Irish Lacrosse Experience

IRISH REFLECTIONS

DAVEY LEACH '09

Midfielder • Captain of the 2009 team

"When I first walked onto Notre Dame's campus as a slightly overweight 19 year old I had no idea what to expect from my next four years. From the moment I entered the locker room at the back of the Joyce Center, Notre Dame began to shape me into the person I am today. The tools and contacts I developed during my four years on the lacrosse team will stay with me the rest of my life. Not a day goes by when I do not think back to times I spent with my 40 best friends on and off the field. I loved every minute I was at Notre Dame, and I still love every teammate I had at Notre Dame."

PETER CHRISTMAN '09 Midfielder • Captain of the 2009 team

"The individuals within an undergraduate institution who catalyze the learning processwho teach students how to think critically and act independently-are what differentiates great universities from the rest. Whether it's the teachers, advisors, coaches, administrators, or students themselves, Notre Dame is distinguished by the people within it. This defining characteristic is often described as the Notre Dame family. It's a term that is used quite loosely but, nonetheless, represents both the solidarity of the University's community and, more importantly, the ability of those within the community to influence the decisions and actions of others for the better long after they have departed South Bend. To this day, it is the people of Notre Dame who bring out the best in me-who challenge me to push further and faster. And for that I am, and will forever be, indebted."

DAVE CASHEN '97

Defenseman • Academic All-American

"Nowhere in the country could I have found such a good education and a school surrounded by students who love their school, what it stands for and most of all their classmates. I was able to combine this with four years of competitive lacrosse on a team nationally-ranked, well-coached and most of all, created by 35 teammates devoted to each other on and off the field. It is a great feeling to have 35 friends always to support, encourage and entertain you."

MIKE IORIO '95

Defenseman • Three-time All-American

"Notre Dame lacrosse provided me with four years of fun and excitement, and it continues to be a part of my life. As a freshman in 1992, I was a part of the team that had the program's first top-10 win. By my senior year, we had accomplished what no other NCAA Division I men's lacrosse team had ever done - the No. 12 seed knocked off the No. 5 seed in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. In the four years that came between these two historic Notre Dame lacrosse events, I received a great education, developed the teamwork and time management skills that I utilize every day in the banking world and built friendships that will last me a lifetime."

JIMMY KEENAN '98 Midfielder • Three-time honorable mention All-American

"The decision to attend Notre Dame and play lacrosse there has turned out to be the most gratifying decision of my life thus far. This unique University fulfilled all I could have wished for as a high school senior. As a school, it offers everything from academics to athletics to nightlife and a campus atmosphere that can only be summed up with the cliche 'Notre Dame Family.' The experience, memories and friends that I have accumulated over my four years there have really defined who I am today. Playing lacrosse at Notre Dame, with its tradition and history, was certainly the proudest and most memorable experience for me. The team and the University will always remain a part of my life for it is truly a family."

KEVIN O'CONNOR '89 Midfielder/Defenseman • Captain of the 1989 team

"As a candidate for United States Congress, I was amazed at the amount of attention given by the media and voters to my having served as captain of the lacrosse team at the University of Notre Dame. Indeed, of all the activities in which I have been involved, my experience as a lacrosse player at Notre Dame was the most valuable in the campaign. The traits that make Notre Dame athletics special in the eyes of the public – sportsmanship, integrity and success – are of equal value in the political arena."

2012 MEN'S LACROSSE

Irish Lacrosse Experience

Playing Across the Country

Over the past two-plus decades, the Notre Dame men's lacrosse program has showcased itself all over the United States.

In 1990, Notre Dame and Air Force squared off in the first-ever NCAA Division I men's lacrosse game in the state of California. Notre Dame returned to the Golden State in 2005 to face North Carolina in the First Four Invitational in Carson. In the fall of 2010, the Fighting Irish played Johns Hopkins during the San Francisco Fall Lacrosse Classic.

Notre Dame and Army met in a 2008 fall ball contest in Minnesota.

The Fighting Irish headed to Atlanta, Ga. during the 2008 campaign to face Dartmouth and the Irish returned to the Peach State the following season and took on Loyola in Powder Springs. Both of those contests were part of the Southern Showdown.

The Fighting Irish played in Texas during the 2009 and 2010 seasons. In 2009, Notre Dame and Vermont clashed in the Patriot Cup in Dallas. Notre Dame met Fairfield during the 2010 campaign in Houston. That contest was part of the Beating Cancer With a Stick Lacrosse Classic. The Fighting Irish opened the 2011 season against Duke at the Sunshine Classic in Jacksonville, Florida.

Networking

A fall networking trip to New York City has become a tradition for the Fighting Irish program. During the University's fall break, head coach Kevin Corrigan and members of his staff have taken the team's upperclassmen to The Big Apple for a day of networking. During their trips, the group has met with Notre Dame alumni and others who work at key companies in the city. Stops along the way have included the New York Stock Exchange, BlackRock, MTV and NASDAQ. When the Notre Dame squad traveled out West in the fall of 2010 to play Johns Hopkins in the San Francisco Fall Lacrosse Classic, the Irish juniors and seniors visited Google and EA Sports for additional networking opportunities. The coaching staff also has taken members of the team to Chicago to explore even more professional business opportunities.

Foreign Trips

In order to enhance the student-athlete experience, the Notre Dame men's lacrosse program has traveled four times internationally. The team journeyed to Ireland in 1995, England/Ireland/Wales in 2001, the Czech Republic in 2005 and Japan in 2010. The Fighting Irish squad has competed in games and conducted clinics during their time in the foreign lands.

Japan (2010)

Big Stage

The Notre Dame men's lacrosse program routinely plays in top-notch venues. Not only did the Irish compete at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore during the 2010 final four, they also played Loyola in the venue during that season's Konica Minolta Face-Off Classic.

The Irish opened the 2011 campaign against Duke at Everbank Field, which is home to the Jacksonville Jaguars. Later that season, Notre Dame faced Duke in the NCAA quarterfinals at the home venue of the New England Patriots, Gillette Stadium.

In 2009, Notre Dame played Ohio State at Ohio Stadium (The Horseshoe) in Columbus, Ohio. Two weeks prior, the Irish faced Denver at Invesco Field, which is home to the Denver Broncos.

In 2008, Notre Dame and Denver met at Toyota Park, home to the Chicago Fire of Major League Soccer (MLS) and former residence of Major League Lacrosse's Chicago Machine. in Bridgeview. III.

Notre Dame and North Carolina met at the Home Depot Center, which houses the MLS's Los Angeles Galaxy, during the 2005 First Four Invitational in Carson, Calif.

Helping Humanity

In early December of 2010, the Fighting Irish men's lacrosse and men's basketball teams worked together with Notre Dame student government and a host of departments across the campus to sponsor the Playing for Peace 3v3 Basketball Tournament (bottom). The tournament's purpose was to raise awareness for peace in Sudan. The event also featured a Stand With Sudan peace rally. Later that month, a delegation from the University of Notre Dame that included Kevin Dugan, a former Irish lacrosse player and the team's Operations Assistant at that time, and then junior defenseman Jake Brems spent time in Washington, D.C. (right) and Baltimore, Md. to further the school's commitment to peace in Sudan by advocating for full implementation of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement in Sudan.

The group had meetings with key policymakers and non-governmental organizations. Among the stops on the trip were the White House, the State Department, Senator Richard Lugar's (Ind.) office, Congressman Joe Donnelly's (Ind.) office and Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Headquarters.

In 2008, the Fighting Irish men's lacrosse team was recognized with The Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The lacrosse squad has had a major impact in the Northern Indiana area by mentoring middle school and high school students.

Facilities

Arlotta Stadium

Arlotta Stadium is the home for the Notre Dame men's and women's lacrosse programs. Construction of the facility began in August of 2008 and it held its first event on October 16, 2009 as the Notre Dame men's team played the Iroquois National Team in an exhibition contest. The official stadium dedication was held on October 17, 2009.

The stadium features over 2,000 seats, lights, an artificial-turf field, locker rooms, player lounges, restrooms and concession areas.

The state-of-the-art facility is named after Notre Dame graduate John Arlotta, president and chief executive officer of Denver-based Coram Inc. He and his wife Bobbie pledged the lead gift toward the stadium, which was built to the east of the Joyce Center as part of the University's new athletics quadrangle. The Arlotta children - Mindy, Andy and Jon - also pledged an additional gift from The Arlotta Family Foundation toward the project. In addition to their generous donation, alumni and friends of the lacrosse programs donated over two million dollars.

The field is a top-notch artificial surface.

Arlotta Stadium opened its doors in October of 2009. The exterior displays banners of former Irish greats.

Arlotta Stadium features over 2,000 permanent seats. Additional seating is available on a grass berm opposite of the stands.

The men's lacrosse player lounge, which is adjacent to the locker room, has flat-screen televisions along with abundant seating for studying and relaxing.

The press box has over 20 seats for media and support staff along with three broadcast booths.

The official Arlotta Stadium dedication was held on October 17, 2009.

Loftus Sports Center

The Loftus Sports Center, combined with Arlotta Stadium, gives the University of Notre Dame some of the top lacrosse facilities in the country. Constructed in 1988, the Loftus Sports Center is one of just six indoor facilities in the country that plays host to Division I men's lacrosse games.

The Loftus Sports Center provides Notre Dame with one of the top multi-purpose indoor facilities in the nation. The Meyo Field is permanently marked for lacrosse competition and is used as a backup site for games and practice in the event of inclement weather.

The building is named after John R. Loftus of St. Charles, III., a 1949 graduate of the University. Loftus is chief executive of JRL, a real estate, investment and construction firm. Loftus is also a member of the Notre Dame Monogram Club, having played on the varsity basketball team in 1944, 1948 and 1949.

The field and surrounding track are named for Ray and Marie Meyo of Brecksville, Ohio. Meyo, who graduated from Notre Dame in 1964, is president and chief executive officer of Telxon Corp. in Akron, Ohio.

In addition to the Meyo Track and Field in the Loftus Center, the Irish lacrosse squad also benefits from the Haggar Fitness Center located in the facility. Equipped with more than 40,000 pounds of free weights, it is considered by national strength coaches to be one of the largest, and finest, college training facilities in the nation.

Loftus Sports Center saw its first intercollegiate lacrosse action on April 27, 1988, when Notre Dame posted a 10-7 victory over Michigan State.

The Isban Auditorium within the Guglielmino Athletics Complex provides an ideal setting for team meetings. The auditorium can seat up to 150 people in large chairback seats.

The Haggar Fitness Center, which is shared by both the Loftus Center and the Guglielmino Athletics Complex, features 25,000 square feet of strength and conditioning space with state-of-the art weight equipment, a 50-yard Mondo track for speed training, a 45-yard by 18-yard Prestige Turf athletic surface for team workouts and an updated sound and lighting system that features six plasma television screens.

The Loftus Sports Center, one of the six indoor facilities in the country that plays host to Division I men's lacrosse games, is the site of Irish lacrosse games when inclement weather precludes them from being contested outdoors.

The BIG EAST Conference

The 2011-12 academic year is the 33rd in the history of The BIG EAST Conference as the unique consortium marches on competing at the highest level with integrity and sportsmanship.

The BIG EAST has gone through membership changes since its birth, but the 2011-12 year marks the conference's seventh straight with the same 16-member group, making for the nation's largest Division 1-A conference.

The BIG EAST Conference's goals have always been the same. The outstanding performances of the student-athletes at BIG EAST schools are evidence of the league's proud tradition of success. The league has always been able to boast that many of its best students are also its best athletes. The 2010-11 year was no different.

Seven BIG EAST student-athletes were named NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners, while 22 earned Capital One Academic All-America recognition. Maya Moore, Connecticut's women's basketball standout, won the NCAA Honda-Broderick Cup as the nation's top female studentathlete and was chosen as the Capital One Academic All-America of the Year.

In the athletic arena, BIG EAST student-athletes again enjoyed success on the national stage. The Connecticut men's basketball team won its third national championship, completing a magical run through five games of the BIG EAST Championship and six wins in the NCAA tournament. The Villanova women's cross country team won the NCAA title for the second straight year and the ninth time overall. The Notre Dame women's soccer team won its third NCAA title, while BIG EAST teams reached national championship games in women's basketball (Notre Dame) and men's soccer (Louisville).

The BIG EAST placed two teams in the NCAA Women's Final Four for the second time in the last three years as Connecticut joined Notre Dame in Indianapolis, capping a season in which the Huskies extended their NCAA-record winning streak to 90 games.

