University of Notre Dame

hen Father Edward F. Sorin started his school in the northern Indiana wilderness, he had only $300, three log buildings badly in need of repair and a far-sighted vision of establishing a liberal arts school to meet the growing educational needs of the frontier. He dreamed of building a great university, and in 1842, he founded the University of Notre Dame du Lac.

Over the years, the University of Notre Dame du Lac would evolve into a preeminent place for Catholic thought. While becoming one of the top undergraduate institutions in the country, Notre Dame has also been at the cutting edge of research, including such innovations as the transmission of wireless messages and the development of synthetic rubber. Today researchers are achieving breakthroughs in astrophysics, radiation chemistry, environmental sciences, tropical disease transmission, cancer, robotics, and nanoelectronics.

The University has also stressed residential life, with four-of-five students living on campus in the school's 29 residence halls that serve as the focal point of social, spiritual and athletic activities. Notre Dame is one of a handful of universities with a truly international student body, coming from over 100 nations and all 50 states. Students come to Notre Dame not only to learn how to think, but to learn how to live, keeping faith with the vision of Fr. Sorin.

Notre Dame is one of the few universities to regularly rank in the top 25 in the U.S. News & World Report survey of America's best colleges and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Directors' Cup standings of the best overall athletics programs. The University ranks first among all Catholic universities worldwide, according to the 2011 Times Higher Education survey and the Mendoza College of Business at Notre Dame boasts the No. 1 undergraduate business program in the nation according to BusinessWeek magazine.

University Leadership

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C. President

ev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., is in his second five-year term as the for Notre Dame to be the Catholic research university for our time – an institution that unifies, enlightens and heals by engaging in scholarship of the first rank while maintaining its distinctive Catholic character and long-time excellence in undergraduate education.

During his tenure, Notre Dame has made significant progress toward its research goal, including selection as the lead partner in the Midwest Institute for Nanoelectronics Discovery, the creation of the Innovation Park research facility, and the construction of Stinson Remick Hall of Engineering.

His commitment to undergraduate education has been marked by the Notre Dame Forums, yearlong initiatives that have examined important issues such as religion and world conflict, global health, immigration and energy.

The University's Catholic identity has been strengthened during 17th president of the University of Notre Dame. His vision is | Father Jenkins' tenure in multiple ways, including the appointment of a coordinator for University life initiatives and the construction of multimillion-dollar facilities for the Institute for Church Life, including the Center for Social Concerns, and the Institute for Educational Initiatives, which includes the Alliance for Catholic Education

Father Jenkins earned bachelor's and master's degrees in philosophy from Notre Dame in 1976 and 1978, respectively, and was ordained a priest of the Congregation of Holy Cross in 1983. He holds advanced degrees from Oxford and the Jesuit School of Theology. He is a professor of philosophy and the author of Knowledge and Faith in

Thomas Aquinas.

A native of Omaha, Neb., Father Jenkins was born Dec. 17, 1953.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME®

Jack Swarbrick Vice President • Director of Athletics

ohn B. "Jack" Swarbrick Jr., a University of Notre Dame graduate who rose to national prominence as a lawyer, consultant and executive in the collegiate and Olympic sports industries, is in his fifth year in 2012-13 as vice president and director of athletics at his alma mater.

During his time at Notre Dame Swarbrick has attached his signature to a variety of new initiatives:

 Launching Fighting Irish Digital Media—a major initiative that will deliver better information about and access to Notre Dame and its athletic programs via expanded production and distribution of programming.

Creation of new community outreach and youth programming functions through student-athlete welfare and development office. • Building of student-athlete programs and services that expand recognition of high academic achievement—and mentor and facilitate career development.

 Meeting the performance needs of Notre Dame student-athletes through establishment of a new sports performance division.

 Reaching out to more former Irish student-athletes, via the Notre Dame Monogram Club and other programs.

The past four years combined have featured a variety of on-and off-the-field Notre Dame athletics successes:

 Number-one rankings for Notre Dame (among Football Bowl Subdivision schools) in the four most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) surveys--in 2008 with a 98 for all student-athletes, in 2009 with a 99 (including a 97 score in football that also ranked number one), in 2010 at 99 (including football number one at 96) and again in 2011 at 99 (including football number one at 97).

-- 124 All-Americans, 21 Academic All-America selections and five NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship winners.

-- Record involvement in community service hours by Irish student-athletes.

 -- NCAA championships in 2011 in fencing (a men's and women's combined championship) and 2010 in women's soccer.

-- NCAA runner-up team finishes in 2012 and 2011 in women's basketball, 2010 in men's lacrosse, 2009 in fencing and 2008 in women's soccer.

 – NCAA semifinal appearances in men's lacrosse in 2012, hockey in 2011, women's tennis in both 2009 and 2010 and women's soccer in 2009, plus 2010 and 2012 third-place fencing finishes.

— National coach-of-the-year honors for Randy Waldrum in women's soccer in both 2010 and 2009 and for Mike Brey in men's basketball in 2010-11--to go with a 2011 Hall of Fame induction for women's basketball coach Muffet McGraw and a Hermann Trophy for women's soccer national player of the year Kerri Hanks in 2008.

-- Construction of the 5,022-seat Compton Family Ice Arena that opened for the 2011-12 season and features two sheets of ice (one Olympic sized). The 2009-10 school year also featured dedications of new facilities for soccer and lacrosse--as well as opening of the new Purcell Pavilion within the south dome of the Joyce Center.

Born in Yonkers, N.Y., and raised in Yonkers and Bloomington, Ind., Swarbrick is a 1976 magna cum laude graduate of Notre Dame with a bachelor's degree in economics. Upon graduating from Stanford University Law School in 1980, he returned to Indiana to accept a position as an associate in the Indianapolis law frm Baker & Daniels, one of the largest in the state. He was made partner in 1987 and spent 28 years with the firm.

As a member of the Indiana Sports Corporation, including the chairmanship from 1992 to 2001, Swarbrick led many of Indianapolis' successful proposals to a wide array of athletics organizations—from the National Football League (NFL) to the United States Olympic Committee (USOC) to the Big Ten Conference. His leadership efforts resulted in the city:

• Earning the right to play host to the 2012 Super Bowl in Indianapolis at Lucas Oil Stadium.

• Becoming the home of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) national headquarters in 1999.

 Hosting the 1987 Pan American Games, where Swarbrick served as the director of competition.

 Hosting the 1991 World Gymnastics Championships.

 Hosting NCAA Men's Basketball Final Fours and other college championship competitions and a wide array of national and world championships in the Olympic sports.

 Securing rights to host the Big Ten Conference men's and women's basketball tournaments at Conseco Fieldhouse for five consecutive years beginning in 2008.

At Baker & Daniels Swarbrick served as general counsel for numerous national governing bodies of Olympic sports, including USA Gymnastics, and as a consultant to various bid cities and host committees for Olympic Games and world championships.

In his work as an advisor to the NCAA, Swarbrick coordinated the men's College Basketball Partnership, an NCAA-led group that addresses the opportunities and challenges in the sport; developed the business plan for the new NBA/NCAA youth basketball enterprise, iHoops; served as a member of the NCAA Division I

Women's Basketball Discussion Group, and chaired the NCAA/USOC task force dedicated to developing proposals to expand sponsorship of Olympic sports among NCAA member institutions.

In 2000 Swarbrick received one of the NCAA's highest honors, The Flying Wedge Award, for his work in establishing Indianapolis as the new home of the NCAA. In 2001 he was honored by the State of Indiana with the Sagamore of the Wabash Award. In 2002 he received the Pathfinder Award from Youthlinks Indiana for his service to youth in the state of Indiana.

Born March 19, 1954, Swarbrick was named Notre Dame's 12th athletics director on July 16, 2008. He and his wife, Kimberly, are the parents of four children: Kate, a 2010 graduate of St. Louis University; Connor, a 2011 graduate of Wake Forest University; Cal, a junior at TCU; and Christopher, a University of Notre Dame sophomore.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME Fighting Irish

Season Preview

After an up and down 2011-12 season that saw the team finish third at the BIG EAST Championship but advance to the second round of the NCAA Championship for the second year in a row, the University of Notre Dame men's tennis team has a lot of talented returnes and several new faces as the team looks to navigate an elite schedule to return to the top of the BIG EAST and make a run in the NCAA Championship.

