarter. Todd Ulrich scored two of his team-high three markers in the fourth quarter, as Notre Dame held Hopkins scoreless and provided the final four-goal margin.

ND jumped out to a 3-2 advantage with 1:15 left in the first quarter when Chris Young scored on David Ulrich's second assist of the game. Johns Hopkins responded with a 5-0 run, thanks in part to two goals from Conor Denihan, to take a 7-3 advantage. Jon Harvey, one of four multiple-goal scorers for the Irish, then closed a 3-0 Notre Dame run that reduced the lead to 7-6 midway through the second quarter, setting the stage for the Blue Jays' game-clinching spurt as Johns Hopkins outscored the Irish 7-2 in the decisive third period.

2001 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#4 Notre Dame 12, #10 Bucknell 7
May 13, 2001/West Point, N.Y.

Playing as a seeded team in the NCAA tournament for the first time in the 21-year history of its program, the fifth-seeded Irish beat Bucknell 12-7 in the first-ever meeting between the schools. With the win, Notre Dame advanced to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA championship for the second consecutive season and third time in seven years.

Four players scored multiple goals for the Irish, as Notre Dame added to its record-setting season with its 13th win of the year and eighth straight victory. The eight-game winning streak matched its longest since the 1994 campaign. The contest was close for the first 18 minutes until John Flandina's early second-period goal gave the Irish a 3-2 advantage and began a streak of six consecutive goals by six different players.

After a tightly-played first quarter featuring just one goal by each team, the Irish and Bison traded scores early in the second period before Notre Dame's six-goal run. Leading 8-2 just 39 seconds into the third period, the Irish allowed three Bison goals in the third quarter, as Notre Dame held a 9-5 advantage entering the final stanza.

The Irish opened the fourth quarter by scoring three straight goals, including a pair by senior attackman Jon Harvey.

Eight different players scored for the fourth-ranked Irish, who were led by four seniors notching two goals each. In addition to Harvey scoring a pair, David Ulrich, Chris Young, and Steve Bishko also added two scores each. Tom Glatzel registered a goal and dished off a game-high four assists, while goalie Kirk Howell came up with eight saves in goal.

Wes Fletchet scored three goals to lead the Bison in their first-ever NCAA tournament appearance.

Mike Adams – who would be tabbed honorable mention All-America at the conclusion of the season – was a key force in Notre Dame's best-ever NCAA-tournament defensive performance, allowing just seven goals – only two in the first half en route to a five-goal intermission advantage – in a first-round tilt against Bucknell in 2001.

2001 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#4 Notre Dame 13, #3 Johns Hopkins 9
May 20, 2001/College Park, Md.

Notre Dame advanced to its first-ever national semifinal with a 13-9 win over fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins. The Irish scored five straight fourth-period goals in a 5:21 span over the final six-and-a-half minutes of the game to snap an 8-8 tie on the way to the first quarterfinal victory in school history and ninth straight win (tying a school record).

The win also marked Notre Dame's first win over Johns Hopkins in four all-time contests – all in the NCAA tournament – and avenged the 2000 quarterfinal loss.

Senior Tom Glatzel paced the Irish with four goals and an assist, while fellow senior Jon Harvey added three goals and junior midfielder John Flandina collected a pair of goals and an assist in the win.

Flandina scored both of his goals in the five-goal flurry, beginning with the go-ahead goal that gave the Irish a 9-8 advantage with 6:29 remaining in the contest, ending a span of more than 10 minutes without a score. Following Flandina's score, Steve Bishko added his first score of the day to give the Irish a 10-8 advantage with 4:02 to play in the game. Flandina netted his second goal of the day off a feed from Todd Ulrich with 2:54 remaining and then Harvey scored Notre Dame's final goal with 58 seconds left to play. Bobby Benson, who led the Blue Jays with three goals, tallied the game's final score with 11 minutes remaining in the contest for the final four-goal margin.