Individually, BIG EAST student-athletes won five NCAA championships, including an unprecedented four by Villanova's Sheila Reid. Reid was the 2010 individual cross country champion, a member of the Wildcats' winning indoor distance medley relay team and won the 5,000- and 1,500-meter titles in outdoor track & field. Louisville's Matt Hughes, meanwhile, repeated as the NCAA champion in the 3,000-meter steeplechase at the NCAA outdoor meet.

Moore and Reid joined Notre Dame soccer standout Melissa Henderson as winners of Honda Sports Awards as the top performers in their respective sports. Moore also became the first three-time winner of the Wade Trophy as the nation's top women's basketball player and joined Villanova lacrosse player Brian Karalunas as winners of the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award.

BIG EAST football maintained its national profile as a competitively balanced group. Connecticut claimed the league's Bowl Championship Series bid for the first time as the Huskies shared the conference title with Pittsburgh and West Virginia. Six of the league's eight squads went to bowl games and helped the BIG EAST post a 4-2 bowl record for the second straight year.

The BIG EAST became the nation's largest Division I-A conference in 2005-06 when five new members began competing – the University of Cincinnati, DePaul University, the University of Louisville, Marquette University and the University of South Florida.

BIG EAST institutions reside in nine of the nation's top 35 largest media markets, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Tampa, Pittsburgh, Hartford, Cincinnati and Milwaukee. With its newest members, BIG EAST markets contain almost one-fourth of all television households in the U.S. When Texas Christian University joins the conference in the 2012-13 academic year, the conference will have a footprint in 30 percent of the nation's television households.

Since opening its doors in 1979, the league has won 31 national championships in six different sports and 133 student-athletes have won individual national titles.

In 2003-04, Connecticut became the first school in NCAA history to win the men's and women's NCAA basketball titles in the same season. In '02-03, the BIG EAST became the first conference in NCAA history to win the men's and women's titles in the same year when the Syracuse men and the Connecticut women captured their respective national championships. In men's basketball, BIG EAST squads have won four of the last 13 NCAA championships. BIG EAST women's teams have taken seven of the last 12 NCAA titles.

Proactive movement has been a signature strategy for the conference that was born in 1979. The BIG EAST continually turns challenges into opportunities to become stronger. The conference currently rowns champions in 24 sports.

The BIG EAST became a reality on May 31, 1979, following a meeting of athletic directors from Providence College, St. John's, Georgetown and Syracuse universities. Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College completed the original seven school alliance. While the membership has both increased and changed, the focus of the BIG EAST has not wavered. The conference reflects a tradition of broad based programs, led by administrators and coaches who place a constant emphasis on academic integrity. Its student athletes own significantly high graduation rates and their record of scholastic achievement notably show a balance between intercollegiate athletics and academics.

Any successful organization has had the good fortune to have outstanding leadership. The BIG EAST primarily was the brainchild of Dave Gavitt, who was the conference's first Commissioner. Michael Tranghese, the league's first full-time employee, and for 11 years the associate to Gavitt, became Commissioner in 1990. In his first year, he administered the formation of The BIG EAST Football Conference.

John Marinatto, who had served as senior associate commissioner, moved into the Commissioner's chair in 2009 and has continued to steer the conference on its path of success.

The league has long been considered a leader in innovative concepts in promotion and publicity, particularly regarding television. Those efforts have resulted in unparalleled visibility for BIG EAST student athletes. The conference has enjoyed longstanding relationships with CBS, ESPN, Inc. and ABC.

BIG EAST men's basketball games are regular sellouts at campus and major public arenas, including the annual men's BIG EAST Championship in Madison Square Garden. The women's basketball championship has led all conferences in attendance for the past eight years. Attendance figures also are significant in soccer and baseball.

The BIG EAST has its headquarters in Providence where the conference administers to more than 5,500 student-athletes.

Notre Dame BIG EAST Titles

Since joining the BIG EAST in 1995-96, Notre Dame has won more conference championships (111) than any other school in the league:

FIGHTING IRISH

Senior defenseman Kevin Randall was selected by the Charlotte Hounds in the 2012 Major League Lacrosse Draft. He has helped the Irish finish second nationally in scoring defense in each of the last two seasons.

Season Preview

Irish Plan For More Of The Same In 2012

Consistency has been the key for the Irish as they aim for their seventh straight NCAA bid.

Over the past six seasons, the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team has graduated standout players, but head coach Kevin Corrigan and his staff have always reloaded and constructed a team that has qualified for the NCAA tournament each of those six seasons. During those six campaigns, the Irish have advanced to the quarterfinals of NCAAs on three occasions, including last year.

The 2012 version of the Fighting Irish will have to fill the void of losing five All-America honorees from a squad that finished the season with an 11-3 record and a top-10 national ranking. Expectations are still high at Notre Dame as the Irish boast a top-10 ranking entering this season.

"Clearly we know that we lost five All-Americans and that's not an insignificant thing," says Corrigan. "At the same time, I think we have some depth with guys that can play right now. They're working extremely hard and there's no reason why we shouldn't be a very good team if we continue to do the things that we need to do."

The Åll-Americans that the Irish lost were midfielders Zach Brenneman and David Earl, the 2011 BIG EAST Midfielder of the Year, defensemen Sam Barnes and Kevin Ridgway along with long-stick midfielder Andrew Irving.

Captaining the Irish in 2012 will be seniors Nicholas Beattie, Max Pfeifer and Kevin Randall. Beattie will be the leader of an attack unit that returns all three starters from one season ago. Pfeifer has been a steady force in the Fighting Irish midfield since he stepped on campus and he headlines this year's group of talented middies. Randall has been a key reason why Notre Dame has finished each of the last two seasons ranked second nationally in scoring defense.

"All three of our captains, as well as our whole senior class, has a great sense of who we are as a team," states Corrigan. "They know who we want to be and how we want to play. They are willing to play with a discipline, but also with an aggressiveness and a confidence that is great. We're lucky to have that kind of leadership."

That leadership and experience, combined with a talented group of underclassmen, will be Notre Dame's recipe for filling the void of what was lost and what should have the Irish eyeing another successful season in 2012.

Here is a position-by-position breakdown of the 2012 Fighting Irish squad ...

ATTACK

Along with Beattie, fellow senior Sean Rogers and sophomore Westy Hopkins are back as starters in the attack. Rogers and Hopkins both led the Irish in goals last season with 18 apiece. Rogers also had seven assists for a team-best 25 points. Beattie notched eight goals and one assist. The main loss is Colin Igoe, who netted 16 goals as a senior.

"Nick Beattie is a guy who continues to work extremely hard and understands how we want to do things," says Corrigan. "He really is a leader out there because he sees it and he knows it and he holds other people accountable and that's a good thing to have at the offensive end.

"Sean Rogers also knows what we're trying to do and he's very comfortable in doing what we need to do. He finds his opportunities to make plays. His decision-making has become so much better over the last two years. Those two guys (Beattie and Rogers) make an awful lot of good decisions for us and that'll make our offense more effective.

"Westy Hopkins had a great freshman year and I think he'll continue to grow. I think just the fact that those guys (Beattie, Rogers and Hopkins) will be playing together for another year means they're going to be that much better. Westy is maturing as a player and the dynamic of them playing together for another year has really built some cohesiveness."

Freshman Conor Doyle will hope to emulate what Hopkins gave the Irish as a rookie, while sophomore Ryan Mix, who did not see time last season, will be a factor in the crease area for the Irish.

"Ryan Mix has done a great job at developing as an inside guy on the crease," states Corrigan. "I think he's going to give us some options there. Conor Doyle proved in the fall that he's going to be a guy that can play some minutes for us and help us as well. Those five guys will be the core of it, but I think we have other guys who can step in there and help us."

Others that will push for playing time in the attack will be sophomores Alex Eaton and John Scioscia along with freshmen Logan Connolly and Kyle Runyon.

MIDFIELD

Despite losing two key cogs from last season's midfield in Brenneman and Earl, the Fighting Irish welcome back some key veterans along with players that are anxious to step into larger roles this season.

Pfeifer registered nine goals and a team-high eight assists on the first midfield line last season. Fellow senior Eric Keppeler notched five goals and five assists from the second midfield.

"Max Pfeifer is probably our steadiest and mostreliable guy at the offensive end of the field," comments Corrigan. "He very rarely makes bad decisions. He works hard both with and without the ball. He can make a variety of plays.

"Eric Keppeler is a glue guy on a midfield because he can do so many things well. He can go to the other end and play good defense. He's smart in the middle of the field and he's a ground ball guy. Offensively, he's really developed into a guy who can do some things at that end as well. Where Max Pfeifer has grown from an offensive guy into a guy who is doing the other things well, Keppeler started at the defensive end and has grown into an offensive player. So now we have two guys who kind of anchor our first two midfield lines and bring their experience and IQ for the game."

The junior class features a plethora of midfielders that the Irish will rely heavily on during the 2012 campaign. Steve Murphy posted six goals and four assists last season, while Pat Cotter added five goals and three assists. Both Murphy and Cotter played on the second midfield one season ago. Their classmate Tyler Kimball saw action in four games and tallied one goal and one assist. All three will be key components for the Notre Dame midfield this season.

"I think Tyler Kimball and Steve Murphy are two of the hardest working guys on our team," says Corrigan. "Both are very physical and both bring an attacking mentality to the game. Their IQ is catching up with their physical ability and the skill set that they've worked so hard to develop and I think both of them are qoing to be very good players.

"Pat Cotter is a very smart player and a guy who knows how we want him to play and what we want him to do. As he continues to get confident and aggressive, he's going to make more and more plays at the offensive end of the field."

Junior Ryan Foley has seen time at both attack and midfield during his Irish career. Last season, he registered eight goals and four assists. His versatility is a key asset for the Fighting Irish.

"Ryan Foley gives us flexibility because we can play him at attack and we can play him at midfield," explains Corrigan. "He has an all-around offensive game that allows us to play him up top, behind, really anywhere and he can do a lot of things. He's also developed into a defensive player. Right now he's not a two-way guy but he's an athlete who can get out there and help us in a variety of roles."

Fellow junior Andy Will missed the fall campaign with an injury and hopes to return and have an impact in the spring. Seniors Ben Ashenburg and Michael Rogers also will be in the mix to see time at the midfield position. Ashenburg has played limited time during his career, while Rogers has been hampered by injuries during most of his Notre Dame tenure and has yet to see the field. Corrigan likes the work ethic and attitude that both bring to the team.

Another player who has been sidelined because of injury is sophomore Jim Marlatt. He did not play during his rookie campaign, but will certainly be a factor this season. Sophomore Plyer Brenneman saw time in eight games as a freshman and will have an increased role as he develops. Corrigan likes what he brings to the field as a lefty and the versatility that he possesses. Fellow sophomore Matthew Collins can help the Irish as a short-stick midfielder or with the long pole.

Members of the freshman class also will be relied on in the midfield in 2012.

"We have a lot of guys in the freshman class who can help in roles right now," states Corrigan. "Nick Ossello and Will Corrigan will both help us in vince faceoff game. Nick can play some on wing and as a defensive midfielder. Jack Near is going to play some as a defensive midfielder. I think all three of those guys can develop into good two-way middles for us. Will Gilmartin is a strong, athletic kid who can do a lot of things and in time will push his way into the conversation as well."

Connor McCollough is the fifth midfielder from the rookie class and he too provides good depth at that position.

One of the greatest strengths for this year's Notre Dame squad is its defensive midfield. Senior Devon Dobson and junior Quinn Cully both bring a wealth of experience, while Andrew Gleason, a senior, also will be counted on to provide depth at the position.

"Short-stick midfielders Devon Dobson, Andrew Gleason and Quinn Cully are really going to be a strength of our team this season," adds Corrigan. "They are experienced, they are tough both physically and mentally and they've developed into more of a threat in the transition game. They can help us in a lot of different ways. With those guys, along with Jack Near and Nick Ossello, we really have some good depth at that position and maybe the best athleticism we have ever had at that position."

Sophomore Liam O'Connor will be Notre Dame's primary faceoff man. Last season, he ranked 18th nationally by winning 55.3% (88-159) of his attempts. He split the duty with departed senior Jake Marmul so the bulk of this year's load will fall on him.

"Liam O'Connor as a faceoff guy had a really good first year and was helped by having Jake Marmul to both work with and work against in practice and to compliment him in games," says Corrigan. "He's going to have to make more adjustments this year and I think he's ready to do that. He's very in tune with what he's doing and what he needs to do and with what his opponents are doing. His IQ will continue to help him become a better player."

DEFENSE

Notre Dame is the only team in all of NCAA Division I men's lacrosse to finish in the top five nationally in scoring defense in each of the last five seasons. The Irish hope that trend continues in 2012.

