Exceptional Education

Since its founding, Notre Dame has stressed mixing academics with faith and has done so while becoming one of the top institutions of higher learning in the nation. Featuring five undergraduate colleges (Arts and Letters, Science, Architecture, Engineering and Business), the First Year of Studies, the Graduate School and the Law School, the University finds itself attracting some of the top students and faculty in the country. Students also participate in cutting edge research and diverse study abroad opportunities, enabling Notre Dame to offer one of the top academic experiences in the world.

Ranking of the Mendoza College of Business by BusinessWeek, in its annual survey of undergraduate business programs.

22

Ranking of the Notre Dame Law School by U.S. News and World Report.

42

National Endowment for the Humanities fellowships won by faculty in the College of Arts and Letters, more than any other university in the nation.

Publications in which the University of Notre Dame is ranked among the top 25 institutions of higher learning (U.S. News and World Report, Princeton Review, Time, Kiplinger's and Kaplan/Newsweek).

First Year of Studies

The First Year of Studies program provides all first-year students with the opportunity to gain a wide-ranging liberal arts background before choosing a specific major within Notre Dame's five undergraduate colleges. A progressive advising program for all student-athletes enables the University to follow the academic progress of all student-athletes on a regular basis. Key to the program is the fact that it is not run by the athletics department but by the University administration.

Student-Athlete Success

Notre Dame expects the best out of its student-athletes just as it does of every other student on campus. Notre Dame has had unprecedented academic success among its athletes, consistently ranking among the top NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision schools in graduation rates and academic progress. With more Academic All-Americans than any other school since 2000, Irish athletes have shown themselves capable of performing in the classroom while competing on the field at an elite level.

14

Programs honored by the NCAA for Academic Progress Rate scores in 2010, more than any other of the 120 Football Bowl Subdivision universities. The APR measures multi-year academic success by team members.

Irish teams which recorded a perfect score of 1,000 in the NCAA's 2010 Academic Progress Rate report, more than any other Football Bowl Subdivision institution. Notre Dame also had 13 additional programs with scores of 990 or better and all 26 varsity teams placed above NCAA standards.

19

Programs which achieved a perfect 100 percent graduation rate according to the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate, second most among Football Bowl Subdivision institutions.

100

Federal graduation rate percent achieved by nine Irish teams, according to the latest NCAA figures. Notre Dame had 11 teams ranked first in their respective sport.

.863

Percentage of Irish varsity sports (19 of 22) to achieve a perfect 100 percent graduation rate according to the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate. Notre Dame was one of only 10 institutions with more than half its programs achieving a 100 percent graduation rate and no other school saw more than 80 percent of its programs achieve a perfect score.

According to 2009 NCAA Graduation Success Rate results, Notre Dame ranked first in the nation in graduation rates among all student-athletes (99 percent), male student-athletes (98 percent), female student athletes (100 percent), black student-athletes (97 percent) and football student-athletes (96 percent).

Sports Medicine

While no athlete plans on an injury, Notre Dame is prepared with one of the top sports medicine teams in the country to help keep its athletes fit and ready to compete. With training facilities in the Joyce Center, Notre Dame Stadium and the Guglielmino Athletics Complex, the training staff is always there to care for athletes. With approximately 225 years combined experience on the full-time staff, Notre Dame also boasts a partnership with the renowned South Bend Orthopaedics to provide first-class care.

Total sports medicine staff members. Head athletic trainer Jim Russ leads three associate trainers, eight assistant trainers and two physical therapists.

8,500

Square feet of cutting-edge sports medicine technology, including two 3,500-gallon therapy pools, a full x-ray unit and an MRI machine.

Sports Nutrition

Notre Dame has incorporated Erika Whitman, a full-time sports dietitian, as a part of its Strength and Conditioning staff. Whitman continually provides accurate and up-to-date nutrition education to student-athletes and coaches. Including nutrition as an integral component of all training programs enables Irish athletes to achieve optimal health and maximize performance.

Notre Dame is one of only 17 Football Bowl Sub-division schools to employ a full-time sports dietitian in its athletics department.

Strength and Conditioning

The task of keeping athletes in top physical condition is up to the strength & conditioning staff. The strength and conditioning staff knows the demands of competing on an elite level and is committed to ensuring Irish athletes are always in the best possible condition. From weight lifting to wind sprints and from warming up to cooling down, the strength and conditioning staff has every aspect covered.

10

Full-time employees working with Irish varsity athletes. Notre Dame's Olympic sports teams are led in the weight room by director of strength and conditioning Tony Rolinski and his staff.

25,000

Square feet in the Haggar Fitness Complex, which is located in the Guglielmino Athletics Complex, including a weight room, a 45-yard artificial turf agility field, a Gatorade hydration station, six plasma TVs and a 28-speaker sound system.

The University of Notre Dame

When Father Edward F. Sorin started his school in the northern Indiana wilderness, he had only $300, three log buildings badly in need of repair and a far-sighted vision of establishing a liberal arts school to meet the growing educational needs of the frontier. He dreamed of building a great university, and in 1842, he founded the University of Notre Dame du Lac.

Over the years, the University of Notre Dame du Lac would evolve into a preeminent place for Catholic thought. While becoming one of the top undergraduate institutions in the country, Notre Dame has also been at the cutting edge of research, including such innovations as the transmission of wireless messages and the development of synthetic rubber. The University also has stressed residential life, with four of five students living on campus. Students come to Notre Dame not only to learn how to think, but to learn how to live, keeping faith with the vision of Father Sorin.

1842

The University of Notre Dame was founded by Rev. Edward F. Sorin, C.S.C., as an independent, national Catholic university adjacent to South Bend, Ind., on St. Mary's and St. Joseph's Lakes.

11,731

Total enrollment at the University of Notre Dame, with 8,363 undergraduate students.

23.9

Karat gold in the famed Golden Dome, which tops the Main Building at the heart of campus.

4

Notre Dame's ranking by Princeton Review in a list of "Dream Schools" which takes into account academics and student life, among other attributes.

Student Body

Notre Dame is one of a handful of universities with a truly international student body, coming from more than 100 nations and all 50 states. The most recent freshman class featured 89 percent of students in the top 10 percent of their high school class. In addition, there are no fraternities or sororities at Notre Dame, with the school's 28 residence halls housing more than 80 percent of the student body, serving as the focal point of social, religious and athletic activities.

95

Graduation rate percentage among Notre Dame students, third in the nation behind only Harvard and Princeton.

95

Retention rate between freshman and sophomore year which thanks to the University's renowned First Year of Studies Program, ranks among the highest in the country.

80

Percent of Notre Dame students who reside in one of 28 on-campus residence halls, where approximately 40 Holy Cross religious leaders provide pastoral assistance.

50/100

States and countries, respectively, which Notre Dame students call home.

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C.

President

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., took office as the 17th president of the University of Notre Dame on July 1, 2005. He was elected by the University's Board of Trustees to a five-year term April 30, 2004.

An associate professor of philosophy and member of Notre Dame's faculty since 1990, Father Jenkins had served as a vice president and associate provost at the University from July 2000 until becoming president.

Prior to his service in the provost's office, Father Jenkins had been religious superior of the Holy Cross priests and brothers at Notre Dame for three years. As religious superior, he was a Fellow and Trustee of the University.

Father Jenkins specializes in the areas of ancient philosophy, medieval philosophy and the philosophy of religion. He is the author of Knowledge and Faith in Thomas Aquinas, published by Cambridge University Press in 1997.

Father Jenkins earned degrees in philosophy from Oxford University in 1987 and 1989. He earned his master of divinity degree and licentiate in sacred theology from the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, Calif., in 1988. Prior to entering the Congregation of Holy Cross, he earned bachelor's and master's degrees in philosophy from Notre Dame in 1976 and 1978, respectively.

Father Jenkins was ordained a priest in Notre Dame's Basilica of the Sacred Heart in 1983. He served as director of the Old College program for Notre Dame undergraduate candidates for the Congregation of Holy Cross from 1991 to 1993.

A native of Omaha, Neb., Father Jenkins was born Dec. 17, 1953.

Jack Swarbrick

Director of Athletics

John B. "Jack" Swarbrick Jr., a University of Notre Dame graduate who rose to national prominence as a lawyer, consultant and executive in the collegiate and Olympic sports industries, is in his third year in 2010-11 as director of athletics at his alma mater.

Among Swarbrick's athletics initiatives are meeting the performance needs of Notre Dame student-athletes through establishment of a new sports performance division, reaching out to more former Irish student-athletes via the Notre Dame Monogram Club and other programs, utilizing emerging digital technologies to deliver better information on and access to Notre Dame athletic programs via expanded production and distribution of programming, and restructuring Notre Dame's approach to sport administration through assignment of a unique administrator to each of the 26 Irish sports.

The past two years combined in Notre Dame athletics have featured 68 All-Americans, 14 Academic All-America selections and four NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship winners; record involvement in community service hours by Irish student-athletes; NCAA runner-up team finishes in 2010 men's lacrosse, 2009 fencing and 2008 women's soccer; NCAA semifinal appearances in 2009 and 2010 women's tennis and 2009 women's soccer, plus a 2010 third-place fencing finish; the hiring of new Irish head football coach Brian Kelly to start the 2010 season; the decision to build a new, freestanding ice hockey arena, scheduled to open for the 2011-12 season, plus the 2009-10 dedications of new facilities for soccer and lacrosse – as well as opening of the new Purcell Pavilion within the south dome of the Joyce Center, and 15 BIG EAST Conference titles along with four other league crowns in hockey, men's lacrosse and fencing.

Notre Dame ranked number one in the country (among Football Bowl Subdivision schools) in the two most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) surveys -- in 2009 with a 99 (including a 97 score in football that also ranked number one).

Born in Yonkers, N.Y., and raised in Yonkers and Bloomington, Ind., Swarbrick is a 1976 magna cum laude graduate of Notre Dame with a bachelor's degree in economics. Upon graduating from Stanford University Law School in 1980, he returned to Indiana to accept a position as an associate in the Indianapolis law firm Baker & Daniels. He made partner in 1987 and spent 28 years overall with the firm.

As a member of the Indiana Sports Corporation, including the chairmanship from 1992 to 2001, Swarbrick led most of the city's successful proposals to a wide array of athletics organizations – from the National Football League to the United States Olympic Committee to the Big Ten Conference. His leadership efforts resulted in the city earning the right to play host to the 2012 Super Bowl in Indianapolis at Lucas Oil Stadium; becoming the home of the National Collegiate Athletic Association national headquarters in 1999; hosting the 1987 Pan American Games, 1991 World Gymnastics Championships, NCAA Men's Basketball Final Fours and other college championship competitions and an array of national and world championships in Olympic sports.

Swarbrick's practice at Baker & Daniels focused on the representation of owners of sports teams and organizations that sanction or conduct athletic competitions. He served as general counsel for numerous national governing bodies of Olympic sports, including USA Gymnastics and USRowing, and as a consultant to the 1996 Summer Olympic Games in Atlanta.

In his work as an advisor to the NCAA, Swarbrick coordinated the men's College Basketball Partnership, an NCAA-led group that addresses the opportunities and challenges in the sport, and developed the business plan for the new NBA/NCAA youth basketball enterprise, iHoops. In 2000 Swarbrick received one of the NCAA's highest honors, The Flying Wedge Award, for his work in establishing Indianapolis as the new home of the NCAA. In 2001 the State of Indiana presented him with the Sagamore of the Wabash Award.

Born March 19, 1954, Swarbrick was named Notre Dame's 12th athletics director on July 16, 2008. He and his wife, Kimberly, are the parents of four children: Kate, a 2010 graduate of St. Louis University; Connor, a senior at Wake Forest University; Cal, a freshman at TCU; and Christopher, a high school senior.

Homes of the Fighting Irish

In the midst of a master plan that will touch nearly every varsity team, Notre Dame has shown its commitment to providing athletes with the best possible facilities to help them compete on a national level. From new facilities to the extensive renovation of existing ones, Notre Dame is committed to giving Irish athletes every edge imaginable. The plan will result in a drastically altered footprint on the south-east corner of campus, creating an athletics quad that will give every Irish athlete a place they will be proud to call home.

New facilities which have opened their doors in the past five years, including the Guglielmino Athletics Complex (housing football offices and locker room, a new weight room and new sports medicine facilities), the LaBar Practice Complex (featuring two Field Turf fields and one natural grass field) and Melissa Cook Stadium (home of the Irish softball team). Three facilities opened during the 2009-10 school year: Alumni Stadium (home to men's and women's soccer), Purcell Pavilion (renovation and expansion of men's and women's basketball arena) and Arlotta Family Stadium (home of men's and women's lacrosse).

26.3

Million dollars spent on Purcell Pavilion for additions and renovations to the Joyce Center Arena. Purcell Pavilion at the Joyce Center features a three-story addition with club seating, a hospitality area, additional area for restrooms and concessions, as well as new space for the Varsity Shop and the Notre Dame ticket office.

Facilities which are still on the master plan to create a comprehensive athletic quad. The hockey program, the tennis squads and the rowing team all will receive new facilities in the near future.

Championship Teams

Notre Dame prides itself on competing with the best in every sport it fields. Eight different programs have won national championships since Notre Dame began its first varsity team, football in 1887. With more consensus national championships in football than any other school, other programs have begun to emerge on the national scene in the 15 years since Notre Dame joined the BIG EAST Conference.

National championships (11 in football, seven in fencing, three in women's soccer, two in men's tennis, one in men's golf, men's cross country and women's basketball) won by Notre Dame.

107

BIG EAST Conference championships won by Notre Dame in 15 seasons of league play.

Conference championships won by Irish teams during the 2009-10 year (six BIG EAST plus two Midwest Fencing Conference championships).

Championship People

To measure the success of Notre Dame's determination to have both academic and athletic success, one needs only to look at the numbers. From Academic All-Americans to BIG EAST Conference Academic All-Stars, Notre Dame continues to set the bar nationally.

216

All-time Academic All-Americans produced by Notre Dame, second most of any university.

90

Academic All-Americans since 2000, no school has more.

2

Irish teams which have produced more Academic All-Americans than any other school in their respective sports – baseball and women's soccer.

6

Notre Dame Academic All-Americans in 2009-10: Tim Abromaitis (men's basketball), Mike Anello (football), Cosmina Ciobanu (women's tennis), Lauren Fowlkes (women's soccer), Christine Lux (softball) and Michael Thomas (men's soccer).

48

Notre Dame NCAA postgraduate scholarship recipients since 1964.

Irish in the Community

In addition to academic success, Notre Dame emphasizes giving back to the community as well. Notre Dame athletes have participated in countless service projects through the years, benefiting the Notre Dame and South Bend communities and beyond. Team and individual projects have allowed Irish athletes to see the positive impact they have in the lives of others and learn how to use their talents to benefit those in their communities.

6,000

Hours of community service completed by Notre Dame student-athletes during the 2009-10 school year.

5,000

Number of people directly impacted by Notre Dame student-athletes through community service work in 2009-10 by assisting over 50 local and national non-profit organizations and agencies.

1,300

Community service hours completed by Fighting Irish football team in June 2010. Sixty-five members of the team spent two hours five days a week during the first two weeks of June at local Boys and Girls Clubs, children learning centers and other organizations helping South Bend area youths.

An Exclusive Club

The Notre Dame Monogram Club was founded by athletics director Jesse Harper in 1916 to bring together varsity letterwinners to promote spirit, unity, leadership and sportsmanship. Today's active members help keep past athletes connected to Notre Dame and the current student-athletes. In addition to helping contribute to scholarships, the Monogram Club has helped contribute to new facilities, especially the renovation of Heritage Hall and the Monogram Room, located in the Joyce Center.

Post-Graduate scholarships awarded by the Monogram Club in 2010. Men's basketball's Tim Andree and women's tennis' Cosmina Ciabanu earned the second annual grants. Andree will begin law school in the fall while Ciabanu will attend medical school in California.

3,695

Active members in the Monogram Club through the 2009-10 year. The contributions of active members entitle them to Inside Irish, a magazine for members; the annual Riehle Open golf outing; football tickets and makes their children eligible for the Brennan-Boland-Riehle Scholarship.

2.5

Million dollars which have been contributed to the Brennan-Boland-Riehle Scholarship fund, which benefits the children of former Notre Dame athletes who attend the University.

Notre Dame's Neighbor

Located adjacent to South Bend, Ind., the University of Notre Dame has always acknowledged its place in a greater community. Sitting between South Bend and Mishawaka in northern Indiana, Notre Dame has benefited the area in ways unimaginable, especially when it comes to Notre Dame football weekends. It is estimated that the average football weekend brings approximately $6.2 million dollars to the surrounding community. In addition to the financial aspect, Notre Dame feels truly invested in the surrounding community, with students participating in countless service projects to benefit the greater South Bend area.

316,663

Population of the South Bend-Mishawaka area.

5.5

Millions of dollars in voluntary contributions over the next 10 years from the University of Notre Dame to the cities of South Bend and Mishawaka, the town of Roseland and to St. Joseph County.

24

Football legends enshrined in South Bend's College Football Hall of Fame in the summer of 2010, including former Heisman Trophy winner Tim Brown. The College Football Hall of Fame was constructed in downtown South Bend in 1995 and features what is regarded as one of the most interactive museums in the world.

1,900

Feet runs the East Race Waterway, the first man-made waterway rapids facility in North America. The East Race hosted the 2004 U.S. Olympic Trials for kayak.

GIVE A GIFT and LEAVE A LEGACY

Over 650 student-athletes on 26 varsity teams excelling in academics, spirituality, community service and athletics - all made possible courtesy of the generous alumni, parents and friends who support Notre Dame's first athletics annual fund – the Rockne Heritage Fund.

The culmination of these gifts assists the University in underwriting athletics scholarships that are the lifeblood of every program that wants to recruit the best and the brightest and compete for national championships.

Our work has just begun. Scholarships are one of the largest line items in the department of athletics operating budget, accounting for roughly $14 million annually.

Director's Circle

Members donating to the Rockne Heritage Fund at the $1,500, $5,000, $10,000 and $25,000 levels, receive a corresponding benefits package.

For more information on the attractive football ticket benefit, visit our website: und.com/rockneheritagefund.

IRISH REFLECTIONS

DAVEY LEACH '09

Midfielder • Captain of the 2009 team

"When I first walked onto Notre Dame's campus as a slightly overweight 19 year old I had no idea what to expect from my next four years. From the moment I entered the locker room at the back of the Joyce Center, Notre Dame began to shape me into the person I am today. The tools and contacts I developed during my four years on the lacrosse team will stay with me the rest of my life. Not a day goes by when I do not think back to times I spent with my 40 best friends on and off the field. I loved every minute I was at Notre Dame, and I still love every teammate I had at Notre Dame."

