When Father Edward F. Sorin started his school in the northern Indiana wilderness, he had only $300, three log buildings badly in need of repair and a far-sighted vision of establishing a liberal arts school to meet the growing educational needs of the frontier. He dreamed of building a great university, and in 1842, he founded the University of Notre Dame du Lac.

Over the years, the University of Notre Dame du Lac would evolve into a preeminent place for Catholic thought. While becoming one of the top undergraduate institutions in the country, Notre Dame has also been at the cutting edge of research, including such innovations as the transmission of wireless messages and the development of synthetic rubber. Today researchers are achieving breakthroughs in astrophysics, radiation chemistry, environmental sciences, tropical disease transmission, cancer, robotics, and nanoelectronics.

The University has also stressed residential life, with four-of-five students living on campus in the school's 29 residence halls that serve as the focal point of social, spiritual and athletic activities. Notre Dame is one of a handful of universities with a truly international student body, coming from over 100 nations and all 50 states. Students come to Notre Dame not only to learn how to think, but to learn how to live, keeping faith with the vision of Fr. Sorin.

Notre Dame is one of the few universities to regularly rank in the top 25 in the U.S. News & World Report survey of America's best colleges and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Directors' Cup standings of the best overall athletics programs. The University ranks first among all Catholic universities worldwide, according to the 2011 Times Higher Education survey and the Mendoza College of Business at Notre Dame boasts the No. 1 undergraduate business program in the nation according to BusinessWeek magazine.

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C.
President

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., is in his second five-year term as the 17th president of the University of Notre Dame. His vision is for Notre Dame to be the Catholic research university for our time – an institution that unifies, enlightens and heals by engaging in scholarship of the first rank while maintaining its distinctive Catholic character and long-time excellence in undergraduate education.

During his tenure, Notre Dame has made significant progress toward its research goal, including selection as the lead partner in the Midwest Institute for Nanoelectronics Discovery, the creation of the Innovation Park research facility, and the construction of Stinson Remick Hall of Engineering.

His commitment to undergraduate education has been marked by the Notre Dame Forums, yearlong initiatives that have examined important issues such as religion and world conflict, global health, immigration and energy.

The University's Catholic identity has been strengthened during Father Jenkins's tenure in multiple ways, including the appointment of a coordinator for University life initiatives and the construction of multimillion-dollar facilities for the Institute for Church Life, including the Center for Social Concerns, and the Institute for Educational Initiatives, which includes the Alliance for Catholic Education.

Father Jenkins earned bachelor's and master's degrees in philosophy from Notre Dame in 1976 and 1978, respectively, and was ordained a priest of the Congregation of Holy Cross in 1983. He holds advanced degrees from Oxford and the Jesuit School of Theology. He is a professor of philosophy and the author of Knowledge and Faith in

Thomas Aquinas.

A native of Omaha, Neb., Father Jenkins was born Dec. 17, 1953.

Jack Swarbrick

Vice President • Director of Athletics

John B. "Jack" Swarbrick Jr., a University of Notre Dame graduate now in his sixth year in 2013-14 as vice president and director of athletics at his alma mater, has attached his signature to a variety of new initiatives during his tenure:

- * Launching of Fighting Irish Digital Media—a major enterprise that delivers better information about and access to Notre Dame and its athletic programs via expanded production and distribution of programming.

- * Championing a feasibility study that potentially would add multiple elements to Notre Dame Stadium, including a student center, facilities for digital media operations, academic and classroom spaces, hospitality locations, plus premium seating options for football games.

- * Creation of new community outreach and youth programming functions through the student-athlete welfare and development office.

- * Building of student-athlete programs and services that expand recognition of high academic achievement—and mentor and facilitate career development.

- * Meeting the performance needs of Notre Dame student-athletes through establishment of a new sports performance division.

- * Reaching out to more former Irish student-athletes, via the Notre Dame Monogram Club and other programs.

In 2012-13 alone, Swarbrick played a major role in three significant announcements that positively impacted Notre Dame on the national collegiate scene:

- Creation of the four-team College Football Playoff to begin with the 2014 season, with Notre Dame maintaining viable access into that system.

- Membership for Notre Dame's athletic teams (all but hockey) in the Atlantic Coast Conference beginning with the 2013-14 athletic seasons. In football, Notre Dame will play five games per year against ACC opponents beginning in 2014 and also have full access to the league's list of postseason bowl options.

- An extension of the University's relationship with NBC Sports through the 2025 football season.

Swarbrick's first five years combined featured a variety of on-and-off-the-field Notre Dame athletics successes:

- * Number-one rankings for Notre Dame (among Football Bowl Subdivision schools) in the six most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) surveys—in 2012 at 99 for all-student-athletes (including football number one at 97, in the fourth consecutive year Notre Dame stood atop that chart).

- * Record involvement in community service hours by Irish student-athletes.

- * An appearance in the Bowl Championship Series football title game following the 2012 season—in an unprecedented year in which the Irish finished the regular season 12-0 to rank number one in the final BCS poll while also ranking number one in the GSR standings.

- * NCAA championships in 2011 in fencing (a men's and women's combined championship) and 2010 in women's soccer.

- * NCAA runner-up team finishes in 2013 in fencing, 2012 and 2011 in women's basketball, 2010 in men's lacrosse, 2009 in fencing and 2008 in women's soccer.

- * NCAA semifinal appearances in women's basketball in 2013, men's lacrosse in 2012, hockey in 2011, women's tennis in both 2009 and 2010 and women's soccer in 2009, plus 2010 and 2012 third-place fencing finishes.

- * Consensus national coach-of-the-year honors for Muffet McGraw in women's basketball in 2012-13, Brian Kelly in football in 2012, Randy Waldrum in women's soccer in both 2010 and 2009 and for Mike Brey in men's basketball in 2010-11.

- * A 2011 Hall of Fame induction for Muffet McGraw, a Hermann Trophy for women's soccer national player of the year Kerri Hanks in 2008—plus an unprecedented sweep of seven national individual football awards by Manti Te'o in 2012.

- * Construction of the 5,022-seat Compton Family Ice Arena that opened for the 2011-12 season and features two sheets of ice (one Olympic sized). The 2009-10 school year also featured dedications of new facilities for soccer and lacrosse—as well as opening of the new Purcell Pavilion within the south dome of the Joyce Center.

Before coming back to Notre Dame, Swarbrick rose to national prominence as a lawyer, consultant and executive in the collegiate and Olympic sports industries

Born in Yonkers, N.Y., and raised in Yonkers and Bloomington, Ind., he is a 1976 magna cum laude graduate of Notre Dame with a bachelor's degree in economics. Upon graduating from Stanford University Law School in 1980, he returned to Indiana to accept a position as an associate in the Indianapolis law firm Baker & Daniels, one of the largest in the state. He was made partner in 1987 and spent 28 years with the firm.