Last year the Irish finished 21-9, with nine of those wins coming against ranked foes, as the team knocked off No. 40 Vanderbilt in the first round of the NCAA Championship before falling to rival Ohio State in the second round. Helping lead the Irish was BIG EAST Player of the Year and NCAA Singles Championship participant Greg Andrews and NCAA Doubles Championship participants Niall Fitzgerald and Casey Watt. Notre Dame also saw impressive contributions from senior Sam Keeton, junior Blas Moros and sophomore Billy Peor.

This year the Irish return seven monogram winners from last season and welcome five talented newcomers, including high school All-Americans Alex Lawson (Tempe, Ariz.) and Quentin Monaghan (Chatham, N.J.). Other newcomers include Nicolas Montoya (Scottsdale, Ariz.), Kenneth Sabacinski (Plantation, Fla.) and Eric Schnurrenberger (Zug, Switzerland).

SINGLES

Leading the charge at No. 1 singles is Andrews, who has racked up two BIG EAST individual trophies in two seasons and ended 2012 ranked No. 54 in the country. Looking to make a big jump up is Moros, who is a co-captain with Andrews and looked impressive at five and six singles last year. Pecor will try and provide more stability in the middle part of the lineup. Last season the ScottSdale, Airz., native went 17-16, including 8-9 at four during the spring season.

Other returnees that should see plenty of action in the lineup are senior Michael Moore and sophomore Sophomore Wyatt McCoy looks to step into the singles lineup full-time in 2013 after going 14-7 as a freshman, including 6-1 during the spring season. Wyatt McCoy. Moore went 2-0 at four singles and 3-4 at six singles in limited action a year ago, while McCoy was 1-0 at three, 3-0 at five and 2-1 at six singles last season.

Looking to also earn a spot in the lineup are veterans Spencer Talmadge, Ryan Bandy and Matt Dooley and sophomores Dougie Barnard and Michael Fredericka.

DOUBLES

The Irish have the top doubles spot locked down with the return of Andrews and Talmadge, who went 15-6 last season during the spring, including 13-5 at No. 2 doubles and 2-1 at the No. 1 spot.

The other two spots remain unclear with the graduation of Fitzgerald, Keeton and Watt, who all played key roles in the doubles lineup. Other doubles tandems that could see the court behind Andrews and Talmadge include Lawson and Pecor, McCoy and Monaghan and Moore and Moros. None of these three teams competed with each other a year ago, so the Irish doubles unit will have to use the fall and the early season matches to find the right combinations in order to help secure the crucial point entering singles competition.

SCHEDULE

A formidable spring schedule awaits the 2013 Notre Dame men's tennis team, as the Irish are set to battle 12 ranked foes, including 10 teams that made the 2012 NCAA Tournament. The Irish will also play host to the 2013 BIG EAST Championship in late April for the third time in the last four years.

"Obviously we have a big challenge in front of us with this tough schedule," said veteran head coach Bobby Bayliss. "However, I firmly believe that the only way a team can become the best is if they play and beat the best. The guys are excited about the opportunity to play the quality of opponents we are playing. There are a significant number of potential top-10 teams that we will play, many at home. I think the fans will throughly enjoy coming out and seeing opponents the caliber of Duke, Michigan and USC in addition to our other home opponents."

The squad will welcome 10 foes to the Eck Tennis Pavilion and the Courtney Tennis Center this season, including the defending national champion USC Trojans, who will venture to the Eck on Wednesday, March 20. Other teams that ended the 2012 season ranked that will make the trek to Notre Dame include No. 42 Northwestern (Jan. 22), No. 8 Duke (Feb. 3), No. 21 Michigan (Feb. 16), No. 15 Illinois (March 5) and No. 51 and BIG EAST foe South Florida (April 6).

Ranked road contests include No. 53 Michigan State (Feb. 9), No. 7 Kentucky (Feb. 12), No. 4 Ohio State (Feb. 23) and No. 34 and BIG EAST rival Louisville (April 13).

The Irish will meet two more ranked foes in Norman, Okla., on Jan. 26 and 27. The Irish face off with No. 24 Harvard on Saturday, and then will either battle No. 10 Oklahoma or No. 35 Memphis.

Overall, the schedule features five NCAA Round of 16 teams, including Illinois (R16), Kentucky (R16), Duke (R8) and Ohio State (R8) in addition to the champion Trojans.

Notre Dame will also take part in the legendary

Senior Michael Moore looks to become a regular in the lineup after going 11-7 as a junior, including 5-4 during the spring season.

Blue Gray National Tennis Classic in Montgomery, Ala., from March 15-17. The classic will match the Irish up against three opponents that will be announced at a later date.

The Irish open the year with BIG EAST opponent Marquette and Western Illinois in a Saturday, Jan. 19 doubleheader. The final non-conference home opponent is SMU (April 5), while the Irish will also travel to Wisconsin (March 3), William & Mary (March 23) and Ball State (April 1).

The BIG EAST Tournament returns to the Courtney Tennis Center for the third time and will be held from April 18-21.

Following the BIG EAST Tournament, the Irish will look to advance to their 22nd NCAA Championship appearance in the last 23 years, with first and second rounds slated for May 10 and 12. The NCAA team and individual championships will be at the Khan Tennis Center in Champaign, Ill., from May 16-27.

Notre Dame will kick off the 2012-13 school year with six scheduled weekends of competition beginning with a flight to Dublin, Ireland and a meeting with members of Ireland's Davis Cup Team on Aug. 31. The contest will take place the day before Notre Dame's football team battles Navy on Sept. 1 in Dublin.

The Irish return to the U.S. and will compete at both the Illini and Western Michigan Invitationals from Sept. 14-16. The opening of October will see Notre Dame play host to the annual Tom Fallon Invitational from Oct. 5-7, while rising junior Greg Andrews could head to the ITA All-American Championships that same weekend.

This year's USTA/ITA Midwest Regional Singles and Doubles Championships are in East Lansing, Mich., this year and are scheduled for Oct. 18-22.

Andrews also has a shot at participating in the ITA/ USTA National Indoor Singles and Doubles Championships at Flushing Meadow, N.Y., from Nov. 8-11, while the rest of the team will head to Williamsburg, Va., for the William & Mary Invitational that same weekend.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME Fighting Irish

Head Coach

Over the past 43 years, Bob Bayliss has built a reputation as one of the top collegiate tennis coaches in the country. Few others have turned out so many exceptional players, had such great team success and earned as many honors as Bayliss, who is entering his 26th season as head coach of the Fighting Irish and is the nation's active career leader in wins with 746 (746-331-1). Bayliss also sits sist on the all-time career wins list and would move into fifth place with just 10 wins during the 2013 spring season.

During his tenure with the Irish, Bayliss has seen several milestone wins posted on his historic ledger. With just his ninth victory as head of the Irish, the new Notre Dame skipper recorded his 300th career win, posting a 9-0 shutout of Marquette on March 4, 1988. Since then Bayliss has posted his 400th (Indiana, 6-1 on March 3, 1993), 500th (Duke, 4-3 on March 26, 1998), 600th (Virginia Tech, 4-2 on May 1, 2004) and 700th (Middle Tennessee State, 4-2 on March 18, 2010) career victories all while heading the Irish program.

Bayliss has posted an overall record of 746-331-1 (.693). Bayliss is the only active Division I men's coaches with at least 700 career wins. In his 25 seasons at Notre Dame, Bayliss has a 455-228 (.666) record.

Bayliss' teams' accomplishments speak for themselves. Not only has he led the Irish to 21 NCAA Championship berths in the past 22 seasons but he also has helped his teams post 10 top-20 finishes in that time. Bayliss' squads have advanced to the roundof-16 in the NCAA tournament on seven occasions, including a quarterfinal appearance in 1993 and a trip to the NCAA title match in 1992.

The Irish have had individuals appear in the NCAA Singles Championship 25 times since 1990, including Greg Andrews in 2012, while doubles duos have appeared in the NCAA Doubles Championship 14 times, including Niall Fitzgerald and Casey Watt in 2012.

