2019 BGSU FOOTBALL

SETTING THE SCENE

- Bowling Green concludes its non-conference schedule with a nationally-televised contest at Notre Dame this Saturday (Oct. 5). The game will kickoff from Notre Dame Stadium at 3:30 p.m., and will air live on NBC. Notre Dame is ranked No. 9 in the AP Top 25 and No. 10 in the Coaches Poll.
- Bowling Green will enter Saturday's game off a 14-day bye. The bye was the longest in-season break for the Falcons since 2013.
- Saturday will mark the first-ever football game between Bowling Green and Notre Dame.
- The Falcons will be taking on a top-10 team for the first time since facing Ohio State in the 2016 season opener. Ohio State was ranked No. 6 in the AP preseason poll for 2016.
- For the second-straight season, BGSU will be taking on a major university in its fifth game of the season. In 2018, the Falcons traveled to Georgia Tech for their fifth game of the campaign.

AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS

- BGSU last played a top 10 ranked team in 2016. The Falcons opened that campaign against No. 6 Ohio State.
- Bowling Green's last contest against a ranked opponent came in last year's season opener when the Falcons traveled to Eugene to face No. 24 Oregon. BGSU led that game 10-0 before falling 58-24.
- Bowling Green's last win over a ranked opponent came in the 2013 MAC Championship game when the Falcons faced No. 14 undefeated Northern Illinois and beat the Jordan Lynch-led Huskies 47-27.
- The Falcons have scored the first points in games against ranked opponents in three consecutive meetings, and in four of the past five contests against ranked foes.
- BGSU has a storied history of wins over ranked opponents. Amongst other wins over ranked opponents, the Falcons have recent victories over No. 25 Pittsburgh in 2008, No.

ENTER SCOT LOEFFLER

- BGSU Director of Athletics Bob Moosbrugger named veteran coordinator Scot Loeffler as the 20th head coach in Bowling Green history on Nov. 28, 2018.
- Loeffler became the program's second consecutive first-time head coach. Prior to Mike Jinks, the program had not named a first-time head coach to the position since Gregg Brandon was promoted from offensive coordinator in 2003. Brandon was BGSU's fourth consecutive first-time head coach, following in the footsteps of Urban Meyer, Gary Blackney and Moe Ankney.
- While Loeffler's experience in the lead chair is limited, he is a veteran coach who has served as the offensive coordinator at Boston College, Virginia Tech, Auburn and Temple. He has also coached at Florida, his alma mater Michigan, and Central Michigan -- as well as the Detroit Lions.
- Loeffler has coached seven quarterbacks who went on to play in the NFL, including Tom Brady and Tim Tebow. His team's have qualified for 17 bowl games, including coaching for Michigan's 1997 Rose Bowl team that won the national championship.

THE COACHING STAFF

- Scot Loeffler's first task upon being hired in late November was to assemble the most experienced coaching staff he could. He did not disappoint.
- Bowling Green's coaching staff has mentored more than 150 players who went on to play in the NFL and the staff has competed for both national championships and Super Bowl rings.
- Athlon Sports' Mark Ross named Terry Malone as the Top Coordinator Hire for the MAC during the offseason. Malone has 36 years of coaching experience, including nine years in the NFL and 14 years with Power Five conference schools. He was a member of staffs that won the 1997 National Championship (Michigan), the 2009 Super Bowl (New Orleans), two MAC Championships (Bowling Green) and five Big Ten titles (Michigan).
- Defensive Coordinator Brian VanGorder is a former winner of the Broyles Award, given to the top assistant coach in the country. A veteran of more than 30 years in coaching, VanGorder has been the DC at Louisville, Notre Dame, Auburn, Georgia, Western Carolina, Central Michigan

- and his alma mater Grand Valley State.
- Associate Head Coach Steve Morrison has held full-time coaching positions at Syracuse, Eastern Michigan and Western Michigan. He holds Michigan's single-game record with 23 tackles and went on to play in the NFL with the Indianapolis Colts.
- The remainder of the new coaching staff is a mix of veterans (Erik Campbell and Chris Hedden) and young, pedigree-rich individuals (Max Warner, Louie Addazio, Julian Campenni).
- Loeffler retained two coaches from the previous staff in Jacob Schoonover and LaMarcus Hicks.

RUSHING ATTACK SURPASSES 100-YARD MARK AGAIN

- Last time out at Kent State, the Falcons gained 154 yards rushing, marking the third time in four games the Orange and Brown have surpassed the century mark for rushing.
- Andrew Clair led the team, racking up 61 yards on the ground over 14 carries while also finding the end zone for one of the three BGSU touchdowns.
- Davon Jones and Bryson Denley both chipped in on the ground gaining 34 and 33 yards, respectively. Jones saw six carries while Denley received seven.
- Bowling Green ran for 119 yards versus Louisiana Tech, while rushing for a season-high 326 yards in a win over Morgan State.