As a member of the Indiana Sports Corporation, including the chairmanship from 1992 to 2001, Swarbrick led many of Indianapolis' successful proposals to a wide array of athletics organizations—from the National Football League (NFL) to the United States Olympic Committee (USOC) to the Big Ten Conference. His leadership efforts resulted in the city:

- * Earning the right to play host to the 2012 Super Bowl in Indianapolis at Lucas Oil Stadium.

- * Becoming the home of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) national headquarters in 1999.

- * Hosting the 1987 Pan American Games, where Swarbrick served as the director of competition.

- * Hosting the 1991 World Gymnastics Championships.

- * Hosting NCAA Men's Basketball Final Fours and other college championship competitions and a wide array of national and world championships in the Olympic sports.

- * Securing rights to host the Big Ten Conference men's and women's basketball tournaments at Consecro Fieldhouse for five consecutive years beginning in 2008.

At Baker & Daniels Swarbrick served as general counsel for numerous national governing bodies of Olympic sports, including USA Gymnastics, and as a consultant to various bid cities and host committees for Olympic Games and world championships.

In his work as an advisor to the NCAA, Swarbrick coordinated the men's College Basketball Partnership, an NCAA-led group that addresses the opportunities and challenges in the sport; developed the business plan for the new NBA/NCAA youth basketball enterprise, iHoops; served as a member of the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group, and chaired the NCAA/USOC task force dedicated to developing proposals to expand sponsorship of Olympic sports among NCAA member institutions.

In 2000 Swarbrick received one of the NCAA's highest honors, The Flying Wedge Award, for his work in establishing Indianapolis as the new home of the NCAA. In 2001 he was honored by the State of Indiana with the Sagamore of the Wabash Award. In 2002 he received the Pathfinder Award from Youthlinks Indiana for his service to youth in the state of Indiana.

He received an honorary monogram from the Notre Dame Monogram Club in 2012.

Born March 19, 1954, Swarbrick was named Notre Dame's 12th athletics director on July 16, 2008.

He and his wife, Kimberly, are the parents of four children: Kate, a 2010 graduate of St. Louis University; Connor, a 2011 graduate of Wake Forest University; Cal, a senior at TCU; and Christopher, a University of Notre Dame junior.

GIVE A GIFT and LEAVE A LEGACY

Over 700 student-athletes on 26 varsity teams excelling in academics, spirituality, community service and athletics - all made possible courtesy of the generous alumni, parents and friends who support Notre Dame's first athletics annual fund - the Rockne Heritage Fund.

The culmination of these gifts assists the University in underwriting athletics scholarships that are the lifeblood of every program that wants to recruit the best and the brightest and compete for national championships.

Our work has just begun. Scholarships are one of the largest line items in the athletic department's operating budget, accounting for roughly $18 million annually.

Levels of Giving

No minimum donation is required to join the Rockne Heritage Fund. Every gift matters and is impactful. All donors receive a quarterly e-newsletter, an invitation to the RHF Blue/Gold Tailgate and 2 tickets to the spring football game.

Donors contributing at the recognition society levels - the Director's Circle Traditional level ($1,500) or Irish Legends level ($5,000, $10,000 or more) - receive a corresponding benefits package. More information on the privileges of membership can be found at our website: und.com/rockneheritagefund.

Make a Gift Today

- Send a check payable to the Rockne Heritage Fund; P.O. Box 519; Notre Dame, IN 46556.
- Visit online: supporting.nd.edu and include "Rockne Heritage Fund" in the comments section.
- Gifts can also be specific to any of the 26 varsity sports - Rockne Softball, Rockne Hockey, Rockne Men's Tennis, etc.
- Specify if your employer will match your gift.
- Notre Dame employees may request a payroll deduction form.
- All contributions to the Rockne Heritage Fund are credited toward eligibility in the football ticket lottery.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Fighting Irish

Season In Review

Notre Dame captured its fifth BIG EAST title in program history in 2013 as the Irish posted the best score ever in the 11-year history of the championship.

2012-13 Season In Review

The University of Notre Dame women's golf team capped off the 2012-13 campaign with the program's fifth BIG EAST championship crown that earned the squad its sixth straight NCAA regional appearance and eighth overall.

The Irish pulled off a monumental feat at the '13 BIG EAST Championship held for the second consecutive year at the Reunion Resort in Orlando, Fla., en route to capturing its third crown in the last six years. Trailing Louisville by seven strokes following the opening round, the Irish held a one-stroke lead after the second round before taking home the crown with a 14-stroke victory.

Notre Dame carded a three-day total of a six-under-par 861 (294-285-282) in the 54-hole event. The three-round total ranked as the best team score ever fired in the 11-year history of the championship and stands as the second-best team round shot since the program's inaugural year in 1988.

On the individual side, freshman Talia Campbell (Dallas, Texas) and Lindsey Weaver (Scottsdale, Ariz.) shared co-medalist honors with a three-day 210 total. The six-under-par 210 outing also set a BIG EAST Championship record for the lowest 54-hole individual round ever fired at the event.

Ashley Armstrong (Flossmoor, Ill.) placed fifth (219/+3). The finish was the fifth-straight tournament in which Campbell and Armstrong finished 19th or better amongst their competitors.

Kristina Nhim (Cypress, Calif.) placed 8th (222/+6) and extended her streak of finishing eighth or better at the conference tournament moving into her final senior season. Oride landed in 14th (227/+11) in the field of 40 participants.

For her efforts, Weaver swept the league's top awards as she was named the BIG EAST Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year, while also earning all-league honors. Campbell and Armstrong (Flossmoor, Ill.) joined Weaver in garnering all-conference honors as Armstrong earned all-league recognition for the second consecutive year.

The conference title awarded Notre Dame an automatic bid into the NCAA regional where it was later placed as the ninth seed in the East region. The Irish traveled to Auburn, Ala. (May 9-11) for the regional. Notre Dame placed 15th out of the 24 teams in the field. Weaver was the top performer (222/+6), helping the Irish post a 908 total.

Prior to securing the program's 35th BIG EAST Championship, Notre Dame claimed its lone regular-season team title at the Briar's Creek Invitational (March 25-26) in John's Island, S.C., shooting a 42-over-par 906 (317-300-289). The Irish claimed the title with an eight-stroke victory over Maryland (914) in the field of 18 teams.

In the national spotlight, Armstrong was named Golfweek's National Player of the Week for the week of March 25-31 after guiding the Irish to a first-place finish at Briar's Creek and achieving medalist honors of her own with a scorecard of one-over-par 217 (74-71-72).

Prior to Briar's Creek, Armstrong took home medalist honors at the Insuperity Lady Jaguar Intercollegiate (March 15-17), firing a one-under-par 215. The two seasonal medalist honors gave Armstrong a total of three career medalist finishes, tying for the most in program history.

Weaver attained the No. 1 spot on Golfstat's rankings (Nov. 14) following competition in the fall and was 16th in the final rankings at the end of the season. Armstrong for her part ended the year at No. 72.