In BIG EAST competition, the Irish have won seven tournament titles and appeared in the finals 15 out of a possible 17 opportunities. Notre Dame has never finished outside the top four under Bayliss at the conference tournament.

Among the individual accolades that the team has enjoyed in BIG EAST play under Bayliss include 2011 freshman of the year and 2012 player of the year Greg Andrews, five BIG EAST Tournament Most Outstanding Players, 12 all-BIG EAST team members, n6 BIG EAST Championship all-tournament team singles members and nine BIG EAST (hampionship all-tournament team doubles duos.

The 2000's proved to be quite a decade for the Irish, especially 2001-08, as the program claimed five BIG EAST championship titles. Bayliss was named the BIG EAST conference (oach of the Year five times in that period ('02, '04, '05, '07 and '08), while seeing four of his players named All-Americans, Javier Taborga (2002), Casey Smith (2002), Sheeva Parbhu (2006) and Steven Bass (2007). In 2003-04 the team not only excelled on the courts, but also in the classoonn as they were named to the ITA all-Academic team.

The 2001 squad vaulted from a preseason ranking of 33rd to a season-high 10th before finishing at 16th. For the first time since 1993, the Irish won the Blue Gray National Classic and returned to the top 10.

Since Bayliss took over the program, 10 Notre Dame men's tennis student-athletes have combined to earn All-America citations on 19 occasions and have brought home eight ITA national awards. A pair of Irish players and three Notre Dame doubles teams has earned national rankings in the top-five under Bayliss. Six of his players have been honored with the Byron V. Kanaley Award, the most prestigious honor given to Notre Dame senior student-athlete monogram winners who have been exemplary both as students and leaders. The professional ranks have been the next step for a number of competitors who spent four years under Bayliss' tutelage. David DiLucia, who was ranked No. 1 nationally in both singles and doubles while at Notre Dame, went on to a successful pro career in which he played in the singles main draw of all four grand-slam events, entered the world top-100 in doubles and clinched the 2001 World Team Tennis title for the Philadelphia Freedoms. He also served as the personal coach of Lindsky Davenport, the former world No. 1-anked women's player. Three other former Notre Dame players (Richard Cahill, Andy Zurcher, and current associate head coach Ryan Sachire) have been ranked among the world's top-400 doubles players, and a total of 15 former Irish players have gone on to earn an Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP) singles and/or doubles professional ranking since 1999.

Bayliss' talent has not gone unnoticed among his peers, as he has been honored as national coach of the year twice. He also is a five-time Midwest Region Coach of the Year and has been named the top coach in his conference on 14 occasions. In 1995, he was honored with the Meritorious Service Award - which previously had been bestowed upon just six coaches - for his extraordinary contributions to collegiate tennis and his service to the collegiate tennis community throughout his career.

Notre Dame's Monogram Club recognized Bayliss' accomplishments by awarding him an honorary monogram in 1993. At the time, he was one of just three Irish coaches to have been so honored.

Bayliss continues to remain active on various national committees including chairing the ITA ethics and infractions committee and serving on the Board and the operating committee. Previously Bayliss served on the ITA executive board of directors for 20 years as well as on the executive and budget and collegiate hall of fame committees.

On two occasions, Bayliss has been selected to lead a team of collegiate all-stars into foreign competition. In the summer of 1991, Bayliss guided the United States team to a gold medal at the World University Games in Sheffield, England.

In the summer of 2003, he led an ITA All-Star Team to Tokyo, Japan, to take part in two "Dream Matches" - exhibition showdowns with the top Japanese collegiate tennis program (Waseda University) and a Japanese collegiate all-star squad. Bayliss and the USA were victorious in two hard-fought contests.

The popular coach wasted little time in making his mark on Notre Dame men's tennis program. In just the third year under Bayliss, 1990, Notre Dame received its first-ever listing in the ITA national rankings. Dilucia advanced to the NCAA Singles Championship for the second year and was named one of 16 seeded competitors, becoming the first lish player to eam All-America honors in 22 years.

The remainder of the 1990's marked Bayliss returning lrish men's tennis to the national forefront. The reemergence of the program began promptly in '91 when Bayliss and the Irish earned a berth to the NCAA Championship for the first time since the team format was adopted in 1977. This feat was immediately matched and done one better, when, in '92, Bayliss coached his team to the NCAA Finals.

All told, over the course of the decade Bayliss and his Irish squads qualified for nine NCAA Championships, reaching the round of 16 or further on four occasions. In addition to their NCAA rebirth, Bayliss and his teams were able to capture conference titles eight times in that span – skin it he Midwestern Collegiate Conference and two in the BIG EAST after joining for the 1995-96 campaign.

Individually, Bayliss coached several of his players to national prominence led by DiLucia who graduated as a five-time All-American and winner of the Dan Magill Award as the top senior collegiate tennis player in the country. The list of accomplishments continues with one other player (Andy Zucher) being named the Dan Magill Award winner and two additional players (Chuck Coleman, Mike Sprouse) receiving the Tennis Magazine/Arthur Ashe National Collegiate Award for Sportsmanship and Leadership. On top of all that, six of Bayliss' players were tabbed as All-Americans on 13 occasions in the '90's alone, including the team-best five selections for DiLucia.

For his hard work with the team during the '90's, Bayliss enjoyed plenty of recognition of his own. Culminating by being named the ITA National Coach of the Year following the '92 season, Bayliss five times was tabbed as the conference Coach of the Year between both the Midwestern Collegiate Conference and the BIG EAST (three times in MCC and twice in BIG EAST), as well as three times ('91, '92, '93) being selected as the ITA Midwest Region Coach of the Year.

What started as a foundation for the return of the men's program in the '90's turned into continued successes at the turn of the millennium. The 2000 Irish nearly pulled off the biggest upset in the history of the NCAA Team. Championship, but No. 2 UCLA eventually prevailed 4-2 over the 34th-ranked Irish. Former Irish player and current associate head coach with Notre Dame Ryan Sachire also became the first Irish player to ever win the Ted A. Famsworth/TIA National Senior Player of the Year Award and the John Yan Nostrand Memorial Award, which gives a cash stipend to a senior player intending to pursue a professional career.

At Notre Dame, Bayliss remains responsible for much more than just providing the Irish with a winning men's tennis record. He oversees the Eck Tennis Pavilion, and has been responsible for improving the Courtney Tennis Center and erecting stadium-type bleachers for that outdoor facility as well as the resurfacing of the courts in August 2008. A series of free clinics for the Notre Dame and South Bend communities organized by Bayliss won the Irish program a grant from Volvo Tennis.

Bayliss came to Notre Dame after a three-year stint at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he guided the MIT meris tennis team to a 43-23-1 (.649) record. He led MIT to two consecutive New England Intercollegiate titles, including the first in school history. He also was an assistant professor of physical education and the tennis pro at the Wellesley (Mass.) Country Cub.

Before his stint at MIT, Bayliss spent 15 seasons at Navy (1970-84), where he led the Midshipmen to a 248-80 (.756) record. Being named the 1980 National Coach of the Year by the United States Professional Tennis Association highlighted his tenure. Navy finihed with a 19-5 record that season and Bayliss was named the Maryland Professional of the Year.

He is the only Navy men's tennis coach that never lost to Army and he was named the Mid-Atlantic Conference Coach of the Year in three consecutive seasons from 1978-80 before guiding the Middles to a 22-3 record in 1982. In addition to his tennis duties at Navy, Bayliss was an assistant professor of English and an associate professor of physical education. He also coached Navy's squash team to a 42-16 (.724) record from 1978-1982. In the fall of 2005, Navy recognized Bayliss with both a plaque in the squash facility and the remaining of one of the tennis courts in his honor.

Bayliss remains nationally esteemed in his profession. He has lectured at the (USTA) program for teaching professionals and at the National Tennis Coaches convention. He oversees the Notre Dame

Associate Head Coach

One of the top players in the 87-year history of the University of Notre Dame men's tennis program, Ryan Sachire is in his seventh year at his alma mater. He served the first two as an assistant coach before being promoted to associate head coach in the summer of 2008.

