New Season, Same Goal Awaits As Notre Dame Looks To Make History In 2011

Defending national champion Fighting Irish return backbone of last year's title-winning squad with their sights set on doing it all over again.

As he intently prowls the practice field at Notre Dame, 13th-year head coach Randy Waldrum has been here before. He knows what it takes to bring the Fighting Irish to the top of the college soccer world, having led the program to national championships in 2004 and 2010. He also knows what lies ahead for a team coming off an NCAA title, and it's that wisdom that he's eager to share with his charges.

With the Fighting Irish gathered in their meeting room at Alumni Stadium, just mere steps from a wall freshly decorated with a photo of Notre Dame's 2010 national champions, Waldrum reverts a bit from the casual, breezy Southern accent that has become so familiar to his players, staff, members of the Notre Dame community and fans around the country. Yet, the message remains crystal clear, even if it comes in a colloquial wrapper better suited for an episode of "The Sopranos":

Fuhgeddaboudit.

To be sure, the 2010 season was a magical and historic one for the Fighting Irish, who were perched on the precipice after an uncharacteristic early exit from the BIG EAST Championship. Saddled with a No. 4 seed in their quadrant of the NCAA tournament, Notre Dame then came out and became the first fourth-seeded team in the nearly three-decade history of the Championship to hoist the hardware, picking off four seeded teams (including two No. 1 seeds) during their 21-2-2 run to the title.

There are parts of last season Waldrum doesn't want his team to forget, such as the joy and elation of winning the national championship, or the pain and frustration that preceded that postseason journey, most notably the loss to Connecticut in the BIG EAST quarterfinals. However, that's where the memories end for Notre Dame, as Waldrum realizes that 2011 is a new season with new challenges for the Fighting Irish, including the most significant one of all — becoming just the second team in NCAA Division I history to win back-to-back national championships.

"The challenge probably for us, and for me, is to make sure that we will continue to stretch our players even farther, because championships have got to be won, and because there are parts of last year that you want them to come in and forget," Waldrum said. "We can't walk in here thinking everything is okay because we won the championship last year. But, then there is a side of you that wants them to remember some of the things that we went through to get there. So, the balance in preseason is going to be how much you continue to talk about the past versus moving forward, because that's not going to win us a thing this year."

Among the critical aspects for any team, particularly one that annually competes for titles, are leadership, chemistry and a tradition of success. Notre Dame rarely longs to find those attributes on its roster, yet this season could be especially unique. The three team captains for 2011 — seniors Courtney Barg,

Melissa Henderson and Jessica Schuveiller — not only bring a long history of leadership to the table, but together they also have experienced tremendous success throughout their careers, dating as far back as age 10, when all three were teammates in the younger age brackets of the Dallas Texans club program (and later with Sting Dallas) prior to arriving in South Bend.

Friends for more than a decade, this Texas trio understands what it means to achieve greatness, and now they know what it takes to lead their Fighting Irish teammates there. As the backbone of the 2011 Fighting Irish, both on the field (Henderson is a forward, Barg a midfielder and Schuveiller a center back) and in the locker room, these three players have their eyes set on helping Notre Dame shape a new legacy in the already-storied history of Fighting Irish women's soccer.

"We pushed our players a lot more this spring than we had after the spring of '04, and that's probably the biggest difference," Waldrum said. "The other difference is that we heard it on the plane ride home from winning the championship last year. I don't remember in '04 hearing the players talk about repeating again until we got back into the season. I can remember the flight home from last year's championship, walking to the back of the plane and listening to Barg and Schuveiller and Henderson talk about the (championship) game we had just finished playing hours ago, but then also talking about how they wanted to be the first team here at Notre Dame to repeat in women's soccer. So that was refreshing and that was different. Yes, they were still celebrating (at the time), but they were already thinking about next year. That's carried over throughout the spring and summer, that genuine excitement about coming back and trying to defend this title."

The three senior captains won't be alone in sharing the mantle of responsibility that comes with being the reigning champion, as the Fighting Irish return 18 monogram winners, including seven starters from last year's squad. What's more, Notre Dame has a strong seven-player incoming class that is highlighted by five freshmen appearing among the top 60 in the nation by Top Drawer Soccer in its February 2011 rankings. Those two elements could give the Fighting Irish one of its deeper teams in recent years, with all the tools in place to keep the NCAA trophy in South Bend this season.

"With this (incoming) class, all seven of them are going to compete to come here, play a lot of minutes right away, and push the starting players that we have," Waldrum said. "Paper doesn't win you games, but on paper, this team could be deeper than last year's team once we get everyone healthy. It doesn't guarantee that we're going to do the same thing, but I think it's going to be a little bit deeper in talent than what we had last year. Now we just have to fit the parts together and find a way of figuring out that chemistry of which ones are the best ones to be playing with each other. It also gives us a chance to go back to what we've been doing in the past, getting a team that we can play on Friday, and turn around and maybe starting a few new faces on Sunday, and keep our team a little fresher as we get deeper into the season."

While paper might not win any games for Waldrum or his charges, it's an ideal way to evaluate potential contributions. With that in mind, here's a position-by-position breakdown of the 2011 Fighting Irish:

FORWARDS

When the conversation begins to discuss the premier women's college soccer player in the nation, one name immediately springs to mind — Melissa Henderson. The Notre Dame senior forward has been an electric offensive presence from the moment she arrived on campus, piling up 52 goals and 18 assists (122 points) in her first three collegiate seasons. Her value to the Fighting Irish can't be understated, as she is a threat to score every single time she touches the ball. In fact, Notre Dame has never lost a match when the Garland, Texas, native either scores a goal (35-0-2 all-time) or registers a point (44-0-2).

Henderson is coming off arguably her best campaign to date in 2010, chalking up 17 goals and 11 assists (45 points) as one of only 10 players in the country to post double-digit goals and assists a year ago. She went on to earn the Honda Sports Award and finish as first runner-up for the Hermann Trophy, both of which are presented annually to the nation's top player. In addition, she was nominated for an ESPY Award (for "Best Female College Athlete"), and was selected as the BIG EAST Conference Offensive Player of the Year and the Most Offensive Outstanding Player of the NCAA Women's College Cup, the latter coming after she set up the lone goal in the title-match victory over Stanford.

With all of those accolades in her trophy case, not to mention a growing buzz in the soccer community about her future as a member of the U.S. National Team, it's hard to believe the ceiling could get any higher for Henderson. However, ask her coach and it's more than possible... it's probable.

"I'm expecting great things," Waldrum said. "She's got the ability to score 25 goals for you in a year. In the past, Mel's sometimes been her own worst enemy in that she's so humble and she wants to deflect things to others. Last year, she started to get her over the hump, and finally for the first time, she realized during the NCAA tournament how important it was to the team that she be good and that she take on some of that responsibility. You're never going to change her in terms of how humble and gracious she is — that's just her personality — but in terms of her getting a little more bite to her game and realizing her teammates supported her being more aggressive, I think she really grew in that area.

"Getting a chance to be at the Hermann (Trophy presentation), winning the Honda, being at the ESPYs, all these things are building in her confidence of her," Waldrum added. "She would never say it, but maybe inside she's realizing that 'maybe I am a little better than I always thought I was.' Now she seems a little more focused on reaching that full national team and she seems more goal-oriented. Physically looking at her, this is the best she's looked since she's come in (to preseason camp), so I'm really looking for a big year from her."

While Henderson is certain to draw a great deal of attention from Notre Dame opponents this season, those foes would do well not to overlook the rest of the Fighting Irish front line. Sophomore Adriana Leon (4G-2A) got off to a late start last season due to a preseason injury, but she made a lasting impression with one of her final left-footed kicks, scoring the winning goal against Stanford in the national championship match off Henderson's precision assist in the 63rd minute.

A rising star in the Canadian youth soccer system, Leon has spent time with the Canada U-20 National Team and brings a mix of flair and creativity on the ball with a toughness and competitive streak that were sharpened in her earlier days as a midget hockey player in Ontario. Now with a year of college experience under her belt, Leon offers a viable alternative attacking threat for Notre Dame and someone who will punish those who make the mistake of leaving her unmarked in the final third.

"With our young freshmen, we don't try and 'over-coach' them in their first year," Waldrum said. "We try and let them play and coach out of what we see them do, instead of trying to overload them with too much instruction because we don't want to take that creativity away, especially with a player like Adriana. If we have done that, she would never have scored that goal in the final, nor would she have had the overall performance she did in the final. I think she will grow a bit more this year, understanding more tactically in terms of her movements and how we want her to run. She has a great intensity level and brings a competitiveness and fight to training every single day. That's the way she was brought up — it's all about winning. You can't have enough players with that mentality. Last year, you could see that it took her awhile to settle in, coming to an American college, coming to a new coach and coming to a new system. I feel like she has handled it pretty well, but I feel like we will still see a much better Adriana this year."

Mandy Laddish

As Leon makes the transition from youthful frisky colt to maturing veteran, another freshman joins the Notre Dame stable this fall with a chance to create her own strong first impression. Lauren Bohaboy was an offensive phenomenon during her career at Santa Margarita (Calif.) Catholic High School, scoring a combined 177 points (79 goals and 19 assists) in her final two prep seasons, including a school-record 51 goals and 10 assists last year. As a standout with the powerhouse So Cal Blues club program, Bohaboy added another 131 goals and 150 assists, tallying at least 30 goals and 40 assists each season.

Thus, it was no surprise she was chosen as the 2011 Gatorade High School Player of the Year in California and was a two-time NSCAA California High School Player of the Year, while earning two NSCAA High School All-America honors (2010 and 2011) and three All-America citations from ESPN/RISE Magazine (2009-11). It's also little shock to hear that Bohaboy's new coach thinks she'll fit very nicely at the college level.

"I have seen Lauren play great games and poor games, but in all of those games, she finds a way to put the ball in the net," Waldrum said. "I am hoping she can continue to do that, bringing that part of her game to this level. I think she will take a tremendous amount of pressure off of Mel and Adriana. She is physically different then those two, so it will give us a great blend (of playing styles), but we think she will score a lot of goals for us. She has that natural ability to find herself in good spots, and that's hard to coach. Just has that sixth sense of where the ball is going to bounce or how it's going to sneak through — you can't really teach that, and a player sometimes just has to have the ability to sniff that out. I think Lauren will come in and do great things right away, and physically, she already looks really good."

Part of Notre Dame's success in recent seasons has come from its versatility, with players able to fill other roles outside their primary positions. That trait is expected to continue in 2011, as senior Molly Campbell, sophomore Elizabeth Tucker and freshman Karin Simonian all could move up from the midfield, although Campbell may have found a home on the Fighting Irish backline after contributing mightily in that spot during last year's NCAA tournament. Senior Ellen Jantsch and junior Lindsay Brown also have prior experience as forwards, and will look to provide added veteran leadership in the attacking third this season.

MIDFIELDERS

It's often said that quality can be just as important as quantity, perhaps even more so. If that's the case, then it's hard to argue with the quality minutes that Notre Dame gets when Courtney Barg steps on the field.

Although her career has occasionally been put on hold by injury, when she's healthy, there are few players in the country (let alone midfielders) that can match up with Barg's skill and polish. She may not be the flashiest player on the field, nor the quickest, but her poise under pressure and uncanny ability to control the pace of play, while putting her teammates into space with pinpoint accuracy, makes her unlike any midfielder in the college game today.

Last year was a textbook case of Barg's value. Coming off a 2009 season in which she earned All-America and BIG EAST Midfielder-of-the-Year honors, much was expected from the Plano, Texas, native. However, a preseason injury shelved Barg for the first two months of the campaign and left her with a difficult choice in mid-October — come back and play through the pain, or continue to rehabilitate and preserve the year of eligibility.

After much soul-searching, she elected to return to action, and it was a decision that ultimately played a major role in Notre Dame's run to its third national championship. Barg played in 11 of the final 12 matches for the Fighting Irish, starting 10 times and recording 779 minutes of action with one assist to her credit. She also started all six of Notre Dame's matches in the NCAA Championship and was named to the College Cup All-Tournament Team after her possession and distribution skills were critical to Fighting Irish fortunes in their 1-0 wins over Ohio

Season Outlook

State and Stanford in the national semifinals and title match.

"I've said all along that Courtney is the best midfielder in the country," Waldrum said. "She brings so many different qualities to the team. It's really important to have her because she is a game changer and the quarterback of this team. She can speed the game up and slow the game down. She is the one player that brings this calming effect to the team. She goes into a game like Carolina or Oklahoma State (in the NCAA tournament) and she's going one hundred miles an hour, and she is that one player that can slow the game down. Then, if it gets too slow, she can speed it up. She just pulls all the strings for us, so it's really important for her to be healthy for us this year."

While Barg provides a calm touch on the ball and steady veteran playmaking, sophomore Mandy Laddish is the rising star in the Fighting Irish midfield. A versatile player who has seen time at both the attacking and holding midfield positions, both with Notre Dame and the U.S. Under-17 and Under-20 national teams, Laddish started all 25 matches for the Fighting Irish last season, becoming the 26th rookie in program history to crack the lineup for every contest. She also ranked fourth among all Notre Dame field players (tops among freshmen) with 2,158 minutes played.

An aggressive, athletic player with power from either foot, Laddish tallied two goals and one assist last year, totals that were lessened only because she was asked to fill Barg's holding midfield role for much of the season. It was a position that the Lee's Summit, Mo., product wasn't entirely familiar with, but by the end of the 2010 campaign, she had blended so seamlessly into the part that Waldrum and his staff hesitated to move her out of what had become her comfort zone when Barg returned to action.

In the end, that move paid off, as Laddish returned to more of an attacking spot in the midfield and scored one of the year's biggest goals, netting the match-winner in the 83rd minute of the 1-0 national semifinal win over Ohio State. Laddish would go on to make the NCAA College Cup All-Tournament Team, in addition to collecting Soccer America first-team Freshman All-America honors and NSCAA third-team all-region laurels.

"From the moment Mandy got here, she started to grow, probably due to playing with the U-17s and gaining confidence with them," Waldrum said. "She is the one player that grew so much last year. We threw her into the holding midfielder spot and asked her to wear the hat of quarterbacking this team, which is not an easy task for anyone, let alone a freshman. Then, when we moved her into the attack late in the year, we saw that she had the ability to run at players and create problems with speed. When I went into assist with the U-20 camp (this summer), she was one of the top players there, based on her performance. She's a clear, solid benchmark player for that team, and then in the future for our full national team, too. Mandy is playing with a lot of confidence and she has really raised her game throughout the last year."

While Laddish was one of the Notre Dame rookies that came into 2010 with a great deal of attention, Elizabeth Tucker slipped quietly under the radar and proved to be arguably the most pleasant surprise of the Fighting Irish championship season. The Jacksonville, Fla., resident had not been ranked among the top 100 in the nation by most recruiting services coming out of high school and the club circuit. In fact, she didn't even play prep soccer, instead earning numerous high school letters (and state titles) in cross country, track and basketball.

As it turns out, that running background has been a tremendous bonus for Tucker, whose fitness levels and work ethic remain off the charts and allowed her to compete in all 25 matches last season, starting 22 times and playing 1,837 minutes (second among Fighting Irish rookies). That constant motor, along with a remarkable knack for finishing in the attacking third, led Tucker to finish third on the team in scoring with 21 points (9G-3A) and second on the squad with five match-winning goals, most notably the twin daggers she fired at No. 6 Oklahoma State in the 2-0 NCAA quarterfinal win. She also was a third-team all-BIG EAST selection and a member of the BIG EAST All-Rookie Team, efficiently laying the groundwork for even greater things in coming seasons.

Elizabeth Tucker

"Tucker has made her living on being that player that is non-stop action and relentless," Waldrum said. "You can't take a break or you will lose her because she moves so much, and if you have the ball, she won't get off of you. She far exceeded our expectations as a freshman with her scoring ability, which we really needed last year. If she can continue having that kind of year regularly, she really will be a great stable contributor for this program over the next three years. She's just such a great kid on and off the field, and I can't say enough good things about her. She is kind of like Adriana, and even Mandy to an extent, where they played a lot as a young player and they made a lot of mistakes and some mistakes we got punished for and some we didn't. But what they do in a positive sense far outweighs the learning curve of staying sharp and focused defensively for all 90 minutes. As Tucker grows with that a little bit, becoming more composed at both ends, and making better decisions with her passing and choices on defense, the sky is the limit for her here."

The blue-collar brigade has been among the staples for Notre Dame throughout the Waldrum era, with the Fighting Irish featuring numerous players who relied on perfecting the little things necessary to ensure overall team success. They might not always garner the attention of others, and their names might not always be on the tips of experts' tongues, but the value of players like Kimberly Carpenter ('04), Ashley Jones ('08) and Annie Scheffer ('06) are what makes Notre Dame special.

That brings us to 2011, and perhaps the next installment of this hard-working supporting cast. Freshman Karin Simonian draws comparisons to Carpenter in some circles, mainly due to their diminutive size (Carpenter was 4-10, Simonian is 5-2). However, unlike Carpenter, Simonian brings a great deal of physicality to the table, not to mention an intriguing blend of pace, vision and creativity. The Westbury, N.Y., native also plays at a higher level than her age would indicate, as evidenced by her long tenure with the Albertson SC club program and the Long Island Fury of the Women's Premier Soccer League (WPSL), both of whom are directed by Paul Riley, the 2010 WPS Coach of the Year with the Philadelphia Independence.

A three-time NSCAA Youth All-America selection, Simonian played three seasons of high school soccer (grades 8-10) before switching over to club play full-time. In her final prep season, she potted 25 goals and added three assists, offering a hint of things to come. Since then, she's also been invited to participate in training camps with the United States U-15 and U-17 national teams.

"Karin will be different because, right off the bat, she will be prepared to play," Waldrum said. "She is one of the most skillful players in our incoming class. She's quick, dynamic and explosive, which is a bit different than what we have in the midfield right now. I think she's also going to be one of the fans' favorites because she is creative, has a little flair to her game and she is a competitor in much the same way that Adriana (Leon) plays. Karin is highly competitive and she doesn't realize that she is that small because she plays so big."

Three other Fighting Irish veterans could factor in the midfield equation this season. Besides the versatile Jantsch (who scored two goals in 12 matches last season, including the clincher in the third round of the NCAA Championship at North Carolina), senior Brynn Gerstle has made remarkable strides in her development. Last year, she played in a career-high nine matches (88 minutes) and has shown a powerful leg that could be a significant weapon on set pieces. Sophomore Rebecca Twining also could be poised to rise up through the midfield rotation, having appeared in nine contests during an injury-plagued rookie season.

DEFENDERS

One of the iconic symbols of the state of Texas has long been the cowboy. A reminder of an earlier time, the cowboy is cherished for his rugged individualism and inherent strength, no matter the circumstance.

As a program with seven Texans on the roster (not to mention its head coach), Notre Dame certainly carries many of the ideals of the Lone Star State with it into the 2011 season. Some say that you can tell a lot about a soccer team by its defensive leaders, and in Jessica Schuveiller, the Fighting Irish have a senior center back who's as tough as boot leather and has a list of appealing qualities as long as a dusty stretch of West Texas highway.

Start with the simple fact that Schuveiller is now in her third season as a team captain at Notre Dame. No player in the 24-year history of Fighting Irish women's soccer has ever served as a three-year team captain prior to Schuveiller's selection last spring. It's a prime example of the kind of respect she has earned from her teammates during her career, but that only scratches the surface.

Schuveiller has been a mainstay in the Notre Dame lineup from the moment she arrived on campus, starting all 78 Fighting Irish matches to date while leading her team to 68 wins and 49 shutouts. She began her career in 2008 by learning under All-America center back Carrie Dew (who went on to win a WPS title with FC Gold Pride in 2010), translating those lessons into her own success in the form of the 2010 NCAA College Cup Most Outstanding Defensive Player award, not to mention second-team all-region and second-team all-BIG EAST citations last year.

A gritty, physical presence who is rarely out of position, Schuveiller is as reliable a defender as any in the entire country. What's more, she relishes playing in the most pressure-packed situations, often raising her level of play to meet the intensity of the moment. She's also developed into a dangerous offensive threat and an opportunistic goal scorer, with all four goals in her career having been match-winners (most recently the decider midway through the first half of the NCAA third-round win at North Carolina).

"Jess brings so much to the table," Waldrum said. "She's a tremendous worker and a leader for us, but she's also kind of an ironman for us. Most people don't realize how injured she was during last year's NCAA tournament, wearing that knee brace and playing those last few rounds with an MCL sprain — there are a lot of players that are out for games with that kind of injury. She's just a tough kid and a warrior, two things that are clear to everyone, but she's also a very smart and talented soccer player. A lot of people don't truly appreciate her skill. Now, she's started to develop the ability to come forward out of the back line, and when she does, she's really lethal. Overall, Jess just 'gets it' and sees the game in a position that's really key for us to have someone who can communicate things. She sees things almost with a coach's eye and she's going to be vital for our success on the backline."

While Schuveiller is a lock to hold down one of the center back positions, her tag-team partner on defense is still to be determined. Senior Molly Campbell made an early and emphatic statement about her ability to fill that role after she moved there just before last year's NCAA Championship. At the time, some considered it a risky move by Waldrum and his staff, as Campbell was not only playing an unfamiliar position on the biggest of stages, but she was replacing an All-American in Lauren Fowlkes, who slid up to the forward line.

Yet, the tactical change paid off brilliantly on both ends, as Fowlkes had nine points (3G-3A) in the tournament, while Campbell meshed perfectly with Schuveiller to provide an almost-impenetrable back wall for the Fighting Irish, who allowed just one goal and recorded five shutouts in six NCAA postseason contests.

Campbell has made herself one of Notre Dame's most valuable contributors because much like Fowlkes, she can play virtually any position on the field. In fact, during her first three seasons with the Fighting Irish, Campbell has seen action in 71 matches and starting 49 times, jumping into the lineup as a forward, attacking midfielder, holding midfielder, outside back and center back. Add in her exceptional fitness level, high soccer IQ, and a calm and focused demeanor and you have an athlete who can take the field any time, anywhere, and come out ahead.

"In some ways, I feel bad for her because we've moved her everywhere during her career," Waldrum said. "In fairness to her, for her four years, we never settled on a spot for her. On the flip side, you need players like Molly, a utility kid that can plug holes for you when the injuries start to happen. Some kids can't do that, but Molly has the personality for it. She doesn't say anything to anybody and nothing rattles her. I think that's why she was able to step in for us in the NCAA's. She has been key for us because she can step into so many different places for us. She's athletic, good enough with the ball, one of our most fit kids, can cover a lot of ground for you, whether she's in the back, in the midfield or if she's playing up front."

Two freshmen also could challenge for the other starting center back position. Taylor Schneider enjoyed a remarkable summer with invitations to train with United States U-18 and U-20 national teams, and will look to carry that success over to the college level. A athletic back with a mature understanding of defensive positioning and good speed, Schneider also could emerge as an offensive threat, something she was able to do often out of central defense or the midfield at Southlake (Texas) Carroll Senior High School, where she collected 23 goals and 19 assists in her prep career.