PETER CHRISTMAN '09

Midfielder • Captain of the 2009 team

"The individuals within an undergraduate institution who catalyze the learning process—who teach students how to think critically and act independently—are what differentiates great universities from the rest. Whether it's the teachers, advisors, coaches, administrators, or students themselves, Notre Dame is distinguished by the people within it. This defining characteristic is often described as the Notre Dame family. It's a term that is used quite loosely but, nonetheless, represents both the solidarity of the University's community and, more importantly, the ability of those within the community to influence the decisions and actions of others for the better long after they have departed South Bend. To this day, it is the people of Notre Dame who bring out the best in me—who challenge me to push further and faster. And for that I am, and will forever be, indebted."

DAVE CASHEN '97

Defenseman • Academic All-American

"Nowhere in the country could I have found such a good education and a school surrounded by students who love their school, what it stands for and most of all their classmates. I was able to combine this with four years of competitive lacrosse on a team nationally-ranked, well-coached and most of all, created by 35 teammates devoted to each other on and off the field. It is a great feeling to have 35 friends always to support, encourage and entertain you."

MIKE IORIO '95

Defenseman • Three-time All-American

"Notre Dame lacrosse provided me with four years of fun and excitement, and it continues to be a part of my life. As a freshman in 1992, I was a part of the team that had the program's first top-10 win. By my senior year, we had accomplished what no other NCAA Division I men's lacrosse team had ever done - the No. 12 seed knocked off the No. 5 seed in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. In the four years that came between these two historic Notre Dame lacrosse events, I received a great education, developed the teamwork and time management skills that I utilize every day in the banking world and built friendships that will last me a lifetime."

JIMMY KEENAN '98

Midfielder • Three-time honorable mention All-American

"The decision to attend Notre Dame and play lacrosse there has turned out to be the most gratifying decision of my life thus far. This unique University fulfilled all I could have wished for as a high school senior. As a school, it offers everything from academics to athletics to nightlife and a campus atmosphere that can only be summed up with the cliché 'Notre Dame Family.' The experience, memories and friends that I have accumulated over my four years there have really defined who I am today. Playing lacrosse at Notre Dame, with its tradition and history, was certainly the proudest and most memorable experience for me. The team and the University will always remain a part of my life for it is truly a family."

KEVIN O'CONNOR '89

Midfielder/Defenseman • Captain of the 1989 team

"As a candidate for United States Congress, I was amazed at the amount of attention given by the media and voters to my having served as captain of the lacrosse team at the University of Notre Dame. Indeed, of all the activities in which I have been involved, my experience as a lacrosse player at Notre Dame was the most valuable in the campaign. The traits that make Notre Dame athletics special in the eyes of the public - sportsmanship, integrity and success - are of equal value in the political arena."

Irish Lacrosse Experience

Foreign Trips

In order to enhance the student-athlete experience, the Notre Dame men's lacrosse program has traveled four times internationally. The team journeyed to Ireland in 1995, England/Ireland/Wales in 2001, the Czech Republic in 2005 and Japan in 2010. The Fighting Irish squad has competed in games and conducted clinics during their time in the foreign lands.

Playing Across the Country

In 1990, Notre Dame and Air Force squared off in the first-ever NCAA Division I men's lacrosse game in the state of California. The Irish claimed a 12-11 victory over the Falcons in San Diego. Notre Dame returned to California in 2005 to face North Carolina in the First Four Invitational in Carson (pictured). The Irish topped the Tar Heels 9-7. In the fall of 2010, the Fighting Irish bested Johns Hopkins 10-7 during the San Francisco Fall Lacrosse Classic.

Notre Dame headed to Atlanta, Georgia during the 2008 campaign and defeated Dartmouth 19-7. The Irish returned to Georgia the following season and downed Loyola 10-9 in Powder Springs. Both of those contests were part of the 'Southern Showdown'.

The Fighting Irish have played in Texas in each of the past two seasons. In 2009, Notre Dame defeated Vermont 13-7 at the Patriot Cup in Dallas. Last season, the Irish fell to Fairfield, 10-8, during the 'Beating Cancer With a Stick Lacrosse Classic' in Houston.

Networking

During the University's fall break in 2009 and 2010, head coach Kevin Corrigan and members of his staff have taken the team's upperclassmen to New York City for a day of networking. During their trips, the group has met with Notre Dame alumni and others who work at key companies in the city. Stops along the way have included the New York Stock Exchange, BlackRock, MTV and NASDAQ.

When the Notre Dame squad traveled out West this past fall to play Johns Hopkins in the San Francisco Fall Lacrosse Classic, the Irish juniors and seniors visited Google and EA Sports for additional networking opportunities.

Big Stage

The Notre Dame men's lacrosse program has played in some top-notch venues during recent seasons. Not only did the Irish compete at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md. during the 2010 final four, they also played Loyola in the venue during that season's Konica Minolta Face-Off Classic.

In 2009, Notre Dame played Ohio State at Ohio Stadium (The Horseshoe) in Columbus, Ohio. Two weeks prior, the Irish faced Denver at Invesco Field, which is home to the NFL's Denver Broncos. In 2008, Notre Dame and Denver met at Toyota Park, home to the Chicago Fire of Major League Soccer (MLS) and former residence of Major League Lacrosse's Chicago Machine, in Bridgeview, Ill. Notre Dame and North Carolina met at the Home Depot Center, which houses the MLS's Los Angeles Galaxy, during the 2005 First Four Invitational in Carson, Calif.

Helping Humanity

In early December of 2010, the Fighting Irish men's lacrosse and men's basketball teams worked together with Notre Dame student government and a host of departments across the campus to sponsor the Playing for Peace 3v3 Basketball Tournament (below, right). The tournament's purpose was to raise awareness for peace in Sudan. The event also featured a Stand With Sudan peace rally.

Later that month, a delegation from the University of Notre Dame that included men's lacrosse operations assistant Kevin Dugan and junior defenseman Jake Brems spent time in Washington, D.C. (below, left) and Baltimore, Md. to further the school's commitment to peace in Sudan by advocating for full implementation of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement in Sudan.

The group had meetings with key policymakers and non-governmental organizations. Among the stops on the trip were the White House, the State Department, Senator Richard Lugar's (Ind.) office, Congressman Joe Donnelly's (Ind.) office and Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Headquarters.

In 2008, the Fighting Irish men's lacrosse team was recognized with The Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend.

Arlotta Stadium

Arlotta Stadium is the home for the Notre Dame men's and women's lacrosse programs. Construction of the facility began in August of 2008 and it held its first event on October 16, 2009 as the Notre Dame men's team played the Iroquois National Team in an exhibition contest. The official stadium dedication was held on October 17, 2009.

The stadium features over 2,000 seats, lights, an artificial-turf field, locker rooms, player lounges, restrooms and concession areas.

The state-of-the-art facility is named after

Notre Dame graduate John Arlotta, president and chief executive officer of Denver-based Coram Inc. He and his wife Bobbie pledged the lead gift toward the stadium, which was built to the east of the Joyce Center as part of the University's new athletics quadrangle. The Arlotta children - Mindy, Andy and Jon - also pledged an additional gift from The Arlotta Family Foundation toward the project. In addition to their generous donation, alumni and friends of the lacrosse programs donated over two million dollars.

Loftus Sports Center

The Loftus Sports Center, combined with Arlotta Stadium, gives the University of Notre Dame some of the top lacrosse facilities in the country. Constructed in 1988, the Loftus Sports Center is one of just six indoor facilities in the country that plays host to Division I men's lacrosse games.

The Loftus Sports Center provides Notre Dame with one of the top multi-purpose indoor facilities in the nation. The Meyo Field is permanently marked for lacrosse competition and is used as a backup site for games and practice in the event of inclement weather.

The building is named after John R. Loftus of St. Charles, Ill., a 1949 graduate of the University. Loftus is chief executive of JRL, a real estate, investment and construction firm. Loftus is also a member of the Notre Dame Monogram Club, having played on the varsity basketball team in 1944, 1948 and 1949.

The field and surrounding track are named for Ray and Marie Meyo of Brecksville, Ohio. Meyo, who graduated from Notre Dame in 1964, is president and chief executive officer of Telxon Corp. in Akron, Ohio.

In addition to the Meyo Track and Field in the Loftus Center, the Irish lacrosse squad also benefits from the Haggar Fitness Center located in the facility. Equipped with more than 40,000 pounds of free weights, it is considered by national strength coaches to be one of the largest, and finest, college training facilities in the nation.

Loftus Sports Center saw its first intercollegiate lacrosse action on April 27, 1988, when Notre Dame posted a 10-7 victory over Michigan State.

The Isban Auditorium within the Guglielmino Athletics Complex provides an ideal setting for team meetings. The auditorium can seat up to 150 people in large chairback seats.

The Haggar Fitness Center, which is shared by both the Loftus Center and the Guglielmino Athletics Complex, features 25,000 square feet of strength and conditioning space with state-of-the-art weight equipment, a 50-yard Mondo track for speed training, a 45-yard by 18-yard Prestige Turf athletic surface for team workouts and an updated sound and lighting system that features six plasma television screens.

The Loftus Sports Center, one of the six indoor facilities in the country that plays host to Division I men's lacrosse games, is the site of Irish lacrosse games when inclement weather precludes them from being contested outdoors.

2010 National Finalists

The Notre Dame men's lacrosse team had a memorable run to the title game of the 2010 NCAA Championship by defeating No. 6 Princeton (8-5), No. 3 Maryland (7-5) and No. 7 Cornell (12-7). The journey ended with a 6-5 overtime loss to No. 5 Duke at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md. Irish goalie Scott Rodgers was named the tournament's most outstanding player as he and the Irish defense allowed just 5.75 goals per game.

In August, the South Bend Silver Hawks, the Class A affiliate of the Arizona Diamondbacks, hosted 'Notre Dame Men's Lacrosse Night at the Cove'. The Silver Hawks honored the Irish for their successful 2010 campaign. Irish head coach Kevin Corrigan threw out the ceremonial first pitch using a lacrosse stick.

The Fighting Irish players signed autographs for their local fans during 'Notre Dame Men's Lacrosse Night at the Cove'.

Fighting Irish fans were in full force at the final four at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Maryland.

The Irish men's lacrosse squad was honored on the Notre Dame Stadium field during September's Notre Dame-Michigan football game. They were recognized for their run to the 2010 national title game and for their work in the classroom and community.

Businesses in the South Bend area congratulated the men's lacrosse team for their run in the 2010 NCAA Championship.

Senior midfielder Zach Brenneman will look to carry the momentum over from a 2010 campaign that saw him post a team-high 29 goals and earn All-America honors.

Irish Return Plenty From Finalist Finish

Notre Dame boasts quality depth and experience at nearly every position.

Notre Dame head coach Kevin Corrigan is not going to let the success of last season's NCAA Championship finalist finish change the annual expectations for his program.

"Our goals are the same every season," states Corrigan. "We want to get better every day and we want to win every game. Every day that we're out there, we're trying to be the best team that we can be. If we can do that, all the other things will fall into place."

That attitude has helped the Fighting Irish be one of the top teams in the nation over the past few seasons and achieve unprecedented success one year ago. After posting a 7-6 regular-season record in 2010, Notre Dame gained its fifth straight berth into the NCAA Tournament and made the most of it.

While some programs may rest on the success of previous seasons, Corrigan is making sure to put last season in proper perspective, while clearing the slate for the 2011 campaign.

"That was last year and it was wonderful," says Corrigan, who is entering his 23rd season at the helm of the Irish program. "We're certainly not going to ignore it because it was an experience, just like any other experience we've had. We're not going to play up losing four BIG EAST games and we're not going to play up going to the national championship game. But we're not going to ignore any of it either. It's all part of the journey for the guys that were on that team, but it's not part of the history of this particular team."

This year's squad returns several key elements that helped the Irish knock off four top-10 teams last season, including three in the national tournament.

The Fighting Irish bring back the bulk of their defensive unit that ranked second nationally one season ago by surrendering just 7.53 goals per game. Offsetting the graduation of close defenseman Mike Creighton will be the return of fifth-year senior Sam Barnes, who missed all of last season with an injury. Senior Kevin Ridgway and junior Kevin Randall started every game one season ago.

That group of talented veterans will be a key component of this year's squad as will sophomore goalie John Kemp. Kemp will look to fill the shoes of two-time All-American Scott Rodgers between the pipes.

Rodgers, the 2010 NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Player, leaves a void for the Irish, yet Corrigan is very confident in Kemp, who was able to get a taste of top-level collegiate lacrosse last season while filling in for an injured Rodgers during a mid-season stretch.

"You always hate to lose an established proven guy like Scott Rodgers, but I couldn't imagine being in a better place at that position with having John Kemp," comments Corrigan.

Offensively, senior midfielder Zach Brenneman led the Irish in goals (29) and points (42) last season en route to earning honorable mention All-America accolades. Brenneman is one of three honorable mention All-Americans returning for the Fighting Irish. Fellow senior midfielder David Earl joins Ridgway and Barnes on that list. Barnes earned his nod as a junior in 2009.

That senior quartet, along with classmate Andrew Irving (LSM), garnered 2011 preseason All-America status from Inside Lacrosse. All five of those Fighting Irish players also heard their names called during January's Major League Lacrosse draft. The five drafted players signed a program record, while Brenneman became Notre Dame's highest pick ever as he was selected fifth overall.

Meanwhile, Brenneman was voted as the 2011 BIG EAST Preseason Attack Player of the Year by the league's head coaches. Barnes, Earl and Ridgway joined Brenneman on the all-BIG EAST preseason squad.

ATTACK

The Irish will look to get an increased amount of production from their attacking unit as they boast a good amount of experience and depth within the group.

"I hope our depth at attack is going to be better," says Corrigan. "We will certainly miss (graduated senior) Neal Hicks, but I think we have more people who are ready to contribute there. I think the competition and the experience there will make us better."

Juniors Sean Rogers and Nicholas Beattie are Notre Dame's most experienced members in the attack. Rogers started 15 games last season and registered 14 goals and five assists. Beattie missed four contests due to injury, yet he started 12 times and tallied 11 goals and eight assists. Beattie did not play in the fall due to a shoulder injury, but he expects to be healthy once the season starts.

"Nick Beattie and Sean Rogers have played a lot for us over the past two years," comments Corrigan. "They are really stepping into leadership roles with that unit. I think both have added things to their games over the past couple of years and they continue to become more well-rounded players."

Fifth-year senior Colin Igoe also brings a good amount of experience to the unit. Igoe returned to the field last season after missing most of the 2008 campaign and all of the 2009 season with a knee injury. He played in all 17 games last season, including seven starts, and tallied seven goals and six assists.

Fellow fifth-year senior Edison Parzanese is a new face on the Fighting Irish squad. Parzanese graduated from Holy Cross (Mass.) last spring and now is obtaining his MBA at Notre Dame. He notched 55 goals and 74 assists during his career at Holy Cross. He only played in three games during the 2009 campaign before suffering a season-ending injury and he is using his fifth-year of eligibility with the Irish. Parzanese came back strong last season with 16 goals and 19 assists as a starter in all 15 games with the Crusaders.

Sophomore Ryan Foley brings explosiveness to the attack and he will look to have a breakout season in 2011. He played in 11 games during his rookie campaign and scored one goal. Senior Tom Connor also will be available to provide minutes for the Irish on attack.

Freshman Westy Hopkins spent a post-graduate year at Lawrenceville (N.J.) and Corrigan feels he is ready to make an immediate impact on the attack. Other freshmen that may be a factor at that end of the field are Alex Eaton, Ryan Mix and John Scioscia.

"We have four freshman attackmen and we're really pleased with that group as a whole coming out of the fall," adds Corrigan. "Westy Hopkins is a little bit more physically mature and his game has matured because of the PG year and I feel he has a chance to help us some this year."

MIDFIELD

Brenneman and Earl headline a deep group of midfielders for the Fighting Irish. Last season, Earl produced 22 goals and six assists to go along with Brenneman's 42 points.

"Zach Brenneman and David Earl have proven themselves to be terrific players at this level," comments Corrigan. "We'll work through seeing who the other guys are. There is a lot of competition and a lot of guys who've been working to be in a position to play in the midfield."

Junior Max Pfeifer started all 17 games during his sophomore campaign and recorded 10 goals and eight assists. He will be relied heavily in the midfield for the Irish as will sophomore Steve Murphy, who played in every game and deposited nine goals as a rookie.

Murphy is just one member of a talented sophomore class of midfielders for the Fighting Irish. His classmates Pat Cotter and Tyler Kimball saw limited action last season, yet they will figure prominently into Corrigan's plan this year.

"Our sophomore midfield group is very good," states Corrigan. "(Steve) Murphy played the most last season as we had him in the second group for the better part of the year and he did a lot of good things. He's playing with a lot more confidence right now than he did a year ago. Pat Cotter is probably the most well-rounded of the group and we'd like him to turn up the aggressiveness a little bit. I think he'll be in a position to make more plays this season. Ty Kimball arguably is the best athlete on the team. He also has a very good skill set. I know he's going to have an impact for us this year."

Senior twins Billy and Patrick Maloney also add depth to the talented midfield unit. Patrick has played in 30 career games, while Billy has competed in seven contests.

Junior Ben Ashenburg did not see game action last season, but did play in four games as a freshman. He will look to fit into the mix in 2011 as will his classmate Michael Rogers and sophomore Andy Will, who switches from attack to midfield. Rogers and Will have yet to play in a game during their Irish careers.

Jake Marmul, a senior, returns to action after sitting out last season with an injury. Marmul is a key faceoff guy with a .567 winning percentage in 19 career games. Another figure in the faceoff department will be freshman Liam O'Connor, who was an Under Armour All-American.

"Liam O'Connor is a terrific faceoff guy, but he can also stay on the field and play offense and defense," says Corrigan. "We're not the least bit worried when he's on the field because he's a savvy player and he knows how to make plays. He's going to be an impact guy for us right away because of his faceoff skills."

Joining O'Connor in the freshman group of midfielders are Tyler Brennman, Zach's younger brother, Matthew Collins and Jim Marlatt, an Under Armour All-American. Corrigan feels the younger Brennman will push for playing time early on, while Marlatt's contributions might be delayed as he continues to recover from a back injury. The coaching staff also sees a bright future for Collins, who may start out as a defensive midfielder.