Sachire ended his professional career in 2005 and was an assistant at Baylor in 2005-06, helping the Bears reach the semifinals of the NCAA Championship. A three-time singles All-American with the Irish, he replaced former Irish assistant Todd Doebler, who was hired as the head coach at Penn State. tennis camps in the summer and completed the USTA's High Performance Coaching Program in 2002. In 2005, he traveled to Wimbledon to participate in a High Performance Continuing Education Program organized by the USTA.

Assistant coaches have benefited from spending time under Bayliss, as four have been named the top assistant in the Midwest Region since 1997. Four recent Irish assistants have gone on to head coaching positions. Brian Kalbas stayed on as an assistant under his former coach after graduating in 1989, eventually leaving for the head women's tennis job at William & Mary. Kalbas is a two-time National Coach of the Year and now serves as head coach of North Carolina. Billy Pate (2000-02) was formerly the head coach at Alabama. Todd Doebler is the head coach of the men's and women's teams at Colorado College and Mike Morgan is the head coach at Middlebury.

Bayliss received his bachelor of arts degree in English at the University of Richmond (1966), where he also captained the tennis team and was a member of the basketball syuada as a freshman. In 2002, he was inducted into the University of Richmond Athletics Hall of Fame. A member of Omicron Delta Kappa (national leadership fraternity), he completed his master's degree in English at Richmond in 1971.

Bayliss and his wife, Pat, have four children: Jackie, Rob, Brendan, and Patrick. All of them graduated from Notre Dame.

Sachire's effect on the Irish took absolutely no time to take hold. In his first season at Notre Dame, the Irish reached the NCAA round-of-16 for the second straight year, finished with the most victories in a single-season since 1980-81 and ended the campaign ranked sixth in the country (the highest ranking to close a season since being ranked third at the completion of the 1991-92 season). Sachire also was instrumental in the performance of Stephen Bass, who not only became the 18th All-American in Notre Dame men's tennis history, but also captured the John Van Nostrand Memorial Award, which provides a stipend to the top senior player embarking on a professional career (an award Sachire captured in 2000).

In 2008, Sachire again helped guide the Irish to the BIG EAST title and their 17th NCAA Championship appearance. Notre Dame did so despite the graduation of three of its top six players from 2006-07 and the inclusion of three freshmen into the six starting singles spots.

In 2009, Sachire helped the Irish to their 18th NCAA Championship appearance while featuring a young lineup that showcased underclassmen at five of the six starting singles spots. He also helped guide Brett Helgeson to his second consecutive NCAA Championship Singles Draw appearance.

During the 2010 season, Sachire guided Casey Watt and Daniel Stahl to their second all-BIG EAST honor and Stephen Havens to his first all-league award. Watt also finished runner-up at the ITA Midwest Regional and advanced to the NCAA Singles Championship Draw.

In 2011, Sachire helped a talented group of newcomers make an immediate impact with the Irish as Billy Pecor put together a 10-2 fall campaign before being lost to injury, while Greg Andrews composed a 24-14 record, including 16-10 during the dual season that he eventually parlayed into being named BIG EAST Freshman of the Year; the first time an Irish player has earned the honor since the inception of the award.

Last year Sachire helped head coach Bobby Bayliss tutor BIG EAST Player of the Year and NCAA Singles Championship participant Andrews and NCAA Doubles Championship participants Niall Fitzgerald and Casey Watt as the Irish won 20-plus matches and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Championship. Sachire also has been a major factor in recruiting, as each of the six recruiting classes since his return to the Irish have ranked among the top-15 in the country, including the class of 2016 that will compete for the first time in 2013 and was ranked ninth by TennisRecruiting. net.

During the summers of 2011 and 2012, Sachire helped coach the elite USTA Collegiate Team as they competed against professional players from around the world. The experience led Sachire around the country as he mentored the top collegiate players in the nation.

Sachire was instrumental in helping Baylor compile an outstanding season in 2005-06. Despite losing two NCAA singles champions (Beniamin Becker and Benedikt Dorsch) to graduation, the Bears finished 25-7 and No. 4 in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) national rankings. Baylor advanced all the way to the semifinals of the NCAA Championship before falling 4-3 to then-undefeated national No. 1 Georgia. The Bears won their fifth consecutive Big 12 Conference championship. Sachire helped several individual players to strong performances, as sophomore Lars Poerschke ascended to the national No. 1 ranking in singles on Jan. 10, 2006, and went on to be an All- American. Baylor ended up with three players (Poerschke No. 4, Michal Kokta No. 34, Matija Zgaga No. 62) and two doubles teams (Kokta/Poerschke No. 11, John Reckewey/Zgaga No. 51) in the final ITA national rankings.

Sachire remains one of the top players in Irish tennis history. He is the only Notre Dame player ever to win 30-plus singles matches in all four of his collegiate seasons and one of only two to earn four invitations to the NCAA Singles Championship. One of three Notre Dame players ever to be a three-time All-American, he finished in the national top 40 in singles four times and on five occasions appeared at a career-high of No. 2 in the ITA national singles rankings (four of those instances saw him behind only Harvard's James Blake). Sachire posted a 138-43 record in singles - placing him second on Notre Dame's all-time wins list - and a 73-32 mark in doubles.

In 2000, he swept the ITA's major awards for seniors, being tabbed the Ted A. Farnsworth/ ITA National Senior Player of the Year while winning the John Van Nostrand Memorial Award, which provides a stipend to the top senior player embarking on a professional career.

An elite singles player throughout his career - he was 72-19 at No. 1 singles - Sachire was a regular in the collegiate grand slams. His best result was a trip to the title match of the 1998 ITA All-American Championships, where he lost to Blake. He also won the consolation title in the 1999 ITA National Intercollegiate Indoor Championships and reached the semifinals of the 1999 ITA National Clay Court Championships. He also reached the semifinals of the ITA Midwest Championships three times, including a runner-up result in 1996. Sachire three times was invited to be on the elite USTA Summer Collegiate Team that trains and plays pro tournaments together in the summer.

Sachire ranks among the top five in 13 different categories in the Irish record book. Among his notable career rankings are second in combined singles and doubles victories (211) and combined singles and doubles dual-match victories (141), third in wins at No. 1 singles and doubles dual-match victories (64), as well as fifth in singles dual-match wins (77).

He helped the Irish compile a 67-33 (.670) mark during his collegiate days, as well as four consecutive finishes in the national top 35 (including 16th in 1997), four NCAA tournament bids and the 1999 BIG EAST Conference championship. Sachire was twice tabbed the conference tournament MVP and was the ITA Midwest Region Player of the Year in 1998 and 2000 after being the region's top rookie in '97. He was voted the team's MVP four times. A two-time BIG EAST Conference Academic All-Star, Sachire graduated in 2000 with a degree in economics.

Upon leaving Notre Dame, Sachire played five years of professional tennis, climbing to as high as 184th in the ATP (Association of Tennis Professionals) world doubles rankings and 391st in singles before retiring in 2004. He captured 16 tournament titles in doubles, 14 on the futures circuit, as well as challenger-level championships at Waco in 2002 and Atlantic City in 2003. In singles, Sachire has a pair of pro titles to his credit, winning futures events in St. Joseph, Mo. (2002) and Lachine, Quebec (2003). He was among the top 35 American players in the ATP rankings in both singles and doubles and also served as director of tennis for the Wickertree Tennis and Fitness Center in Columbus, Ohio, before joining the Baylor staff.

Sachire is a native of Canfield, Ohio, and a 1996 graduate of Canfield High School. He dropped just five singles matches during his entire prep career en route to capturing a pair of Ohio state singles titles. He also was ranked as high as 24th in the USTA national singles rankings in the 16-and-under division.

Sachire married the former Cindy Harding a 1999 Notre Dame graduate and former Irish cheerleader - on June 30, 2006, in the Basilica of the Sacred Heart on the Notre Dame campus. Ryan and Cindy have two daughters, Anna and Emily.

Now in his seventh season at the University of Notre Dame, Brian Hardin is in his fourth year of serving as the men's tennis administrator.

Hardin also serves as director of football media relations and is the primary media contact for the Fighting Irish football program. He works with head coach Brian Kelly, the Notre Dame players and assistant coaches as their primary day-to-day liason with the media. He coordinates interviews, overses production of football publications and other football publicity items.

Prior to joining the Notre Dame athletics staff, Hardin spent three seasons working in the media relations department of the National Football League's Chicago Bears.