Randall, who was selected by the Charlotte Hounds in the seventh round of the 2012 Major League Lacrosse Draft, has started every game over the past two seasons and will be looked upon to anchor the latest version of the Irish defense. His veteran presence will be even more valuable this season since fellow senior Jake Brems will miss the entire campaign due to a knee injury.

"Kevin Randall is playing great," says Corrigan. "He's really worked extremely hard, not just for four years, but going into this year I think he's worked extremely hard and wants to be prepared and he knows he's kind of our leader down on that end of the field. He's quiet, steady and he's smart and tough and everything you could ask for in a defenseman. He's playing at a very high level right now."

Joining Randall as starters in the dose defense will most likely be junior Matt Miller and sophomore Stephen O'Hara. Miller has seen limited time during his Irish career and O'Hara did not see action as a freshman, but Corrigan likes what both players bring to the defense.

"Matt Miller is having a terrific year so far," comments Corrigan. "He has worked the past two years kind of behind the scenes to prepare himself and it's his turn now and he's ready for it. He's played very well and very consistently throughout the fall and preseason.

"Stephen O'Hara has just really blossomed. He plays like a veteran. He didn't play for us last year and now he's starting as a sophomore and is really playing so well and so smart and steady. He looks like a senior out there."

Senior Bobby Smith has been a key contributor for the Irish at the long-stick midfielder position over the past three seasons and he gives the team flexibility with his ability to also play down low.

"Bobby Smith continues to play at the long-pole position for us and he's doing very well there," says Corrigan. "He's also given us depth down low with Jake (Brems) out. He's worked really hard in trying to become our swing guy in case we need some depth. He gives us flexibility and he also really understands our defense and how we play. He is a great communicator, which is very important. He's also very strong as a leader."

Junior Tyler Andersen can also play up top as a long-stick midfielder or down low in the close defense.

"Tyler Andersen may be the most improved guy on the team in terms of his conditioning and his preparation for the season," explains Corrigan. "When I look at those guys that we lost, from Andrew Irving to Kevin Ridgway to Zach Brenneman and David Earl, I look at the guys behind them whether it's Steve Murphy and Tyler Kimball in the midfield or Kevin Randall, Tyler Andersen and Matt Miller in the defense. All were chomping at the bit to get in there, but they all were working while they were waiting. That gives all of us confidence, including them, in their ability to step in there and play at a high level this year."

Adding depth to the defense from the sophomore class are Brian Buglione, Chris Prevoznik, Michael Shepardson and Ryan Smith, who is a newcomer to the team this season. Corrigan is impressed with the development of the sophomore class of defenseman and the roles they can fill on this year's team. The lone freshman defender on this year's squad is Henry Williams. Corrigan feels Williams will push for playing time this year most likely as a long-stick midfielder.

GOALIE

Junior John Kemp returns as the starter between the pipes for the Fighting Irish. Last season, Kemp earned honorable mention All-America honors in addition to being a second-team all-BIG EAST selection. He ranked second nationally in goalsagainst average (6.61) and fourth in save percentage (.602).

"I don't think there's a better goalie than John Kemp when he's on his game," states Corrigan. "He continues to develop every year. As a freshman he kind of quietly stopped the ball and now as a junior he's leading the defense, clearing the ball and getting the ball out in a way that helps our midfielders become better and our defensemen become better in clearing the ball. He's become the communicator, the general, the center of the defense with his poise and confidence. He's somebody everybody knows we can count on day-to-day."

Senior Colt Power and freshman Conor Kelly will backup Kemp.

"Colt Power has developed all phases of his game," says Corrigan. "More than anything else, he just stops the ball. He gets pieces of balls that you can't imagine. He gives us depth at that position and also that great competition in practice every day. When you're shooting every day and there are no easy goals, that's a good thing for a team to play against.

"Conor Kelly is a terrific talent. He's going to be a big-time goalie. He's playing and competing every day because you never know in a position like goalie. He's working hard with that in mind and preparing himself every day and he's got outstanding ability and an outstanding temperament for that position."

IRISH LACROSSE PIPELINE

A number of high schools have sent a multitude of student-athletes to play lacrosse at Notre Dame since the program gained varsity status in 1981. Leading the way is New Jersey's Delbarton High School, which has sent 15 student-athletes to play lacrosse for the Fighting Irish. A list of the leading high schools on the Notre Dame all-time varsity roster is below. The all-time varsity roster can be found on pages 141-145

Head Coach

Kevin Corrigan is set to begin his 24th season on the Fighting Irish sideline in 2012. Since his arrival on campus in 1988, Corrigan has built Notre Dame into one of the premier men's lacrosse programs in the nation. Few coaches in the country boast a résumé dotted with such team and individual success over an extended period of time.

Inheriting a program that had never earned a berth in the NCAA Championship, Corrigan has made the Irish a staple in the postseason. His temure has been highlighted by two trips to the final four, including the programs first-ever appearance in the national title game in 2010. Corrigan steered the Irish to the national semifinals in 2001 in addition to quarterfinal trips in 1995, 2000, 2008 and 2011.

Notre Dame has garnered 16 invitations to the NCAA Championship since 1990, including a current run of six straight trips. The Fighting Irish have received a national seed and a first-round home game three times in the past four years.

Corrigan's Irish squads have won 15 conference titles and finished in the top 20 of the national rankings on 19 occasions, including in 18 of the last 19 campaigns. Notre Dame has been adept at winning big games under Corrigan, registering 61 victories over nationally-ranked opponents, including 17 vs. top-10 foes. The Irish have an overall record of 217-106 (.662) during Corrigan's tenure.

At least one Irish player has garnered All-America accolades in each of the last 19 years, with 29 individuals earning a total of 52 All-America honors. A program-record six players received All-America citations in '11.

The Fighting Irish also have hauled in numerous amounts of all-conference hardware under Corrigan's direction. Notre Dame was a member of the Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) from 1994-2009 and during that time, six lish players were named the GWLL Player of the Year. Notre Dame student-athletes gained all-GWLL accolades on 94 occasions, an average of nearly six per season. Corrigan was named the GWLL coach of the year fives times, including in 2009, which was the final season for the conference.

CAREER RECORD: 227-121 (.652), 25 years

RECORD AT NOTRE DAME: 217-106 (.662), 23 years

GWLL COACH OF THE YEAR: 1994, 1996, 2001, 2007, 2009 In the first two seasons of BIG EAST Conference play, Notre Dame has gamered 11 all-league honors. David Earl became the first Irish player to capture a major postseason award from the conference as he was selected the '11 BIG EAST Midfielder of the Year.

Moving to the BIG EAST was not the only significant change for the Fighting Irish in 2010 as the team began play in its state-of-the-art facility, Arlotta Stadium. Playing in a top-level league and in the multi-million dollar stadium will help Corrigan keep the Notre Dame program among the nation's best for years to come.

The last four seasons have witnessed the Fighting Irish achieve unprecedented success within the program. In 2008, Notre Dame played host to an NCAA tournament game for the first time in program history. The 2009 campaign featured the lrish posting the first undefeated regular season (13-0) in program history before extending their record to a school-best 15-0 in the GWLL tournament. Notre Dame reached the NCAA title game for the first time in school history in '10 and followed that up by achieving the No. 1 national ranking during the'11 regular season.

The sixth-seeded Irish made the most of their first home NCAA game in 2008 as they topped Colgate 8-7 in overtime. Syracuse, the eventual national champion, upended the Irish, 11-9, in the quarterfinals in Ithaca, N.Y. That marked the third straight season that Notre Dame had fallen to the eventual NCAA champion in postseason play. Overall, Notre Dame went 14-3 and finished the season ranked fifth in the final USILA poll.

The Fighting Irish captured their second straight GWLL regular-season title in 2008 as they were among a three-way tie atop the league standings with a 4-1 mark. Notre Dame garnered the top seed for the inaugural GWLL postseason tournament and the Irish took home the hardware with victories over Quinnipiac and Ohio State in Birmingham, Mich.

Four Irish players - Joey Kemp (G), Sean Dougherty (D), Michael Podgajny (M) and Ryan Hoff (A) - were tabbed as All-Americans in 2008. Kemp became the first goalie in program history to be named a first-team All-American as he received the 2008 Kelly Award for Outstanding Goalie in Division 1 from the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA). Those four Fighting Irish players were among six that received all-GWLL honors in '08.

The Irish ranked fifth nationally in 2008 in both goals scored per game (12.09) and goals allowed per game (7.04). Hoff became just the second player in program history to notch back-to-back 40-goal seasons. He tallied 40 as a sophomore in 2007 and followed it with 41 in 2008. Hoff concluded his career in '09 second on Notre Dame's alltime goals scored list with 134 tallies.

The '09 campaign was a record-setting one for Corrigan and the Fighting Irish. Along with establishing program records for wins (15) and winning percentage (.938), Notre Dame ranked first among all NCAA Division I teams in goals-against average (6.19) and winning percentage, while tying for 10th in goals per game (11.00). Goalie Scott Rodgers was first nationally in goals-against average (6.14) and save percentage (.663).

In addition to being named the '09 GWLL Player of the Year, Rodgers was one of five Irish players to garner All-America honors. Joining him on the USILA third team were Hoff and Regis McDermott (D). Sam Barnes (D) and Grant Krebs (M) were honorable-mention picks. Those five student-athletes were among seven to receive first-team allleague accolades.

After completing a 13-0 regular season in '09, the Irish defeated Quinnipiac and Ohio State to capture the second – and final – GWLL tournament. That was the 15th conference title for Corrigan during his Notre Dame tenure. The Irish received the No. 7 seed for the '09 NCAA Championship and hosted an NCAA tournament game for the second straight season, yet fell to Maryland, 7-3, in the first round.

The Irish began play in the BIG EAST in '10 and after posting a 7-6 regular-season record, they made the most of their NCAA tournament at-large berth.

Notre Dame knocked off three straight top-10 foes en route to the '10 national title game. The journey began at sixth-ranked Princeton in the first round. After downing the Tigers 8-5, Notre Dame defeated No. 3 Maryland, 7-5, to advance to the national semifinals at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md.

The sensational run continued as the Irish bested seventh-ranked Cornell, 12-7, to set up a dash with Duke in the final. Notre Dame opened the '10 season with an 11-7 win at then No. 2 Duke, yet the Blue Devils prevailed in the second meeting by taking the back-and-forth contest 6-5 in overtime.

What his teams have done ...

- 2010 NCAA finalist
- 2001 NCAA semifinalist
- 1995, 2000, 2008, 2011 NCAA quarterfinalists
- 16 NCAA Championship berths
- 15 regular-season conference titles (12 GWLL, 3 Great Lakes Conference)
- GWLL Tournament champion (2008 & 2009)
- 19 finishes in the national top 20, including 18 in the last 19 seasons
- 61 wins over ranked opponents, including 20 vs. top-10 teams

What his Notre Dame players have done ...

- Earned All-America honors 52 times, including at least once in each of the last 19 years

Rodgers was named the Most Outstanding Player of the '10 NCAA Championship, becoming just the fifth player to earn that honor from a team that did not win the title. Rodgers and the Notre Dame defense allowed just 23 goals (5.75 per game) during the four games of the tournament. For the season, the lrish ranked second nationally in team defense by surrendering just 7.53 goals per game.

Rodgers and Krebs both earned their second All-America citation, while Zach Brenneman (M), David Earl (M) and Kevin Ridgway (D) were firsttime honorees. Earl, Krebs, Ridgway and Rodgers all were all-BIG EAST members during the first season of league play.

Just like in '10, the Fighting Irish defense also finished second nationally in '11 by allowing just 6.57 goals per game. Notre Dame is the only school in NCAA Division I to finish in the top-five nationally in scoring defense in each of the last five seasons.

Notre Dame's 9-0 start in 2011 helped the team earn the No. 1 national ranking in both the Nik/ Inside Lacrosse media poll and the USILA coaches' poll on April 18. The Irish would improve to 10-0 before suffering their first loss of the campaign.

For the fourth time in program history, Notre Dame garnered one of the eight national seeds for the NCAA Championship. The Irish were seeded fourth, which signified the highest seed in school history, and they played host to Penn in the first round. The Fighting Irish topped the Quakers, 13-6. The seven-goal margin of victory was the largest ever for the Irish in an NCAA tournament contest, while the 13 goals matched the most scored by Notre Dame in an NCAA game.

The win over Penn propelled Corrigan and the Fighting Irish into the quarterfinals of the NCAA tournament for the sixth time in program history. Unfortunately for Notre Dame, it would be déjà vu as Duke avenged a 12-7 season-opening loss tot de Irish by capturing a 7-5 quarterfinal victory. The Irish finished the '11 season with an 11-3 mark and ranked eighth in the final Nike/Inside Lacrosse poll.

