UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

ABOUT NOTRE DAME

- The University of Notre Dame sits on 1,250 acres containing two lakes and has 137 buildings.
- The Basilica of the Sacred Heart, the 14-story Hesburgh Library with its 132-foot-high mural depicting Christ the Teacher, and the University's beautifully renovated 128-year-old Main Building with its famed 23.9 Karat Golden Dome are among the most widely known university landmarks in the world.
- Notre Dame has 8,332 undergraduate students and a total enrollment of 11,479 students.

RANKINGS

- Notre Dame is rated among the nation's top 25 institutions of higher learning in surveys conducted by U.S. News and World Report, Princeton Review, Time, Kiplinger's, and Kaplan/Newsweek.
- The Wall Street Journal has cited Notre Dame one of the "New Ivies" in American higher education, along with, among others, Duke, Northwestern and Johns Hopkins.
- Notre Dame is one of the few universities to rank in the top 25 in the U.S. News & World Report survey of America's best colleges and the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup standings of the best overall athletic programs.

The University of Notre Dame, founded in 1842 by Rev. Edward F. Sorin, C.S.C., of the Congregation of Holy Cross, is an independent, national Catholic university located in Notre Dame, Ind., adjacent to the city of South Bend and approximately 90 miles east of Chicago.

- Notre Dame ranks fifth in a listing of “dream schools” in a survey of parents by the Princeton Review. The top seven are Stanford, Princeton, Harvard, Brown, Notre Dame, Duke, and Boston College.

STUDENTS

- Notre Dame's graduation rate of 95 percent is exceeded by only Harvard and Princeton.
- Notre Dame's 98 percent retention rate between the freshman and sophomore years is among the highest in the country, thanks in large part to the University's unique First Year of Studies Program.
- Notre Dame has one of the highest undergraduate residential concentrations of any national university, with 80 percent of its students living in 27 residence halls. Some 40 Holy Cross religious leaders continue to live and provide a pastoral presence in the halls.
- Graduate and undergraduate students at the University come from all 50 states and more than 100 countries worldwide.

UNIVERSITY LEADERSHIP

Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C., took office as the 17th president of the University of Notre Dame on July 1, 2005. He was elected by the University's Board of Trustees to a five-year term April 30, 2004.

An associate professor of philosophy and member of Notre Dame's faculty since 1990, Father Jenkins had served from 2000-2005 as a vice president and associate provost at the University.

Prior to his service in the provost's office, Father Jenkins had been religious superior of the Holy Cross priests and brothers at Notre Dame for three years. As religious superior, he was a Fellow and Trustee of the University, but he relinquished those posts to assume his duties in the provost's office.

"If we are clear in our purpose, we will excel in our ideals. This will be my priority and my passion as President of Notre Dame."

– Father Jenkins' Inauguration Speech, 2005

Father Jenkins specializes in the areas of ancient philosophy, medieval philosophy and the philosophy of religion. He is the author of Knowledge and Faith in Thomas Aquinas, published by Cambridge University Press in 1997.

Father Jenkins earned degrees in philosophy from Oxford University in 1987 and 1989. He earned his master of divinity degree and licentiate in sacred theology from the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, Calif., in 1988.

Prior to entering the Congregation of Holy Cross, he earned bachelor's and master's degrees in philosophy from Notre Dame in 1976 and 1978, respectively. Father Jenkins was ordained a priest in Notre Dame's Basilica of the Sacred Heart in 1983. He served as director of the Old College program for Notre Dame undergraduate candidates for the Congregation of Holy Cross from 1991 to 1993.

A native of Omaha, Neb., Father Jenkins was born Dec. 17, 1953.

John B. “Jack” Swarbrick Jr., a Notre Dame graduate who has risen to national prominence as a lawyer, consultant and executive in the collegiate and Olympic sports industries, was appointed July 16, 2008 as the University’s 12th director of athletics.

Raised in Yonkers, N.Y., and Bloomington, Ind., Swarbrick is a 1976 magna cum laude graduate of Notre Dame with a bachelor’s degree in economics. Upon graduating from Stanford Law School in 1980, he returned to Indiana to accept a position as an associate in the Indianapolis law firm Baker & Daniels. He was made partner in 1987.

At the same time that Swarbrick began his career, the city of Indianapolis was beginning its effort to become a world-class center for amateur and professional athletics. An employment law specialist, Swarbrick soon shifted his focus to sports and quickly became active in the city’s initiatives.

As a member of the Indiana Sports Corp., including the chairmanship from 1992 to 2001, Swarbrick led many of the city’s successful proposals to a wide array of athletics organizations – from the NFL to the U.S. Olympic Committee to the Big Ten Conference. His leadership efforts have resulted in the city:

- Earning the bid to host the 2012 Super Bowl to Indianapolis
- Becoming the home of the NCAA national headquarters
- Hosting the 1987 Pan American Games
- Hosting the 1991 World Gymnastics Championships
- Hosting NCAA Final Fours and other college championship competitions and a wide array of national and world championships in the Olympic sports
- Securing rights to host the Big Ten Conference men’s and women’s basketball tournaments for five consecutive years beginning in 2008

Swarbrick’s work has focused on the representation of owners of sports teams and organizations which sanction or conduct athletic competitions. He has served as general counsel for numerous national governing bodies of Olympic sports, including USA Gymnastics and USRowing, and as a consultant to the 1996 Olympic Games. He also served as president and chief executive officer of LMIV, an Internet-based network of radio stations.

- In his work as an advisor to the NCAA, Swarbrick has:
- Coordinated the men’s College Basketball Partnership, an NCAA-led group that addresses the opportunities and challenges in the sport
- Worked with the NCAA’s Corporate Partners and Champions Program
- Served as a member of the NCAA Division I women’s Basketball Discussion Group
- Chaired the NCAA/USOC task force dedicated to developing proposals to expand sponsorship of Olympic sports among NCAA member institutions
- Developed the business plan for the new NBA/NCAA youth basketball enterprise

Before accepting the offer to lead his alma mater’s athletics department, Swarbrick had been a finalist for several high-profile positions in college athletics, including president of the NCAA and commissioner of the Big 12 Conference.

Swarbrick and his wife, Kimberly, are the parents of four children: Kate, a junior at St. Louis University; Connor, a sophomore at Wake Forest University; Cal, a junior in high school; and Christopher, a high school sophomore.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Notre Dame's Academic Services for Student-Athletes, housed in the Coleman-Morse Building, is designed to help Notre Dame fulfill its commitment to all student-athletes in their pursuit of a college degree and academic excellence.

In order to achieve these goals, Academic Services has several major objectives:

1. Maintain the academic integrity of the University
2. Help student-athletes maximize their academic potential
3. Comply with University and NCAA rules and regulations
4. Assist every student-athlete as they work towards graduation in four years

The University of Notre Dame ranks number one in the country in terms of graduating its student-athletes, according to statistics released recently by the NCAA.

Academic Services provides many services that begin when First Year students arrive on campus and continue through graduation. Services provided include but are not limited to:

- Consistent counseling and appropriate interventions regarding academic matters
- Refer student-athletes to campus offices where they can meet regularly with their professors and college advisors
- Monitoring the progress of student-athletes through regular communication with professors
- Provide tutorial assistance for the student-athletes

A new computer/study space was completed inside the Coleman-Morse Building for the start of the 2007-08 school year. This new 2,500 square-foot room can handle any combination of 80 student-athletes or tutors at once. There are also nine study rooms used for small group meetings or private sessions with tutors. The study space has approximately 20 desktop computers available for use and has wireless connections available for laptops.

Whether measured by the federal government in its Department of Education report or by the NCAA through its newer Graduation Success Rate (GSR) numbers, graduation rates for Notre Dame student-athletes rank among the national leaders in most categories among major football-playing colleges and universities.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

Eight years ago, the Notre Dame department of athletics and the University embarked on creating an ambitious athletics facility master plan so Irish student-athletes would have access to state-of-the-art venues for practice, training and competition.

That blueprint, which touched nearly every varsity sport, continues to come to life. By the time the plan is completed, the entire area just east of the Joyce Center and north of Edison Road will boast a comprehensive and impressive athletic quad.

NEW FACILITIES

ALUMNI SOCCER STADIUM

- The new $5.7 million stadium had its groundbreaking April 26, 2008 and is expected to be completed in June 2009. The stadium will be a lighted facility that will feature a natural grass field, locker rooms, restrooms, concession areas and 2,000 seats.

ARLOTTA FAMILY LACROSSE STADIUM

- Groundbreaking for the $5 million facility occurred April 17, 2008 and is expected to be completed in June 2009. Arlotta Stadium will feature 2,000 seats, lights, an artificial-turf field, locker rooms, restrooms and concession area.

