IRISH ITEMS FOR GEORGETOWN —

Notre Dame (12-5, 2-2) plays its second of four consecutive home games this evening when it hosts Georgetown (11-6, 2-3). Both squads are playing their second game in just over 48 hours and this is the first regular-season matchup between the two teams. On Saturday, the Irish dropped a 72-65 decision to 12th-ranked Kentucky, while the Hoyas suffered a one-point setback, 68-67, to Pittsburgh at home.

Head coach Mike Brey's squad will be looking to snap a two-game losing streak at the Joyce Center. The Irish, who have played just six home games in 17 contests, have suffered back-to-back home losses to Villanova (74-72) and Kentucky. The last time Notre Dame lost two straight at home was during the 1999-2000 campaign; the Irish have not dropped three consecutive games at the Joyce Center since the 1993-94 season.

Notre Dame has dropped two straight since picking up two three-point road wins at West Virginia (67-64) and Pittsburgh (56-53). Georgetown has lost four of its last six and is 2-3 in away contests and neutral site games.

Georgetown leads the series 7-5, but Notre Dame has won three of the last five meetings. The two teams have split the the last four outings, with each team winning twice on the opponent's home court. The Hoyas have prevailed each of the last two times they have played at the Joyce Center, winning 62-53 (February 10, 1999) and 79-72 (March 4, 2001).

Head Coach Mike Brey has Notre Dame off to its best start since the 1985-86 campaign when that Irish team posted a 14-3 record in its first 17 contests before finishing the season with a 23-6 mark. The Irish's four losses are by a combined 18 points (4.5 points per game).

Notre Dame is outscoring its opponents by an average of 15.1 points per game and have recorded four wins this season of 37 or more points and seven wins of 27-plus points. The Irish are averaging 78.2 points per contest, while limiting their opponents to just 63.1 points per game. In Notre Dame's last four games, Brey's squad has surrendered 61.3 points per contest, while averaging just 59.8 points per game.

The Irish are shooting 46.7 percent from the field, while holding its opponents to a 39.6 percent field goal accuracy. The Irish are shooting 38.8 percent from three-point range, while their opponents have connected on just 32.9 percent of their shots from beyond the arc.

Notre Dame has struggled shooting from the field in their last five games as the Irish are just 114-292 (39.0) and have been under 40.0 percent in four of those games.

Notre Dame is hitting 70.4 percent of its free throw attempts, but the Irish hit just 4-11 and are 6-18 (33.3) in their last two games. Notre Dame, which averages 14.3 made free throws per game and 20.3 attempts per contest, has averaged only three made free throws per game and nine attempts in its last two contests against Syracuse and Kentucky. The Irish converted a season-low two free throws against the Orangemen on just seven attempts (also a season-low).

Four of Notre Dame's five starters are averaging double figures with senior Ryan Humphrey leading the team in both scoring and rebounding as he is averaging 19.9 points and 9.3 rebounds. Humphrey is coming off his second consecutive double double and third in the last five games as he scored 14 points and grabbed 12 rebounds against Kentucky on Saturday. He had his best performance in a BIG EAST contest against Syracuse one week ago as he scored 28 points and grabbed 11 rebounds. Humphrey has scored in double figures in all 15 games he has played and has eight double doubles in those contests. He has netted 20-plus points in seven games this season and heads into this evening's contest with a streak of 16 consecutive games in double figures.

Freshman point guard Chris Thomas stands second in the Irish scoring column at 15.6 points per game and leads the team in assists (6.76 per game) and steals (40). He has dished off six or more assists in 11 games this season.

David Graves is averaging a career-high 14.8 points per game, in addition to 4.9 rebounds per contest, both of which rank third best on the team. In addition, he stands second in both the assists (44) and steals (37) columns.

Matt Carroll is the fourth Irish player averaging in double figures with an 11.9 scoring average, in addition to 4.8 rebounds per game. He is coming off an 18-point performance against Kentucky in which he scored 13 consecutive first-half points for the Irish and 13 of Notre Dame's first 18 points.

Harold Swanagan is averaging 8.0 points and 6.9 rebounds, both career bests.