Johns Hopkins scored on its first three shots of the game to take a 3-1 lead in the game just 5:11 into the contest, but the Irish scored four consecutive goals to take a 5-3 lead with 9:50 left in the second quarter. After David Ulrich scored unassisted to cut the lead to 3-2, sophomore middle Travis Wells scored two of Notre Dame's next three goals, marking the first multiple-goal game of his career.

Notre Dame went ahead 4-3 with 47 seconds left in the first period, and then Wells put the Irish up 5-3 with 9:50 left in the second period. The two teams traded goals for the remainder of the first half, as the Irish led 7-5 at the intermission.

Johns Hopkins tied the game less than four minutes into the second half, and then the two teams traded scores in the final three minutes of the third quarter as the third period ended knotted at 8-8. From there, both defenses took over before Flandina's goal with 6:29 remaining.

2001 NCAA Tournament – Semifinals

#2 Syracuse 12, #4 Notre Dame 5
May 26, 2001/Piscataway, N.J.

The most successful season in the history of the Notre Dame men's lacrosse program ended in the semifinals of the NCAA Championship, as the Irish fell victim to defending national champion Syracuse 12-5 at Rutgers Stadium in Piscataway, N.J. Coach Kevin Corrigan's squad ended the campaign with a 14-2 mark and set school records for most wins and single-season winning percentage (.875).

The 12 goals allowed and the seven-goal defeat were the largest of the season, while the loss snapped a nine-game winning streak, as the Irish were held to a season-low five goals in the loss.

Senior David Ulrich concluded his Notre Dame career with a goal and two assists to lead the Irish, while Jon Harvey netted two goals in his final collegiate outing.

Notre Dame trailed just 4-2 after the first period, but was outscored 5-1 in the second stanza, as the defense of the Orangemen kept the Irish in check for most of the contest.

Chris Young tallied his lone goal of the game 2:53 into the contest, as the Irish took a 1-0 lead. Syracuse scored four unanswered goals in just over three minutes to take a 4-1 advantage before Harvey scored the first of his two goals with 5:23 remaining in the quarter.

The Orangemen scored the first five goals of the second quarter before the Irish got on the scoreboard on Kyle Frigon's unassisted goal with 1:45 remaining in the second period, as the Orangemen held a 9-3 halftime advantage.

Michael Springer tallied a career-high six goals for Syracuse in the game, as five different players contributed scores. Mike Powell had four assists and Liam Banks added three to lead the Orangemen in that category.

Kirk Howell stopped 14 of Syracuse's 33 shots in the game.

2006 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#1 Virginia 14, #15 Notre Dame 10
May 13, 2006/Charlottesville, Va.

A four-goal effort from Matt Ward propelled No. 1 Virginia to a 14-10 victory over No. 15 Notre Dame in the first round of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship at Klockner Stadium. With the win, the Cavaliers moved to the quarterfinals of the tournament, while the Fighting Irish ended their season with a 10-5 mark overall.

Freshman Ryan Hoff netted his third hat trick of the season for the Irish, while seniors Brian Hubschmann and Matt Karweck chipped in two goals and one assist apiece. Fellow senior Pat Walsh dished out three assists on the day to end his stellar Notre Dame career just two assists shy from tying the program's career mark in that category. Virginia's Ward also collected two assists to complete a game-high five points as did his teammate Danny Glading on two goals and three assists.

Virginia opened up a 3-0 lead by the 6:40 mark of the first quarter on two goals from Matt Ward along with a Steve Giannone tally. The defense of the Cavaliers also hounded the Irish early on by not allowing many good looks in the opening period.

Notre Dame broke through with under a minute left in the first quarter as Hubschmann netted an unassisted man-up goal to make it a 3-1 game at the end of the first 15 minutes of play. Sophomore goaltender Joey Kemp came up with some huge saves early to keep the Irish in the contest. The sophomore collected a season-high 20 saves on the day.

The Cavaliers regained a three-goal advantage early in the second quarter as Kyle Dixon found the back of the net with just 28 seconds elapsed in the period. When it looked as though Virginia might break the game open, Notre Dame took control of the tempo en route to a 3-0 run to knot the game at 4-4 with 4:18 remaining in the half.