MELISSA COOK STADIUM

- Located on the southeast corner of campus, the new softball stadium opened April 12, 2008 and can accommodate up to 1,500 fans.

TRACK STADIUM

- Ground was broken for construction of the $3 million outdoor track in June 2008. The new nine-lane facility will meet IAAF guidelines and completion is expected in late October 2008.

LABAR FOOTBALL PRACTICE FIELDS

- Three new practice fields adjacent to the Guglielmino Athletics Complex will be ready for the start of fall practice in August 2008. Two of the fields will be FieldTurf and the third will be natural grass.

RENOVATED FACILITIES

PURCELL PAVILION

- Home to the Irish men's and women's basketball teams as well as the volleyball squad, construction on the $26.3 million Joyce Center Arena addition and renovation will begin in September 2008.

CHARLES W. "LEFTY" SMITH, JR. ICE RINK

- Tentative plans for a $30 million facility will create a new home for the Irish hockey team within the Joyce Center fieldhouse. The project would increase capacity to 4,000 while improving locker rooms, concessions and restrooms.

PROSPECTIVE NEW FACILITIES

OUTDOOR TENNIS COMPLEX

- The $4.9 million project will create a new outdoor playing and practice home with seating for 2,000 and will meet NCAA requirements to host national championships on the Notre Dame campus.

ROWING BOATHOUSE

- A new boathouse for the rowing team eventually will be constructed near the existing boathouse on the St. Joseph River.

Nearly $70 million of the Spirit of Notre Dame development campaign has been earmarked for strategic athletics facilities renovation and construction designs.

SPORTS MEDICINE

SPORTS MEDICINE

- Head athletic trainer and physical therapist Jim Russ oversees a staff of three associate and eight assistant athletic trainers, plus two physical therapist/athletic trainers, all of whom are certified and boast nearly 200 years of collective experience.
- Irish athletes have access to three state-of-the-art sports medicine facilities in the Joyce Center, Notre Dame Stadium and the Guglielmino Athletics Complex.
- The Guglielmino facility encompasses more than 8,500 square-feet of cutting-edge sports medicine technology including the latest in physical therapy modalities and rehabilitation equipment, with two 3,500-gallon therapy pools, a full x-ray unit and an MRI machine.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

- Director of strength and conditioning Ruben Mendoza is in charge of a department that has eight full-time coaches, an intern and a nutritionist.
- The 25,000 square foot Haggar Fitness Complex is located between the Loftus Sports Center and Guglielmino Athletics Complex.
- The Haggar Fitness Complex features a three-lane development track, a 45x18 yard Prestige Turf plyometric agility area, a Gatorade hydration station, six giant plasma screen televisions and a state-of-the-art sound system with 28 speakers and four subwoofers.

DIRECTORS' CUP STANDINGS

For the 10th straight year in 2007-08, Notre Dame posted a top-25 finish (21st) in the United States Sports Academy Division I Directors' Cup all-sports competition sponsored by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (formerly known as Sears Directors' Cup).

Notre Dame is among 14 schools to earn a top-25 finish in each of the past 10 years (1999-2008), as Irish programs finished 25th in '99, 21st in 2000, 11th in '01, 13th in '02 and '03, 19th in '04, 16th in '05, sixth in '06, 22nd in '07 and 21st in '08.

... EXCELLENCE OFF THE FIELD

NOTRE DAME ATHLETICS ... BY THE NUMBERS

- 201 All-Time Academic All-Americans (second all-time)
- 8 Academic All-Americans in 2007-08
- 44 All-Time NCAA postgraduate scholarship recipients
- 18 Notre Dame teams (out of 22) with a graduation rate of 100% (best percentage in NCAA)
- 8 Irish athletic teams that earned a perfect score of 1,000 in the NCAA's Academic Performance Rate in 2007-08 (tied for most among Division I football playing schools)

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

- Notre Dame has had 201 Academic All-Americans since 1952, second-most among all NCAA institutions
- From 2006-08, 32 student-athletes earned Academic All-America recognition, the most Academic All-Americans in a three-year stretch in school history
- Eight Irish student-athletes were named Academic All-Americans in 2007-08: Brittany Bock (women's soccer), John Carlson (football), Ashley Jones (women's soccer), Trevor Laws (football), Brett Lilley (baseball), Ryan Miller (men's soccer), Adrienne Nott (women's fencing), Jordan Pearce (hockey).

POST-GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS:

- Notre Dame has had 44 student-athletes receive a postgraduate scholarship from the NCAA since the program was founded in 1964. During the 2007-08 school year, John Carlson (football) and Brett Lilley (baseball) became the most recent recipients of the prestigious scholarship.

STUDENT WELFARE AND DEVELOPMENT

STUDENT WELFARE AND DEVELOPMENT

- The Student Welfare and Development Program implements events and activities that are designed to facilitate learning within five key areas: academic excellence, athletic success, career preparation, community involvement and personal development.
- The program has three components: elective services (community service, leadership, social events); complementary services (encourages administrators and coaches to request coordination of workshops, events and activities); and essential services (student-athletes participate in a series of required skill-building and developmental workshops and activities).
- The Student Welfare and Developmental Program, founded in 1996, continuously seeks to develop programs that educate student-athletes on current issues, so as to ensure that when they graduate from the University, they are prepared to successfully meet the challenges of life.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

- More than 92 percent of Notre Dame's student-athletes (from all 26 varsity teams) participated in community service activities during the 2007-08 school year.
- Irish student-athletes completed more than 5,000 hours of community service while assisting more than 50 non-profit organizations and schools.

CITY OF SOUTH BEND

South Bend and Mishawaka are the two largest cities in St. Joseph County and help boost the population of the area to 266,431.

- The College Football Hall of Fame is located in downtown South Bend.
- The Studebaker National Museum is located in South Bend and displays carriages of four U.S. Presidents, prototypes and industrial treasures.
- The community's version of "Willy Wonka" can be found at The South Bend Chocolate Company and Chocolate Museum.
- Adventurers can enjoy both rafting and kayaking on the East Race Waterway, the first artificial whitewater course in North America.
- During the summer, the South Bend Silver Hawks (the Class A minor league affiliate of the Arizona Diamondbacks) plays at Coveleski Stadium.
- On Friday's prior to an Irish home football game, downtown South Bend features a Football Friday Tent Party with live music, food and drink on the grounds of the College Football Hall of Fame.

NOTRE DAME MONOGRAM CLUB

MONOGRAM CLUB

- The Notre Dame Monogram Club is comprised of nearly 7,000 individuals who have earned the University's varsity athletic insignia for their athletic or team-support endeavors or who have been honorary-monogram recipients.
- Yearly dues entitle members to a variety of benefits: annual golf outing; membership card; the Inside Irish publication; members' children eligible for Brennan-Boland-Riehle scholarship at Notre Dame; and ticket applications for home football games.

Notre Dame Monogram Club: Bridging the Gap Between Legend and Legacy

ALUMNI

- The University's network of 275 alumni clubs—including 60 international clubs—is the most extensive in higher education.
- The Notre Dame Alumni Association's current membership reaches nearly 110,000.
- With graduates renowned for their loyalty and generosity, Notre Dame annually ranks among the top five in percentage of alumni who contribute to the University.
- In the world of business, Notre Dame alumni serve in chief executive and other leadership positions at firms such as Andrews McMeel Publishing; the Chicago Mercantile Exchange; General Electric; Goldman, Sachs & Co.; Haggar Company; Marriott Corp.; Merck & Company; and Office Depot.

GIVE A GIFT and LEAVE A LEGACY

Every gift matters. This is much more than a slogan for this family of donors. Their sacrifice, conviction, and generosity represent a love for the University of Notre Dame that goes well beyond athletics and remains a constant in their lives.

Together we can accomplish great things. Thanks to our alumni, parents and friends, the Director's Circle, our recognition society, successfully launched a second annual giving level: Irish Legends. The response has been overwhelming. In its first full year of existence, we have welcomed 104 members — and we are grateful.

Our work has just begun. Athletics grants-in-aid are one of the largest items in the department of athletics operating budget, accounting for roughly $14 million annually. The ultimate goal is to finance all budgetary needs through benefaction. We are confident that we will be successful because we have something special — the Notre Dame family; the Rockne Heritage Fund family.

Director's Circle

Members donating to the Rockne Heritage Fund at the $1,500, $5,000, $10,000 and $25,000 levels, receive a corresponding benefits package. For more information on the attractive football ticket benefit, visit our website: und.com/rockneheritagefund.