RECAP OF KENTUCKY GAME —

Notre Dame lost its second straight home game and dropped its eighth straight to Kentucky, despite outshooting and outrebounding the Wildcats. Matt Carroll led four of the five Irish starters in double figures as he finished with 18 points. He scored 13 consecutive points for Notre Dame in the first half and 13 of the team's first 18 points. Ryan Humphrey registered his eighth double double of the season with 14 points and 12 rebounds, while Chris Thomas netted 13 points and David Graves added 12. Thomas also finished with a game-high eight assists in the contest. Notre Dame jumped out to an early four-point lead in the game, only to have Kentucky grab a six-point advantage with 3:27 to play. Notre Dame cut the lead to one with 1:43 remaining, but the Wildcats outscored the Irish 7-2 to end the half. Head Coach Mike Brey's squad cut the halftime lead to two (44-42) with 16:25 remaining, but a 17-

HEAD COACH MIKE BREY —

Mike Brey is in his second year as the Notre Dame head coach and seventh in the collegiate ranks. He was named the 17th head coach in the program's history on July 14, 2000 following five seasons (1995-2000) as head coach at the University of Delaware where he led the Blue Hens to an overall record of 99-52. In his first season with the Irish, he guided Notre Dame to a 20-10 record and 11-5 BIG EAST mark in claiming the league's West divisional championship, the first conference title in school history. In addition, he helped Notre Dame earn an NCAA tournament berth for the first time in 11 seasons as the Irish advanced to the second round for the first time since 1989. Notre Dame's 19 wins during the regular season under Brey a year ago represented the most wins by an Irish coach in his first season. He also became just the second coach in school history to take his team to the NCAA Tournament in his first year as a head coach and the only first-year coach to lead his team to a first-round victory. John Dee also made the tournament in his first season in 1964-65, but lost in the first round to finish 15-12. Brey has an overall record of 131-67 (.662) as a head coach and is 32-15 (.681) at Notre Dame. The 9-1 start by the Irish to begin the season marked the second time one of Brey's teams has begun a campaign by winning nine of its first 10 games. He earned his first victory as Irish head coach on November 18 with a 104-58 triumph over Sacred Heart, which also marked the 100th of his coaching career and came in the 152nd game as a head coach. While at Delaware, Brey guided the Blue Hens to berths in three postseason tournaments. Under Brey, Delaware appeared in two NCAA tournaments ('98 and '99) and played in the National Invitation Tournament in his final season (2000). Prior to his arrival in Newark, Del., he spent eight seasons (1987-95) on the Duke sidelines alongside Blue Devil head coach Mike Krzyzewski, and before that stint was an assistant coach at DeMatha High School under legendary coach Morgan Wootten from 1982-87.

SERIES RECORD VS. GEORGETOWN —

This will be the 13th meeting between the two schools with Georgetown holding a 7-5 advantage in the series. The two teams split their two regular-season games last season with each team winning on the opponent's floor. In fact, the visiting team has been victorious in each of the last four meetings in this series. Notre Dame is 3-6 against the Hoyas since becoming a BIG EAST member, but the Irish have won three of the last five meetings. Georgetown is 3-2 at the Joyce Center, which includes two straight victories in each of its last two visits.

OFF TO A QUICK START —

Notre Dame's 7-0 start was its first since the 1979-80 campaign when the Irish were undefeated in their first seven games to achieve a No. 3 ranking before losing 86-80 on the road against second-ranked Kentucky and then dropping a 67-59 decision to San Francisco. That '79-'80 squad finished the season with a 22-6 mark. Notre Dame was 9-1 for the first time since the 1985-86 campaign.

7-0 START IS THIRD BEST IN SCHOOL HISTORY —

Notre Dame's 7-0 start equaled the third best in school history. The Irish also were 7-0 in 1976-77 and 1979-80. The two best starts by Notre Dame teams were in 1945-46 (13-0) and 1973-74 (12-0). Those Irish squads finished 17-4 and 26-3, respectively.

A PERFECT NOVEMBER —

With its win against Army on November 28, Notre Dame finished the first month of the season with a perfect 6-0 slate. It's the most wins ever by an Irish team in the month of November and the second time in the program's history that Notre Dame has played six games during that month. The Irish played six games in the month of November during both the 1999-2000 and 1998-99 campaigns and finished with 4-2 and 2-4 marks, respectively.