LOEFFLER ERA STARTS WITH A BANG

- Bowling Green opened the Scot Loeffler era on Aug. 29 with a 46-3 victory over the Morgan State Bears. Loeffler is the first BGSU coach to win his first game since Dave Clawson in 2009.
- The 43-point win marked the third-largest margin of victory for a BGSU head coach in his debut game, topping Doyt Perry's 40-0 win over Defiance to open the 1955 campaign. Gregg Brandon picked up a 63-13 win over Eastern Kentucky in 2003, while Don Nehlen defeated Ball State by a score of 62-8 in the 1968 opener.
- With Bowling Green's win, BGSU coaches moved to 10-1 all-time in their first games inside Doyt L. Perry Stadium.

SEVEN IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

- When Scot Loeffler took the field to lead Bowling Green against Morgan State, he became the seventh individual to coach a game for the Falcons since the 2013 MAC Championship game on Dec. 6, 2013. Three held interim titles in that time frame.
- Nationally, BGSU is the only program to have seven different individuals coach a game since 2013. Only Houston has seen six different people coach a game in that span of time.
- In the 2013 MAC Championship game, current Wake Forest head coach Dave Clawson concluded a five-year career with the Falcons, leading the program to a 47-27 victory over undefeated No. 14 Northern Illinois.
- Special teams coordinator Adam Scheier (now a senior special teams consultant at Mississippi State) took over on an interim basis for the 2013 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl, a 30-27 loss to Pittsburgh that served as James Conner's coming out party.
- Dino Babers was named head coach of the Falcons beginning in the 2014 season and he went 18-9 in two seasons, coaching his final game at BGSU in the 2015 MAC Championship game, a 34-14 win over Northern Illinois. He is currently the head coach at Syracuse.
- Defensive coordinator Brian Ward, now the DC at Syracuse, was named interim head coach for the 2015 GoDaddy Bowl, a 58-27 loss to Georgia Southern.
- Mike Jinks, currently the running backs coach at USC, was then hired to lead the Falcons beginning with the 2016 season.

- Jinks was fired following a 1-6 start to the 2018 season and Carl Pelini, now the associate head coach at Youngstown State, closed the campaign with a 2-3 mark.
- Enter Scot Loeffler. The former Michigan quarterback and veteran coordinator became the seventh individual to coach the Falcons in a span of 2,092 days.

NOTRE DAME/BGSU COACHING CONNECTIONS

- Back in 2001, Bowling Green tabbed a little-known wide receiver coach from Notre Dame as its new head coach. Urban Meyer went on to post a 17-6 record in two seasons in his first head coaching job -- and the rest is history.
- Bowling Green Defensive Coordinator Brian VanGorder held the same job at Notre Dame from 2014-16.
- Texas A&M Defensive Coordinator Mike Elko held the same role at both Bowling Green and Notre Dame. Elko was the DC under Dave Clawson at BGSU from 2009-13. He then coached one season, 2017, as the DC at Notre Dame before moving on to his current position.
- Sticking with the theme of Defensive Coordinators, current Notre Dame DC Clark Lea was a Linebackers Coach at BGSU under Clawson (in Elko's defense) in 2012.
- David "Chief" Kekuewa is a graduate assistant for the defense at Notre Dame. He played two seasons on the offensive line for the Falcons from 2012-13, earning first team All-MAC honors as a senior in leading Bowling Green to a MAC Championship.

EARLY SEASON COACHING NUGGETS

- With Bowling Green's win over Morgan State, BGSU coaches are now 10-1 all-time in their first games in Doyt L. Perry Stadium. This record includes Bob Gibson, who began his second season at BGSU when Doyt L. Perry Stadium opened in 1966.
- Loeffler was the fourth head coach in the last five to debut on a weeknight. Gregg Brandon opened his career with a 63-13 win over Eastern Kentucky on Thursday, Aug. 28, 2003. Dave Clawson defeated Troy 31-14 on Thursday, Sept. 3, 2009. Dino Babers' team hit the road to play on Friday, Aug. 29, 2014 in a 59-31 loss to Western Kentucky.
- Five of the last seven head coaches at BGSU have begun their careers with at least two straight home victories. Dino Babers is the last to do it as his 2014 squad defeated VMI (48-7), Indiana (45-42) and Buffalo (36-35) in succession to open his tenure.

THE FUTURE MINI GOLF PRO

- Running Backs Coach Chris Hedden has a successful track record in football, but maybe he will head to the mini golf senior tour in the distant future.
- Hedden won the third annual BGSU Athletic Department Mini Golf Tournament during the summer of 2019, posting the winning score at Pery Falls Mini Golf Course.
- Hedden stunned defending champion and BGSU men's golf coach John Powers to win the title over approximately 80 other BGSU Athletic Department staffers.

THE CAPTAINS

- By vote of their peers, seniors Jack Kramer and David Konowalski have been named the team captains for the 2019 season.
- Kramer is the starting center for the Falcons and has played in 35 games in his career, starting all 12 a year ago.
- Konowalski started all 24 games during the 2016 and 2017 seasons before an achilles injury kept him out of the 2018 campaign. He has returned for a sixth-year of eligibility this year.