"Taylor is a little bit more of a runner, someone who is very efficient and played on a highly-competitive club team (the Dallas Texans)," Waldrum said. "I'm hoping now that she has been called back into two (national team) camps this summer that she is coming in with confidence. She is smart and a future center back for us for years to come. She can also play in the defensive midfield spot if we needed her in a pinch."

Meanwhile, Sammy Scofield matured rapidly at the club level in the Chicagoland area with high-powered Eclipse Select, but took that growth to new heights this past summer as a starting center back with the WPS's Chicago Red Stars. Scofield not only helped the Red Stars to 11 wins (including eight shutouts) and a berth in the league title match, but she also was named to the 2011 WPSL All-Championship Team, the only player to make the squad without a minute of college experience to her credit.

Having already faced a wealth of talented players, both college and professional, Scofield's learning curve is sure to be shallower than those of her classmates. Mixing poise on the ball, physicality and a strong presence in the air, she will be difficult to keep out of the lineup and is expected to see significant playing time as a freshman, whether it be as a center back or somewhere else on the field.

"Sammy is probably not as tall as Carrie Dew, but plays a similar composed game to the way Dew did," Waldrum said. "She's very calm and reads the game well. She also can play midfield and I've even seen her play up front for her club team, so in a worst case scenario, if we really needed it, we might take a look at her up there if we feel like we didn't have the depth that we needed."

"We are deep in the back right now, but I think Sammy and Taylor both will compete to step on to the field right away," Waldrum added. "The key will be where will that be. It's a good problem to have. The good thing about it is that these players that we have been recruiting the past seven to eight years are very interchangeable, which is something that attracts us to those types of kids."

At the outside back positions, sophomore Kecia Morway and junior Jazmin Hall have the most experience. Morway played in all 25 matches as a rookie last season, starting 19 times, including all six NCAA Championship contests at the left back spot. She also ranked third among Notre Dame freshmen with 1,722 minutes played and was a Soccer America Second-Team Freshman All-America selection. An ideal fit for the Fighting Irish 4-3-3 system with her ability to not only defend well on the wings, but push forward into the attacking third as well and serve crosses into the area with pace and purpose.

Hall has been a part-time starter at outside back in her first two seasons, earning 14 nods among her 41 career appearances. Another speedy defender with a strong leg and good ballhandling skills, Hall will look to take on a larger role with the Fighting Irish this season after missing portions of her first two years with injuries.

"We knew when we recruited Kecia that she was going to play a lot, but we didn't know how much during her freshman year because we had Jazmin coming back on the left and Julie (Schneider) on the right and Molly (Campbell) at outside back as well," Waldrum said. "The one thing we liked most about Kecia in the recruiting process is she is comfortable on the left side and how good she is at acting out of the back, and you know our system it's vital for our outside backs to get forward. She probably got forward more than any other player on our team. The one thing to worry about is defensively if she is strong enough and disciplined enough to pick when to go and when to stay and she got better as the year went on. Certainly that was critical for us because Jaz went through a season when, most people don't realize, she was injured on and off pretty much the whole year. I don't think we would have won the championship without Kecia, because Jaz wouldn't have been ready for the long minutes that we would have needed from her late in the year."

"The key for us this preseason is how Jaz is physically coming in," Waldrum added. "If she is ready to go, the good thing is Kecia can play on the right side. So you can just play Jaz on the left and Kecia on the right because Kecia is good with her right foot as well. I'm hoping that would be the scenario because then you have two kids who normally play outside back and like to attack."

Senior Ellen Bartindale could see time at any of the back line positions after seeing time in 22 matches during her career to date. In 2009, she had a major impact on Notre Dame's late-season run to the College Cup, starting six times when injuries cut into her team's defensive depth. Gerstle and Jantsch also have the size and veteran experience to fill reserve roles in the Fighting Irish defensive third this fall.

GOALKEEPERS

It's rare to find a team in college soccer that doesn't have at least one question to be answered or one major position to be filled during the preseason. Such is the case at Notre Dame, where the early training period will feature a hotly-contested battle to see who takes over as the starting goalkeeper for the Fighting Irish in the wake of two-year starter and 2010 national championship netminder Nikki Weiss.

However, with the strength of the Notre Dame defense in recent years, the team's keepers have sometimes taken on the lonely appearance of the famed Maytag repairman, and that's a reputation that Waldrum would very much like to keep intact. Still, there's almost always a match or two during the season when the Fighting Irish will have to depend on their goalkeeper to pull out a victory, a result that could mean the difference between a national championship and just another solid season.

Junior Maddie Fox is the lone returning veteran in goal for Notre Dame, having served as Weiss' understudy the past two seasons. The San Jose, Calif., product has appeared in 12 matches thus far, seeing a total of 157:11 between the pipes and making a total of three saves on four shots while sharing eight shutouts. In fact, the only score she's allowed in her college career to date was an own-goal midway through last season.

Molly Campbell

A technically-gifted shot stopper with good instincts and quick reflexes, Fox has an advantage in that she is conscious of the demands, both on and off the field, that come with being a goalkeeper at the college level. It's a base of knowledge that could serve her well as she evolves into an upclass defensive leader.

"I have always been one of those coaches that feel the best players should be on the field, and if they're young, they're young," Waldrum said. "It's kind of the old dilemma about getting a job — 'how do you get experience if you don't give me the job and how do I get the job if you don't give me that experience?' On paper, that's what Maddie has over the freshmen. Having been here a couple of years, she knows what it's like to manage her time, and she knows what it's like to balance academics and athletics. If you look back a couple of years, Maddie has not gotten a lot of actual game experience, so she's not miles ahead in that department, by any means. I've always believed she's a really good shot stopper for us, especially quickness and things down low. Where she really needs some development are high balls and crosses, which are the things that keepers in the women's game need the most help and work on. Nikki (Weiss) wasn't great at that until her junior or senior year even as tall as she was. It's just a difficult part for keepers are high balls."

Fox will be challenged for the starting job by two talented rookies. Sarah Voigt has been a member of the United States U-18 National Team pool for the past three years, and was the top-ranked goalkeeper in the nation among the freshman class of 2011. The Middleburg, Fla., resident also has championship-level experience, leading her high school side to three state semifinals berths in her four prep seasons, including a Florida Class 2A title in 2009. For her high school career, Voigt piled up a school-record 50 shutouts and also set a school standard by giving up just nine goals as a sophomore in 2008-09.

A tall netminder with good range, assertiveness in the penalty area and high-quality clearance abilities, Voigt honed her skills this past summer in WPSL play with Florida Sol FC (alongside future Fighting Irish teammate Elizabeth Tucker), and also joined Tucker on the U.S. Youth Soccer (USYS) ODP U-19 All-Star Team that toured Germany in July.

"Sarah probably the more complete keeper right now, just with her overall game," Waldrum said. "One of the things that's very impressive about Sarah is that she plays the ball very well with her feet. That's one thing we never did enough of with Nikki (Weiss) was to play through her. If we got into trouble, we would kick it out of bounds instead of playing it back to Nikki because it wasn't an area we were totally comfortable in. With Sarah, we're comfortable playing back because she's really good with her feet, so that will be something a little bit different in that we haven't had a keeper like that in a while."

The wild card in this year's Notre Dame goalkeeper derby could be rookie Jennifer Jasper. A promising prospect on the club circuit in recent years, Jasper earned the Golden Glove as the top netminder at the 2010 USYS U-16 Nationals, allowing just one goal in four matches while leading Fort Worth, Texas-based Solar SC to the U-16 national championship. She also spent time as an all-state field hockey goalie at Trinity Valley School in Fort Worth, stringing together 10 consecutive shutouts at one stretch and further sharpening her netminder skills.

With a "full speed ahead, damn the torpedoes" mentality between the pipes, Jasper is easily the most aggressive goalkeeper on the Fighting Irish roster this season. It's this kind of fearless attitude that may serve her well in the college game, and perhaps elevate her into the conversation for playing time early in her career.

"Like Sarah, I think Jen is a bit better on high crosses than Maddie," Waldrum said. "We're also going to find that Jen is the tough kid out of the group, the one that's going to say 'screw it, I'm going for it, and if that means putting my head in the middle of the feet that are swinging at the ball, if that means crashing through a crowd, so be it.' I think she has that toughness that the other two may not have."

COACHES

Two-time National Coach of the Year Randy Waldrum has led Notre Dame to two national championships, five NCAA title match appearances and eight NCAA Women's College Cup berths in his first 12 seasons under the Golden Dome.

Randy Waldrum

Head Coach

13th Season

Midwestern State '81

When Notre Dame went searching for a women's soccer coach in 1999, the University was looking for an experienced tactician and motivator to lead the NCAA's second-winningest program of the 1990s. Notre Dame found exactly what it was looking for in Randy Waldrum, a veteran of coaching at nearly every level who built Notre Dame into the 2004 and 2010 national champions and has kept the Irish among the nation's elite year after year.

From his first coaching job at MacArthur High School in Irving, Texas, to leading Notre Dame to the NCAA title, Waldrum has been recognized by U.S. Soccer as one of the game's top soccer minds. He has held a position on the U.S. national team coaching staff since 1992 and recently completed a successful stint as president for the 28,000-member National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

Waldrum — who has directed Notre Dame to 159 victories, six NCAA College Cups, four national championship matches and two NCAA titles in the past seven seasons (2004-10) — is able to draw on the lessons learned from 29 combined seasons in the college coaching ranks (436-141-30 record/.743), providing the Irish program with the full package in its head coaching position. A respected student of the game, Waldrum has combined with his staff to consistently attract some of the nation's top talent. In the past nine years alone, Notre Dame's incoming classes all have been rated among the top 10 in the nation — highlighted by several elite individuals who have quickly made the transition to the college game.

Waldrum's first 12 Notre Dame teams continued the program's tradition of excellence by combining for a 253-36-11 (.862) record while winning 11 BIG EAST regular-season and seven BIG EAST Tournament titles, and advancing to the NCAA's each year — including College Cup semifinal trips in 2000, 2007 and 2009, runner-up finishes in 1999, 2006 and 2008, and national championships in 2004 and 2010. The Irish also have posted a 71-26-3 (.725) record against NSCAA Top 25 teams in the first 12 seasons of the Waldrum era.

Waldrum's .792 career winning percentage (360-86-23) is third all-time among women's soccer coaches with 10-plus seasons on the Division I level (second among active coaches). During his years at Notre Dame, Waldrum has matched wits versus seven other coaches who are ranked among the top 10 on that list and the Irish own a solid 20-16 (.556) record in those games featuring matchups against top national coaches. In those games, Waldrum has guided the Irish to winning records versus Jerry Smith's Santa Clara team (9-5-0), Mark Krikorian's Florida State crew (3-1-0) and Becky Burleigh's Florida program (2-0-0) — plus a split of two matches each versus Portland (when they were directed by the late Clive Charles) and UCLA (when they were led by Jillian Ellis).

The Irish have totaled a +217 win-to-loss margin in the Waldrum era (253-36-11), also winning nearly 80 percent of their "big matches" when facing an NSCAA Top 25 or postseason opponent (108-26-4, .797). Five of the top six goals-against averages (GAA) in Irish history have also been posted in the Waldrum era (0.39 in 2000, 0.40 in '06, 0.44 in '08, 0.49 in '03 and 0.51 in 2004, with the record of 0.36 set in 1997).

Waldrum's Notre Dame players have combined for 26 All-America honors — led by 2000 national player of the year Anne Makinen, high-scoring forward stand-out Katie Thorlakson (who received 2004 player-of-the-year honors), the program's first two-time Hermann Trophy recipient (and fourth in Division I history) in Kerri Hanks (2006 and 2008) and 2010 Honda Sports Award selection Melissa Henderson. Irish players in the Waldrum era also have combined for 18 Academic All-America awards, including rare double honors (All-America and Academic All-America) for 2001 defender Monica Gonzalez, forward/midfielder Brittany Bock (in 2007 and 2008) and versatile defender/forward Lauren Fowlkes (in 2009 and 2010, only the 13th Notre Dame student-athlete to pull off this double twice). The 2003 squad also became the first in Division I women's soccer history to produce three Academic All-Americans, as defender Vanessa Pruzinsky was named Academic All-American of the Year, while forward Mary Boland and goalkeeper Erika Bohn were second-team selections. Bohn was then tapped as a first-team choice in 2004 and 2005, joining Pruzinsky as two of the 10 three-time Academic All-Americans in Notre Dame athletics history.

Notre Dame returned to the top of the college soccer world in 2010, as Waldrum's charges bounced back from an uncharacteristic early exit from the BIG EAST Tournament with a historic run through the NCAA Championship. Despite a curiously-low No. 4 seed in their NCAA quadrant, the Irish ran roughshod through the opposition, winning their six tournament matches by a combined 15-1 margin (five shutouts), including four wins over other seeded teams, two of which were No. 1 seeds.

Waldrum also led Notre Dame to its 11th BIG EAST regular-season title and seven wins in eight matches against NSCAA Top 25 opponents during the 2010 season (25-1-1) while becoming just the second women's soccer program ever to reach 25 wins in multiple seasons. Only five teams in the 29-year history of Division I women's soccer have totaled more than 25 wins in a season.

Waldrum's 2006 squad led the nation with a team-record 19 shutouts while the 0.40 goals-against average ranked third nationally and was just shy of the Notre Dame record (0.36). The Irish also compiled the nation's top scoring margin (+74; 85-11) and had 28 more goals than their opponents' combined shots on goal (57). Notre Dame allowed a per-game average of only 2.11 shots on goal — setting another team record — and the Irish did not face a deficit for 16 consecutive matches prior to the NCAA final. Hanks collected the first of her two Hermann Trophies that year while joining former UNC great Mia Hamm as the only Division I players ever to end a season as the national leader in both goals (22) and assists (22).

Waldrum's 2005 team turned in another historic season, entering the year ranked No. 1 and leading the nation in scoring (4.40 goals per game). More impressively, the 2005 team's goal total (110, good for 10th in NCAA history) was more than twice the number of shots on goal allowed by the Irish for the entire season (54, with only 15 opponent goals). The Irish rolled up a 60-3 scoring margin during a 13-match winning streak late in the 2005 season. The streak — which saw the Irish allow only two opponent shots on goal — ended in an NCAA quarterfinal loss at eventual national champion Portland.

The 2005 season also featured four All-Americans — Thorlakson, Hanks, Candace Chapman and Jen Buczkowski — who were among the final-15 candidates for the Hermann Trophy as well. Those players each received top BIG EAST honors in 2005 (Thorlakson on offense, Chapman on defense, Buczkowski as best midfielder, Hanks as top rookie), marking the first time that one team had claimed four major BIG EAST player awards. Thorlakson (18G-35A) and Hanks (28G-15A) also became the second pair of teammates in Division I history to eclipse 70 points in the same season.

The nation's only repeat honoree as his region's NSCAA coach of the year in 2003 and '04, Waldrum's clever use of personnel played a key role in the 2004 team's sustained success and postseason push, making efficient use of the roster in order to utilize the team's depth to keep the top players fresh for the postseason (19 different players started in 2004). He also used a variety of formations and made a key decision to install the veteran Chapman at forward, following a broken leg suffered by her classmate Boland. Chapman had not played forward since high school but she responded with an all-BIG EAST season as the team's second-leading scorer (12G-8A).

The 2004 squad posted (at the time) the best winning percentage in program history (.944, 25-1-1), with only three previous Division I teams winning more games in a season. They also finished fourth in the nation with a 0.51 season goals-against average while totaling nearly as many goals (70) as opponent shots on goal (71) and trailing only 102 minutes all season. On the way to the title, Notre Dame beat three Top 25 teams twice (Santa Clara, Boston College and Connecticut), while adding noteworthy wins over Portland, Stanford, West Virginia, Villanova, Michigan and Arizona State. The 2003 and 2004 teams combined to win more than 90 percent of their matches (45-4-2) — a two-year mark that was bettered by the 2005 and 2006 Irish teams (47-4-1).

The Waldrum era began in 1999, with his first five years coinciding with the career of defensive enforcer campaign, including a perfect 4-0 mark against top-10 squads. For his efforts, the NSCAA selected Waldrum as its National Coach of the Year, the second consecutive year that he garnered a national coaching accolade (he was the '09 Soccer America award recipient).

Waldrum's coaching savvy was on full display in that 2009 season, as he calmly steered Notre Dame back from an injury-ravaged 3-3-0 start with a 19-match unbeaten streak (18-0-1) that included 13 consecutive wins during the final two months of the season. The Irish also rolled up 13 shutouts in that 19-match run and charged all the way to their fourth consecutive College Cup appearance, collecting their 11th BIG EAST Tournament crown along the way.

The 2008 season was arguably one of the best in Waldrum's storied coaching career, as he piloted Notre Dame to a school-record 26 victories (all to start the season) and a fourth NCAA College Cup berth in five seasons, as well as a third trip to the national championship match in that span. The Irish also collected their 10th BIG EAST postseason title with a dramatic 1-0 overtime win over Connecticut and trailed for only 4:05 all season, with Notre Dame fielding three All-Americans (Hanks, Bock, Carrie Dew) and the Hermann Trophy winner, as well as four major BIG EAST award winners, including Waldrum's fifth coach of the year honor.

Waldrum coached the Irish to the College Cup weekend once again in 2007, as he helped the team overcome key injuries and a punishing early-season slate. The Irish went on a 17-match unbeaten streak (16-0-1) before falling in the College Cup semifinals, climbing all the way to No. 4 in the final national rankings. In addition, Hanks and Bock were named NSCAA first team All-Americans, marking the first time since 1995 that two forwards from the same team have received first team All-America honors. Bock led the BIG EAST with 10 goals during conference play, while her 16 total goals ranked 11th in the nation. Hanks became the 19th player in NCAA Division I history to reach the 50 goals and 50 assists plateau, with five of those 19 coming from Notre Dame (and four having played for Waldrum at some point in their careers).

In 2006, Waldrum and his staff coached an Irish squad that rates among the most dominant in Notre Dame history. The Irish held the nation's top ranking for most of the season and did not lose until the national title match, tying the (then) team record for wins in a

Head Coach

Pruzinsky, the classic definition of student-athlete who graduated with a 4.00 cumulative GPA as a chemical engineering major while also competing for a spot on the final roster for the U.S. U-21 National Team. Pruzinsky returned for a fifth year of eligibility in 2003 and was named the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year for women's soccer, also receiving a prestigious NCAA postgraduate scholarship.

Waldrum became the first coach in NCAA women's soccer history (third total) to lead his/her team to the national championship match in his first season with a team, after guiding his 1999 squad to four consecutive wins in the NAAs. Three previous first-year coaches had reached the semifinals (doing so in the days of 12- and 16-team NCAA fields), but perhaps none had led a team through a harder route than Waldrum did against the 48-team draw in 1999. The Irish defeated Atlantic-10 champion Dayton and eighth-ranked Stanford (the Pac-10 champ) before topping fourth-ranked and Big 12 champion Nebraska in the quarterfinals via a nail-biting penalty kick shootout.

The rookie coach had the fifth-seeded Irish clicking in their first three rounds of the 1999 NCAA tournament — with that momentum continuing at the College Cup. Earlier in the 1999 regular season, Notre Dame had suffered a 4-2 loss at top-ranked Santa Clara. In the rematch at the NCAA semifinals, Waldrum motivated his team with surprise green jerseys. The Irish responded with an inspired performance in a 1-0 win over the Broncos, as an NCAA-record total of 14,000 fans looked on at San Jose's Spartan Stadium. Despite a loss in the title match two days later, Waldrum had taken Notre Dame further than any previous first-year head coach in Division I women's soccer history.

A new challenge awaited in 2000, as Notre Dame looked to replace five graduated starters — three of them All-Americans, and a fourth the team's all-time leading goal scorer. Under Waldrum's steady hand, the Irish overcame the loss of two injured starters for good chunks of the 2000 season and returned to the top of the rankings, led by a stingy defense that posted a national-best 0.39 goals-against average.

Makinen, the leader of the 2000 midfield unit, went on to earn national player-of-the-year honors while the 2000 Irish posted a 23-1-1 overall record, with the only blemishes being a scoreless battle at BIG EAST rival Connecticut and a 2-1 loss to North Carolina in the NCAA semifinals. The Irish trailed for just 35 minutes all season and captured another BIG EAST crown, with Waldrum repeating as BIG EAST Coach of the Year.

The 2001 squad then claimed the program's seventh consecutive BIG EAST title (only UConn women's basketball had won more consecutive BIG EAST titles, among team-oriented sports) while posting noteworthy wins over Penn State and Nebraska. A series of injuries to key players slowed the 2002 squad but the Irish rallied down the stretch before losing on a late goal at top-ranked Stanford in the NCAA round of 16.

The 2003 squad (20-3-1) returned atop the national scene, owning the No. 2 national ranking for most of the season while emerging as one of the nation's most balanced teams on both sides of the ball — led by a pair of All-Americans in forward Amy Warner and defender Melissa Tancredi.

Waldrum — who served as an assistant coach with the U.S. Women's U-18 and U-20 national teams in the late 1990s — came to Notre Dame after beginning the Baylor women's soccer program from scratch in 1995, ultimately leading the Bears to a 9-0-1 Big 12 Conference record and their first Big 12 championship in any sport in 1998.

In three seasons at Baylor, Waldrum guided the Bears to a 46-14-3 record after he spent 1995-96 starting up the program. He earned Big 12 Conference and NSCAA Central Region coach-of-the-year honors after finishing with a 15-5-1 record in '98. The Bears posted wins over three ranked teams to earn their first NCAA bid and were ranked as high as 12th during the season. He was named the 1996 national coach of the year for a first-year program and likewise, Baylor was chosen by Soccer Buzz as the nation's best first-year program in 1996 after posting a 17-3-1 season.

Prior to his tenure at Baylor, Waldrum spent six seasons (1989-94) as head coach of the men's and women's teams at the University of Tulsa, compiling a 66-33-6 record with the men and a 61-36-9 mark with the women (he remains the winningest all-time coach of both programs). He was voted Central Region coach of the year in 1990 after the Golden Hurricane finished 9-6-1. His Tulsa women's teams produced four all-region players, six Academic All-Americans and two Olympic Festival players.

Waldrum's 1993 Tulsa men's team finished second in the Missouri Valley Conference and fourth in the region with a 10-6-2 record, earning Waldrum MVC and Midwest Region coach-of-the-year honors. His 1991 team won the MVC championship, finishing with a 14-3-0 record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history. His men's teams produced seven All-Americans, two national team members, three U.S. Olympic Festival players and three Professional Indoor Soccer League draft selections. While at Tulsa, Waldrum also served as the state coach for the Olympic Development Program.