Originally from Des Moines, Iowa, Hardin also spent one season as an intern in the Loyola University sports information office in Chicago.

A 2002 graduate of Marquette University, Hardin earned his bachelor's degree in journalism and was a four-year letterwinner in track & field, captaining the team as a senior.

Born Feb. 6, 1980, Hardin and his wife, Cara, reside in South Bend with their son, Noah.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME Fighting Irish

Jerry Evert (left) – whose niece Chris went on to win 18 professional grand-slam titles and to be the world's #1 women's player – and Charles Samson (right), who became President of Texas A&M, teamed up to reach the semifinals of the NCAA doubles tournament, helping the Irish earn a share of the 1944 national championship. Samson, the NCAA singles runner-up that year, returned to his alma mater as head coach in the mid-1950s, recruiting a number of players who would win the second Irish national title in 1959.

NCAA Championships

Notre Dame's 1944 team headed to Northwestern for the 60th NCAA Championships in search of its first national intercollegiate title after being proclaimed the mythical "Western Tennis Champions" with a perfect 9-0 record. Each team was allowed to enter four players and the total score of a team was determined by the number of wins of those individuals from the quarterfinals on.

The "Big Four" of Jerry Evert, Jim Griffin, Charles Samson and Bill Tully, who had combined to lose just one time in the regular season, came through for head coach Walter Langford. A singles runner-up finish and a doubles semifinal showing were enough to ear the Irish a share of the title with Miami (Fla.) and Texas.

After all four won first-round singles matches, only Samson survived the second round. Unseeded, he advanced to the title match after ousting Gonzaga's thirdseeded Harry Likas 6-4, 6-4, 7-5 in the semifinals. Samson's dream of an NCAA singles crown ended against Miami's top-seeded Pancho Segura, whose two-handed backhand and attacking style helped him cruise through the draw without losing a set, gaining the second his three consecutive NCAA singles titles.

In the doubles competition, Griffin and Tully dropped their opening-round match to the second -seeded team. Evert and Samson rallied the Irish with a semifinal showing, keyed by a quarterfinal upset of Pacific's Arnold Beisser and George Druliner, to guarantee Notre Dame a share of the national title and make men's tennis (along with men's golf, which also won the 1944 NCAA title) the first Irish sport other than football to capture a national championship.

1944 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Notre Dame's 1944 NCAA champions, led by head coach Walter Langford. Members of the team included captain Charles Samson, Jerry Evert, Jim Griffin, Darrell Black, Sanford Warshawsky, Bill Tully, Joe Wood, Bart O'Brian, and Leonard Buchstaber.

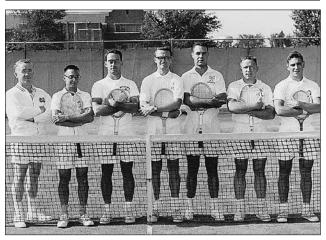

The Irish found success once again at Northwestern, site of the 1959 NCAA Championships. Despite a change making all singles and doubles victories count in the team score, Notre Dame shared the national title – this time with Tulane – when both teams finished with eight points.

Irish captain and No. 1 singles player Max Brown advanced to the singles semifinals before losing to San Jose State's Whitney Reed, who went on to win the singles title.

Two matches between the eventual co-champions proved to be keys in the outcome: a singles quarterfinal and the doubles championship. Brown posted a 6-4, 6-2 victory over Tulane's Ron Holmberg in singles, but Holmberg teamed with Crawford Henry to form the topseeded team in the doubles draw. Brown and Bill Heinbecker needed a win over the Green Wave in the doubles title match to clinch the outright NCAA crown for the Irish. Henry and Holmberg rallied Tulane with a 6-3, 6-3, 6-2 victory to secure the doubles championship and a share of the NCAA title, the first time it had been shared since 1944.

The 1959 Notre Dame men's tennis team proved to be one of the strongest teams in Irish history, as it won all 14 of its dual matches. Ten of the Irish victories were by 9-0 scores, three others were 8-1, and the only close match was a 5-4 win over Michigan, the Big Ten champion. The unbeaten season was the fifth of Notre Dame's six perfect seasons and the first of two under legendary coach Tom Fallon.

1992 NCAA RUNNERS-UP

Notre Dame wrote another chapter in its NCAA tennis history of success, as the Irish and top-ranked All-American David DiLucia stormed to the NCAA championship match in 1992. The 10th-seeded Irish were the lowest seed and first Northern team to reach the national title match since the current format was adopted in 1977.

After finishing the regular season with a 20-3 record, Notre Dame split the six singles matches with seventhseeded Mississippi in its first-round contest. The Irish won in straight sets at No. 2 and No. 3 doubles to advance to the quarterfinals for the first time.

Notre Dame next faced host and third-seeded Georgia. The Irish built a 4-2 lead after singles. The Bulldogs rallied to knot the match at 4-4 after doubles wins at No. 1 and 3, but the Irish doubles team of Will Forsyth and Andy Zurcher clinched another upset with a 7-6 (7-5), 7-6 (7-5) win at No. 2.

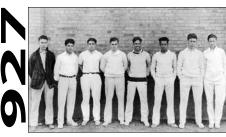

Top-ranked and defending champion USC awaited Notre Dame in the semifinals with a 21-2 record. The Irish won two of the first three matches to take the lead and then won three different three-set matches to pull the 5-1 upset before doubles commenced.

Second-seeded Stanford stopped Notre Dame's Cinderella run in the title match with a 5-0 win. The Cardinal won two three-set matches to help clinch the championship.

Davis Cup

NOTRE DAME IN THE DAVIS CUP

Since the arrival of head coach Bob Bayliss, various players have represented their native lands in the Davis Cup -- the world-wide team tennis competition that has been contested for over a century.

In recent decades, three Notre Dame players – Allan Lopez (94) of El Salvador, Javier Taborga (02) of Bolivia and Luis Haddock ('04) of Puerto Rico – have competed in Davis Cup action, while David DiLucia ('92) was a member of the prestigious United States team, though he never saw action. Irackli Akhvlediani was invited to play for his native Georgia in 2004, but he declined because of academic conflicts. Most recently, Barry King ('07) played in all of Ireland's Davis Cup matches in 2010 and 2011. King went 3-3 during those two years, including clinching the match against Tunisia when the score was knotted at two. He played Na. 2 singles in 2011.

Taborga established himself as the most prolific Davis Cup player in Bolivian history. In five years of competition (1998-99, 2002-04), he holds a 21-15 (11-7 singles, 10-8 doubles) record. His victory total is the most for any Bolivian in the Davis Cup, while his 23 career ties played also are tops for his country. Taborga and Alberto Sottocomo stand as the best Bolivian doubles team, as they were unbeaten in five Davis Cup matches.

During his final season at Notre Dame, Taborga played in the Davis Cup and went unbeaten in both singles (4-0) and doubles (3-0) in helping Bolivia to a 4-0 record that moved it up to Group III of the Americas Zone. In his last Davis Cup performance, Taborga was 2-3 in singles and 2-2 in doubles in '04, as Bolivia won two of five ties in Group III action in Honduras. In '98, Taborga notched a 6-3, 6-2 win against Haddock in Davis Cup doubles action in Bolivia.

Haddock holds the distinction of being the youngest player in Puerto Rico history to play in the Davis Cup, as he made his debut at the age of 16 in 1998. He has participated in all but one Davis Cup (2001) through 2004, and his six career appearances tie him with Gabriel Montilla as the most by any Puerto Rican. Haddock's 13-12 career record (10-9 singles, 3-3 doubles) place him behind only Montilla in career wins in the event. His Davis Cup career was highlighted by helping Puerto Rico post 10 consecutive wins from 1998-2000 en route to moving up to Group III. He then went 3-1 in singles play in 2003, as Puerto Rico was unbeaten in four matches to move up to Group II of the Americas Zone. In 2004, Haddock lost to former University of Florida standout Mark Merklein (who won the NCAA singles title at the Courtney Tennis Center in 1994) of the Bahamas in the Group Il quarterfinals in February. He then went on to avenge a 2000 Davis Cup loss to Jamaica's Ryan Russell in relegation play in April.