Among the group of talented sophomores is Quinn Cully, who is part of arguably Notre Dame's deepest position on the roster, defensive midfielder. Cully played in every game one year ago and helped the Irish produce the nation's second stingiest defense.

There will be no shortage of competition at the defensive midfield position. Senior Tim Bemer along with juniors Devon Dobson, Andrew Gleason and Eric Keppeler will be upperclassmen in contention for roles on that unit. Keppeler has played in 27 career games, which is the most from the returning defensive midfielders.

Senior Taylor Tripucka could see time at defensive midfield or on one of the lines. Tripucka played in 12 games one season ago.

"We have a strong group of defensive midfielders that have been working and waiting and are anxious to step in roles there," adds Corrigan. "We also have a solid group of two-way midfielders that will pull their weight at that end as well. It all starts with us on the defensive end."

DEFENSE

Defense has become a staple for the Fighting Irish program and the 2011 season should be no different. Notre Dame returns a close defense group that has 68 combined starts during their collegiate careers.

Senior Kevin Ridgway and the Irish defense will look to be among the nation's best again in 2011. Notre Dame ranked second nationally in team defense last season by posting a 7.53 goals-against average.

Joining Ridgway, Randall and Barnes will be junior Jake Brems, who was up for a starting spot last season before suffering an injury that limited him to just six games.

"Kevin Ridgway is a guy who can guard people," says Corrigan. "He's not going to wow you with his stick fakes, he's just going to guard his guy and do it really, really well."

Notre Dame has finished the past five seasons ranked in the top-five nationally in team defense.

"I don't think we're going to have a defense that's going to wow you with any individual player, I think we're going to have a defense that will play really well together," comments Corrigan. "Our defense is going to be really strong fundamentally and it's going to be really difficult to play against. I think Kevin Ridgway and Kevin Randall really personify that."

The Irish also have a wealth of experience at the long-stick midfielder position. Irving and junior Bobby Smith will occupy that role for Notre Dame. Sophomore Tyler Andersen was limited to just two games last season due to injury, but he is back healthy and may be a factor at the pole for the Irish before the season is over.

"Andrew Irving is a smart, savvy, creative and intuitive player," adds Corrigan. "He brings a lot of different things to the game, whether it's with the ball in his stick, off the ball playing defense or guarding a guy. I also think he's as good of a ground ball guy as you'll see."

Adding veteran depth to the defense will be senior Dan Schmitt and sophomore Matt Miller. Schmitt has played in two career games, while Miller saw action in one contest as a freshman.

Notre Dame's rookie class features five defensemen. Brian Buglione, Donald Keough, Stephen O'Hara, Chris Prevostnik and Michael Shepardson all bring good size, strength and skill to the defensive end of the field.

"We're going to really take a good long look at the freshmen to see where they fit best," says Corrigan. "After this year, we lose three pretty significant contributors on the defensive end and these guys will be in a better position for playing time."

GOAL

Kemp is expected to occupy the starting goalie spot for the Fighting Irish. Having a Kemp between the pipes is nothing new for Notre Dame. John's older brother Joey was a four-year starter and three-time All-American for the Irish from 2005-08.

The younger Kemp played in four games, including two starts, as a freshman. He posted a 1-2 record with a 7.52 goals-against average and a .569 save percentage.

Backing-up Kemp will be fifth-year senior Brendan Moore and junior Colt Power. Moore has seen action in 11 games during his career, while Power has appeared in three contests. Neither has a start or a decision in goal.

"I think John Kemp separated himself from our other guys by the end of the fall," says Corrigan. "Brendan Moore has gotten better every single year since he's been here. He gives us tremendous security there at that position. Unfortunately Colt Power was hurt this fall when he wanted to try and make a move to compete there."

SCHEDULE

After ending last season in the national spotlight, Notre Dame will jump right back into it with a season opener versus Duke on ESPN. The 2010 national title game rematch will take place at the inaugural Sunshine Classic in Jacksonville, Fla.

That will be just one of several quality teams that Notre Dame has on its 2011 slate. The Irish have three teams on their ledger that are ranked in the top-five of the Nike/Inside Lacrosse preseason media poll. The Irish, who are ranked sixth in the poll, open against the fifth-ranked Blue Devils and their final two games of the season come against preseason No. 1 Syracuse and No. 3 North Carolina. Both of those contests are on the road and will be televised by ESPNU. A home BIG EAST showdown versus Georgetown, who is ranked 15th according to Inside Lacrosse, also will be aired on ESPNU.

"We couldn't be more excited about the schedule," states Corrigan, who is leading the Irish into the second season of BIG EAST play. "We open with Duke and end with North Carolina and we have a great BIG EAST slate in between. We also play some of the top teams in the Midwest. This is an ideal schedule for us in a lot of ways. We'll face great competition and play top teams from different conferences. It'll be a great opportunity to prove ourselves and prepare ourselves for the end of the year."

Irish Lacrosse Pipeline

A number of high schools have sent a multitude of student-athletes to play lacrosse at Notre Dame since the program gained varsity status in 1981. Leading the way is New Jersey's Delbarton High School, which has sent 15 student-athletes to play lacrosse for the Fighting Irish. A list of the leading high schools on the Notre Dame all-time varsity roster is below. The all-time varsity roster can be found on pages 141-145.

A Student-Athlete's Summer of Service: Lacrosse Junior Jake Brems

Brems utilized his life skills from both on and off the field to improve and enrich lives in Uganda.

By: Mark LaFrance

Communications Associate, University of Notre Dame Monogram Club

The typical college student spends summer vacation at home, utilizing free time to lounge by the pool or at the beach, while earning some much-needed cash at an internship or full-time job.

For Notre Dame junior lacrosse defenseman Jake Brems, however, the summer of 2010 proved to be anything but typical - a month of humanitarian work that the student-athlete will not soon forget.

Partnering with Fields of Growth International and the Center of Concern in Washington D.C., Brems dedicated much of his time off this past summer volunteering to help poverty-stricken families in the African country of Uganda, improving agricultural systems and building homes while teaching lacrosse and leadership fundamentals to children in villages around the third-world nation.

Brems learned about the opportunity from Fields of Growth International founder Kevin Dugan '01, who is also the director of lacrosse operations for the Fighting Irish. Dugan founded the organization to foster friendships and raise awareness about education and healthcare for children living in third-world countries, and decided Brems would be best served working in Uganda, where Fields of Growth is devoting much of its support.

After their meeting in the spring, Dugan contacted the Center of Concern, the Catholic Church's think tank for economic and social justice, and set up a series of summer meetings for Brems at the organization's offices while the Kensington, Md., native was home on break. During these meetings, Brems met with Washington area officials who were knowledgeable about cultural issues facing the people of Uganda, including disease, poverty and hunger.

While in Washington, Brems also learned of his primary assignment for his Uganda trip. In addition to the lacrosse teachings and other humanitarian work he would be experiencing, his main task involved helping a widow of an AIDS victim care for her family's poultry farm and brainstorming solutions to help make the process more efficient for the widow, who has seven children, and is also infected with the disease.

"I researched poultry as much as I could before leaving for Africa," said Brems, who is a science-business major at Notre Dame. "I went out to a chicken farm on the eastern shore of Maryland during my break to learn about raising chickens and running a successful farm."

Once Brems arrived in the village of Kkindu on July 14, he discovered a serious issue with the widow's farming system that he attempted to troubleshoot. In addition to a number of environmental concerns that could disrupt the egg-laying process, Brems realized that there was a major problem with getting proper hydration for the chickens.

"A chicken will drink about a liter of water a day and they have 100 chickens, but don't have plumbing," Brems said. "So Mama Fort [the widow] and her children have to walk to the well a half mile away, multiple times a day and carry all the water back everyday. We designed a rainwater collection system that will make it easier for her to run her family business, because she's HIV positive and doesn't have very much strength."

Brems' assistance in designing the irrigation project meant more to Mama Fort and her family than simply solving the water issue with the chickens. According to Dugan, the process served as a powerful symbol of what a relatively simple task can mean to underrepresented individuals in impoverished nations.

"Women are so devalued in this region of the world and it's just really special to see a Division I male athlete like Jake serving a marginalized woman in rural Uganda," Dugan said. "When you think about it, that's a really, really powerful thing. Jake stepped in as a voice for the voiceless and that's what it means to be a man of Notre Dame."

In addition to helping develop the irrigation system during his trip, Brems also traveled south to the village of Mukono on the perimeter of the Bwindi Impenetrable Rainforest where he, along with five other American college students helped mud houses for the Batwa Pygmies, a group of people who have been displaced from the nearby rainforests. The project, which Fields of Growth oversees with the Batwa development program in the Bwindi region, aims to uplift and empower pygmy families in the village.

While in Bwindi, Brems also got an up-close and personal look at some of the incredible wildlife that call Uganda home.

"While we were down there, we had the opportunity to see some mountain gorillas," Brems said. "We were 10 feet from a family of them walking by, which was a really cool experience."

As well as the service projects Brems undertook while in Uganda, Jake also worked with Fields of Growth to promote the game of lacrosse to children in Kkindu and gave presentations to large groups within the village.

While teaching the sport to the kids was an extremely enjoyable experience, Brems also found the lessons challenging.

"The toughest part was definitely the language barrier," Brems said. "The teachers acted as the translators, so it was hard to teach the sport to the teacher who then had to teach it again to the kids in Luganda. So we mostly taught them the basics like throwing, catching, how to pick up the ball, how to shoot and how to score goals."

Now, looking back on his trip, Brems is grateful for the opportunity, which opened his eyes to how faith and a sense of community often inspire the people of third-world countries to make the most of what they have.

"You hear a lot about how there's so much poverty and disease in Africa, but the people are spiritually richer than those in more developed parts of the world," Brems said. "It's amazing how happy everybody is and it's refreshing to see that kind of happiness you don't always find here in America where we tend to take things for granted."

As Brems trains to prepare for the 2011 lacrosse season in which the Irish will look to reach a second-consecutive Final Four, he intends to carve out enough time in his schedule to keep in touch with the friends he made while in Uganda. Jake also hopes to convince some of his teammates to make the trip to Africa next summer.

Dugan will join Brems on the sidelines this season, knowing that the junior defenseman spent his summer personifying exactly what it means to be a Notre Dame student-athlete.

"I think Jake is a perfect example of how student-athletes can use their talents and abilities to serve and uplift people in developing nations," Dugan said. "Jake used his education as a science-business major to improve the lives of others while sharing his lacrosse skills to enrich their lives as well. I think that is what the spirit of Notre Dame is all about, finding that place where your talents intersect with the world's need."

Head Coach

KEVIN
CORRIGAN

Head Coach
23rd Season
Virginia '88

Kevin Corrigan is set to begin his 23rd season on the Fighting Irish sideline in 2011. Since his arrival on campus in 1988, Corrigan has built Notre Dame into one of the premier men's lacrosse programs in the nation. Few coaches in the country boast a résumé dotted with such team and individual success over an extended period of time.

Inheriting a program that had never earned a berth in the NCAA Championship, Corrigan has made the Irish a staple in the postseason. His tenure has been highlighted by two trips to the final four, including the program's first-ever appearance in the national title game in 2010. Corrigan steered the Irish to the national semifinals in 2001 in addition to quarterfinal trips in 1995, 2000 and 2008.

Notre Dame has garnered 15 invitations to the NCAA Championship since 1990, including a current run of five straight trips. The Fighting Irish have received a national seed and a first-round home game twice in the past three years.

Corrigan's Irish squads have won 15 conference titles and finished in the top 20 of the national rankings on 18 occasions, including in 17 of the last 18 campaigns. Notre Dame has been adept at winning big games under Corrigan, registering 55 victories over nationally-ranked opponents, including 15 vs. top-10 foes. The Irish have an overall record of 206-103 (.667) during Corrigan's tenure.

Notre Dame took down five top-10 foes during the 2010 campaign, including three straight during the run to the national title game. After a 7-6 regular season, the Fighting Irish gained their fifth straight NCAA Tournament berth and a trip to sixth-ranked Princeton in the first round. After downing the Tigers 8-5, Notre Dame defeated No. 3 Maryland, 7-5, to advance to the national semifinals at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md.

CAREER RECORD:

216-118 (.647), 24 years

RECORD AT NOTRE DAME:

206-103 (.667), 22 years

GWLL COACH OF THE YEAR:

1994, 1996, 2001, 2007, 2009

The sensational run continued as the Irish bested seventh-ranked Cornell 12-7 to set up a clash with Duke in the final. Notre Dame opened the 2010 season with an 11-7 win at then No. 2 Duke, yet the Blue Devils prevailed in the second meeting by taking the back-and-forth contest 6-5 in overtime.

Senior goalie Scott Rodgers was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2010 NCAA Championship, becoming just the fifth player to earn that honor from a team that did not win the title. Rodgers and the Notre Dame defense allowed just 23 goals (5.75 per game) during the four games of the tournament. For the season, the Irish ranked second nationally in team defense by surrendering just 7.53 goals per game.

Rodgers was joined on the NCAA Championship all-tournament team by teammates Zach Brenneman (Jr./M), who had a hat trick in both the semifinals and final, and Kevin Ridgway (Jr./D), a key stalwart in the stingy defense.

Rodgers, Ridgway and Brenneman were three of five Fighting Irish players to earn both honorable mention All-America honors from the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) and all-conference accolades during the first season of BIG EAST lacrosse. Midfielders Grant Krebs and David Earl joined the trio by receiving both national and league recognition. The five All-America honorees matched a program record.

Those are just five of the highly decorated student-athletes to play for Corrigan at Notre Dame. At least one Irish player has garnered

All-America accolades in each of the last 18 years, with 27 individuals earning a total of 46 All-America honors.

Notre Dame was a member of the Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) from 1994-2009 and during that time, six Irish players were named the GWLL Player of the Year. Notre Dame student-athletes have gained all-conference mention on 122 occasions, an average of more than five per season. Corrigan was named the GWLL coach of the year five times, including in 2009, which was the final season for the conference.

Moving to the BIG EAST was not the only significant change for the Fighting Irish in 2010 as the team began play in its new state-of-the-art facility, Arlotta Stadium. Playing in a top-level league and in the multi-million dollar stadium will help Corrigan keep the Notre Dame program among the nation's best for years to come.

In 2009, Corrigan led the Irish to the program's first undefeated regular season and the Irish finished with an overall record of 15-1. The win total and winning percentage from the '09 campaign are school records. The Fighting Irish also matched program standard by reaching #2 in the national polls.

Along with being named the GWLL Coach of the Year in 2009, Corrigan was honored with the Frenchy Julien Service Award from the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA). The award is presented in honor of former Chief Referee, Joseph R. "Frenchy" Julien for outstanding and continuous service to the sport.

Corrigan has continued the tradition of academic success for the Irish men's lacrosse program. Since first competing on the varsity level in 1981, every Irish lacrosse senior has graduated. Three players since 1997 have gained Academic All-America honors. A total of nine Notre Dame student-athletes have been named Scholar All-Americans by the USILA during Corrigan's tenure.

Many of the best players in Notre Dame history have played under Corrigan, as his graduates include each of the top five point scorers in the program's history, six of the top seven goal scorers and each of the top six players on the career assist list.

Playing beyond the college level has been a reality for a number of Corrigan's players. Twenty-three have been a member of a professional team in either Major League Lacrosse or the National Lacrosse League, while four of his Irish players have earned spots on United States national teams. All four of them have come away with gold medals, including defenseman D.J. Driscoll at the 2010 Federation of International Lacrosse World Championship in Manchester, England.

In 2001, Notre Dame beat the likes of perennial lacrosse powers Virginia (11-8) and Loyola (10-7) on the road as the Irish started the season 5-0. The only blemish on their regular-season schedule was an 11-10 overtime loss at Hofstra. After concluding the regular season with a 12-1 mark, Notre Dame was awarded the fifth seed in the 12-team championship field, marking the first NCAA seeding in Irish history. A 12-7 first-round victory over Bucknell and a triumph against fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins (13-9) paved the way for a storied NCAA Tournament run. Notre Dame's journey ended with a 12-5 loss to Syracuse in the semifinals in Piscataway, N.J.

A program-record five players earned USILA All-America honors in '01, with attackman Tom Glatzel becoming the school's first-ever first-team selection, as well as one of five finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy, given to the nation's top player. Goalie Kirk Howell copped second-team All-America accolades while midfielder Steve Bishko was a third-team selection. In addition, attackman David Ulrich, the GWLL Player of the Year, and defenseman Mike Adams were named to the honorable-mention list.

Adams also became the program's third CoSIDA Academic All-American, when he garnered first-team honors in the '01 men's spring at-large program.

The accomplishments of the '01 team were even more impressive considering they came when the Irish program lacked any grant-in-aid scholarships. Shortly thereafter, it was announced by athletics director Kevin White that all Notre Dame programs would begin a process of offering the maximum number of grants-in-aid allowed by the NCAA, making future trips to the final four by the Irish lacrosse team a greater possibility.

After leading the Irish to a 7-6 record in his first season, 1989, Corrigan's 1990 squad made history by gaining the school's first-ever USILA national ranking (17th in the final poll) and earning Notre Dame's first invitation to the NCAA Championship.

In 1992, Notre Dame tied the then-school record for wins, going 10-5, and made its second appearance in the NAACs, winning the Great Lakes Conference championship and the West Region bid for the second time in three seasons. The 1993 campaign saw the Irish make their third trip to the NCAA Tournament, re-established the season victory record with 11 and rose as high as 12th in the national polls, completing the season at 15th. Defenseman Mike Iorio became the first player in Irish history to be an All-American, copping third-team honors. Corrigan wound up the season with an invitation to coach the North team in the North-South All-Star Game. His North squad took home a 28-16 victory.

In 1994, Corrigan guided the Irish to one of their best seasons in the program's history. In winning its third straight conference title – and the first for the newly-formed GWLL – Notre Dame posted a 10-2 overall mark, which included a 12-9 win over #17 Penn State and a thrilling 12-11 overtime victory over Michigan State clinching an NCAA bid for Corrigan's squad that finished 14th in the final poll. He also was selected GWLL Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons. His 1994 team also boasted two All-America honorees in GWLL Player of the Year Iorio and attackman Randy Colley, marking the first time in the program's history that multiple Irish players were named in the same year.

Head Coach

Corrigan helped Notre Dame reach new heights in '95, notching its first-ever NCAA Tournament win in a come-from-behind 12-10 victory at #5 Duke, which marked the first time a team from the West had won an NCAA game. The Irish finished the 1995 campaign with a 9-5 record and final ranking of 15th, as the Irish won their fourth straight league championship. Notre Dame's season culminated with an appearance in the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals, where the Irish lost to eventual national runner-up Maryland, 14-11.