Freshman Talia Campbell helped the Irish reach No. 14 in the national rankings at the conclusion of the fall slate after gathering two top-25 finishes.

Notre Dame finished the campaign with a 298.70 team stroke average (11 tournaments spanning 31 rounds) which marked the best seasonal stroke average ever by an Irish team.

Following two seasons, Armstrong owns the second-best career stroke average (minimum 35 rounds) with a 75.14. Weaver attained the program's top season stroke average (full season, minimum 20 rounds) with a 72.71 through 28 rounds. Campbell finished third on the all-time season stroke average list, firing a 74.70.

Currently in her seventh year, three-time BIG EAST Coach of the Year (2008, '11, '13) Susan Holt guided the Fighting Irish to a 119-46-1 (.717) record and led Notre Dame to a No. 14 ranking in Golfstat (Nov. 14) after the fall, marking the best mid-season ranking in the 26-year history of the program. The Irish concluded the year ranked 26th nationally.

Notre Dame kicked off the season at the Mary Fossum Invitational in East Lansing, Mich. (Sept. 15-16). Weaver led the Irish to a third-place finish shooting a four-over-par 220. Four of the five roster members finished in the top 12 spots on the leaderboard as the squad joined for a 23-over-par 877.

The Irish remained in the Midwest for their second tournament of the season. Notre Dame posted a seventh-place finish at the Windy City Collegiate Classic in Golf, Ill. (Oct. 1-2). Weaver tied for second (215/-1), aiding the Irish to a 29-over-par 893 finish. Campbell notched a top-10 finish (T-10th) while Kelli Oride (Lihue, Hawaii) grabbed a top-25 placement (T-23th).

Weaver matched her second-place finish (211/-5) in the third tournament at the Susie Maxwell Berning Classic in Norman, Okla. (Oct. 15-17). Notre Dame rebounded with its highest finish in the largest field of the fall, placing second (888/+24) out of 18 teams. The Irish defeated six top-50 ranked teams, including No. 22 Texas Tech.

Notre Dame traveled to Wilmington, N.C. on Oct. 26-28 to close out the fall portion of the season at The Landfall Tradition. Due to inclement weather from Hurricane Sandy, only one of the three rounds scheduled were played. Oride produced her lone even-par tournament with a 72. The Irish finished fifth in the field of 17 (296/+8).

The spring season opened with the Seminole Match Up in Tallahassee, Fla. (Feb. 15-17). Weaver notched an eighth-place finish (218/+2) while the Irish collectively reached seventh on the leaderboard (906/+42).

The second annual Clover Cup held in Mesa, Ariz. (March 9-10) served as the host tournament for Notre Dame. The Irish closed out the 54-hole tournament with a three-round total of 28-over-par 892 (298-298-296), finishing fifth out of the 16 teams in the field. Holt's squad finished one stroke behind fourth-place Tulsa (303-295-293). Notre Dame was just one of four teams in the tournament to fire each of the three rounds under 300 strokes. The Irish defeated two top-50 ranked teams in the field that included No. 27 Northwestern (6th) and No. 41 Mississippi (9th). Weaver (T-9th), Campbell (T-12th) and Armstrong (T-19th) all recorded top-25 finishes.

Notre Dame traveled South for its seventh tournament of the season to participate in the Insuperity Lady Jaguar Intercollegiate (March 15-17) in Augusta, Ga. Armstrong won her first tournament championship since the 2012 BIG EAST Championship. The sophomore was one of three Irish players to secure top-10 finishes, leading Notre Dame with a one-under-par 215 (76-69-70). As a unit, the Irish carded an 888 total, knocking off No. 22 Texas and No. 35 Kentucky.

Following the Lady Jaguar, Notre Dame moved onto its eighth tournament of the season. Armstrong repeated as a tournament champion at Briar Creek and became the third Irish golfer to win back-to-back tournaments. She posted a winning score of a one-over-par 217 (74-71-72). Armstrong's efforts guided Notre Dame to a first-place team finish in the field of 18. The title stood as the first title captured since the 2011 BIG EAST Championship. Campbell (227/+11, t-7th) and Oride (232/+16, T-25th) joined Armstrong as a top-25 finisher.

The Irish wrapped up their final regular-season tournament at the SMU Invitational in Dallas, Texas (April 5-7). There, Notre Dame placed eighth out of 15 teams carding a 935 total, extending its regular season record over the Big Ten conference this season to 19-4. Campbell was the top-finisher for the Irish, tying for 10th (228/+12).

Sophomore Ashley Armstrong picked up back-to-back medalist honors at the Lady Jaguar (March 15-17) and the Briar's Creek Invitational (March 25-26). Armstrong is tied with Katie Brophy (2002-06) for the most career medalist finishes in program history with three.

NCAAs / Team Recap

Notre Dame cruised to its sixth-consecutive NCAA Regional appearance after securing an automatic bid with the program's fifth BIG EAST Conference title. The Irish made their first appearance in the East region in the eight years they have competed in the contest as a team. The 15th place finish tied as the second-best team finish for the program as the Irish improved by 19 strokes from last year's results. The 44-over-par 908 outing marked as the second-best 54-hole score recorded by the Irish in the tournament. The 292 first round score was the best round fired by the Irish in the 24 rounds played in an NCAA Regional and was the eight-best round fired on the first day.

Notre Dame finished 31 strokes out of the final qualifying spot and neared a top-10 finish, trailing by 21 strokes. The Irish entered the contest as the No. 9 seed and 26th ranked team in the country. The Blue and Gold tied with No. 44 Central Florida and defeated No. 38 Texas State and No. 47 Penn State.

During the first round, sophomore Ashley Armstrong eagled on hole 16 (par 5, 493 yards).

Junior Kristina Nhim made her third-consecutive appearance in an NCAA Regional contest during the 2012-13 season.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Fighting Irish

Coaching Staff

The Irish women's golf coaching staff of Susan Holt and Kyle Veltri have teamed up to guide the Notre Dame women's golf program since 2006. In those seven seasons, the Irish have won 12 tournaments, including three BIG EAST Championships, qualified for the NCAA Regionals for six consecutive years and reached the NCAA Championship finals in 2011.

SUSAN
HOLT

Head Coach

Seventh Year

Ohio State University '88

Currently in her seventh season as the Fighting Irish women's golf head coach, Susan Holt, the 2013 BIG EAST Coach of the Year, has transformed the Irish program into one of the nation's most successful and consistent. Notre Dame has a current active streak of six consecutive NCAA Regional appearances and advancing to the first NCAA Championship appearance in program history in 2011.

Additionally, the top-six season stroke averages in program history have been set under her watch, with the 2012-13 squad recently boasting the top team stroke average in the history of the program posting a 298.70.

At the helm of Holt, the Irish have won 12 tournaments titles and captured three BIG EAST Championship crowns (2008, '11, '13), while her players have garnered medalist honors on 12 separate occasions.

Holt was introduced as head coach of the University of Notre Dame women's golf program in August of 2006. She became the second full-time head coach in the history of the Fighting Irish program and the fourth overall since women's golf became a varsity sport prior to the 1988-89 season.