Earl and Ridgway both were first-team All-Americans in '11, while Brenneman, Barnes, Andrew Irving (LSM) and John Kemp (G) rounded out the program-record total of honorees. Earl, the midfielder of the year, headlined a group of six all-BIG EAST performers for the Fighting Irish.

The work that Corrigan and his staff have done in shaping Notre Dame into one of the top lacrosse programs in the country has not gone unnoticed. Along with being named the GWLL Coach of the Year in '09, Corrigan was honored with the Frenchy Julien Service Award from the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA). The award is presented in honor of former Chief Referee, Joseph R. "Frenchy" Julien for outstanding and continuous service to the sport.

Corrigan has continued the tradition of academic success for the Irish men's lacrosse program. Since first competing on the varsity level in 1981, every Irish lacrosse senior has graduated. Three players since 1997 have gained Academic All-America honors. A total of 13 Notre Dame studentathletes have been named Scholar All-Americans by the USILA during Corrigan's tenure.

Many of the best players in Notre Dame history have played under Corrigan, as his graduates include each of the top five point scorers in the program's history, six of the top seven goal scorers and each of the top six players on the career assist list.

Playing beyond the college level has been a reality for a number of Corrigan's players. Twentynine have been a member of a professional team either Major League Lacrosse or the National Lacrosse League, while five of his Irish players have earned spots on United States national teams. Four of those players have come away with gold medals, including defenseman D.J. Driscoll at the '10 Federation of International Lacrosse World Championship in Manchester, England.

It certainly did not take Corrigan long to place Notre Dame on the national lacrosse map. After leading the Irish to a 7-6 record in his first season, 1989, Corrigan's 1990 squad made history by gaining the school's first-ever USILA national ranking (17th in the final poll) and earning Notre Dame's first invitation to the NCAA Championship.

In 1992, Notre Dame tied the then-school record for wins, going 10-5, and made its second appearance in the NCAAs, winning the Great Lakes Conference championship and the West Region bid for the second time in three seasons.

The 1993 campaign saw the Irish make their third trip to the NCAA tournament, re-establish the season victory record with 11 and rose as high as 12th in the national polls, completing the season at 15th. Defenseman Mike Iorio became the first player in Irish history to be named an All-American, copping third-team honors. Corrigan wound up the season with an invitation to coach the North team in the North-South All-Star Game. His North squad took home a 28-16 victory.

In 1994, Corrigan guided the Irish to their third straight conference title – and the first for the newly-formed GWLL – Notre Dame posted a 10-2 overall mark, which included a 12-9 win over #17 Penn State and a thrilling 12-11 overtime victory over Michigan State clinching an NCAA bid for Corrigan's squad that finished 14th in the final poll. He also was selected GWLL Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

His '94 team also boasted two All-America honorees in GWLL Player of the Year lorio and attackman Randy Colley, marking the first time in the program's history that multiple Irish players were named in the same year.

Corrigan helped Notre Dame reach new heights in '95, notching its first-ever NCAA tournament win in a come-from-behind 12-10 victory at #5 Duke, which marked the first time a team from the West had won an NCAA game. The Irish finished the '95 campaign with a 9-5 record and final ranking of 15th, as the Irish won their fourth straight league championship. Notre Dame's season culminated with an appearance in the NCAA tournament quarterfinals, where the Irish to ts to eventual national runner-up Maryland, 14-11.

lorio and Colley, the '95 GWLL Player of the Year, both earned All-America honors again. Iorio was a second-team honoree, as he became Notre Dame's first three-time All-American, while Colley earned honorable-mention accolades for the second consecutive year and finished his career as the school's all-time leading scorer. His 273 points (173 G, 100 A) were 87 better than the previous Irish record.

For the first time in school history, three Notre Dame players earned All-America honors in the same season in '96, as Todd Rassas (D) was a thirdteam selection and Jimmy Keenan (M) and Alex Cade (G) were tabbed honorable mention. Notre Dame also cracked the national top 10 for the first time ever, dimbing to seventh in the USILA poll in mid-April.

Notre Dame concluded the 1997 season ranked ninth, which was the program's highest final ranking at the time. That campaign saw Notre Dame earn its first-ever victory over a top-five opponent as the Irish defeated #4 Hofstra, 10-9, at Moose Krause Stadium en route to a 9-3 overall record.

In 1998, Rassas was named the GWLL Player of the Year and became the school's second threetime All-American when he earned third-team honors. Keenan was an honorable-mention selection that same season for the third consecutive year.

A year later, attackman Chris Dusseau finished his career as Notre Dame's second all-time leading goal scorer (113), while being named honorable mention All-America.

Corrigan and the Irish upset fifth-ranked Loyola 15-13 in the first round of the 2000 NCAA tournament. Notre Dame dropped its NCAA tournament quarterfinal game to fourth-ranked Johns Hopkins, 15-11, but finished the season 10-4 and undefeated in the GWLL.

In 2001, Notre Dame beat the likes of perennial lacrosse powers Virginia (11-8) and Loyola (10-7) on the road as the Irish started the season 5-0. The only blemish on their regular-season schedule was an 11-10 overtime loss at Hofstra. After concluding the regular season with a 12-1 mark, Notre Dame was awarded the fifth seed in the 12-team championship field, marking the first NCAA seeding in Irish history. A 12-7 first-round victory over Bucknell and a triumph against fourth-seeded Johns Hopkins (13-9) paved the way for a storied NCAA Tournament run. Notre Dame's journey ended with a 12-5 loss to Syracuse in the semifinals in Piscataway, NJ.

A then program-record five players earned USILA All-America honors in '01, with attackman Tom Glatzel becoming the school's first-ever firstteam selection, as well as one of five finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy, given to the nation's top player. Goalie Kirk Howell copped second-team All-America accolades while midfielder Steve Bishko was a third-team selection. In addition, attackman David Ulrich, the GWLL Player of the Year, and defenseman Mike Adams were named to the honorable-mention list.

Adams also became the program's third CoSIDA Academic All-American, when he garnered firstteam honors in the '01 men's spring at-large program.

The accomplishments of the '01 team were even more impressive considering they came when the Irish program lacked any grant-in-aid scholarships. Shortly thereafter, it was announced by then athletics director Kevin White that all Notre Dame programs would begin a process of offering the maximum number of grants-in-aid allowed by the NCAA, making future trips to the final four by the Irish lacrosse team a greater possibility.

Notre Dame went 5-8 in 2002, but bounced back with a 9-5 mark in '03 and won a share of a fifth consecutive GWLL title, but just missed an atlarge bid to the NCAA tournament. The following season, attackman Pat Walsh became the first player in school history to earn All-America honors as a freshman, being named an honorable mention selection in '03 before gaining third-team accolades in '04.

With Kevin Corrigan entering his 24th season as head coach of the Fighting Irish men's lacrosse program in 2012, he is the 12th coach in Notre Dame history to guide a team for at least 24 seasons. Here is a breakdown of the longest coaching tenures in Notre Dame history ...

Walsh copped All-America honors for the third straight season, as he was an honorable-mention selection along with Driscoll. Driscoll also was named the GWLL Defensive Player of the Year and was joined on the all-GWLL first team by Walsh. Joey Kemp led the nation with a 0.652 save-percentage and garnered all-GWLL second-team honors.

The Irish finished the 2005 season with a 7-4 overall mark and a 3-2 record in the GWLL, which placed them third in the conference. Notre Dame had a win over #21 Penn State (14-6) in the seasonopener and would also claim key wins over #10 North Carolina (9-7) and #13 Hofstra (9-8) throughout the course of the season. The victory over North Carolina occurred at The First 4 Invitational in the Home Depot Center in Carson, Calif. Notre Dame would reach as high as #9 in the USILA poll, making it the third straight season that the Irish had reached the top-10.

In 2006, the Fighting Irish returned to the NCAA tournament for the first time since their trek to the semifinals in '01. Notre Dame posted a 10-5 mark overall, including a 3-2 record in the GWLL to finish second in the conference. The Irish fell to top-ranked, and eventual national champion, Virginia 14-10 in the first round of the postseason. The four-point margin was the closest outcome for the Cavaliers during their four-game run to the title and the second-closest margin over the course of their undefeated campaign.

Driscoll was named to the USILA All-America second team and Kemp was an honorable-mention pick. The duo also was among the five Irish players named to the all-GWLL first team. That marked the fourth time that Notre Dame had placed at least five student-athletes on the all-GWLL first team. The Fighting Irish put a school-record seven on the list in '01 and '09.

The '07 season saw the Fighting Irish post an 11-4 record, including a perfect 5-0 mark in the league to win their 10th GWLL title and their first outright championship since '01. Notre Dame made its second straight trip to the NCAA Championship, yet history repeated itself as the Irish fell to eventual national champion Johns Hopkins, 11-10, in an overtime thriller. The Fighting Irish concluded the campaign ranked 11th in the final USILA poll. On the season, the Irish ranked fourth nationally in both scoring offense (11.65) and scoring defense (6.66).

Accolades were abundant for the '07 Irish as they boasted five All-America honorees in Kemp, Will Yeatman (A), Brian Hubschmann (A/M), Dougherty and Podgajny. A total of eight Notre Dame student-athletes earned all-GWLL recognition.

The Fighting Irish swept all of the major GWLL postseason awards for the '07 season. Corrigan was tabbed the GWLL Coach of the Year for the fourth time, while Kemp was named the GWLL Player of the Year and Yeatman was selected as the newcomer of the year. Following a 12-6 win at Ohio State that clinched the '07 GWLL title for the Irish, Corrigan was named the US Lacrosse national coach of the week.

Corrigan not only has seen his team's excel on the field but also in the community. Another piece of hardware that the '08 Irish squad received was the Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual 0.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The Irish have been very active in the South Bend area, including a mentorship program at Jefferson Middle School.

Corrigan has made the student-athlete experience special for the players that have competed for him at Notre Dame. The program has embarked on four foreign trips since '95. The treks have been to such countries as Ireland, England, Wales, Czech Republic and - most recently - Japan in the summer of 2010.

Another special experience for the studentathlete is the networking trip to New York City. During the past three falls, Corrigan has taken team members from the junior and senior classes to the Big Apple to explore networking opportunities with Notre Dame alumni. The group has visited such places as the New York Stock Exchange, BlackRock and NASDAQ. Corrigan also has taken similar trips to San Francisco and Chicago with the upperclassmen. The San Francisco trip occurred in the fall of 2010 as the Irish were out on the West Coast facing Johns Hopkins.

Part of the student-athlete experience that Corrigan likes to provide his players is competing in different areas of the United States. In recent seasons Notre Dame has played in California, Georgia, Texas, Florida and Minnesota.

Corrigan was acknowledged for his contributions to the Irish lacrosse program when Notre Dame's Monogram Club awarded him an honorary monogram in 2000.

An assistant at Virginia for two years, Corrigan became just the second head coach in Notre Dame's history on Aug. 23, 1988.

A graduate of the University of Virginia, Corrigan assisted the Cavaliers during both the 1987 and '88 seasons under head coach Jim "Ace" Adams.

During a three-year playing career at Virginia, Corrigan scored five goals and registered six assists. He played in 20 games as a midfielder. In his sophomore season in 1979, the Cavaliers reached the NCAA final before losing to Johns Hopkins in overtime.

This is Corrigan's second stint as a head coach. He directed Randolph-Macon College (Va.), a Division III program, for two seasons, compiling a 10-15 record in 1985 and 1986. He previously served as an assistant at Randolph-Macon during the 1984 campaign. In 25 years as a head coach, Corrigan holds a record of 227-121 (.652).

Corrigan also served as an assistant at Notre Dame during the 1983 season and at Western Albemarle (Va.) High School in 1982. He is the son of former Notre Dame athletic director Gene Corrigan, who retired in '97 as the commissioner of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The elder Corrigan played collegiate lacrosse at Duke and guided the Virginia and Washington & Lee lacrosse programs. He was inducted into the Lacrosse Hall of Fame in February of 1994.

Kevin's brother Tim was a three-time monogram winner as a midfielder at Notre Dame from 1984-86. Two of Kevin's other brothers, David and Brian, also served as assistants under former Irish head lacrosse coach Rich O'Leary. Another brother, Eugene "Boo", was Notre Dame's associate athletics director for corporate relations and marketing from 2004-08. Boo now is the Director of Athletics at the United States Military Academy.

When not coaching, Corrigan still remains active by participating in various lacrosse clinics and camps and is a member of the South Bend Regional Sports Commission. He and his wife, Lis, reside in South Bend with their three children - Will, Sidney and Natale. Will is a freshman on the Fighting Irish roster in 2012.

Assistant Coach

Gerry Byrne enters the sixth season of his second stint as an assistant coach for the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team in 2012. In 2007, Byrne returned to the Fighting Irish program, where he served as an assistant from 1989-91. Prior to his return to Notre Dame, he was the head coach at Saint Anselm College in Manchester, N.H. from 2003-06.