STRANGERS AT THE JOYCE —

It seems hard to believe, but Notre Dame has played just six games at the Joyce Center this season. Tonight's matchup with Georgetown is the second of a four-game homestand for the Irish, which will mark their longest at the Joyce. In addition, four of the Irish's next seven games will be played at home. Notre Dame began the season by playing three of its first six games at home, but went more than a month without a home contest as the Irish only enjoyed one home date throughout the entire month of December (Dec. 30 vs. Colgate) after playing five consecutive road outings beginning on December 1.

LOST TOUCH —

Of late, Notre Dame seems to have lost its shooting touch from both the field and free throw line. In six of its first 10 games this season, the Irish shot better than 50.0 percent from the field. However, in its last seven games, the Irish have not shot better than 50.0 percent of their field goal attempts. In fact, Notre Dame has shot less than 44.0 percent in six of its last seven contests. Against Kentucky, the Irish were 43.3 percent from the field, but in the four games (Villanova, West Virginia, Pittsburgh and Syracuse) prior, they had shot under 40.0 percent in each of those contests. Notre Dame also has struggled from the free throw line recently as it has made just 46 of its last 83 attempts (55.4 percent).

GETTING DEFENSIVE IN THE BIG EAST —

Notre Dame's defense has been outstanding of late as the Irish have held their last three league opponents to just 57.7 points per contest. Notre Dame yielded just 54.5 points in its last two games against Pittsburgh and Syracuse. The 53 points scored by the Panthers in Notre Dame's 56-53 victory at Fitzgerald Field House were the second fewest allowed by the Irish in a BIG EAST game. The fewest points allowed by the Irish in league play was 52 in a 69-52 victory over Syracuse on January 2, 1997 at the Joyce Center.

NOTRE DAME MISFIRES —

Notre Dame has connected on 46.7 percent of its shots from the field this season, but the Irish have struggled of late. In its last five games, Notre Dame has shot less than 40.0 percent from the field in four of those contests, while connecting on just 39.0 percent of their shot attempts (114-292). Only once in the last eight games has Notre Dame shot 50.0 percent from the field (vs. Canisius — 22-44). Below is a breakdown of Notre Dame's last five games, including three-point attempts and free throws.

WINNING BIG —

Notre Dame's margin of victory through the first 16 games of the season has been by an average of 15.1 points per game. Only five wins (UT-Chattanooga, Miami-Ohio, Canisius, West Virginia and Pittsburgh) have been decided by less than 27 points. Notre Dame's victories have included a 42-point victory over New Hampshire, a 40-point win over Hawaii Pacific and 37-point margins against Monmouth and Army. Notre Dame has beaten seven teams by 27-plus points and nine of its 10 victories have been by 10-plus points. Its closest margin of victory was a one-point win (70-69) over Miami-Ohio in Oxford, Ohio on Dec. 8.

THE FRIENDLY CONFINES OF THE JOYCE CENTER —

Notre Dame is 4-2 at the Joyce Center this season with an average margin of victory of 35.0 points per game. Irish teams own an all-time record of 401-120 (.770) at the Joyce Center in 33-plus seasons. Notre Dame is 32-10 (.762) in its last 42 home contests.

DEJA VU —

Notre Dame recorded a three-point win (67-64) at West Virginia as the Irish fought back from a double-digit first-half deficit for the second consecutive year. Against the Mountaineers in Morgantown on February 11, 2001, Coach Mike Brey's squad trailed 39-31 at the half, but outscored West Virginia 38-27 in the second half to earn a 69-66 victory. Notre Dame trailed by 18 at the half on January 9 against the Mountaineers, but nearly doubled its point total in the second half by outscoring the home team 46-28 and holding West Virginia to just 22.7 percent shooting in the second half.