This past season, Notre Dame secured its automatic bid into the NCAA East Regional once more after capturing the program's fifth BIG EAST title. Freshmen Talia Campbell and Lindsey Weaver were crowned co-medalists, firing a six-under-par 210. The 54-hole total for the duo marked the best scored ever tallied at the conference championship. Furthermore, the pair helped Notre Dame achieve a three-day total of six-under-par 861, the best team score ever put up at the league contest. Weaver was tabbed the BIG EAST Player of the Year, Freshman of the Year and named to the all-BIG EAST team. Ashley Armstrong and Campbell each joined Weaver with all-BIG EAST accolades.

Armstrong, a sophomore, earned Capital One Academic All-America third team honors in the women's at-large program while also capturing two tournament titles. In addition, she was named GolfWeek's national golfer of the week April 1.

Holt coached the Irish to their highest mid-season ranking in the history of the program at No. 14 on Golfstat's team rankings (Nov. 14). While holding in the nation's top-25 the majority of the year, Weaver concluded the fall ranked as the No. 1 player in the nation and Armstrong reached as high as No. 72 in the rankings at the conclusion of the season.

During the 2011-12 campaign, the Irish again turned in a strong season that included two second-place finishes, two medalist honors and a fifth consecutive trip to the NCAA Central Regionals. Notre Dame finished second at the Hoosier Fall Invitational at Crooked Stick Golf Club while senior Becca Huffer won her first collegiate tournament by three strokes with a four-over par 220. In the spring, the Irish finished second at the BIG EAST Championship, falling to South Florida by one stroke. There, Armstrong took medalist honors, becoming the fifth Notre Dame women's golfer to win or share a BIG EAST crown. Huffer, Armstrong and junior Kristina Nhim took all-BIG EAST honors. Huffer's accolades made her the third Notre Dame women's golfer and the third in BIG EAST history to win four all-BIG EAST honors. More importantly, the Irish were selected as an at-large participant for the NCAA Central Regional where the team finished 15th overall.

In 2010-11, Holt led the Irish to four first-place finishes. The team won the Mary Fossom Invitational to begin the 2010-11 season, followed by a victory on their home course at the William K. Warren Invitational. Then, at the John Kirk/Intercollegiate Classic the Irish finished first, before capturing the BIG EAST title where Nicole Zhang, Becca Huffer, So-Hyun Park and Kristina Nhim each earned all-BIG EAST honors. The BIG EAST title was the second under Holt's guidance and gave the Irish an automatic bid into the NCAA Regionals at the Warren Golf Course. The Irish would finish fifth and make the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Championships that were held in Bryan, Texas. There, they finished 22nd in the 24-team field.

In her fourth season (2009-10), Holt guided the Irish to a third consecutive NCAA Central Regional appearance and led the Irish to a then fourth-best season stroke average with a 306.60 mark. Notre Dame's best finish of the season was a tie for second at the Alamo Invitational where Annie Brophy became the sixth Irish player to win two individual titles in her career.

Three of Holt's players earned all-BIG EAST accolades in 2010 including Brophy, Katie Conway and Huffer. With her fourth such honor, Brophy became just the second player in program history to earn all-BIG EAST accolades four times, while she and Huffer had the added distinction of being two of the six unanimous selections to the 12-person team.

In her seven seasons with the Irish, Holt has seen 11 of her players combine to win 22 All-BIG EAST honors. Additionally, Huffer earned BIG EAST Rookie of the Year accolades in 2009 while Armstrong followed in 2012.

During the 2009-10 campaign, Holt presided over one of the program's best individual performances as Huffer put together one of Notre Dame's most statistically impressive seasons. Huffer recorded a 74.90 stroke average, which is the third-best mark in program history. She also saw all 30 of her rounds counted towards team scoring and she led the Irish at six of their 11 tournaments. At the end of a dominating season in which she finished in the top-20 at 10 of 11 events, Huffer narrowly missed individual qualification for the NCAA Championship field but, with her tie for 16th at the NCAA Central Regional, she turned in the best ever finish by a Notre Dame golfer in NCAA play.

In 2008-09, Holt led the Irish back to the NCAA Central Regional for the second consecutive year. She did so with the Irish playing a challenging slate of tournaments that included the Northrop Grumman Regional Challenge in Palos Verdes, Calif. and the Bryan National Collegiate in Greensboro, N.C. The Irish were ranked inside the Golfstat top-25 for parts of the season for the second consecutive year and they captured the Heather Farr Memorial Tournament, finishing with a program low score of 858 (-6), besting the previous record by 12 strokes. The Irish combined to post a 303.39 stroke average for the season, a mark that is currently the third best in program history. The Irish finished in the top-five in four of the 11 tournaments on the season and registered 16 top-15 individual showings.

Holt fielded a team that earned four all-BIG EAST accolades. The four all-league members tied a program record, which had also been achieved the previous two seasons under Holt. Huffer claimed BIG EAST Freshman of the Year honors, while Lisa Maunu claimed medalist honors at the 2009 BIG EAST Championship, Notre Dame's second medalist in as many years at the event.

Five seasons ago, in Holt's second season with the Irish, Notre Dame won the 2008 BIG EAST title. Holt was named the conference's coach of the year after putting together what turned out to be a record-breaking campaign in many ways. The Irish produced a then school-record 300.47 stroke average and won a program-best five tournaments, including the BIG EAST championship. Three straight wins to open the season signified another program milestone for the Irish. Three golfers combined to win four tournaments on the season and the year was capped with a trip to the NCAA Central Regional in Austin, Texas.

After the record-breaking 2007-08 campaign, Park became the program's first All-America honoree as she copped honorable mention All-America accolades from the National Golf Coaches Association and Golfweek magazine. Park won two tournaments on the year and posted a single season-best 73.63 stroke average.

The 2007-08 season commenced with a win at the Cougar Classic in Hanahan, S.C. Maunu earned medalist honors by firing a school-record three-round total of 210 (-6). Maunu's first-round six-under par 66 also represented a program record. Notre Dame followed that with a win at the Napa River Grill Cardinal Cup and a win at the Wolverine Invitational in Ann Arbor, Mich.

A fourth team victory was achieved in the spring at the Rio Verde Collegiate Invitational in Rio Verde, Ariz. For the third time that year, Notre Dame swept the hardware as Park captured the individual title.

Holt and the Irish then delivered on one of the team's goals by winning the BIG EAST title by nine shots over two-time defending conference champion Louisville in Batavia, Ohio. Brophy became the first Notre Dame golfer to win the BIG EAST title outright.

In all, the Irish finished in the top-five in nine of the 11 tournaments on the season and registered 20 top-10 individual showings. Notre Dame also reached as high as 12th in the Golfstat rankings during the year. That was the highest ranking ever for the Irish, who had two freshmen and two sophomores in the five-person scoring lineup all season long. Notre Dame garnered the ninth seed in the NCAA Central Regional before finishing 16th.