The Fighting Irish have enjoyed tremendous success since Byrne rejoined the staff. Notre Dame has posted a 61-18 record (.772) and the Irish have earned an NCAA tournament berth all five seasons. In 2010, Notre Dame advanced to the title game of the NCAA tournament for the first time in program history. Byrne also helped the Irish reach the quarterfinals in 2008 and 2011. Notre Dame received one of the eight national seeds and a first-round home games during the '08, '09 and '11 tournaments.

Byrne's work hasn't gone unnoticed as he was named the '11 Intercollegiate Men's Lacrosse Coaches Association (IMLCA) National Assistant Coach of the Year for NCAA Division I.

In Byrne's most recent stint on campus, Notre Dame captured three Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) regular-season titles and two GWLL tournament championships before the Fighting Irish moved to the BIG EAST in 2010. Notre Dame head coach Kevin Corrigan along with Byrne and fellow assistant coach Brian Fisher received the GWLL coaching staff of the year award in 2007 and 2009. Notre Dame has produced 25 All-America and 33 all-conference selections along with 17 Major League Lacrosse (MLL) draft picks over the past five seasons.

Notre Dame has reaped the benefits of Byrne's defensive knowledge. Over the last five seasons under Byrne's direction, the Notre Dame defense has been one of the best in the nation. The Irish are the only team in NCAA Division I to finish in the top five nationally in scoring defense in each of those five campaigns. Notre Dame produced the nation's top defense in 2009 by allowing a program-record 6.19 goals per game. The Irish were second in '11 (6.57) and '10 (7.53), fourth in '07 (6.66) and fifth in 2008 (7.04).

Since the beginning of the 2007 season (a span of 79 games), the Irish have limited opponents to seven goals or fewer 54 times. Notre Dame has limited foes to four goals or fewer 13 times during that stretch.

The last four seasons has witnessed the Fighting Irish achieve unprecedented success within the program. In '08, Notre Dame played host to an NCAA tournament game for the first time in program history. The '09 campaign featured the lrish posting the first undefeated regular season (13-0) in program history before extending their record to a school-best 15-0 in the GWLL tournament. Notre Dame reached the NCAA title game for the first time in school history in '10 and followed that up by achieving the No. 1 national ranking during the'11 regular season.

The No. 1 ranking was not the only program standard established during the '11 season. Notre Dame also produced a program-record six All-America honorees from the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA). Midfielder David Earl and defenseman Kevin Ridgway both were first-team All-Americans last year, making it the first time Notre Dame ever had two first-team All-Americans in the same season. Zach Brenneman (M), Sam Barnes (D), Andrew Irving (LSM) and John Kemp (G) rounded out the honorees. Earl, the league's midfielder of the year, headlined a group of six all-BIG EAST performers for the Fighting Irish. Barnes, Brenneman, Earl, Irving and Ridgway also were selected in the '11 MLL Draft, which occurred prior to the '11 campaign.

Notre Dame's 9-0 start last season helped the team earn the No. 1 national ranking in both the Nike/Inside Lacrosse media poll and the USILA coaches' poll on April 18. The Irish would improve to 10-0 before suffering their first loss of the campaign.

For the third time in four seasons, Notre Dame garnered one of the eight national seeds for the NCAA Championship. The Irish were seeded fourth, which signified the highest seed in school history, and they played host to Penn in the first round. The Fighting Irish topped the Quakers, 13-6. The sevengoal margin of victory was the largest ever for the Irish in an NCAA tournament contest, while the 13 goals matched the most scored by Notre Dame in an NCAA game.

The win over Penn placed the Fighting Irish in the quarterfinals of the NCAA tournament for the third time since Byrne returned to the Irish in '07. Duke avenged a 12-7 season-opening loss to the Irish as the Blue Devils captured a 7-5 quarterfinal victory. The Irish finished the '11 campaign with an 11-3 mark and ranked eighth in the final Nike/ Inside Lacrosse poll.

Stout defense was a key reason why the Fighting Irish had unprecedented success in the '10 NCAA tournament. Notre Dame took down five top-10 foes during the '10 campaign, including three straight during the run to the national title game. After a 7-6 regular season, the Fighting Irish earned an at-large berth to the NCAAs and a trip to sixth-nanked Princeton in the first round. After downing the Tigers, 8-5, Notre Dame defeated No. 3 Maryland, 7-5, to advance to the national semifinals at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md.

The sensational run continued as the Irish bested seventh-ranked Cornell 12-7 to set up a showdown with Duke in the final. Notre Dame opened the '10 season with an 11-7 win at then No. 2 Duke, yet the Blue Devils prevailed in the second meeting by taking the back-and-forth contest 6-5 in overtime.

Senior goalie Scott Rodgers was named the Most Outstanding Player of the '10 NCAA Championship, becoming just the fifth player to earn that honor from a team that did not win the title. Rodgers and the Notre Dame defense allowed just 23 goals (5.75 per game) during the four games of the tournament. For the season, Rodgers ranked first nationally in save percentage (.605) and was third in goals-against average (.7.56).

Ridgway and Brenneman joined Rodgers on the NCAA Championship all-tournament team and they were three of the five Fighting Irish players to earn both honorable mention All-America honors from the USILA and all-conference accolades during the first season of BIG EAST lacrosse. Earl and Grant Krebs (M) joined the trio by receiving both national and league recognition.

The '09 Irish squad posted the first undefeated regular season in program history and finished with an overall record of 15-1. The win total and winning percentage from that campaign are program records. Notre Dame received the '09 GWLL coaching staff of the year award, making it the second time in three seasons that the Irish staff gamered the accolade.

The Fighting Irish had five players receive All-America honors in '09. Among the All-America selections were Rodgers, who also was named the GWLL Player of the Year, and defensemen Barnes and Regis McDermott. Those three were among a group of eight Irish players that copped all-GWLL accolades during the season. The Long Island Lizards selected McDermott in the third round of the '09 MLL Draft.

After completing a 13-0 regular season, the Irish defeated Quinnipiac and Ohio State to capture the second – and final - GWLL tournament. The Irish received the No. 7 seed for the 2009 NCAA Championship, yet fell to Maryland, 7-3, in the first round to end the historic run.

In '08, Notre Dame compiled a 14-3 record, including a 4-1 league mark to tie for first, and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship.

The sixth-seeded Fighting Irish made the most of their first-ever NCAA tournament home game by defeating Colgate 8-7 in overtime to advance to the quarterfinals, where they were topped by eventual national champion Syracuse, 11-9. Notre Dame concluded the season ranked fifth in the final USILA poll.

The Irish defense came through when it counted most during the '08 campaign. In the title game of the inaugural GWLL tournament, Notre Dame, behind a stellar effort from senior goalie Joey Kemp, shut down #10 Ohio State in a 9-2 triumph to give the Irish the title. On the season, Notre Dame held its competition to six goals or fewer eight times.

Four Irish players, including Kemp and defenseman Sean Dougherty, were tabbed as All-Americans in '08. Kemp became the first goalie in Irish history to be named a first-teamer as he received the '08 Kelly Award for Outstanding Goalie in Division I from the USILA. Dougherty was a thirdteam pick. Fellow defenseman Ross Zimmerman received first-team all-GWLL honors as he helped the Irish to a three-way tie for the league's regularseason title. In all, six Irish players gamered allleague accolades in '08. Following the season, Dougherty, Kemp and Zimmerman all were drafted into the MLL.

Another piece of hardware that the '08 Irish squad received was the Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The Irish have been very active in the South Bend area, including a mentorship program at Jefferson Middle School.

In his first season back with the Irish in '07, Byrne helped guide a Notre Dame defensive unit that held opponents to a then program-record 6.66 goals per game, which ranked fourth nationally. The defense played a large role in the Irish posting an 11-4 record overall, including a perfect 5-0 conference mark to win its first outright GWLL title since 2001. In addition, the Irish also ranked fourth nationally in scoring offensive with an 11.65 goals per game average. Notre Dame concluded the season ranked 11th in the final USILA poll.

The '07 season saw five Fighting Irish players earn All-America honors. Juniors Dougherty and Kemp were two of those honores that helped to bolster the stingy Notre Dame defense. Kemp also was named the GWLL Player of the Year and was selected to the all-league first team along with Dougherty, while Zimmerman was tabbed as a second-team all-GWLL performer. The Irish coaching staff also was recognized as the GWLL's staff of the year.

Byrne graduated cum laude from UMass Amherst in 1986 with a degree in economics. He was a two-year starter and a three-year letterman in addition to being an All-New England defenseman for the Minutemen in 1986. He was a starter in two NCAA tournament games, including the '86 quarterfinals versus Johns Hopkins.

Byrne then earned his MBA from Notre Dame, where he also worked as defensive coordinator for the Fighting Irish. He helped Notre Dame earn its first NCAA tournament berth during the 1990 campaign as the Irish posted a 9-7 record, including a perfect 3-0 mark in the MLA's Great Lakes Conference, which gave them the league title.

Following his graduation from UMass, Byrne was a four-time All-United States Club Lacrosse Association member with the Brine Lacrosse Club. He was also invited to tryout with the U.S. National Team on three occasions (1989, 1997, 2001), which placed him among the top-30 defensemen in the nation. Other playing accolades for Byrne include being named an All-Lake Placid Classic performer on 11 occasions and an All-Vail Shootout competitor nine times.

One of his signature years as a player came in '97. That season he was named a Vail Shootout All-Star in the Elite Division along with copping Vail Shootout MVP honors in the Masters Division. Byrne also was named the Lake Placid Tournament Defensive MVP in the Elite Division and was chosen as the Masters Division MVP. Finally, he was invited to the National Team Selection Camp and was the USCLA/Empire League Player of the Year for the Syracuse Lacrosse Club.

Byrne was inducted into the U.S. Lacrosse Hall of Fame – New England Chapter – in 1999 and was the 2001 New Hampshire High School Coach of the Year while at Souhegan High School. He was drafted by the New York Saints of the National Lacrosse League (NLL) in 1991 and played for them in 1992. Byrne also was drafted by the Rochester Knighthawks of the NLL as a defensive forward and went on to win a World Championship with them in 1997.

He continued his professional career following a three-year retirement when the Boston Cannons of the MLL drafted him in 2000. Byrne played for the Cannons from 2000-02, while having the distinction of being the oldest active player in the league at that time. He played in the inaugural MLL Final Four in '01 and made another appearance there the following season.

In addition to his duties at Saint Anselm, Byrne stayed active in the sporting world in several other ways. He served as managing director at Kiltegan Marketing Group, which is an integrated sports marketing services company with clients such as Reebok and the MLL Byrne also has spent time as the director of marketing for Cybex International and Brine, a major manufacturer of lacrosse equipment. He also owns the Premier Players Lacrosse Camps and is the founder of the Texas Top-99.

Byrne is a native of Levittown, N.Y., where he was an All-Long Island Catholic League lacrosse player at Chaminade High School before his graduation in 1982. He and his wife, Dr. Tracy Byrne, a practicing OB/GYN and a 1990 graduate of Notre Dame, are the parents of three children, Rory, Pierre and Brandon.

Assistant Coach

Brian Fisher is entering his sixth season as an assistant coach for the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team in 2012. Fisher joined the Fighting Irish from his alma mater, Rutgers University, where he was an assistant coach for five seasons.

Notre Dame has been very successful since Fisher arrived on campus. The Fighting Irish have a 61-18 record (.772) and they have earned an NCAA Championship berth all five seasons. In 2010, Notre Dame advanced to the title game of the NCAA tournament for the first time in program history. The Irish also reached the quarterfinal round in 2008 and 2011. Notre Dame received one of the eight national seeds and a first-round home game during the'08, 2009 and '11 tournaments.

Fisher also helped guide the Irish to three Great Western Lacrosse League (GWLL) regularseason titles and two GWLL tournament championships before the Fighting Irish moved to the BIG EAST in 2010. Notre Dame head coach Kevin Corrigan along with Fisher and fellow assistant coach Gerry Byrne received the GWLL coaching staff of the year award in 2007 and 2009.

Notre Dame has produced 25 All-America and 33 all-conference selections along with 17 Major League Lacrosse (MLL) draft picks over the past four seasons.

Among other duties, Fisher works with the Fighting Irish faceoff unit, which has been one of the best in the country over the past five campaigns. Notre Dame ranked ninth in the nation in faceoff winning percentage in '09 with a .556 mark. That fact was even more remarkable as the Irish had to fill the void of losing Taylor Clagett, one of the top faceoff men in the country, to graduation in 2008. Notre Dame ranked second nationally in 2008 with a .628 winning percentage. Notre Dame was 15th in the nation in that category during Fisher's first season with the Irish. The Fighting Irish were 17th nationally in faceoff percentage in '10 and '11.

