

NOTRE DAME SEASON IN REVIEW

In 2005-06, freshman diver Michael Bulfin became just the third student-athlete in program history to qualify for the NCAA Swimming and Diving Championships. His performance in the three-meter competition at the NCAA Zone C Diving Championships propelled him to the national meet.

Twice is Nice

Notre Dame repeats as BIG EAST Champs in 2005-06

After a 10-year journey to the program's first BIG EAST title, the Notre Dame men's swimming and diving team wasted little time in bringing home another championship as the Irish defended their conference crown in 2005-06. The Fighting Irish used a solid veteran presence, combined with some talented underclassmen, to produce one of the most successful campaigns in school history.

For the second consecutive season, the Fighting Irish registered a 10-2 dual meet record and witnessed a student-athlete qualify for the NCAA Swimming and Diving Championships. The only two dual meets that the Irish dropped were to ranked opponents in Purdue and Northwestern. Notre Dame upped its win streak against teams not listed in the College Swim Coaches Association of America (CSCAA) rankings to 26.

The campaign opened with the 41st annual Dennis Stark Relays. For the ninth time in 10 years, the Irish came away with the meet title by winning 10 of 13 events and setting six meet records. Notre Dame closed the meet with six wins in seven events while setting meet records in four races during the run.

Prior to the dual meet season kicking off, the Fighting Irish debuted in the CSCAA dual meet rankings at No. 19. That marked the highest ranking in the history of the program. Notre Dame garnered its first ever ranking the previous season as the Irish were rated 21st nationally for the majority of the 2004-05 season.

The Irish set the tone for their season right away in dual meet action by defeating Texas A&M in the Rolfs Aquatic Center by a convincing 132-111 score. The win over the Aggies helped to propel the Irish to No. 18 in the CSCAA rankings, another high-water mark for the program.

Sophomore Jay Vanden Berg captured wins in the 1,000-yard freestyle and the 500-yard freestyle events to help the Irish defeat the Aggies. Also claiming titles for the Irish were seniors Jamie Lutkus in the 200-yard individual medley, Bryan Guarnier in the 200-yard butterfly and Doug Bauman in the 200-yard backstroke. Junior Ted Brown was victorious in the 200-yard freestyle.

Following the triumph over Texas A&M, the Irish traveled to West Lafayette, Ind. to take on No. 15 Purdue. The Boilermakers emerged with a 182-118 victory. The Fighting Irish claimed five victories, including two by Vanden Berg in the 1,000-yard freestyle and 500-yard free. Other winners for the Irish were Brown, Louis Cavadini and Tim Kegelmann in the 200-yard free, 50-yard free and the 100-yard butterfly, respectively.

Close calls would be the story for Notre Dame's next two trips into the pool. For the second straight season the Notre Dame-University of Pittsburgh dual meet came down to the final event, the 400-yard freestyle relay. and for the second year in a row the Irish finished on top in the relay and the meet. Entering the final race, the Panthers held a 119-107 advantage but the Irish would go 1-2 and claim 15 of the possible 17 points to secure the victory, 122-121, in Trees Pool in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Fighting Irish concluded the 2005-06 season just as they had the previous year, on the podium as champions of the BIG EAST Conference.

The Notre Dame 400-yard free relay 'A' squad consisting of Louis Cavadini, Alan Carter, Nick Fanslau and Kegelmann clocked a time of 3:06.35 to place first. The Irish 'B' squad of Brown, Chris Barnes, Rob Seery and Tim Randolph was close behind in 3:06.81. Pittsburgh's 'A' team finished in 3:07.77.

The Fighting Irish used another dramatic performance in winning its third dual meet of the season. Notre Dame topped Michigan State 122.5-120.5 in the Charles McCaffree Pool in East Lansing, Mich. Brown led Notre Dame with victories in the 1,000 and 500-yard freestyle events with respective times of 9:27.33 and 4:34.89. With the win, Notre Dame improved to 3-1 on the season.

Also claiming victories for the Irish against the Spartans were Patrick Heffernan in the 200-yard butterfly and Louis Cavadini in the 50-yard freestyle. Michael Bulfin won the three-meter diving and sophomore Sam Stoner took home the three-meter event. Both Bulfin and Stoner registered NCAA Zone qualifying marks.