How to Make a Gift

- Send a check payable to the Rockne Heritage Fund; P.O. Box 519; Notre Dame, IN 46556.
- Make a gift online: supporting.nd.edu and include "Rockne Heritage Fund" in the comments section.
- Specify if your employer has a matching gift program.
- Notre Dame employees may request a payroll deduction form.

Season Preview

Junior Colleen Rielley will be a big factor in the Irish lineup this season, after compiling a 23-14 singles record as a sophomore.

Irish Women's Tennis Looks to Continue Success in 2008-09

This year's Irish squad has the potential to be one of the best teams in program history

Head coach Jay Louderback and the Notre Dame women's tennis team are looking to continue their history of success as another season of Irish women's tennis is set to begin.

The Irish should have no problem finding that success, as five of the top six players from last year's squad return in 2008-09.

Leading the Irish this year is senior Kelcy Tefft. The Enid, Okla., native is coming off an outstanding junior campaign, during which she was named the BIG EAST Most Outstanding Player and earned All-America honors with doubles partner Brook Buck.

"Kelcy had a great year for us," Louderback said. "She's tough to play against because she doesn't make any errors, and she plays very well under pressure."

Tefft finished the '07 season with a 27-10 singles record and a 44-7 mark in doubles action, while playing at the No. 1 spot in both formats almost all season.

She advanced to the semifinals of the NCAA Doubles Championships and the second round of the singles tournament.

The three-time All-BIG EAST tournament team selection will top the Irish lineup again for the '08-09 campaign.

Senior Katie Potts also returns for the Irish, after a 21-11 singles season a year ago. The Brookfield, Wisc., native played mainly at the Nos. 5 and 6 positions in 2007 and will compete for a spot in the starting lineup this year.

"Katie worked hard this fall and is battling for a spot at the bottom of our lineup," Louderback said. "She's worked on being more aggressive, and she has been able to do it in practice. Now it is just a matter of her taking that to match situations."

This year's junior class will also play a major role for the Irish in '08. Cosmina Ciobanu was an All-BIG EAST tournament team selection and finished the 2008 campaign with a 28-15 singles record, after playing most of her season at the No. 3 position. She teamed with classmate Colleen Rielley to record a 21-3 doubles mark, the best doubles winning percentage in Irish history. "Cosmina had a good year for us last year. She is a smart player and is really hard to beat," Louderback said.

Rielley, a two-time All-BIG EAST choice, was a mainstay for the Irish at No. 4 singles, finishing the season with a 23-14 record.

"Colleen is going to be a factor in our singles and doubles lineup this year," Louderback said. "She is always putting in extra time and working on the little things in her game."

Kali Krisik had an outstanding sophomore season at the Nos. 5 and 6 spots, as she finished with a 32-6 singles mark in '07. She was an All-BIG EAST doubles tournament team selection a year ago.

"Kali did a great job last year," Louderback said. "She is finishing points better than she did last year and is hitting with a little more power. She has worked on her serve to the point where it is more of a weapon than it used to be."

Also returning for the Irish are sophomores Kristen Rafael and Denise Ellison.

Rafael made several appearances for Notre Dame, earning an 8-5 singles record and a 16-10 doubles mark. Rafael earned All-BIG EAST doubles tournament team honors and notched her first NCAA tournament victory in the second round against Miami.

"Kristen was here working all summer," Louderback said. "When she moves well and gets to the ball, she is very good."

Ellison went 3-5 in singles play and recorded a 1-3 doubles mark. "Denise is working hard and is very talented, but she just hasn't played a lot of tennis," Louderback said. "She came in behind the rest of the team in terms of experience, but has worked very hard to catch up."

The Irish welcome two freshmen to the squad this season. Kristy Frilling made a name for herself on both the national and international WTA circuit before coming to Notre Dame. She won the Eddie Herr International Doubles Tournament in 2007 and was the 230th-ranked singles and 679th doubles player in the world at one time.

"Kristy is a big, big hitter," Louderback said. "She plays with a lot of power. She is going to be a factor at the top of our lineup."

Shannon Mathews is a four-time Michigan state champion at No. 1 singles and was named the 2007 Midwest Player of the Year.

"Shannon has been a great surprise," Louderback said. "She's not real big, but she plays a big game. She and Kristy are really pushing the rest of the team to work harder."

The Irish will face a challenging schedule in 2009 that will prepare them for another run at a national title.

"Our schedule is good this year, but it's going to be a tough one," Louderback said.

Notre Dame will host eight matches at home this season. Michigan will open the home schedule for the Irish on Feb. 6. Purdue, North Carolina, Wake Forest, Iowa, Vanderbilt, Baylor and Texas A&M will also make the trip to Notre Dame in 2009.

Louderback is looking forward to the 2008-09 season with high hopes for this year's Irish team.

"I think we have a shot at doing really well," Louderback said. "We've got the talent to be very good. We have great senior leadership and a good mix of classes represented."

"This year's team will have the chance to be the best team we've had here."

Junior Kali Krisik was an all-BIG EAST selection and went 32-6 in singles action as a sophomore in 2007-08.

Jay Louderback

Head Coach
20th Season
Wichita State '76

When Jay Louderback took over as women's tennis head coach at Notre Dame in the fall of 1989, he inherited a program that had competed on the Division I level for just four years and had never participated in the NCAA tournament or earned a national ranking. As he enters his 20th season at the helm, Louderback has turned Notre Dame into one of the premier women's tennis programs in the nation.

The Irish have finished in the national top 30 in each of the last 16 seasons and have earned 15 berths to the NCAA Championship in that span. Notre Dame has captured 14 conference titles during Louderback's tenure and has reached the round of 16 in the NCAA tournament on seven occasions, including three appearances in the quarterfinals (1996, 2006, 2007). The Courtney Tennis Center has also served as host of the 1998 NCAA Championships, largely due to his efforts.

Louderback guided Notre Dame to a 22-9 record in 2008 and its 13th consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The Irish also captured their third BIG EAST title in four years and eighth overall since joining the conference in 1996. For his efforts, Louderback took home 2008 BIG EAST Coach-of-the-Year honors for the seventh time overall and second time in three seasons.

Brook Buck (Yukon, Okla.) and Kelcy Tefft (Enid, Okla.) captured the program's second-ever title in an Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) national championship following their triumph at the ITA National Indoors in November. Buck and Tefft went on to earn All-America status and even reached the semifinals of the NCAA Doubles Championship - the furthest that any Notre Dame duo has advanced in the program's history.

Irish finished 2007 with a 28-4 record and their second straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals. The 28 victories was a school record, breaking the previous mark of 27 set during the 2005-06 campaign. Notre Dame upended 13 teams ranked in the top 25 and ended the season ranked seventh in the country (second highest in program history). Twins' Catrina and Christian Thompson earned All-America honors in doubles for the third straight year. Notre Dame went 14-1 against Midwest Region foes — ending the season as the top school in the region for the second consecutive year (the only two times in school history).

Louderback's players have enjoyed great success under his tutelage. Twentyone Irish competitors have earned All-America honors, and four have garnered national awards from the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA). In 18 years, 22 Notre Dame players have garnered invitations to the NCAA Singles Championship and 15 doubles squads have gained berths into the NCAA Doubles Championship.

Louderback's players also have dominated University awards, winning the Francis Patrick O'Connor Award, given to one male and one female athlete each year who best embody the true spirit of Notre Dame, on seven occasions - more than any other sport. Louderback has had five winners of the Byron V. Kanaley Award, the most prestigious honor awarded to Notre Dame student-athletes, the most for any sport in the time since the Wichita State graduate arrived.

Another feature of Louderback's leadership is academic excellence. Since the ITA began awarding the All-Academic Team award to squads maintaining a 3.20 GPA for the year, the Irish have earned the distinction 11 times in 12 years. Only one Division I school, Western Michigan, has a better mark, as the Broncos have won the award all 11 years. In addition, Louderback's players have had a history of being named ITA Scholar-Athletes, which recognizes monogram winners who maintain a 3.50+ GPA for the year. In 2003, the first year the award was open to all classes (as opposed to only juniors and seniors being eligible), Notre Dame and the University of Evansville each had seven recipients, the most ever for one school in the 25-year history of the honor. He also has produced a pair of Academic All-Americans, and his squad posted a 3.552 combined grade-point average in the spring of 2004, the highest mark on record (since 1992) for any Irish team in a semester.

Louderback also has been decorated with nine conference coach-of-the-year awards, and five times he has been named Midwest Region Coach of the Year. He was awarded the Wilson/ITA National Coach of the Year in 2006. Since 1996, the Irish have compiled a dominating 107-18 (.856) record against regional opponents.

