

ND History & Records

Bob Ebel is the only Notre Dame student-athlete ever to qualify for the NCAA Men's Swimming and Diving Championships, as he took part in the 1975 meet after a magnificent display off the three-meter board against Illinois State that earned him a score of 302.65 points - a total that would stand as tops in school history for 15 years - and gained him automatic entrance to the NCAAs.

Notre Dame in the BIG EAST Championships

After competing for 25 years as an independent, Notre Dame joined the Midwestern Collegiate Conference in 1983-84, beginning a 12-year membership in which the Irish would win six league championships (1986 & '88-92) and finish as the MCC runner-up four times (1984-85 & '93-94). Notre Dame joined the BIG EAST Conference prior to the 1995-96 season and has been a member since then. The Irish have registered seven consecutive top-four finishes in the BIG EAST Championships, including a trio of runner-up results (1999-2000 & 2004). In 2004, Notre Dame registered 584 points, its best-ever performance in the meet, to finish just 162 behind Pittsburgh. All 12 members of the BIG EAST Conference have men's swimming and diving teams, but Georgetown and Providence do not compete as league members.

Notre Dame has won six event titles at the BIG EAST meet, most recently by current junior Jamie Lutkus in last year's 400-yard individual medley. Jonathan Pierce, a 2002 graduate, won the 1,650 freestyle in both 1999 and 2000, while 2000 graduate Ray Fitzpatrick (who was first in the 200 free in 2000 after anchoring the champion 400 free relay in '99) is the only other Irish student-athlete to have won multiple BIG EAST championships. The top three finishers in every event gain all-BIG EAST honors, and 28 Notre Dame competitors – including 10 on the 2004-05 roster – have achieved that status. Fitzpatrick leads the way as a nine-time all-conference honoree, while 1999 graduate Scott Zumbach's six all-BIG EAST honors in individual events stand as the most in Irish history. Notre Dame's top diver in the BIG EAST Championships was Andy Maggio ('03), who garnered all-BIG EAST accolades three times.