Waldrum started a first-year men's program at Texas Wesleyan in 1988 and earlier had his first collegiate head coaching position at Austin College in 1982. He served as director of coaching for the Texas Longhorns Soccer Club from 1987-89, coaching one of the seven teams in the club while overseeing the other teams. His team went 53-4-1 and finished third in the country, with Waldrum coaching and developing two Parade All-Americans, two national team players and one Youth World Cup player with the Longhorns.

Waldrum earned all-district honors all four years of his playing career at Midwestern State University in Wichita Falls, Texas, graduating in 1981 as a physical education major and political science minor. He then played professionally for the Los Angeles Skyhawks and the Indianapolis Daredevils of the American Soccer League.

Born Sept. 25, 1956, the Irving, Texas, native and his wife Dianna have one son, Ben, who competed in professional soccer with the A-League's El Paso Patriots and the MISL's Dallas Sidekicks. Ben also served as an assistant coach on his father's staff at Notre Dame from 2003-07.

A Visit with Randy Waldrum

Q: How do you think the Notre Dame women's soccer program is perceived on a national level and how would you characterize the current state of the program?

A: "I'd like to think people view us as one of the premier programs in the country and I think that is the perception. And that's where we certainly want to keep it.

"What makes the sport of soccer tick is that all coaches and fans see the game a little bit differently. I would love for our team to be viewed as a program that plays a very attractive, attacking style. If I had my wish, I would want it to look like a mixture of the Dutch and the Brazilians, maybe some of Manchester United. Those are models that you'd like your team to look at."

"We've taken what was established and added to it. Previous Notre Dame teams played that attractive style and we've been able to continue that, with probably a little more athleticism — which you need to consistently win the big games. That's how the game has evolved.

"Maybe even a little bit to our downfall, we've always come out and tried to play. We've never just tried to sit back and defend and see if the best team can win from that. An attractive style is a crucial part of how this program will operate."

Q: What will it take to maintain the Notre Dame program at that elite level?

A: "Any coach will tell you it's about the players first. So we certainly have to continue to recruit the best, and our incoming class for 2011 is right up there among the best in the nation. A lot of our success has been due to the fact that we've added kids who are good fits for Notre Dame. That's a big reason why we have been so successful in the past 12 seasons, especially with our national championships in 2004 and 2010. The chemistry of those teams was so incredible, although at times we may not have been as talented as some earlier Notre Dame teams."

Q: What are some of the things that you have come to appreciate most at Notre Dame?

A: "On the outside, I always had an appreciation for the athletic tradition of Notre Dame and knew it was a great academic institution. Since I've been on campus, that certainly is very true and probably 10-fold once you realize the actual tradition. It's truly what a college campus should be all about.

"A couple things that really separate us is how committed the alums are to Notre Dame. We don't go anywhere around the country that somebody doesn't stop and talk to us about Notre Dame, and alumni clubs hold receptions for us all over the country. Those are things you don't find anywhere else.

"The biggest thing is what Notre Dame can do for student-athletes in their future. They get great benefits of playing four years on a top college team and receiving a great education. But in the long run, there are great employment opportunities that being an alum of Notre Dame can open for you. Those are the things that really have amazed me."

Q: Many of your top players have undergone position shifts over the years. What is your philosophy about position changes?

A: "It's fairly common, because so many top kids played in the more high-profile positions with their club teams. It's another intangible when we are evaluating players and one has that versatility to play other positions, because you never know where they might play. We have several players with the skills, maturity and mentality to play multiple positions and they are valuable members of this team.

"We have a trend of playing with several defenders who converted from the offense and they have that sense of what the opposing forwards are going to try to do. That may give them an added edge, because they've been on the other side of the ball."

Q: Your inverted pyramid 4-3-3 system has been used internationally (in some cases by the U.S. Women's National Team) but is fairly unique in the college game. What attracts you to this formation?

A: "I like the system for two primary reasons. First, it gives you four in the back and it's a lot easier to cover the full width of the field. Secondly, it still allows you to keep an attacking presence with three up front. It is the perfect system for the players we've had.

"For the system to work, you need midfielders like we've had in recent years such as Jen Buczkowski, Brittany Bock, Courtney Rosen and now Courtney Barg, who are technically-sound and comfortable handling the ball under pressure. The system also is a 'win-win' defensively, whether you're trying to match up with four or five midfielders from the opposition. You also need great outside backs — which we've had recently with the likes of Candace Chapman, Kim Lorenzen, Christie Shaner and Elise Weber — who can cover a lot of ground on the flanks.

"You recruit to fit your system if you're happy with that system and want to stay in it; or you recruit the best players you can and then develop a system once that group gets there. We're to a point where we can recruit for the system. It doesn't mean that won't change if warranted, but we are very pleased and content with the way the system meshes with our current players."

Q: Your players have said that you have their respect and attention without using an overbearing style. How did that develop?

A: "I played for coaches who were not big yellers and screamers. My high school coach Simon Sanchez is still one of the best coaches I've ever been around. People respected him and loved to play for him, without him needing to ride us all the time — but we still had some intense practices and games.

"Today's athletes are very different. Many don't respond as well to a lot of yelling and screaming. I've always been fortunate to coach players who respond in a positive way and understand what we are asking them to do. We have a very intelligent group and they've been very receptive to our ways of doing things."

What Others Are Saying About Randy Waldrum...

"I've known Randy Waldrum for more than 30 years and he has been a winner at every level he's coached. Randy's knowledge and experiences makes him one of the premier college coaches in the country. Coach Waldrum's teams all have similar characteristics: he lets them play with a lot of freedom and they play with confidence. His teams are always entertaining to watch."

Schellas Hyndman
head coach, FC Dallas (MLS)

"Randy Waldrum is one of the top American soccer coaches in the game today. His success at every level, including youth, collegiate and as an assistant coach at the youth national team level, is an indication of his commitment to the game and his trade."

Tony DiCicco
former U.S. national team head coach former head coach of U.S. U-20 team current head coach, Boston Breakers (WPS)

"One of the great things about Randy is how he handles each player individually and gives players the chances to prove themselves. He also has a calm manner in dealing with players, but he still wants to get the most out of you. Everyone respects him for that and they believe and trust in him. The program is in great hands with Randy leading the way."

Kelly Lindsey '01
former head coach, Sky Blue FC (WPS) former head coach at Saint Mary's (Calif.)
former two-time Notre Dame captain member of Bay Area CyberRays (WUSA)

"Randy Waldrum has molded Notre Dame into one of the top soccer programs in the country, and he has done that while ensuring that his student-athletes remain champions in the classroom and in the community. We are proud to have Randy as our head coach and we look forward to many more years of continued success under his leadership."

Jack Swarbrick
Notre Dame director of athletics

"Randy is one of the nation's most organized and knowledgeable coaches. He has helped set a great standard for Notre Dame soccer. Even though he's such a respected and experienced coach, he remains very humble and has a great thirst for gathering knowledge about the game. He travels around the world to observe at various soccer events and is constantly improving his ability as a coach."

Assistant Coaches

Dawn Greathouse

Assistant Coach

Ninth Season

Baylor '01

Former Baylor All-American and WUSA goalkeeper Dawn Greathouse enters her ninth season as an assistant coach on the Notre Dame women's soccer staff, reuniting with her former college coach Randy Waldrum, who departed Baylor for Notre Dame after the 1998 season. Greathouse currently holds an advanced national diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

Greathouse has provided valuable instruction and insight for some of the greatest goalkeepers in program history in 2006 graduate Erika Bohn (who went on to be one of two goalkeepers on the U.S. U-21 National Team at the 2005 Nordic Cup) and 2008 graduate Lauren Karas. Bohn — a rare three-time Academic All-American — earned NSCAA all-region honors in 2003 and then was an all-BIG EAST Conference selection in 2005. She ranks fourth in the Notre Dame record book with a 0.69 career goals-against average (GAA) and is third in Irish women's soccer history with 6,788 career minutes played. While under the tutelage of Greathouse, Karas posted the second highest career winning-percentage among Irish goalkeepers (.902) and the third-best GAA (0.65).

Greathouse made an immediate impact in her first two seasons at Notre Dame, the second of which saw the Irish win their second national championship. In 2003, the Irish finished fifth in the nation with a 0.49 season goals-against average in 2003 and were fourth with 15 shutouts — also compiling a 956-minute shutout streak that ranks fifth in NCAA history (longest since 1999). Notre Dame faced just one deficit in the first 19 matches of the 2003 season, en route to a 20-3-1 record. The 2004 national championship season then saw the Irish lead the nation with 18 shutouts while nearly reclaiming the GAA title (4th, at 0.51). The 25-1-1 season featured just 108 minutes with the Irish playing from behind, limiting 24 of the 27 opponents to one goal or fewer, while the other three foes managed to score twice (two coming in the first four games, with only 10 goals allowed over the final 25).

Following the 2004 NCAA title-game win over UCLA, Bohn quickly credited Greathouse when asked about her clutch performances in that pressure-packed contest. Bohn's six saves that day included three in penalty-kick situations, one coming late in regulation to preserve the 1-1 tie while her final save (in the shootout) clinched the title.

Most recently, Greathouse tutored Kelsey Lysander ('10) and Nikki Weiss ('11) to consecutive standout seasons. During the 2008 campaign, the Irish netminding duo combined for 18 shutouts (second-most in school history) with an 0.44 GAA (fourth-lowest in program annals). Individually, Lysander set or tied school records for wins (26), winning percentage (.963, 26-1-0) and total shutouts (18) while ranking sixth in the nation in GAA (0.44) and being named to the NCAA College Cup All-Tournament Team.

The past two seasons (2009-10), it was Weiss' turn, as she stepped in as the starter midway through '09 and wound up posting a 14-2-1 record and seven solo shutouts (part of the team's 16 clean sheets), helping spark Notre Dame's 19-game unbeaten streak during the final two months of the season. Weiss also set a new BIG EAST record with a 0.15 GAA in regular-season league play, allowing just one goal in 597 minutes.

Last year, Weiss costumed the Irish to their third national title, starting all 25 matches (21-2-2 record) and logging a 0.49 GAA with 10 solo shutouts and an .876 save percentage (second-best in school history).

"Dawn has done a great job with our 'keepers and we expect that to continue on an even higher level in the future," says Waldrum.

"Dawn is one of the best goalkeepers I've ever coached and her skills and knowledge are further legitimized by the fact that she played in the WUSA. She brings a great level of experience but also knows what the expectations are on the pro level. Dawn is able to expose our players to what the inner workings of elite-level soccer are all about and that supports what our staff as a whole is trying to teach the players."

Greathouse — who trained with the U.S. U-20 National Team in 1998 — played with the Washington Freedom in the first two seasons of the Women's United Soccer Association (2001 and 2002), also playing for the San Jose CyberRays in 2002 and '03. She made eight career starts in the WUSA while backing up U.S. National Team players Siri Mullinix (Washington) and former Notre Dame All-American Lakeysia Beene (San Jose).

Greathouse logged 7,121 minutes (sixth in NCAA history at the time) in her four-year Baylor career while posting a 1.20 goals-against average, an .802 save percentage and 28 shutouts. The three-time all-Big 12 Conference and three-time Big 12 all-academic team honoree posted her top season as a sophomore in 1998, earning NSCAA second team All-America honors after ranking 12th in the nation with a 0.69 GAA. She helped the 1998 team win Baylor's first Big-12 title in any sport — before an ACL knee injury sidelined her from Baylor's second straight trip to the NCAA.

An NSCAA and Parade All-American at Allen (Texas) High School, Greathouse helped the Texas Longhorns club program place second nationally and trained with the U.S. U-16 and U-17 national teams.

During her youth soccer days, Greathouse played goalkeeper for her club team but also was a skilled forward with the Allen High School squad. She set the school record for career goals and also held the single-season goals record that later was broken by former Notre Dame All-American Kerri Hanks.

Born Feb. 10, 1979, in Rochester, N.Y., Greathouse graduated from Baylor in 2001 with a degree in health fitness.

Assistant Coach

Fourth Season

Saint Francis (Ind.) '93

Following a storied career at the NAIA level, Ken Nuber is starting his fourth season as an assistant coach at Notre Dame. Nuber came to South Bend in 2008 after 13 highly-successful seasons as the head women's soccer coach at the University of Saint Francis in Fort Wayne, Ind.

An exceptionally-gifted game tactician and scout, Nuber has wasted little time in providing a positive impact on Notre Dame's fortunes. In his first three years under the Golden Dome, the Irish have posted a 68-7-3 (.891) record, winning the 2010 national championship, reaching the 2008 NCAA final and advancing to the 2009 NCAA Women's College Cup, in addition to winning three BIG EAST regular-season and two postseason championships.

"I've known Ken for over a decade and I saw firsthand his work with the Saint Francis program," Irish head coach Randy Waldrum said. "I believe he is an up-and-coming coach with a bright future in our profession. His teams at Saint Francis were well-disciplined, organized, and tried to play the game in a way that fits our Notre Dame style. He is top class in his character and brings a wealth of head coaching experience to our staff. I'm extremely excited to have him on board, and look to have him contribute to our continued success in every aspect of our program."

In 2008, Nuber helped the Irish to a spot in the NCAA title game and school-record 26 wins, including nine over National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Top 25 teams, highlighted by a regular-season sweep of Santa Clara, North Carolina and Duke.

A year later, Nuber's creativity and ingenuity played an important role in guiding Notre Dame back from an injury-ravaged 3-3-0 start with a 19-game unbeaten streak and the program's fourth consecutive College Cup appearance.

Last season, Nuber played a critical role in Notre Dame's historic six-match run to the national championship, preparing wildly-successful game plans for five wins over ranked teams (including four seeded clubs), punctuated by a dominating 4-1 win at North Carolina in the third round, and a clinical 1-0 victory over Stanford in the NCAA title match.

Nuber founded the Saint Francis women's soccer program in 1995 and amassed a 170-96-14 (.632) record with the Cougars, piloting them to six Mid-Central Conference (MCC) titles and eight NAIA regional tournament berths, including regional finals appearances in 2002 and 2007. He also coached four NAIA All-Americans and 27 NAIA honorable mention All-Americans, as well as five regional players of the year during his tenure. What's more, his 170 victories rank seventh on the NAIA all-time wins list.

A three-time MCC Coach of the Year and two-time regional coach of the year, Nuber worked hard to maintain a standard of excellence on and off the field at Saint Francis. His players won 34 NAIA Scholar-Athlete All-America honors in his 13 seasons, and the Cougars earned 10 consecutive NSCAA Team Academic Awards, with their 3.61 team grade-point average (GPA) in 2007 ranking fourth among collegiate programs at all levels of competition. In addition, Saint Francis was chosen to receive the 2007 NAIA Program of Character Award given for achievement in five categories: sportsmanship, respect, responsibility, servant leadership and integrity.

Nuber was one of the most respected coaches in the NAIA fraternity, having spent eight years on the NSCAA/NAIA Women's Coaches Association Executive Council, including a turn as the group's president from 2006-08. He also served seven years as chair of the NAIA All-America Committee, five years at the chair of the NAIA National Championship Selection Committee, four years as chair of the NAIA Scholar-Athlete All-America Selection Committee and three years as chair of the NSCAA/NAIA Coach of the Year Selection Committee.

Nuber also was an assistant coach with the Fort Wayne Fever of the United Soccer League's W-League in 2004, helping the Fever to an 11-3-1 record in their inaugural season and a second-place finish in the Midwest Division.

Nuber was involved with the Saint Francis athletics community for nearly two decades, beginning with his enrollment at the university and participation with the men's soccer program from 1989-92. He ranks second in school history for career goals (43) and points (100), and is among the school's all-time leaders in several other statistical categories.

In 1994, Nuber returned to his alma mater when he was tapped to lead the Cougar men's soccer program, compiling a 32-60-2 (.351) mark during five seasons at the helm. All told, he posted a combined record of 202-156-16 (.561) in 14 seasons coaching the men and women at Saint Francis.

Nuber also spent time as the head coach of the Saint Francis softball program from 2000-03, registering a 75-74 (.503) record and standing as the school's leader in career victories. One of the true legends in Cougar athletics history, he was inducted into the Saint Francis Athletics Hall of Fame in 2005.

Born Oct. 3, 1970, in Cincinnati, Ohio, Nuber graduated from Saint Francis in 1993 with a bachelor of arts degree in communications and an area of concentration in business. He also has received a pair of coaching certifications from the NSCAA, having earned his national diploma in 1997 and his advanced national diploma in 1999.

He and his wife, Gina, are the proud parents of two children — daughter Mya (7) and son Jayden (5).

Jeannette Boudway

Coordinator of Soccer Operations

Fourth Season

DePaul '01

Jeannette Boudway is in her fourth season with the Notre Dame women's soccer program and her first as coordinator of soccer operations, following a stint as the team's volunteer assistant coach. In her current role, her responsibilities include team travel, equipment, budgeting and on-campus recruiting, as well as assisting with team marketing and promotions, and oversight of the Notre Dame summer soccer camps.

Boudway came to Notre Dame from the University of Alabama at Birmingham, where she spent three seasons (2005-07) as an assistant coach for the Blazers. During her time at UAB, Boudway helped the Blazers to a 25-30-4 record, the 2006 Conference USA Tournament championship and a bid in the '06 NCAA Tournament. She worked with 10 all-conference performers and five all-region selections during her three-year tenure in Birmingham, and also oversaw the program's equipment, travel, digital match analysis, budgeting and recruiting, in addition to off-season work with community service, alumni affairs and camp administration.

Boudway began her coaching career in 2002 as an assistant coach at Grand Valley State University, helping the Lakers to a 13-4-1 record (at the time the most wins in school history) and a runner-up finish in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. She then moved on to Barry University in Miami Shores, Fla., where she spent one year as a volunteer assistant coach in 2004, contributing to the Buccaneers' 12-3-2 record (7-0-1 in the Sunshine State Conference), as well as an NCAA Division II Tournament berth.

Boudway also has experience as a coach at the club level, having previously worked with the Plantation (Fla.) Eagles FC, Birmingham (Ala.) United, and most recently with the Junior Irish Soccer Club in Mishawaka, Ind. Currently, she has started a soccer program with Invaders and Echo for children ages 4-8 called Mini Select Soccer. The program includes skills sessions on Monday nights and games on Friday nights. Invaders and Echo are working together to provide this opportunity to youth in the Michiana community. She also coaches a U11 team at Invaders after working with the same players on the U10 team at Invaders in 2010.

A native of Naperville, Ill., the former Jeannette Croce enjoyed a stellar playing career at DePaul University from 1997-2000, collecting third-team all-C-USA honors in 1997 and serving as team captain during her final two seasons (1999 and 2000). She remains among the top 10 in school history for career goals (4th, 14), points (6th, 35), assists (8th, 7) and games started (9th, 70), and she was a four-time selection to the C-USA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll.

Boudway graduated from DePaul in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in accounting. She went on to earn her master's degree in sports management and business administration from Barry in 2005. In addition, she has received her Advanced National Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA), and has obtained a "C" coaching license from the United States Soccer Federation (USSF).

Boudway and her husband, Ryan (an assistant director in the Notre Dame Athletics Ticket Office), were married in April 2008 and make their home in South Bend with their infant son, Cal.

When Father Edward F. Sorin started his school in the northern Indiana wilderness, he had only $300, three log buildings badly in need of repair and a far-sighted vision of establishing a liberal arts school to meet the growing educational needs of the frontier. He dreamed of building a great university, and in 1842, he founded the University of Notre Dame du Lac.

Over the years, the University of Notre Dame du Lac would evolve into a preeminent place for Catholic thought. While becoming one of the top undergraduate institutions in the country, Notre Dame has also been at the cutting edge of research, including such innovations as the transmission of wireless messages and the development of synthetic rubber. Today researchers are achieving breakthroughs in astrophysics, radiation chemistry, environmental sciences, tropical disease transmission, cancer, robotics, and nanoelectronics.

The University has also stressed residential life, with four-of-five students living on campus in the school's 29 residence halls that serve as the focal point of social, spiritual and athletic activities. Notre Dame is one of a handful of universities with a truly international student body, coming from over 100 nations and all 50 states. Students come to Notre Dame not only to learn how to think, but to learn how to live, keeping faith with the vision of Fr. Sorin.

Notre Dame is one of the few universities to regularly rank in the top 25 in the U.S. News & World Report survey of America's best colleges and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Directors' Cup standings of the best overall athletics programs. The University ranks first among all Catholics universities worldwide, according to the 2011 times Higher Education survey and the Mendoza College of Business at Notre Dame boasts the No. 1 undergraduate business program in the nation according to BusinessWeek magazine.

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C. President

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., is in his second five-year term as the 17th president of the University of Notre Dame. His vision is for Notre Dame to be the Catholic research university for our time — an institution that unifies, enlightens and heals by engaging in scholarship of the first rank while maintaining its distinctive Catholic character and long-time excellence in undergraduate education.

During his tenure, Notre Dame has made significant progress toward its research goal, including selection as the lead partner in the Midwest Institute for Nanoelectronics Discovery, the creation of the Innovation Park research facility, and the construction of Stinson Remick Hall of Engineering.

His commitment to undergraduate education has been marked by the Notre Dame Forums, yearlong initiatives that have examined important issues such as religion and world conflict, global health, immigration and energy.

The University's Catholic identity has been strengthened during Father Jenkins' tenure in multiple ways, including the appointment of a coordinator for University life initiatives and the construction of multimillion-dollar facilities for the Institute for Church Life, including the Center for Social Concerns, and the Institute for Educational Initiatives, which includes the Alliance for Catholic Education.

Father Jenkins earned bachelor's and master's degrees in philosophy from Notre Dame in 1976 and 1978, respectively, and was ordained a priest of the Congregation of Holy Cross in 1983. He holds advanced degrees from Oxford and the Jesuit School of Theology. He is a professor of philosophy and the author of Knowledge and Faith in Thomas Aquinas.

A native of Omaha, Neb., Father Jenkins was born Dec. 17, 1953.

Vice President • Director of Athletics

John B. "Jack" Swarbrick Jr., a University of Notre Dame graduate who rose to national prominence as a lawyer, consultant and executive in the collegiate and Olympic sports industries, is in his fourth year as vice president and director of athletics at his alma mater.

Among Swarbrick's athletics initiatives are meeting the performance needs of Notre Dame student-athletes through establishment of a new sports performance division, reaching out to more former Irish student-athletes via the Notre Dame Monogram Club and other programs, utilizing emerging digital technologies to deliver better information on and access to Notre Dame athletic programs via expanded production and distribution of programming, and restructuring Notre Dame's approach to sport administration through assignment of a unique administrator to each of the 26 Irish sports.

Notre Dame ranked number one in the country (among Football Bowl Subdivision schools) in the three most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) surveys -- in 2010 and 2009 with 99 scores (including in '09 a 97 score and '10 a 96 in football that both also ranked number one). The 2009 Academic Progress Rate (APR) statistics included more perfect 1,000 scores by Irish teams (nine) than by any other FBS institution. The 2010 Notre Dame APR report featured eight perfect 1,000 scores.