In 29 years of coaching, Louderback holds a 563-339 (.624) record, including a 518-306 (.629) mark coaching women's tennis. At Notre Dame, he is 359-161 (.690), making him the winningest coach in program history. After guiding Notre Dame to a 17-8 record during his first year with the Irish in 1990, Louderback led the Irish to their first-ever national ranking the following season, finishing the year at 23rd after a 16-9 season. In individual action, Melissa Harris advanced to the second round of the NCAA Singles Championship, becoming the first player in school history to accomplish the feat.

The 1992-93 season saw the Irish earn their first berth to the NCAA Championship at the Division I level. Notre Dame shut out Alabama in the first round before falling to #2 Stanford to finish 18-8 and 19th in the nation.

Wendy Crabtree and Lisa Tholen also became the first Irish team to earn a berth in the NCAA Doubles Championship.

In 1993-94, Notre Dame again earned a trip to the NCAA Championship and again fell to Stanford in the second round. Crabtree and Lisa Tholen advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Doubles Championship to become the first Irish All-Americans at the Division I level. Crabtree also earned singles All-America honors.

The 1994-95 season marked the last of seven consecutive Midwestern Collegiate Conference titles, including six under Louderback. Crabtree was a singles All-American for the second year in a row.

The 1996 Irish squad put together one of the best seasons in school history. Notre Dame won the BIG EAST title in its inaugural season in the league, advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals, compiled a 23-7 mark and finished with a No. 6 national ranking - the highest year-end listing in school history until last year. After defeating BYU in the round of 16, Notre Dame again saw its season ended by Stanford. During the regular season, the Irish defeated No. 5 Texas, which still stands as the highest-ranked opponent to fall victim to Notre Dame.

Crabtree finished her career by becoming the first women's tennis player to earn Academic All-America honors. Freshman Jennifer Hall completed an outstanding season, winning the BIG EAST Championship Most-Outstanding-Player award in addition to being named the Penn National Player to Watch. Hall also became the first Irish player to advance to the round of 16 of the NCAA Singles Championship, which assured her singles All-America honors. Following the season, Hall was selected for the USA Tennis Summer Collegiate Team.

After playing host to early-round NCAA action in 1997, the '98 season saw the NCAA Championships come to Notre Dame. Hall and Tiffany Gates, spurned on by a hometown crowd, advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Doubles Championship. Freshman Michelle Dasso stepped in for the Irish at No. 2 singles and finished with a 40-8 record, setting a new all-time mark for singles wins in a campaign.

Louderback's '99 Irish won the program's third BIG EAST championship and posted wins over ninth-ranked Wake Forest and No. 9 William & Mary. Notre Dame finished with a final national ranking of No. 15. Hall completed her career by breaking the 13-year-old school record for career singles wins and also added Academic All-America honors, as well as her third straight athletic All-America distinction. She again advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Doubles Championship, this time with Dasso, who was named to the USA Tennis Summer Collegiate Team.

The 2000 Irish delivered a second straight 23-7 season and advanced to the national site of the NCAA Championship for the first time since '96, finishing with a final ranking of 13th. On April 15, 2000, Louderback registered his 400th career win with a victory over Miami.

Louderback's teams continued their strong regular-season performances, as the 2001 squad posted a 20-win season for the fourth consecutive year, with a 25-5 record - the best mark for the Irish under Louderback and the best mark since beginning play at the Division I level in 1985-86. Ranked 10th in the final ITA poll, the Irish advanced to the NCAA round of 16 for the second consecutive year and were ranked as high as No. 5 during the regular season - the highest ranking in school history.

Four-time All-American Dasso, who joined Louderback's staff as an assistant coach prior to the 2003-04 season, became the first Irish player to be named the ITA National Senior Player of the Year and qualified for the NCAA singles tournament for the fourth time. She capped off the best season for an Irish women's tennis player when she reached at least the semifinals in three of the four ITA grand-slam events. She became the first Notre Dame player to reach a grand-slam final, at the now-defunct National Clay Court Championships and made it to the semifinals of the NCAA Singles Championship. Dasso teamed with Becky Varum in doubles at the 2001 NCAA Doubles Championship for the second consecutive year in her third straight doubles appearance.

After a top-25 season in '02, the Irish won another BIG EAST title in 2003 and finished 21st nationally. The '04 season saw Notre Dame knock off #14 VCU to snap the Rams' 38-match regular-season winning streak and 40-match home winning streak, while the Irish went on to finish 27th in the country.

The 2004-05 campaign was marked by the outstanding play of sophomore twins Catrina and Christian Thompson, who reached the title match of the Riviera/ITA All-American Championships and the semis of the ITA National Intercollegiate Indoor Championships en route to being the first squad in Irish history to reach the national #1 ranking in doubles. The team earned another top-25 finish, as well.

Despite a loss in the second round of the NCAA tournament, Notre Dame's appearance in the '05 event assured that 19 consecutive classes, dating from 1990 through 2008, will have made at least one trip to the NCAA national event - a range of classes that includes every freshman since seven-time BIG EAST coach-of-the-year Louderback arrived at Notre Dame.

In recognition of Louderback's effort and success, Notre Dame's Monogram Club bestowed upon him an honorary monogram in 1998. He joined an elite group of six current Notre Dame head coaches at that time to have been awarded an honorary monogram.

In 2006, Louderback and the Irish enjoyed their greatest season in program history to date. Notre Dame went 27-2 and climbed as high as No. 2 en route to the NCAA quarterfinals. The Irish finished the season fifth in the ITA Rankings, the highest final ITA ranking since becoming a Division I program in 1985-86. After finishing 24th in 2005, ND was 22nd in the preseason before moving into the top five for good on Feb. 28.

The Irish were the top-ranked team in the ITA's Midwest Region for the first time since 1999-2000.

Prior to coming to Notre Dame, Louderback headed the men's and women's tennis programs at Iowa State for three years. He led the men's squad to a 45-33 mark and the women's team to a 37-51 record from 1986-89. In his final season with the Cyclones, Louderback's men's team finished fourth in the Big Eight, Iowa State's highest conference finish in 25 years. The Cyclones' top player finished fifth in the regional voting for the NCAA tournament.

Louderback began his coaching career at his alma mater, taking the helm of the Wichita State women's program in just its fifth year of competition.

He guided the Shockers to a 122-94 record in seven years, including two Gateway Conference championships (1984 and 1986) and a Missouri Valley Conference title (1982). Five of his seven teams either won a conference championship or finished as runners-up. During his tenure, the Shockers won 14 or more matches each season while 10 of his players qualified for postseason competition. Two of his players qualified for the NCAA Championships in both the 1983-84 and 1984-85 seasons.

The 1980-81 Shockers set a school record with 21 wins, as the team earned its first postseason berth. The 21-win plateau was reached again the following season when Wichita State captured the MVC and Region IV championships.

Louderback was voted 1982 Region IV Coach of the Year for his team's outstanding accomplishments.

A native of Arkansas City, Kan., Louderback was an assistant tennis professional at the Riverside Tennis Center in Wichita, Kan., and head tennis professional at the Y Tennis Center in Battle Creek, Mich., before taking the coaching position at Wichita State.

Louderback, who earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Wichita State in 1976, won a Missouri Valley Conference title at No. 3 singles during his senior year. For his efforts that season, Louderback was voted most valuable player by his teammates.

In April, 2003, the Louderback family was honored by the USTA with the Tennis Family of the Year Award, presented to one family consisting of USTA members and volunteers who have excelled in advancing the USTA's mission to promote and grow the game of tennis both on and off the court. He and his wife, Denise, have one daughter, Bailey, who earned four monograms with the Irish tennis team and graduated in May 2008.

Julia Scaringe

Assistant Coach
First Season
Florida '03

Former Harvard assistant Julia Scaringe has joined the Notre Dame women's tennis staff in a similar position.

"We're very excited to get Julia here for the 2008-09 season," Louderback said. "Her playing experience, plus her teaching and coaching experience, should add a lot to our program."

Scaringe joins the Irish staff after spending a year with the women's tennis program at Harvard, where she helped coach two All-Ivy players and 2008 NCAA singles participant Beier Ko.

A 2003 Florida graduate, Scaringe played the No. 1 singles position for the Gators. During her time in Gainesville, Florida won a national championship, two SEC conference championships, three SEC tournament championships and finished as the NCAA runner-up and national team indoor runner-up. She received Florida's Most Improved Player award, the SEC Outstanding senior award and was named the ITA South region player of the year as a senior in 2003. Scaringe achieved a career-high ITA singles ranking of 24 and seven in doubles.