In her first campaign with the Fighting Irish, Holt's team posted a 305.46 during the 2006-07 season. Holt steered Notre Dame to a runner-up finish at the 2007 BIG EAST Championship. The Irish tied Louisville with a season-best 891 (+27) total during the 54-hole event but Notre Dame fell to the Cardinals by one stroke in the first hole of a sudden-death playoff. The Irish tied a program record by placing four student-athletes on the all-BIG EAST Team with the fine performance at the 2007 BIG EAST Championship.

Throughout the season, Notre Dame produced two runner-up finishes, including one at the Lady Irish Invitational. The other second-place finish occurred at Kansas' Marilyn Smith Sunflower Invitational. The results were even more impressive given the Irish squad featured three freshmen in the five-person scoring lineup during the entire spring semester.

Notre Dame also made history when senior co-captain Noriko Nakazaki became the first team member in program history to qualify for NCAA play as an individual entrant. Nakazaki carded a three-round score of 224 (+11) to place in a tie for 18th at the NCAA Central Regional in Ann Arbor, Mich.

In addition to their performances on the course, Holt's teams have excelled academically as well. Sixteen times, her players have been named to the National Golf Coaches Association All-Scholar Golf Team (3.5 grade-point average and play in 66 percent of events). In 2010-11, six of her players earned BIG EAST Academic All-Star honors, bringing her five-year total to 25 BIG EAST Academic All-Star honors while leading the Irish program.

In three of the last five semesters, (spring of 2011, fall of 2011, and fall 2012), the Notre Dame women's golf team has produced the highest GPA of all Irish athletic teams. The team recorded a record - setting 3.776 grade index last spring.

Holt came to Notre Dame from the University of South Florida, where she spent 13 successful seasons guiding the Bulls. In her final season, USF joined the BIG EAST Conference and she led the Bulls to a tie for third, along with the Irish, in their inaugural BIG EAST tournament.

"First and foremost, I was attracted by the opportunity to come to what I believe is the best academic and athletic combination that's out there," says Holt on why she decided to come to Notre Dame following a successful run at South Florida.

"The commitment to the golf program with the course and the new indoor facility makes a statement. As a coach you want to know that you have a chance to be successful and you can tell that's how it is at Notre Dame and it's impressive to see that."

A native of Dayton, Ohio, Holt made a return to the Midwest, where she began her college coaching career at Purdue University, beginning in 1990 and extending to 1993.

She took over the USF program in 1993 and led the Bulls to 16 team titles and 17 runner-up finishes, including five of 10 Conference USA Championships. She guided the team and/or individuals to 11 NCAA Regional appearances and trips to the NCAA Championship Finals in 2001 and 2002.

Holt's teams at South Florida won at least one tournament in 10 of her 13 seasons and she was recognized as the Conference USA Coach of the Year in 1996, 1999 and 2001. In the spring of 2005, Holt was named Conference USA Coach of the Decade for women's golf (1995-2005). Under Holt's watch, South Florida players were named to the Conference USA All-Conference Team 23 times. Current LPGA player and South Florida graduate Kelly Lagedrost was named Conference USA Player of the Year in 2001. Former South Florida golfer Christina Jones was named Conference USA Freshman of the Year in 2005.

Prior to college coaching, Holt worked as a club professional in West Palm Beach, Fla., and in Ipswich, Mass. She is a 1988 graduate of Ohio State University, where she played on the women's golf team that won Big Ten Championships in 1985 and 1988 and played in the NCAA Championship those same years.

Holt graduated from Fairmont High School in Kettering, Ohio. She has been a member of the PGA of America since 1992.

Susan married Tim Holt of Kokomo, Ind., in 1993 and they are the parents of two children, Justin and Kristin. Tim, who is also a PGA member, is the current head coach at nearby Holy Cross College.

Assistant Coach

KYLE LYNNE
VELTRI

Assistant Coach

Eighth Year

Saint Mary's College (Ind.) '01

Kyle Lynne Veltri completed her eighth season as the assistant women's golf coach at the University of Notre Dame with the conclusion of the 2012-13 campaign. Since teaming up with current head coach Susan Holt prior to the 2006-07 season, Veltri has helped the Fighting Irish post the top-six scoring averages in program history while also leading the Irish to six consecutive NCAA Regional appearances and the NCAA Championships for the first time in the program's 25-year history in 2010-11. In fact, if you take into account her first year as an Irish assistant coach, the 2005-06 season, Veltri has been a part of the top-eight scoring averages in program history.

A 2001 graduate from Saint Mary's College in Notre Dame, Ind., and a recipient of a Master's of Science and Education degree from Indiana University in May of 2009, Veltri returned to the Notre Dame community when she was hired in August of 2005.

This past season, Veltri saw the Irish finish the year with the program's top team stroke average (298.70). Notre Dame claimed its third BIG EAST Championship in the last six years. Notre Dame reached the NCAA East Regionals at Auburn with its automatic bid, giving the Irish six consecutive trips to the NCAA tournament since 2008.

Under Veltri's guidance, freshman Lindsey Weaver was tabbed the BIG EAST Player of the Year, Freshman of the Year and named to the all-BIG EAST team. Ashley Armstrong collected her second-straight all-BIG EAST accolade with freshman Campbell joining her after taking co-medalist honors with Weaver at the conference tournament.

Veltri also was instrumental in the recruiting of two of the nation's top junior golfers in Campbell and Weaver for the 2012-13 season.

The talented assistant also prolonged her dedication to organizing the second annual Notre Dame Clover Cup Tournament that was played at the Longbow Golf Club in Mesa, Ariz., this past March. She served as one of the tournament's organizers and oversaw the majority of the tournament operations.

In 2010-11, Veltri helped lead the Irish to their first-ever NCAA Championship appearance and fourth BIG EAST Championship. Notre Dame posted a stroke average of 299.53, the lowest in program history. All five golfers in the regular lineup currently rank in the top-10 in stroke average in program history. So-Hyun Park, Becca Huffer, Nicole Zhang and Kristina Nhim each received all-BIG EAST honors. The Irish won three regular season team titles (Mary Fossum Invitational, William K. Warren Irish Invite and John Kirk/Panther Intercollegiate), in addition to the BIG EAST Championship. Veltri also helped secure a recruiting class for 2011-12 that included Armstrong and Kelli Oride.

The 2009-10 campaign marked Notre Dame's third consecutive appearance in the NCAA Central Regional as the Irish put together a team stroke average of 306.60, the sixth best mark in program history. The team's best finish was a second-place tie in the 12-team field at the Alamo Invitational. There, Annie Brophy earned co-medalist honors to become just the sixth golfer in program history to win multiple individual titles, having already captured medalist honors at the 2008 BIG EAST Championship.