IRISH RECORD BIGGEST COMEBACK IN BIG EAST PLAY —

Notre Dame's win over West Virginia marked a first for the Irish in BIG EAST play as they recorded their biggest comeback in seven-plus seasons as a league member. Coach Mike Brey's squad erased a 15-point halftime deficit and outscored the Mountaineers 46-28 in the second half. Notre Dame's largest halftime deficit ever in a BIG EAST game was against Miami at the Joyce Center on Feb. 29, 1996 as the Irish trailed 41-17 (24 points) at the break in an eventual 71-59 loss. Prior to the West Virginia game, the biggest second-half turnaround by an Irish team in a BIG EAST contest was against Pittsburgh on Jan. 5, 1999 at the Joyce Center. Notre Dame trailed 36-34 at the break in that contest, but outscored the Panthers 53-28 in the second half in the eventual 87-64 victory.

THOMAS COPS THIRD BIG EAST ROOKIE OF THE WEEK HONOR —

Chris Thomas was named the BIG EAST Rookie of the Week for the third time this season last week after leading the Irish to two road wins last week. Thomas shared the honor with Connecticut's Emeka Okafor. He is the only BIG EAST first-year player to earn rookie-of-the-week accolades three times in 2001-02. In leading Notre Dame to road wins at West Virginia and Pittsburgh, Thomas averaged 11.0 points, 6.0 assists and 5.5 rebounds. He is just the second Irish player to earn rookie-of-the-week honors. Former Irish All-American Troy Murphy was an eight-time honoree during his first season in 1998-99.

HUMPHREY STATES HIS CASE —

Ryan Humphrey is clearly enjoying his best season on the basketball court as the Irish tri-captain is averaging team and personal bests of 19.9 points, 9.3 rebounds and 3.20 blocked shots per game. Against Syracuse last week, Humphrey scored 54.9 percent of Notre Dame's 51 points as he finished with 28 points and 11 rebounds. The 28 points marked the first 20-plus point performance for Humphrey in a BIG EAST game and his sixth double double in league play.

COUNTING ON CHRIS —

Chris Thomas has been most productive for the Irish in the second half of five of its last seven games. In those last seven contests, he has scored 70.9 percent of his points in the final 20 minutes. Thomas has tallied 103 points in games against Kentucky, Syracuse, Pittsburgh, West Virginia, Villanova, Colgate and Alabama, but in those games, only 25 have come in the first half. Here's the breakdown of Thomas in the last six contests.

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL —

Notre Dame is averaging 17.88 assists and 12.00 turnovers for a 1.49 assist-to-turnover ratio. Conversely, Irish opponents are averaging 12.88 assists per game and 15.12 turnovers for a 0.85 assist-to-turnover ratio. Notre Dame had fewer than 10 turnovers in 10 games this season and committed just 11 turnovers or fewer in eight of 17 contests. Notre Dame had seven turnovers against Pittsburgh last Saturday evening, matching its season low. The Irish committed just seven turnovers against Miami-Ohio, which included just one in the final 20 minutes of the contest. The seven turnovers were the fewest by an Irish team since a January 29, 1995 contest at the Joyce Center against Boston College when that Notre Dame team had just seven in a 74-68 victory. Including that game and the Miami-Ohio contest, it covered 199 contests. Against Canisius on December 22, Notre Dame had 10 first-half turnovers, but only committed four in the second half to finish the game with 14. In the Alabama game, the Irish turned the ball over 10 times in the first half and only three times in the final 20 minutes of the contest. In its last nine games, the Irish are averaging 15.4 assists per game and just 11.4 turnovers for a 1.35 assist-to-turnover ratio.

WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS —

Notre Dame's Hawaii Pacific Thanksgiving Classic title marked the fourth time the Irish have captured the championship of an in-season tournament and the first in 10 years. Previously Notre Dame won the title of the Sugar Bowl Tournament in 1954, 1955 and 1992.

97 AND COUNTING —

Heading into this evening's contest against Georgetown, Notre Dame has hit at least one three-pointer in 97 straight games, which dates back to the 1998-99 campaign. The last time the Irish did not make a three-pointer was in a 101-70 loss to Connecticut in the Hartford Civic Center as Notre Dame finished 0-7 in the contest from three-point range.

CONFERENCE CALL —

Notre Dame's 13-game non-conference schedule featured teams from 11 different conferences — America East, Big Ten, Conference USA, Ivy League, Metro Atlantic Athletic, Mid-American, Northeast, Pacific West, Patriot League, Southeastern and Southern. The Irish have played teams from two of those conferences twice — the Patriot League (Army and Colgate) and SEC (Alabama and Kentucky). Notre Dame is 10-3 in non-conference play this season.