> During his final two collegiate seasons, Lopez became the first Bayliss-era player to compete in the Davis Cup. He compiled a 6-8 record (0-3 singles, 6-5 doubles) in Americas Zone Group III action, helping El Salvador to a 5-2 record in 1993 and a 3-1 mark in '94.

After just one season as a full-time professional, King moved into position to be a Davis Cup participant for Ireland by vaulting up 567 places in the ATP rankings (from 1,202 to 635 in 2009). King graduated from the Mendoza College of Business as a finance major and worked in Dublin's financial sector until the fall of 2008, when he then chose to focus on professional tennis. The switch has led to some great results as a professional, including a second-place finish at an ATP Futures Tour event in June of 2009.

Five-time All-American David DiLucia — who served as the personal coach for then-#1 Lindsay Davenport before her retirement — was ranked #1 in the nation in both singles and doubles during his career at Notre Dame, which culminated with him leading the Irish to the championship match of the 1992 NCAA tournament. He was inducted into the ITA Hall of Fame in 2008.

Irish All-American

In the history of men's tennis varsity competition at Notre Dame, 17 different Irish players have earned All-America honors on 32 occasions, spanning from 1944 to 2010. While All-Americans were determined by an NCAA committee for most of the 20th century, the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) adopted specific criteria for the honor in 1977

The governing body of collegiate tennis each year bestows All-America honors upon all players who meet at least one of three criteria in singles or doubles. In singles, an individual must: 1) finish in the top 20 of the final ITA national singles rankings: 2) earn one of the 16 seeds in the NCAA Singles Championship; or 3) advance to the round of 16 in the NCAA Singles Championship. To earn All-America mention in doubles, a team must: 1) finish in top 10 of the final ITA national doubles rankings; 2) earn one of the eight seeds in the NCAA Doubles Championship; or 3) advance to the guarterfinals in the NCAA Doubles Championship.

David DiLucia ('92) is the only Irish player to earn All-America honors on five occasions, gaining mention in singles from 1990-92 and in doubles in the latter two seasons. Four players have gained All-America mention in three different years. Joining DiLucia are Don Ralph (1959-61), Chuck Coleman (1991-93), and Ryan Sachire (1998-2000). The only players to earn All-America honors in both singles and doubles in the same season are DiLucia (1991 & '92) and Javier Taborga (2002).

Irish Honors

Byron V. Kanaley Award

The most-prestigious honor awarded to a Notre Dame student-athlete, the Byron V. Kanaley Award has been presented each year since 1927 to senior monogram athletes who have been exemplary as students and leaders.

The awards, presented by the Faculty Board on Athletics, are named in honor of a 1904 Notre Dame graduate who was a member of the Irish baseball team as an undergraduate. Kanaley went on to a successful banking career in Chicago and served the University as a lay trustee from 1915 until his death in 1960.

Nine members of the Notre Dame men's tennis team have received the award, including Luis Haddock in 2004 and Brent D'Amico in '05.

Francis Patrick 0'Connor Award

First presented in 1993, the Francis Patrick O'Connor

Award is named in honor of a former Notre Dame wrestler who died in 1973 following his freshman year at Notre Dame. The award is presented upon nomination of head coaches and is given to one male and one female student-athlete who best display the total embodiment of the true spirit of Notre Dame as exemplified by their contribution and inspiration to their teams and who possess such characteristics as caring, courage, confidence, encouragement, humility, honesty, humor, kindness and patience. Brian Patterson became the first men's tennis player to receive the Francis Patrick O'Connor Award, in 1999. Sheeva Parbhu (pictured) won the award in 2008.

Notre Dame in the NCAA Tournament

The University of Notre Dame men's tennis team has advanced to the NCAA Championship in 21 of the last 22 years, making it one of only 11 Division I teams to hold that distinction. The run has been highlighted by a trip to the championship match in 1992 – the first by a Northern school since the inception of the team tournament – and an appearance in the quarterfinals in 1993, as well as four other trips to the round of 16.

Notre Dame won the NCAA Championship in 1959, along with Tulane, when the tournament was based on points gained from individual singles and doubles victories. The Irish also tied with Texas and Miami (Fla.) to win the national title in 1944, when only wins from the guarterfinals or later counted as team points. Notre Dame finished in the top 10 at the NCAAs 17 times from 1943-67. In 1977, the NCAA Championship became a 20-team event with all teams picked on an at-large basis. In 1994, the event developed into a regional format with the top eight teams in the country and eight regional winners advancing to a bracket of 16, which was played at a national site. In 1999, the championship expanded to 64 teams, dropped the regional format and implemented first- and second-round matches at 16 campus sites for every team in the championship.

NCAA Team Championship

Irish in the NCAA Singles & Doubles Championships

Notre Dame has had a number of outstanding results in the individual NCAA tournaments. Prior to 1977, the NCAA Championship consisted of a singles and doubles draw, with players earning points for their teams with victories. Jim Evert, whose daughter Chris went on to be the world's No. 1 player and win 18 grand-slam singles titles, was the first Irish player to score a point in the NCAA Championship when he reached the singles semifinals in 1943. A year later, Charles Samson advanced to the singles title match before losing to three-time champ Pancho Segura. Also in 1944, a year in which Notre Dame won the national title. Samson and Jerry Evert (brother of Jim) made the doubles semifinals before bowing out. After both served time in the military, the Evert brothers teamed up in 1948 to reach that same round in the NCAAs.

The best singles result by an Irish player under the old format after the 1940s was a semifinal finish by Maxwell Brown in 1959, while he and Bill Heinbecker posted the all-time best Notre Dame doubles result that same year, advancing to the final before losing to Tulane's pair of Crawford Henry and Ronald Holmberg.

In 1977, the NCAA adopted a separate team tournament and limited the singles and doubles draws to 64 and 32 entrants. respectively. (They had previously been open to an unlimited number of participants.) Under the new format, Notre Dame has qualified 14 singles players and 13 doubles teams to the NCAAs, with all but two singles entrants coming since 1990. The 14 singles players have combined for a total of 24 NCAA Singles Championship appearances. Five times Irish players have advanced to the Round of 16, including on three occasions by David DiLucia. Sheeva Parbhu became the first Notre Dame player to reach the guarterfinals under the current format. In doubles, Andy Zurcher and Todd Wilson posted the best result, reaching the semifinals in front of a home crowd in 1994.

Conference Dominance

Following 60 years competing as an independent, the University of Notre Dame men's tennis team has had incredible success in conference action. The Irish have been league champions 14 times, including a streak of eight consecutive conference titles from 1988-89 to 1995-96. In its second stint in the league (four straight top-three finishes from 1982-83 to 1985-86 when it was called the Midwestern City Conference), Notre Dame won seven Midwestern Collegiate Conference titles from 1988-89 to 1994-95. Since becoming a member of the BIG EAST Conference in the 1995-96 season, the Irish have reached the title match of the league tournament all but one season, daiming seven titles. Overall, Notre Dame has a 50-13 (.794) all-time mark against league rivals, including a 16-match winning streak from 1982-97.

Ten members of the BIG EAST Conference - Connecticut. DePaul, Georgetown, Louisville, Marguette, Notre Dame, Rutgers, South Florida, St. John's, and Villanova - field teams in men's tennis, but the league does not require round-robin competition during the season. ND has an alltime record of 104-6 (.945) against those teams. The top eight squads, as selected by the conference based on national ranking and head-to-head results, earn invitations to the year-end BIG EAST Championship, a single-elimination team tournament with the winner earning the league's automatic berth in the NCAA Championship. The 2011 BIG EAST Championship will take place April 28-30 in Notre Dame, Ind. as the Irish play host to the event. Prior to 2001, all 10 teams gualified for the conference tournament. with the top two seeds gaining byes into the guarterfinals. From 2002-05, the event featured the top six squads, again with two teams gaining byes. For more information on the BIG EAST Conference, see page 68.

Notre Dame faced Miami in eight straight BIG EAST finals (1996-2003), before upsetting top-seeded Virginia Tech in 2004 and beating Rutgers in the '05 title match. The Irish won three times (1996, '99, 2002) against the Hurricanes (who hosted the event until leaving the conference after the 2003-04 season). The '03 final was rained out in progress, with conference policy awarding the NCAA automatic berth to the top-seeded Hurricanes. In 17 early-round matches (first round though semifinals), Notre Dame has an 18-1 record. Additionally, the Irish have been the top seed heading into the tournament ten times.

