NOTRE DAME-WASHINGTON HISTORY

- Notre Dame leads the three-game series with Washington, 2-1.
- The first meeting saw the Irish take a 80-67 decision in the 1995 Kona (Hawaii) Women's Basketball Classic. Beth (Morgan) Cunningham led all scorers with 23 points while Katryna Gaither added 20 for the Irish.
- Notre Dame and Washington split a home-and-home series in 2003 and 2004 with each winning on its respective home floor.
- In the 2003 meeting at Bank of America Arena in Seattle, Jacqueline Batteast led the Irish with 19 points while Megan Duffy scored 17 with nine assists but the Huskies would prevail behind 27 points from Giuliana Mendiola and 24 more from Cameo Hicks.
- Notre Dame defended the Joyce Center in 2004 in a 72-58 win. Crystal Erwin scored a game-high 24 points while Batteast had a double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds. Duffy had 10 assists in the contest.

IRISH DOWN GREEN BAY IN WNIT SEMIFINAL

- Notre Dame extended its Purcell Pavilion winning streak to 33 games and the player who wears number 33 for the Irish, Kathryn Westbeld, helped seal the team's 71-67 victory over feisty Green Bay on Nov. 17 in the Preseason WNIT semifinals.
- A Mehryn Kraker 3-pointer for the Phoenix had cut the Irish lead to just five points at 66-61 and Green Bay got the ball back with just over a minute to play. Westbeld locked down on Phoenix star Jessica Lindstrom at the defensive end and tied up the ball, giving it back to the Irish on the possession arrow with 1:08 to play. Arike Ogunbowale missed a 3-point try on the ensuing Notre Dame possession, but Westbeld grabbed an offensive rebound (Notre Dame's 20th of the night) and dished it to Marina Mabrey. Mabrey was fouled while shooting, sank both free throws with 35 seconds to play, and the Irish went on to claim the tight Pre-season WNIT semifinal matchup.
- Ogunbowale led the Irish with 18 points on the night. Westbeld topped the team with her eight rebounds accompanied by 10 points. Senior point guard Lindsay Allen filled out the box score nicely with eight assists, eight points, five rebounds and three steals while playing all 40 minutes. As usual, reigning Horizon League Player of the Week Lindstrom was the top player for the Phoenix with 20 points and 16 rebounds.
- Freshman guard Jackie Young made her long-awaited Irish debut after missing the first two games with a thumb injury. The 2016 Indiana Miss Basketball and Naismith National Player of the Year checked into the contest during a media timeout with 4:51 to play in the first quarter. Young played 15 minutes on the night, scored three points, grabbed seven rebounds and assisted on a basket.

IRISH START GAME AND SEASON HOT

- Notre Dame hoped to get a fast start to its season on opening night against Central Michigan. Thanks to a fast start to the game, scoring each of the contest's first 15 points, the Irish got the fast start they hoped for, commencing their year with a 107-47 win over the Chippewas on Nov. 11.
- In scoring 107 points, the Irish tied the most points scored in a season opener since beating Liberty 113-35 on Nov. 24, 1989, on a neutral floor in Orlando, Florida. The Irish also scored 107 points on Nov. 26, 2002, opening that season with a 107-65 win over Cleveland State. The 60-point margin of victory also makes it the most lopsided season-opening game since that 78-point win over the Lady Flames in 1989. Notre Dame has enjoyed great historical success in both its home openers and also specifically when opening a season at home.
- The Irish have won now each of their last 22 home openers, dating back to an 87-83 loss to No. 13 Purdue on Nov. 30, 1994.
- The Irish have won each of the last 17 games when its home opener was also its season opener, not losing since an 86-70 defeat to No. 3 Penn State on Nov. 22, 1991.
- Regardless of venue, Notre Dame has not lost a season opener in its last 22 seasons, stretching back to a loss at No. 25 Seton Hall on Nov. 26, 1994.

OH GOODNESS, OGUNBOWALE!