Iorio and Colley, the '95 GWLL Player of the Year, both earned All-America honors again. Iorio was a second-team honoree, as he became Notre Dame's first three-time All-American, while Colley earned honorable-mention accolades for the second consecutive year and finished his career as the school's all-time leading scorer. His 273 points (173 G, 100 A) were 87 better than the previous Irish record.

For the first time in school history, three Notre Dame players earned All-America honors in the same season in '96, as Todd Rassas, a defenseman, was a third-team selection and midfielder Jimmy Keenan and goalkeeper Alex Cade were tabbed honorable mention. Notre Dame also cracked the national top 10 for the first time ever, climbing to seventh in the USILA poll in mid-April.

Notre Dame concluded the 1997 season ranked ninth, which was the program's highest final ranking at the time. That campaign saw Notre Dame earn its first-ever victory over a top-five opponent, as the Irish defeated #4 Hofstra 10-9 at Moose Krause Stadium en route to a 9-3 overall record.

In 1998, Rassas was named the GWLL Player of the Year and became the school's second three-time All-American when he earned third-team honors. Keenan was an honorable-mention selection that same season for the third consecutive year.

A year later, attackman Chris Dusseau finished his career as Notre Dame's second all-time leading goal scorer (113), while being named honorable mention All-America.

Corrigan and the Irish upset fifth-ranked Loyola 15-13 in the first round of the 2000 NCAA Tournament. Notre Dame dropped its NCAA Tournament quarterfinal game to fourth-ranked Johns Hopkins, 15-11, but finished the season 10-4 and undefeated in the GWLL.

In 2003, the Irish went 9-5 and won a share of a fifth consecutive GWLL title, but just missed an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. The following season, attackman Pat Walsh became the first player in school history to earn All-America honors as a freshman, being named an honorable mention selection in '03 before gaining third-team accolades in '04. He also was one of the 15 nominees for the Tewaaron Trophy in his sophomore campaign.

Walsh again was a Tewaaron Trophy nominee in 2005 and copped All-America honors for the third straight season, as he was an honorable-mention selection along with Driscoll. Driscoll also was named the GWLL Defensive Player of the Year and was joined on the all-GWLL first team by Walsh. Freshman goaltender Joey Kemp led the nation with a 0.652 save-percentage and garnered all-GWLL second-team honors.

The Irish finished the 2005 season with a 7-4 overall mark and a 3-2 record in the GWLL, which placed them third in the conference. Notre Dame had a win over #21 Penn State (14-6) in the season-opener and would also claim key wins over #10 North Carolina (9-7) and #13 Hofstra (9-8) throughout the course of the season. The victory over North Carolina occurred at the The First 4 Invitational in the Home Depot Center in Carson, Calif. Notre Dame would reach as high as #9 in the USILA poll, making it the third straight season that the Irish had reached the top-10.

In 2006, the Fighting Irish returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since their trek to the semifinals in 2001. Notre Dame posted a 10-5 mark overall, including a 3-2 record in the GWLL to finish second in the conference. The Irish fell to #1, and eventual national champion, Virginia 14-10 in the first round of the postseason. The four-point margin was the closest outcome for the Cavaliers during their four-game run to the title and the second-closest margin over the course of their undefeated campaign.

For the 14th consecutive season, the Irish had at least one player earn All-America distinction as Driscoll was named to the USILA second team and Kemp was an honorable mention pick. The duo also was among the five Irish players named to the all-GWLL first team. That marked the fourth time that Notre Dame had placed at least five student-athletes on the all-GWLL first team. The Fighting Irish put a school-record seven on the list in 2001 and 2009.

The 2007 season saw the Fighting Irish post an 11-4 record, including a perfect 5-0 mark in the league to win their 10th GWLL title and their first outright championship since 2001. Notre Dame made its second straight trip to the NCAA Championship, yet history repeated itself as the Irish fell to eventual national champion Johns Hopkins, 11-10, in an overtime thriller. The Fighting Irish concluded the campaign ranked 11th in the final USILA poll. On the season, the Irish ranked fourth nationally in both scoring offense (11.65) and scoring defense (6.66).

Accolades were abundant for the '07 Irish as they boasted five honorable-mention All-America honorees in Kemp, Will Yeatman, Brian Hubschmann, Sean Dougherty and Podgajny. A total of eight Notre Dame student-athletes earned all-GWLL recognition.

The Fighting Irish swept all of the major GWLL postseason awards for the 2007 season. Corrigan was tabbed the GWLL Coach of the Year for the fourth time, while Kemp was named the GWLL Player of the Year and Yeatman was selected as the newcomer of the year. Following a 12-6 win at Ohio State that clinched the '07 GWLL title for the Irish, Corrigan was named the US Lacrosse national coach of the week.

In 2008, Corrigan guided the Irish back to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship with an 8-7 overtime triumph of Colgate in the first round. The Irish were seeded sixth in the tournament and played host to the Raiders in the opening round, making it the first time the program had ever hosted an NCAA Championship contest. Syracuse, the eventual national champion, upended the Irish, 11-9, in the quarterfinals in Ithaca, N.Y. That marked the third straight season that Notre Dame had fallen to the eventual NCAA champion in postseason play. Overall, Notre Dame went 14-3 and finished the season ranked fifth in the final USILA poll.

With Kevin Corrigan entering his 23rd season as head coach of the Fighting Irish men's lacrosse program in 2011, he is the 12th coach in Notre Dame history to guide a team for at least 23 seasons. Here is a breakdown of the longest coaching tenures in Notre Dame history ...

The Fighting Irish captured their second straight GWLL regular-season title in 2008 as they were among a three-way tie atop the league standings with a 4-1 mark. Notre Dame garnered the top seed for the inaugural GWLL postseason tournament and the Irish took home the hardware with victories over Quinnipiac and Ohio State in Birmingham, Mich.

Four Irish players (Kemp, Dougherty, Podgajny, Hoff) were tabbed as All-Americans in 2008. Kemp became just the second first-team All-American in program history and the first goalie to be named a first-teamer as he received the 2008 Kelly Award for Outstanding Goalie in Division I from the USILA. Dougherty was a third-team pick, while Podgajny and Hoff were honorable-mention selections. Those four Fighting Irish players were among six that received all-GWLL honors.

The Irish ranked fifth nationally in '08 in both goals scored per game (12.09) and goals allowed per game (7.04). Hoff became just the second player in program history to notch back-to-back 40-goal seasons. He tallied 40 as a sophomore in 2007 and followed it with 41 in 2008. Hoff concluded his career in 2009 second on Notre Dame's all-time goals scored list with 134 tallies.

The 2009 campaign was a record-setting one for Corrigan and the Fighting Irish. Along with establishing program records for wins (15) and winning percentage (.938), Notre Dame ranked first among all NCAA Division I teams in goals-against average (6.19) and winning percentage, while tying for 10th in goals per game (11.00). Rodgers was first nationally in goals-against average (6.14) and save percentage (.663).

In addition to being named the 2009 GWLL player of the year, Rodgers was one of five Irish players to garner All-America honors. Joining him on the USILA third team were Hoff and Regis McDermott (D). Sam Barnes (D) and Krebs (M) were honorable mention picks. Those five student-athletes were among seven to receive first-team all-league accolades.

After completing a 13-0 regular season, the Irish defeated Quinnipiac and Ohio State to capture the second annual GWLL tournament. That was the 15th conference title for Corrigan during his Notre Dame tenure. The Irish received the No. 7 seed for the 2009 NCAA Championship, making it the third time that a Corrigan-led Notre Dame squad was seeded for the national postseason tournament. The Fighting Irish hosted an NCAA Tournament game for the second straight season, yet fell to Maryland, 7-3, in the first round to end the historic run.

Corrigan not only has seen his team's excel on the field but also in the community. Another piece of hardware that the 2008 Irish squad received was the Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The Irish have been very active in the South Bend area, including a mentorship program at Jefferson Middle School.

Corrigan has made the student-athlete experience special for the players that have competed for him at Notre Dame. The program has embarked on four foreign trips since 1995. The treks have been to such countries as Ireland, England, Wales, Czech Republic and - most recently - Japan in the summer of 2010. Another special experience for the student-athlete is the networking trip to New York City. During the past two falls, Corrigan has taken team members from the junior and senior classes to the Big Apple to explore networking opportunities with Notre Dame alumni. The group has visited such places as the New York Stock Exchange, BlackRock and NASDAQ.

Corrigan was acknowledged for his contributions to the Irish lacrosse program when Notre Dame's Monogram Club awarded him an honorary monogram in 2000.

An assistant at Virginia for two years, Corrigan became just the second head coach in Notre Dame's history on Aug. 23, 1988.

A graduate of the University of Virginia, Corrigan assisted the Cavaliers during both the 1987 and '88 seasons under head coach Jim "Ace" Adams.

During a three-year playing career at Virginia, Corrigan scored five goals and registered six assists. He played in 20 games as a midfielder. In his sophomore season in 1979, the Cavaliers reached the NCAA final before losing to Johns Hopkins in overtime.

This is Corrigan's second stint as a head coach. He directed Randolph-Macon College (Va.), a Division III program, for two seasons, compiling a 10-15 record in 1985 and 1986. He previously served as an assistant at Randolph-Macon during the 1984 campaign. In 23 years as a head coach, Corrigan holds a record of 206-111 (.650).

Corrigan also served as an assistant at Notre Dame during the 1983 season and at Western Albemarle (Va.) High School in 1982. He is the son of former Notre Dame athletic director Gene Corrigan, who retired in '97 as the commissioner of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The elder Corrigan played collegiate lacrosse at Duke and guided the Virginia and Washington & Lee lacrosse programs. He was inducted into the Lacrosse Hall of Fame in February of 1994.

Kevin's brother Tim was a three-time monogram winner as a midfielder at Notre Dame from 1984-86. Two of Kevin's other brothers, David and Brian, also served as assistants under former Irish head lacrosse coach Rich O'Leary. Another brother, Eugene "Boo", was Notre Dame's associate athletics director for corporate relations and marketing from 2004-08.

When not coaching, Corrigan still remains active by participating in various lacrosse clinics and camps and is a member of the South Bend Regional Sports Commission. He and his wife, Lis, reside in South Bend with their three children - Will, Sidney and Natale.

Assistant Coach

Fifth Season

Massachusetts-Amherst '86

Gerry Byrne enters the fifth season of his second stint as an assistant coach for the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team in 2011. In 2007, Byrne returned to the Fighting Irish program, where he served as an assistant from 1989-91. Prior to his return to Notre Dame, he was the head coach at Saint Anselm College in Manchester, N.H. from 2003-06. The Fighting Irish have enjoyed tremendous success since Byrne rejoined the staff. Notre Dame has posted a 50-15 record (.769) and the Irish have earned an NCAA Tournament berth all four seasons. In 2010, Notre Dame advanced to the title game of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history. Byrne also helped the Irish reach the quarterfinals in 2008. Notre Dame received a national seed and a first-round home game during the 2008 and 2009 tournaments.

In Byrne's most recent stint on campus, Notre Dame captured three regular-season Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) titles and two GWLL tournament championships before the Fighting Irish moved to the BIG EAST in 2010. Notre Dame has produced 19 All-America and 27 all-conference selections along with 12 Major League Lacrosse (MLL) draft picks over the past four seasons.

Notre Dame has reaped the benefits of Byrne's defensive knowledge. The Fighting Irish have ranked in the top-five nationally in team defense during the past four seasons under the guidance of Byrne. In 2009, Notre Dame led all NCAA Division I teams with a school-record 6.19 goals-against average. The Irish defense ranked second nationally in 2010 with a 7.53 goals-against average. The stout defense was a key reason why the Fighting Irish had unprecedented success in the 2010 NCAA Tournament.

Notre Dame took down five top-10 foes during the 2010 campaign, including three straight during the run to the national title game. After a 7-6 regular season, the Fighting Irish gained their fifth straight NCAA Tournament berth and a trip to sixth-ranked Princeton in the first round. After downing the Tigers 8-5, Notre Dame defeated No. 3 Maryland, 7-5, to advance to the national semifinals at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md.

The sensational run continued as the Irish bested seventh-ranked Cornell 12-7 to set up a showdown with Duke in the final. Notre Dame opened the 2010 season with an 11-7 win at then No. 2 Duke, yet the Blue Devils prevailed in the second meeting by taking the back-and-forth contest 6-5 in overtime.

Senior goalie Scott Rodgers was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2010 NCAA Championship, becoming just the fifth player to earn that honor from a team that did not win the title. Rodgers and the Notre Dame defense allowed just 23 goals (5.75 per game) during the four games of the tournament. For the season, Rodgers ranked first nationally in save percentage (.605) and was third in goals-against average (.756).

Rodgers was joined on the NCAA Championship all-tournament team by junior teammates Zach Brenneman (M), who had a hat trick in both the semifinals and final, and Kevin Ridgway (D), a key stalwart in the stingy defense.

Rodgers, Ridgway and Brenneman were three of five Fighting Irish players to earn both honorable mention All-America honors from the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) and all-conference accolades during the first season of BIG EAST lacrosse. Midfielders Grant Krebs and David Earl joined the trio by receiving both national and league recognition. The five All-America honorees matched a program record.

The 2009 Irish squad posted the first undefeated regular season in program history and finished with an overall record of 15-1. The win total and winning percentage from the 2009 campaign are program records. Notre Dame received the 2009 GWLL coaching staff of the year award, making it the second time in three seasons that the Irish staff garnered the accolade.

The Fighting Irish also matched program standards by reaching #2 in the national polls and having five players receive All-America honors. Among the All-America selections were Rodgers, who also was named the GWLL Player of the Year, and defensemen Regis McDermott and Sam Barnes. Those three were among a group of eight Irish players that copped All-GWLL accolades during the season. The Long Island Lizards selected McDermott in the third round of the 2009 MLL Draft.

After completing a 13-0 regular season, the Irish defeated Quinnipiac and Ohio State to capture the second annual GWLL tournament. The Irish received the No. 7 seed for the 2009 NCAA Championship, yet fell to Maryland, 7-3, in the first round to end the historic run.

In 2008, Notre Dame ranked fifth nationally in both goals-against average (7.04) and goals scored per game (12.09). The Irish compiled a 14-3 record, including a 4-1 league mark to tie for first, and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship for the fourth time in school history. The Fighting Irish also played host to an NCAA Tournament game for the first time ever.

The sixth-seeded Irish defeated Colgate 8-7 in overtime to advance to the quarterfinals, where they were topped by eventual national champion Syracuse, 11-9. Notre Dame concluded the season ranked fifth in the final USILA poll. The Irish defense came through when it counted most during the 2008 campaign. In the title game of the inaugural GWLL tournament, Notre Dame, behind a stellar effort from senior goalie Joey Kemp, shut down #10 Ohio State in a 9-2 triumph to give the Irish the title. On the season, Notre Dame surrendered 10 or more goals on just two occasions, while holding the competition to six goals or fewer eight times.

Four Irish players, including Kemp and defenseman Sean Dougherty, were tabbed as All-Americans in 2008. Kemp became just the second first-team All-American in program history and the first goalie to be named a first-teamer as he received the 2008 Kelly Award for Outstanding Goalie in Division I from the USILA. Dougherty was a third-team pick. Fellow defenseman Ross Zimmerman received first-team all-GWLL honors as he helped the Irish to a three-way tie for the league's regular-season title. In all, six Irish players garnered all-league accolades in '08. Following the season, Dougherty, Kemp and Zimmerman all were drafted into the MLL.

Another piece of hardware that the 2008 Irish squad received was the Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The Irish have been very active in the South Bend area, including a mentorship program at Jefferson Middle School.

In his first season back with the Irish in 2007, Byrne helped guide a Notre Dame defensive unit that held opponents to a then program-record 6.66 goals per game, which ranked fourth nationally. The defense played a large role in the Irish posting an 11-4 record overall, including a perfect 5-0 conference mark to win its first outright GWLL title since 2001. In addition, the Irish also ranked fourth nationally in scoring offense with an 11.65 goals per game average. Notre Dame concluded the season ranked 11th in the final USILA poll.

The 2007 season saw five Fighting Irish players earn All-America honors. Juniors Dougherty and Kemp were two of those honorees that helped to bolster the stingy Notre Dame defense. Kemp also was named the GWLL player of the year and was selected to the all-league first team along with Dougherty, while Zimmerman was tabbed as a second-team all-GWLL performer. The Irish coaching staff also was recognized as the GWLL's staff of the year.

Byrne graduated Cum Laude from UMass Amherst in 1986 with a degree in economics. He was a two-year starter and a three-year letterman in addition to being an All-New England defenseman for the Minutemen in 1986. He was a starter in two NCAA Tournament games, including the 1986 quarterfinals versus Johns Hopkins.

Byrne then earned his MBA from Notre Dame, where he also worked as defensive coordinator for the Fighting Irish. He helped Notre Dame earn its first NCAA Tournament berth during the 1990 campaign as the Irish posted a 9-7 record, including a perfect 3-0 mark in the MLA's Great Lakes Conference, which gave them the league title.

Following his graduation from UMass, Byrne was a four-time All-United States Club Lacrosse Association member with the Brine Lacrosse Club. He was also invited to tryout with the U.S. National Team on three occasions (1989, 1997, 2001), which placed him among the top-30 defensemen in the nation. Other playing accolades for Byrne include being named an All-Lake Placid Classic performer on 11 occasions and an All-Vail Shootout competitor nine times.

One of his signature years as a player came in 1997. That season he was named a Vail Shootout All-Star in the Elite Division along with coping Vail Shootout MVP honors in the Masters Division. Byrne also was named the Lake Placid Tournament Defensive MVP in the Elite Division and was chosen as the Masters Division MVP. Finally, he was invited to the National Team Selection Camp and was the USCLA/Empire League Player of the Year for the Syracuse Lacrosse Club.

Byrne was inducted into the U.S. Lacrosse Hall of Fame – New England Chapter – in 1999 and was the 2001 New Hampshire High School Coach of the Year while at Souhegan High School. He was drafted by the New York Saints of the National Lacrosse League (NLL) in 1991 and played for them in 1992. Byrne also was drafted by the Rochester Knighthawks of the NLL as a defensive forward and went on to win a World Championship with them in 1997.

He continued his professional career following a three-year retirement when the Boston Cannons of Major League Lacrosse drafted him in 2000. Byrne played for the Cannons from 2000-02, while having the distinction of being the oldest active player in the league at that time. He played in the inaugural MLL Final Four in 2001 and made another appearance there the following season.