A third straight close call was not in order as Notre Dame returned to the Rolfs Aquatic Center to face St. Bonaventure on Nov. 19. The Fighting Irish cruised to a 203-92 victory over the Bonnies to end the first semester dual meet schedule with a 4-1 mark.

The first half of the 2005-06 season officially concluded with another dominating performance by the Irish at the Notre Dame Invitational. Eleven of 20 events went the way of the Irish, who won the home invitational for the fifth straight season. The Irish posted 2,813 points in the victory. Utah finished as the runner-up with 1,366 points.

Highlights of the meet included Vanden Berg winning both the 500 and 1,650 free events, while Eric Swenson took the 100-yard breast and Daniel Rave posted a win in the 200 breast. Four relay events also went the way of the Irish (200 free, 800 free, 200 medley and 400 medley). Other wins were Brown in the 200 free, Kegelmann in the 100 fly and Jamie Lutkus in the 400 IM.

The invitational win propelled the Irish into their annual holiday break training trip. The Irish ventured to Boca Raton, Fla. for a two-week trek, which featured a meet against the University of Maryland-Baltimore County and Binghamton.

The spring semester slate began with a trip to Evansville and a 163-73 Notre Dame triumph. The Fighting Irish dominated the Purple Aces by winning nine of 13 events en route to the victory. Three members of the squad collected multiple wins on the evening. Patrick Davis captured wins in the 1,000-yard freestyle and the 500 free, while Brian Freeman won the 200 free and the 200 backstroke. Stoner was victorious in both the one-meter and three-meter competitions.

The same weekend that the Irish squared off with Evansville, nine members of the Notre Dame squad competed in the 24th Annual Dallas Morning News Meet in the Perkins Natatorium in Dallas, Texas. Kegelmann posted the top Irish finish during day one of the Classic as he swam a tie for second in the 100-yard butterfly. Bulfin had the top finish for the Irish on night number two as he placed second in the three-meter diving competition. The Irish placed fifth out of the six-team field that included No.

7 Florida, No. 14 Florida State and No. 16 Northwestern. Each of the six teams in the Dallas Morning News Classic brought eight swimmers and one diver to the meet.

A complete Fighting Irish unit traveled to Northwestern for a meeting with the 17th-ranked Wildcats on Jan. 20. For just the second time all season, Notre Dame fell in dual meet action as Northwestern topped the 19th-ranked Fighting Irish 172-128 in Norris Aquatics Center in Evanston, Ill. The loss dropped the Irish to 5-2 in dual meet action.

The Irish claimed four first-place finishes against the Wildcats, including two Bulfin, who won both the one-meter and three-meter events with season-best marks. Vanden Berg won the 1,000-yard freestyle and Kegelman clocked a first-place finish in the 100-yard butterfly.

Just one day after falling to Northwestern, the Irish returned to their winning ways by returning home to top Cleveland State 142-96. Notre Dame captured nine of the 11 swimming events, along with taking one of two diving competitions.

Louis Cavadini helped to lead the way for the Irish as he captured wins in the 50 and the 100-yard freestyle events. Cavadini was also part of the 400-yard medley relay team that took first place. Doug Bauman, Randolph and Kegelman joined Cavadini on the winning squad.

Kegelman claimed a win of his own in the 200-yard individual medley and Doug Bauman did the same in the 200 back. Also notching wins for the Irish were Brown in the 200 fly, Davis in the 500 free and Bulfin in the three-meter diving event.

To wrap up the dual meet season, the Irish welcomed four teams into the Rolfs Aquatic Center for the Shamrock Dual Meet Invitational on January 27-28. The meet was scored as a quadruple dual meet, with the Irish defeating each school. Notre Dame improved its record to 10-2 on the year by downing No. 22 Penn State 197-173, Missouri 226-144, Oakland 261-106 and Louisville 277-91.

The win against the Nittany Lions marked the program's second win ever over a nationally-ranked opponent. The first occurred the previous season against No. 17 Pittsburgh.

The Irish collected a total of three victories on the second day of the meet. Jamie Lutkus won the 400 individual medley. Brown captured the 200 free, while Randolph took the 100 breast to give the Irish their ninth win out of the 20-event meet on the men's side.