Courtney Tennis Center

Notre Dame's Courtney Tennis Center, the home of Irish tennis since its construction in 1967, has played host to the nation's top players on a number of occasions, while becoming an extremely difficult place for opposing teams to win.

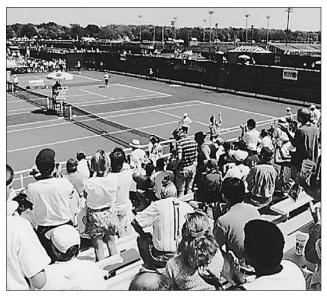

Due to its exceptional facilities, Notre Dame has played host to a number of prestigious events, including serving as the national site of the NCAA Championships three times. Just four years after it was built, the Courtney Tennis Center played host to the 1971 NCAA Division I Men's Tennis Championships, which featured what is still considered by coaches to be the finest collection of collegiate tennis talent ever assembled. In that spring classic, freshman Jimmy Connors of UCLA defeated Stanford's Roscoe Tanner in five sets to capture the singles title. That pair would go on to reach a combined 17 grand slam singles finals on the pro tour, including eight victories. The Bruins swept all three titles, claiming their 10th team national championship (besting runner-up Trinity University) and having Haroon Rahim and Jeff Browiak win the doubles championship.

The NCAA tournament came to Notre Dame again in 1994, and USC won its third national championship in four years by outlasting Stanford in the title match by a 4-3 score. Mark Merklein of the University of Florida won the singles championship, and Mississippi State's Laurent Miguelard and Joc Simmons captured the doubles title, though the Notre Dame pair of former walk-ons Andy Zurcher and Todd Wilson reached the semifinals. It marked just the third different site to play host to the NCAA Championships since the current team format was established in 1977. The NCAA Women's Tennis Championships came to Notre Dame in 1998, making it the northernmost site ever to play host to that event.

In all, the Courtney Tennis Center has played host to NCAA action on 14 occasions, including every year from 1994-2002 for either men's or women's play. Most recently, the Courtney Tennis Center hosted the first and seconds rounds of the 2009 NCAA Women's Tennis Championship. It has been the site of conference championships on nine occasions (three North Star, six Midwestern Collegiate), as well as an Intercollegiate Tennis Association Summer Circuit event for 10 straight years (1994-2003). The Courtney Tennis Center also has played host to a fall tournament since 1970, being the site of the Irish Fall Invitational until 1986 and of the Tom Fallon Invitational since then.

The Irish played nearly exclusively at the Courtney Tennis Center until the Eck Tennis Pavilion was completed in 1988. The indoor facility now has become the predominant location of Notre Dame's home matches, while the Courtney Tennis Center remains a regular site for lateseason matches and NCAA competition, as well as continuing to be an integral practice facility during both the fall and spring.

Since 1991, a total of 23 top-25 opponents

The Courtney Tennis Center hosted the 1994 NCAA Championships and was also the site of the '71 championships, when then-freshman Jimmy Connors of UCLA defeated Stanford's Roscoe Tanner for the national singles title have left Notre Dame with a loss. The Irish knocked off five top-25 foes at home in 2007, including a 6-1 victory over eighth ranked Duke and a 5-2 triumph over eventual NCAA runnerup Illinois (also ranked eighth). Among the other huge home wins have been five upsets of top-15 foes, including a 4-3 decision against #9 Illinois in the Eck Tennis Pavilion in March of 2009.

Since opening, the Courtney Tennis Center has undergone a variety of improvements. Most recently, 14 of the courts were newly resurfaced during the summer of 2008 and the facility was reoriented in the winter of 2004 as construction began on the neighboring Guglielmino Family Athletics Center. That undertaking saw the construction of a new tournament center tower, while the seating was moved from the west to the east end, which now plays host to varsity matches, making it more convenient for the teams headquartered in the Eck Tennis Pavilion. The reoriented Courtney Tennis Center, which features 14 courts, saw its first varsity men's action at the 2004 Tom Fallon Invitational.

The home of Irish tennis for nearly 40 years, the construction of Courtney Tennis Center was financed entirely by prominent Washington, D.C., attorney Jeremiah Courtney. The numerous courts and brand-new laykold surface make it a popular spot for students and faculty, as well as the varsity tennis teams. Courtney is a 1932 graduate of Columbia University, where he captained the tennis team. His two sons attended Notre Dame and played tennis under legendary coach Tom Fallon.

The first home of Irish tennis was the Notre Dame Fieldhouse, which played host to Irish home matches until the Courtney Tennis Center was built. The structure was razed in 1983. Indoor courts in Notre Dame's Joyce Center also were used sporadically before the Eck Tennis Pavilion's construction.

Eck Pavilion Tennis

Since its completion in June of 1987, Notre Dame's Eck Tennis Pavilion has been an integral part of the success of Irish tennis, allowing the team to practice year-round, regardless of weather conditions, and providing an alternative surface to further develop the all-around skills of Notre Dame's players. Additionally, it has become an extremely-difficult place for sopponents to be victorious and has attracted some of the top events in collegiate tennis.

In 20 years of action in the Eck Tennis Pavilion, the Irish have compiled a 159-46 record for a .776 winning percentage. Notre Dame has been unbeaten in the building four times (7-0 in 1992, 10-0 in 2002, 7-0 in 2006 and 9-0 in 2007), and has lost just once in a season on six other occasions. The Irish have posted a losing record in the Eck Tennis Pavilion in only one season since its opening.

The combination of the Eck Tennis Pavilion and Courtney Tennis Center has allowed the University of Notre Dame to play host to a number of prestigious events, including serving as the national site of the NCAA Championships. The event came to Notre Dame in 1994, and USC won its third national championship in four years by outlasting Stanford in the title match by a 4-3 score. Eck Classic: (W) 1988-2002, '04, '06, '10 Dame in 1998, making it the northernmost site ever to play host to that event.

In all, Notre Dame has been the site of NCAA action on 14 occasions, including every year from 1994-2002 for either men's or women's play. The Eck Tennis Pavilion has three times welcomed the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's Midwest Region Indoor Championships and six times helped play host to the Midwestern Collegiate Conference Championship. The facility has provided additional courts for the men's Tom Fallon Invitational and has been the home of the women's Eck Classic for 17 years.

Since 1991, a total of 23 top-25 opponents have left Notre Dame with a loss. Among Notre Dame's huge home wins have been three upsets of top-15 foes, including a 4-3 decision against #8 Duke in the Eck Tennis Pavilion in 1997. On Jan. 29, 2005, the facility was the site for Notre Dame's 1,000th all-time men's tennis victory, a 5-2 upset of #18 North Carolina that allowed the Irish to join the Tar Heels in the elite group of then just seven schools with 1,000-plus alltime wins.

The summer of 2003 saw the Eck Pavilion newly renovated, as all six courts were resurfaced (changing them from red to green) and the color scheme was changed to blue and gold throughout the building. Among the other highlights were numerous pieces of new wood furniture, as well as additional trophy cases and other accessories. The facility features the offices for both the men's and women's tennis coaches, as well as locker rooms for both teams, and a spacious spectator viewing area upstairs that is ideally suited for videotaping.

"It is truly one of the great collegiate indoor tennis facilities in the country," says Irish head coach Bob Bayliss.

In September 1988, the Eck Pavilion received the United States Tennis Association (USTA) Award for architectural design. As a result, the USTA presented the facility with a handsome wooden plaque, a large sign placed in front of the pavilion and a complimentary one-year membership in the USTA. The facility and its award are recognized in an inscription on a large mahogany board displayed in the lobby of the USTA National Tennis Center in Flushing Meadow, N.Y.

The facility was underwritten by Franklin E. Eck. He was chairman and chief executive officer of Advanced Drainage Systems, Inc., which produces corrugated plastic drainage pipe for agricultural and commercial purposes. A 1944 chemical engineering graduate of Notre Dame, Eck earned an M.B.A. from Harvard University in 1949. In 1984, he endowed a collection in Notre Dame's Hesburgh Library. The generosity of Eck also made possible the addition of Notre Dame's baseball facility, Frank Eck Stadium, and the Eck Visitor's Center.