Three of Veltri's players earned All-BIG EAST honors in 2010 including Brophy, Katie Conway and Huffer. With her fourth such honor, Brophy became just the second player in program history to earn all-BIG EAST accolades four times. In her eighth season with the Irish, Veltri has seen nine of her players combine to win 26 all-BIG EAST honors.

Known as an excellent recruiter, Veltri has helped the Irish welcome the top recruits in program history during her eight years at Notre Dame. Holt and Veltri brought in Notre Dame's top rated recruiting class at the start of the 2007-08 season as the Class of 2011 was comprised of Conway and Park, who were both ranked in the top-25 nationally. Another stellar class that featured Huffer- also a top-25 recruit- and Katie Allare joined the Irish in the fall of 2008. In the fall of 2010, the highly touted duo of Zhang and Nhim joined the Irish. Zhang was another top-25 recruit who qualified for the 2010 U.S. Women's Open, becoming the first member of the Fighting Irish women's golf family to play in the premier event. Nhim was a top-50 recruit who matched Zhang by achieving All-BIG EAST honors as rookies. The 2011-12 class includes Oride and Armstrong, who became key players in their freshman years with Armstrong taking BIG EAST rookie of the year honors.

One of Veltri's prized recruits, Huffer, closed out her brilliant career in 2011-12, finishing with a 75.19 stroke average in 129 career rounds, the second lowest total in Notre Dame history and the lowest for any golfer with over 100 career rounds. In four seasons, Huffer saw 123 of her 129 career rounds counted to team scoring, including a 30-for-30 mark in 2009-10. A four-time all-BIG EAST selection, Huffer was a two-time team most valuable player and won the BIG EAST Sports Excellence Award for women's golf in her senior year of 2011-12.

During the 2008-09 season, the Irish combined to post three of the five lowest rounds in school history and four of the top-eight tournament totals in program history. Notre Dame also captured the Heather Farr Memorial Tournament, finishing with a program low score of 858 (-6), besting the previous mark by 12 strokes. The Irish combined to post a 303.39 stroke average for the season, the second-best mark in program history.

The Irish opened the 2007-08 season with a win at the Cougar Classic in Hanahan, S.C. Lisa Maunu earned medalist honors by firing a school-record three-round total of 210 (-6). Maunu's first-round six-under par 66 also represented a program record. Notre Dame would go on to win three consecutive tournaments and added a fourth in the spring. They capped the year by winning the BIG EAST title by nine shots over two-time defending conference champion Louisville in Batavia, Ohio. Brophy became the first golfer in program history to win the BIG EAST title outright. Brophy and three of her teammates garnered all-conference accolades.

Notre Dame finished in the top-five in nine of the 11 tournaments on the 2007-08 season and registered 20 top-10 individual showings. The Fighting Irish were also ranked 12th in the Golfstat rankings during the fall. That was the highest ranking ever for the Irish, who had two freshmen and two sophomores in the five-person scoring lineup all season long. Notre Dame garnered the ninth seed in the NCAA Central Regional before finishing 16th.

Veltri was an instrumental part in the transition to new coach Susan Holt in August of 2006. She coached the team in its first event of the fall season, while Holt was still with her former team at the University of South Florida.

For the year, the Irish posted impressive numbers, including a then-program-record 305.46 stroke average for the entire 2006-07 campaign.

Notre Dame tied a program record by placing four student-athletes on the all-BIG EAST Team after a fine performance at the 2007 BIG EAST Championship. The Irish were tied with Louisville following the 54-hole event with a season-best 891 (+27) total, but Notre Dame fell by one stroke in the first hole of a sudden-death playoff to the Cardinals.

Notre Dame produced two runner-up finishes at the Lady Irish Invitational and Kansas' Marilyn Smith Sunflower Invitational. Senior co-captain Noriko Nakazaki became the first team member in program history to qualify for NCAA play as an individual entrant.

In her first season as a Notre Dame assistant, Veltri helped guide the Fighting Irish to a then school record 306.66 scoring average. The Irish had seven top-five finishes, including a win at the Notre Dame Invitational.

Before her arrival at Notre Dame, Veltri compiled seven years of experience in the golf industry, tracing all the way back to her work at the Notre Dame/Saint Mary's College Nike Golf Camp in 1999 and 2000. The Clarksburg, W. Va., native also worked at Notre Dame's Warren Golf Course as a golf shop assistant during her time at Saint Mary's.

Following her graduation from Saint Mary's College, Veltri worked for nearly one year at Captain's Choice Golf Services Inc. in Orlando, Fla., where she served as management/tournament coordinator while also working in sales. During the summers of 2003 and 2004, Veltri served as an instructor/counselor at the Stonewall Resort Nike Golf Camp in Roanoke, W. Va. Prior to her arrival at Notre Dame, she worked at the Palmer Course at the Stonewall Resort as the assistant golf professional for three years.

TOM HANLON

Tom Hanlon has been involved with the women's program from its days as a club sport through its transition to a varsity sport. He served as co-head coach, along with George Thomas, of the Fighting Irish women's team when they began varsity play in 1988. He and Thomas served in that role until 1993.

Hanlon has been linked with Notre Dame golf since his playing days back in the 1940's. He was a member of Notre Dame's 1944 NCAA championship team. Following the 1944 NCAA competition, Hanlon joined the Navy and served on a cruiser in the Pacific during World War II.

After being discharged at the end of the war, Hanlon returned to Notre Dame and received a Bachelor of Science degree in pre-medicine in 1949. He later received a master's degree in education from Notre Dame in June of 1951 before going on to teach science and math and coach basketball and track at Jefferson School in South Bend.

Hanlon sold the insurance firm of Tom Hanlon and Associates in order to devote his time fully to the varsity golf duties. Hanlon is still actively involved in both the men's and women's programs at Notre Dame.

GEORGE THOMAS (1924-2012)

George Thomas helped found the women's golf program at Notre Dame. Thomas and Tom Hanlon were co-head coaches when women's golf was elevated to varsity status in 1988 and they remained in that role until 1993.

Thomas also served as the Notre Dame men's golf coach from 1989-2001. He was a two-time BIG EAST Coach of the Year while guiding the men. Thomas also was named the Midwestern Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year for the 1988-89 campaign.

As a player, Thomas qualified for the U.S. Open twice (1965, 1976) and the PGA Championship once (1974). He also appeared in the U.S. Senior Open from 1981-86. The Elkhart, Ind. native was inducted into the Indiana PGA Hall of Fame in 1979-80 and was the Indiana PGA Player of the Year three times (1970, 1973, 1977).

After serving as a B-17 navigator with the Eighth Air Corps during World War II, Thomas accepted a football scholarship to Purdue University, where he served as a backup quarterback to All-American Bob DeMoss.

Thomas also was a four-year member of the golf team at Purdue. During his playing days at Purdue, Thomas was a member on the NCAA runner-up squad for the Boilermakers in 1950. He graduated from the Purdue School of Pharmacy and served as a pharmacist for 12 years while playing professionally.

The longtime member of the Notre Dame community earned an honorary monogram from the Notre Dame Monogram Club in 1999. He passed away in December 2012 from natural causes. Thomas was 87 at the time of his death.