STEPPING UP TO THE LINE —

As a team, Notre Dame hit 68.8 percent of its free throw attempts during the 2000-01 campaign. This year, the Irish have connected on 70.4 percent from the charity stripe (239-334). Against Miami-Ohio, Notre Dame was 12-of-13 from the line for a season-best 92.3 accuracy.

HOT STUFFERS —

Ryan Humphrey and Harold Swanagan have been very consistent shooting the ball from the field as each has made better than 54.0 percent of their field goal attempts. Humphrey is shooting 54.3 percent from the field (119-219), while Swanagan has connected on 50 of his 88 shot attempts (56.8 percent). Humphrey has shot 80.0 percent from the field in three of the 12 games he has played — he was 12-of-15 from the field against Army and Hawaii-Pacific and eight-of-10 from the field versus Monmouth. Against Tennessee-Chattanooga, he hit eight-of-13 from the field for 61.5 percent.

SECOND HALF DOMINANCE —

In the first half of its last 10 games, Notre Dame has struggled somewhat offensively and has trailed at halftime in eight of those contests. In the second half, however, the Irish have outscored their opponents 411-331. Here's a breakdown of Notre Dame's performance in the second half of its last 10 games.

BOMBS AWAY —

Matt Carroll was six-of-six from three-point range against Tennessee-Chattanooga, matching the school record for three-point field goal percentage. Previously David Rivers and Martin Ingelsby each went five-for-five from three-point range. Carroll is the first Irish player to hit all six of his attempts in a game from downtown.

PICKING UP THE HAWAIIAN HARDWARE —

Ryan Humphrey was named the Most Valuable Player of the Hawaii Pacific Thanksgiving Classic. He averaged 24.0 points and 6.3 rebounds, while shooting 73.7 percent from the field in helping the Irish to three wins and the tournament title. Humphrey registered a career-high 31 points against Hawaii Pacific in his first game of the season. Also earning all-tournament honors for the Irish were David Graves, Matt Carroll and Chris Thomas. Graves averaged 15.0 points per game, including nine three-point goals, and registered his fourth career double double against Tennessee-Chattanooga (13 points, 10 rebounds). Carroll averaged 16.7 points and hit 12 three-pointers, including a six-for-six performance against the Mocs. Carroll set a career-high and became the first Irish player in school history to hit six three-point goals in a game without a miss. Thomas averaged 10.3 points and 8.0 assists, including a career-high 13 assists in the Hawaii Pacific game.

FROM DOWNTOWN —

The Irish are 130-of-335 (.388) from three-point range this season for an average of 7.64 three-point goals per game. The school record for three-pointers in a season is 287, set in 1999-2000, an average of 7.8 per game.

THOMAS IN CONTROL —

Notre Dame's 1.49 assist-to-turnover ratio, can be attributed to the play of freshman point guard Chris Thomas who has already dished off 115 assists (6.76 per game) and has committed just 38 turnovers for a 3.03 assist-to-turnover mark. He is averaging a turnover every 15.97 minutes played. Thomas went two consecutive games (Cornell and Hawaii Pacific) without turning the ball over, while finishing with a total of 19 assists. He dished off a personal best 13 assists against the Sea Warriors, the second 10-plus assist performance of his career after dishing off 11 in his collegiate debut against New Hampshire.

MINUTEMAN —

Heading into this season, Harold Swanagan had averaged just 18.3 minutes per game in the 97 career contests he had played in during his first three seasons. This season, Swanagan is playing an average of 25.9 minutes (a career best) — 7.6 more minutes than the average of his first three campaigns. Against Indiana, he tied his career-high by playing 38 minutes of the contest.

GOING THE DISTANCE —

Chris Thomas played all 40 minutes in three of Notre Dame's four BIG EAST games and in five games overall. He went the distance in his first BIG EAST versus Villanova and also played the entire 40 minutes against Pittsburgh and Syracuse. Thomas also played 40 minutes in back-to-back games against Indiana and Miami-Ohio. He leads the team in minutes played (607) for an average of 35.7 minutes per game. He has played 30-plus minutes in 16 of 17 games this season. Thomas played a season-low 26 minutes against Monmouth on Nov. 25.