She was also a two-time Dorothy Anderson Award recipient, given to an athlete who displays the best combination of academics and character on and off the court, as well as a 2002 Sportsmanship Award honoree. Scaringe graduated 11th all-time in combined singles and doubles wins in Florida history and seventh all-time in doubles victories. She was a member of Florida's SAAC and Student-Athlete Advisory committees.

As a junior player, Scaringe was a member of the U.S. National team, playing in all four junior Grand Slams and achieving a world ranking of 54 in singles and 42 in doubles. Her best results came at the Australian Open where she reached the round of 16 in singles play.

She received a Bachelor of Arts in business administration.

Liz Balanis

Volunteer Assistant Coach Wake Forest '94

Liz Balanis is in her fifth year as a volunteer assistant coach for Notre Dame after serving as the team's assistant coach for the seven previous seasons.

The 2000 Intercollegiate Tennis Association Midwest Region Assistant Coach of the Year, Balanis joined Jay Louderback's staff in January of 1998 and helped the Irish to a 121-52 (.733) record during her years as an assistant, including seven consecutive top-25 finishes.

A native of Trumbull, Conn., and graduate of St. Joseph High School, Balanis played tennis at Wake Forest, graduating in 1994 after reaching the semifinals of that year's NCAA Doubles Championship to become one of the first two All-Americans in school history. A four-year starter, she finished her career with an 87-56 singles record and 85-38 doubles record to rank among the Deacons' all-time top 10 lists in singles (10th) and doubles (fifth) victories.

In August of 2002, the former Liz Barker was married to current Notre Dame men's basketball assistant coach Rod Balanis. Their first child, Andrew, was born in May of 2005.

Scott Szymanski

Senior Manager Notre Dame '08

Scott Szymanski is in his first year with the women's tennis program, serving as the team's senior manager in 2008-09.

A native of Naperville, Ill., Szymanski serves as a liaison between women's tennis and the athletic business office, coordinating team travel, equipment and finances and prepares the Eck Tennis Pavilion and Courtney Tennis Center for home matches.

Prior to his involvement with the women's tennis program, he worked with the Irish football team in 2007.

Born April 13, 1987, Szymanski will graduated in May 2009 with a degree in finance.

Missy Conboy

Deputy Director of Athletics Notre Dame '82

Missy Conboy is in her third year as a deputy director of athletics and 20th year overall as a member of Notre Dame's athletics senior staff. Conboy oversees the legal affairs of the athletics department and has responsibility for the master plan for facilities, human resources, legal contracts, and is the liaison to the Athletic Affairs Committee of the Board of Trustees. Conboy also administers five sports, including women's tennis.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., Conboy was a four-year member of the Notre Dame women's basketball team from 1979-82. She graduated with a degree in English and received her juris doctor from the University of Kansas School of Law in 1985.

She was married in 1991 to William Mountford, and the couple has three daughters – Darby, Delaney and Killian Rose Mountford.

Tennis Tradition

Pam Fischette, who finished her career holding five school records – including career singles victories (86) and career doubles wins (84) – was the national runner-up at No. 3 singles as a sophomore in 1982, earning All-America honors and helping the Irish to a trio of top-six finishes in the Division II--national championship.

Tennis Tradition

With 16 straight finishes in the national top 30, including a program-best No. 2 ranking in 2006 and 2007, and 15 berths in the NCAA tournament during that time, Jay Louderback's women's tennis program at the University of Notre Dame has solidified its spot among the country's finest. Louderback enters his 20th season at Notre Dame having elevated the Irish to new levels.

His teams have captured 14 conference titles and have advanced to the NCAA round of 16 seven times. Success, however, is nothing new to Notre Dame women's tennis, which began in 1976 as the first varsity women's sport at the University.

The roots of the program's recent success can be traced back to when Notre Dame first became a coeducational institution in 1972, and there were only 365 women present on the campus. This minority did not provide enough interest or depth to immediately warrant a women's tennis program above the club level. But, by 1976, female enrollment had risen to 1,550, and the tennis team gained varsity status.

Led by head coach Kathy Cordes, the Irish finished their first varsity season 7-3-1, and Jane Lammers and Mary Shukis became the first women to earn varsity monograms at Notre Dame.

Notre Dame made great progress in its initial years and became a force on the state and national level in just its fourth season. The Irish notched an impressive come-from-behind victory in the 1979 Indiana Intercollegiate Women's Championship and went on to finish 22nd in the national tournament. This showing led to the team's promotion to Division II after only four years at the Division III level.

A spring tennis season was added to the schedule for 1980-81, and the team successfully charted its first 20-win season, more than doubling its victory total from the previous year. In addition, the Irish captured the AIAW Division II State Championship title. This led to an appearance in the AIAW National Championship (20th-place finish).

In 1982, the Irish placed first once again in the AIAW state and regional tournaments, going on to tie for sixth in the national championship. Much of the squad's success was due to the play of freshman All-American Laura Lee. In individual action, Lee ran off six straight victories to capture the AIAW Division II national singles title in the No. 5 flight, becoming Notre Dame's first women's tennis national champion. Joining Lee to become the first All-Americans in Irish women's tennis history was sophomore Pam Fischette, who was the national runner-up at No. 3 singles.

When the AIAW dissolved, the women's tennis program took on NCAA Division II status and immediately became a contender for the national title. The Irish notched three consecutive top-three finishes from 1983-85 before being moved up to Division I. In both 1983 and '84, Notre Dame finished third in the NCAA Division II Championship. The following year, the Irish advanced to the national title match, losing to Tennessee-Chattanooga. With the team's runner-up finish, head coach Sharon Petro earned Division II national coach-of-the-year honors.

After competing as an independent during its initial seven years of varsity action, the Notre Dame women's tennis team joined the North Star Conference in 1983-84, beginning a tradition of dominance in conference action that would see the Irish win 14 league titles in a row and 18 in the 25 years since giving up their independent status.

The 1985-86 season saw the women's tennis team reach another milestone in its short history – the team's debut at the NCAA Division I level. First-year head coach Michele Gelfman led Notre Dame to a 28-6 record, with four of the losses coming by 5-4 scores. The win total still stands as the highest by an Irish team at the Division I level.

The tradition of freshman excellence continued in 1987-88 as rookie CeCe Cahill became the first Irish women's tennis player to compete in the NCAA Division I Championships. The first Notre Dame player to be listed in the national singles rankings, she qualified for the singles tournament, but dropped her first-round match 7-6 (7-3), 6-3 to Stanford's Katy Tittle.

The 1988-89 season proved to be another landmark in the program's growth, marking the Irish debut in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference, in which it would win seven straight titles (after going unbeaten in five North Star Conference Championships).

Louderback took over the Irish program in the fall of 1989, ushering in an era of unparalleled success. After a 17-8 campaign in his first season, the '90-91 Irish became the first team in the program's history to crack the Division I team national rankings, while three individuals also received national listings. Melissa Harris – who was ranked as high as seventh nationally in singles during her career – became the first Notre Dame women's tennis player to win a match in the NCAA Division I Singles Championship when she beat Northwestern's Lindsay Matthews 6-3, 4-6, 6-2.

Notre Dame entered the national stage in '92-93, earning its first invitation to the NCAA Division I Championship and knocking off No. 19 Alabama to advance to the round of 16. Freshman

Academic Tradition

In addition to its success on the court, Notre Dame's track record in the classroom is virtually unparalleled in college tennis. Over the past 13 years, the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) has recognized teams posting a grade-point-average of 3.20 or higher for the year as ITA All-Academic Teams. The Irish women's tennis program has earned that distinction 12 times during that span, including each of the last nine years. Only one Division I school, Western Michigan, has a better string, with the Broncos having received the award each year from 1996-2008. Southern Illinois and Evansville are also 12-time winners.

After having the highest combined GPA of any of Notre Dame's 26 varsity teams in 2002-03 (3.444), the Irish were even better in 2003-04, posting a 3.467 mark for the academic year (second-best among Notre Dame teams). During the spring semester, the Irish combined for an incredible 3.552 team GPA, which is the highest single-semester team GPA for any Notre Dame team on record (since 1992).

In 2002-03, seven Notre Dame players were honored as ITA Scholar-Athletes, a total tied for the highest by a Division I team in a single season. To earn the honor, one must be a varsity letter-winner and have a GPA of at least 3.50 for the year. Prior to the 2002-03 year, one also had to be a junior or senior. Over the past decade, a total of 18 players have earned the accolade. Lauren Connelly is the only three-time selection in Irish history.