The past three years combined in Notre Dame athletics have featured 94 All-Americans, 19 Academic All-America selections and five NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship winners; record involvement in community service hours by Irish student-athletes; NCAA titles in 2011 in men's and women's fencing (a combined championship) and in 2010 in women's soccer (with Randy Waldrum named coach of the year); NCAA runner-up team finishes in 2011 women's basketball, 2010 men's lacrosse, 2009 fencing and 2008 women's soccer; NCAA semifinal appearances in 2011 hockey, 2009 and 2010 women's tennis and 2009 women's soccer, plus a 2010 third-place fencing finish; a men's basketball modern program record 27 victories and a number-two NCAA seed (its highest in 30 years) in 2010-11 (resulting in national coach of the year awards for Mike Brey); the hiring of new Irish head football coach Brian Kelly to start the 2010 season; construction of a new, freestanding ice hockey arena, scheduled to open for the 2011-12 season, plus the 2009-10 dedications of new facilities for soccer and lacrosse -- as well as opening of the new Purcell Pavilion within the south dome of the Joyce Center.

Born in Yonkers, N.Y., and raised in Yonkers and Bloomington, Ind., Swarbrick is a 1976 magna cum laude graduate of Notre Dame with a bachelor's degree in economics. Upon graduating from Stanford University Law School in 1980, he returned to Indiana to accept a position as an associate in the Indianapolis law firm Baker & Daniels. He made partner in 1987 and spent 28 years overall with the firm.

As a member of the Indiana Sports Corporation, including the chairmanship from 1992 to 2001, Swarbrick led many of the city's successful proposals to a wide array of athletics organizations -- from the National Football League to the United States Olympic Committee to the Big Ten Conference. His leadership efforts resulted in the city earning the right to play host to the 2012 Super Bowl in Indianapolis at Lucas Oil Stadium; becoming the home of the National Collegiate Athletic Association national headquarters in 1999; hosting the 1987 Pan American Games, 1991 World Gymnastics Championships, NCAA Men's Basketball Final Fours and other college championship competitions and an array of national and world championships in Olympic sports.

At Baker & Daniels, Swarbrick served as general counsel for numerous national governing bodies of Olympic sports, including USA Gymnastics and USRowing, and as a consultant to the 1996 Summer Olympic Games in Atlanta.

In his work as an advisor to the NCAA, Swarbrick coordinated the men's College Basketball Partnership, an NCAA-led group that addresses the opportunities and challenges in the sport, and developed the business plan for the new NBA/NCAA youth basketball enterprise, iHoops. In 2000 Swarbrick received one of the NCAA's highest honors, The Flying Wedge Award, for his work in establishing Indianapolis as the new home of the NCAA. In 2001 the State of Indiana presented him with the Sagamore of the Wabash Award.

Born March 19, 1954, Swarbrick was named Notre Dame's 12th athletics director on July 16, 2008. He and his wife, Kimberly, are the parents of four children: Kate, a 2010 graduate of St. Louis University; Connor, a 2011 graduate of Wake Forest University; Cal, a sophomore at TCU; and Christopher, a University of Notre Dame freshman.

GIVE A GIFT and LEAVE A LEGACY

Over 650 student-athletes on 26 varsity teams excelling in academics, spirituality, community service and athletics - all made possible courtesy of the generous alumni, parents and friends who support Notre Dame's first athletics annual fund – the Rockne Heritage Fund.

The culmination of these gifts assists the University in underwriting athletics scholarships that are the lifeblood of every program that wants to recruit the best and the brightest and compete for national championships.

Our work has just begun. Scholarships are one of the largest line items in the department of athletics operating budget, accounting for roughly $14 million annually.

Director's Circle

Members donating to the Rockne Heritage Fund at the $1,500, $5,000, $10,000 and $25,000 levels, receive a corresponding benefits package.

HONORS & AWARDS

NSCAA First Team All-America (2009)

Hermann Trophy Semifinalist (2009)

BIG EAST Midfielder of the Year (2009)

First Team All-BIG EAST (2009)

NCAA College Cup All-Tournament Team (2008, 2010)

BIG EAST All-Tournament Team (2009)

Three-year monogram winner ... 2011 team tri-captain with childhood friends (and classmates) Melissa Henderson and Jessica Schuvelier ... poised, intelligent and versatile player who continues to be one of nation's elite midfielders ... a former Hermann Trophy semifinalist who could contend for that award in 2011 ... serves as the connective tissue between the Irish offense and defense, with strong abilities at both ends of the pitch ... mixes great technical skill on the ball with exceptional vision and creativity ... plays well under pressure ... showed her full value during 2010 NCAA Championship, coming back from preseason injury to organize renewed Irish offense to national title ... also expected to be an outstanding Academic All-America candidate in 2011, owning a sharp 3.612 cumulative grade-point average and three BIG EAST All-Academic Team citations as an accounting major in Notre Dame's Mendoza College of Business.

ASA JUNIOR: Made critical contributions for the Irish despite missing first two months of the season with injury ... appeared in 11 matches, starting 10 times (including all six NCAA Championship contests) ... collected an assist and took four shots (one on goal) ... made season debut Oct. 15 at Connecticut (1-1), coming off the bench ... returned to starting lineup two days later at Providence (3-1), setting up Rose Augustus's insurance goal in 59th minute ... although injury rehab didn't allow her to play full time, she averaged better than 75 minutes in the NCAA tournament, providing the calming influence for Irish attack that outscored opposition 15-1 in six-match run ... named to NCAA College Cup All-Tournament Team for second time in three seasons, thanks in large part to her near-flawless midfield performance in 87 minutes of national title match win over #1 Stanford (1-0).

AS A SOPHOMORE: NSCAA first-team All-American ... semifinalist for the Hermann Trophy ... BIG EAST Midfielder of the Year and first-team All-BIG EAST selection ... one of three Irish players to start all 26 matches and one of five to play more than 2,000 minutes (2,109) ... logged one goal and two assists on 22 shots (eight on goal) ... only score of the season was a match-winner, coming on a long-range shot 6:24 into a 2-0 win over Northwestern ... also notched assists in back-to-back victories over Connecticut (6-1) and Providence (2-0) ... earned a place on the Inn at Saint Mary's Classic and BIG EAST all-tournament teams, with the Irish winning the latter event for the 11th time (and second consecutive year) ... played critical role in Notre Dame's 19-match unbeaten streak (18-0-1) over the final two months of the season, going all 90 minutes (and beyond, in some cases) on 12 occasions, including a seven-match stretch from Sept. 18 (DePaul)-Oct. 11 (Seton Hall).

AS A FRESHMAN: Played in all 27 matches for the Irish ... made 17 starts, including starting each of Notre Dame's six contests in the NCAA Championship ... earned her first career start versus Santa Clara in Notre Dame's third match of the season ... had three goals and three assists for nine points on the season ... scored her first career goal versus Louisville in Notre Dame's 4-1 win over the Cardinals ... that goal was also her first career match-winner ... had a goal and an assist when the Irish defeated Georgetown, 3-1, in early October ... her assist in the Georgetown game was a flick header to Henderson for the match-winning goal ... recorded her next point with an assist in Notre Dame's 2-0 regular season win at Connecticut ... notched her first career post-season point with an assist in NCAA Championship first-round action as the Irish defeated Toledo (5-2) ... had the lone goal in 1-0 College Cup semifinal win over #5 Stanford for second match-winner of the season ... from the edge of the box, Barg fired home a pass from Henderson, beating the Stanford goalkeeper low and to her right side ... named to College Cup All-Tournament Team ... for the year, she was one of 10 Notre Dame players to net a match-winner and one of a record-setting 19 Irish players to score.

NATIONAL TEAM/ODP/CLUB HIGHLIGHTS: Member of the U.S. Under-17 National Team in 2006 ... earlier was a member of the U.S. U-16s ('04 and '05) and with the U-15s, in 2004 ... attended U-17 National Team camps/tournaments in Vancouver, British Columbia, Carson, Calif. (at the Home Depot Center); and Buenos Aires, Argentina (all in 2006) ... 2005 camps with the U-16s took her to the HDC (twice), J-Village, Japan, and Boca Raton, Fla. (she also attended a 2004 U-16 camp at the HDC) ... earlier attended two U-15 national camps at the HDC, plus a U-14 camp in Concord, Mass. ('03) ... member of the ODP Region III team from 2003-06 ... also competed with ODP North Texas state team from 2002-06 ... played alongside Henderson and Schuvelier on elite Dallas Texans club team (U-13 and U-11, with 1990 birthday group; she later moved up to '89s while the other two stayed with '90s) ... switched to Sting Dallas '90 (along with Henderson, Schuvelier and former Texans coach Kenny Medina) for 2007-08 season ('90s; U-18) ... played mostly with older 1989 age group while with the Texans (from 2002-07; earlier played with different '90s Texans team from 2000-02) ... helped Sting Dallas '90 squad to 2008 Region III and state cup titles, and finished as USYS national runner-up (at North Little Rock, Ark.) ... team also won 2007 Premier League and LHGL titles ... member of Texans '89s team that won 2007 state cup, Disney Showcase, league and LHGL titles ... helped lead Texans '89s to 2006 USYS nationals (in Des Moines, Iowa), after winning Region III title (also won league, LHGL and Disney Showcase) ... her 2005 Texans team was a Region III finalists (state cup champs) while the 2004 squad made a trip to USYS nationals (in Orlando), after winning Region III (also won Disney while being runner-up for state cup, league and LHGL) ... competed in Barcelona, Spain, at the 2002 Fox Kids Cup.

PREP & PERSONAL: Three-year member of youth national teams ... four-year NSCAA youth All-American (for 2004-07 seasons) ... two-time Parade All-American (2007 and 2008) ... also earned 2006 NSCAA high school All-America honors (during junior season; didn't play as a senior due to club-team commitments) ... joined Schuvelier in leading Plano West High School to the 2007 state 5A title (as juniors) ... earned 2007 first team all-area status ... named county and district newcomer of the year as a freshman in 2005 ... recorded a 4.2 GPA in high school ... daughter of Robert and Mary Anne Barg ... full name is Courtney Barg ... born Nov. 8, 1989, in Dallas, Texas ... currently enrolled in the Mendoza College of Business where she is an accounting major ... twice earned dean's list honors (spring and fall of 2009) ... carries an impressive 3.612 cumulative GPA ... three-time BIG EAST All-Academic Team selection (2008-09 through 2010-11) ... 2010 NSCAA/adidas First-Team Scholar All-Region choice ... spent portion of summer 2010 studying abroad in England ... earned certification from Notre Dame's Rosenthal Leadership Academy in 2010-11.

HONORS & AWARDS

CoSIDA Academic All-District (2009, 2010)

Three-year monogram winner ... one of team's most versatile players, having seen time at all three field positions during her career (much like former All-America teammate Lauren Fowlkes, another former metro Kansas City product and 2011 Notre Dame graduate) ... exceptionally fit athlete who looks to have inside track to maintain starting center back spot she took over during last year's NCAA tournament ... possesses great technical ability on the ball along with excellent mobility ... unflappable personality allows her to adjust to new positions and blend well into the Irish system at both ends of the pitch ... intelligent player who picks up concepts quickly ... also a standout in the classroom who once again will be an Academic All-America candidate in 2011 after earning academic all-district honors the past two years.

AS A JUNIOR: CoSIDA Academic All-District Second Team pick ... saw action in all 25 Irish matches, starting 22 times (1,753 minutes) during Notre Dame's third national championship season ... fitness and durability were on full display in NCAA Championship, when she started all six matches for the Irish and played 538 of a possible 540 minutes at center back (all but final two vs. #22 USC in second round) ... despite playing primarily in defensive roles as back and midfielder, she ranked sixth on team with career-high 27 shots (six on goal) ... took match-high (and career-high-tying) six shots, including two on frame, against Texas Tech (2-0) in final of Inn at Saint Mary's Classic ... had three shots (one on goal) against Syracuse (3-0) ... tallied four shots, one being on frame, against St. John's (4-1) ... credited with three shots (one on goal) against Rutgers (3-2) ... came off bench for two of final three regular-season matches, plus BIG EAST quarterfinal against Connecticut (0-2) ... was key cog on Irish back line in NCAA Championship as Notre Dame outscored its six opponents, 15-1 and posted five shutouts ... four of those clean sheets came against nationally-ranked teams, and the last three away from home — #22 USC (4-0), #6 Oklahoma State (2-0), #17 Ohio State (1-0) and #1 Stanford (1-0).

AS A SOPHOMORE: CoSIDA Academic All-District First Team selection ... made excellent use of spring 2009 and fall 2009 preseason training to win the starting left back job for Notre Dame ... started all 26 matches for the Irish, one of three players to start every contest in '09 ... led team with 2,225 minutes played, including 17 matches in which she played every minute ... logged one goal and three assists ... found the back of the net in the second match of the season, scoring key insurance goal less than three minutes into the second half of victory over Loyola-Chicago (2-0) in final contest at old Alumni Field ... also tallied season-high six shots (all on goal) against Loyola ... delivered the secondary assist on Lauren Fowlkes' goal that started the scoring in BIG EAST opening-night win over DePaul (4-0) ... helped Irish break through sturdy Louisville defense, serving a cross to Fowlkes, who headed home the game's lone score in the 50th minute ... although not officially credited with the assist, her cross led to Taylor Knaack's overtime goal at West Virginia (3-2, ot) ... also earned her first career postseason point when she had the secondary assist on Rachel VanderGenugten's first career goal with less than two minutes left in the first half of the NCAA Championship opener against IUPUI (5-0) ... was critical contributor on Notre Dame back line during 19-match unbeaten streak (18-0-1) over final two months of the season, helping the Irish post 13 shutouts in that span and going the distance in all but one of the 13 consecutive Notre Dame wins that capped the streak.

AS A FRESHMAN: Played in 20 matches for the Irish ... saw her first collegiate action versus Michigan, logging 57 minutes in Notre Dame's 7-0 season-opening win ... earned her first career start versus Loyola Marymount (4-0) in the second match of the season ... notched her first career goal versus SMU for her only points of the season ... for the year, she was one of a record-setting 19 players to score ... logged 30 minutes of play in Notre Dame's 5-2 defeat of Toledo in NCAA Championship first round action ... registered 16 shots on the season.

ODP/CLUB HIGHLIGHTS: A two-time NSCAA youth All-American ('05-'06) ... played with the Region II ODP team ('89s) from 2003-'06 ... toured Brazil ('07) and France ('05) with Region II team ... attended 2006 USYS national training camp (Houston) and Boca Raton inter-regional events ('05, '06) ... one of the leading players for the KCFC Alliance Jazz club team that won the Kansas state cup in 2002 and '03 (also '07 runner-up and semifinalist in '05 and '06) ... helped Jazz win 2007 Score at the Shore (Tampa), the '07 Midwest All-Girls Championship, the '07 Omaha Showcase, the '06 Best of the West, the '06 Germantown Invitational (Memphis, Tenn.), the '06 Creighton Invitational, the '05 D'feeters Thanksgiving Showcase (Dallas), two Kansas Invitationals ('04, '05) and three Heritage Invitationals ('02-'04).

PREP & PERSONAL: 2008 Missouri Gatorade Player of the Year ... helped lead St. Teresa's Academy (Kansas City, Mo.) to a pair of Missouri state titles (class-2/large schools), in '05 and '06, as well as third-place finish in '08 (delivered two assists in '06 title match and another in '08 third-place contest) ... earned first team all-state and all-metro honors in 2006 and '08 ... set STA record for assists in a season (27 in 2008; broke own record of 19 set in '06) ... has played alongside fellow ND senior Ellen Jantsch since they were nine years old (club and high school) ... member of '06 St. Teresa's team that knocked off nation's top-ranked team (St. Joseph's Academy) in state semifinals (3-0) before beating Fort Zumwalt West, 4-0 in final ... earlier helped beat Incarnate Word Academy (2-1) in '05 state title match ... 2007 NSCAA Scholar All-America and Scholar All-Central Region honoree ... an honor-roll student every semester at STA ... a national merit commended scholar ... served as yearbook sports editor while receiving Missouri high school journalism awards for sports writing and design ... daughter of Doug and Susan Campbell ... full name is Margaret Elizabeth Campbell ... born Oct. 26, 1989, in Kansas City, Mo. ... currently enrolled in the College of Arts and Letters as a political science major ... carries an impressive 3.589 cumulative GPA ... three-time BIG EAST All-Academic Team selection (2008-09 through 2010-11).

NCAA First Team All-America (2010)

Soccer America First Team MVP (2009, 2010)

BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year (2010)

BIG EAST Rookie of the Year (2008)

NCAA College Cup Offensive MVP (2010)

BIG EAST Championship Offensive MVP (2008)

All-BIG EAST (2008, 2009, 2010)

U.S. Under-23 National Team (2009-11)

Three-year monogram winner ... 2011 team tri-captain ... exceptionally-gifted attacker who is the country's top returning offensive threat and the leading candidate for the Hermann Trophy in 2011 (after finishing as its first runner-up a year ago) ... twice has been nominated for ESPY Award, once in high school and again last season ... among the premier goal scorers in the land due to her great speed, athleticism and creativity ... her speed makes it risky for any defense to try to employ an offside trap against the Irish ... great at reading the game and being able to switch the point of attack on the dribble ... a great first touch that allows her to see the field and beat defenders before they have time to get settled ... skilled technical player whose finishing skills are virtually unmatched ... scoring abilities have drawn added attention from defenses, and she has worked hard to sharpen her playmaking skills, opening up numerous opportunities for her teammates ... also works hard to track back defensively ... has a fierce competitiveness and great focus ... not satisfied with success, having shown improvement and greater diversity to her game each season.

IN THE ND RECORD BOOK: Currently ranks among the top 15 in school history in seven career categories — goals (11th - 52), goals per match (6th - 0.68), points (15th - 122), match-winning goals (2nd - 20), match-winning points (4th - 48), first goals (2nd - 15) and hat tricks (6th - 3) ... also set to become 27th player in school history with at least 20 goals and 20 assists in her career ... set single-season school records in 2009 for match-winning goals (9)

HONORS & AWARDS

NSCAA All-Region Team (2009, 2010)

All-BIG EAST (2009, 2010)

NCAA College Cup Defensive MVP (2010)

BIG EAST Championship Defensive MVP (2009)

U.S. Under-23 National Team (2009-10)

Three-year monogram winner ... in her third season as team captain, the first player in the 24-year history of Notre Dame women's soccer to be a three-year captain (as voted by her teammates) ... unquestionably one of nation's top (and still perhaps most underrated) center backs, who has been a rock on the Notre Dame backline the past three seasons ... has started all 78 matches in her Fighting Irish career ... great athleticism to match her tenaciousness around the ball ... excellent understanding of tactics, strategy and defensive positioning ... brings vocal leadership and toughness to the Notre Dame defense with a willingness to do whatever is necessary to keep the opposition off the board ... also possesses great attacking instincts and has proven to be a clutch scorer, with all four of her career goals being match-winners (two coming in the postseason) ... gives the Irish an added dimension on set pieces due to her ability to win balls in the air.

AS A JUNIOR: Team tri-captain ... NCAA College Cup Most Outstanding Defensive Player ... NSCAA second team all-region and second team all-BIG EAST choice ... backbone of defensive unit on Notre Dame's third national championship team ... started all 25 matches and led team with 2,245 minutes played ... went the distance in 20 matches, including the first eight of the season, and all six in the NCAA Championship ... leader of Irish backline that helped register 15 shutouts and a 0.51 goals-against average (GAA), including a microscopic 0.17 GAA in the NCAA tournament (five shutouts) ... also tallied one goal (a match-winner) and career-high three assists ... fired 20 shots, including six on goal ... helped Irish open season with four consecutive shutouts, just the third time in school history that's happened, but the second in her career (also 1995 and 2008) ... gathered her points in bunches, delivering assists in three consecutive matches midway through the regular season ... picked up first assist of the campaign in win over Cincinnati (4-0), rifling a shot off the crossbar that caromed to teammate Julie Scheidler for the goal in the 62nd minute ... notched her second point in as many matches with primary assist on Taylor Knaack's 10th-minute goal at #24 Louisville (5-0) ... once again helped Irish open their account, this time in win over Syracuse (3-0) by setting up Elizabeth Tucker's goal in the 27th minute ... scored the second postseason match-winning goal of her career (first in the NCAA Championship) with her tally in third-round win at #3 North Carolina (4-1), poking home loose ball of Rose Augustin's corner kick in the 33rd minute ... was critical defensive factor in NCAA College Cup final against #1 Stanford (1-0), helping to hold the Cardinal's high-scoring forward, Christen Press without a shot for more than 60 minutes during the key middle stages of the match.

AS A SOPHOMORE: Team tri-captain ... NSCAA second team all-region and first team all-BIG EAST pick ... named Most Outstanding Defensive Player at the BIG EAST Championship ... started all 26 matches, ranking second on the team in minutes played (2,192) ... posted career highs with two goals (both match-winners), two assists, six points and 18 shots (12 on goal) ... chalked up assist on first of Rose Augustin's two goals in BIG EAST opener against DePaul (4-0) ... scored on a rebound of Augustin's long-range blast with 8:08 left at Cincinnati to give Irish a 2-1 win ... set up Melissa Henderson's first-half goal at Seton Hall (2-0) ... scored one of more dramatic goals of season for Notre Dame, heading in Augustin's corner kick at 98:42 of BIG EAST semifinal against St. John's (2-1, OT) to send Irish back to the BIG EAST title match (which they won for the second consecutive year and 11th time overall) ... anchored Notre Dame defense that posted 16 shutouts, including 13 clean sheets during a 19-match unbeaten streak covering the final two months of the season.

AS A FRESHMAN: Started all 27 matches for the Irish (one of only 26 players in school history to start every game of their freshman season, including just six since 1999, a group that now includes current sophomore midfielder Mandy Laddish) ... registered a goal and an assist for three points ... played 2,127 minutes, the second-highest total on the team (excluding goalies) ... had her first collegiate point with an assist in season-opening 7-0 win versus Michigan ... netted her first career goal in Notre Dame's 2-0 win over #6 Florida State in the NCAA Championship quarterfinals ... her goal, which proved to be the game-winner, came when she rose above the crowd to head home a Kerri Hanks corner kick in the 19th minute ... became the record-setting 19th player to score for the Irish in 2008 ... started all nine postseason matches, including playing every minute of final five NCAA Championship contests ... helped Notre Dame to an impressive 18 shutouts on the year and a 0.44 goals-against average (GAA) for the season, the fourth-lowest GAA in school history ... the Irish defense also limited its opponents to 74 shots on goal all season (an average of 2.74 per match) and kept Notre Dame either in front or tied for all but four minutes during the entire 2008 campaign.