GOING THE DISTANCE II —

David Graves ranks third on the team in minutes played (32.8) and played the entire 40 minutes in back-to-back games against Colgate and Alabama. He scored 20-plus points in each of those contests, netting 20 versus the Golden Griffins and 21 against the Crimson Tide. He has played 30-plus minutes in 11 of 17 contests.

DOUBLE THE PLEASURE —

Ryan Humphrey registered his eighth double double of the season and the 28th of his career against Kentucky as he scored 14 points and grabbed 12 rebounds. It was the second consecutive double double for Humphrey who also finished with 28 points and 11 rebounds against Syracuse. He has posted a double double in five of its last eight games and seven of the last 11. Here is his breakdown of double doubles this season: vs. Hawaii-Pacific (31 pts./10 rebs.); vs. DePaul (18 pts./16 rebs.); at Indiana (23 pts./12 rebs.); at Canisius (14 pts./11 rebs.); vs. COLGATE (21 pts./10 rebs.); vs. VILLANOVA (18 pts./10 rebs.); at Syracuse (29 pts., 11 rebs.) and vs. KENTUCKY (14 pts./12 rebs.).

TERRIFIC TORRIAN —

Sophomore Torrian Jones certainly ranks as Notre Dame's most improved player of the year and has proven to be a real spark for the Irish in the lineup. The second-year player currently is averaging 3.2 points and 2.3 rebounds. In outings against Monmouth and Army, he grabbed 16 rebounds in 36 minutes for an average of 2.3 rebounds per minute. In the Monmouth game, Jones tied his career-high (established against Hawaii-Pacific) with seven points and a career-best 10 rebounds. He played 22 minutes versus Miami and had six points and two rebounds in addition to an assist, steal and a block. Jones had the game-winning block on a three-point shot attempt by Miami-Ohio with four seconds to play in the game. In the loss to Villanova, he was a defensive spark off the bench and had six points and three steals in 14 minutes of action. In the win at West Virginia, he played six minutes and had a key basket late in the game.

DOUBLE DOUBLE DOUBLE —

Harold Swanagan registered his second double double of the season and fifth of his career when he had 16 points and 11 rebounds against DePaul. Swanagan's first double-double of the season was against UT-Chattanooga as he had 19 points and 10 boards. David Graves also has a double double to his credit as he had 13 points and 10 rebounds versus UT-Chattanooga.

MOUNTING THE COMEBACK —

The Irish have trailed at the half in eight of their last 10 games. In Notre Dame's first seven games of the season, the combined time the Irish had trailed in those contests was under seven minutes. Heading into its eighth game of the season at Indiana, Coach Mike Brey's squad had never trailed at the half. Here's a look at the recent Irish comebacks:

at Indiana — Notre Dame found itself trailing by 10 at the break after falling behind by as many as 14 in the first half. The Irish never led in the contest, but were able to pull within one with 21 seconds to play before the final one-point outcome.

at Miami-Ohio — Notre Dame briefly held a one-point lead against Miami-Ohio early in the contest, but did fall behind by as many as 13 in the first half. The Irish trailed by six at the intermission and gained the lead, which it never relinquished, with 6:19 left in the contest.

at Canisius — Notre Dame trailed by two at the half against Canisius, but outscored the Golden Griffins 51-38 in the second half.

vs. Alabama — Notre Dame fell behind by 20 in the first half against Alabama and trailed by 18 before beginning the second half with a 22-7 run. The Irish led by one twice in the second half (with 6:23 remaining and with 3:28 left in the contest), but fell short in its comeback attempt.

Villanova — Notre Dame trailed by four at the half against Villanova and then fell behind by as 14 with 8:18 to play. The Irish then used a 22-8 run to take a one-point lead with 45 seconds remaining, before falling two points short in the game.

at West Virginia — Notre Dame mounted one of its biggest comebacks in recent memory against West Virginia as the Irish trailed by as many as 18 in the first half and 15 at the break. The Irish outscored the Mountaineers 46-28 in the second half and held West Virginia to just three field goals in the final 11 minutes of the contest.