Lutkus and Randolph were among 10 Fighting Irish men's swimmers making their final home appearance in the Rolfs Aquatic Center during the Shamrock Invitational. Joining that duo in the class of 2006 was Chris Barnes, Doug Bauman, Davis, Tyler Grenda, Guarnier, Heffernan, Patrick O'Berry and Steve Shomberger.

The focal point of the season came in mid-February as Notre Dame ventured to East Meadow, N.Y. to defend its BIG EAST title. The Irish did not disappoint as they posted a 224.5-point victory (809-584.5) over runner-up Pittsburgh and the rest of the 11-team field.

Notre Dame did not waste time in flexing its muscle as the 800 free relay unit captured the BIG EAST title in the first event of the meet. The quartet of Freeman, Brown, Seery and Louis Cavadini posted a school-record time of 6:35.47. Another program record fell in the first evening as the 200 medley relay quartet of Doug Bauman, Randolph, Kegelman and Fanslau posted a time of 1:30.04. That would be a sign of things to come as the Irish claimed four event titles and witnessed seven University records fall by the wayside.

Vanden Berg eclipsed Irish records in the 500 free (4:22.82), 1,000 free (9:14.25) and 1,650 free (15:15.99). Randolph and Jamie Lutkus topped marks in the 100 breast (54.47) and 400 IM (3:52.07), respectively.

BIG EAST titles also went to Jamie Lutkus in the 400 IM and Vanden Berg defended his 1,650 free title along with taking the 500 free crown. In all, the Irish had 13 student-athletes garner all-conference honors with Doug Bauman and Vanden Berg both collecting three accolades.

Also copping all-conference honors were Bulfin, off of the one-meter board, and Stoner, from the three-meter board. Diving coach Caiming Xie was rewarded for the success of his athletes as he was named BIG EAST Men's Diving Coach of the Year. That marked the fourth time in which Caiming had received the honor.

Bulfin and Stoner continued to excel at the NCAA Zone C Diving Championships, which was held in Columbus, Ohio in March. Bulfin's fourth-place performance off the three-meter board qualified him for the NCAA Swimming and Diving Championships in Minneapolis, Minn. The freshman also placed ninth off the one-meter board, while Stoner finished 10th in the one-meter competition and 17th off the three-meter board.

At the NCAA Swimming and Diving Championships, Bulfin represented the Irish well by finishing 18th overall during the preliminaries of the three-meter event and 27th in the one-meter. His placement marked the best finish of any of the two previous Fighting Irish male competitors at the NCAA meet.

Several other Notre Dame student-athletes nearly joined Bulfin at the national meet as the Irish totaled nine NCAA "B" cuts on the season. Jamie Lutkus (200 and 400 IM), Jace Hopper (500 and 1,650 free) and Jay Vanden Berg (500 and 1,650 free) all notched "B" times in two events, while Kegelman (100 fly) and Randolph (100 breast) each registered one. The 800 free relay crew of Freeman, Brown, Seery and Louis Cavadini also posted a NCAA "B" cut.

The accomplishments in the pool were not the only success for Irish. Once again the Irish excelled in the classroom. Five members of the squad were named honorable mention all-academic by the CSCAA. Jamie Lutkus, Randolph, Brown, Kegelman and Stoner all received the honor. Notre Dame also boasted the nation's 15th-best grade-point average among NCAA Division I men's swimming and diving programs with 3.18 mark.

The Fighting Irish concluded the season with their annual awards banquet in April. Vanden Berg received the Notre Dame Monogram Club Team MVP, while Davis was given the Notre Dame Club of St. Joseph Valley Rockne Student-Athlete Award. The evening finished with the 10-man senior class making their final remarks and the underclassman setting their sights on another successful run in 2006-07.

The members of Notre Dame's men's swimming and diving class of 2006 enjoyed unprecedented success for the program during their four-year run.

Top Performances

Senior Bryan Guarnier concluded his Fighting Irish career in fine fashion as he placed fifth in the 200-yard butterfly at the 2006 BIG EAST Championships. That was a personal-best finish at the conference meet for Guarnier.

Freshman Daniel Rave made a big splash for Notre Dame during his rookie season as he posted the team's top two marks in the 200-yard breaststroke, including a time of 2:01.57, which ranks third in school history.