NATIONAL TEAM HIGHLIGHTS: Selected for United States U-23 squad that competed in the Four Nations Tournament in England (July 2010); was joined on the team by ND teammates Henderson and Lauren Fowlkes ... appeared in two of three matches at the Four Nations tourney ... made international debut as a reserve in tournament's second match against Norway (1-2) ... started and played all 90 minutes in final match against Sweden (1-0) that clinched tournament title for the U.S. ... among a group of 24 players invited to U-23 Training Camp in June 2009 in suburban Cleveland.

ODP/CLUB HIGHLIGHTS: Traveled to Germany, Italy and Austria with the ODP Region III team ... five-year member of the ODP North Texas state team ... competed at 2007 ODP nationals ... seven-year team captain of the elite Dallas Texans/Sting Dallas (Texans '02-'07; Sting '08), playing alongside fellow ND classmates Henderson and Courtney Barg ... helped Sting Dallas '90 squad to 2008 Region III and state cup titles, and ended as USYS national runner-up (at North Little Rock, Ark.) ... team also won 2007 Premier League and LHGL titles ... helped Texans finish as national runner-up at the 2007 USYS tournament (in Frisco, Texas) ... won two Region III titles with the Texans ('05 and '07) ... competed with the Texans at the '05 USYS Nationals (in Orlando) ... member of two Texans teams that won the Disney Showcase.

PREP & PERSONAL: Three-year team captain at Plano West High School, where she played prep season to concentrate on club-team commitments) ... Barg and Schuveiller have been club and high school soccer teammates and friends since second grade and met Henderson in fifth grade, playing alongside her in club ball all the way through to their college years ... helped lead Plano West to 2007 Class 5A state title ... 2006 NSCAA all-region selection ... earned all-district honors in each of her three seasons at PWHS (also district MVP and an all-area selection) ... member of the National Honor Society (3.85 GPA) ... born Dec. 28, 1989, in Dallas, Texas ... last name is pronounced "SHOE-vy-ler" ... daughter of Scott and Kari Schuveiller ... full name is Jessica Lynn Schuveiller ... has two sisters, Katie and Nicole ... currently enrolled in Mendoza College of Business where she is a marketing major ... earned spot on 2009-10 BIG EAST All-Academic Team ... received certificate of merit for participation in Notre Dame's Rosenthal Leadership Academy in 2010-11.

A Teenage Dream: Notre Dame Wins 2010 National Championship

their place in college soccer history.

Entering the 2010 NCAA tournament, the Notre Dame women's soccer team chose Katy Perry's bubble-gum pop song "Teenage Dream" as its anthem, singing and dancing to it in the locker room before each of its postseason matches. Little did the Fighting Irish know it at the time, but the song's title would have special meaning by the time their NCAA run concluded less than a month later.

An uncharacteristic 2-0 loss at home to Connecticut on Oct. 31 in the quarterfinals of the BIG EAST Conference Championship turned out to be the ultimate blessing in disguise for Notre Dame. Still smarting from the pain and embarrassment of the program's first loss to a conference opponent in an NCAA Division I-record 77 matches (and first to a BIG EAST foe in South Bend in 100 matches, dating back to 1995), the Fighting Irish gathered in their Alumni Stadium locker room for a team meeting at 5 a.m. the following day and vowed it would be the last time they would feel that way all season — and it was.

What followed were nearly two weeks of some of the most intense and focused training sessions of head coach Randy Waldrum's 12-year tenure. They were coupled with some cagey tactical changes, most notably returning senior All-America center back and co-captain Lauren Fowlkes to the forward line (where she had achieved much success in 2009) and inserting another versatile player, junior Molly Campbell, into the middle of the defensive line to play a somewhat unfamiliar position as the 2010 season was reaching its peak.

"Certainly, that was a bit of a calculated gamble on our part to move Lauren up top and plug Molly in at center back," Waldrum said. "But Lauren had experience as a forward before, and part of what makes Molly so valuable is that nothing rattles her, which is why she was able to step in for us in the NCAAAs. If she was ever nervous during those matches, you never would have known it."

However, while Campbell and her teammates looked to maintain their emotional footing, another event was about to sorely test their resolve. Eight days after the Connecticut loss, the NCAA Division I Women's Soccer Committee unveiled the 64-team tournament bracket, and again, Notre Dame was stunned, this time learning it received a No. 4 seed — not for the overall tournament, but only in its quadrant of the bracket (meaning, in essence, they were rated among the 13th- to 16th-best teams in the field). What's more, the Fighting Irish were placed in a section of the bracket that also included three other former national champions in North Carolina, Florida and USC, not to mention hungry contenders such as Oklahoma State and Duke.

In the eyes of the Committee, the Notre Dame resume at the time (a 15-2-2 record with wins over No. 8 Santa Clara and No. 24 Louisville, 10 shutouts and a top-10 national RPI ranking all season) didn't seem to measure up. In the eyes of the Notre Dame players and coaches, it was something else entirely — a rallying point.

"I think it's fair to say we were all pretty disappointed to be seeded fourth, not to mention see the path that was laid out for us," Waldrum said. "When you looked at our body of work, it was hard to understand where the justification was for that placement. But as soon as the bracket came out, we knew what we had to do, and we intended to go out and attack the challenge head-on, one match at a time."

And attack it they did, as the Fighting Irish took on New Mexico in the opening round of the NCAA tournament, facing a Lobo squad that was making its postseason debut. Needing only a few minutes to get acclimated to its new personnel grouping and shake off the rust from its unexpected and unwelcomed hiatus, Notre Dame broke the ice midway through the first half on Melissa Henderson's penalty kick, and then put the match away in the second half with two goals from Fowlkes, providing an emphatic confirmation that the tactical changes were a step in the right direction.

Not to be overlooked in the 3-0 Fighting Irish win over New Mexico were second-half assists from freshmen Kecia Morway and Mandy Laddish. In what would be a recurring theme during the NCAA tournament, the Notre Dame rookie class announced its presence on the national stage with authority, playing with poise and confidence, as well as a youthful energy that quickly had observers feeling that the Fighting Irish teen brigade might very well be the key to living the dream their motivational song spoke of.

USC would fill the other half of the ticket for Notre Dame in round two, with the 22nd-ranked Women of Troy being the first of what turned out to be five consecutive ranked opponents for the Fighting Irish in the NCAA Championship. They also wound up as unwitting spectators in one of the first eye-opening displays of offensive fireworks in Notre Dame's historic tournament run.

Throughout her career, senior midfielder/forward Rose Augustin was known around the country for her long-range scoring prowess, and that talent was on full display in the eighth minute against USC, as she latched on to a failed clearance in the right channel and promptly uncorked a rising 22-yard blast that found the upper left 90 and gave the hosts the lead they would never relinquish.

Just 74 seconds later, Notre Dame doubled its lead as Fowlkes was at the forefront, taking a pass from senior right back Julie Scheidler and beating USC netminder Shelby Church inside the right post. Now sporting a 2-0 lead less than nine minutes into the match, the Fighting Irish were in complete control, rolling to the 4-0 victory.

Fowlkes added a pair of assists in the second half on goals by Henderson and freshman forward Adriana Leon, capping her Alumni Stadium career in style with a four-point afternoon and eight points (3G-2A) in her first two NCAA tournament matches of 2010 after having just one point in 10 prior NCAA postseason contests.

Now securely into the third round for the seventh consecutive season and 10th time in the Waldrum era, the stakes would be raised for Notre Dame, as the Fighting Irish headed to Chapel Hill, N.C., for a meeting with their longtime rival (and top seed), North Carolina.

The annual postseason match with UNC has been almost as common through the years as death and taxes, with the Fighting Irish and Tar Heels squaring off in NCAA tournament play for the 10th time, not to mention the fifth consecutive season. Notre Dame also was well-versed in the unique challenges of playing at UNC's Fetzer Field, and it was quite evident from the way the Fighting Irish reached the walls and shook the foundation of the facility's visiting locker room/trailer during their pregame song and dance ritual that this was a team that was not intimidated by its surroundings.

Most coaches will point out that in order to win a championship, good fortune sometimes has to smile upon you. While Notre Dame held the run of play throughout its third-round match at North Carolina, it was an early Tar Heel miscue that proved an early indication that this was not your average playoff contest.

In the 13th minute, junior center back/co-captain Jessica Schuveiller lofted a free kick into the penalty area, where UNC goalkeeper Hannah Daly bobbed the ball and Augustin was in perfect position to make her pay, slotting home the empty-net goal.

The No. 3/4 Tar Heels leveled the score less than six minutes later, but that would only temporarily stop the Fighting Irish charge. Augustin teed up a corner kick in the 33rd minute and following a frantic goal-mouth scramble, Schuveiller poked home the loose ball and Notre Dame was in front to stay.

Henderson took over the match after halftime, scoring the crucial third Fighting Irish goal just 3:27 into the second half with a header off Augustin's free kick from midfield. Henderson then iced the victory in the 77th minute with a long run down the left flank and a crisp service into the six-yard box, where junior midfielder Ellen Jantsch netted her first career NCAA tournament goal with a nifty slide.

The 4-1 win was historic in a number of ways, as it marked the largest margin of defeat ever handed to North Carolina, both on its home pitch and in the NCAA Championship. The four goals also were the most scored against the Tar Heels in the NCAA era (dating back to 1982).

Riding high from their resounding victory, the Fighting Irish carried that momentum into the quarterfinals at Oklahoma State. The Cowgirls earn the right to host the match as a No. 2 seed in their quadrant and the sixth-ranked team in the land.

Yet, playing in front of an overflow crowd of 2,660 on a chilly night in Stillwater, Okla., it was Notre Dame that seized the moment, or more specifically, freshman midfielder Elizabeth Tucker. The native of Jacksonville, Fla., who was not even ranked in the top 100 of most national recruiting services prior to the season, scored nine goals as a rookie, none bigger than the two she had at OSU, converting assists from Fowlkes (63rd minute) and Henderson (90th minute) to give Notre Dame a 2-0 win and its school-record fifth consecutive trip to the NCAA Women's College Cup (and sixth in seven seasons).

Another OSU school, Ohio State, offered the opposition for the national semifinals in Cary, N.C., with the No. 17/19 Buckeyes making their first-ever appearance at the College Cup. As grizzled veterans of the grand stage, the Fighting Irish came out swinging and peppered the Ohio State net throughout the night, even pinning the woodwork four times as part of their 22-shot barrage.

Finally in the 83rd minute, it was another freshman that unlocked the combination to the Buckeye goal, as Laddish picked up a ball at midfield and weaved 40 yards through the OSU defense before cracking a left-footed shot that eluded goalkeeper Katie Baumgardner and rippled the upper left corner of the net. However, the 1-0 win wasn't secure until the final whistle, as Ohio State got one final shot on net that ricocheted off the right post before being cleared away by Fighting Irish senior goalkeeper Nikki Weiss.

In the national championship match, Notre Dame was paired up against top-ranked Stanford, with the Cardinal trying to complete an undefeated season. Ironically, on the same WakeMed Soccer Park turf two years earlier, the Fighting Irish were looking for their own perfect campaign, only to be denied in the waning moments of the NCAA title contest. This time, it was Notre Dame that would get to spoil the party.

Stanford put some early pressure on the Fighting Irish defense, coming close to taking the lead in the 17th minute when Courtney Verloo's shot caromed off the left post. Still, Notre Dame had chances of its own in the first half, the best coming when Augustin served a tantalizing ball from the right side that Henderson headed towards the upper right 90, only to be denied when Cardinal goalkeeper Emily Oliver leaped to parry the shot off the crossbar.

Scoreless at the break, the Fighting Irish began to flex their offensive muscle in the second half, as Henderson set about slicing through the Stanford defense. The crafty striker's forays would pay off in the 63rd minute, as she raced down the left edge of the box before cutting the perfect ball back into the goal mouth. Leon was speeding down the right side and adjusted her run brilliantly, meeting the ball near the penalty spot and hammering a rising left-footed shot into the roof of the net for a 1-0 lead.

"I don't think words can describe the feeling," the young Canadian later said, before perhaps confirming what many Fighting Irish supporters were thinking. "It's the best feeling in the world."

From there, the Notre Dame defense did the rest, holding the Cardinal's high-scoring forward Christen Press without a shot for more than 60 minutes. Weiss made five saves of her own, the most important coming just a minute prior to Leon's goal when she slid over to the left post to stop a diving header by Alina Garciamendez.

With the crowd building into a frenzy and time winding down, Fowlkes dove for a header at midfield, re-directing the ball to her classmate Augustin, and the veteran wrapped up her career in the most delightful way possible — she popped the ball up to herself for a brief juggling exhibition and then punted it to the heavens.

0:00. Notre Dame 1, Stanford 0. The Fighting Irish had earned their third national championship. And afterwards, Waldrum had just one request for the national media in attendance.

"Please have the courage to write that this was the best team in the country, not that this was an upset," he said. "I know everybody had preordained Stanford as the national champion, but I would make the argument that once the NCAA tournament started, the path we took and the way we won games ... we clearly were the best team in the country."

Just 35 days after its lowest point of the season, Notre Dame once again planted its flag on college soccer's mountaintop. Thanks to a group of tough, skilled veterans, and one of the more remarkable freshman classes in recent memory, the Fighting Irish had lived their very own "teenage dream."

HONORS & AWARDS

WPS Third-Round Draft Pick (Western NY - 2011)
Two-Time NSCAA All-Region (2009, 2010)
Two-Time All-BIG EAST (2009, 2010)
NCAA College Cup All-Tournament Team (2010)

Four-year monogram winner ... technically-sound playmaking attacker who was key cog in Notre Dame's offense throughout her career ... strong all-around ability on the ball included poised play with and without pressure ... effective at striking the ball with either foot ... a dynamic threat on set pieces ... showed the ability to put shots on net from distance ... complemented her on-field flair with a deep understanding of the game's tactics ... tied for third in school history (and ninth in NCAA Division I history) with 103 matches played ... one of 26 Irish players all-time with 20 goals and 20 assists in their careers ... including Augustin, the Notre Dame women's soccer program now has featured 12 Ohio natives, with other notables being midfielder Margaret Jarc (Bay Village/Magnificient HS; 1989-92), defenders Julie Vogel (Cincinnati/Ursuline Academy; 1993-96) and Academic All-America forward Mary Boland (Hudson HS; 2001-04), plus sisters and fellow Walsh Jesuit HS graduates Kate and Kelly Tulisiak (Medina), All-America forward Amanda Cinalli (Maple Heights/Laurel HS) and stand-out midfielder Courtney Rosen (Brecksville/Hathaway Brown HS) ... was selected in the third round (13th overall) of the 2011 Women's Professional Soccer (WPS) Draft by the Western New York Flash.

AS A SENIOR: Completed NSCAA third-team all-Northeast Region and first-team all-BIG EAST accolades ... started all 25 matches during Notre Dame's third national championship season ... led team with 10 assists and ranked second on squad with 11 goals (three match-winners), 32 points, 77 shots and 32 shots on goal, all of which matched or set personal career highs and ranked among the top five in the BIG EAST ... one of just 10 players in the nation to post double-digit goals and assists during the 2010 season ... posted her fifth career two-goal match in season's second outing against Wisconsin-Milwaukee (3-0), scoring twice in less than five minutes midway through the second half ... gave the Irish all the offense they would need in 1-0 win over #8 Santa Clara, finding the back of the net 3:05 into the match off a drop pass from Melissa Henderson ... scored for third consecutive match with a long-distance brace midway through the first half against Texas Tech (2-0), her goal coming 47 seconds after Henderson opened the Irish account ... set up Erica Iantorno's equalizer at #13 UCLA (1-2, ot) in the final minute of the first half ... had another match-winning assist with the decisive helper on the first of rookie Elizabeth Tucker's two goals in conference opener at DePaul (2-0) ... fired first salvo in win over Cincinnati (4-0) with a goal in the 12th minute ... earned primary assist on first of Henderson's two goals against Syracuse (3-0) ... punctuated decisive victory over St. John's (4-1) with 63rd-minute goal ... needed just 1:21 to get Irish on the board against Seton Hall (2-1), later setting up Henderson for brace that proved to be the match-winner in 58th minute ... had a hand in all three

Notre Dame goals against Rutgers (3-2), scoring herself in 15th minute, then assisting on second-half goals by Henderson and Iantorno less than two minutes apart that shifted momentum in Irish favor ... blunted second-half threat at Providence (3-1), creating Lauren Fowlkes' go-ahead score and adding an insurance tally in 59th minute ... pinpoint pass set table for rookie Adriana Leon's goal at Villanova (1-0) ... ignited Irish offense in NCAA second-round win over #22 USC (4-0), scoring from distance at 7:12 mark to put hosts on the board and log her fourth career NCAA postseason match-winner ... unquestioned best player on pitch with four points (1G-2A) in NCAA third-round victory at #3 North Carolina (4-1), scoring first Irish goal in 13th minute, then setting up Jessica Schuiviller's match-winner later in first half and serving free kick that led to Henderson's goal less than four minutes into second half.

AS A JUNIOR: Earned NSCAA second-team all-region and second-team all-BIG EAST honors, the first time in her career she had been selected for either award ... started a career-high 25 of a possible 26

Graduated Monogram Winners

Class of 2011

Nikki Weiss

5-11 • Goalkeeper

Redding, Conn.

Immaculate HS
CUFC Wolves

HONORS & AWARDS

BIG EAST All-Tournament Team (2009)

Four-year monogram winner ... solid netminder who enjoyed breakout campaigns in her final two seasons, setting a new BIG EAST record with a 0.15 GAA in conference play in 2009 and posting .876 save percentage (second-best in school history) in 2010 ... combined great size (5-foot-11), physique and athleticism with very sound technical abilities ... an imposing presence who dominated the 18-yard box and learned to read the game well ... a driven competitor ... the sixth Connecticut native to suit up for Notre Dame.

AS A SENIOR: Saved her best for last, playing a pivotal role as the final line of defense on Notre Dame's third national championship team ... started all 25 matches and earned every decision (21-2-2) while posting a 0.49 goals-against average (GAA) and .876 save percentage (best by Irish goalkeeper since Michelle Lodyga's school-record .884 mark in 1991) with 10 solo shutouts and five shared whitewashes ... ranked second on team with 2,210 minutes played ... helped Notre Dame open season with four consecutive shutouts (Minnesota, Wisconsin-Milwaukee, #8 Santa Clara, Texas Tech), the third time in school history the Irish have had such a spotless season debut (also 1995 and 2008) ... made (then) career-high seven saves in win over #8 Santa Clara (1-0) ... turned back six shots in overtime loss at #13 UCLA (1-2) ... set new career high with eight saves in double-overtime draw at Georgetown (1-1) in regular-season finale ... peaked during Notre Dame's run to NCAA title, allowing just one goal in six matches (526:49), stopping 18 of 19 shots (.947 save percentage) and posting a microscopic 0.17 GAA, with three solo and two shared shutouts ... made five saves in historic NCAA third-round win at #3 North Carolina (4-1) ... logged consecutive 1-0 clean sheets in College Cup semifinal vs. #17 Ohio State and title match vs. #1 Stanford ... made five saves in the national championship contest, including sliding save at left post on point-blank header by Alina Garciamendez in 62nd minute — it proved to be a monumental stop, as Adriana Leon put Notre Dame ahead with the match's lone goal exactly one minute later (and Weiss added two more saves in the closing 10 minutes to clinch the NCAA title for the Irish).

AS A JUNIOR: Appeared in 19 matches, starting 17 times and playing a total of 1,420:38 ... registered a 14-2-1 record with a 0.51 GAA and .862 save percentage ... posted seven solo shutouts and shared five other clean sheets ... led the BIG EAST with a conference-record 0.15 GAA in league play (1 GA, 5 ShO in 597:00), breaking the old record of 0.18 set by LaKeysia Beene in 1997 ... split opening-night shutout against Wisconsin (3-0) ... got first start of the season against Wisconsin-Milwaukee, sharing that shutout (3-0) ... took over starting goalkeeper spot for good at Pittsburgh (0-0), making four saves to log her first career solo shutout ... that began a streak of 597 minutes covering the remainder of the regular season in which she allowed just one goal ... turned aside (then) career-high six shots against #10/12 Rutgers (1-0) for her first career clean sheet against a ranked opponent ... also blanked Seton Hall, Providence and Villanova by identical 2-0 scores ... split shutout against #rv/22 Georgetown (2-0) on Senior Night ... backstopped Irish to the BIG EAST title with wins over South Florida (5-0), St. John's (2-1, ot) and #rv/10 Marquette (2-1), tying her (then) career high with six saves in the title match ... named to the BIG EAST All-Tournament Team ... shared shutout in NCAA Championship first-round win over IUPUI (5-0) ... came up with four saves in third-round solo blanking of Oregon State (1-0) ... turned in perhaps the finest game of her career in the NCAA quarterfinals at #6 Florida State, making five saves in a 2-0 win ... tied her (then) career high with six saves in NCAA College Cup semifinal loss to #4 North Carolina (0-1) ... posted 0.38 GAA and .913 save percentage during the NCAA Championship (2 GA, 23 shots faced in 407:20).

AS A SOPHOMORE: Played in nine matches for the Irish ... made four saves in 209:59 of work and allowed just one goal for a 0.43 GAA ... combined with Kelsey Lylander for eight shared shutouts ... those eight combined shutouts came against Michigan (7-0), Loyola Marymount (4-0), SMU (5-0), Cincinnati (6-0), South Florida (3-0), Providence (5-0), Seton Hall (6-0) and Cincinnati (5-0).

AS A FRESHMAN: Played in seven matches (starting three) for the Irish ... made seven saves and posted a 1-2-1 record with a 1.53 GAA and a .538 save percentage ... played final 65 minutes in opener versus Michigan (1 SV; 0-0) ... played all 97 minutes against Stanford as the Irish were edged in overtime (1 SV; 2-1) ... started both matches of Inn at St. Mary's Classic, with 4-2 win over Princeton (1 SV) and 2-1 overtime loss to #16 Oklahoma State (3 SVS) ... closed 4-1 win at Syracuse (1 SV), 3-0 win at St. John's and 5-0 win over Villanova (1 SV) ... earned victory in spring 2008 exhibition versus Mexican National Team (2-1), coming on to start second half and turning in a clean sheet over the final 45 minutes (including two big plays in the closing moments to keep the Irish in front).

The BIG EAST Conference

The 2011-12 academic year is the 33rd in the history of The BIG EAST Conference as the unique consortium marches on competing at the highest level with integrity and sportsmanship.

The BIG EAST has gone through membership changes since its birth, but the 2011-12 year marks the conference's seventh straight with the same 16-member group, making for the nation's largest Division I-A conference.

The BIG EAST Conference's goals have always been the same. The outstanding performances of the student-athletes at BIG EAST schools are evidence of the league's proud tradition of success. The league has always been able to boast that many of its best students are also its best athletes. The 2010-11 year was no different.

Seven BIG EAST student-athletes were named NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners, while 22 earned Capital One Academic All-America recognition. Maya Moore, Connecticut's women's basketball standout, won the NCAA Honda-Broderick Cup as the nation's top female student-athlete and was chosen as the Capital One Academic All-America of the Year.