The last four seasons has witnessed the Fighting Irish achieve unprecedented success within the program. In '08, Notre Dame played host to an NCAA tournament game for the first time in program history. The '09 campaign featured the Irish posting the first undefeated reqular season (13-0) in program history before extending their record to a school-best 15-0 in the GWLL tournament. Notre Dame reached the NCAA title game for the first time in school history in'10 and followed that up by achieving the No. 1 national ranking during the 2011 regular season.

Along with reaching No. 1 in the national polls, Notre Dame boasted a program-record six All-America honorees in '11. Midfielder David Earl and defenseman Kevin Ridgway both copped first-team All-America accolades from the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA). That signified the first time in program history that the Irish produced two first-team All-Americans. Zach Brenneman (M), Sam Barnes (D), Andrew Irving (LSM) and John Kemp (G) rounded out the record number of Irish honorees. Earl, the league's midfielder of the year, headlined a group of six all-BIG EAST performers for the Fighting Irish. Barnes, Brenneman, Earl, Irving and Ridgway also were selected in the '11 MLL Draft, which occurred prior to the '11 campaign.

A 9-0 start to the '11 campaign helped the Fighting Irish earn the No. 1 national ranking in both the Nike/Inside Lacrosse media poll and the USILA coaches' poll on April 18. Notre Dame improved to 10-0 before suffering its first setback of the season.

For the third time in four seasons, Notre Dame garnered one of the eight national seeds for the NCAA Championship. The Irish were seeded fourth, which signified the highest seed in school history, and they played host to Penn in the first round. The Fighting Irish topped the Quakers, 13-6. The seven-goal margin of victory was the largest ever for the Irish in an NCAA tournament contest, while the 13 goals matched the most scored by Notre Dame in an NCAA game.

The win over Penn propelled the Fighting Irish into the quarterfinals of the NCAA tournament for the third time since Fisher had been at Notre Dame. Duke avenged a 12-7 seasonopening loss to the Irish as the Blue Devils captured a 7-5 quarterfinal victory. The Irish finished the 2011 season with an 11-3 mark and ranked eighth in the final Nike/Inside Lacrosse poll.

The Irish defense ranked second nationally in 2011 by allowing just 6.57 goals per game. Kemp finished second in the country in goalsagainst average (6.61) and was fourth in save percentage (.602).

In '10, Notre Dame defeated five top-10 foes, including three straight during the run to the national title game. After a 7-6 regular season, the Fighting Irish gained an at-large berth to the NCAA tournament and a trip to sixthranked Princeton in the first round. After downing the Tigers 8-5, Notre Dame defeated No. 3 Maryland, 7-5, to advance to the national semifinals at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md. The postseason run continued as the Irish bested seventh-ranked Cornell 12-7 to set up a showdown with Duke in the final. Notre Dame opened the '10 campaign with an 11-7 win at then No. 2 Duke, yet the Blue Devils prevailed in the second meeting by taking the back-and-forth contest 6-5 in overtime. The Irish won $3.6% of their faceoff attempts during the '10 NCAA tournament.

Senior goalie Scott Rodgers was named the Most Outstanding Player of the '10 NCAA Championship, becoming just the fifth player to earn that honor from a team that did not win the title. Rodgers allowed just 23 goals (5.75 per game) during the four games of the tournament. For the season, Notre Dame ranked second nationally in team defense by surrendering just 7.53 goals per game.

Brenneman and Ridgway joined Rodgers on the NCAA Championship all-tournament team and they were three of the five Fighting Irish players to earn both honorable mention All-America honors from the USILA and all-confeence accolades during the first season of BIG EAST lacrosse. Grant Krebs (M) and Earl joined the trio by receiving both national and league recognition.

Notre Dame enjoyed unprecedented success in '09 as the Irish posted the first undefeated regular season in program history and finished with an overall record of 15-1. The win total and winning percentage from that campaign are program records. Notre Dame ranked first among all NCAA Division I teams with a schoolrecord 6.19 goals-against average and tied for 10th in goals per game (11.00).

The Fighting Irish also had five players receive All-America honors in '09. Among the All-America selections was Rodgers, who also was named the GWLL Player of the Year. Joining

Lauren and Brian Fisher

Rodgers on the USILA All-America third team were seniors Ryan Hoff (A) and Regis McDermott (D). Barnes and Krebs were honorable mention picks. Those five student-athletes were among a program-record tying seven first-team all-GWLL selections.

After compiling a 13-0 regular season in '09, the Irish defeated Quinnipiac and Ohio State to capture the GWLL tournament. The Irish received the No. 7 seed for the 2009 NCAA Championship, yet fell to Maryland, 7-3, in the first round to end the historic run.

An NCAA Championship quarterfinal appearance was just one of the highlights of the '08 campaign. Notre Dame posted a 14-3 mark, including a 4-1 league record to tie for first, and won the inaugural GWLL tournament. The Irish ranked fifth nationally in both goals-against average (7.04) and goals scored per game (12.09). Notre Dame concluded the season ranked fifth in the final USILA poll.

The sixth-seeded Fighting Irish made the most of their first-ever NCAA home game by topping Colgate 8-7 in overtime, but Notre Dame was tripped up in the quarterfinals by Syracuse, 11-9.

Notre Dame boasted four All-Americans in '08. Senior Joey Kemp became the first goalie in program history to be named a first-teamer as he received the 2008 Kelly Award for Outstanding Goalie in Division I from the USILA. Senior defenseman Sean Dougherty was a third-team selection, while senior midfielder Michael Podgajny and Hoff were honorable mention picks. Hoff became just the second player in program history to notch back-to-back 40 goal seasons. He tallied 40 as a sophomore and followed it with 41 in '08. Hoff concluded his career in '09 second on Notre Dame's all-time goals scored list with 134 tallies. The quartet of Irish All-Americans was among a group of six that copped all-conference accolades in '08.

Another piece of hardware that the 2008 Irish squad received was the Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S. (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame. The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The Irish have been very active in the South Bend area, including a mentorship program at Jefferson Middle School.

In '07, Fisher helped the Fighting Irish post an 11-4 record, which included a perfect 5-0 mark in conference play as Notre Dame captured its first outright GWLL title since 2001. The Irish fell to eventual national champion Johns Hopkins, 11-10, in an overtime thriller during the first round of the NCAA Championship. As a team, Notre Dame ranked fourth nationally in both scoring offense (11.65) and scoring defense (6.66). Notre Dame concluded the season ranked 11th in the final USILA poll.

Receiving honorable-mention All-America honors following the '07 season were Brian Hubschmann (M/A), Dougherty, Kemp, Podgajny and Will Yeatman (A). The Irish also had eight players cop all-GWLL accolades, including Kemp, who was the league's player of the year, and Yeatman, the newcomer of the year.

Fisher was a standout midfielder and faceoff man for the Scarlet Knights for four seasons (1998-2001). As a coach at Rutgers, he worked extensively with the Scarlet Knight midfielders and was the assistant director of MVP Lacrosse Camps.

Fisher was one of the top faceoff men in the nation throughout his Rutgers career. He won 268-of-533 (.502) faceoffs in his career. In '01, as the team's faceoff specialist, he took 76 percent of the team's faceoffs, winning 120-of-232 (.517) of them. He also led the Scarlet Knights with 69 ground balls.

Fisher was awarded the Rutgers Lacrosse Knight Cup in '01. The Cup goes to the player "who has played the game of lacrosse to the best of his ability, who has, by example, inspired or led his teammates both on and off the field and, who, above all, has con-sistently demonstrated the qualities of un- selfishness and loyalty to his team and Rutgers University." That same season he was named the Rutgers Lacrosse Time Scholar-Athlete.

The Morton, Pa. native also was awarded the 2000 Frederick Fitch Trophy while at Rutgers. The honor is presented to the varsity letterwinner who, through personal effort to develop his lacrosse ability, has shown the greatest improvement during the season.

Fisher was a key member of the Ridley High School team that won the Pennsylvania State Championship in 1997. During his career at Ridley, his team compiled a 56-7 record. He was also captain of his wrestling team in high school.

Fisher married the former Lauren Vader from South Orange, N.J. on December 19, 2008, in the Caribbean. Lauren teaches seventh grade social studies at Marshall Middle School in South Bend. The couple has a daughter, Finley Elizabeth, who was born in October of 2011.

FIGHTING IRISH

Notre Dame started the 2011 campaign with a 10-0 record, which helped the Irish earn a No. 1 national ranking for the first time in program history.

Season In Review

Reaching New Heights Irish earn No. 1 national ranking for first time in program history.

A NEW NO. 1

 Notre Dame reached No. 1 in the national polls for the first time in program history. The Irish debuted at No. 1 in both the Nike/Inside Lacrosse media poll and United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) coaches' poll on April 18 after jumping out to a 9-0 start. Notre Dame remained there for the next two weeks.

IRISH MAKE SIXTH STRAIGHT TRIP TO NCAA TOURNAMENT, ADVANCE TO QUARTERFINALS

- The Fighting Irish made their 16th appearance in the NCAA Championship in the 31-year history of the program. All of the trips have occurred since the 1990 season under head coach Kevin Corrigan. This was Notre Dame's sixth straight trip to the NCAAs. That matches the longest stretch in program history. The Irish also went to six straight NCAA Tournaments from 1992-97.
- Notre Dame earned the No. 4 seed for the 2011 NCAA Championship. That marked the fourth time that the Irish garnered one of the eight national seeds. The No. 4 seed is the best that the Irish have earned. The Fighting Irish also were seeded for the 2001 (5th), 2008 (6th) and 2009 (7th) tournaments.

 Notre Dame topped Penn, 13-6, in the first round of the NCAA Championship at Arlotta Stadium to advance to the quarterfinals for the third time in four seasons. The Fighting Irish fell to Duke, 7-5, in the quarterfinals at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass.

ALL-AMERICA HONORS

A program-record six members of the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team received All-America honors from the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA). David Earl (Sr./M) and Kevin Ridgway (Sr./D) were firstteam selections, while Zach Brenneman (Sr./M) was named to the second team. Sam Barnes (Sr./D), Andrew Irving (Sr./ LSM) and John Kemp (So./G) were honorable mention picks. It marked the first time that Notre Dame has boasted two first-team All-Americans in the same season

Senior Andrew Irving (LSM) and sophomore John Kemp (G) were second-team picks for the Irish.

IRISH BOAST THREE TEWAARATON TROPHY NOMINEES

 Notre Dame seniors Zach Brenneman (M), David Earl (M) and Kevin Ridgway (D) were among a group of 25 nominees up for the 2011 Tewaaraton Trophy. The award is presented annually to the nation's top collegiate lacrosse player.

A DOMINATING DEFENSE

- Notre Dame's defense finished the 2011 campaign ranked second nationally with a 6.57 goals-against average. The Fighting Irish man-down defense also was the second-best in the nation (.815).
- Sophomore goalie John Kemp ranked second nationally in goals-against average (6.61) and fourth in save percentage (.602).
- Since the beginning of the 2007 season (a span of 79 games), Notre Dame has surrendered 10 goals or more in a game just 10 times and the Irish defense has limited opponents to seven goals or fewer 54 times during that stretch.
- Notre Dame has limited foes to four goals or fewer 13 times since the beginning of the 2007 campaign.

SCORELESS STRETCHES

- The Notre Dame defense shut out an opponent for an entire quarter 11 times during the 2011 season. The Irish posted five fourth-quarter shutouts.
- The Fighting Irish defense held Penn to just one second-half goal in the first round of the NCAA Championship. The Quakers did not score from the 2:55 mark of the second quarter until the 5:43 mark of the fourth quarter, a span of 27:12. Penn scored just one goal in the final 32:55 of the contest.
- The Irish defense put together a scoreless stretch of 20 minutes or longer 10 times in 2011. The longest such stretch was 32:30 against Drexel. The Dragons did not score from the 9:27 mark of the first quarter until the 6:57 mark of the third quarter.

AN OFFENSIVE EFFORT

- Notre Dame's seven-goal margin of victory against Penn was the largest ever for the Irish in an NCAA tournament game. The 13 goals were tied for the secondmost goals scored in an NCAA tournament game in Notre Dame history.
- The Fighting Irish had nine assists, which are a program record for an NCAA Championship contest. The nine assists, which were a season-high total for the Irish, came from eight different players.
- Senior attackman Colin Igoe notched a career-high four points on three goals and an assist. Notre Dame received two goals apiece from Zach Brenneman, Westy Hopkins, Nicholas Beattie and Pat Cotter. Junior long-stick midfielder Bobby Smith dished out a career-high two assists.