- The first round of the Preseason WNIT proved to be a banner night for sophomore Arike Ogunbowale who obliterated her previous career high of 21 by scoring 30 points in Notre Dame's Nov. 11 win over Central Michigan.
- For her performance against the Chippewas, Ogunbowale was named the ACC's Player of the Week on Nov. 14.
- Ogunbowale hit all five of her 3-point attempts on the night, a feat that had not been seen for the Irish in 26 years. Ogunbowale provided just the third game in Irish lore where a player took at least five 3-pointers and did not miss one.
- Alicia Ratay sank all seven of her 3-point shots at Rutgers on Feb. 19, 2000, while Sheila McMillen went a perfect five-for-five behind the arc against UConn on Dec. 8, 1998.
- Her 12-of-13 from the floor narrowly missed becoming a school record for field goal percentage. Karen Robinson set that mark by going 12-for-12 at St. Louis on Jan. 14, 1989.
- It also marked the first time a Notre Dame player had hit the 30-point mark in a game since Jewell Loyd tallied 31 at Georgia Tech on Feb. 19, 2015.
- Ogunbowale also had two steals, two assists and three rebounds on the night.

JOHNSON MAKES FIRST START

- Junior Mychal Johnson made her first career start on Nov. 11 against Central Michigan and gave the Irish backcourt a nice lift. She scored seven points, matched her career high with four steals, had four assists against no turnovers, and blocked one shot.
- The blocked shot proved to be the final exclamation point of the win and one of the night's highlights for the Irish. With 17.0 seconds to play, she never stopped hustling and extended from the top of the key to swat a 3-point try by Gabrielle Bird out of bounds. The energized Irish bench jumped up and erupted with joy for Johnson's defensive effort, coming on the heels of a tough preseason where she battled hard through several minor injuries.

THE FULL NELSON

- Throughout preseason camp, Muffet McGraw regularly responded when asked that Kristina Nelson was her team's most improved player since last year and she is poised to have a break-out season. Early indicators certainly pointed in that direction after a solid opening two games.
- Her contributions off of the bench were crucial to Notre Dame's 67-36 win over Fordham on Nov. 14. The Irish led by just eight points at 38-26 with 2:39 left in the third quarter. Nelson keyed a 45-second 6-0 spurt for the Irish in which she scored all six points and gathered three rebounds.
- Nelson finished up with nine points against the Rams, just one off of her career high, seven rebounds, and brought McGraw to her feet applauding with 3:35 to go when she took a charge to cause a Fordham turnover.
- In the season-opener against Central Michigan (Nov. 11), Nelson played 20 minutes off of the bench and narrowly missed what could have been her first career double-double with a career-high nine rebounds and eight points, two shy of her career high.
- Nelson also matched her career high against the Chippewas with two steals while blocking out a shot and dishing out a pair of assists.

Notre Dame in the Polls

Date	AP	Coaches
Preseason	1	2
November 14	1	1

IRISH HOLD UNANIMOUS POLE POSITION

- Notre Dame received the No. 1 spot in the preseason Associated Press poll. Notre Dame stood at No. 2 in the preseason coaches poll but leapt up to No. 1 on Nov. 15, surpassing defending national champion Connecticut.
- This marked Notre Dame's first time holding the AP's top spot entering a season.
- The only other time the Irish sat atop the AP poll came during the 2001 season when Notre Dame earned the No. 1 ranking for a total of five weeks - four straight from Jan. 22 to Feb. 12, regaining it on March 5.
- Before this season, Notre Dame's last game as the No. 1-ranked team in the country was a 78-76 loss to No. 2 UConn, in the BIG EAST final on March 6, 2001, at Gampel Pavilion. The Irish, carrying the No. 2 ranking, avenged that defeat to the Huskies by beating them in the NCAA Final Four en route to claiming the national championship two days later with a win over Purdue.
- The Irish have made a habit of standing among the nation's elite in the AP poll. This week, Notre Dame is in the top 10 for the 205th time, surpassing North Carolina's 204 for the 10th-most AP top 10 appearances all-time.
- Notre Dame has been ranked in the top 10 for each of the last 107 polls since a No. 11 ranking on Jan. 17, 2011.

TURNER NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN

- No stranger to postseason accolades, Brianna Turner began her junior year at Notre Dame with a projection to finish the 2017 season among the country's elite as well. Turner was one of five players named on Nov. 3 to the Associated Press' Preseason All-America team.
- Turner is joined on the preseason All-America squad by Nina Davis of Baylor, Kelsey Mitchell of Ohio State, Kelsey Plum of Washington and A'ja Wilson of South Carolina.
- The 2016 ACC Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year, Turner has been named to the postseason All-America teams following each of her first two seasons with the Irish. She averaged 14.6 points per game and 7.3 rebounds per game last season as she helped lead the Irish to a 33-2 record and the program's third consecutive dual ACC regular season and tournament championships. She is the only Division I player to rank in the top 10 in the nation for field goal percentage in each of the last two years. The Pearland, Texas native led the ACC in both field goal percentage (59.3) and blocks per game (3.03) in 2015-16.