In the athletic arena, BIG EAST student-athletes again enjoyed success on the national stage. The Connecticut men's basketball team won its third national championship, completing a magical run through five games of the BIG EAST Championship and six wins in the NCAA tournament. The Villanova women's cross country team won the NCAA title for the second straight year and the ninth time overall. The Notre Dame women's soccer team won its third NCAA title, while BIG EAST teams reached national championship games in women's basketball (Notre Dame) and men's soccer (Louisville).

The BIG EAST placed two teams in the NCAA Women's Final Four for the second time in the last three years as Connecticut joined Notre Dame in Indianapolis, capping a season in which the Huskies extended their NCAA-record winning streak to 90 games.

Individually, BIG EAST student-athletes won five NCAA championships, including an unprecedented four by Villanova's Sheila Reid. Reid was the 2010 individual cross country champion, a member of the Wildcats' winning indoor distance medley relay team and won the 5,000- and 1,500-meter titles in outdoor track & field. Louisville's Matt Hughes, meanwhile, repeated as the NCAA champion in the 3,000-meter steeplechase at the NCAA outdoor meet.

Moore and Reid joined Notre Dame soccer standout Melissa Henderson as winners of Honda Sports Awards as the top performers in their respective sports. Moore also became the first three-time winner of the Wade Trophy as the nation's top women's basketball player and joined Villanova lacrosse player Brian Karalunas as winners of the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award.

BIG EAST football maintained its national profile as a competitively balanced group. Connecticut claimed the league's Bowl Championship Series bid for the first time as the Huskies shared the conference title with Pittsburgh and West Virginia. Six of the league's eight squads went to bowl games and helped the BIG EAST post a 4-2 bowl record for the second straight year.

The BIG EAST became the nation's largest Division I-A conference in 2005-06 when five new members began competing — the University of Cincinnati, DePaul University, the University of Louisville, Marquette University and the University of South Florida.

BIG EAST institutions reside in nine of the nation's top 35 largest media markets, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Tampa, Pittsburgh, Hartford, Cincinnati and Milwaukee. With its newest members, BIG EAST markets contain almost one-fourth of all television households in the U.S. When Texas Christian University joins the conference in the 2012-13 academic year, the conference will have a footprint in 30 percent of the nation's television households.

Since opening its doors in 1979, the league has won 31 national championships in six different sports and 133 student-athletes have won individual national titles.

In 2003-04, Connecticut became the first school in NCAA history to win the men's and women's NCAA basketball titles in the same season. In '02-'03, the BIG EAST became the first conference in NCAA history to win the men's and women's titles in the same year when the Syracuse men and the Connecticut women captured their respective national championships. In men's basketball, BIG EAST squads have won four of the last 13 NCAA championships. BIG EAST women's teams have taken seven of the last 12 NCAA titles.

Proactive movement has been a signature strategy for the conference that was born in 1979. The BIG EAST continually turns challenges into opportunities to become stronger. The conference currently crowns champions in 24 sports.

The BIG EAST became a reality on May 31, 1979, following a meeting of athletic directors from Providence College, St. John's, Georgetown and Syracuse universities. Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College completed the original seven-school alliance.

While the membership has both increased and changed, the focus of the BIG EAST has not wavered. The conference reflects a tradition of broad-based programs, led by administrators and coaches who place a constant emphasis on academic integrity. Its student-athletes own significantly high graduation rates and their record of scholastic achievement notably show a balance between intercollegiate athletics and academics.

Any successful organization has had the good fortune to have outstanding leadership. The BIG EAST primarily was the brainchild of Dave Gavitt, who was the conference's first Commissioner. Michael Tranghese, the league's first full-time employee, and for 11 years the associate to Gavitt, became Commissioner in 1990. In his first year, he administered the formation of The BIG EAST Football Conference.

John Marinatto, who had served as senior associate commissioner, moved into the Commissioner's chair in 2009 and has continued to steer the conference on its path of success.

The league has long been considered a leader in innovative concepts in promotion and publicity, particularly regarding television. Those efforts have resulted in unparalleled visibility for BIG EAST student-athletes. The conference has enjoyed longstanding relationships with CBS, ESPN, Inc. and ABC.

BIG EAST men's basketball games are regular sellouts at campus and major public arenas, including the annual men's BIG EAST Championship in Madison Square Garden. The women's basketball championship has led all conferences in attendance for the past eight years. Attendance figures also are significant in soccer and baseball.

The BIG EAST has its headquarters in Providence where the conference administers to more than 5,500 student-athletes.

Notre Dame's BIG EAST Conference Titles

BIG EAST Championship Notes

For the second time, West Virginia will serve as the host school for the BIG EAST women's soccer championship weekend, with the 2011 semifinals to be played at Dick Dlesk Stadium on Friday, Nov. 4, and the title match on Sunday, Nov. 6 (television coverage by CBS Sports Network, formerly known as CBS College Sports). The quarterfinal matchups will be held at the home of the top four finishers in the regular-season standings, following first-round matches between the fourth and fifth-place finishers from opposite divisions.

Since joining the BIG EAST in 1995, Notre Dame has won a conference-record 11 BIG EAST Championship titles, including four of the past six crowns, and has advanced to the tournament final on 13 occasions. All-time results include:

A new era in Notre Dame soccer began in 2009, when the Fighting Irish women's and men's soccer teams took the pitch for the first time at the brand-new $5.7 million Alumni Stadium.

Located just east of Purcell Pavilion at the Joyce Center and approximately 500 yards west of its predecessor, the new stadium sits side-by-side with Notre Dame's new lacrosse facility, Arlotta Stadium, which made its debut in the spring of 2010 (the soccer facility is situated further west, the lacrosse stadium further east).

Alumni Stadium opened its doors for women's soccer action on Sept. 4, 2009, to an overflow crowd of 3,007 for its debut match against top-ranked North Carolina (the Notre Dame men played three nights earlier, blanking Michigan, 5-0).

A state-of-the-art facility that arguably is the finest on-campus soccer-specific stadium in the country, Alumni Stadium has a permanent seating capacity of approximately 2,500 in the west grandstand, including VIP boxes flanking the main team entrance, as well as grass berm seating on the east end of the grounds.

The stadium also offers upgraded and expanded restroom and concession areas, elevator access and handicapped reserved seating on the main concourse level, as well as numerous amenities for both Fighting Irish soccer programs (expansive locker rooms with custom-made wood lockers, spacious team lounges with flat-screen plasma TVs and high-speed Internet access, and a fully-equipped athletic training center).

What's more, Alumni Stadium features an LED scoreboard (installed by industry leader Daktronics), enhanced lighting structures and top-of-the-line sod for the pitch cultivated in Fort Morgan, Colo., at Graff's Turf Farms (which also provided the turf for some of the nation's finest sports facilities including Notre Dame Stadium, Wrigley Field, Busch Stadium and two of the newest MLS grounds — Dick's Sporting Goods Park in Commerce City, Colo., outside Denver, and Rio Tinto Stadium in Sandy, Utah, a suburb of Salt Lake City).

Media members enjoy a spacious climate-controlled press box, which includes power and high-speed Internet portals at every seat (along with wireless Internet capability), three individually-wired broadcast booths and an expansive, unblocked and elevated midfield vantage point, all of which make Alumni Stadium unlike any other on-campus facility in college soccer.

pionships, and now we have a facility that is second to none and truly exemplifies that excellence we seek here at Notre Dame."

The construction of Alumni Stadium was made possible because of numerous generous donations, including those by lead benefactors Tom Crotty and Rob Snyder, both former Fighting Irish men's soccer players.

Originally from Darien, Conn., Crotty starred for the Irish from 1977-79, playing midfield and fullback in 60 matches, earning three monograms and finishing with 23 career points (eight goals, seven assists). He played in Notre Dame's first three seasons of varsity soccer (under coach Rich Hunter), serving as one of the team captains as a senior in '79. He was voted MVP of the '79 Notre Dame team and led the Fighting Irish to a combined 57-14-3 record in those three years.

A 1980 Notre Dame graduate with a degree in finance, Crotty is currently a general partner with Battery Ventures LP in Wellesley, Mass. He and his wife, Shari live in Southborough, Mass.

Hailing from Dallas, Texas, Snyder earned two monograms while playing forward, participating in 51 matches in 1980-81-83 and accounting for 68 points (23 goals and 22 assists that rank him seventh on Notre Dame's career chart). He tied for the team lead in goals in 1981 with 12. Snyder played on Hunter-coached teams that finished a combined 54-14-3 in his three seasons (including 35-3-1 at home).

Snyder is a 1984 Notre Dame graduate with a degree in government. He is the founder and CEO of Stream Energy in Dallas.

The gifts by Crotty and Snyder were components of the $1.5 billion "Spirit of Notre Dame" capital campaign, the largest such endeavor in the history of Catholic higher education.

Alumni Stadium officially was dedicated on April 24, 2010, almost exactly two years to the day after ground was broken on the facility. Among those present were lead benefactors Crotty and Snyder and their families, along with members of the Notre Dame administration including University President Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., University Executive Vice-President John Affleck-Graves and director of athletics Jack Swarbrick, as well as Waldrum, men's soccer coach Bobby Clark and players from both the Fighting Irish women's and men's soccer teams.

Prior to its 2009 debut at Alumni Stadium, the Notre Dame women's soccer team competed at similarly-named Alumni Field for 19-plus seasons from 1990-2009, registering a superb 222-16-4 (.926) record at the "grand old palace" of Notre Dame soccer.

The Fighting Irish also compiled a record of 199-12-4 (.935) in their final 215 matches at the facility — including home winning streaks of 27, 28, 29 and 32 matches (four of the longest in NCAA history). Notre Dame also had a 43-match home unbeaten streak (41-0-2) from 2004-07, with that run standing third in the NCAA record book. The Fighting Irish lost more than one home contest in a season just four times in 19 full seasons at Alumni Field, with nine unbeaten seasons in its final 16 campaigns at its east campus home.

The Fighting Irish have played host to NCAA Championship games in each of the previous 17 seasons (the first 15 at old Alumni Field before hosting their first NCAA tourney action at Alumni Stadium the past two years). Notre Dame has compiled a 44-3-0 record in NCAA play on its home pitch with a 154-23 scoring edge in those 47 matches.

Old Alumni Field also played host to the BIG EAST Conference Championship three times in its history, with Notre Dame winning the conference title each time (1996, 2000 and 2008).

FIGHTING IRISH

HISTORY

The 1995 women's soccer season included Notre Dame's first BIG EAST title (in any sport) and the first NCAA championship for the Fighting Irish women's soccer team — while the 2004 and 2010 titles made Notre Dame just the second Division I women's soccer program to earn three national championships.

Notre Dame Celebrates Nearly A Quarter Century of Far-Reaching Success

The Notre Dame women's soccer team completed its 23rd season as a varsity program in 2010, and with close to a quarter century under their belts, the Irish have firmly established themselves as one of the nation's elite programs:

- In 2010, Notre Dame became the second Division I women's soccer program ever to win three NCAA titles. The Irish also own the second-most appearances in the NCAA title match (eight) and have advanced to the NCAA College Cup final weekend 12 times since 1994 (second-most in the nation over that span).
- The Irish own a 59-15-1 overall record in NCAA Tournament play, the second-best postseason winning percentage (.793) in Division I history.
- Notre Dame is one of only two women's soccer programs ever to produce four recipients of the prestigious Missouri Athletic Club Hermann Trophy. Midfielders Cindy Daws (1996) and Anne Makinen (2000), and forward Kerri Hanks (2006 and 2008) all have taken home the award, with Hanks achieving two milestones that no other player (male or female) has ever duplicated. As a sophomore in 2006, she was the youngest player ever to receive the Hermann Trophy. Hanks then became the only player ever to earn the award in non-consecutive seasons when she received the crystal ball trophy in '08, joining UNC's Mia Hamm and Cindy Parlow, and Portland's Christine Sinclair, as the only two-time Hermann Trophy recipients.
- Notre Dame's total of 47 NSCAA All-Americans over the past 17 seasons (1994-2010) is second-most in the nation and includes four rare four-year All-Americans: forward Hanks (2005-08), midfielders Holly Manthei (1994-97) and Makinen (1997-2000) and defender Jen Grubb (1996-99).

- The program's excellence extends to the classroom, as Notre Dame women's soccer players have combined for CoSIDA Academic All-America honors 24 times over the past 16 years. Five Irish players — Jen Renola, Jenny Streiffer, Monica Gonzalez, Brittany Bock and Lauren Fowlkes — have coupled All-America and Academic All-America honors during their careers (Renola, Bock and Fowlkes did it twice) while Vanessa Pruzinsky and Erika Bohn are two of only six Division I players ever to be three-year Academic All-Americans. Pruzinsky became just the third chemical engineering major at Notre Dame (first since the early 1970s) ever to graduate with a 4.0 cumulative grade-point average. The women's soccer program's widespread academic excellence also included one of the top combined team GPAs (3.289) in the entire Notre Dame athletics department during the 2010-11 school year.
- Several Notre Dame players have filled leading roles with full national teams — including Kate (Sobrero) Markgraf, Shannon Boxx and LaKeyasia Beene with the United States and three others with Team Canada (Candace Chapman, Katie Thorlakson and Melissa Tancredi), plus Mexican National Team members Gonzalez, Monica Gerardo and Rebecca Mendoza, and Scandinavian standouts Makinen (Finland) and Gudrun Gunnarsdottir (Iceland).
- The NCAA record book is populated by numerous Notre Dame players, most notably: Manthei (record total of 129 career assists), Thorlakson (23G-24A in 2004, only Hamm has totaled more goals and more assists in the same season), Hanks (joined Hamm and Streiffer as only Division I players ever to amass 70 goals and 70 assists in their career; Hanks and Hamm also are only ones to lead the nation in goals and assists in the same season) and Renola (fourth with 8,111 career minutes played; member of 11-player NCAA 25-year anniversary team).

Here's a closer look at some annual highlights during Notre Dame women's soccer's first 23 seasons:

1988

Sept. 1 — Head coach Dennis Grace leads Notre Dame to a 5-1 victory over IU-South Bend in the Irish women's soccer program's first game, with Mimi Suba scoring the first goal in the program's history at 32:01.

Sept. 6 — Susie Zilvitis notches the program's first hat trick, in the first half of an 8-1 victory over St. Joseph's (Ind.).

Sept. 18 — Notre Dame and goalkeeper Karma Spencer register the team's first shutout, 5-0 over Western Michigan.

1989

Oct. 10 — The Irish set a scoring record in a 17-0 win over Tri-State. Margaret Jarc — who later would serve as one of the team's assistant coaches — comes off the bench to net a hat trick as Notre Dame scores eight first-half goals.

1990

Sept. 2 — The Irish take the field for the first time under their second head coach, Chris Petrucci. Notre Dame responds by registering a 5-1 win over Northeast Missouri, with Zilvitis and Marianne Giolitto each scoring twice.

Sept. 19 — Sporting a 3-2 record, the Irish make the program's first appearance in the Midwest Region rankings (in the 10th spot).

Oct. 28 — Notre Dame posts its first win over a ranked opponent, 4-0 versus 24th-ranked Xavier to conclude the season. The Irish finish 16-3-1, with losses to Duke, UNC-Greensboro and Creighton.

1991

Oct. 15 — The four-year-old Irish program earns its first national ranking (16th), thanks to a 10-0-2 start before finishing the season 15-2-3 with the national ranking of 16th in the ISAA coaches poll (precursor to the current NSCAA survey).

1992

Oct. 17 — Notre Dame loses to sixth-ranked SMU, 3-1, to fall to 8-5-1. All five Irish losses at that point had come versus top-20 teams.

Oct. 30 — Notre Dame clinches its second straight Midwestern Collegiate Conference title with a 2-1 win at Xavier.

1993

Sept. 19 — Notre Dame defeats fourth-ranked William & Mary, 1-0 at old Alumni Field, marking the highest-ranked opponent the Irish had beaten in the program's six-year history.

Sept. 29 — The Irish defeat Wright State to open the season 9-0 and win their 14th consecutive match, dating back to 1992. Freshman standout Daws registers a point in her ninth straight match.

Mimi Suba scored the first goal in Notre Dame women's soccer history on Sept. 1, 1988, against Indiana University-South Bend.

Nov. 6 – Notre Dame defeats Xavier, 4-0 to win the inaugural MCC tournament. The Irish finish the regular season ranked third nationally and make their first NCAA tournament appearance.

Nov. 13 – Notre Dame drops a 2-1 decision to eventual NCAA Championship runner-up George Mason in Madison, Wis., in the first round of the NCAA.

1994

Sept. 11 – Jodi Hartwig scores with four minutes remaining in regulation to force a tie with 10th-ranked William & Mary, 2-2. Notre Dame falls behind 3-2 in the first overtime, but scores twice in the second OT, the match-winner coming from Michelle McCarthy with 0:25 left.

Oct. 2 – The Irish end North Carolina's record-setting 92-match winning streak, 0-0 in St. Louis, as Renola faces 25 shots with a career-high 11 saves. The tie marked the third time an Irish team broke a long winning streak, joining the 1957 football team that ended Oklahoma's 41-game winning streak and the 1974 basketball team that stopped UCLA's 88-game streak.

Oct. 24 – Following Irish wins over Ohio State and Detroit, coupled with a North Carolina loss to Duke, Notre Dame is voted the nation's No. 1 team by both the ISAA coaches poll and Soccer America. Notre Dame goes on to finish the regular season as the nation's top-ranked team.

Nov. 6 – Notre Dame claims its final MCC tournament title with a 5-1 win over Butler.

Nov. 12 – Goals by Tiffany Thompson and Hartwig break a 1-1 tie in the program's first NCAA tournament win, 3-1 over George Mason.

Nov. 18 – A Sobrero score off a Manthei corner kick is the only goal of the match, as Notre Dame beats host Portland 1-0 and advances to the NCAA Championship final for the first time in the program's history.

Nov. 20 – The much-anticipated rematch of the scoreless tie in St. Louis ends up a 5-0 North Carolina victory, as the Tar Heels use a four-goal second half to win the NCAA title.

1995

Sept. 2 – The Irish open with the first BIG EAST Conference contest for any Notre Dame team. McCarthy and Gerardo both score twice and Boxx has three assists in a 7-0 win over Providence.

Oct. 15 – A rematch with defending NCAA champ North Carolina ends with a 2-0 Tar Heel shutout of the Irish in Houston ... but the teams would have yet another rematch in the NCAA's seven weeks later.

Nov. 5 – Notre Dame claims the BIG EAST title with a 1-0 win over third-ranked Connecticut (at Rutgers). The Irish average an earlier 5-4 overtime loss to the Huskies on Oct. 6 (at Alumni Field), which had been Notre Dame's first home loss since Oct. 4, 1992 (and remains the only regular-season home loss for the Irish versus a BIG EAST opponent). South Bend-area native Amy VanLaecke scores the game's only goal, her second of the tournament, and is named its MVP.

Nov. 19 – The Irish begin their NCAA run with a 5-0 win over Wisconsin at Alumni Field, as Boxx scores the final three Notre Dame goals for a hat trick in her first NCAA game.

Nov. 26 – Notre Dame shuts out UConn for the second time in three weeks (2-0, at Alumni Field), with goals from Julie Vogel and VanLaecke helping send the Irish to the NCAA semifinals for the second consecutive year.

Dec. 1 – A Fetzler Field crowd of 7,212 (then an NCAA record) is stunned as Notre Dame shocks host North Carolina, 1-0, to advance to the national championship match. A Tar Heel own-goal is followed by 70 minutes of outstanding Irish defense, as UNC suffers its first NCAA tournament loss since 1985 and only its second at home. Notre Dame's first win over North Carolina sends the Irish to the NCAA final for the second consecutive season.

Dec. 3 – Sister schools Notre Dame and Portland meet in the NCAA's for the second consecutive year, battling into a third overtime before Daws slips a direct kick past the goalkeeper at 125:31, for a 1-0 win that ends the first overtime match in an NCAA final. The Irish punctuate their earlier win over North Carolina by becoming only the third team to win the NCAA women's soccer title. Renola finishes the finals weekend having saved all 10 shots she faced in the two-match set.

1996

Sept. 22 – Notre Dame's first trip to Storrs is a successful one as the Irish avenge one of their two 1995 defeats with a 2-1 win over fourth-ranked Connecticut.

Oct. 4 – Another highly-anticipated match with top-ranked North Carolina ends in a 2-1 overtime win for second-ranked Notre Dame. Freshman sensation Streiffer becomes the first Notre Dame player to score against the Tar Heels after knocking in two goals, as the Irish become the first team to win consecutive matches against UNC.

Oct. 13 – Off to its best start in school history at 13-0-0 and riding a winning streak of 24 games, Notre Dame is brought back to earth as an inspired ninth-ranked Santa Clara team defeats the top-ranked Irish, 3-1. Despite the loss, Notre Dame remains atop the national polls.

Nov. 10 – Tournament MVP Daws leads the Irish to their second BIG EAST title (to go along with the BIG EAST regular-season crown) following a 4-3 victory over UConn in the championship match at Alumni Field.

Dec. 6 – Three goals in a span of 14 minutes in the second half help Notre Dame rally from a 2-0 deficit for a 3-2 semifinal win over Portland in Santa Clara, Calif. The Pilots stun the Irish with a goal 1:40 into the game and another at 29:42, but Notre Dame strikes quickly in the second half with goals from Boxx, VanLaecke and Gerardo against a team that had allowed just seven scores all season prior to the semifinals.

Dec. 8 – Making its third consecutive appearance in the NCAA final, Notre Dame faces North Carolina in another classic overtime battle. The Tar Heels outshoot the Irish 18-7 but Renola makes several remarkable saves. UNC's Debbie Keller ends Notre Dame's hopes for a second consecutive NCAA title with her goal at 110:56.

Daws is honored after the season with the prestigious Hermann Trophy and M.A.C. Player of the Year Award (then separate honors), plus the Honda Broderick Cup, recognizing her as the nation's top female collegiate athlete.

1997

Sept. 19 – Notre Dame welcomes North Carolina to Alumni Field for the first time and the teams play to a 2-2 tie, as the match is halted at 71:16 due to lightning. The evenly-played contest sees each team take 11 shots. Makinen puts the Irish up early at 22:28 before the Tar Heels score at 52:15 and 62:38. Jenny Heft ties the game at 68:10, three minutes before lightning halted play.

Nov. 9 – The Irish take a 5-0 halftime lead and cruise to a 6-1 win over Connecticut to win their third BIG EAST title. Makinen's hat trick earns her MVP honors.

Nov. 29 – Notre Dame caps a run to its fourth consecutive NCAA semifinal with a dominating 8-0 home win over 16th-ranked UCLA. The Irish outscore their first three NCAA opponents (Cincinnati, Nebraska and UCLA) by a score of 21-1.