HAT TRICKS

 Seven Notre Dame players registered a hat trick during the 2011 season. Zach Brenneman, Colin Igoe and Westy Hopkins all had a team-high two hat tricks, while David Earl, Ryan Foley, Max Pfeifer and Sean Rogers all notched one hat trick.

SCORING IN BUNCHES

- The Fighting Irish tallied four unanswered goals or more 11 times in 2011. Notre Dame produced eight 4-0 runs, one 5-0 run and two 7-0 runs.
- Notre Dame outscored its opponents 40-17 in the fourth quarter of play.

ROOKIE ON A ROLL

 Freshman attackman Westy Hopkins' 18 goals were the most for an Irish rookie since attackman Ryan Hoff deposited 21 goals during the 2006 campaign. Hopkins' 18 goals tied junior attackman Sean Rogers for the team lead in 2011.

FACING OFF

• The Fighting Irish registered a 55.5% (152-274) faceoff winning percentage in 2011. That mark ranked 17th nationally. Individually, senior Jake Marmul ranked 17th nationally (.557), while freshman Liam O'Connor was 18th (.553).

BEATING THE BEST

 Six of Notre Dame's 11 wins in 2011 came against opponents that were ranked at the time of the game. The Irish bested #5 Duke 12-7 in the season opener. Notre Dame also topped #8 Villanova (12-8), #14 Denver (10-9), #16 Drexel (11-7) and #20 Ohio State (8-7) in the regular season. The Irish defeated #16 Penn (13-6) in the first round of the NCAA Championship.

PLAYING ON THE BIG STAGE

 Notre Dame's NCAA quarterfinal contest against Duke at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass., was the third straight Notre Dame-Duke showdown that took place inside an NFL venue. The two teams met for the 2010 national title at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium and they opened the 2011 campaign inside Jacksonville's Everbank Field.

QUITE A CLASS

 The 2011 senior class posted a 50-14 (.781) record over the past four seasons. The 50 wins equaled the program record over a four-year span. The class of 2009 (50-13) and 2010 (50-15) also posted 50 wins.

HOME SWEET HOME

 Notre Dame went 6-0 at Arlotta Stadium/ Loftus Sports Center during the 2011 season.

CHAMPION CHALLENGE

 Notre Dame fell to the United States National Team, 12-7, on Jan. 30 during the Champion Challenge at the ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex in Orlando, Fla. Former Notre Dame All-American Scott Rodgers (2006-10) played the entire second half in goal for Team USA and made nine saves.

PROGRAM-RECORD FIVE IRISH PLAYERS SELECTED IN MLL DRAFT

- A program-record five Notre Dame players were selected in the 2011 Major League Lacrosse (MLL) Collegiate Draft. Midfielder Zach Brenneman became the highest pick in program history as he went fifth overall to the Long Island Lizards.
- Syracuse led all schools with seven players selected while Notre Dame and Maryland were next with five players drafted.
- The Hamilton Nationals selected Fighting lrish midfielder David Earl in the third round (13th overall selection), while defenseman Kevin Ridgway also went to Hamilton five picks later. Long Island tabbed defenseman Sam Barnes in the fifth round (29th overall) and the Denver Outlaws picked long-stick midfielder Andrew Irving in the sixth round (33rd overall).

David Earl was named the 2011 BIG EAST Midfielder of the Year. He also was one of a program-record six Irish players to earn All-America honors in 2011.

FIGHTING IRISH

A unique tradition to the Notre Dame men's lacrosse program is the playing of the bagpipes. Prior to each game, the Fighting Irish take the field as one of their teammates plays the instrument. The tradition was started by Sean Meehan in the late 1990's and has been passed down ever since.

Rich O'Leary A Remembrance Of Former Irish Coach Rich O'Leary

Names like Ara Parseghian, Digger Phelps, Dan Devine, and Lou Holtz dot the list of those who numbered as University of Notre Dame athletic department colleagues and associates of longtime athletics staffer Rich O'Leary.

While those more high-profile varsity coaches found their names in headlines, 0'Leary – who lost his battle with cancer July 17, 2009 – quietly went about impacting day-to-day athletic lives all over campus for 37 years.

Hired by Moose Krause and Dominic "Nappy" Napolitano back when the department was known as Non-Varsity Athletics, O'Leary served as director of intramurals and club sports for the Office of Recreational Sports (commonly known as RecSports).

For nearly four decades he played a major role in defining athletic opportunities for, literally, thousands of Notre Dame students, faculty and staff members.

Many of those who participated in the programs he helped shape probably never knew him. Those who did worked hand in hand with a self-effacing administrator who was more than comfortable in his behind-the-scenes role.

After Napolitano died in 1986, O'Leary became the key organizer for the famed Bengal Bouts, the signature event for Notre Dame's college boxing club. After a brief lull in popularity, the Bengals have drawn more participants in recent years than ever before – even leading to a women's version known as the Baraka Bouts.

Like Ara, Digger, Dan and Lou, Rich had his own seat in the varsity coaches' locker room in the bowels of the Athletic and Convocation Center. A standout lacrosse player in his college days, he first took over the Notre Dame men's club program then continued as head coach for eight more years (only one season losing more than they won) after the team achieved varsity status in 1981.

The new Arlotta Lacrosse Stadium that opened its doors in October '09 has the O'Leary name attached to the men's team room that sits adjacent to the locker area. That's because O'Leary's former players thought so much of their mentor that their financial contributions — unbeknownst to O'Leary -- made that possible.

Current Irish lacrosse coach Kevin Corrigan, who took over O'Leary's position in 1989, took his predecessor on a golf-cart tour of that area just weeks before his death.

Even more telling are the e-mail tributes that came from O'Leary's former players, many from the far more casual and informal club sport days. Way back when in a different culture for club-level athletics, O'Leary wasn't too far removed from his charges to understand they shared adult beverages on occasion. Yet it's obvious more than a few of his players cast him as something of a father figure during their on-campus growing years.

Their tributes make you laugh and cry at the same time:

From Jim Scarola '78 – "I learned from Rich that great leaders are not defined by titles or positions they have held, but rather by the impact they have had on the people around them."

From John McLachlan '87 – "Rich would tell us, 'If you play your best game and they play their worst game, you're still going to lose'. It wasn't an overly inspirational pep talk, but unfortunately it was accurate once or twice a year."

From Brian McKeon⁷ (85: "Rich was a decent and humble soul who rarely raised his voice in anger and quietly nudged his players to meet their full potential. That is the mark of a leader."

And, from Mike Lynch '82 "Rich is what my dad used to call a gentleman's gentleman. A guy you look up to. A guy you want to have a beer with and tell a joke to. A guy with a huge heart, a pure sense of humor and a ton of class. Quite simply, I love the guy."

The O'Learys (including wife Linda) have been friends to dozens of athletic department staffers over the years – offering access to everything from the backyard pool of their (edar Street home (facetiously known as the "Cedar Club"), to homecooked meals for the young, old and in between, to large social extravaganzas such as the Home Olympics. Rich lost a kidney some years ago, and he quietly reached out to others on campus and in the community fighting kidney disease – including former Notre Dame athletic director Mike Wadsworth – to share his experiences.

He possessed a dry, low-key wit. Yet, as unassuming as he could be, he'd also be the one to do cannonballs into the pool and drive his beloved little MG (with the top down) around South Bend.

When you left the O'Leary home, even when disease was getting the best of him, Rich always walked you to your car and thanked you for coming, as if it was his privilege to have spent time with you.

Little did we realize we were the lucky ones. —John Heisler

Dave Barnard led the Irish in ground balls in 1990 for a team that averaged a school-record 11.25 more per game than its opponents.

Kelly McKenna played in a program-record 64 games from 2007-2010.

Season Records

Defenseman Regis McDermott helped Notre Dame to a program-best 15 victories in 2009 while posting a school-record 6.19 goals-against average. He earned third team All-America honors that season.

Honors & Awards

Peter Christman 2009

The Byron V. Kanaley Award is the most prestigious honor awarded to a Notre Dame student-athlete. It has been presented each year since 1927 at commencement exercises and honors senior monogram athletes who have been exemplary as students and leaders. The award is selected by the Faculty Board on Athletics and is named in honor of a 1904 Notre Dame graduate who was a member of the Irish baseball team as an undergraduate. Kanaley went on to a successful banking career in Chicago and served the University in the Alumni Association and as a lay trustee from 1915 until his death in 1960. Notre Dame men's lacrosse boasts two recipients of the Kanaley Award. Robert Williamson received the honor in 1993 and Peter Christman was presented the award in 2009.

Chris Zorich

Dan Scolaro 2008

The Christopher Zorich Award

This award recognizes the contributions of Notre Dame student-athletes to the University community and the community at-large. The award, which is presented annually each spring, bears the name of Christopher Zorich, two-time football All-American and 1991 graduate of the University of Notre Dame. Dan Scolaro became the first men's lacrosse recipient of the award when he garnered the honor in 2008. Scolaro was instrumental to the men's lacrosse team's mentorship program at middle schools in the South Bend area. The team's involvement with mentoring local youth and participating in other community service projects was recognized by the Notre Dame Athletic Department with the presentation of the 2008 Trophy Award (see below).

While the support of the South Bend/Michiana community has been a key ingredient to the success of the Fighting Irish at home over the years, the Notre Dame players have routinely given back to the local community. In 2008, the Fighting Irish mer's lacrosse team was recognized with The Trophy Award at Notre Dame's seventh annual O.S.C.A.R.S (Outstanding Student-Athletes Celebrating Achievements and Recognition Showcase). Established by the Office of Student Welfare and Development at Notre Dame, The Trophy Award annually recognizes an athletic team that has demonstrated its commitment and dedication to the community through unparalleled community service to Notre Dame and South Bend. The team is seen here receiving the Trophy Award in '08.

Number in parentheses to the right of opponent indicates its national ranking at time of game and number to left is Notre Dame's ranking.

+ - indicates conference game \sim - indicates Midwest Lacrosse Association game, but not Great Lakes Conference game

Davey Melera and Notre Dame's class of 2009 posted a 50-13 record, including a 15-1 mark in 2009. The 50 victories is tied for the most over a four-year span in program history.

Series vs. Opponents

Note: Rank column has Notre Dame's national ranking at time of game followed by opponent's national ranking at time of game.

* indicates NCAA Tournament; ^ indicates GWLL Tournament

Scott Rodgers (above) along with his former Notre Dame teammates David Earl and Kevin Ridgway, helped the Hamilton Nationals to a runner-up finish during the 2011 MLL season. The Nationals fell to the Boston Cannons, 10-9, in the MLL title game. Rodgers posted a 5-2 record during the 2011 campaign, while Earl tallied 17 goals and four assists in 10 games. Ridgway played in seven contests and picked up eight ground balls and notched an assist.

Four former Notre Dame players -- Mike Iorio ('95), Todd Rassas ('98), Pat Walsh ('06) and D.J. Driscoll ('06) -- have helped Team USA to a world championship, extending the influence of Irish lacrosse far beyond the borders of the United States.

Driscoll, a two-time All-America honoree with the Fighting Irish, was the lastest to bring home the gold medal. He and Team USA won the 2010 Federation of International Lacrosse (FIL) World Championship in England by defeating Canada 12-10 in the title game, which avenged a 10-9 loss to Canada during pool play. It was the seventh world crown for the United States. Driscoll played in all seven games and helped the team to a 6-1 record.

In the summer of 2003, Walsh, the first freshman All-America honoree in Notre Dame history, played a key role in helping the U.S. continue its streak of dominance in the International Lacrosse Federation (ILF) Under-19 World Championship. Walsh had four goals and three assists to lead Team USA in its 19-10 triumph over Canada in the championship game. In six games during the tournament, Walsh had 13 goals and eight assists, including at least two points in each contest.

Todd Rassas, a three-time All-American at Notre Dame, helped the United States to a victory in the 2002 ILF World Championship in Perth, Australia and a silver medal finish in the 2006 tournament in Canada. The 2002 squad defeated rival Canada 18-15 in the title game to secure Team USA's sixth consecutive triumph in the ILF World Championship, which is contested every four years. In 2006, Team USA fell to Canada 15-10 in the championship game.

Mike lorio, the first three-time All-American in Irish history, earned all-world honors as a member of the United States under-19 team in 1992. lorio started for the national team on defense, in helping the Americans to a gold medal in the world championship, held at Hofstra University.