The date of May 1, 2000, marked the beginning of a new era in the history of Notre Dame golf as the University unveiled the championship-caliber William K. and Natalie O. Warren Golf Course at Notre Dame.

Since its opening date, the course has been hailed as one of the best new courses in America by Golf Digest and has been featured in Links Magazine and Golf Digest as a must-play venue.

In 2012, the course was ranked by Golfweek as one of the top six courses in Indiana in its state-by-state top courses issue and earlier, Golfweek, ranked it among the top 15 college golf courses in the nation, ranking it 12th overall.

Since opening 12 years ago, the Warren Golf Course has played host to many prestigious golf tournaments. The course has been the site of five BIG EAST men's tournaments ('01, '02, '03, '04, '05) and three women's championships ('03, '04, '05). In 2005 and 2010, the NCAA Division I men's regional championship was played at the Warren and in 2011, an NCAA women's regional graded the course.

In 2010, the U.S. Women's Public Links Championship came to the Warren Golf Club and U.S. Open qualifiers for the men were played at the Warren in 2009 and 2010. Six U.S. Men's Amateur Qualifiers ('01, '02, '04, '08, '11, '12) and the 2005 Western Amateur Qualifier was also played at Notre Dame's Warren Golf Course.

Through the generous donation of Notre Dame alumnus and Tulsa, Okla., resident Bill Warren ('56), the University features an impressive 18-hole golf course, located a stone's throw away from the northeast corner of campus. Constructed in a heavily wooded area, the facility is bordered by Douglas Road to the south, Juniper Road to the west, Ironwood Drive to the east and the Indiana Toll Road to the north.

The course was designed by the Austin, Texas based architectural team of Coore and Crenshaw, headed by Bill Coore and PGA Tour veteran Ben Crenshaw. Coore began his design and construction career in 1972 with noted course architect Pete Dye and formed his own company in 1982 before joining forces with Crenshaw four years later.

Founded in 1986, Coore and Crenshaw has established a reputation for creating courses based on traditional, strategic golf, including: the Plantation Course at the Kapalua Resort in Maui, Hawaii; Cuscovilla Golf Club in Greensboro, Ga.; Sand Hills Golf Club in Mullen, Neb.;

Barton Creek Club in Austin; the New Town Golf Club in Indonesia; Talking Stick in Scottsdale, Ariz.; and the East Hampton Golf Club on Long Island. Sand Hills was recognized as the number one modern golf course" by Golfweek magazine.

Coore and Crenshaw also has undertaken several renovation projects, including the Southern Hills Country Club (in Tulsa) and the Prairie Dunes Golf Club (located in Kansas). The firm oversaw nine-hole additions to the Southern Hills Country Club in Tulsa and the Onion Creek Country Club in Tulsa and the Onion Creek Country Club in Austin.

The existing Notre Dame Memorial Golf Course, located on the southwest side of campus, served as an 18-hole facility for the Notre Dame community until 1993, when the back nine was lost due to the addition of four campus dormitories and several athletic fields. The 70-year-old University course remains a convenient nine-hole facility available to the campus community. After losing the back nine of the existing course, Mr. Warren came forward with an interest in developing a new 18-hole, championship course.

Since Mr. Warren was familiar with the team of Coore and Crenshaw through its work in Tulsa, it was a very natural fit.

Course construction began on March 1, 1997, with the first actual phases of dirt movement beginning two months later. Many of the day-to-day tasks were coordinated by the University's department of facility engineering, under the ultimate supervision of associate vice president for business operations Jim Lyphout. The project also was coordinated by former associate athletic director Bubba Cunningham, who had responsibilities for athletic facility and financial affairs at the time.

Final construction for the course was overseen by Doug Marsh, director of the Notre Dame facilities engineering office. Assisting in this monumental task was Butch Layman, a construction administrator in the facilities engineering office.

Warren Golf Course Earns Top-15 Ranking From Golf Digest and Golfweek

The University of Notre Dame's Warren Golf Course has been chosen as one of the top 15 college courses in the nation, according to a feature article in the September 2005 issue of Golf Digest as well as a September 2013 publication by Golfweek. The magazine and publication used a variety of criteria in rating the various layouts, including shot values, resistance to scoring, design variety, memorability, aesthetics, conditioning, ambience and bonus walking points. The Warren Golf Course was ranked 15th in the country on the 2005 Golf Digest list while checking in at 11th in the most recent piece by Golfweek.

The ranking from Golf Digest is only one of many honors for the Warren Golf Course in its brief history. Here's a partial list of the accolades the Notre Dame layout has received since opening in 2000:

- Annually named as one of the nation's "Top-100 Places You Can Play" by Golf Digest
- Top-15 Collegiate Golf Course - Golf Digest 2005 & 2010, Golfweek 2010, 2011 & 2012
- Top-10 Collegiate Golf Course - Links Magazine 2012
- Second-best public golf course in Indiana - Golfweek, 2007
- Third-best public golf course in Indiana - Golfweek, 2006
- Third-best public golf course in Indiana - Golf Digest, 2006
- Fifth-best public golf course in Indiana - Golfweek, 2011
- Sixth-best public golf course in Indiana - Golfweek, 2012
- 12th-best collegiate facility in the country - Golfweek, 2005
- Golf Magazine, March 2001: "Top 10 You Can Play" -- honorable mention selection (one of only 35 courses in the country chosen)
- Golf and Travel Magazine, August 2001: 40 Best Daily Fee Courses: No. 33 in United States (only course in the state of Indiana ranked)
- Best New Courses of 2000: No. 5 in Affordable Public Division - Golf Digest
- Chicagoland Golf Magazine: Five-star rating (highest)
- Certified International Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary

Warren Golf Course

South Bend-based Rieth Reilly Construction was contracted to handle the movement of approximately 100,000 yards of dirt. Another local company, Ziolkowski Construction, handled construction of the course's buildings and other structures.

Final details of the course were directed by Tom Beck, construction superintendent for Coore and Crenshaw, and his associate Jeff Bradley. Kim Hocker, the now former golf course superintendent of the Warren Golf Course and the existing University golf course, and his dedicated staff added their expertise to the successful finish of the project.

Final construction - completed in the fall of 1999 - included grading and seeding of the driving range, construction of tee areas around the clubhouse, completion of the many strategically-placed bunkers, overseeding of the fairways and roughs, and the defining of the course during the "grow-in" period. A number of trees and ornamental grasses were planted to add finishing touches.

Brian Godfrey was named the first PGA director of golf and general manager for the Notre Dame Golf Courses in October of 1998. In 2003, John Foster assumed the post of General Manager and Head Golf Professional at the Warren. His duties at the Warren Golf Course include overseeing the operation of both courses, in addition to pro shops, clubhouse and driving range management. He coordinates course use to balance and meet the requirements of the varsity golf teams, course members, faculty, staff, students and the public. Foster also maintains the golf facility budgets as well as oversees staff training.