The University of Notre Dame ranks second all-time in the number of student-athletes who have been named Academic All-Americans by the College Sports Information Directors of America. The 182 selections for the Irish trail only Nebraska's 248. A pair of women's tennis players — Wendy Crabtree (third team in 1996) and Jennifer Hall (third team in 1999) — have earned that coveted accolade.

Wendy Crabtree gained entrance to the NCAA Singles Championship and teamed with Lisa Tholen in the doubles draw, the first Irish doubles team to earn a spot in the event.

Crabtree became Notre Dame's first All-American on the Division I level in '93-94, garnering honors in singles and in doubles with Tholen. In addition, the team earned its second straight trip to the round of 16 and, for the first time in the history of the program, two players — Crabtree and Holyn Lord — earned spots in the NCAA singles field.

The 1995-96 Irish squad reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship — tied for the farthest Notre Dame has ever advanced in the event. In addition, the Irish finished the season ranked sixth — the second highest final ranking in program history. Notre Dame also came away with the BIG EAST title in its inaugural year in the league. Notre Dame also registered a victory over fifth-ranked Texas, which still stands as the highest-ranked opponent to fall victim to the Irish. Jennifer Hall earned All-America honors as a freshman, and she played in the NCAA singles event, while Crabtree and Lord closed out their impressive careers playing in the NCAA doubles tournament for the second straight year.

In '97, Hall advanced to the second round of the NCAA singles tournament and to the final 16 in the doubles championship with Tiffany Gates. Notre Dame also won its second straight BIG EAST championship, and Louderback was named the league's coach of the year for the second consecutive year. Michelle Dasso, now an assistant coach for the Irish, began her illustrious career by setting the school record for singles wins in a season with a 40-8 record.

Notre Dame's Courtney Tennis Center served as the national site for the 1998 NCAA Championships (it remains the northern-most location ever selected for that distinction). Hall teamed with Tiffany Gates for the first of her two consecutive appearances in the NCAA doubles quarterfinals.

Notre Dame turned in the first of back-to-back 23-7 seasons in 1998-99, putting together a 12-match winning streak and winning its third BIG EAST title. Dasso joined Crabtree as the only players in school history to earn All-America honors in singles and doubles in the same season. She teamed up with Hall to reach the final eight of the NCAA Doubles Championship, matching the best-ever finish for an Irish team. A year later, Notre Dame advanced to the NCAA round of 16 for the first time since 1996 and won 14 of 15 matches in one late-season stretch.

For the fourth time in five years, the Courtney Tennis Center was selected as a host site for early-round NCAA Championship action in 2001. Notre Dame reached the final 16 for the second consecutive year and finished 25-5 after peaking at a program-best fifth in the national rankings. It was the fourth consecutive 20-win season and the fewest losses for a Notre Dame team at the Division I level.

Four-time All-American Dasso became the first Irish player to be named the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) National Senior Player of the Year and qualified for the NCAA singles tournament for the fourth consecutive season. She capped off the best season for an Irish women's tennis player when she reached at least the semifinals in three of the four ITA grand-slam events. She became the first Notre Dame player to reach a grand-slam final, at the now-defunct National Clay Court Championships, and made it to the semifinals of the NCAA Singles Championship. Dasso was ranked as high as No. 2 nationally in singles and fifth in doubles (with Becky Varnum), establishing program bests in both instances.

Notre Dame won its fifth BIG EAST Championship in '03, pulling out a thrilling 4-3 win over host and arch-rival Miami with a victory at No. 2 doubles in the last match remaining on court. Caylan Leslie and Alicia Salas both earned berths in the NCAA singles tournament, marking the fifth time since 1991 that two Notre Dame players gained entrance to the event.

Salas became one of the nation's top players during the 2003-04 season, peaking at 10th in the national singles rankings, while twins Catrina and Christian Thompson continued the tradition of freshman superlatives. The duo filled the No. 1 doubles spot all season and played Nos. 2 and 3 singles. The Thompsons became the first all-freshman doubles team (for any school) to be invited to the NCAA Doubles Championship since 1998, rallying for a three-set victory in the first round before falling in three sets in the round of 16 to finish the season ranked 26th.

The Thompsons reached new heights in '04-05, advancing to the title match of the season's first grand slam, the Riviera/ITA All-American Championships, for the best-ever result by a Notre Dame doubles team. The sophomore sisters then reached the semis in the ITA National Intercollegiate Indoor Championships and surged to the national No. 1 ranking in doubles in early spring, achieving another program first. They earned a spot in the NCAA Doubles Championship and won a match to reach the round of 16 for the second consecutive season. Catrina also garnered an invitation to the singles event and prevailed in the opening round.

The Irish earned an automatic bid to the 2005 NCAA tournament and advanced to the second round. Notre Dame's appearance in the tournament — its 10th in as many years — assured that 19 consecutive classes dating from 1990 through 2008 will have made at least one trip to the NCAA tournament — a range that includes every freshman class since five-time BIG EAST coach of the year Louderback arrived at Notre Dame.

Notre Dame went 27-2 and climbed as high as No. 2 en route to the NCAA quarterfinals in 2006. The Irish finished the season fifth in the ITA Rankings, the highest final ITA ranking since becoming a Division I program in 1985-86. After finishing 24th a year ago, ND was 22nd in the pre-season before moving into the top five for good on Feb. 28.

The Irish were the top-ranked team in the ITA's Midwest Region for the first time since 1999-2000.

Tennis Tradition

The Irish did not miss a beat in 2007. Notre Dame climbed as high as No. 2 in the polls, again, and reached the NCAA quarterfinals for the second consecutive season. The Irish went 28-4 on the year and knocked off 13 opponents ranked in the top 25. Catrina and Christian Thompson were named All-Americans for the third straight year in doubles.

The Irish stayed on track in 2008, finishing with a 22-9 record and making their 13th consecutive appearance in the NCAA tournament. Notre Dame also captured its third BIG EAST title in four years. Louderback took home BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors for the seventh time overall and second time in three seasons.

Brook Buck and Kelcy Tefft captured the program's second-ever title in an ITA national championship, following their triumph at the ITA

National Indoors in November. Buck and Tefft went on to earn All-America honors and reached the semifinals of the NCAA Doubles Championship – the furthest that any Notre Dame dui has advanced in the program's history.

A Family Tradition

Notre Dame women's tennis has long featured members of the same family on its teams. The Irish have had two pairs of sisters on its roster in four of the last six seasons. A total of seven sets of sisters have earned monograms in women's tennis, by far the most of any of the 13 Irish women's sports. In 2002-03, Liz Donohue and Lauren Connelly joined the Notre Dame squad as freshmen, combining with sisters Maggie Donohue and Sarah Jane Connelly to mark the first time in school history that a team (in any sport) featured two sets of sisters at the same time. Though Maggie Donohue graduated in '03, the Connells were joined by twins Catrina and Christian Thompson to give Notre Dame women's tennis two sets of sisters again in both 2003-04 and '04-05. In all, 27 sets of sisters in eight different sports have earned monograms in the same sport at Notre Dame. See below the full list:

Tennis (7) – twins Laura and Sheila Cronin ('78-'79; West Chicago); Mary ('76-'78) and Carol Shukis ('80-'82; LaGrange, Ind.); Cathy ('89) and Ann Bradshaw ('89-'92; Indianapolis); Terri ('91-'92, '94) and Sherri Vitale ('93-'96; Bradenton, Fla.); Maggie ('03) and Liz Donohue ('03-'06; Sioux Falls, S.D.); Sarah Jane ('02-'05) and Lauren Connelly ('03-'06; Oklahoma City); twins Catrina and Christian Thompson ('04-'07; Las Vegas)

Swimming & Diving (4) – Jesslyn ('93-'96) and Alyssa Peterson ('94-'95; Apopka, Fla.); Meghan ('92) and Molly Beeler ('97; Granger, Ind.); Jennifer ('89-'92) and Karen Kipp ('92; Woodridge, Ill.); Kelli ('02-'05) and Ann Barton ('04-'05; Scottsdale, Ariz.)

Soccer (1) – Kelly ('98-'01) and Kate Tulisiak ('01-'04; Medina, Ohio)

The Thompsons became the fourth pair of Notre Dame twins to earn monograms in the same sport.

The only previous sets of twin sisters were tennis players Laura and Sheila Cronin ('78-79), fencers Kelly and Rachel Haugh ('89-92), and volleyball players Jessica and Kristen Kinder ('00-03).

In addition to coaching his daughter, Bailey, Jay Louderback added another family connection in 2006, when Kali Krisik, his niece, joined the Fighting Irish.