In addition to his duties at Saint Anselm, Byrne stayed active in the sporting world in several other ways. He served as managing director at Kiltegan Marketing Group, which is an integrated sports marketing services company with clients such as Reebok and Major League Lacrosse. Byrne also has spent time as the director of marketing for Cybex International and Brine, a major manufacturer of lacrosse equipment. He also owns the Premier Players Lacrosse Camps and is the founder of the Texas Top-99. Byrne is a native of Levittown, N.Y., where he was an All-Long Island Catholic League lacrosse player at Chaminade High School before his graduation in 1982. He and his wife, Dr. Tracy Byrne, a practicing OB/GYN and a 1990 graduate of Notre Dame, are the parents of three children, Rory, Pierre and Brandon.

BRIAN FISHER

Assistant Coach

Fifth Season

Rutgers '01

Brian Fisher is entering his fifth season as an assistant coach for the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team in 2011. Fisher joined the Fighting Irish from his alma mater, Rutgers University, where he was an assistant coach for five seasons.

Notre Dame has been very successful since Fisher arrived on campus. The Fighting Irish have a 50-15 record (.769) and they have earned an NCAA Championship berth all four seasons. In 2010, Notre Dame advanced to the championship game of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history. The Irish also reached the quarterfinal round in 2008. Notre Dame received a national seed and a first-round home game during the 2008 and 2009 tournaments.

Fisher also helped guide the Irish to three regular-season Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) titles and two GWLL tournament championships before the Fighting Irish moved to the BIG EAST in 2010. Notre Dame has produced 19 All-America and 27 all-conference selections along with 12 Major League Lacrosse (MLL) draft picks over the past four seasons.

Among other duties, Fisher works with the Fighting Irish faceoff unit, which has been one of the best in the country over the past four campaigns. Notre Dame ranked ninth in the nation in faceoff winning percentage in 2009 with a .556 mark. That fact was even more remarkable as the Irish had to fill the void of losing Taylor Claggett, one of the top faceoff men in the country, to graduation in 2008. Notre Dame ranked second nationally in 2008 with a .628 winning percentage. Notre Dame was 15th in the nation in that category during Fisher's first season with the Irish. The Fighting Irish were 17th nationally in faceoff percentage during the 2010 campaign.

In 2010, Notre Dame defeated five top-10 foes, including three straight during the run to the national title game. After a 7-6 regular season, the Fighting Irish gained their fifth straight NCAA Tournament berth and a trip to sixth-ranked Princeton in the first round. After downing the Tigers 8-5, Notre Dame defeated No. 3 Maryland, 7-5, to advance to the national semifinals at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md.

The postseason run continued as the Irish bested seventh-ranked Cornell 12-7 to set up a showdown with Duke in the final. Notre Dame opened the 2010 season with an 11-7 win at then No. 2 Duke, yet the Blue Devils prevailed in the second meeting by taking the back-and-forth contest 6-5 in overtime. The Irish won 53.6% of their faceoff attempts during the 2010 NCAA Tournament.

Senior goalie Scott Rodgers was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2010 NCAA Championship, becoming just the fifth player to earn that honor from a team that did not win the title. Rodgers allowed just 23 goals (5.75 per game) during the four games of the tournament. For the season, Notre Dame ranked second nationally in team defense by surrendering just 7.53 goals per game.

Rodgers was joined on the NCAA Championship all-tournament team by teammates Zach Brenneman (Jr./M), who had a hat trick in both the semifinals and final, and Kevin Ridgway (Jr./D).

Rodgers, Ridgway and Brenneman were three of five Fighting Irish players to earn both honorable mention All-America honors from the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) and all-conference accolades during the first season of BIG EAST lacrosse. Midfielders Grant Krebs and David Earl joined the trio by receiving both national and league recognition. The five All-America honorees matched a program record.

Notre Dame enjoyed unprecedented success in 2009 as the Irish posted the first undefeated regular season in program history and finished with an overall record of 15-1. The win total and winning percentage from the '09 campaign are program records. Notre Dame ranked first among all NCAA Division I teams with a school-record 6.19 goals-against average and tied for 10th in goals per game (11.00).

The Fighting Irish also matched program standards by reaching #2 in the national polls and having five players receive All-America honors in 2009. Among the All-America selections was Rodgers, who also was named the GWLL player of the year. Joining Rodgers on the USILA All-America third team were seniors Ryan Hoff (A) and Regis McDermott (D). Juniors Krebs and Sam Barnes (D) were honorable mention picks.

Those five student-athletes were among a program-record tying seven first-team All-GWLL selections. Notre Dame received the 2009 GWLL Coaching Staff of the Year award, making it the second time in three seasons the Irish staff garnered the accolade. After compiling a 13-0 regular season in 2009, the Irish defeated Quinnipiac and Ohio State to capture the GWLL tournament. The Irish received the No. 7 seed for the 2009 NCAA Championship, yet fell to Maryland, 7-3, in the first round to end the historic run.

An NCAA Championship quarterfinal appearance was just one of the highlights of the 2008 campaign. Notre Dame posted a 14-3 mark, including a 4-1 league record to tie for first, and won the inaugural GWLL tournament. The Irish ranked fifth nationally in both goals-against average (7.04) and goals scored per game (12.09). Notre Dame concluded the season ranked fifth in the final USILA poll.

The Fighting Irish also played host to an NCAA Tournament game for the first time ever. The sixth-seeded Irish defeated Colgate 8-7 in overtime to advance to the quarterfinals, where they were topped by eventual national champion Syracuse, 11-9.

Notre Dame boasted four All-Americans in 2008. Senior goalie Joey Kemp became just the second first-team All-American in program history and the first goalie to be named a first-teamer as he received the 2008 Kelly Award for Outstanding Goalie in Division I from the USILA. Senior defenseman Sean Dougherty was a third-team selection, while senior midfielder Michael Podgajny and Hoff were honorable mention picks. Hoff became just the second player in program history to notch back-to-back 40 goal seasons. He tallied 40 as a sophomore and followed it with 41 in 2008. Hoff concluded his career in 2009 second on Notre Dame's all-time goals scored list with 134 tallies. The quartet of Irish All-Americans was among a group of six that copped all-conference accolades in 2008.

Another piece of hardware that the 2008 Irish squad received was the Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The Irish have been very active in the South Bend area, including a mentorship program at Jefferson Middle School.

In 2007, Fisher helped the Fighting Irish post an 11-4 record, which included a perfect 5-0 mark in conference play as Notre Dame captured its first outright GWLL title since 2001. The Irish fell to eventual national champion Johns Hopkins, 11-10, in an overtime thriller during the first round of the NCAA Championship. As a team, Notre Dame ranked fourth nationally in both scoring offense (11.65) and scoring defense (6.66). Notre Dame concluded the season ranked 11th in the final USILA poll.

Receiving honorable-mention All-America honors following the '07 season were Brian Hubschmann (M/A), Dougherty, Kemp, Podgajny and Will Yeatman (A). The Irish also had eight players cop all-GWLL accolades, including Kemp, who was the league's player of the year, and Yeatman, the newcomer of the year. The Irish coaching staff also was recognized as the GWLL's staff of the year.

Fisher was a standout midfielder and faceoff man for the Scarlet Knights for four seasons (1998-2001). As a coach at Rutgers, he worked extensively with the Scarlet Knight midfielders and was the assistant director of MVP Lacrosse Camps.

Fisher was one of the top faceoff men in the nation throughout his Rutgers career. He won 268-of-533 (.502) faceoffs in his career. In 2001, as the team's faceoff specialist, he took 76 percent of the teams faceoffs, winning 120-of-232 (.517) of them. He also led the Scarlet Knights with 69 ground balls.

Fisher was awarded the Rutgers Lacrosse Knight Cup in 2001. The Cup goes to the player "who has played the game of lacrosse to the best of his ability, who has, by example, inspired or led his teammates both on and off the field and, who, above all, has consistently demonstrated the qualities of unselfishness and loyalty to his team and Rutgers University." That same season he was named the Rutgers Lacrosse Time Scholar-Athlete.

The Morton, Pa. native also was awarded the 2000 Frederick Fitch Trophy while at Rutgers. The honor is presented to the varsity letterwinner who, through personal effort to develop his lacrosse ability, has shown the greatest improvement during the season.

Fisher was a key member of the Ridley High School team that won the Pennsylvania State Championship in 1997. During his career at Ridley, his team compiled a 56-7 record. He was also captain of his wrestling team in high school.

Fisher married the former Lauren Vader from South Orange, N.J. on December 19, 2008, in the Caribbean. Lauren teaches seventh grade social studies at Marshall Middle School in South Bend.

Operations Assistant

Second Season

Notre Dame '01

Kevin Dugan is entering his second season as Notre Dame's operations assistant. Dugan is a 2001 Notre Dame graduate and a former member of the Fighting Irish lacrosse team. He works with the Irish coaching staff on a daily basis to streamline the day-to-day operations of the program.

Dugan returned to his alma mater in 2010 following three successful seasons as the head coach at the University of Scranton. He inherited a Scranton program with a 3-12 record and with just one recruiting class he had the Royals turning in a school-record 12-5 season. In just his third season, Dugan led Scranton to a birth in the Landmark Conference championship game. While at Scranton, he served as a member of the USILA top-20 poll committee.

In 2006, Dugan was an assistant coach at Yale University after successfully turning around the fortunes of Gordon College, an NCAA Division III program located in Wenham, Massachusetts, where he served as its head coach from 2003 through 2005. After a 4-9 record in his first season, Gordon College improved to 9-6 in 2005, which led to his recognition as the Commonwealth Coast Conference Coach of the Year.

Off the field, Dugan has been very active and involved in international social justice issues. His organization, Fields of Growth International, was founded to use athletics as a community and human development tool in rural villages of Uganda, East Africa. Dugan has served as a global ambassador of the sport, working as a clinician with the Federation of International Lacrosse in France, Spain, Mexico, Jamaica and Guatemala. He is currently working with the Ministry of Sport and Education and the Federation of International Lacrosse on the formation of the Uganda Lacrosse Association.

In December of 2010, Dugan was instrumental in organizing the 'Stand with Sudan' peace rally and the Playing for Peace 3v3 basketball tournament on the Notre Dame campus. Later that month, he ventured to Washington, D.C., along with Fighting Irish junior defenseman Jake Brems, and met with key policy makers to further Notre Dame's commitment to peace in Sudan by advocating for full implementation of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement in Sudan.

A native of Avon-by-the-Sea, N.J., Dugan graduated from Christian Brothers Academy and received his B.B.A. in Finance from the University of Notre Dame in 2001. He earned a monogram as a midfielder on the 2001 national semifinalist squad.

While at Notre Dame, Dugan had great success in the classroom and was a member of the Faculty Board of Athletics Academic Honor Roll every Andrew Irving (right) celebrates a goal during the 12-7 win over Cornell that put Notre Dame in the title game of the NCAA Championship for the first time in program history.

A Remarkable Run

Unseeded Irish advance to NCAA title game by knocking off three top-10 teams.

NATIONAL FINALISTS ...

In 2010, Notre Dame reached the title game of the NCAA Championship for the first time in program history ... the Irish had a memorable run by defeating No. 6 Princeton (8-5), No. 3 Maryland (7-5) and No. 7 Cornell (12-7) ... the journey ended with a 6-5 overtime loss to No. 5 Duke at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md. ... it was Notre Dame's second-ever trip to the final four ... the Irish were national semifinalists in 2001.

RODGERS NAMED MOST OUTSTANDING PLAYER ...

Senior goalie Scott Rodgers was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2010 NCAA Championship ... it was the fifth time that the Most Outstanding Player was awarded to a member of the team that lost in the championship game ... Rodgers made 53 saves (13.25 per game) and surrendered just 23 goals (5.75 per game) during the four games of the tournament ... during the 12-7 semifinal win over Cornell, he made 16 saves ... he had 15 saves against Duke in the final.

ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM ...

Notre Dame's Zach Brenneman (Jr./M) and Kevin Ridgway (Jr./D) joined their teammate Scott Rodgers (Sr./G), the tournament's most outstanding player, on the 2010 NCAA Championship All-Tournament Team.

NO SEED, NO PROBLEM ...

Notre Dame was the fifth unseeded team to reach the title game of the NCAA Championship and the first since Massachusetts in 2006 ... the others were Cornell (1988), Towson (1991) and Maryland (1997) ... no unseeded men's lacrosse team has ever won the NCAA crown.

A DOMINATING DEFENSE ...

The Notre Dame defense surrendered just 23 goals (5.75 per game) during the four games of the 2010 NCAA Championship ... the Fighting Irish finished the season ranked second nationally in team defense by allowing just 7.53 goals per game ... it marked the fourth straight season that Notre Dame has finished among the top-five teams in the country in team defense.

Notre Dame's defense led the way during the NCAA Tournament run. The Fighting Irish surrendered just 23 goals during the four games. Goalie Scott Rodgers was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2010 NCAA Championship.

had downed five top-10 squads in the same season ... the Irish knocked off No. 2 Duke, 11-7, in the season opener ... that was the first time the Irish had ever bested a team ranked in the top-two of the national polls ... Notre Dame took down No. 10 Loyola, 11-9, on March 6 ... the Fighting Irish topped No. 6 Princeton, 8-5, in the first round of the NCAA Championship and followed that up with a 7-5 win over No. 3 Maryland in the quarterfinals ... Notre Dame bested No. 7 Cornell, 12-7, in the semifinals.

FIRST TIME ...

Prior to the 2010 NCAA Championship, Notre Dame had been a combined 0-10 against Princeton, Maryland and Cornell ... the Irish were 0-1 against Princeton before topping the Tigers 8-5 in the first round ... Notre Dame was 0-4 versus Maryland before downing the Terrapins, 7-5, in the quarterfinals ... the Fighting Irish were 0-5 against Cornell before beating the Big Red 12-7 in the semifinals.

BIG EAST DEBUT ...

The 2010 campaign marked the first season of BIG EAST men's lacrosse ... the seven conference schools participating in the newly-formed league are Georgetown, Notre Dame, Providence, Rutgers, St. John's, Syracuse and Villanova ... the teams played a six-game single round-robin regular-season schedule ... Notre Dame went 2-4 in its first season of BIG EAST play ... the Irish were a member of the Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) from 1994-2009.

ALL-BIG EAST ACCOLADES ...

Five Irish players garnered all-BIG EAST honors ... junior midfielder Zach Brenneman was a first-team selection, while Scott Rodgers (Sr./G), David Earl (Jr./M), Grant Krebs (Sr./M) and Kevin Ridgway (Jr./D) were second-team picks.

ALL-AMERICA HONORS ...

Five Notre Dame players garnered All-America accolades from the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) ... Zach Brenneman (Jr./M), Scott Rodgers (Sr./G), David Earl (Jr./M), Grant Krebs (Sr./M) and Kevin Ridgway (Jr./D) all received honorable mention distinction.

RODGERS A LOWE'S SENIOR CLASS AWARD FINALIST ...

Notre Dame goalie Scott Rodgers was one of 10 finalists for the 2010 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award in the men's lacrosse division ... to be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence – classroom, character, community and competition.

TAKING DOWN A TOP-10 FOE ...

Notre Dame defeated five top-10 teams during the 2010 campaign ... that was the first time the Irish ever

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME®

A unique tradition to the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team is the playing of the bagpipes. Prior to each game, the Fighting Irish take the field as one of their teammates plays the instrument. The tradition was started by Sean Meehan in the late 1990's and has been passed down ever since.

A Remembrance Of Former Irish Coach Rich O'Leary

Names like Ara Parseghian, Digger Phelps, Dan Devine, and Lou Holtz dot the list of those who numbered as University of Notre Dame athletic department colleagues and associates of longtime athletics staffer Rich O'Leary.

While those more high-profile varsity coaches found their names in headlines, O'Leary – who lost his battle with cancer July 17, 2009 – quietly went about impacting day-to-day athletic lives all over campus for 37 years.

Hired by Moose Krause and Dominic "Nappy" Napolitano back when the department was known as Non-Varsity Athletics, O'Leary served as director of intramurals and club sports for the Office of Recreational Sports (commonly known as RecSports).

For nearly four decades he played a major role in defining athletic opportunities for, literally, thousands of Notre Dame students, faculty and staff members.

Many of those who participated in the programs he helped shape probably never knew him. Those who did worked hand in hand with a self-effacing administrator who was more than comfortable in his behind-the-scenes role.

After Napolitano died in 1986, O'Leary became the key organizer for the famed Bengal Bouts, the signature event for Notre Dame's college boxing club. After a brief lull in popularity, the Bengals have drawn more participants in recent years than ever before – even leading to a women's version known as the Baraka Bouts.

Like Ara, Digger, Dan and Lou, Rich had his own seat in the varsity coaches' locker room in the bowels of the Athletic and Convocation Center. A standout lacrosse player in his college days, he first took over the Notre Dame men's club program then continued as head coach for eight more years (only one season losing more than they won) after the team achieved varsity status in 1981.

The new Arlotta Lacrosse Stadium that opened its doors in October '09 has the O'Leary name attached to the men's team room that sits adjacent to the locker area. That's because O'Leary's former players thought so much of their mentor that their financial contributions – unbeknownst to O'Leary – made that possible.

Current Irish lacrosse coach Kevin Corrigan, who took over O'Leary's position in 1989, took his predecessor on a golf-cart tour of that area just weeks before his death.

Even more telling are the e-mail tributes that came from O'Leary's former players, many from the far more casual and informal club sport days. Way back when in a different culture for club-level athletics, O'Leary wasn't too far removed from his charges to understand they shared adult beverages on occasion. Yet it's obvious more than a few of his players cast him as something of a father figure during their on-campus growing years.

Their tributes make you laugh and cry at the same time:

From Jim Scarola '78 – "I learned from Rich that great leaders are not defined by titles or positions they have held, but rather by the impact they have had on the people around them."

From John McLachlan '87 – "Rich would tell us, 'If you play your best game and they play their worst game, you're still going to lose.' It wasn't an overly inspirational pep talk, but unfortunately it was accurate once or twice a year."

From Brian McKeon '85: "Rich was a decent and humble soul who rarely raised his voice in anger and quietly nudged his players to meet their full potential. That is the mark of a leader."

And, from Mike Lynch '82 "Rich is what my dad used to call a gentleman's gentleman. A guy you look up to. A guy you want to have a beer with and tell a joke to. A guy with a huge heart, a pure sense of humor and a ton of class. Quite simply, I love the guy."

