Joyce Center

Notre Dame's Joyce Center, the home of Irish volleyball since the establishment of the varsity program in 1980, has become one of the most difficult sites in the nation for road teams to win, especially since the arrival of head coach Debbie Brown in 1991.

Over the last 15 years, Notre Dame has posted a 190-36 home record for an impressive .840 winning percentage, including perfect marks of 17-0 and 12-0 during the 1994 and 2001 campaigns, respectively.

The Irish have pieced together a variety of impressive winning streaks on their home floor. Notre Dame has won 14 or more matches in a row at home on five different occasions, highlighted by a streak of 27 straight home wins from 1993-95 and a program-best 36-match winning streak from 2000-02.

The Joyce Center may not be a favorite venue for league opponents, as Notre Dame won 74 consecutive regular-season conference matches in the Joyce Center from Brown's arrival in 1991 through the 2004 campaign. Upon joining the BIG EAST Conference in 1995, the first 61 league teams to play in the Joyce Center were defeated before Pittsburgh upset the Irish in the 2003 BIG EAST Championship finale.

On 15 occasions, Notre Dame has topped ranked teams in the Joyce Center, including five wins over top-10 opponents. In 1993, the Irish downed national power Nebraska twice at home, first defeating the third-ranked Cornhuskers in four games in the Golden Dome Invitational in September and then winning in three games in the second round of the NCAA Championship when Nebraska was No. 8 in the nation. Other notable wins in the Joyce Center include a four-game triumph over No. 9 USC in the 1995, and a five-game marathon victory vs. No. 10 Pepperdine in the 2002 Golden Dome Invitational. In 2005, the Irish boasted home wins over both No. 11 Texas and No. 6 Louisville.

In 28 seasons of volleyball action, Notre Dame holds a 270-82 (.767) mark in the Joyce Center, which celebrated its 35th year of service to the university in 2003. The facility also serves as a multipurpose sports complex, a theatre and concert hall, a convention center, and an office building.

The first-ever volleyball match played in the north dorm of the facility (also known as "the Fieldhouse") was in 2007, when No. 7 Florida handed the Irish a 3-1 defeat.

The building was renamed in 1987 to honor Rev. Edmund P. Joyce, C.S.C., Notre Dame's executive vice president from 1952 until his retirement in 1987. Formerly known as the Athletic and Convocation Center (ACC), the structure is now referred to as the Joyce Center.

Notre Dame volleyball played its matches in "The Pit," an intimate gymnasium in the basement of the Joyce Center, from 1980-83 until increased attendance served as the impetus for a move to the basketball arena. The Irish played in "the Pit" again in 1986 due to renovation, but other than that, have had their home matches in the south arena since 1984. In 1999, a new Sport Court volleyball-only playing surface debuted in the Joyce Center, completing the facility's evolution into one of the top volleyball venues in the country.

Interest in the Irish volleyball program has steadily increased over the past several of seasons, as crowds of more than 1,000 have taken in Notre Dame matches on 51 occasions since 2000. The six largest gatherings – all over 3,000 fans – came for matches preceding football pep rallies, held in the Joyce Center on Fridays before home games. In 2003, the Notre Dame-Virginia Tech match-up that ended with a thrilling five-game Irish victory was played before a record crowd of 8,643. That season also featured the largest-ever non-pep rally crowd for volleyball, as 2,715 witnessed Notre Dame beat rival Miami in three games in a match televised live by College Sports Television (CSTV). Over 1,500 fans were in attendance when the Irish downed No. 17 Louisville, 3-1, in the 2007 Senior Day match televised by ESPN.

The Notre Dame Sports Information Office welcomes interest in the Notre Dame volleyball program by the media and looks forward to serving members of the media during the 2008 season. We will make every effort to ensure your working experience is enjoyable. The following are some guidelines to help with your coverage of Notre Dame volleyball:

[Media Credentials] Credentials are only issued to accredited members of the working media. Admission will be granted to media members holding a Notre Dame volleyball credential only. Spouses, children and guests are not permitted in the press row area. Work space on press row can be limited and passes will be issued on a first-come, first-served basis. Requests for credentials should be directed to Alan George of the Notre Dame Sports Information Office. Media passes will be left at the Joyce Center volleyball ticket center, located inside Gate 10.

[Photo Credentials] Photo passes will be issued by Alan George to accredited members of the media and those individuals on special assignment. All requests must be made at least 24 hours prior to each game. Photographers are not allowed to shoot from in front of or behind team benches, the scorer's table or press row. Photographers wishing to use strobes must contact Alan George at least 72 hours prior to each game to obtain approval.

[Radio Broadcasts] Visiting radio stations planning to originate from the Joyce Center must contact Alan George at least 72 hours prior to each game in order to obtain approval for the broadcast and proper credentials. Additional broadcast lines should be ordered through University telecommunications coordinator Carolyn Rush at 574.631.2700. Notre Dame Sports Properties provides live audio coverage of each home match through UNDCOM.

[Telephones] A battery of telephones are available on press row for general use by visiting media. Members of the media should indicate their interest in the use of these phones upon submission of their credential requests to Alan George, who will handle their coordination.

Personal phones can be ordered at individual seats by contacting University telecommunications coordinator Carolyn Rush at 574.631.2700. A fax machine, staffed by the Notre Dame Sports Information Office, is available for use by media members as well.

Please coordinate any particular filing needs through Alan George or another member of the Notre Dame Sports Information Office.

[Press Row Services] Programs, media guides and flip cards will be available prior to the start of each game. Box scores will be distributed to the media after each game, with final stats and play-by-play packets available at the end of the match.

[Post-Game Press Conferences] Notre Dame head coach Debbie Brown and players, along with the visiting head coach and players, will be available to the media following a 10-minute "cooling-off" period. Media members should submit player requests for post-game interviews to Alan George within an appropriate time frame.

[In-Season Interview Policy] All requests for Notre Dame player or coach interviews must be made through Alan George at 574.631.3397. Please provide at least 24 hours notice for all interview requests and be aware that the student-athlete's academic obligations will always take precedence. Interviews may also be done in person before or after practice. Since practice times vary, please contact Alan George for an updated schedule. On game days, no interviews will be granted prior to competition.

One great program deserves another.