The Eck Tennis Pavilion is the third facility to play host to indoor Irish tennis action. The Notre Dame Fieldhouse, which was razed in 1983, was the first home of Notre Dame's varsity team, and the Irish also sporadically used courts in the Joyce Center.

Five-time All-American David DiLucia plays in the Eck Tennis Pavilion in front of 1,100 fans against Stanford.

After losing the the first four matches in the program's varsity history, the 1924 team (Frank Donovan and Herman Centilivre in front and Tony Gonzales and Mike Velasco in the back) registered the first of more than 1,000 Irish victories - a 2-0 triumph over Wabash College.

Jerry Evert, who was 52-0 (26-0 singles, 26-0 doubles) in dual-match action during his career, helped Notre Dame compile a pair of unbeaten campaigns in 1944 (9-0) and '47 (8-0).

Sheeva Parbhu finished his Irish career with a combined 197 wins (121 in singles, 76 in doubles) to rank fourth on the all-time list for victories in a Notre Dame uniform.

Irish in the Pros

RYAN SACHIRE

Notre Dame players have a long history of going on to play professional tennis. Jim Evert, an All-American who reached the singles semifinals of the NCAA Championship in 1943, was ranked as high as eighth in the United States as a professional, in 1952. His daughter, Chris, went on to be the world's No. 1 player, winning 18 grand-slam singles titles.

Among other former Notre Dame players to play professionally were two from the 1960s. A first-team All-American as a member of the Irish, Bill Brown ('67) had some success professionally upon graduation only to be followed into the pros by one of his teammates. Jasjit Singh, a 1968 graduate from India, remains the only Sikh to have played in all four professional grand-slam tournaments (Australian Open, French Open, Wimbledon, U.S. Open). In 1974, he was ranked 70th in the world by the Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP).

A total of 15 individuals who played under Bob Bayliss have gone on to dabble in professional careers. The most successful of that group was David DiLucia, a 1992 graduate who appeared in the singles main draw in each of the four grand slams. Ranked 92nd in the world in doubles in 1998, he went on to clinch the 2001 World Team Tennis title for the Philadelphia Freedoms and was the personal coach of Lindsay Davenport, the world's #1 women's player.

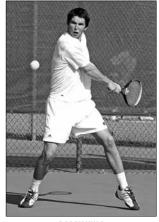

Six recent Irish graduates have been active in pro tennis. Ryan Sachire ('00) – now an assistant coach for the Irish – was the most successful, dimbing to 180th in the world in doubles before retiring in 2005. During his pro career, he captured 16 tournament titles (14 futures, two challengers) in doubles and a pair in singles (both futures). Among American pros, Sachire was in the top 35 in singles and top 30 in doubles.

Among other recent players, 2002 graduate Javier Taborga won three futures doubles titles, while his classmate, Casey Smith, and '01 grad Matt Daly had one each to their credit. Aaron Talarico ('02) and Matthew Scott ('04) both reached the semifinals in doubles in futures events, as well.

While in the midst of his first year on tour, Sheeva Parbhu ('08) found himself matched up against another former Irish player, Barry King ('07), in March of 2009. Parbhu defeated King 6-4, 7-6(7) to advance to the round of 16. King later found success as he advanced to the finals of a $15,000 ATP Futures tour event in June, marking his best finish as a professional. Stephen Bass ('07) continues to improve his ATP ranking as he recently concluded his second year on tour.

The BIG EAST Conference

The 2012-13 academic year is the 34th in the history of The BIG EAST Conference as the unique consortium marches on competing at the highest level with integrity and sportsmanship.

The BIG EAST has gone through membership changes since its birth and continues to make strides in improving the quality and depth of the storied league.

The BIG EAST Conference has been always been driven by lofty goals. The outstanding performances of the student-athletes at BIG EAST schools are evidence of the league's proud tradition of success. The league has always been able to boast that many of its best students are also its best athletes. The 2011-12 year was no different.

In the athletic arena, BIG EAST studentathletes again enjoyed success on the national stage. The Georgetown women's cross country team captured its first NCAA Championship. The win by the Hoyas marked the third-straight vear a BIG EAST team has won the women's cross country championship, with Villanova winning the past two. The Louisville men's basketball team advanced to the Final Four in New Orleans. Connecticut field hockey reached the NCAA semifinals, as did the Notre Dame men's lacrosse team. The Irish women's basketball team and Syracuse women's lacrosse team each reached the NCAA finals. USF softball reached the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla., for the first time in program history.

The BIG EAST placed two teams in the NCAA Women's Final Four for the third time in the last four years as Connecticut joined Notre Dame in Denver, with the Fighting Irish advancing to the national title game for the second-straight year.

BIG EAST student-athletes won five NCAA championships. Sheila Reid won her second-straight NCAA Women's Cross Country title. Syracuse hurdler Jarret Eaton won the 60-meter hurdle championship in the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championship. Notre Dame won the distance medley relay at the same championship. Georgetown's Emily Infeld won the 3,000-meter run. Carlos Almeida of Louisville won the 200-yard breastbroke at the NCAA Swimming & Diving Championships.

BIG EAST football maintained its national profile as a competitively balanced group. Three BIG EAST teams won bowl games, while the BIG EAST representative in the Bowl Championship Series won its bowl game for the fourth time in the last seven years- a streak that includes wins against the ACC, Big 12 and SEC champions.

The BIG EAST became the nation's largest Division I-A conference in 2005-06 when five new members began competing – the University of Cincinnati, DePaul University, the University of Louisville, Marquette University and the University of South Florida.

BIG EAST institutions reside in 18 of the nation's top 50 largest media markets, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Tampa, Pittsburgh, Hartford, Cincinnati and Milwaukee. With its newest members, BIG EAST markets contain more than one-fourth of all television households in the U.S. The BIG EAST will welcome UCF, Houston, Memphis, SMU and Temple in all sports in 2013-14. Temple football will join the league in 2012, with Boise State and San Diego State joining the following year and Navy in 2015.

Since opening its doors in 1979, the league has won 32 national championships in six different sports and 137 student-athletes have won individual national titles through 2011-12.

BIG EAST basketball squads have captured 11 titles in the last 13 years. In 2003-04, Connecticut became the first school in NCAA history to win the men's and women's NCAA basketball titles in the same season. In '02-03, the BIG EAST became the first conference in NCAA history to win the men's and women's titles in the same year when the Syracuse men and the Connecticut women captured their respective national championships. The BIG EAST placed three men's basketball teams in the Final Four in 1985, the only time this has occurred in NCAA history.

Proactive movement has been a signature strategy for the conference that was born in 1979. The BIG EAST continually turns challenges into opportunities to become stronger. The conference currently crowns champions in 24 sports.

The BIG EAST became a reality on May 31, 1979, following a meeting of athletic directors from Providence College, St. John's, Georgetown and Syracuse universities. Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College completed the original seven school alliance.

While the membership has both increased and changed, the focus of the BIG EAST has not wavered. The conference reflects a tradition of broad based programs, led by administrators and coaches who place a constant emphasis on academic integrity. Its student athletes own significantly high graduation rates and their record of scholastic achievement notably show a balance between intercollegiate athletics and academics.

Any successful organization has had the good fortune to have outstanding leadership. The BIG EAST primarily was the brainchild of Dave Gavitt, who was the conference's first Commissioner. Michael Tranghese, the league's first full-time employee, and for 11 years the associate to Gavitt, became Commissioner in 1990. In his first year, he administered the formation of The BIG EAST Football Conference. John Marinatto was the third commissioner of the BIG EAST, serving from 2009-2012, after seven years as the conference's senior associate commissioner.

The league has long been considered a leader in innovative concepts in promotion and publicity, particularly regarding television. Those efforts have resulted in unparalleled visibility for BIG EAST student athletes. The conference has enjoyed longstanding relationships with CBS, ESPN, Inc. and ABC.

BIG EAST men's basketball games are regular sellouts at campus and major public arenas, including the annual men's BIG EAST Championship in Madison Square Garden. The women's basketball championship has led all conferences in attendance for the past nine years. Attendance figures also are significant in soccer and baseball.

The BIG EAST has its headquarters in Providence where the conference administers to more than 5,500 student-athletes.
