Notre Dame in the BIG EAST Championships

After competing for 25 years as an independent, Notre Dame joined the Midwestern Collegiate Conference in 1983-84, beginning a 12-year membership in which the Irish would win six league championships (1986 & '88-'92) and finish as the MCC runner-up four times (1984-85 & '93-94). Notre Dame joined the BIG EAST Conference prior to the 1995-96 season and has been a member since then. The Irish have registered eight consecutive top-four finishes in the BIG EAST Championships, including a trio of runner-up results (1999-2000 & 2004). In 2005, Notre Dame registered a meet-record 902.5 points to capture the program's first-ever BIG EAST title. The Fighting Irish defeated Pittsburgh, the eight-time defending conference champions, by 275 points. In the BIG EAST, 12 of the 16 league members have men's swimming and diving teams.

Notre Dame has won 11 event titles at the BIG EAST meet, with five of those occurring at the 2005 championships. Tim Kegelman became the first Irish swimmer to win three BIG EAST titles. Kegelman collected all three titles at the 2005 meet by winning the 100 fly, 200 individual medley and being part of the champion 400 medley relay. Jonathan Pierce, a 2002 graduate, won the 1,650 freestyle in both 1999 and 2000, while 2000 graduate Ray Fitzpatrick (who was first in the 200 free in 2000 after anchoring the champion 400 free relay in '99) was the only other Irish student-athlete to have won multiple BIG EAST championships until Kegelman.

The top three finishers in every event gain all-BIG EAST honors, and 33 Notre Dame competitors – including 12 on the 2005-06 roster – have achieved that status. Fitzpatrick leads the way as a nine-time all-conference honoree, while 1999 graduate Scott Zumbach's six all-BIG EAST honors in individual events stand as the most in Irish history. Kegelman, a junior, has eight total conference honors (four individual) and will look to add to that number over the course of his final two seasons. Notre Dame's top diver in the BIG EAST Championships was Andy Maggio ('03), who garnered all-BIG EAST accolades three times.