Freshman Peter Christman took a feed from Karweck to slice the deficit to 4-2 with 10:55 left in the second. After a couple unsuccessful attempts to make it a one-goal game, Bill Liva finally capitalized for the Fighting Irish as he controlled a rebound and sent it in with 4:33 left. Notre Dame's Taylor Claggett won the ensuing faceoff and D.J. Driscoll picked up the groundball and found Hubschmann, who sent it in to make it a 4-4 contest.

Virginia soon regained the momentum as the Cavaliers went on a 3-0 run to end the first half and take a 7-4 lead into the locker room. Danny Glading, Garrett Billings and Matt Poskay notched the Virginia goals in that span.

The Cavaliers extended their surge into the second half with scores from Dixon and Ward to up the lead to 9-4 at the 11:36 mark. The Irish kept on fighting with back-to-back goals from Hoff, with Walsh collecting the assist on both tallies.

With the score 9-6 midway through the third period, the Cavaliers rattled off three goals in-a-row in less than five minutes to claim their largest lead of the contest at 12-6. Notre Dame once again struck back with a man-up goal from Karweck on an assist from Walsh to close out the quarter with Virginia leading 12-7.

The Irish would outscore the Cavaliers 3-2 in the fourth quarter yet it would not be enough as Virginia captured the 14-10 win and a berth in the quarterfinals. Scoring for Notre Dame in the final period was Karweck, Liva and Hoff.

Virginia held a 50-34 advantage in shots, while Notre Dame won the faceoff battle as Claggett went 16-28. The Irish also converted on three of five extra-man opportunities. Virginia's Kip Turner made 10 saves on the day.

The final margin was the second-closest for top-ranked Virginia on the season and its closest contest at home.

2007 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Johns Hopkins 11, #9 Notre Dame 10 (OT)

May 12, 2007/Baltimore, Md.

A Michael Kimmel goal one minute into sudden-death overtime gave No. 5 Johns Hopkins an 11-10 victory over No. 9 Notre Dame in NCAA Tournament first-round play at Homewood Field on May 12. Junior midfielder Michael Podgajny led the Irish with a career-high tying four goals, while senior Brian Hubschmann added three goals and two assists. Notre Dame concluded its season with an 11-4 record, while Johns Hopkins improved to 10-4.

The back-and-forth thriller featured two 40-minute weather delays due to lightning and heavy rain in the area. It also marked Notre Dame's first overtime contest in over two seasons and its first ever in NCAA Tournament play.

With the Irish trailing 10-8 midway through the fourth quarter, freshman Will Yeatman fed sophomore Ryan Hoff to cut the deficit in half for the Irish. Johns Hopkins had a 10-9 lead and the ball with under a minute left in regulation when the Fighting Irish defense forced a turnover and Hubschmann found Hoff in front of the goal for the equalizer with nine seconds left to force overtime. The Blue Jays won the faceoff in overtime and Kimmel put a low shot in the back of the net to snap Notre Dame's eight-game win streak.

Notre Dame struck first in the contest as Podgajny upped his team-best goal streak to 15 games with a tally just over a minute into the game. Stephen Peyser countered for Johns Hopkins with a goal with 10:04 left in the first quarter. The first weather delay then occurred with 9:12 left on the clock.

Once play resumed, the Irish went on a 3-0 run beginning with Hubschmann's first goal of the day as he scooped up a ground ball off a failed Blue Jay clear and beat Johns Hopkins goaltender Jesse Schwartzman. Podgajny struck again with eight seconds left on the clock in the first quarter, off a pass from Hubschmann, to give Notre Dame a 3-1 lead after the first 15 minutes of play. Hubschmann gave the Irish a three-goal cushion with his second tally of the night with just over five minutes elapsed in the second quarter.

Johns Hopkins, the No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament, responded with a 6-1 run. Goals from Jake Byrne and Steven Boyle cut Notre Dame's lead to one (4-3) at halftime.