Scott Rodgers, a 2010 Notre Dame graduate, is the latest former Irish player to represent Team USA The two-time All-American, coincidentally, played against the Fighting Irish in the 2011 Champion Challenge. Rodgers played the entire second half between the pipes and made nine saves in the 12-7 win for Team USA Rodgers has been named to the Team USA roster for the 2012 Champion Challenge. He and the United States squad faced Notre Dame on Jan. 28 at the ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex in Orlando, Fla.

hen Father Edward F. Sorin started his school in the northern Indiana wilderness, he had only $300, three log buildings badly in need of repair and a far-sighted vision of establishing a liberal arts school to meet the growing educational needs of the frontier. He dreamed of building a great university, and in 1842, he founded the University of Notre Dame du Lac.

Over the years, the University of Notre Dame du Lac would evolve into a preeminent place for Catholic thought. While becoming one of the top undergraduate institutions in the country, Notre Dame has also been at the cutting edge of research, including such innovations as the transmission of wireless messages and the development of synthetic rubber. Today researchers are achieving breakthroughs in astrophysics, radiation chemistry, environmental sciences, tropical disease transmission, cancer, robotics, and nanoelectronics.

The University has also stressed residential life, with four-of-five students living on campus in the school's 29 residence halls that serve as the focal point of social, spiritual and athletic activities. Notre Dame is one of a handful of universities with a truly international student body, coming from over 100 nations and all 50 states. Students come to Notre Dame not only to learn how to think, but to learn how to live, keeping faith with the vision of Fr. Sorin.

Notre Dame is one of the few universities to regularly rank in the top 25 in the U.S. News & World Report survey of America's best colleges and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Directors' Cup standings of the best overall athletics programs. The University ranks first among all Catholic universities worldwide, according to the 2011 Times Higher Education survey and the Mendoza College of Business at Notre Dame boasts the

No. 1 undergraduate business program in the nation according to BusinessWeek magazine.

University Leadership

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C. President

ev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., is in his second five-year term as the 17th president of the University of Notre Dame. His vision is for Notre Dame to be the Catholic research university for our time an institution that unifies, enlightens and heals by engaging in scholarship of the first rank while maintaining its distinctive Catholic character and long-time excellence in undergraduate education.

During his tenure, Notre Dame has made significant progress toward its research goal, including selection as the lead partner in the Midwest Institute for Nanoelectronics Discovery, the creation of the Innovation Park research facility, and the construction of Stinson Remick Hall of Engineering.

His commitment to undergraduate education has been marked by the Notre Dame Forums, yearlong initiatives that have examined important issues such as religion and world conflict, global health, immigration and energy.

The University's Catholic identity has been strengthened during Father Jenkins' tenure in multiple ways, including the appointment of a coordinator for University life initiatives and the construction of

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME®

Jack Swarbrick Vice President • Director of Athletics

ohn B. "Jack" Swarbrick Jr., a University of Notre Dame graduate who rose to national prominence as a lawyer, consultant and executive in the collegiate and Olympic sports industries, is in his fourth year as vice president and director of athletics at his alma mater.

Among Swarbrick's athletics initiatives are meeting the performance needs of Notre Dame student-athletes through establishment of a new sports performance division, reaching out to more former Irish student-athletes via the Notre Dame Monogram Club and other as opening of the new Purcell Pavilion within the south dome of the Joyce Center.

Born in Yonkers, N.Y., and raised in Yonkers and Bloomington, Ind., Swarbrick is a 1976 magna cum laude graduate of Notre Dame with a bachelor's degree in economics. Upon graduating from Stanford University Law School in 1980, he returned to Indiana to accept a position as an associate in the Indianapolis law firm Baker & Daniels. He made partner in 1987 and spent 28 years overall with the firm.

programs, utilizing emerging digital technologies to deliver better information on and access to Notre Dame athletic programs via expanded production and distribution of programming, and restructuring Notre Dame's approach to sport administration through assignment of a unique administrator to each of the 26 Irish sports.

Notre Dame ranked number one in the country (among Football Bowl Subdivision schools) in the three most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) surveys – in 2010 and 2009 with 99 scores (including in '09 a 97 score and '10 a 96 in football that both also ranked number one). The 2009 Academic Progress Rate (APR) statistics included more perfect 1,000 scores by Irish teams (nine) than by any other FBS institution. The 2010 Notre Dame APR report featured eight perfect 1,000 scores.

The past three years combined in Notre Dame athletics have featured 94 All-Americans, 19 Academic All-America selections and five NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship winners; record involvement in community service hours by Irish student-athletes; NCAA titles in 2011 in men's and women's fencing (a combined championship) and in 2010 in women's soccer (with Randy Waldrum named coach of the year); NCAA runner-up team finishes in 2011 women's basketball, 2010 men's lacrosse, 2009 fencing and 2008 women's soccer, NCAA semifinal appearances in 2011 hockey, 2009 and 2010 women's tennis and 2009 women's soccer, plus a 2010 third-place fencing finish; a men's basketball modern program record 27 victories and a number-two NCAA seed (its highest in 30 years) in 2010-11 (resulting in national coach of the year awards for Mike Brey); the hiring of new Irish head football coach Brian Kelly to start the 2010 season; construction of a new, freestanding ice hockey arena, scheduled to open for the 2011-12 season, plus the 2009-10 dedications of new facilities for soccer and lacrosse – as well

As a member of the Indiana Sports Corporation, including the chairmanship from 1992 to 2001, Swarbrick led many of the city's successful proposals to a wide array of athletics organizations - from the National Football League to the United States Olympic Committee to the Big Ten Conference. His leadership efforts resulted in the city earning the right to play host to the 2012 Super Bowl in Indianapolis at Lucas Oil Stadium; becoming the home of the National Collegiate Athletic Association national headguarters in 1999; hosting the 1987 Pan American Games, 1991 World Gymnastics Championships, NCAA Men's Basketball Final Fours and other college championship competitions and an array of national and world championships in Olympic sports.

At Baker & Daniels, Swarbrick served as general counsel for numerous national governing bodies of Olympic sports, including USA Gymnastics and USRowing, and as a consultant to the 1996 Summer Olympic Games in Atlanta.

In his work as an advisor to the NCAA, Swarbrick coordinated the men's College Basketball Partnership, an NCAA-led group that addresses the opportunities and challenges in the sport, and developed the business plan for the new NBA/ NCAA youth basketball enterprise, iHoops. In 2000 Swarbrick received one of the NCAA's highest honors, The Flying Wedge Award, for his work in establishing Indianapolis as the new home of the NCAA. In 2001 the State of Indiana presented him with the Sagamore of the Wabash Award.

Born March 19, 1954, Swarbrick was named Notre Dame's 12th athletics director on July 16, 2008. He and his wife, Kimberly, are the parents of four children: Kate, a 2010 graduate of St. Louis University; Connor, a 2011 graduate of Wake Forest University; Cal, a sophomore at TCU; and Christopher, a University of Notre Dame freshman.

Academic Excellence Irish Athletes Dominate NCAA Graduation Ratings

For the second year in a row, the University of Notre Dame led the nation in all five Graduation Success Rate (GSR) categories, an annual federally-mandated survey by the NCAA. This year's report, the 20th by the association, covers students who enrolled between 2000 and 2003 at all Division I institutions. The Irish were tops in the areas of graduation rates for all student-athletes (99 percent), male student-athletes (98), female studentathletes (100), black student-athletes (98) and football student-athletes (96).

Notre Dame also ranked first in several categories measured by the Department of Education, whose formula differs slightly from that of the NCAA. Under the federal government's measurements, which counts all student-athletes who transfer from or leave an institution for any reason as non-graduates, Notre Dame graduated a four-year average of 91 percent of its student-athletes, tying with Stanford for the top spot. Notre Dame also finished first in graduation percentage of women athletes (97) and also shared the top spot with Stanford with its 87 percent graduation rate of male athletes. The Irish placed second behind Rice with its 86 percent graduation rate for black student-athletes and fourth with its football graduation rate of 85 percent.

Notre Dame's institutional research ranked Irish student-athletes number one in eight of 10 major categories of the two studies, ranking second in one and fourth in the other. Only five schools placed in the top 10 in all 10 categories – Notre Dame (93.7 average), Northwestern (91.7), Duke (90.1), Rice (89.8) and Boston College.

Twenty Notre Dame Teams Excel in Both Federal and NCAA Graduation Rates

Nine Irish men's teams posted Graduation Success Rate numbers that ranked them best in the nation within their respective sports – and five produced federal graduation rates that led all NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision institutions.

Baseball, basketball, cross country/ track, fencing, golf, lacrosse, soccer and swimming each recorded perfect 100 GSR scores, while football compiled a 96, hockey a 95 and tennis a 93. The teams with 100 GRS scores, along with football at 96, finished or tied for first in their sport category, while hockey's 95 mark placed it second behind the U.S. Air Force Academy.

The federal figures showed cross country/track, fencing and swimming with a 100 score, while lacrosse had a 93, golf a 92 and hockey a 91. With the exception of golf, each of those teams led or tied for first-place in its category. Soccer's 89 federal graduation rate ranked the Irish second, while football at 85 finished in fourth place behind Boston College (87), Duke (86) and Northwestern (86).

All 11 of the Irish women's teams (basketball, cross country/track, crew/rowing, fencing, golf, lacrosse, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball) posted perfect Graduation Success Rate numbers that ranked them best in the nation within their sports. Seven (cross country/track, crew/rowing, fencing, golf, lacrosse, tennis and volleyball) produced perfect federal graduation rates that led all NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision institutions.

17 Irish Teams Receive 2011 Academic Progress Rate Awards from the NCAA

Notre Dame ranked number one among all 120 Football Bowl Subdivision institutions with 17 of its athletics programs receiving 2011 Academic Progress Rate public recognition awards from the NCAA for posting multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports. The 2011 honors were based on the most recent APR numbers that represented the combination of scores from the 2006-07, 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2009-10 academic years.

The nine Irish men's teams singled out for recognition were baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, hockey, lacrosse, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field.

Eight Notre Dame women's sports received honors -- cross country, golf, rowing, soccer, softball, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field.

Among Bowl Championship Series conference schools, the BIG EAST ranked first with 77 teams honored.

Irish Teams Exceed NCAA Academic Progress Rate Standards

In the seventh annual set of APR statistics issued by the NCAA, all 26 athletics programs at Notre Dame exceeded the organization's standards. Nine Irish teams compiled perfect scores of 1,000 – second only to Duke, which had 10 squads with that mark.

Registering perfect scores were five Notre Dame men's teams – cross country, golf, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field – and four women's squads – cross country, golf, rowing and tennis.

In addition, 14 other teams produced scores of 989 or better: men's lacrosse (998), hockey (997), women's lacrosse (997), women's soccer (997), women's swimming and diving (997), softball (996), men's swimming and diving (994), volleyball (994), women's indoor and outdoor track and field (993), men's fencing (992), baseball (989), men's basketball (989) and men's soccer (989).

Team/Individual Grade Point Averages

Following the fall 2010 semester, over 64 percent of Notre Dame's student-athletes (457 individuals) boasted at least a 3.0 grade point average, while more than 72 percent (497) owned that distinction after the spring term. Almost 40 percent of Irish student-athletes (284) achieved at least a 3.4 GPA for the fall, while nearly 45 percent (306) hit that standard in the spring. Over 15 percent (109) achieved Dean's List status in the fall, while over 16 percent (111) earned those honors in the spring.

A dozen Notre Dame student-athletes attained perfect 4.0 GPAs in the fall, while 14 recorded that mark in the spring.

The Irish women's golf team, which also enjoyed its most successful season in history on the course in 2010-11, matched that standard in the classroom. The Notre Dame golfers combined for an annual GPA of 3.582 — the highest cumulative team mark on record. The Irish team boasted a 3.534 GPA in the fall and a 3.638 mark in the spring. That spring figure ranks as the highest team GPA ever recorded and signaled the first time a team has achieved a cumulative GPA equal to or above 3.6

During the 2010-11 season, 22 of 26 teams posted GPAs at or above 3.0, including 22 of 26 in the fall semester and 22 of 24 in the spring (men's and women's cross country are not included in the spring figures).

Five Irish teams attained their highest semester GPA in 2010-11: women's golf (3.534 in the spring, 3.638 in the fall), men's soccer (3.302 in the fall and 3.309 in the spring), rowing (3.421 in the fall), women's swimming (3.377 in the spring), and men's track (3.296 in the spring – also its highest cumulative GPA ever).

2010-11 BIG EAST Academic All-Stars

The BIG EAST Conference annually recognizes student-athletes who achieve an annual grade point average of 3.0 or higher as conference academic all-stars. During 2010-11, 366 of the 503 Irish student-athletes who compete in the BIG EAST – an impressive 73 percent – netted that distinction.

The Fighting Irish men's lacrosse program boasted 29 BIG EAST Academic All-Stars for the 2010-11 academic year.