Louderback became the 11th Notre Dame head coach – just the second in a women's sport – to have coached his son or daughter with the Irish, joining softball's Brian Boulac; football's Ara Parseghian and Lou Holtz; men's basketball's John MacLeod; baseball's Paul Mainieri; hockey's Jeffy Smith; fencing's Pedro De Lander, Mike DeCicco and Yves Auriol; and men's soccer's Mike Berticelli.

Irish All-Americans

Notre Dame Women's Tennis All-Americans

In the 32 years of varsity competition, 12 Irish women's tennis players have been tabbed All-Americans. In 1982, Pam Fischette and Laura Lee became the program's first two All-Americans. To qualify for All-America honors in AIAW Division II (in which Notre Dame competed at the time), a player had to reach the title match at her position in the national championships.

Since becoming a Division I program in 1986, Notre Dame has had 10 players earn a total of 19 All-America honors. The All-America teams are selected by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) each year, with the governing body of collegiate tennis naming all players who meet at least one of three criteria in singles or doubles. In singles, an individual must 1) finish in the top 20 of the final ITA national singles rankings; 2) earn one of the 16 seeds in the NCAA Singles Championship; or 3) advance to the round of 16 in the NCAA Singles Championship. To earn All-America mention in doubles, a player must 1) finish in the top 10 of the final ITA national doubles rankings; 2) earn one of the eight seeds in the NCAA Doubles Championship; or 3) advance to the quarterfinals in the NCAA Doubles Championship.

The 12 Irish All-Americans are featured below with their qualifying criteria and career stats noted.

Francis Patrick O'Connor Award

First presented in 1993, the Francis Patrick O'Connor Award is named in honor of a former Irish wrestler who died in 1973 following his freshman year at Notre Dame. The award is presented upon nomination of head coaches and is given to one male and one female student-athlete who best display the total embodiment of the true spirit of Notre Dame as exemplified by their contribution and inspiration to their teams and possess such characteristics as caring, courage, confidence, encouragement, humility, honesty, humor, kindness, and patience. More women's tennis players have won the Francis Patrick O'Connor Award than student-athletes from any other sport, including five recipients since 2000.

The Kanaley Award

The most prestigious honor awarded to a Notre Dame student-athlete, the Byron V. Kanaley Award has been presented each year since 1927 to senior monogram athletes who have been exemplary as students and leaders.

The awards, presented by the Faculty Board on Athletics, are named in honor of a 1904 Notre Dame graduate who was a member of the Irish baseball team as an undergraduate. Kanaley went on to a successful banking career in Chicago and served the University as a lay trustee from 1915 until his death in 1960. Eight members of the Notre Dame women's tennis team have received the award since 1990, the most of any sport during that span.

Notre Dame in the NCAA Tournament

The Notre Dame women's tennis team has a long tradition of postseason play, especially since the move to NCAA Division I in 1985-86. The Irish have advanced to the team portion of the NCAA Championships in 14 of the past 15 seasons, including 12 in a row. Notre Dame has advanced to the round of 16 on seven occasions, including three appearances in the national quarterfinals in 1996, 2006 and 2007. Only once have the Irish failed to win a match in the NCAA tournament.

In its four seasons on the Division II level (1981-82 to 1984-85), Notre Dame was a national power, finishing among the top six in the nation in each campaign. In the final year of AIAW play, the Irish tied for sixth in the national championship in 1982. The following season saw Notre Dame lose to UC Davis in the national semifinals, but rebound to beat Northern Colorado for third place. In 1984, the Irish fell to Tennessee-Chattanooga in the semis, but gained revenge on UC Davis to again claim third place. Notre Dame's final season in Division II saw it reach the title match before losing to Tennessee-Chattanooga.

In their first national tournament experience, the Irish were 22nd in the 1979 AIAW Division III National Championship (played in the fall) before taking 20th in the following season.

Notre Dame players have been regular participants in the NCAA Singles and Doubles Championships since moving to the Division I level. The Irish have had at least one player earn a berth in the NCAA singles tournament in 19 of the last 21 seasons. On five occasions, a pair of Irish competitors earned invitations to the event. In 1992, Melissa Harris became the first Notre Dame player to win a match in the NCAA's. In her fourth consecutive singles appearance in 2001, former Notre Dame assistant coach Michelle Dasso reached the semifinals, marking the best finish ever for an Irish player.

In doubles play, Wendy Crabtree and Lisa Tholen made history when they became the first Irish duo to play in the NCAA's, in 1993. In '94, they advanced to the final eight to earn All-America honors. Jennifer Hall and Tiffany Gates matched Crabtree and Tholen with their '98 quarterfinal appearance, with Hall and Dasso also reaching the quarters in '99. Dasso made return trips to the tournament in 2000 and '01 with Becky Varnum. The Irish have had at least one entrant in each of the NCAA Doubles Championship in 15 of the last 16 years. The Thompson twins, Christian and Catrina, became the first Irish duo to reach the tournament three times (eventually participated all four years).

In the early days of the program, the Irish excelled in the AIAW national championships. Laura Lee, just a freshman at the time, won the national title at No. 5 singles in 1982, while Pam Fischette was the runner-up at No. 3 singles the same year.

Irish Players in the Collegiate Grand Slam Events

The collegiate grand slam consists of the three most prestigious individual national tournaments in college tennis: the ITA All-American Championships (played in October), the ITA National Intercollegiate Indoor Championships (played in November now after being a February event until 2001-02), and the year-end NCAA Championships. From 1986 until 2000-01, the September National Clay Court Championships made up the fourth leg of the collegiate grand slam, but the event is no longer played.

Irish players have had considerable success in the collegiate grand slam events. Michelle Dasso reached at least the quarterfinals in each of the four events in 2000-01, highlighted by a runner-up finish in the Clay Court Championships. Jennifer Hall is the only other player to reach the singles semifinals in a collegiate grand-slam event, with her finish in the 1996 National Indoors. In 2005-06, Catrina Thompson and Christian Thompson became the first Irish doubles team to capture an Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) national championship.

Conference Dominance

Following seven years competing as an independent, the University of Notre Dame women's tennis team has had incredible success in conference action over the past 24 years. The Irish have been league champions 19 times, including a streak of 14 consecutive conference titles from 1983-84 to 1996-97 and a 27-match conference winning streak from 1983-98. They hold a 62-6 (.912) all-time record against conference foes, including 36-1 (.973) in the regular season. Notre Dame won North Star Conference championships in each of its five years of membership (1983-84 to 1987-88), then captured seven Midwestern Collegiate Conference titles from 1988-89 to 1994-95. Since joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995-96, Notre Dame has won seven championships and finished as the league's runner-up on four occasions.

All 16 members of the BIG EAST Conference field teams in women's tennis, but the league does not require round-robin competition during the season. The top 12 teams, as selected by the conference based on national ranking and head-to-head results, earn invitations to the year-end BIG EAST Championship, a single-elimination team tournament with the winner gaining the league's automatic berth in the NCAA Championship. Prior to 2001, all 14 teams qualified for the conference tournament, with the top two seeds gaining byes into the quarterfinals. For more information on the BIG EAST Conference, see page 95.

Notre Dame defeated Syracuse in the 2005 final and South Florida in the 2006 final, but lost to the Bulls in last year's championship. The Irish faced now-departed Miami in the title match of the BIG EAST Championship over nine straight years, winning in 1996, '97, '99, 2001, and '03. In 19 early-round matches (first round through semifinals), Notre Dame is undefeated, having registered 18 shutouts. Overall, Notre Dame is 26-5 in the event. The Irish have been the top seed heading into the tournament in every year but 2003, when they were the No. 2 seed. Notre Dame mentor Jay Louderback has been named the BIG EAST's Coach of the Year six times, while Irish student-athletes have been tabbed the league championship's Most Outstanding Player on five occasions.

Courtney Tennis Center

Notre Dame's Courtney Tennis Center, the home of Irish women's tennis since the establishment of the varsity program in 1980, has played host to the nation's top players on a number of occasions, while becoming an extremely difficult place for opposing teams to win.

Playing at both the Courtney Tennis Center and in the Eck Tennis Pavilion, the Irish have compiled an all-time home record of 272-61 for an impressive .817 winning percentage. Only once has Notre Dame had a losing home record, when it won just one of four matches at the Courtney Tennis Center in 1977, its second varsity season. The Irish have posted undefeated marks at home on eight occasions: 12-0 in 1981; 6-0 in '82; 14-0 in '86; 8-0 in '89; 8-0 in '90; 12-0 in 2000, 16-0 in '06; 11-0 in '07. Notre Dame has posted one-loss seasons at home in six other campaigns.