The Blue Jays evened the contest with 9:40 left in the third quarter on a Paul Rabil goal and then took their first lead when Byrne found the back of the net just over a minute later. Notre Dame came back with a man-up tally from Brett Vecchio to make it 5-5 with 7:40 left in the third period.

Scores from Drew Dabrowski and Brian Christopher gave Johns Hopkins a 7-5 lead when another weather delay hit with 2:54 remaining in the third quarter.

The Irish would once again come out of the delay with a goal as Podgajny netted his third score. A back-and-forth game then ensued as the next six goals alternated between both teams.

Byrne made it 8-6 in favor of Johns Hopkins, yet Hubschmann responded as he completed his hat trick with one second left on the clock in the third quarter. Notre Dame had scores come with under 10 seconds left in three of the game's four quarters.

Rabil opened the fourth-quarter scoring and Podgajny countered with his fourth tally, on a pass from Davey Leach, to make it 9-8 in favor of the Blue Jays with 10:03 left in the period. Less than two minutes later, Christopher put Johns Hopkins back up by two before the back-to-back goals from Hoff forced overtime.

Notre Dame goaltender Joey Kemp, the Great Western Lacrosse League's player of the year, made eight saves on the night. Schwartzman stopped 14 shots for the Blue Jays. The Irish held a 43-36 advantage in shots, while Johns Hopkins won 17 of 24 faceoff attempts.

In his final collegiate game, Brian Hubschmann notched five points on three goals and two assists in an 11-10 overtime setback to eventual national champion Johns Hopkins in the first round of the 2007 NCAA Championship. One of the assists came on a Ryan Hoff goal that tied the game, 10-10, with nine seconds left in regulation.

NCAA Tournament History

Notre Dame celebrates its 8-7 overtime victory over Colgate in the first round of the 2008 NCAA Championship. Peter Christman tallied the game winner with 1:28 left in the first overtime.

Notre Dame upped the defensive pressure and Neal Hicks scooped up a ground ball off a failed Raider clear and scored with 3:45 showing on the clock. Michael Podgajny would net the equalizer with 1:29 left in regulation.

Colgate gained possession first in overtime and it looked as though the Raiders were going to pull the upset as Craumer had a good look from close range, yet Irish goaltender Joey Kemp made the save to keep the Notre Dame season alive.

Kemp's save paid off on the other end of the field as Christman, who also scored the game-winner in the final seconds against Albany earlier this season, scored to send the Irish into the quarterfinals.

The Fighting Irish out shot the Raiders, 40-23, on the afternoon. Kemp made eight saves in the win, while his counterpart, Tim Harrington, had 18 stops. Taylor Claggett went 12-for-18 in faceoffs against Colgate's Chris Eck. That was a featured match-up as Claggett entered as the nation's second-best faceoff man and Eck was fifth.

2008 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Notre Dame 8, #10 Colgate 7 (OT)

May 11, 2008/Notre Dame, Ind.

A Peter Christman goal with 1:28 left in the first overtime period gave No. 5 Notre Dame an 8-7 victory over No. 10 Colgate in NCAA Tournament first-round play at a rainy Alumni Field on Sunday, May 11. With the win, the sixth-seeded Fighting Irish advanced to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals for the fourth time in program history.

The Fighting Irish, who used eight different goalscorers, never led in the game until Christman's goal found the back of the net to give Notre Dame its first victory in the NCAA Tournament since the 2001 quarterfinals. The victory also brought the program-record home win streak to 19 games for the Irish.

Colgate jumped out on top with a goal from Matt Lalli with just under two minutes gone by in the contest. The Irish responded on a goal from Ryan Hoff, with the assist going to Alex Wharton, with four-and-a-half minutes to go in the opening period. The Raiders went ahead 3-1 by the end of the quarter on scores from Kevin Colleluori and Brandon Corp.

Notre Dame, who was hosting an NCAA Tournament game for the first time, sliced the lead to one (3-2) as Dan Gibson assisted on a Zach Brenneman goal. However, Colgate struck back with tallies from Ian Murphy and Zack Craumer to take a 5-2 lead into halftime.