The O'Learys (including wife Linda) have been friends to dozens of athletic department staffers over the years – offering access to everything from the backyard pool of their Cedar Street home (facetiously known as the "Cedar Club"), to home-cooked meals for the young, old and in between, to large social extravaganzas such as the Home Olympics. Rich lost a kidney some years ago, and he quietly reached out to others on campus and in the community fighting kidney disease – including former Notre Dame athletic director Mike Wadsworth – to share his experiences.

The new Arlotta Lacrosse Stadium that opened its doors in October has the O'Leary name attached to the men's team room that sits adjacent to the locker area. Several of O'Leary's former players made the financial contributions – unbeknownst to O'Leary – to make that possible.

He possessed a dry, low-key wit. Yet, as unassuming as he could be, he'd also be the one to do cannonballs into the pool and drive his beloved little MG (with the top down) around South Bend.

When you left the O'Leary home, even when disease was getting the best of him, Rich always walked you to your car and thanked you for coming, as if it was his privilege to have spent time with you.

Little did we realize we were the lucky ones.

1990 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Harvard 9, #17 Notre Dame 3 May 16, 1990/Cambridge, Mass.

Notre Dame marked its 10th year of varsity lacrosse with its first-ever NCAA tournament appearance. The Irish, after finishing tied for 17th in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) rankings, entered their contest against the fifth-seeded and co-Ivy League champion Harvard Crimson as the 12th seed and owners of the bid reserved for a team from the Midwest.

Behind freshman goalie Chris Parent, who made 11 saves in the contest, Notre Dame, which finished its season with a 9-7 record, played one of its better games, as the Irish defense held Harvard to under 10 goals for only the third time during the '90 campaign. The Irish offense, however, was stymied as coach Kevin Corrigan's squad, which averaged nearly 11 goals throughout the season, was unable to capitalize on numerous scoring opportunities.

Senior co-captain Dave Carey, a native of Sudbury, Mass., led the Irish with two goals in his homecoming. Harvard was paced in the game by Mick Cavuoti's two goals and an assist.

Harvard jumped out to a 6-0 advantage at the end of three quarters, while the Irish tallied all three of their goals in the final 15-minute stanza.

Chris Miller made 14 saves for the hosts in goal, as the Irish also failed to capitalize on five man-up opportunities.

1992 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Johns Hopkins 15, Notre Dame 7
May 10, 1992/Baltimore, Md.

Making its second NCAA tournament appearance, Notre Dame traveled to Baltimore, Md., to play perennial power Johns Hopkins. The Irish entered the contest winners of nine of their final 10 games of the regular season.

The fifth-seeded Blue Jays got off to a fast start, as Hopkins held a 7-0 halftime advantage. Notre Dame got its offense into gear in the second half, but it wasn't enough as the Blue Jays won the game 15-7.

Johns Hopkins' goalie Scott Giardina, a third-team All-America selection, had 11 saves in the second quarter and finished with 21 for the game. Two-time All-American Adam Wright paced the Blue Jays with four goals in the game.

Randy Colley scored three times to lead the Irish. Ryan Jewell came off the bench to make nine saves in goal.

Notre Dame finished the '92 campaign with a 10-5 record, while Johns Hopkins advanced to the NCAA semifinals before losing to Syracuse.

1993 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Virginia 19, #15 Notre Dame 9
May 15, 1993/Charlottesville, Va.

Notre Dame earned its second straight NCAA tournament berth and third in four years, as the Irish traveled to Charlottesville, Va., for a first-round contest against head coach Kevin Corrigan's alma mater, Virginia. The fifth-year Irish mentor, a 1988 graduate, played midfield for the Cavaliers for three years and was an assistant on the Virginia staff for two.

The 15th-ranked Irish entered the contest boasting a school-record 11 wins. Without a senior in the starting lineup, Notre Dame faced its second Atlantic Coast Conference foe of the season. During the regular season, the Irish dropped a 13-7 decision at Duke.

The Cavaliers opened up the contest by scoring seven straight goals and held a 12-2 lead at the half. After halftime, the Irish scored six unanswered goals, including four straight to end the third quarter.

Attackman Randy Colley finished the game with three goals and two assists, while midfielder Will Sutton added two goals and two assists.

Tim Whitely led the Cavaliers with four goals and three assists.

Notre Dame's final 11-3 record ranked as the best in school history in terms of winning percentage at that time.

1994 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Virginia 23, #14 Notre Dame 4
May 14, 1994/Charlottesville, Va.

Notre Dame returned to Charlottesville, Va., for the second straight year to face the Virginia Cavaliers in NCAA tournament action. It marked the third consecutive tournament appearance for the Irish and fourth in the school's history.

The 12th-seeded and 14th-ranked Irish entered the game with a 10-1 record, marking the third straight year that Kevin Corrigan's squad had won 10-plus games. The Cavaliers entered the contest ranked and seeded fifth.

Virginia, which jumped out to an early 4-0 lead in the contest, dominated the Irish to post a 23-4 victory. Notre Dame managed to stay close until midway through the second quarter. The Irish trailed 5-2 before Virginia scored six straight goals for an 11-2 halftime lead. In the second half, the Cavaliers outscored Notre Dame 8-1 in the third quarter and 4-1 in the fourth quarter.

Virginia was led by midfielders Greg Traynor and Drew Fox, who had three goals each. Tim Whitely added two goals and three assists.

Irish leading scorer Randy Colley was held to a goal and an assist. Rob Snyder scored twice for Notre Dame.

1995 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#15 Notre Dame 12, #5 Duke 10 May 13, 1995/Durham, N.C.

Notre Dame proved the skeptics wrong as the Irish, making their fourth straight NCAA tournament appearance, stunned the lacrosse world with a come-from-behind 12-10 victory at fifth-seeded Duke. It was the biggest win in Notre Dame lacrosse history to date.

After being outscored 57-20 in its first three tournament appearances, Notre Dame had other ideas against the highly-rated Blue Devils, champions of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The win gave credence to the Irish program, which was one of just six teams making their fourth straight trip to the NAAs, and solidified Notre Dame as a bona fide contender and opened up the eyes of those from the East about the quality of play in the West.

For most of the first two quarters, an Irish upset looked improbable as Notre Dame trailed 7-4 at the half. But Notre Dame came back to net seven unanswered goals as senior attackman Randy Colley scored three of his game-high five goals in the third quarter. The Irish shut out the Blue Devils in the third, 4-0.

Tim Kearney tied the score at 7-7 with 6:33 left in the third before Colley's goal at 5:22 gave Notre Dame a lead it would never relinquish. The Irish increased their lead to 11-7 on two goals by Colley and scores by Kearney and Brian Erickson.

Alex Whitten ended the seven-goal Irish scoring blitz with 8:25 left in the game. It marked Duke's first goal since one with 1:29 left before the half. Kearney countered for Notre Dame with 4:41 left off an assist from Will Sutton, one of four the senior midfielder would have on the day. Scott Harrison scored the final goal of the game for Duke with 2:53 left in the contest.

Freshman Alex Cade made 18 saves in goal, one shy of his career best. The victory moved the Irish into the quarterfinals and a matchup with another ACC foe, Maryland.

1995 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#14 Maryland 14, #15 Notre Dame 11 May 20, 1995/College Park, Md.

Notre Dame nearly pulled off its second straight upset, but this time the bid fell short as Maryland withstood a dramatic Irish rally and escaped with a 14-11 victory.

Trailing 10-2 with 5:59 left in the third quarter, Notre Dame pulled to within 11-10 with 9:48 remaining in the contest on Randy Colley's third goal. The Terrapins responded with three goals over the next four minutes to secure the victory.

Maryland led 4-0 after one quarter. The Irish got on the scoreboard with 10:41 remaining when Brian Erickson tossed in the first of his two goals. Maryland closed out the second quarter by scoring four goals for an 8-1 halftime lead.

Maryland went up 9-1 to start the third quarter before Will Sutton broke the Terrapin string of five unanswered goals with 7:08 left. Matt Bordi gave Maryland a 10-2 advantage with 5:59 remaining in the third quarter.

Todd Bialous started the six-goal Irish blitz that included three tallies in the final 4:07 of the third quarter. Colley scored back-to-back goals just before the end of the period.

The Irish scored three goals in the first 3:50 of the fourth quarter as Tim Kearney, Keenan, and Erickson all tallied in the fourth-quarter spurt. Matt Hahn gave Maryland an 11-8 lead before Kearney and Colley had consecutive scores to cut the deficit to 11-10. Three straight Maryland goals ended the Irish rally, and Burke Hayes netted the game's final score for the 14-11 outcome.

Alex Cade made 15 saves in goal, while Maryland's Brian Dougherty had 16 stops.

Notre Dame finished its dramatic season with a 9-5 record, as the Irish gained the respect of the lacrosse community.

1996 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#9 Johns Hopkins 12, #11 Notre Dame 7 May 12, 1995/Annapolis, Md.

Looking to once again pull off a first-round upset in making its fifth straight NCAA tournament appearance, 11th-ranked Notre Dame played ninth-ranked Johns Hopkins for the second time in its seven NCAA contests. Their matchup with the Blue Jays marked the seventh top-20 opponent the Irish faced during the '96 campaign.

After holding a narrow 7-6 advantage after three periods, Johns Hopkins out-scored Notre Dame 5-1 in the final 15-minute stanza for the 12-7 victory. Sophomore Jimmy Keenan, Notre Dame's top scorer, led the Irish with a goal and a career-high four assists, while second-leading scorer Chris Dusseau had two goals. He finished with a team-high 29 goals on the year, which established a Notre Dame freshman mark for goals in a season.

Sophomore goalkeeper Alex Cade tied his career high with 21 saves in the game, which marked the third time during the season that he had 20-plus saves in a contest.

Milford Marchant scored a personal-best four goals in the game, while Brian Evans and Dan Denihan each added two for the Blue Jays in the victory.

Evans gave Johns Hopkins an early 1-0 lead with 8:25 remaining in the first quarter, but back-to-back goals by Keenan and Dusseau put the Irish up 2-1 with 2:11 remaining. The first quarter ended with the teams deadlocked at 2-2.

Notre Dame took a 3-2 lead with 14:27 left as Tony Reid scored off a Will DeRiso assist. Johns Hopkins went up 4-3 on goals by Marchant and Matt O'Kelly. Dusseau, off a Keenan feed, tied the score at 4-4, but Marchant netted his second goal of the quarter 34 seconds later to give the Blue Jays a 5-4 lead at the half.

Both teams scored twice in the third quarter as Notre Dame trailed 7-6 after DeRiso's goal with 45 seconds remaining. Johns Hopkins tallied five unanswered goals in the fourth quarter. Burke Hayes had the lone Irish goal of the period with 29 seconds left in the contest.

1997 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#6 Loyola 21, #9 Notre Dame 5 May 11, 1997/Towson, Md.

Notre Dame's matchup with Loyola in the first round of the 1997 NCAA tournament was the second of the season between the two teams. It was a highly-anticipated meeting between two evenly-matched squads who had played to a one-goal decision early in the year.

The contest provided the Irish, who were making their sixth straight NCAA appearance, an opportunity to avenge a 12-11 loss on March 15. That game, which saw Notre Dame overcome a four-goal first-quarter deficit, see-sawed back and forth from the second quarter on. The outcome was decided in the final 2:45, when the Greyhounds produced the winning goal.

The second meeting produced a far different result, as Loyola ousted Notre Dame from the tournament with a 21-5 victory. It was the second-worst loss suffered by the Irish in eight tournament games.

After junior Ned Webster tied the game at 1-1 with 13:11 left in the first quarter, Loyola scored six unanswered goals en route to an 11-3 halftime lead.

Webster scored two goals in the contest for the Irish. Also scoring in the game were Stedman Oakey, Adam Sargent, and Brad Owen. For Sargent, it marked the first goal of his collegiate career.

Goalkeeper Alex Cade gave up 20 goals (the most of his career) and made nine saves in the game.

Loyola, which improved to 7-0 against Notre Dame, was led by Gewas Schindler's seven goals and one assist.

1999 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Georgetown 14, #14 Notre Dame 10 May 16, 1999/Towson, Md.

After a one-year hiatus, Notre Dame made a return to the NCAA tournament for the seventh time in eight years. The 14th-ranked Irish faced a first-round matchup with fifth-seeded Georgetown in Towson, Md.

Earlier in the season the two teams squared off at Notre Dame, with the Hoyas coming away with a 12-8 victory after the Irish had built an early 4-0 lead. In the NCAAs, the final outcome was nearly identical, as Georgetown earned a 14-10 victory.

The Hoyas, eventual NCAA tournament semifinalists, used three unanswered goals in the third period to break a 7-7 halftime deadlock.

Senior Chris Dusseau, who closed out his Irish career with two goals in the contest, opened by tallying Notre Dame's first two scores. Georgetown jumped out to a 4-2 advantage only to have senior Brad Owen tie the game with the first of his three scores with 14:40 remaining until the break.

The two teams exchanged goals throughout most of the second period with David Ulrich and John Flandina knotting the score at 5-5 and 6-6, respectively. Owen notched his second goal of the game 33 seconds before intermission to tie the score for the sixth and final time.

Georgetown scored the first four goals of the second half and held Notre Dame scoreless for the entire third quarter. Owen's third goal of the game finally put the Irish on the scoreboard for the first time in the second half, with 10:45 remaining in the final quarter. Tom Glatzel scored two of Notre Dame's three fourth-quarter goals.

Goalie Kirk Howell finished with 13 saves in the game. The 14 goals scored by the Hoyas were the most given up by Notre Dame in 1999.

Notre Dame finished the campaign with an 8-6 record.

2000 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#13 Notre Dame 15, #5 Loyola 13 May 14, 2000/Baltimore, Md.

The Notre Dame men's lacrosse team returned to the NCAA tournament for the second straight year and eighth time in nine seasons in 2000. And for the second time in school history, the 13th-ranked Irish advanced to the quarterfinals, this time with a first-round upset of fifth-seeded Loyola 15-13.

Notre Dame's victory proved just as stunning as the one five years earlier, when the Irish earned a 12-10 decision over Duke. While the win gave Notre Dame its second NCAA tournament victory, it also avenged the worst loss of the regular season, when the Irish were beaten 12-2 by the Greyhounds. In addition, it marked Notre Dame's first-ever win over Loyola in 11 meetings.

Notre Dame jumped out to an early lead just 46 seconds in the game when junior David Ulrich scored his second career NCAA tournament goal to put the Irish in the lead, 1-0. Loyola answered back when Tim Goettelmann scored the first of his seven goals on the day to tie the game 1-1.

The Irish then ripped off four consecutive goals by different players. Junior Chris Young got the Notre Dame run started, with classmate Tom Glatzel, senior Stedman Oakey, and sophomore John Flandina following, to open up the contest as the scoring burst gave Notre Dame a lead it would never relinquish.

Ending the first half with a 10-5 advantage over the Greyhounds, the Irish dominated the play on the field. Loyola would make a run at the end of the game, but the Irish defense and senior goaltender Kirk Howell, who had 13 saves in the game, would enable the Irish to hold their lead.

Loyola's Gunnar Goettelmann, Tim Goettelmann, Bobby Horsey, and Mike Battista combined to score eight goals in the final 20 minutes of the game to close the gap. Loyola took 15 shots in the fourth period, but Howell, who had five saves in the quarter, and the Irish defense kept the Irish lead intact.

Eleven different players scored for the Irish on the day, helping to solve the Greyhound defense that only allowed two goals in the first meeting. The Irish were led by Glatzel's four goals and three assists.

2000 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#4 Johns Hopkins 15, #13 Notre Dame 11 May 21, 2000/Baltimore, Md.

After an upset win over fifth-ranked Loyola, the Irish put their best efforts up against fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins in the quarterfinal round of the NCAA tournament. The Blue Jays, with a strong offensive attack and playing on their home field, proved to be a tough second-round matchup for the Irish, who were bidding for their first appearance in the national semifinals.

Dan Denihan led the Johns Hopkins attack with four goals and four assists, as the fourth-seeded Blue Jays posted a 15-11 victory over the Irish, who closed out the campaign with a 10-4 record. The loss snapped a seven-game winning streak for the Irish, as Notre Dame posted its fourth 10-win season during head coach Kevin Corrigan's tenure.

Leading 7-6 with 5:10 to play in the second quarter, Denihan and Bobby Benson scored three goals each to key an 8-2 run that saw the Blue Jays pull out to an insurmountable 15-8 lead with 3:50 remaining in the third quarter. Todd Ulrich scored two of his team-high three markers in the fourth quarter, as Notre Dame held Hopkins scoreless and provided the final four-goal margin.

ND jumped out to a 3-2 advantage with 1:15 left in the first quarter when Chris Young scored on David Ulrich's second assist of the game. Johns Hopkins responded with a 5-0 run, thanks in part to two goals from Conor Denihan, to take a 7-3 advantage. Jon Harvey, one of four multiple-goal scorers for the Irish, then closed a 3-0 Notre Dame run that reduced the lead to 7-6 midway through the second quarter, setting the stage for the Blue Jays' game-clinching spurt as Johns Hopkins outscored the Irish 7-2 in the decisive third period.

2001 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#4 Notre Dame 12, #10 Bucknell 7 May 13, 2001/West Point, N.Y.

Playing as a seeded team in the NCAA tournament for the first time in the 21-year history of its program, the fifth-seeded Irish beat Bucknell 12-7 in the first-ever meeting between the schools. With the win, Notre Dame advanced to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA championship for the second consecutive season and third time in seven years.

Four players scored multiple goals for the Irish, as Notre Dame added to its record-setting season with its 13th win of the year and eighth straight victory. The eight-game winning streak matched its longest since the 1994 campaign. The contest was close for the first 18 minutes until John Flandina's early second-period goal gave the Irish a 3-2 advantage and began a streak of six consecutive goals by six different players.

After a tightly-played first quarter featuring just one goal by each team, the Irish and Bison traded scores early in the second period before Notre Dame's six-goal run. Leading 8-2 just 39 seconds into the third period, the Irish allowed three Bison goals in the third quarter, as Notre Dame held a 9-5 advantage entering the final stanza.

The Irish opened the fourth quarter by scoring three straight goals, including a pair by senior attackman Jon Harvey.

Eight different players scored for the fourth-ranked Irish, who were led by four seniors notching two goals each. In addition to Harvey scoring a pair, David Ulrich, Chris Young, and Steve Bishko also added two scores each. Tom Glatzel registered a goal and dished off a game-high four assists, while goalie Kirk Howell came up with eight saves in goal.