ALLEN RETURNS TO LIEBERMAN AWARD WATCH LIST

- Perhaps the top point guard in the nation as she entered her senior year at Notre Dame, Lindsay Allen took the first step towards receiving formal recognition as such by the end of the year as she was one of 20 players named on Oct. 24 to the watch list for the Nancy Lieberman Award.
- In both 2015 and 2016, Allen was a finalist for the accolade, presented annually by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame to the country's best point guard. Allen will have ample opportunity to stake a claim to the honor this winter as she goes head-to-head against five other watch list members during the regular season alone (Connecticut's Kia Nurse, DePaul's Jessica January, Duke's Lexie Brown, Miami's Adrienne Motley and Syracuse's Alexis Peterson). The Irish could also face Washington and Kelsey Plum depending on how the Preseason WNIT's 16-team bracket progresses.
- Allen would become the second Irish recipient of the Award, joining Skylar Diggins who claimed the honor in both 2012 and 2013.

2016-17 Honors

Lindsay Allen, Sr., G

- ▶ Nancy Lieberman Award Watch List
- ▶ Preseason espnW #10 player in the nation
- ▶ Preseason All-ACC (Blue Ribbon & Coaches)

Erin Boley, Fr., F

Arike Ogunbowale, So., G

- ▶ ACC Player of the Week (Nov. 14)

Brianna Turner, Jr., F

- ▶ Preseason AP All-American
- ▶ Preseason espnW #2 player in the nation
- ▶ Preseason All-ACC (Blue Ribbon & Coaches)

Jackie Young, Fr., G

- ▶ ACC Newcomer Watch List (Blue Ribbon & Coaches)

Muffet McGraw

- ▶ Wooden Legends of Coaching Award

- Allen claimed honorable mention All-America honors in 2015-16 after dishing out 5.8 assists per game with a 2.52 assist/turnover ratio. Allen led the ACC in assists for the second straight season and, in 2016, was one of four players in Power Five conferences to rank in the top 20 nationally for both assists and assist/turnover ratio. Allen is second among all active players nationally in career assists (559) and fourth in career assists per game (4.99).
- Allen enters the season with a school-record streak of 112 consecutive starts, having yet to miss one in her three-year Notre Dame career. She has served as a team captain for each of the past two seasons and has helped guide the Irish to 106-6 record over her playing career, including three ACC regular season titles, three ACC Tournament championships and a pair of NCAA Final Four appearances.

McGraw Gets Wooden Legends of Coaching Honor

- Now in her 30th year at Notre Dame and 35th as a collegiate head coach, Muffet McGraw's legacy of success on the court is visible in the plethora of banners hanging above the Purcell Pavilion court. Her legacy of success off the court is plainly visible in the scores of Irish women's basketball alumni who have been successful in their professions and life.
- This dual-success has been recognized by the John R. Wooden Award Committee which on Oct. 11 announced McGraw as its 2017 Legends of Coaching Award recipient.
- The lifetime achievement award is presented to a singular college basketball coach who exemplifies Wooden's high standards of coaching success and personal achievement. The accolade is just the latest national honor for McGraw – the only three-time consensus national coach of the year.

- An enshrine in the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame and a 2016 finalist for induction in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, McGraw is the third woman to receive the Legends of Coaching Award – an accolade which was first bestowed in 1999 upon Dean Smith of North Carolina. Its 18th recipient, McGraw joins Tennessee's Pat Summitt and Stanford's Tara VanDerveer as the lone female honorees.
- The winningest single-sport coach in Notre Dame history with 735 victories for the Irish, McGraw has guided Notre Dame to 23 NCAA Championship appearances, seven Final Fours (including five in a row from 2011-15) and the 2001 national championship. McGraw is one of just five coaches of any gender with 800 career wins, seven Final Fours and five appearances in the NCAA championship game, joining Smith, Duke's Mike Krzyzewski, Summitt and UConn's Geno Auriemma.