Due to its exceptional facilities, Notre Dame has played host to a number of prestigious events, including serving as the national site of the NCAA Championships three times. Just four years after it was built, the Courtney Tennis Center played host to the 1971 NCAA Division I Men's Tennis Championships, which featured what is still considered by coaches to be the finest collection of collegiate tennis talent ever assembled. In that spring classic, freshman Jimmy Connors of UCLA defeated Stanford's Roscoe Tanner in five sets to capture the singles title. That pair would go on to reach a combined 17 grand-slam singles finals on the pro tour, including eight victories.

The NCAA men's tournament came to Notre Dame again in 1994, while the NCAA Division I Women's Tennis Championships were played at the Courtney Tennis Center in 1998. It still stands as the northern-most facility ever to play host to the NCAA women's tennis championships.

Florida defeated Duke in the title match, while Blue Devil Vanessa Webb claimed the singles crown. In doubles, the California pair of Amanda Augustus and Amy Jensen won the first of their back-to-back NCAA doubles titles.

In all, the Courtney Tennis Center has been the site of NCAA action on 13 occasions, including every year from 1994-2002 for either women's or men's play. In addition, it has played host to conference championships on nine occasions (three North Star, six Midwestern Collegiate), as well as an Intercollegiate Tennis Association Summer Circuit event for 10 straight years (1994-2003). During the early days of the program, Notre Dame played host to the Irish Invitational, a fall event, for 11 consecutive years from 1977-87.

The Irish played exclusively at the Courtney Tennis Center during their first 11 varsity seasons, compiling a 79-22 (.782) record. Since the Eck Tennis Pavilion was completed in 1987, it has become the predominant location of Notre Dame's home matches, while the Courtney Tennis Center has become a regular site for late-season matches and NCAA competition, as well as continuing to be an integral practice facility during both the fall and spring. The Irish have been particularly effective at the Courtney Tennis Center since '88, posting a 32-6 (.842) mark.

Notre Dame has put together a number of long winning streaks at home, highlighted by a 31-match win streak from Feb. 27, 2005 to April 6, 2008. The Irish won 25 in a row at the Courtney Tennis Center over a span of more than four years from 1979-83. Notre Dame won 23 straight from 1988-91, and, more recently, put together a 21-match regular-season home winning streak from 1999-2000.

On 33 occasions (in 61 matches), top-25 opponents have come to Notre Dame and left with a defeat. Among the biggest home wins have been seven victories against top-10 foes, including a pair of victories over BYU and DePaul (both ranked No. 9 at the time of the match) in 2006 and a win over No. 7 North Carolina in 2007. In all, the Courtney Tennis Center and Eck Tennis

The Courtney Tennis Center has played host to NCAA Championship action 11 times, including serving as the national site of the 1998 NCAA Championships.

Pavilion have combined to play host to a showdown of top-25 teams 58 times, with Notre Dame prevailing on 30 occasions.

The Irish have been particularly dominant at home against teams not ranked in the national top 25, as Notre Dame holds a remarkable 148-7 (.955) record since the 1988-89 season. That includes a current streak of 45 consecutive wins against non-top-25 foes at home, dating back to 2002.

Since opening in 1967, the Courtney Tennis Center has undergone a variety of improvements. Most recently, 14 of the courts were newly resurfaced during the summer of 2003 and the facility was reoriented in the winter of 2004 as construction began on the neighboring Guglielmino Family Athletics Center. That undertaking saw the construction of a new tournament center tower, while the seating was moved from the west to the east end, which now plays host to varsity matches, making it more convenient for the teams headquartered in the Eck Tennis Pavilion. The reoriented Courtney Tennis Center, which features 14 courts, saw its first varsity action on April 15, 2003, when the Irish nearly pulled off an upset of No. 11 Northwestern before falling 4-3.

The home of Irish tennis for nearly 40 years, the construction of the Courtney Tennis Center was financed entirely by prominent Washington, D.C., attorney Jeremiah Courtney. The numerous courts and brand-new laykold surface make it a popular spot for students and faculty, as well as the varsity tennis teams. Courtney is a 1932 graduate of Columbia University, where he captained the tennis team. His two sons attended Notre Dame and played tennis under legendary coach Tom Fallon.

The first home of Irish tennis was the Notre Dame Fieldhouse, which played host to Irish home matches until the Courtney Tennis Center was built. The structure was razed in 1983. Indoor courts in Notre Dame's Joyce Center also were used sporadically before the Eck Tennis Pavilion's construction.

Eck Tennis Pavilion

Since its completion in June of 1987, Notre Dame's Eck Tennis Pavilion has been an integral part of the success of Irish tennis, allowing the team to practice year-round, regardless of weather conditions, and providing an alternative surface to further develop the all-around skills of Notre Dame's players. Additionally, it has become an extremely difficult for opponents to be victorious and has attracted some of the top events in collegiate tennis.

Playing at both the Eck Tennis Pavilion and Courtney Tennis Center, the Irish have compiled an all-time home record of 272-61 for an impressive .817 winning percentage. Only once has Notre Dame had a losing home record, when it won just one of four matches at the Courtney Tennis Center in 1977, its second varsity season. The Irish have posted undefeated marks at home on eight occasions: 12-0 in 1981; 6-0 in '82; 14-0 in '86; 8-0 in '89; 8-0 in '90; 12-0 in 2000; 16-0 in '06; 11-0 in '07. Notre Dame has posted one-loss seasons at home in six other campaigns. In 21 years of competition in the Eck Tennis Pavilion, Notre Dame has compiled a stellar 164-34 record, for a winning percentage of .828.

The combination of the Eck Tennis Pavilion and Courtney Tennis Center has allowed the University of Notre Dame to be the national site of the NCAA Championships. The NCAA men's tournament came to Notre Dame again in 1994, while the NCAA Division I Women's Tennis Championships were played at the Courtney Tennis Center in 1998. In all, Notre Dame has been the site of NCAA action on 13 occasions, including every year from 1994-2002 for either women's or men's play. In addition, the Eck Tennis Pavilion has three times welcomed the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's Midwest Region Indoor Championships and six times helped play host to the Midwestern Collegiate Conference Championship. After its completion, the facility featured the Eck Classic for 16 consecutive years and also has provided additional courts for the men's Tom Fallon Invitational.

Notre Dame has put together a number of long winning streaks at home, highlighted by the 31-match win streak from Feb. 27, 2005 to April 6, 2008. The Irish won 25 in a row at the Courtney Tennis Center over a span of more than four years from 1979-83. Notre Dame won 23 straight from 1988-91, and, more recently, put together a 21-match regular-season home winning streak from 1999-2000.

The Irish have been particularly dominant at home against teams not ranked in the national top 25, as Notre Dame holds a remarkable 148-7 (.955) record since the 1988-89 season. That includes a current streak of 45 consecutive wins against non-top-25 foes at home, dating back to 2002.

The summer of 2003 saw the Eck Tennis Pavilion newly renovated, as all six courts were resurfaced (changing them from red to green) and the color scheme was changed to blue and gold throughout the building. Among the other highlights were numerous pieces of new wood furniture, as well as additional trophy cases and other accessories. The facility features the offices for both the men's and women's tennis coaches, as well as locker rooms for both teams and a spacious spectator viewing area upstairs that is ideally suited for videotaping.

"It is truly one of the great collegiate indoor tennis facilities in the country," says Irish head coach Jay Louderback.

In Sept. 1988, the Eck Pavilion received the 1988 United States Tennis Association (USTA) Award for architectural design. As a result, the USTA presented the facility with a handsome wooden plaque, a large sign placed in front of the pavilion and a complimentary one-year membership in the USTA. In addition, the facility and its award are recognized in an inscription on a large mahogany board displayed in the lobby of the USTA National Tennis Center in Flushing Meadow, N.Y.

The facility was underwritten by Franklin E. Eck. He is chairman and chief executive officer of Advanced Drainage Systems, Inc., which produces corrugated plastic drainage pipe for agricultural and commercial purposes. A 1944 chemical engineering graduate at Notre Dame, Eck earned an M.B.A. from Harvard University in 1949. In 1984, he endowed a collection in Notre Dame's Hesburgh Library. The generosity of Eck also made Notre Dame's baseball facility, Frank Eck Stadium, and the Eck Visitor's Center possible.

The Eck Tennis Pavilion is the third facility to play host to indoor Irish tennis action. The Notre Dame Fieldhouse, which was razed in 1983, was the first home of Notre Dame's varsity team, and the Irish also sporadically used courts in the Joyce Center.