The design of the Warren Golf Course is reminiscent of the classic, walkable Irish and American courses built in the late 1800s and early 1900s, with short distances between the greens and tees. Winding its way through 250 wooded acres, the course incorporates traditional elements of the great golf courses of the early 1900s and - unlike many modern layouts - is built on subtleties rather than special effects.

Distinguishing features include: rectangular tee boxes that provide a classic start to each hole; undulating greens of varying shapes constructed in a push-up style that slopes from back to front; false fronts to greens that allow for a golfer to run the ball or fly it to the flag; strategically-placed bunkers that visually enhance each hole while challenging players to proceed with caution.

Warren Golf Course Recognized For Environmental Excellence

The William K. and Natalie O. Warren Golf Course has achieved designation as a "Certified Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary" by the Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary System (ACSS), the educational division of Audubon International.

The Warren Course was the sixth course in Indiana and the 335th in the world to achieve this honor.

"The Warren Golf Course has shown strong commitment to its environmental program. They are to be commended for their efforts to provide sanctuary for wildlife on the golf course property," said Joellen Zeh, staff ecologist for the ACSS.

"To reach certification, a course must demonstrate that they are maintaining a high degree of environmental quality in a number of areas," said Zeh.

"We are extremely proud to be a certified Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary," said Kim Hocker, the now former golf course superintendent at the Warren Golf Course. "From the beginning, it was the goal of the University of Notre Dame to create an environmentally-sound golf course. In addition, the overwhelming positive response from golfers and the local community has made our efforts worthwhile."

The designers received full permits to realign the existing Juday Creek that runs through the course and environmental safeguards were a priority in design and construction. A new creek channel was opened, resulting in a complete created habitat. The creek winds through the finishing holes, which are noted for heavy woods and change of elevations - providing a beautiful, challenging completion to the inward nine. Constant monitoring of the creek ensures a healthy and natural environment. The scenic venue is a Certified Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary.

Some 4,400 native hardwood trees and shrubs were planted to increase the stream's canopy cover. Approximately 360 large boulders, along with gravel and logs, were added to the slopes and bed to enhance fish habitat while a permanent sediment trap was installed. A combination of pest management, drainage and filtration techniques minimizes the use and impact of fertilizers and pesticides while 2,200 feet of new shaded stream course were created to relocate the stream from the golf course proper.

Environmental engineers J.F. New & Associates directed these aspects of the project, and Ronald A. Hellenenthal, professor of biological sciences at Notre Dame and Gillen Director of its Environmental Research Center, reviewed the plans and continues to monitor the creek.

Two lakes add to the challenge of the course, with one stationed between the third and fourth holes while another provides a hazard from the tee of the 17th hole.

Water comes into play with the existing Juday Creek winding through holes 16 and 18 while additional creeks were added on holes 10 and 18.

The 7,000-foot clubhouse - designed by Moake-Park Group Inc. of Fort Wayne, Ind., in a French Country style - was completed in June of '99. The building matches the period of the course architecture (early 1900s), with a classic "clinker" style brick exterior. The design is completed by copper cupolas, dormers and trim, a slate roof and an enclosed porch. Brick fireplaces are located on both sides of the building, which welcomes the University community to venture over for lunch, meetings or shopping.

The course runs 7,020 yards from the back tees, 6,346 from the middle and 5,302 from the front tees and plays to a par 71. It includes 88 bunkers scattered among the 18 holes, and water comes into play on six holes. The course has bent grass fairways and fescue grass rough, playing surfaces found at some of today's top facilities.

The clubhouse is open to the public and houses some of the finest in men and women's golf apparel, with the Warren Golf Course logo as well as traditional Notre Dame merchandise and souvenirs. The Warren Grille, serves traditional golf course fare, as well as, specialty items and sandwiches.

A view from the 372-yard 1st hole. A slight dogleg to the left, this hole gives you an idea of what is to come with the rough look of the bunkers on the left to the well protected, small green.

The fairway bunkers on the 216-yard 11th hole provide an architectural deception, in that – from the tee – the front bunkers appear to be located on the sides of the green when they are, in fact, 20 yards short of it (bunkers also are located on the sides of the green).

The view from behind the 414-yard eighth hole looks to a green that is rectangular in shape and slopes dramatically from the rear, with an open front that allows either a bump-and-run shot or one that is flown to the green.

The 15th green is located just a stone's throw from the clubhouse, yet the building is obscured by a distinctive variety of trees that rim the putting green.

The 197-yard 14th is one of Ben Crenshaw's favorite holes on the Warren Golf Course. Noted for its old-Scottish style, the hole includes an elevated green and two bunkers to the right of the green that cannot be seen from the tee (unlike those to the left of the green). The hole is even more scenic when framed by full foliage in the surrounding trees.

Above is a look from the picturesque tee at the 16th hole. Overlooking Judy Creek from the elevated tee, the hole ascends up and to the left to a tiny, undulating green that is very well protected by classic Coore- and Crenshaw-designed bunkers.

Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility

The Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility

(opened Sept. 30, 2006)

A 5,000-square foot indoor short game area, that includes a putting green, chip and pitch area along with a practice bunker allows the student-athletes the ability to practice their short game year-round on campus. A state-of-the-art golf simulator (right) was installed during the 2013 season.

One of the nicest features of the facility are the six hitting stations that are located within the building that lead out to the Warren Golf Course driving range, allowing players to work on their swings in all weather conditions. Incorporated within the stations is state-of-the-art video equipment to give players and coaches instant feedback on players' swing techniques.

Each student-athlete has his or her own locker area in their respective locker room.

The Robert and Marilyn Rolfs Family All-Season Varsity Golf Facility, which is located at the Warren Golf Course on the northeast corner of the University of Notre Dame campus, opened on Sept. 30, 2006 with a private dedication ceremony. The $2.1 million, 10,333-square foot facility is used by both the Irish men's and women's golf programs.

Four offices are located on the east end of the building to accommodate the coaching staffs. A fully furnished lounge is available to members of both teams for studying or relaxing. Another asset for the teams is a club repair room, located in the southern wing of the facility.

Byron V. Kanaley Award

Perhaps the most prestigious honor awarded to Notre Dame student-athletes is the Byron V. Kanaley Award. Presented each year since 1927 at commencement exercises, the Kanaley Awards go to the senior monogram athletes who have been most exemplary as students and leaders.

The awards, selected by the Faculty Board on Athletics, are named in honor of a 1904 Notre Dame graduate who was a member of the baseball team as an undergraduate. Kanaley went on to a successful banking career in Chicago and served the University in the Alumni Association as a lay trustee from 1915 until his death in 1960.

A four-year monogram winner and 2004 graduate, Shannon Byrne was the first, and only Irish women's golfer to date to earn the award.

A captain as a senior, Byrne carded 103 rounds in her Irish career, being selected to the all-BIG EAST team once and the NGCA all-scholar team a trio of times.