The Irish began the second-half scoring with unassisted goals from Grant Krebs and Adam Felicetti to make it a 5-4 contest in favor of the Raiders with 4:57 remaining in the third quarter. Colgate got its advantage back up to two (6-4) on a man-up score from Joshua Back.

The Raiders led 6-4 after three periods of play, yet Notre Dame would score four of the game's next five goals to take the victory.

Wharton began the final surge for the Irish with a man-up tally with 11:21 left in regulation. It would be nearly seven minutes until the next goal was scored and that came from Colgate's Colleluori to give the Raiders a 7-5 lead.

Peter Christman (#44) and Alex Wharton (#29) celebrate an Irish goal during the 2008 NCAA quarterfinals against Syracuse. The Fighting Irish fell to the Orange, 11-9, in Ithaca, N.Y.

2008 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#3 Syracuse 11, #5 Notre Dame 9

May 18, 2008/Ithaca, N.Y.

Third-seeded Syracuse scored the game's last three goals to take an 11-9 decision over sixth-seeded Notre Dame in the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals on Sunday, May 18 in front of 6,121 fans at Schoellkopf Field. The Fighting Irish concluded the 2008 season with a 14-3 record.

Syracuse jumped out to a 6-2 advantage at halftime, yet Notre Dame came storming back to take the lead by scoring five straight goals to open the third quarter. The Irish used a sound defensive effort, including a season-high 19 saves from senior goaltender Joey Kemp, to remain within striking range at the half despite getting out shot 30-14 in the opening 30 minutes.

Notre Dame's second-half surge began with an unassisted goal from Michael Podgajny just 26 seconds into the stanza. Podgajny, Alex Wharton and Peter Christman all led the Irish with two goals apiece. Wharton also chipped in a team-high two assists.

A goal from Christman and a man-up tally from Grant Krebs sliced the Orange lead to one (6-5) with 9:38 remaining in the third quarter. Notre Dame knotted the affair on a goal from Wharton and Christman gave the Irish their first lead of the game at 7-6 with 5:02 left in the third quarter.

Syracuse put an end to the Irish uprising as Greg Niewierski scored with 1:59 left in the third period. Notre Dame regained the momentum as Wharton buried his second goal to make it an 8-7 contest after three quarters of play.

The Orange struck first in the final stanza behind a goal from Mike Leveille with 13:26 on the clock to tie the game once again. Notre Dame grabbed the lead back as Zach Brenneman scored with 10:03 left in the game. That would be the final goal of the contest for the Fighting Irish.

Syracuse netted its third equalizer in less than a quarter of play as Patrick Perritt found the back of the net with 6:23 remaining. Dan Hardy put the Orange up for good as he completed his hat trick with 5:05 showing on the clock. A goal from Steven Brooks with 3:14 left would be the final score of the game.

Syracuse struck first in the contest on a goal from Matt Abbott with 10:50 left in the first quarter. The Fighting Irish got on the board with 8:19 left in the first quarter as Ryan Hoff netted his team-leading, and career-best, 41st goal of the season.

The Orange responded with four straight goals to take a 5-1 lead by the 4:06 mark of the first half. Man-up tallies from Hardy and Stephen Keogh started the surge and gave the Orange a 3-1 at the end of the first period. The run continued as Steven Brooks and Hardy scored to produce a four-goal advantage for Syracuse.

Notre Dame cut into the lead as Podgajny scored with 3:00 remaining in the first half. Syracuse responded when Kenny Nims deposited a goal to make it 6-2 in favor of the Orange at the intermission.

The Orange controlled possession in the contest and held a 48-34 advantage in shots. Freshman goalie John Galloway made 11 saves, including some crucial stops in the fourth quarter. Syracuse's Danny Brennan went 17-for-24 in faceoffs. Taylor Clagett took the majority of faceoffs for the Irish and went 5-for-21.