Dec. 5 – The Irish outshoot UConn, 28-6, but hit the post three times, the crossbar twice and have another shot saved off the line by a defender as the Huskies upset the Irish 2-1, at the NCAA semifinals in Greensboro, N.C. The first loss for Notre Dame in four NCAA semifinals sees Sara Whalen score on UConn's first shot (41:01) and again at 64:37 before Streiffer's diving header from Manthei's cross caps the scoring in the 77th minute.

1998

Sept. 13 – Second-ranked Notre Dame returns to Fetzler Field for the first time since winning the 1995 NCAA title and opens with a goal in the first minute at top-ranked North Carolina. The Tar Heels allow the Irish just two shots the rest of the game while winning 5-1.

Oct. 18 – Two days after Connecticut snapped Notre Dame's (then) NCAA-record 36-match conference win streak with a 1-1 tie at UConn's Morrone Stadium, another streak falls as unranked Seton Hall wins 3-2 in overtime – the first BIG EAST loss for the Irish since 1995 and their first loss to an unranked team in 183 matches (dating back to a 2-0 defeat to Creighton on Oct. 6, 1990).

Nov. 8 – A triumphant return to Morrone Stadium sees the Irish blank the Huskies for their fourth BIG EAST title (1-0). Makinen scores in the 82nd minute to repeat as the championship's MVP.

Nov. 28 – Fifth-seeded Portland avenges five consecutive losses to the Irish, beating fourth-seeded and host Notre Dame, 2-1, in the NCAA quarterfinals. Heft ties the game in the 73rd minute but the visitors advance, thanks to a goal in the 88th minute.

1999

Feb. 3 – Randy Waldrum becomes the program's third head coach, after leading Baylor's 1998 team to the second round of the NCAA tournament in just the program's third year of existence.

Sept. 3 – In the first game of the Waldrum era, the Irish lead top-ranked North Carolina 2-1 with less than 3:00 remaining in the second half (thanks to a goal by Mia Sarkesian) – but the Tar Heels send the game to overtime on their way to a 3-2 victory in the second extra period.

Nov. 7 – Streiffer is named the BIG EAST Championship MVP as the Irish win their fifth tournament title, 4-2, beating Connecticut in the BIG EAST final for the fifth consecutive year.

Irish Soccer History

Nov. 28 – The longest match in Notre Dame women's soccer history results in an NCAA quarterfinal shootout at fourth-ranked Nebraska, after four OTs and 150 total minutes yield a 1-1 tie. After each side made 3-of-5 penalty kicks, unlikely hero Kelly Lindsey (a native of Omaha) hits Notre Dame's try in the first extra round, and Beene follows with a save to send the Irish to the NCAA semifinals for the fifth time.

Dec. 3 – Wearing green jerseys for the first time since the 1995 NCAA title-match win over Portland, the Irish overcome a 17-3 shot deficit to blank top-ranked and undefeated Santa Clara in the College Cup semifinals (1-0). Freshman Ali Lovelace scores in the 75th minute, as Notre Dame knocks off the Broncos in their own backyard (San Jose) and advances to its fourth NCAA final in six years. Beene is the clear "woman of the match", making seven saves and several other plays to snuff out prime SCU scoring chances.

Dec. 5 – North Carolina ends fifth-seeded Notre Dame's run in the title match (2-0), with the Tar Heels becoming the first of just two programs ever to beat the Irish twice in one season (Michigan did so in 2003).

2000

Sept. 8 – The No. 4 Irish enjoy one of their widest victory margins ever (6-1) against a highly-ranked opponent, with coach Jerry Smith of No. 2 Santa Clara praising midfield standout Makinen as "the best overall player in college soccer" (a status she later lives up to as the consensus 2000 national player of the year). Meotis Erikson and Amy Warner score for an early 2-1 lead and freshman Amanda Guertin adds a key breakaway in the 74th minute, while Makinen finishes with a goal and a pair of assists.

Sept. 17 – The Irish reclaim the nation's No. 1 ranking after holding on for a 1-0 win at Portland, with Erikson's 50th career goal coming on a sharply-struck 18-yard shot, via a cross from her classmate Makinen Erikson – who also scored two days earlier in the 4-0 win over Washington – is named offensive MVP of the Portland Invitational while Kerri Bakker is the tournament's defensive MVP, after helping limit Portland to four shots on goal. The match marks just the 12th time since 1990 that the Pilots had suffered a loss at Merlo Field and is the eighth one-goal margin in the eight-match Notre Dame-Portland series history.

Nov. 5 – Homestanding Notre Dame collects its sixth consecutive BIG EAST tournament title, besting league rival Connecticut (1-0) after earlier wins over Miami and Boston College (both 3-0). An early UConn own-goal provides the winning margin in the final, with Sarkesian named the tournament MVP after playing a leading role in the pivotal midfield battle (she also had a goal and assist in the BC semifinal).

Nov. 24 – The Irish advance to the NCAA semifinals for the sixth time in seven years, thanks to a thrilling overtime win over growing rival Santa Clara in the quarterfinals (2-1). Lovelace – who scored in the 1-0 win over SCU in the 1999 semifinals – again is a thorn in the Broncos' side, scoring in the 17th minute, while freshmen Guertin and Randi Scheller assist on Erikson's match-winner five minutes into OT. The game features 19 fouls by each team, with Liz Wagner's eight saves making up for the loss of midfielder Ashley Dryer, who was injured midway through the first half.

Dec. 1 – Warner's 20th-minute goal gives unbeaten Notre Dame an early lead in the NCAA semifinals but fifth-ranked North Carolina ultimately advances with a 2-1 victory. The decisive goal in the 83rd minute means that the Irish trailed for a total of only 35 minutes all season, spanning parts of three contests in the 25-match schedule (23-1-1).

Makinen later is honored with the 2000 Hermann Trophy and Missouri Athletic Club Player of the Year Award, combining with Daws to make Notre Dame the second women's soccer program to produce multiple national players of the year.

2001

Sept. 2 – Notre Dame wins its annual home tournament (the Key Bank Classic), topping 25th-ranked Hartford (2-0) after besting eighth-ranked Penn State two days earlier (2-1). Freshman Mary Boland's diving header yields a 1-0 lead in the seventh minute of the PSU match, with Guertin adding the second Irish goal early in the second half. Reserve forward Kelly Tulisiak – who assisted on Guertin's goal – then opens the scoring in the 67th minute of the Hartford match, with Guertin's late goal providing the final margin.

Sept. 25 – Waldrum's 50th career win (1-0) at Notre Dame qualifies as one of his most memorable, as the fourth-ranked Irish use precise execution to score in the 18th minute on a three-pass set play while limiting third-ranked Nebraska to a pair of shots on goal. Sarkesian adds another big goal, started by Scheller's direct kick from 10 yards outside the box. Physical play yields 39 fouls (20 for the Irish) while the Huskers are caught offside 10 times.

Nov. 11 – Scheller's first career match-winning goal comes with 14 minutes left in the BIG EAST title contest (at Rutgers), for a 2-1 win over West Virginia and the program's seventh consecutive BIG EAST crown. Tournament MVP Guertin – who scored in earlier BIG EAST tournament wins over St. John's (2-0) and Boston College (3-0) – sets up the winner on one of her well-placed corner kicks, with headers from Tancredi and Sarkesian preceding Scheller's lunging volley.

2002

Sept. 15 – A furious rally sees Notre Dame score five times in the final 25 minutes, stunning the 25th-ranked hosts at the Maryland Classic (5-2) and matching the fifth-highest goal total ever for the Irish versus a top-25 opponent. Tancredi – a forward who later in her career will become a two-time All-America defender with the Irish – shifts the momentum with her physical play and pair of header goals, en route to picking up the tournament's offensive MVP award.

Oct. 13 – The Irish begin their late-season push with a 3-1 victory over BIG EAST rival Connecticut at Alumni Field. Dryer's return from injury sparks the team while Guertin's pinpoint corner kicks lead to the final two Notre Dame goals.

Nov. 17 — Notre Dame avenges an earlier loss to Purdue (3-1), reversing the score in NCAA second-round action at Alumni Field. Guertin's calm presence produces the first goal and she assists on another while the Irish defense limits the Boilermakers to four shots on goal. The win sends 19th-ranked Notre Dame to the round-of-16 for the eighth time in nine seasons, but host Stanford uses a goal in the 81st minute to survive, 1-0.

Aug. 29 — Notre Dame opens the season minus six injured players but responds with the second-highest scoring match of the Waldrum era while dispatching of perennial power Hartford, 9-1. Boland (3G-1A) joins a select group of Irish players who have posted hat tricks in a season opener.

Sept. 21 & 23 — The Irish hold Stanford (0-0) and Santa Clara (2-1) to three combined shots on goal and three corner kicks while handing the Broncos their first-ever loss at the SCU Classic. Thorlakson assists on Boland's early goal and then knocks in a deflected Boland shot for the late winner.

Oct. 3 & 17 — Notre Dame posts a pair of 2-0 wins at Alumni Field over BIG EAST foes West Virginia and Connecticut. Boland (1:24) notches the team's quickest goal of the season while the defense limits WVU to a single shot on goal. Two weeks later, playing without Boland, the Irish defense again delivers as UConn manages only two shots on goal (none in the final 60:00).

Oct. 26 — Notre Dame wins 2-0 at Seton Hall for a 10-match shutout streak that (at the time) ranks fifth in NCAA history (as does Erika Bohn's personal streak that reaches 967 minutes). The Irish also extend their unbeaten start to 18-0-1, with the first 19 match including only one deficit, spanning all of seven minutes.

Nov. 2 — Guertin extends her Notre Dame record with the fourth overtime goal of her career, as the Irish defeat Miami (2-1) in the BIG EAST quarterfinals for their 50th consecutive home win over a BIG EAST opponent.

Sept. 5 — Thorlakson racks up the most points (8; 3G-2A) ever by a Notre Dame player in a match versus a top-25 opponent, as the second-ranked Irish register a key early win over No. 4 Santa Clara (5-2). Thorlakson also becomes just the third Irish player to post a hat trick against a top-10 foe and ties her own Notre Dame record by scoring or assisting on each of the team's first five goals.

Sept. 17 — Reserve defender Kate Tulisiak picks a perfect time for the only point of her career, after intercepting a pass and providing the right endline cross on Amanda Cinalli's 84th-minute goal at Connecticut. That 1-0 win gives the Irish a 7-0 start that stretches to 15-0 before a scoreless tie with Rutgers on Oct. 22.

Oct. 31 — Thorlakson sets another Notre Dame record with 10 points in a match (4G-2A) while tying the Irish record for goals in a match, with each of them coming leftfooted. The 7-0 BIG EAST quarterfinal win over St. John's also sees Thorlakson top her own standard by factoring into each of her team's first six goals.

Nov. 7 — Notre Dame's perfect record in BIG EAST title matches (7-0) ends at Connecticut, as the Huskies score twice in the final 17 minutes to snatch away the 2-1 win. But the Irish quickly turn the disappointment into motivation by outscoring their opponents 12-2 in the six ensuing NCAA tournament wins (including a 2-0 third-round rematch with UConn).

Dec. 3 — Following four straight wins to start the NCAs — versus Eastern Illinois (4-0), Wisconsin (1-0), on Jill Krivacek's 90th-minute header of a Thorlakson corner kick), UConn (2-0) and Portland (3-1, pair of goals from Cinalli) — the Irish head to Cary, N.C., for a semifinal matchup with familiar foe Santa Clara. The only scoring in the evenly-matched and tension-packed contest comes in the 73rd minute, as Candace Chapman (a converted defender) and Thorlakson work a classic give-and-go that starts with Chapman's long run down the center of the field. She then knocks home Thorlakson's return pass from the right side, sending the Irish to the NCAA final for the fifth time.

Dec. 5 — Notre Dame joins North Carolina as (at the time) the only multi-time NCAA champions in D-I women's soccer history, after surviving a penalty-kick shootout with UCLA. An own-goal gives the Bruins the lead early in the second half, but the Irish battle back behind tournament MVPs Thorlakson (tying goal, on 74th-minute PK) and Bohn, who denies Kendall Billingsley's penalty-kick try with 5:09 left in regulation. The shootout sees little-used reserve Sarah Halpenny convert on Notre Dame's second try while Jen Buczkowski and Annie Scheffer also find the net — but the teams still are tied after five kicks, sending the shootout to sudden-death. Krivacek then calmly deposits her low-right shot and Bohn guesses correctly, stopping Lindsay Greco's try to give Notre Dame the title in thrilling fashion.

Thorlakson completes one of the most dominant all-around seasons in women's soccer history (23G-24A) and is considered the favorite for the Hermann Trophy — but inexplicably, she is not even among the three finalists for the award. Soccer America does recognize Thorlakson as its 2004 national player of the year (an honor earned by Makinen in 1998 and 2000).

2005

Sept. 2 — Notre Dame lives up to its No. 1 ranking with an impressive early win over 11th-ranked Florida (4-1). Thorlakson has a pair of goals and an assist while newcomer Hanks — who missed the 2004 season due to the FIFA Under-19 World Championship — opens the scoring to keep up her torrid pace. One week earlier, Hanks had a seven-point match (3G-1A) in the opener versus New Hampshire and scored four goals against the home team at the Vermont Classic.

Oct. 14 — Thorlakson factors into three of the goals (1G-2A) as the Irish top 10th-ranked Connecticut, 4-0, for one of the program's most dominating wins ever versus a top-10 opponent.

Oct. 23 — Alexandra Hardy's goal in the 63rd minute cuts Notre Dame's lead to 2-1 and briefly gives upset-minded hosts Georgetown hope in the regular-season finale. But the match quickly gets out of hand minutes later, as Bock, Thorlakson and Scheffer all score in a span of 51 seconds to suddenly give the Irish a 4-1 cushion. The flurry racks as the quickest three-goal stretch in the history of Division I women's soccer.

Nov. 21 — Notre Dame returns to the BIG EAST title match and leaves no doubt this time around, running away from Connecticut to secure the program's eighth BIG EAST Tournament title. Five different Irish players find the net at Marquette's Valley Fields, highlighted by the 24th score of the season from Hanks (breaking the school record for goals by a freshman). Thorlakson — who totals 2G-5A in the three wins — is named the tournament's offensive MVP while midfield enforcer Krivacek takes home the defensive MVP award.

Nov. 25 — Notre Dame and Portland meet in a rematch of the 2004 NCAA quarterfinals and the home team again claims victory (by the same score, 3-1). The eventual national champion Pilots advance after scoring twice in the first 20 minutes for an early cushion that was enough to hold off the fifth-ranked Irish.

2006

Sept. 3 — In a rare matchup of top-ranked teams by different polls, Notre Dame scores three times in less than nine minutes midway through the second half to defeat Santa Clara, 3-1 at Alumni Field. Cinalli was the catalyst for the Irish comeback, assisting on the tying goal by Krivacek before nodding home Michele Weissenhofer's cross to give the hosts the lead just 5:35 later. Cinalli then put the Broncos down for good with a breakaway strike in the 73rd minute. Lauren Karas added nine saves between the pipes, including a critical stop with 2:34 left as SCU tried to rally.

Sept. 29 — One of the top matches in Alumni Field history goes the way of the No. 1-ranked Irish, as Notre Dame spots sixth-ranked West Virginia an early goal, but comes roaring back with three scores after the break for a 3-1 triumph. Weissenhofer potted the equalizer off a Bock assist less than four minutes into the second half and Hanks put the Irish on top with a header at the left post in the 74th minute. Cinalli sealed matters just over three minutes from time, flushing home a rebound off Weissenhofer's initial shot.

Oct. 24 — Notre Dame caps off the fifth undefeated regular season in program history (17-0-1) with a 3-0 win at Cincinnati in a match that had to be made up after the initial contest was called due to lighting.

Irish Soccer History

Nov. 5 – Hanks scores twice in the opening 10 minutes, including the quickest BIG EAST tournament goal in program history (0:57) as the Irish put together a clinical 4-2 win over Rutgers in the BIG EAST final to win their ninth league crown. Buczowski and reliable defensive midfielder Ashley Jones chip in two assists apiece as Notre Dame races out to a four-goal lead and cruises to the victory. The Irish also swept the tournament hardware, as Hanks was the offensive MVP and steady defender Kim Lorenzen was tapped as the defensive MVP.

Dec. 1 – Notre Dame returns to the NCAA College Cup final for the sixth time following a hard-fought 2-1 victory over No. 5 Florida State in the national semifinals at Cary, N.C. The Irish had outscored their first four tournament opponents by a combined 15-1 (7-1 vs. Oakland with a Hanks hat trick; 1-0 vs. Wisconsin-Milwaukee; 3-0 vs. Colorado; 4-0 vs. Penn State with a Weissenhofer hat trick), and appeared to be poised for more of the same after defensive midfielder Courtney Rosen (35:32) and Krivacek (38:21) scored less than three minutes apart in the first half. FSU's India Trotter halved the deficit just after the break, but Karas stood tall the rest of the way with some big plays to preserve the win.

Dec. 3 – Bidding for a third NCAA title (and second in three seasons), Notre Dame came up just short against fellow No. 1 team, North Carolina, falling to its archival, 2-1. The Irish and Tar Heels brought a stellar 51-1-1 combined record into the final (and marked the first time both title-match combatants had at least 25 wins), but Notre Dame found itself trailing by two goals less than 90 seconds into the second half. Bock scored in the 81st minute to get the Irish within a goal, and Hanks nearly tied the game in the closing seconds but her free kick from the top of the box just went wide of the far right post. Hanks finished the season as the national leader in goals (22) and assists (22), joining Hamm as the only player ever to pull off that feat.

Sept. 28 – Sometimes the biggest moves start with a small step, and that was the case with Notre Dame's 1-0 win at Louisville on Cinalli's assisted goal in the 24th minute. The Irish had battled through a rocky opening month of the season, going 3-4-1 in their first eight games (three losses by one goal, two in OT), but held the Cardinals to only one shot on frame (a harmless long-distance try in the 85th minute) to get back to .500.

Oct. 21 – In a matchup of BIG EAST divisional leaders, 15th-ranked Notre Dame continues its late-season resurgence with a 2-1 overtime win against No. 13 UConn at Alumni Field. Hanks erases a one-goal deficit by bending in a corner kick in the 86th minute, before Bock secures the win on a header goal off an Elise Weber free kick three minutes into OT.

Nov. 9 – Bock and Rose Augustin score 38 seconds apart midway through the first half as the Irish blank Georgetown, 2-0, in a BIG EAST tournament semifinal at Morgantown, W.Va. Two days later, Notre Dame and host WVU play to a 1-1 double-overtime tie in the BIG EAST final before the Mountaineers claim the title on penalty kicks, 5-3.

Nov. 24 – Notre Dame adds another page to its NCAA tournament lore with a classic 3-2 round-of-16 win at fourth-ranked North Carolina. The Irish stun the Fetzer Field crowd with two goals in the first 13 minutes, as Bock scores off a Weissenhofer flip throw-in at 12:44 and Weissenhofer picks off a weak UNC backpass for an unassisted score 14 seconds later (the quickest two-goal flurry in NCAA Championship history). The Tar Heels get one back on a penalty kick early in the second half, but Weissenhofer pots the eventual match-winner at 60:19, and Karas comes up with numerous big stops in the closing moments to preserve the victory. A week later back at Alumni Field, the Irish shade Duke, 3-2, on Hanks' 78th-minute goal to book their ninth College Cup appearance.

Sept. 5 – Notre Dame fires the first big shot of the season off the right foot of Bock, whose 51st-minute goal is the difference in a 1-0 win at No. 3 North Carolina in the Carolina Classic. The victory made the Irish the first visiting team ever to post multiple shutouts over the Tar Heels at Fetzer Field, while also extending Notre Dame's season-opening shutout streak to four in a row, the second-longest run in school history behind the '95 championship squad's eight consecutive whitewashes.

Oct. 5 – For the one and only time in the '08 regular season, top-ranked Notre Dame has to play from behind, as visiting Marquette scores at the 59:06 mark. However, the deficit lasts just two minutes before Bock erupts for a pair of goals in an 86-second span on the way to a 3-1 Irish victory. Hanks capped the win with a penalty kick in the 88th minute, becoming Notre Dame's career points leader in the process.

Nov. 9 – No Hanks, no Bock, no problem for the Irish, as No. 1 Notre Dame wins its 10th BIG EAST tournament title with a 1-0 overtime win over Connecticut at Alumni Field. Freshman forward Melissa Henderson proves to be the hero, scoring 6:58 into the first extra session as the Irish overcame the loss of their two All-America offensive threats who were sidelined with injuries. Henderson is named the tournament's Most Outstanding Offensive Player, while Carrie Dew collects Most Outstanding Defensive Player honors.

Nov. 21 – On a bitterly cold night at Alumni Field, top-ranked Notre Dame outlasts a stern challenge from Minnesota to win its NCAA tournament third-round match, 1-0 in overtime. Hanks penalties a carry at 6:58 into the extra period, then disappears in a sideline snowbank under a pile of Irish players, providing one of the truly signature moments of the '08 campaign. A week later, Hanks makes women's soccer history with a pair of assists in the NCAA quarterfinal win over Florida State, becoming the first Division I player ever to record 73 goals and 73 assists in her career.

Dec. 5 – Henderson and fellow rookie Courtney Barg team up for a 15th-minute goal, the only score in No. 1 Notre Dame's 1-0 College Cup semifinal win over third-ranked Stanford. Junior goalkeeper Kelsey Lysander turns in the best performance of her career with seven saves, as the Irish earn their school-record 26th consecutive victory and seventh trip to the NCAA title match.

Dec. 7 – Hanks locks up her historic second Hermann Trophy and sets an NCAA finals record with her goal just 16 seconds into the national championship match against fourth-ranked North Carolina. However, Notre Dame's bid for its first 27-0-0 "perfect season" and a third national title are spoiled by two second-half UNC goals, the latter coming via a deflected cross with 2:06 remaining that gave the Tar Heels a 2-1 win.

Sept. 6 – Following 20 seasons of remarkable success (222-16-4, .926) at their old home pitch, Alumni Field, Notre Dame earns its first victory at its new state-of-the-art home, the similarly-named Alumni Stadium, with a 3-0 victory over Wisconsin-Milwaukee in the Inn at Saint Mary's Soccer Classic. The Irish score all three of their goals in the opening 23:03, with Henderson finding the net twice in the first 14 minutes.

Oct. 2 – Notre Dame sets a new NCAA record by extending its unbeaten streak against conference opponents to 56 consecutive matches with a thrilling 3-2 overtime victory at West Virginia. Senior defender Haley Ford nods home the tying goal in the 65th minute before Taylor Knaack converts the match-winner just 41 seconds into extra time, logging the quickest OT score in program history.

Nov. 6 – Sophomore defender Jessica Schuveiller nets her second match-winning goal of the season (after an 82nd-minute decider at Cincinnati on Sept. 25), rising up to head in Augustin's cross in the 99th minute, as Notre Dame advances to the BIG EAST title match with a 2-1 semifinal win over St. John's (@UConn). Two days later, the Irish would win their 11th BIG EAST tournament crown (and fourth in five seasons) with a similar 2-1 victory over Marquette on Amanda Clark's goal at 70:13.