Wes Fletchet scored three goals to lead the Bison in their first-ever NCAA tournament appearance.

2001 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#4 Notre Dame 13, #3 Johns Hopkins 9 May 20, 2001/College Park, Md.

Notre Dame advanced to its first-ever national semifinal with a 13-9 win over fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins. The Irish scored five straight fourth-period goals in a 5:21 span over the final six-and-a-half minutes of the game to snap an 8-8 tie on the way to the first quarterfinal victory in school history and ninth straight win (tying a school record).

The win also marked Notre Dame's first win over Johns Hopkins in four all-time contests – all in the NCAA tournament – and avenged the 2000 quarterfinal loss.

Senior Tom Glatzel paced the Irish with four goals and an assist, while fellow senior Jon Harvey added three goals and junior midfielder John Flandina collected a pair of goals and an assist in the win.

Flandina scored both of his goals in the five-goal flurry, beginning with the go-ahead goal that gave the Irish a 9-8 advantage with 6:29 remaining in the contest, ending a span of more than 10 minutes without a score. Following Flandina's score, Steve Bishko added his first score of the day to give the Irish a 10-8 advantage with 4:02 to play in the game. Flandina netted his second goal of the day off a feed from Todd Ulrich with 2:54 remaining and then Harvey scored Notre Dame's final goal with 58 seconds left to play. Bobby Benson, who led the Blue Jays with three goals, tallied the game's final score with 11 minutes remaining in the contest for the final four-goal margin.

Johns Hopkins scored on its first three shots of the game to take a 3-1 lead in the game just 5:11 into the contest, but the Irish scored four consecutive goals to take a 5-3 lead with 9:50 left in the second quarter. After David Ulrich scored unassisted to cut the lead to 3-2, sophomore middle Travis Wells scored two of Notre Dame's next three goals, marking the first multiple-goal game of his career.

Notre Dame went ahead 4-3 with 47 seconds left in the first period, and then Wells put the Irish up 5-3 with 9:50 left in the second period. The two teams traded goals for the remainder of the first half, as the Irish led 7-5 at the intermission.

Johns Hopkins tied the game less than four minutes into the second half, and then the two teams traded scores in the final three minutes of the third quarter as the third period ended knotted at 8-8. From there, both defenses took over before Flandina's goal with 6:29 remaining.

Despite only being a freshman, Ryan Hoff recorded a hat trick in a 14-10 loss to eventual national champion Virginia during the 2006 NCAA Tournament.

2006 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#1 Virginia 14, #15 Notre Dame 10

May 13, 2006/Charlottesville, Va.

A four-goal effort from Matt Ward propelled No. 1 Virginia to a 14-10 victory over No. 15 Notre Dame in the first round of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship at Klockner Stadium. With the win, the Cavaliers moved to the quarterfinals of the tournament, while the Fighting Irish ended their season with a 10-5 mark overall.

Freshman Ryan Hoff netted his third hat trick of the season for the Irish, while seniors Brian Hubschmann and Matt Karweck chipped in two goals and one assist apiece. Fellow senior Pat Walsh dished out three assists on the day to end his stellar Notre Dame career just two assists shy from tying the program's career mark in that category. Virginia's Ward also collected two assists to complete a game-high five points as did his teammate Danny Glading on two goals and three assists.

Virginia opened up a 3-0 lead by the 6:40 mark of the first quarter on two goals from Matt Ward along with a Steve Giannone tally. The defense of the Cavaliers also hounded the Irish early on by not allowing many good looks in the opening period.

Notre Dame broke through with under a minute left in the first quarter as Hubschmann netted an unassisted man-up goal to make it a 3-1 game at the end of the first 15 minutes of play. Sophomore goaltender Joey Kemp came up with some huge saves early to keep the Irish in the contest. The sophomore collected a season-high 20 saves on the day.

The Cavaliers regained a three-goal advantage early in the second quarter as Kyle Dixon found the back of the net with just 28 seconds elapsed in the period. When it looked as though Virginia might break the game open, Notre Dame took control of the tempo en route to a 3-0 run to knot the game at 4-4 with 4:18 remaining in the half.

Freshman Peter Christman took a feed from Karweck to slice the deficit to 4-2 with 10:55 left in the second. After a couple unsuccessful attempts to make it a one-goal game, Bill Liva finally capitalized for the Fighting Irish as he controlled a rebound and sent it in with 4:33 left. Notre Dame's Taylor Clagett won the ensuing faceoff and D.J. Driscoll picked up the groundball and found Hubschmann, who sent it in to make it a 4-4 contest.

Virginia soon regained the momentum as the Cavaliers went on a 3-0 run to end the first half and take a 7-4 lead into the locker room. Danny Glading, Garrett Billings and Matt Poskay notched the Virginia goals in that span.

The Cavaliers extended their surge into the second half with scores from Dixon and Ward to up the lead to 9-4 at the 11:36 mark. The Irish kept on fighting with back-to-back goals from Hoff, with Walsh collecting the assist on both tallies.

With the score 9-6 midway through the third period, the Cavaliers rattled off three goals in-a-row in less than five minutes to claim their largest lead of the contest at 12-6. Notre Dame once again struck back with a man-up goal from Karweck on an assist from Walsh to close out the quarter with Virginia leading 12-7.

The Irish would outscore the Cavaliers 3-2 in the fourth quarter yet it would not be enough as Virginia captured the 14-10 win and a berth in the quarterfinals. Scoring for Notre Dame in the final period was Karweck, Liva and Hoff.

Virginia held a 50-34 advantage in shots, while Notre Dame won the faceoff battle as Clagett went 16-28. The Irish also converted on three of five extra-man opportunities. Virginia's Kip Turner made 10 saves on the day.

The final margin was the second-closest for top-ranked Virginia on the season and its closest contest at home.

2001 NCAA Tournament – Semifinals

#2 Syracuse 12, #4 Notre Dame 5

May 26, 2001/Piscataway, N.J.

The most successful season in the history of the Notre Dame men's lacrosse program ended in the semifinals of the NCAA Championship, as the Irish fell victim to defending national champion Syracuse 12-5 at Rutgers Stadium in Piscataway, N.J. Coach Kevin Corrigan's squad ended the campaign with a 14-2 mark and set school records for most wins and single-season winning percentage (.875).

The 12 goals allowed and the seven-goal defeat were the largest of the season, while the loss snapped a nine-game winning streak, as the Irish were held to a season-low five goals in the loss.

Senior David Ulrich concluded his Notre Dame career with a goal and two assists to lead the Irish, while Jon Harvey netted two goals in his final collegiate outing.

Notre Dame trailed just 4-2 after the first period, but was outscored 5-1 in the second stanza, as the defense of the Orangemen kept the Irish in check for most of the contest.

Chris Young tallied his lone goal of the game 2:53 into the contest, as the Irish took a 1-0 lead. Syracuse scored four unanswered goals in just over three minutes to take a 4-1 advantage before Harvey scored the first of his two goals with 5:23 remaining in the quarter.

The Orangemen scored the first five goals of the second quarter before the Irish got on the scoreboard on Kyle Frigon's unassisted goal with 1:45 remaining in the second period, as the Orangemen held a 9-3 halftime advantage.

Michael Springer tallied a career-high six goals for Syracuse in the game, as five different players contributed scores. Mike Powell had four assists and Liam Banks added three to lead the Orangemen in that category.

Kirk Howell stopped 14 of Syracuse's 33 shots in the game.

2007 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Johns Hopkins 11, #9 Notre Dame 10 (OT)
May 12, 2007/Baltimore, Md.

A Michael Kimmel goal one minute into sudden-death overtime gave No. 5 Johns Hopkins an 11-10 victory over No. 9 Notre Dame in NCAA Tournament first-round play at Homewood Field on May 12. Junior midfielder Michael Podgajny led the Irish with a career-high tying four goals, while senior Brian Hubschmann added three goals and two assists. Notre Dame concluded its season with an 11-4 record, while Johns Hopkins improved to 10-4.

The back-and-forth thriller featured two 40-minute weather delays due to lightning and heavy rain in the area. It also marked Notre Dame's first overtime contest in over two seasons and its first ever in NCAA Tournament play.

With the Irish trailing 10-8 midway through the fourth quarter, freshman Will Yeatman fed sophomore Ryan Hoff to cut the deficit in half for the Irish. Johns Hopkins had a 10-9 lead and the ball with under a minute left in regulation when the Fighting Irish defense forced a turnover and Hubschmann found Hoff in front of the goal for the equalizer with nine seconds left to force overtime. The Blue Jays won the faceoff in overtime and Kimmel put a low shot in the back of the net to snap Notre Dame's eight-game win streak.

Notre Dame struck first in the contest as Podgajny upped his team-best goal streak to 15 games with a tally just over a minute into the game. Stephen Peyser countered for Johns Hopkins with a goal with 10:04 left in the first quarter. The first weather delay then occurred with 9:12 left on the clock.

Once play resumed, the Irish went on a 3-0 run beginning with Hubschmann's first goal of the day as he scooped up a ground ball off a failed Blue Jay clear and beat Johns Hopkins goaltender Jesse Schwartzman. Podgajny struck again with eight seconds left on the clock in the first quarter, off a pass from Hubschmann, to give Notre Dame a 3-1 lead after the first 15 minutes of play. Hubschmann gave the Irish a three-goal cushion with his second tally of the night with just over five minutes elapsed in the second quarter.

Johns Hopkins, the No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament, responded with a 6-1 run. Goals from Jake Byrne and Steven Boyle cut Notre Dame's lead to one (4-3) at halftime.

The Blue Jays evened the contest with 9:40 left in the third quarter on a Paul Rabil goal and then took their first lead when Byrne found the back of the net just over a minute later. Notre Dame came back with a man-up tally from Brett Vecchio to make it 5-5 with 7:40 left in the third period.

Scores from Drew Dabrowski and Brian Christopher gave Johns Hopkins a 7-5 lead when another weather delay hit with 2:54 remaining in the third quarter.

The Irish would once again come out of the delay with a goal as Podgajny netted his third score. A back-and-forth game then ensued as the next six goals alternated between both teams.

Byrne made it 8-6 in favor of Johns Hopkins, yet Hubschmann responded as he completed his hat trick with one second left on the clock in the third quarter. Notre Dame had scores come with under 10 seconds left in three of the game's four quarters.

Rabil opened the fourth-quarter scoring and Podgajny countered with his fourth tally, on a pass from Davey Leach, to make it 9-8 in favor of the Blue Jays with 10:03 left in the period. Less than two minutes later, Christopher put Johns Hopkins back up by two before the back-to-back goals from Hoff forced overtime.

Notre Dame goaltender Joey Kemp, the Great Western Lacrosse League's player of the year, made eight saves on the night. Schwartzman stopped 14 shots for the Blue Jays. The Irish held a 43-36 advantage in shots, while Johns Hopkins won 17 of 24 faceoff attempts.

2008 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#5 Notre Dame 8, #10 Colgate 7 (OT)

May 11, 2008/Notre Dame, Ind.

A Peter Christman goal with 1:28 left in the first overtime period gave No. 5 Notre Dame an 8-7 victory over No. 10 Colgate in NCAA Tournament first-round play at a rainy Alumni Field on Sunday, May 11. With the win, the sixth-seeded Fighting Irish advanced to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals for the fourth time in program history.

The Fighting Irish, who used eight different goalscorers, never led in the game until Christman's goal found the back of the net to give Notre Dame its first victory in the NCAA Tournament since the 2001 quarterfinals. The victory also brought the program-record home win streak to 19 games for the Irish.

Colgate jumped out on top with a goal from Matt Lalli with just under two minutes gone by in the contest. The Irish responded on a goal from Ryan Hoff, with the assist going to Alex Wharton, with four-and-a-half minutes to go in the opening period. The Raiders went ahead 3-1 by the end of the quarter on scores from Kevin Colleluori and Brandon Corp.

Notre Dame, who was hosting an NCAA Tournament game for the first time, sliced the lead to one (3-2) as Dan Gibson assisted on a Zach Brenneman goal. However, Colgate struck back with tallies from Ian Murphy and Zack Craumer to take a 5-2 lead into halftime.

The Irish began the second-half scoring with unassisted goals from Grant Krebs and Adam Felicetti to make it a 5-4 contest in favor of the Raiders with 4:57 remaining in the third quarter. Colgate got its advantage back up to two (6-4) on a man-up score from Joshua Back.

The Raiders led 6-4 after three periods of play, yet Notre Dame would score four of the game's next five goals to take the victory.

Wharton began the final surge for the Irish with a man-up tally with 11:21 left in regulation. It would be nearly seven minutes until the next goal was scored and that came from Colgate's Colleluori to give the Raiders a 7-5 lead.

Notre Dame upped the defensive pressure and Neal Hicks scooped up a ground ball off a failed Raider clear and scored with 3:45 showing on the clock. Michael Podgajny would net the equalizer with 1:29 left in regulation.

Colgate gained possession first in overtime and it looked as though the Raiders were going to pull the upset as Craumer had a good look from close range, yet Irish goaltender Joey Kemp made the save to keep the Notre Dame season alive.

Kemp's save paid off on the other end of the field as Christman, who also scored the game-winner in the final seconds against Albany earlier this season, scored to send the Irish into the quarterfinals.

The Fighting Irish out shot the Raiders, 40-23, on the afternoon. Kemp made eight saves in the win, while his counterpart, Tim Harrington, had 18 stops. Taylor Claggett went 12-for-18 in faceoffs against Colgate's Chris Eck. That was a featured match-up as Claggett entered as the nation's second-best faceoff man and Eck was fifth.

2008 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#3 Syracuse 11, #5 Notre Dame 9

May 18, 2008/Ithaca, N.Y.

Third-seeded Syracuse scored the game's last three goals to take an 11-9 decision over sixth-seeded Notre Dame in the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals on Sunday, May 18 in front of 6,121 fans at Schoellkopf Field. The Fighting Irish concluded the 2008 season with a 14-3 record.

Syracuse jumped out to a 6-2 advantage at halftime, yet Notre Dame came storming back to take the lead by scoring five straight goals to open the third quarter. The Irish used a sound defensive effort, including a season-high 19 saves from senior goaltender Joey Kemp, to remain within striking range at the half despite getting out shot 30-14 in the opening 30 minutes.

Notre Dame's second-half surge began with an unassisted goal from Michael Podgajny just 26 seconds into the stanza. Podgajny, Alex Wharton and Peter Christman all led the Irish with two goals apiece. Wharton also chipped in a team-high two assists.

A goal from Christman and a man-up tally from Grant Krebs sliced the Orange lead to one (6-5) with 9:38 remaining in the third quarter. Notre Dame knotted the affair on a goal from Wharton and Christman gave the Irish their first lead of the game at 7-6 with 5:02 left in the third quarter.

Syracuse put an end to the Irish uprising as Greg Niewieroski scored with 1:59 left in the third period. Notre Dame regained the momentum as Wharton buried his second goal to make it an 8-7 contest after three quarters of play.

The Orange struck first in the final stanza behind a goal from Mike Leveille with 13:26 on the clock to tie the game once again. Notre Dame grabbed the lead back as Zach Brenneman scored with 10:03 left in the game. That would be the final goal of the contest for the Fighting Irish.

Syracuse netted its third equalizer in less than a quarter of play as Patrick Perritt found the back of the net with 6:23 remaining. Dan Hardy put the Orange up for good as he completed his hat trick with 5:05 showing on the clock. A goal from Steven Brooks with 3:14 left would be the final score of the game.

Syracuse struck first in the contest on a goal from Matt Abbott with 10:50 left in the first quarter. The Fighting Irish got on the board with 8:19 left in the first quarter as Ryan Hoff netted his team-leading, and career-best, 41st goal of the season.

The Orange responded with four straight goals to take a 5-1 lead by the 4:06 mark of the first half. Man-up tallies from Hardy and Stephen Keogh started the surge and gave the Orange a 3-1 at the end of the first period. The run continued as Steven Brooks and Hardy scored to produce a four-goal advantage for Syracuse.

Notre Dame cut into the lead as Podgajny scored with 3:00 remaining in the first half. Syracuse responded when Kenny Nims deposited a goal to make it 6-2 in favor of the Orange at the intermission.

The Orange controlled possession in the contest and held a 48-34 advantage in shots. Freshman goalie John Galloway made 11 saves, including some crucial stops in the fourth quarter. Syracuse's Danny Brennan went 17-for-24 in faceoffs. Taylor Claggett took the majority of faceoffs for the Irish and went 5-for-21.

2009 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#13 Maryland 7, #2 Notre Dame 3

May 10, 2009/Notre Dame, Ind.

Second-ranked Notre Dame suffered a 7-3 setback to No. 13 Maryland in the first round of the NCAA Championship on Sunday, May 10 at Alumni Field. The Fighting Irish were seeded seventh in the tournament, while the Terrapins were unseeded.

Maryland never trailed in the contest. The Terrapins got on the board behind a goal from Jeremy Sieverts at the 12:38 mark of the first quarter. Joe Cummings made it 2-0 in favor of Maryland with 11:08 left in the first quarter. Notre Dame answered back with an unassisted tally from sophomore midfielder Zach Brenneman with 10:22 on the clock in the period. That would be the final goal of the first quarter for either team.

Four straight goals from the Terrapins would give them a 6-1 advantage by the 10:08 mark of third quarter. The surge began with a Grant Catalino goal with 12:38 left in the second quarter. An Adam Sear tally with just over five minutes remaining in the opening half gave Maryland a 4-1 lead at the intermission.

The Terrapins went up by four (5-1) as Dan Groot scored in the opening stages of the second half. Maryland upped its lead to five on a Rob Morrison goal less than five minutes into the third quarter.

Notre Dame halted the streak when senior midfielder Peter Christman scored an unassisted goal at the 3:51 mark of the third period. Overall, the Fighting Irish were held without a goal for 36:31 during Maryland's 4-0 run. The Terrapins led 6-2 after three quarters of play.

Maryland regained its five-goal edge on Groot's second tally of the afternoon less than two minutes into the final stanza. The Irish would get the last goal of the day as junior midfielder Grant Krebs scored off a pass from his classmate Neal Hicks.

The Fighting Irish held a 34-33 edge in shots along with going 9-for-13 in faceoffs. Sophomore Jake Marmul led the way in that category by going 8-2.

Maryland goalie Brian Phipps picked up the win by making nine saves, while Scott Rodgers suffered the first loss of his career. The Irish goalie made 14 stops on the day.