#13 Maryland 7, #2 Notre Dame 3

May 10, 2009/Notre Dame, Ind.

Second-ranked Notre Dame suffered a 7-3 setback to No. 13 Maryland in the first round of the NCAA Championship on Sunday, May 10 at Alumni Field. The Fighting Irish were seeded seventh in the tournament, while the Terrapins were unseeded.

Maryland never trailed in the contest. The Terrapins got on the board behind a goal from Jeremy Sieverts at the 12:38 mark of the first quarter. Joe Cummings made it 2-0 in favor of Maryland with 11:08 left in the first quarter. Notre Dame answered back with an unassisted tally from sophomore midfielder Zach Brenneman with 10:22 on the clock in the period. That would be the final goal of the first quarter for either team.

Four straight goals from the Terrapins would give them a 6-1 advantage by the 10:08 mark of third quarter. The surge began with a Grant Catalino goal with 12:38 left in the second quarter. An Adam Sear tally with just over five minutes remaining in the opening half gave Maryland a 4-1 lead at the intermission.

The Terrapins went up by four (5-1) as Dan Groot scored in the opening stages of the second half. Maryland upped its lead to five on a Rob Morrison goal less than five minutes into the third quarter.

Notre Dame halted the streak when senior midfielder Peter Christman scored an unassisted goal at the 3:51 mark of the third period. Overall, the Fighting Irish were held without a goal for 36:31 during Maryland's 4-0 run. The Terrapins led 6-2 after three quarters of play.

Maryland regained its five-goal edge on Groot's second tally of the afternoon less than two minutes into the final stanza. The Irish would get the last goal of the day as junior midfielder Grant Krebs scored off a pass from his classmate Neal Hicks.

The Fighting Irish held a 34-33 edge in shots along with going 9-for-13 in faceoffs. Sophomore Jake Marmul led the way in that category by going 8-2.

Maryland goalie Brian Phipps picked up the win by making nine saves, while Scott Rodgers suffered the first loss of his career. The Irish goalie made 14 stops on the day.

Byron V. Kanaley

Byron V. Kanaley Award

The Byron V. Kanaley Award is the most prestigious honor awarded to a Notre Dame student-athlete. It has been presented each year since 1927 at commencement exercises and honors senior monogram athletes who have been exemplary as students and leaders. The award is selected by the Faculty Board on Athletics and is named in honor of a 1904 Notre Dame graduate who was a member of the Irish baseball team as an undergraduate. Kanaley went on to a successful banking career in Chicago and served the University in the Alumni Association and as a lay trustee from 1915 until his death in 1960. Notre Dame men's lacrosse boasts two recipients of the Kanaley Award. Robert Williamson received the honor in 1993 and Peter Christman was presented the award in 2009.

Chris Zorich

The Christopher Zorich Award

This award recognizes the contributions of Notre Dame student-athletes to the University community and the community at-large. The award, which is presented annually each spring, bears the name of Christopher Zorich, two-time football All-American and 1991 graduate of the University of Notre Dame. Dan Sclaro became the first men's lacrosse recipient of the award when he garnered the honor in 2008.

Davey Melera and Notre Dame's class of 2009 posted a 50-13 record. That is the most victories over a four-year span in the history of Fighting Irish lacrosse.

Series vs. Opponents

Duncan Swezey netted four goals in Notre Dame's 7-6 win over #13 Albany during the 2008 season.

Note: Rank column has Notre Dame's USILA (or Inside Lacrosse if game was too early in season for first USILA poll to be released) national ranking at time of game followed by opponent's USILA national ranking at time of game.

IRISH ON NATIONAL TEAMS

Four Notre Dame players -- Mike Iorio ('95), Todd Rassas ('98), Pat Walsh ('06) and D.J. Driscoll ('06) -- have represented their country by playing on their respective national teams. Iorio, Rassas and Walsh helped Team U.S.A. to an International Lacrosse Federation (ILF) world championship, extending the influence of Irish lacrosse far beyond the borders of the United States.