Nov. 15 – Henderson turns in one of the single greatest individual postseason performances in Notre Dame history, tying a school record with four goals (including a natural hat trick in the first 34 minutes) as the Irish shred Central Michigan, 6-1 in the second round of the NCAA tournament at Alumni Stadium. The speedy Texan's four-goal day is the best ever recorded by a Notre Dame player in either the BIG EAST or NCAA tournaments.

Nov. 27 – Despite having to go on the road to sixth-ranked Florida State for its NCAA quarterfinal match, No. 5 Notre Dame finds the winning combination as Henderson and Ford score 51 seconds apart in the first half to send the Irish to the College Cup for the fourth consecutive season and fifth time in six years. Henderson's tally not only stands up as the match-winner, but it caps a remarkable eight-match postseason run that sees her score a school-record 10 goals, including four match-winners (also a record), and tally 23 points.

Notre Dame's 1995 Dream Season Ends With National Championship

Notre Dame's 1995 NCAA championship team

The 1995 Notre Dame women's soccer season was described by national coach of the year Chris Petrucelli as a season that "ended the way we all had dreamed about." With wins over perennial power North Carolina in the NCAA semifinals and Portland in the title game (both 1-0), Notre Dame had become just the third school ever to win an NCAA women's soccer title (dating back to 1982).

The season's dream began with Notre Dame putting the opposition to sleep, as the Irish outscored their opponents 36-0 on their way to an 8-0 record. The women's soccer squad participated in the first BIG EAST competition for any Notre Dame team, defeating Providence in the opener — followed by a win over St. John's and three shut-outs of Big Ten foes Indiana, No. 13 Wisconsin and No. 19 Michigan State.

Notre Dame moved to 6-0 with a 1-0 win over No. 3 Stanford (on a rare goal by sophomore midfielder Holly Manthei, who went on to become the NCAA all-time assist leader), followed by BIG EAST wins over Rutgers and Seton Hall that pushed the season shot advantage to 192-24.

Sophomore midfielder Julie Maund's goal at the 88:17 mark averted a loss at Cincinnati (the game ended in a 2-2 tie) while an 82nd-minute goal from senior forward Rosella Guerrero set up an overtime gamewinner for junior midfielder Cindy Daws, in a 2-1 game with Ohio State.

A 2-2-2 stretch continued in the BIG EAST showdown with Connecticut, as freshman forward Monica Gerardo's goal in the 82nd minute forced overtime (3-3) — with the Huskies winning 5-4 under the old "non-sudden-death" format. The loss was Notre Dame's first at home since Oct. 4, 1992, and ended a 29-game conference winning streak for the Irish.

Another Gerardo goal produced a 1-0 win over No. 7 Santa Clara, with the grueling six-game stretch concluding in Houston against No. 11 Duke (2-2) and No. 1 North Carolina (0-2). Yet another late goal (by junior forward Amy VanLaecke, at 89:26) saved the day versus Duke.

"At that point, we had lost our focus on defending," said Petrucelli. "We got so carried away in trying to score goals that we forgot there was another part of the game.

We needed to put a lot of work into our team defense."

After the loss to UNC, the Irish defense — led by junior goalkeeper Jen Renola — yielded just three goals in the final 11 games, including shutouts in all six postseason games.

The next big test for the refocused Irish was a rematch against Connecticut in the BIG EAST title game, with the newcomer Notre Dame blanking the reigning BIG EAST power 1-0 (on an early VanLaecke goal).

"The win over UConn helped our confidence and made us believe," said Petrucelli. "We were able to refocus and commit to everything needed to win. We had talked about winning, but we were not doing everything that it took."

The Irish defense continued its postseason shutout streak, led by Renola and the starting defender formation of sophomore Kate Sobrero, junior Kate Fisher and senior Ashley Scharf.

The Irish were seeded No. 4 in the NCAA tournament, using four first-half goals and a hat trick from freshman midfielder Shannon Boxx for a 5-0 win over Wisconsin in the second round. Notre Dame then knocked off UConn in the third round (2-0), with goals from senior defender Julie Vogel and VanLaecke.

Playing on its home field in the semifinals, UNC carried a 10-year, 31-game NCAA tournament win streak into its game vs. Notre Dame.

The Irish came out sharp and loose, pressuring from the start. That pressure led to the only goal, in the 20th minute, when UNC's Cindy Parlow headed a cross out of the goal area. Daws then headed it back toward the goal and Parlow's attempt to redirect the ball sent it into her own net for the 1-0 score.

A stunned crowd of 7,212, at that time the largest ever to attend a collegiate women's soccer game, watched as the Irish defense shut down the potent Tar Heel offense.

Returning to the title game, Notre Dame encountered 125 scoreless minutes before Daws surprised Portland goalkeeper Erin Fahey, after senior forward Michelle McCarthy had been fouled outside the top of the box. Daws quickly sent the direct kick into the back of the net — ending the exhausting game and completing Notre Dame's dreamlike run to the 1995 national title.

"The thing that came out of this season was that we found out how much character our team really had," said Petrucelli. "Instead of packing it in, we fought back."

Notre Dame Caps Dominating 2004 Season By Capturing Program's Second NCAA Title

A four-month quest for the 2004 national title saw the Notre Dame women's soccer team navigate its way through the season with a nearly perfect record. The odyssey began Aug. 10, with an eight-day training trip in the soccer-crazed nation of Brazil. On the final night of the team's stay, head coach Randy Waldrum reflected on the trip.

"I don't think they want to leave," said Waldrum on that final night at the Vitoria Hotel, a dorm-like atmosphere for the Irish players.

"I already can tell this is a group who truly enjoys being together," predicted the veteran of 22 previous seasons as a college coach. "They want to achieve great success for one another. That's a great starting point for any team."

Fast forward to Cary, N.C. — 117 days after the departure for Brazil — as Notre Dame faced UCLA in the NCAA final. It marked the end of a season filled with individual feats and team domination, as the Irish made a strong case for being the nation's top all-around program.

Notre Dame, the second D-I women's soccer team to win multiple titles, spent six weeks as the No. 1-ranked team and finished with a team-record victory total (25-1-1) that had been bested by just three teams in NCAA history.

Three All-Americans — fifth-year central defender Melissa Tancredi, junior forward Katie Thorkelson and sophomore midfielder Jen Buczkowski — led a talented starting 11 that included another first team all-BIG EAST player (Freshman All-America forward Amanda Cinali) and three named third team all-BIG EAST: senior forward Candace Chapman, sophomore midfielder Jill Krivacek and sophomore left back Christie Shaner.

Junior midfielder Annie Scheffer helped in dominating the possession while the stout back line also included senior central defender Gudrun Gunnarsdottir and sophomore right back Kim Lorenzen. Junior goalkeeper Erika Bohn — who joined Scheffer as 2004 Academic All-Americans — rarely was tested but she stopped three total PKs in the title game.

The eventual national champs rose above injuries to Randi Scheller, Mary Boland and Susan Pinnick (among others) that totaled 109 games — plus the absence of another top offensive player, Kerri Hanks (Under-19 World Championship). Boland was lost early with a broken leg but Thorkelson responded with an historic season (23 goals-24 assists) while Chapman (12G) also picked up the slack after shifting from right back to forward. Cinali added 10 goals, as the first Irish freshman with double-digit goals since 2000.

Notre Dame's pressing style led to the Irish totaling nearly as many goals (70) as opponent shots on goal (71) while allowing just 1.8 corner kicks/gm. The Irish led the nation in shutouts (16) and ranked fifth in goals-against avg. (0.51).

Thorkelson and Tancredi were among the final-15 candidates for the Hermann Trophy and stood out as the nation's most dominant players at their positions. Thorkelson earned several player-of-the-year honors in a season that included: 3G-2A in the first half of the opener vs. Baylor; 3G-2A in the second half of the 5-2 win over #4 Santa Clara (ND record for points vs. top-25 team); an 11-game point streak to end the season; ND records for points in a game (4G-2A, vs. St. John's) and in one post-season (27); 70 total points (two shy of the ND record); and scoring/assisting on 24 of the final 28 goals. Former UNC great Mia Hamm remains the only player ever to total more goals and more assists in a season than Thorkelson.

Early highlights included Scheffer's 82nd-minute PK to beat Stanford (1-0) and a 2-1 win at Arizona State, as the Irish overcame an early deficit and 100-degree heat. Cinali's 84th-minute goal later produced a 1-0 win at UConn and the Irish pulled away at West Virginia (3-1) — before Buczkowski scored in the final minute at Georgetown (2-1) and volleyed in a cross from Ashley Jones to beat Boston College (1-0).

Krivacek headed in a Thorkelson corner kick to defeat Wisconsin in the final regulation minute of that NCAA second-round game (1-0), followed by a 2-0 win over UConn and the 3-1 quarterfinal with Portland (two goals by Cinali, one by Thorkelson). Thorkelson and Chapman then worked a classic give-and-go in the 73rd minute, as the Irish edged Santa Clara in the semifinals (1-0).

Bohn needed to make just five saves in the first five NCAA games but she stopped six shots in the title game, with the only UCLA score coming on an own-goal early in the second half. Thorkelson tied the game on a 73rd-minute PK and Bohn then saved a PK late in regulation. The first five shootout rounds saw UCLA miss twice (one saved by Bohn) while little-used senior Sarah Halpenny preceded Buczkowski and Scheffer in making their shots. Krivacek then converted in sudden-death PKs, Bohn dove to her left for yet another save — and the Irish were the 2004 national champions.

The success and impact of the Notre Dame women's soccer program has not been limited to the collegiate level. Notre Dame had a presence at the past four FIFA Women's World Cups, particularly in the 1999 World Cup won by the host United States. Former three-time All-American Kate (Sobrero) Markgraf played a key role in helping the U.S. claim its second World Cup in '99, as a starting defender and one of the youngest players on the roster. Markgraf started five of six games, missing only the North Korea game when she rested a sore ankle after the U.S. already had clinched the top spot in its pool.

Former high-scoring Notre Dame forward Monica Gerardo and 2002 graduate Monica Gonzalez (a former forward who converted to a defender role) represented Mexico in that country's first appearance in the World Cup in '99. The Irish pair both started Mexico's first World Cup game against Brazil, while Gerardo — who wrapped up her career at Notre Dame following the 1998 season — also started against Italy. Four-time All-America midfielder Holly Manthei's earlier appearance with the U.S. national team in the 1995 World Cup in Stockholm, Sweden, marked the first World Cup duty for a Notre Dame women's soccer player. The second-youngest player on the team following her freshman season at Notre Dame in 1995, Manthei played in two games for the third-place Americans, including a reserve stint in a 3-3 tie with China and a start in the 4-1 win over Australia. Markgraf and former Notre Dame defensive midfielder Shannon Boxx played for the U.S. third-place team at the 2003 World Cup (also played in the U.S.), with Boxx selected to the prestigious All-World Cup team. Recent Notre Dame standout Candace Chapman was set to start for Canada at flank midfielder but had to miss the 2003 World Cup due to injury.

The Notre Dame women's soccer program once again was well-represented on multiple national teams at the 2007 World Cup in China. Boxx (recovering from an '06 knee injury) and Markgraf ('07 pregnancy) were not at 100 percent entering the tournament, but both started every match except the group-play win over Sweden (Boxx was a halftime substitute) and the third-place win over Norway (neither played), with Boxx scoring in a 3-0 quarter-final win over England. Chapman, along with fellow former Notre Dame standouts Melissa Tancredi (2000-04) and Katie Thorlakson (2002-05) nearly helped Canada get out of group play, but an injury-time goal by Australia in the final group-play game gave it a 2-2 draw and a pass to the quarterfinals. Chapman scored Canada's first goal of the tournament (in a 2-1 loss to Norway), while Tancredi scored 37 seconds into the Australia contest, the second-fastest goal in tournament history.

Boxx returned with the United States at the 2011 World Cup in Germany, helping the Americans to the final match, where they fell to Japan on penalties, 3-1, following a 2-2 draw. Boxx started and went the distance in five of six matches for the U.S. (including two double-overtime contests), setting up the first American goal in the quarterfinals against Brazil with a cross that led to an own-goal (the United States won 5-3 on penalties after a 2-2 deadlock). Meanwhile, Chapman and Tancredi played in all three group-stage matches for Canada in 2011, with Chapman starting all three and Tancredi twice for the Maple Leafs, who did not advance to the knockout round.

National Teams

While Notre Dame players clearly have established themselves among the best in the college game, they also have showcased their talents on both the national and international levels. In the past 18 years, the Irish have been represented by numerous players on the various national teams who have traveled around the world. Notre Dame head coach Randy Waldrum also has been active on the international level, both as an assistant with the U.S. national team program (age-group levels), and, in the summer of 2008, as the head coach of the Trinidad & Tobago U-17 national team that ended up one win shy of qualifying for the inaugural FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup.

Six different Notre Dame women's soccer players — midfielder Cindy Daws (1996), goalkeeper Jen Renola (1996), midfielder Anne Makinen (1998 and 2000) and forwards Katie Thorlakson (2004), Kerri Hanks (2006 and 2008) and Melissa Henderson (2010) — each have received a major national player-of-the-year honor during the past 15 seasons (1996-2010). Most notably, Notre Dame is one of only two women's soccer programs ever to produce four or more different recipients of the prestigious M.A.C. Hermann Trophy (Daws, Makinen and Hanks twice).

Hermann Trophy

The Hermann Trophy is named after Robert Hermann, founding Chairman of the North American Soccer League. First presented in 1967, the Hermann honors the best college soccer player as determined by a panel made up of more than 500 coaches and journalists. The Hermann Trophy merged with the M.A.C. Award in 2002.

Cindy Daws (Sr., M)	1996
Anne Makinen (Sr., M)	2000
Kerri Hanks (F)	2006, 2008 (Sr.)

Missouri Athletic Club (M.A.C.) Player of the Year

The Missouri Athletic Club Sports Foundation Collegiate Soccer Player of the Year Award is presented annually at the MAC in St. Louis. The award, voted on by more than 800 coaches, first was presented in 1992. The M.A.C. Award merged with the NSCAA Player of the Year Award in 1997 and then merged with the Hermann Trophy in 2002.

Cindy Daws (Sr., M)	1996
Anne Makinen (Sr., M)	2000
Kerri Hanks (F)	2006, 2008 (Sr.)

NSCAA Player of the Year

Note: The NSCAA player-of-the-year award merged with the M.A.C. Award in 1996 and the M.A.C. later merged with the Hermann Trophy in 2001 (meaning that Anne Makinen and Kerri Hanks also have been named player of the year by the NSCAA).

Soccer America Collegiate MVP

Anne Makinen (M)	1998, 2000 (Sr.)
Katie Thorlakson (Jr., F)	2004

ESPN "ESPY" Finalist (one of five) (Best Female College Athlete)

Katie Thorlakson (Jr., F)	2004
Kerri Hanks (F)	2006, 2008 (Sr.)
Melissa Henderson (Jr., F)	2010

NCAA 25-Year Anniversary Team

Jen Renola (11-player team; honored in 2006)

NCAA Today's Top VIII Award

The Today's Top VIII Award is presented annually by the NCAA to honor eight outstanding senior student-athletes (from all divisions). Selection criteria include: athletics ability and achievement; academic achievement; and character, leadership and extracurricular activities.

Jen Renola	1997 (for 1996 season)

Honda-Broderick Cup

The Honda-Broderick Cup is presented annually to the nation's outstanding collegiate woman athlete. The winner reflects not only the individual athletic achievements, but also embodies the ideals of team contribution, scholastic endeavor, school and community involvement and those personal characteristics that are reflected in the philosophy of intercollegiate athletics.

Cindy Daws	1997 (for 1996 season)
------------	------------------------

Honda Sports Award

The Honda Sports Award is awarded annually to the nation's top collegiate woman athlete in 12 different sports, including soccer. The recipient is then eligible for the Honda-Broderick Cup.

Cindy Daws	1996
Melissa Henderson	2010

bold indicates current Notre Dame players

Katie Thorlakson turned in one of the top all-around offensive seasons in women's soccer history during the 2004 season, totaling 23 goals and 24 assists while leading the Irish to the program's second national title (former UNC great Mia Hamm in the only Division I player ever to total more goals and more assists — in the same season — than Thorlakson's 2004 output). Despite her historic season, Thorlakson surprisingly was not among the three finalists for the 2004 M.A.C./Hermann Trophy, but she was recognized by Soccer America as its 2004 national player of the year. ESPN similarly honored Thorlakson by selecting her as one of five finalists (and the only soccer player among the finalists) for the 2004-05 "ESPY" in the category of best female college athlete. Thorlakson went on to be a finalist for the 2005 M.A.C./Hermann player-of-the-year award.

Note: see p. 90 for All-Americans sorted by class year and by position.

The past 19 seasons of Notre Dame women's soccer (1992-2010) have produced a rich tradition of elite players, led by 23 who have combined for 49 All-America seasons:

- Only 23 players in the 29-year history of Division I women's soccer who have been NSCAA four-year All-Americans and four are Notre Dame players: midfielders Holly Manthei (1994-97) and Anne Makinen (1997-2000), defender Jen Grubb (1996-99) and forward Kerri Hanks (2005-08). This quartet also represents the only four ND players to be NSCAA All-Americans as freshmen and sophomores.
- Four others — midfielder Cindy Daws ('93, '94, '96), goalkeeper Jen Renola ('94-'96), defender Kate Sobrero ('95-'97) and midfielder Jen Buczkowski ('04-'06) — have been three-time All-Americans while six have been NSCAA All-Americans twice: midfielder/forward Jenny Streiffer ('96, '99), defenders Candace Chapman ('02, '05) and Melissa Tancredi ('03-'04), forward Katie Thorlakson ('04-'05), midfielder/forward Brittany Bock ('07-'08) and defender/forward Lauren Fowlkes ('09-'10).
- Renola ('95-'96), defender Monica Gonzalez ('02), Bock ('07-'08) and Fowlkes ('09-'10) are part of an elite group of 53 student-athletes in ND history to earn All-America and Academic All-America honors in the same season — Renola, Bock and Fowlkes also are three of just 13 ND student-athletes to do it twice (Streiffer earned both honors but never in the same season, garnering Academic All-America status in '97 and '98).
- Daws (3), Hanks (3) and Renola (2) are Notre Dame's only multiple first-team NSCAA All-Americans, with Daws also remaining the only ND freshman ever to be a first team NSCAA All-American.
- Notre Dame players have been named NSCAA All-Americans every year since 1992, including 14 years with multiple All-Americans (at least two every season since 2003, with a total of 20 from 2003-10). There have been eight Notre Dame seasons with three-plus NSCAA All-Americans (led by six in 1996).
- The positions of forward, midfielder and defender each have produced at least six different Irish NSCAA All-Americans (not counting Streiffer, Bock and Fowlkes, who were All-Americans at multiple positions).

Note: all-time roster includes all who played in at least one fall match during their careers ... bold indicates returning 2011 players

Two-time captain Vanessa Pruzinsky was not only a leader on the field but also in the classroom. She was a three-time first-team Academic All-America selection (2000, 2001, 2003) and graduated in 2003 as the third Notre Dame chemical engineering major ever to compile a 4.0 cumulative grade-point average (first in 29 years).

1999 College Cup

Spartan Stadium
(San Jose, Calif.)

Marathon Moment

Notre Dame entered its 1999 NCAA quarterfinal at 4th-ranked Nebraska expecting a tight game. The Irish had trailed Nebraska in the second half of the 1998 NCAA third round at Alumni Field before scoring twice for the win — and their meeting in the 1997 second round was closer than the 6-0 final. But on Nov. 28, 1999, nobody expected a four-overtime game that lasted 150 minutes and ended in a 1-1 tie. Jenny Streiffer scored 90 seconds into the game but Karina LeBlanc kept the Irish out of the net for the next 148:30. Nebraska tied the game in the 18th minute and the marathon was set, as LeBlanc and LaKeysia Beene did not yield any more scoring to set up the shootout.

Streiffer converted into the lower left corner while Beene dove low and to her left to save Kelly Rheem's try in the first round of the penalty kicks. Both teams converted in round-2 (Jenny Heft upper left, Meghan Anderson lower right) while both round-3 kicks grazed the posts — as the shot by Notre Dame's Anne Makinen missed off the left post while Christine Latham's skimmed off the same post and went into the net.

The shootout was tied (2-2) entering round-4 when LeBlanc dove to her right and saved Monica Gonzalez's low shot. The Huskers had a chance to win by converting their final two attempts — but Sharlota Nonen's try sailed over the crossbar. Both teams found the net in round-5 (Jen Grubb upper right, Jenny Benson lower right), forcing an extra round. Omaha native Kelly Lindsey — a defender with no points all season — gave the Irish a 4-3 lead (lower right) and Beene reached left to save Amy Walsh's attempt, extending the Notre Dame run that would reach all the way to the NCAA final.

Goalkeeper Michelle Lodyga — who led a 1991 Irish defense that allowed just 14 goals in that entire season — was one of the early leaders of the Notre Dame women's soccer program and still holds the Irish record for career save percentage at .825.

Amy Warner — who netted a hat trick in the third match of her freshman season (2000) — owns one of the quickest goals in the Randy Waldrum era at Notre Dame, netting a score just 90 seconds into a 2003 win at Seton Hall.

Notre Dame's Hat Trick History

Notre Dame players have combined to score 64 hat tricks in 23 seasons, including at least one every year except 2001 and 2010. Jenny Heft and Kerri Hanks share the school record with six career hat tricks, while Melissa Henderson is the only current Irish player with a three-goal match (three to date). Hanks kicked off her career in grand fashion with a hat trick in the 2005 opener against New Hampshire, setting a new Notre Dame record for the earliest hat trick in a season, based on date (Aug. 26) and joining Rosella Guerrero as the only Irish freshmen to register a hat trick in their debut matches. The complete list of Notre Dame hat tricks is as follows:

FIGHTING IRISH IN WPS

The Notre Dame women's soccer program has become a fixture in Women's Professional Soccer (WPS), with no fewer than 13 former Fighting Irish players — second-most of any NCAA Division I school — earning a place on opening day rosters since the league debuted in 2009. What's more, five Notre Dame alums (the most of any Division I program) have helped their teams win the first two WPS titles, with Jen Buczkowski ('07) and Kerri Hanks ('08) pacing Sky Blue FC to the 2009 championship, and Shannon Boxx ('99), Candace Chapman ('05) and Carrie Dew ('09) playing key roles on FC Gold Pride's 2010 title-winning squad.

Shannon Boxx

Carrie Dew

Brittany Bock

Candace Chapman

Jen Buczkowski

Here's a rundown of the former Notre Dame players who have been drafted and/or played for WPS teams during the league's three-year existence (* - Indicates player active in league as of July 31, 2011):