2010 NCAA Tournament – First Round

#14 Notre Dame 8, #6 Princeton 5
May 16, 2010/Princeton, N.J.

A career-high five goals from junior midfielder David Earl along with a stingy defense led the way as Notre Dame defeated sixth-seeded Princeton 8-5 in the first round of the NCAA Championship on Sunday, May 16 at the Class of 1952 Stadium.

Notre Dame senior goalie Scott Rodgers made 14 saves for Notre Dame in the victory. The Fighting Irish defense allowed just one second-half goal en route to the program's sixth victory in NCAA Tournament play. The five goals were the fewest allowed by Notre Dame in an NCAA Tournament game.

Princeton cracked the scoring column first on a goal from Rob Engelke with 7:46 left in the first quarter. Notre Dame evened the contest with 3:35 remaining in the opening quarter as Grant Krebs found the back of the net. The game was tied 1-1 after the first quarter.

The Fighting Irish grabbed a 2-1 lead with 8:41 left in the second quarter on Earl's first goal of the day. Earl struck again 47 seconds later to give Notre Dame a two-goal (3-1) advantage.

The Tigers put a halt to Notre Dame's 3-0 run as Jack McBride scored with 3:11 remaining in the first half. Princeton tied things up (3-3) 42 seconds later on a Paul Barnes tally. An Engelke goal gave Princeton a 4-3 lead with 1:17 left in the opening half. The Tigers led 4-3 at halftime.

Notre Dame evened the game once again on a goal from junior long-stick midfielder Andrew Irving with 13:42 left in the third quarter. Krebs assisted on the play. Irving also had a game-high four caused turnovers.

Princeton regained the lead with 7:13 left in the third quarter on McBride's second goal of the day. That would be the final goal of the contest for the Tigers. The Notre Dame defense held Princeton without a score for the final 22:13 of the game.

Earl's third goal knotted the game, 5-5, with 5:23 left in the third quarter. Notre Dame captured the lead for good with 22 seconds left in the third period as Nicholas Beattie scored off a feed from Neal Hicks. Two key saves from Rodgers in the final seconds of the stanza preserved Notre Dame's one-goal lead after three quarters of play.

Notre Dame went up by two (7-5) less than a minute into the fourth quarter on Earl's fourth tally of the game. The junior midfielder completed his career day with 55 seconds left in the contest as he registered his fifth goal.

Princeton's Tyler Fiorito had 11 saves in the loss. The Tigers held a 37-31 edge in shots.

The five goals from Earl matched the most goals ever scored by a Notre Dame player in an NCAA Tournament game. Randy Colley had five goals in a 12-10 victory over Duke in the first round of the 1995 NCAA Tournament.

2010 NCAA Tournament – Quarterfinals

#14 Notre Dame 7, #3 Maryland 5
May 22, 2010/Princeton, N.J.

For the second time in program history the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team advanced to the semifinals of the NCAA Championship. Notre Dame defeated No. 3 Maryland, 7-5, in the NCAA quarterfinals on Saturday, May 22 at Princeton Stadium. The Terrapins were the tournament's third seed, while the Irish were not seeded.

A hat trick from sophomore attackman Sean Rogers and a defense that allowed just five goals for the second straight game was the story of the day for the Fighting Irish, who never trailed in the contest.

Notre Dame got on the board with 10:10 left in the first quarter as Rogers found the back of the net. Maryland (12-4) answered with 8:25 showing on the clock in the quarter on a goal from Scott Larue. Following that Terrapin tally, Notre Dame went on a 4-0 run, spanning 16:24.

The Irish surge began on a David Earl goal with 8:00 left in the opening quarter. Notre Dame went up by two (3-1) with 3:33 left in the first quarter on a Max Pfeifer goal. Rogers netted his second goal of the game with 1:48 left in the first quarter to give Notre Dame a three-goal edge (4-1) after the opening 15 minutes of play.

A Nicholas Beattie goal with 8:36 left in the second quarter gave Notre Dame a four-goal cushion (5-1). Maryland put a halt to the Irish uprising on a Jake Bernhardt goal with 7:01 remaining in the first half. The Terrapins sliced the Irish lead to two (5-3) three minutes later on a John Haus tally. Notre Dame led 5-3 at the intermission.

A man-up goal from Grant Krebs put Notre Dame back up by three (6-3) in the opening minutes of the second half. Rogers completed his hat trick with 2:00 left in the third quarter to give the Irish a 7-3 lead.

It marked the second career hat trick for Rogers, who scored on all three shots that he took against the Terrapins.

Maryland notched its first goal of the second half with 1:06 showing on the clock in the third period when Travis Reed scored. Notre Dame led by three (7-4) after three quarters of play.

The game's final goal came with 12:15 left in the contest on a goal from Maryland's Joe Cummings.

The Notre Dame defense stifled a Terrapin offense that entered the contest averaging 11.71 goals per game. The Irish held Maryland's Grant Catalino, who has team-high totals in goals (34) and points (54), without a point.

Fighting Irish senior goalie Scott Rodgers made eight saves in the win. His counterpart Brian Phipps made 13 stops for Maryland. Notre Dame won the ground ball battle, 31-24.

Notre Dame senior midfielder Trevor Sipperly won 10 of 15 faceoff attempts. Maryland held a 33-28 edge in shots. Junior long-stick midfielder Andrew Irving had game-high totals in caused turnovers (3) and ground balls (7) for the Fighting Irish.

2010 NCAA Tournament – Semifinals

#14 Notre Dame 12, #7 Cornell 7
May 29, 2010/Baltimore, Md.

The Notre Dame men's lacrosse team advanced to the title game of the NCAA Championship for the first time in program history following a 12-7 semifinal win over No. 7 Cornell at M&T Bank Stadium.

Senior attackman Neal Hicks matched a career-high total with four goals in spearheading the Notre Dame (10-6) offense. Junior midfielder Zach Brenneman tallied three goals for the Fighting Irish. Senior goalie Scott Rodgers made a season-high 16 saves, including 10 in the first half.

Cornell struck first less than two minutes into the contest on a goal from Roy Lang. The Fighting Irish responded with four consecutive tallies. Notre Dame evened things up (1-1) with 2:54 left in the first quarter on a goal from sophomore attackman Sean Rogers.

The Fighting Irish grabbed the lead for good (2-1) with just over one minute left in the opening quarter as Hicks found the back of the net. Senior midfielder Adam Felicetti scored with six seconds left in the first quarter to give Notre Dame a 3-1 edge after the first period of play. It was the first goal of the season for Felicetti.

Notre Dame went up by three (4-1) 38 seconds into the second quarter on a Brenneman tally. Cornell put a halt to Notre Dame's run as Steve Mock scored with 12:49 left in the second quarter. The goal snapped a scoreless streak of 15:44 for the Big Red.

A man-up goal from Brenneman gave Notre Dame a 5-2 lead with 10:40 left in the second quarter. The Big Red sliced the Irish lead to two (5-3) with 3:33 remaining in the first half on Mock's second goal of the day. Hicks deposited his second goal of the game with 16 seconds left in the first half to give Notre Dame a 6-3 lead at the intermission.

Brenneman's third goal of the day put Notre Dame up by four (7-3) with less than three minutes elapsed in the second half. Mock notched his third goal of the game just over a minute later to make it a 7-4 affair. Cornell cut the deficit to two (7-5) midway through the third period on a Ross Gillum goal.

A man-up tally from Hicks, his third goal of the contest, with 5:57 left in the third quarter put Notre Dame up 8-5. Notre Dame led by that score heading into the final period.

The Fighting Irish grabbed a four-goal advantage (9-5) with 10:55 left in regulation on a goal from freshman midfielder Steve Murphy. A goal from Cornell's Ryan Hurley with 6:08 showing on the clock cut the Irish lead to three (9-6). The fourth goal from Hicks gave Notre Dame a 10-6 lead with 4:20 left in the contest.

Junior long-stick midfielder Andrew Irving put Notre Dame up 11-6 with two minutes left in the game. A goal from senior midfielder Grant Krebs gave the Irish a six-goal advantage (12-6), their largest of the game, with 1:32 showing on the clock. Hurley scored the final goal of the game, a man-up tally with 16 seconds left.

Cornell held a 40-32 edge in shots. Big Red goalie AJ Fiore made 10 saves. Cornell won 12 of 23 faceoffs.

2010 NCAA Tournament – Final

#5 Duke 6, #14 Notre Dame 5 (OT)
May 31, 2010/Baltimore, Md.

C.J. Costabile scored with five seconds gone in sudden-death overtime, giving Duke its first NCAA men's lacrosse title with a 6-5 win over Notre Dame.

Costabile won the faceoff from Trever Sipperly and sprinted downfield before beating standout Irish goaltender Scott Rodgers with a shot from directly in front of the net.

The Blue Devils rushed onto the field and created a massive pile of players, sticks and helmets while celebrating the fastest goal to start an overtime in NCAA championship history.

Duke (16-4) twice before advanced to the title game -- and lost by one goal both times. This time, however, the Blue Devils walked away with the championship trophy by defeating the unseeded Irish (10-7).

It was the lowest-scoring title game in history, yet what it lacked in offense it made up for in drama. There were five ties, and neither team led by more than one goal.

The previous lowest-scoring game was in 1982, when North Carolina beat Johns Hopkins 7-5.

Zach Brenneman scored three goals and Rodgers finished with 15 saves for the Irish, but he couldn't stop the last shot that came his way. That ended a brilliant postseason run by Notre Dame, which defeated three seeded teams en route to its first-ever title game appearance.

The Irish beat Duke earlier this season, and in the rematch they set the pace from the outset. But the result wasn't at all what Notre Dame had in mind.

The game was played cautiously by both sides, with defense and possession the priority. The teams set a championship-game record for fewest combined goals through three quarters (eight) and tied the mark for fewest at halftime (five).

Notre Dame went up 5-4 with 11:56 by converting a rare fastbreak. David Earl picked up a loose ball and ran 30 yards before passing across the field to Sean Rogers, who pumped a shot past goaltender Dan Wigrizer.

Justin Turri scored for the Blue Devils with 8:44 left to tie the game for the last time.

Duke led 3-2 at halftime after scoring the lone goal of the second quarter.

The Blue Devils took 13 shots, including nine on goal, but Rodgers -- voted the Most Outstanding Player of the Final Four -- had six saves and Duke committed five turnovers.

Byron V. Kanaley

Byron V. Kanaley Award

The Byron V. Kanaley Award is the most prestigious honor awarded to a Notre Dame student-athlete. It has been presented each year since 1927 at commencement exercises and honors senior monogram athletes who have been exemplary as students and leaders. The award is selected by the Faculty Board on Athletics and is named in honor of a 1904 Notre Dame graduate who was a member of the Irish baseball team as an undergraduate. Kanaley went on to a successful banking career in Chicago and served the University in the Alumni Association and as a lay trustee from 1915 until his death in 1960. Notre Dame men's lacrosse boasts two recipients of the Kanaley Award. Robert Williamson received the honor in 1993 and Peter Christman was presented the award in 2009.

Chris Zorich

The Christopher Zorich Award

This award recognizes the contributions of Notre Dame student-athletes to the University community and the community at-large. The award, which is presented annually each spring, bears the name of Christopher Zorich, two-time football All-American and 1991 graduate of the University of Notre Dame. Dan Scolari became the first men's lacrosse recipient of the award when he garnered the honor in 2008. Scolari was instrumental to the men's lacrosse team's mentorship program at middle schools in the South Bend area. The team's involvement with mentoring local youth and participating in other community service projects was recognized by the Notre Dame Athletic Department with the presentation of the 2008 Trophy Award (see below).

While the support of the South Bend/Michiana community has been a key ingredient to the success of the Fighting Irish at home over the years, the Notre Dame players have routinely given back to the local community. In 2008, the Fighting Irish men's lacrosse team was recognized with The Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The team is seen here receiving the Trophy Award.

Kevin Corrigan was named the Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) Coach of the Year on five occasions during Notre Dame's 16-year membership in the conference. Corrigan led the Irish to 12 regular-season GWLL titles. Notre Dame also won the only two GWLL Tournaments (2008 & 2009).

BIG EAST

The 2010 campaign marked the first season for BIG EAST men's lacrosse. The seven conference schools that participate in the newly-formed league are Georgetown, Notre Dame, Providence, Rutgers, St. John's, Syracuse and Villanova. The teams play a six-game single round-robin regular-season schedule. Men's lacrosse is the BIG EAST's 11th men's sport while the Conference conducts 13 women's sports. Notre Dame already is a member of the BIG EAST in 23 other sports.

The BIG EAST showdown between Notre Dame and Syracuse on May 1, 2010, drew a sellout crowd to Arlotta Stadium.

Number in parentheses to the right of opponent indicates its national ranking at time of game and number to left is Notre Dame's ranking.

+ - indicates conference game

~ - indicates Midwest Lacrosse Association game, but not Great Lakes Conference game

Davey Melera and Notre Dame's class of 2009 posted a 50-13 record, including a 15-1 mark in 2009. The 50 victories is tied for the most over a four-year span in program history. The class of 2010 also notched 50 wins (50-15).

Series vs. Opponents

Duncan Swezey netted four goals in Notre Dame's 7-6 win over #13 Albany during the 2008 season.

Note: Rank column has Notre Dame's national ranking at time of game followed by opponent's national ranking at time of game.

* indicates NCAA Tournament; ^ indicates GWLL Tournament

Scott Rodgers is coming off an impressive rookie campaign in the MLL with the Toronto Nationals, who selected him in the second round of June's draft. In his first professional season, Rodgers played in eight games and ranked second among MLL goalies with a .571 save percentage and third with a 12.26 goals-against average. Rodgers finished fourth in the league's rookie of the year voting. The Minnesota Swarm selected Rodgers in the second round of the 2010 National Lacrosse League (NLL) Draft.

D.J. Driscoll was the 11th overall selection to the Los Angeles Riptide in the 2006 MLL Draft. Driscoll, a defenseman, was selected as a Western Conference All-Star in both 2007 and 2008.

In 2008, Michael Podgajny became the highest MLL draft pick in Notre Dame history as he was taken with the seventh pick overall by the San Francisco Dragons. Podgajny appeared in nine games during his rookie season and tallied five goals and five assists.

IRISH ON NATIONAL TEAMS

Four former Notre Dame players -- Mike Iorio ('95), Todd Rassas ('98), Pat Walsh ('06) and D.J. Driscoll ('06) -- have represented the United States by playing on a national team. All four have helped Team U.S.A. to a world championship, extending the influence of Irish lacrosse far beyond the borders of the United States.

Driscoll, a two-time All-America honoree with the Fighting Irish, was the latest to bring home the gold medal. He and Team U.S.A. won the 2010 Federation of International Lacrosse (FIL) World Championship in England by defeating Canada 12-10 in the title game, which avenged a 10-9 loss to Canada during pool play. It was the seventh world crown for the United States. Driscoll played in all seven games and helped the team to a 6-1 record.

In the summer of 2003, Walsh, the first freshman All-America honoree in Notre Dame history, played a key role in helping the U.S. continue its streak of dominance in the International Lacrosse Federation (ILF) Under-19 World Championship. Walsh had four goals and three assists to lead Team U.S.A. in its 19-10 triumph over Canada in the championship game. In six games during the tournament, Walsh had 13 goals and eight assists, including at least two points in each contest.

Todd Rassas, a three-time All-American at Notre Dame, helped the United States to a victory in the 2002 ILF World Championship in Perth, Australia and a silver medal finish in the 2006 tournament in Canada. The 2002 squad defeated rival Canada 18-15 in the title game to secure Team U.S.A.'s sixth consecutive triumph in the ILF World Championship, which is contested every four years. In 2006, Team U.S.A. fell to Canada 15-10 in the championship game.

Mike Iorio, the first three-time All-American in Irish history, earned all-world honors as a member of the United States under-19 team in 1992. Iorio started for the national team on defense, in helping the Americans to a gold medal in the world championship, held at Hofstra University.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

History

- The University of Notre Dame du Lac was founded in 1842 by Father Edward Sorin. Adjacent to South Bend, Ind., and nestled next to St. Mary's and Saint Joseph's Lakes, the University was started with $310 in cash and three log buildings in disrepair.
- Notre Dame would establish many firsts for Catholic institutions of higher learning, including the first Catholic law school, the first Catholic engineering school and the first student residence with private rooms, Sorin Hall.

Academics

- The University is organized into four colleges — Arts and Letters, Science, Engineering and the Mendoza College of Business — the School of Architecture, the Law School, the Graduate School, six major research institutes, more than 40 centers and special programs and the University library system.
- Notre Dame is rated among the nation's top-25 institutions of higher learning in surveys conducted by U.S. News and World Report, Princeton Review, Time, Kiplinger's and Kaplan/Newsweek.
- The Mendoza College of Business is ranked #1 among the nation's top undergraduate business schools by Bloomberg BusinessWeek.
- Notre Dame is among a select group of schools that ranks in the top 30 on the U.S. News & World Report survey of the nation's top colleges and in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Directors' Cup for overall success in athletics.

Students

- Graduate and undergraduate students at the University come from all 50 states 100 countries worldwide.
- Notre Dame's graduation rate of 95 percent is exceeded by only Harvard and Princeton.
- Notre Dame's 98 percent retention rate between the freshman and sophomore years is among the highest in the country, thanks in large part to the University's unique First Year of Studies Program.
- Notre Dame has one of the highest undergraduate residential concentrations of any national university, with 80 percent of its students living in 29 residence halls.

- The medical school acceptance rate of the University's preprofessional studies graduates is 80 percent, almost twice the national average.
- Notre Dame ranks first among Catholic universities in the number of doctorates earned by its undergraduate alumni — a record compiled over some 85 years.

Service

- Community service is a hallmark of Notre Dame. About 80 percent of Notre Dame students engage in some form of voluntary community service during their years at the University, and at least 10 percent devote a year or more after graduation to service in the United States and around the world.
- The University's Alliance for Catholic Education (ACE) annually sends 180 recent graduates to teach in some 100 understaffed Catholic schools in the southern, southeastern and southwestern United States and in South Bend. A national model, ACE has received the Higher Education Award from the Corporation for National Service for leadership in using national service resources through AmeriCorps.

Alumni

- The University's network of nearly 270 alumni clubs — including 60 international clubs — is the most extensive in higher education.
- With graduates renowned for their loyalty and generosity, Notre Dame annually ranks among the top-five in percentage of alumni who contribute to the University.
- In recent years, Notre Dame alumni have won a Nobel Prize in medicine, a Pulitzer Prize in journalism and an Emmy Award for contributions to television technology.