Driscoll will be part of the United States squad that will compete at the 2010 Federation of International Lacrosse (FIL) World Championship in England.

In the summer of 2003, Walsh, the first freshman All-America honoree in Notre Dame history, played a key role in helping the U.S. continue its streak of dominance in the ILF Under-19 World Championship. After making his way through the national team tryouts, which boasted more than 150 of the nation's top young players, Walsh had four goals and three assists to lead Team U.S.A. in its 19-10 triumph over Canada in the championship game. In six games during the tournament, Walsh had 13 goals and eight assists, including at least two points in each contest.

Todd Rassas, a three-time All-American at Notre Dame, helped the United States to a victory in the 2002 ILF World Championship in Perth, Australia and a silver medal finish in the 2006 tournament in Canada. The 2002 squad defeated rival Canada 18-15 in the title game to secure Team U.S.A.'s sixth consecutive triumph in the ILF World Championship, which is contested every four years. In 2006, Team U.S.A. fell to Canada 15-10 in the championship game.

Mike Iorio, the first three-time All-American in Irish history, earned all-world honors as a member of the United States under-19 team in 1992. Iorio started for the national team on defense, in helping the Americans to a gold medal in the world championship, held at Hofstra University.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

History

- The University of Notre Dame du Lac was founded in 1842 by Father Edward Sorin. Adjacent to South Bend, Ind., and nestled next to Saint Mary's and Saint Joseph's Lakes, the University was started with $310 in cash and three log buildings in disrepair.
- Notre Dame would establish many firsts for Catholic institutions of higher learning, including the first Catholic law school, the first Catholic engineering school and the first student residence with private rooms, Sorin Hall.

Academics

- The University is organized into four colleges - Arts and Letters, Science, Engineering and the Mendoza College of Business - the School of Architecture, the Law School, the Graduate School, six major research institutes, more than 40 centers and special programs and the University library system.
- Notre Dame is rated among the nation's top 25 institutions of higher learning in surveys conducted by U.S. News and World Report, Princeton Review, Time, Kiplinger's, and Kaplan/Newsweek.
- Notre Dame ranks fifth in a listing of "dream schools" in a survey of parents by the Princeton Review. The top five are Princeton, Stanford, Harvard, New York University and Notre Dame.
- Notre Dame is among a select group of schools that ranks in the top 25 on the U.S. News & World Report survey of the nation's top colleges and in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Directors' Cup for overall success in athletics.

Students

- Graduate and undergraduate students at the University come from all 50 states and more than 100 countries worldwide.
- Notre Dame's graduation rate of 95 percent is exceeded by only Harvard and Princeton.
- Notre Dame's 98 percent retention rate between the freshman and sophomore years is among the highest in the country, thanks in large part to the University's unique First Year of Studies Program.
- Notre Dame has one of the highest undergraduate residential concentrations of any national university, with 80 percent of its students living in 27 residence halls.

- The medical school acceptance rate of the University's preprofessional studies graduates is 80 percent, almost twice the national average.
- Notre Dame ranks first among Catholic universities in the number of doctorates earned by its undergraduate alumni - a record compiled over some 85 years.

Service

- Community service is a hallmark of Notre Dame. About 80 percent of Notre Dame students engage in some form of voluntary community service during their years at the University, and at least 10 percent devote a year or more after graduation to service in the United States and around the world.
- The University's Alliance for Catholic Education (ACE) annually sends 180 recent graduates to teach in some 100 understaffed Catholic schools in the southern, southeastern and southwestern United States and in South Bend. A national model, ACE has received the Higher Education Award from the Corporation for National Service for leadership in using national service resources through AmeriCorps.

Alumni

- The University's network of 270 alumni clubs -- including 60 international clubs -- is the most extensive in higher education.
- With graduates renowned for their loyalty and generosity, Notre Dame annually ranks among the top five in percentage of alumni who contribute to the University.
- In recent years, Notre Dame alumni have won a Nobel Prize in medicine, a Pulitzer Prize in journalism, and an Emmy Award for contributions to television technology.