MAKING THE EARLY COMPARISONS —

While it is early in his rookie season, Chris Thomas already has a couple of noteworthy accomplishments to his credit. With his 24-point effort against New Hampshire and 22-point performance in the Cornell game, he became the first Irish freshman to score 20-plus points in each of his first two games. He is also just the second Notre Dame player to record two consecutive 20-point outings in the first two games of his career. Only Austin Carr, who finished his career as the school's all-time leading scorer with 2,560 career points, recorded back-to-back 20-point games in the first two games of his career. As a sophomore in his first

TRIPLE THE PLEASURE —

It only took one game for freshman point guard Chris Thomas to do what no other Irish player had done previously in the program's 96-plus year history — a triple double. Thomas scored 24 points, dished off 11 assists and made a school and Joyce Center record 11 steals against New Hampshire. The Irish rookie shot nine-of-18 from the field and five-of-nine from three-point range in 34 minutes of action.

GRAVES IN THE GROOVE —

With classmates Ryan Humphrey and Harold Swanagan not in the game against New Hampshire, tri-captain David Graves had one of the top performances of his career as he tossed in a game-high 26 points (third highest point total of his career), grabbed five rebounds and made a career-high seven steals all in just 27 minutes of action on the court. He hit 10-of-16 shots from the field and was three-of-six from three-point range.

MACURA FINDS HIS MATCH —

Irish head coach Mike Brey made the decision at the start of the preseason to have forward Jere Macura become more of an inside player, which has seemed to benefit the junior's play as he registered back-to-back career-high outings in his first two games. Macura made the most of his two starts in the first two games of the season. Against New Hampshire, he had a then career-high 14 points, while also grabbing six rebounds in 26 minutes of action as he connected on six-of-nine shots from the field in the contest. Macura then followed that up with a career-high 16-point outing against Cornell. In addition, he also grabbed eight rebounds in the contest. Last season, Macura had just one double-figure game (10 points at Rutgers in Piscataway, N.J.) after scoring in double figures five times as a freshman. Currently, he is averaging 4.8 points and 3.4 rebounds and has played in 13 games.

STEALING THE SHOW —

Notre Dame had a school record and Joyce Center record 26 steals against New Hampshire, bettering the old mark of 22 set against Vermont on Dec. 21, 1976. Chris Thomas led the Irish with 11 (a school record), while David Graves had a career-high seven steals which would have tied the old mark set by Ray Martin in 1974. Notre Dame already has 60 more steals than their opponents (148-88).

JORDAN GETS INTO THE ACT —

While freshman Chris Thomas certainly made his mark in his first even games, Notre Dame's other rookie, Jordan Cornette, also has played well. The 6-9 forward logged 29 minutes against New Hampshire in the season opener and had eight points, six rebounds and three assists. His playing time increased when Harold Swanagan went out of the game with a knee injury, which left the Irish with just two frontline players — Macura and Cornette. Against Cornell, he started in place of Swanagan and played 29 minutes while scoring three points and grabbing six rebounds. Cornette has played in 15 contests (did not see action in the Indiana and Syracuse contests) and is averaging 13.7 minutes per game. He scored six points and grabbed two rebounds in the loss to Alabama as he played 17 minutes, logging 12 in the second half. He started in place of Swanagan in contests against Colgate and Villanova. In his first BIG EAST contest, he played 25 minutes.

TIMMERMANS STANDS TALL —

After missing the first nine games of the season with a sprained right knee, sophomore Tom Timmermans got some important playing against Colgate when he logged a personal best 18 minutes and finished with career-highs of six points and four rebounds. His playing time prior to that game was one minute in Notre Dame's 79-76 loss to Alabama in New Orleans at the Nokia Sugar Bowl Basketball Classic.