NOTRE DAME LOOKS SHARP IN EXHIBITION GAME

- It may have been an exhibition game officially, but the Irish brought regular-season intensity to the Purcell Pavilion floor on Nov. 3, coming away with a 129-50 win over Roberts Wesleyan.
- Although just an exhibition and against a lower-division foe, the 129 points would have broken the school's regular season game high-water mark of 128 points set on Dec. 30, 2011, at Mercer and matched on Dec. 31, 2012, at home against St. Francis (Pa.).
- Most of the major statistical categories were as lopsided as the 79-point margin of victory would imply. The Irish shot 61.5% from the floor (56-of-91) while holding the Redhawks to a 25.0% clip (16-of-64). Notre Dame produced 38 assists (including 10 from Lindsay Allen) against just four turnovers. The Irish had 19 steals (led by four each from Kathryn Westbeld and Marina Mabrey) while having the ball stolen from them just once on the night.
- Six players hit double figures in scoring with three reaching the 20-point plateau in Mabrey (28), Kristina Nelson (24) and Erin Boley (22).
- Freshman Jackie Young recorded a double-double with 15 points and a game-high 10 rebounds.

IRISH WELCOME TWO CLASS OF 2021 SIGNEES

- Notre Dame received two National Letters of Intent from the Class of 2021 on Nov. 9 as forward Danielle Patterson and center Mikayla Vaughn signed on to continue their academic and athletic careers with the Irish.
- Standing at 6-foot-2, Patterson (Brooklyn, New York/The Mary Louis Academy) is the No. 5-ranked small forward in the country, according to espnW/HoopGurlz reporter Dan Olson.
- A five-star recruit, Patterson averaged 22 points, 10 rebounds, two steals and two assists as a junior. She led The Mary Louis Academy to an 18-8 record and an appearance in the Brooklyn/Queens semifinals in 2016. She participated in the U17 Team USA Trials as a junior and was selected to the 2016 New York City Pre-Season Top 10 list prior to this season.
- Throughout high school, Patterson guided two AAU squads to championships, including the Philadelphia Belles to the 15U Boo Williams Championship and the New Jersey Sparks to the 2015 Peach State Championship.

- Vaughn, a four-star recruit, averaged 15 points, 10 rebounds and two blocks per game as a junior at Friends' Central School, before transferring to Paul VI Catholic High School (Fairfax, Virginia) for her senior season. She was named co-captain of the team, guiding it to the league championship in back-to-back seasons.
- Vaughn, 6-foot-3, was named 2016 first-team Class A all-state in Pennsylvania, following the school's run to the PAISSA quarterfinals her junior year. She has thrice received All-Mainline first-team honors.
- Vaughn, like Patterson, was a member of the Philadelphia Belles. She played lacrosse her freshman year and contributed to the team's PAISSA state championship.
- "I am very excited that we addressed our needs for athletic post players," Muffet McGraw said. "Both are great students and high-character people who will fit well with our current players and also with the values of Notre Dame."

CUNNINGHAM AND IVEY TO JOIN RING OF HONOR

- Two of the finest players ever to suit up for the Irish, both of which have gone on to make vast contributions mentoring Irish teams, will formally join the program's all-time legends this season as Beth Cunningham and Niele Ivey will each be enshrined into the Ring of Honor.
- Ivey's presentation will come during the Dec. 4 home game against Valparaiso while Cunningham's date is set for Jan. 29 as the Irish play host to Virginia.
- Ivey's number 33 and Cunningham's number 21 will join the number 00 of Ruth Riley and the number four of Skylar Diggins above the Purcell Pavilion court.
- Beth (Morgan) Cunningham graduated in 1997 as the program's all-time leading scorer at 2,322 points although she has since been narrowly passed by Diggins with her 2,357. Morgan helped the Irish to their first Final Four appearance in 1997 as a two-time honorable mention All-American and a two-time All-BIG EAST selection. That inaugural Notre Dame Final Four appearance was cemented by Morgan scoring a career-high 36 points in the Sweet 16 win over Alabama.
- Ivey is one of three links to all seven Notre Dame Final Four trips, joining McGraw and associate head coach Carol Owens. Ivey co-captained the 2001 national championship team along with Riley and earned All-America accolades that season. Ivey was a finalist for the 2001 Nancy Lieberman Award as the country's best point guard and claimed the 2001 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award for the nation's best player 5-foot-8 or under. Ivey was a three-time All-BIG EAST pick who would go on to play in the WNBA for four years.

WHAT'S NEXT

- Notre Dame has a quick turn-around to travel to the Houston, Texas on Monday afternoon for a Tuesday night contest. The Irish will face Louisiana-Lafayette at the Campbell Center that evening in a Homecoming trip for Brianna Turner.