WING-ING IT —

The perimeter play of outside shooters David Graves and Matt Carroll give the Irish a deadly three-point shooting arsenal. The duo made 127 (57.9 percent) of Notre Dame's 219 three-point field goals in 2000-01 and attempted 323 of team's 570 shots from beyond the arc. Carroll shot 40.9 percent from three-point range, while Graves made 37.8 percent of his attempts. Graves has made 45 of his 106 attempts this season (42.5 percent), while Carroll is 33-of-89 (37.1 percent). Add freshman Chris Thomas to the mix because the Irish rookie is shooting 40.4 percent from behind the arc (42-104). Of the 130 three-pointers the Irish have made this season, the three have combined for 120 of those from beyond the arc (92.3 percent).

IRONMEN —

David Graves has played in all 114 games of his Irish career, while Harold Swanagan has missed just one game. Prior to the Colgate contest, Swanagan had played in 108 consecutive contests. Graves and Swanagan played in all 30 games during their freshman and junior seasons and saw action in all 37 in their sophomore season. Graves has earned 98 starting appearances during his three seasons, while Swanagan has made 65 starts.

BLOCK PARTY —

Notre Dame set the single-season team record for blocked shots last season with 178 in 30 games for an average of 5.93 blocks per game. The previous mark of 145 was set by the 1991-92 Irish team. Notre Dame had 110 blocks during the 1999-2000 campaign. Ryan Humphrey led the Irish with 79 blocks, the second-highest individual single-season mark in school history and ranked 18th in the nationally with 2.7 blocks per game. Humphrey has 48 blocks for an average of 3.2 blocks per game this season. As a team, Notre Dame has blocked 92 shots (5.41 per game).

THE DEFENSE NEVER RESTS —

Notre Dame ranked 10th nationally in field goal percentage defense last season as Irish opponents shot just 39.3 percent from the field and 31.4 percent from three-point range. Only one opponent, Indiana, shot above 50.0 percent from the field against the Irish. Notre Dame's field goal percentage defense has been impressive again this season as the Irish have held eight of their 17 opponents to under 37 percent shooting from the field. Notre Dame has held four opponents to under 32 percent — New Hampshire (31.5), Monmouth (31.7), Army (29.5) and DePaul (29.6). Alabama shot 50.8 percent from the field, marking the first time in 36 contests that an Irish opponent has shot better than 50.0 percent from the field. Villanova became the second team in 38 games above 50.0 percent from the field as the Wildcats connected on 56.0 percent.

DEFENSE, DEFENSE —

Notre Dame's defense has limited its opponents to just 63.1 points per game with only seven opponents — Tennessee-Chattanooga, Indiana, Miami-Ohio, Canisius and Alabama — scoring more than 61 points. The Irish are outscoring their opponents by 15.1 points per game. The Irish played their first two games of the 2001-02 campaign at home and came away with convincing victories over New Hampshire (95-53) and Cornell (78-48). The 103-point opponent total in the two games is the lowest by an Irish team to start the season since the 1985-96 campaign when Notre Dame allowed 105 points in wins over St. Joseph's of Indiana (79-49) and Butler (87-56).

BROTHERLY LOVE —

Junior Matt Carroll and freshman Jordan Cornette both have brothers who are playing their collegiate ball at Division I schools. Matt's brother Pat is a freshman at St. Joseph's, while Jordan's brother Joel is a junior member on the Butler team.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION —

Notre Dame once again will receive tremendous exposure with seven nationally-televised games on CBS, ABC and ESPN. Four of those appearances will be at home at the Joyce Center. Last season, Notre Dame was featured nine times on national telecasts during the regular season, the most since the 1988-89 campaign.

Notre Dame will play twice on CBS (both at home against Kentucky and Providence), once on ABC (vs. Syracuse) and four times on ESPN (at Indiana, at Syracuse, home versus Georgetown and at Rutgers).

Last Sunday's fourth home game of the season, which marked Notre Dame's first return to the Joyce Center in more than a month, produced the second sellout.

FIRST SEMESTER SUCCESS IN THE CLASSROOM —

Notre Dame enjoyed tremendous success in the classroom this semester as the Irish combined for a 3.002 grade point average during the 2001 fall semester. Seven of the 13 players earned a 3.00 or higher. Harold Swanagan registered the highest grade index of any player on the team. In addition to Swanagan, the other six players above a 3.00 were: Matt Carroll, Jordan Cornette, Torrian Jones, Dan Miller, Charles Thomas and Chris Thomas.