TNT

- Head coach Scot Loeffler believes explosive plays (running plays of at least 12 yards or passing plays of at least 16 yards) are one of the key components to winning football.
- So far in 2019, Loeffler has proven to be accurate as the team that has posted the most explosive games has won each game.
- Bowling Green had 22 explosive plays (11 running and 11 passing), while holding Morgan State to just one explosive play in the season-opening victory.

A RETURN TO DEFENSE

- In 2013, BGSU's defense ranked fifth nationally in points allowed and 10th in yards allowed. Since that time, the Falcons have ranked no higher than 84th in scoring defense and 86th in total defense. But Brian VanGorder appears to have the defense trending back towards the elite.
- In week one, BGSU arguably posted its best statistical performance since 1956.
- Morgan State recorded just four first downs, one shy of BGSU's school record of three first downs allowed in a victory over Defiance in 1956. The Bears' two rushing first downs were

- also one shy of the Falcons' school record.
- BGSU also allowed just 24 passing yards and 70 total yards. Both totals are the fewest by a Falcon defense since holding Eastern Michigan to four yards passing and 65 total yards in a 58-7 win during the 2013 season.
- In the game against Louisiana Tech, BGSU recorded five sacks – its most since 2016 – while also creating two turnovers. David Konowalski recovered a fumble, while Brandon Perce made an incredible individual effort on an interception.
- BGSU ranks third in the MAC with 12 sacks, but is first in the league in sacks per game at 3.00.

KONO RETURNS TO MAKE AN IMPACT

- The spiritual and emotional leader for the Falcons, David Konowalski has returned for his sixth season in the Orange and Brown.
- Konowalski redshirted as a true freshman in 2014 and then played for the Falcons from 2015-17. Set to be one of the leaders on the defensive line, he tore his achilles in the team's first fall scrimmage of the 2018 season.
- Konowalski started all 24 games for the Falcons in 2016 and 2017 and has racked up 112 career tackles, including 12.5 for loss and 6.0 sacks.
- Konowalski was part of the most memorable moment of the past three years. With BGSU leading Miami 30-29 in 2017, the RedHawks sat just one yard from scoring the winning touchdown. On a botched snap, Konowalski crawled and fought his way into the backfield, batting the loose ball away from a Miami player and into the hands of teammate Brandon Harris, who returned it 93 yards for the clinching touchdown.
- In the contest against Louisiana Tech, Konowalski continued his emphatic return to the field with his first sack of the season, first fumble recovery, and six tackles. Konowalski now owns eight career sacks and four fumble recoveries.

THREE-HEADED MONSTER AT RB

- Head coach Scot Loeffler has not hidden the fact that BGSU's running back unit may be the most talented on the team.
- Bowling Green ranks fifth in the MAC at 165.0 rushing yards per contest.
- Davon Jones leads the running back group in total rushing yards (205) and average per carry (4.8).

- Quarterbacks Darius Wade and Grant Loy have also been efficient running the ball. The pair of signal callers are averaging 3.2 and 6.8 yards per carry, respectively. Loy has run the ball 12 times for 84 yards and a touchdown.
- Clair is averaging 4.1 yards per carry, having registered 158 yards on 39 touches. Bryson Denley has added 97 rushing yards on 27 attempts.

FIRST-TIME FALCONS

- The Falcons had 20 first-time players appear in Bowling Green's 46-3 win over Morgan State to start the season. Furthermore, BGSU had eight first-time starters – four on each side of the ball.
- On defense, linebackers Brandon Perce, Jerry Roberts and Evan Brown, along with defensive back JaJuan Hudson, made the first starts of their BGSU careers. Making their first starts on offense for the Orange and Brown were quarterback Darius Wade, receiver Julian Ortega-Jones, tight end Austin Dorris and lineman Sam Neverov.
- In game two, Rodell Rahmaan earned his first start in the Orange and Brown, playing at wide receiver. He had the team's longest reception of the day, a 34-yarder. In game three, it was defense back Melvin Jackson that earned the first start of his career. Jackson had four tackles and recorded his second sack of the season.
- Bowling Green has 35 true freshmen and 10 redshirt freshmen on the 2019 roster. With just over 43 percent of the roster maintaining freshman eligibility, BGSU is the 28th youngest team in the country.
- BGSU's 35 true freshmen are 19th-most in the nation. Navy leads the way with 57, followed by Nebraska with 47. Among Mid-American Conference schools, Bowling Green is second, just behind Akron with 36.

THE SPOTLIGHT ON THE TIGHT ENDS

- The tight end position plays a massive role in head coach Scot Loeffler's offensive scheme. The production and impact that BGSU's tight ends have made so far in 2019 was reminiscent of Dave Clawson's (2009-13) offense that heavily featured the likes of Alex Bayer and Tyler Beck.
- Of BGSU's 77 receptions so far in 2019, 27 have been caught by tight ends. Four different tight ends have caught a pass in just two games and the Falcons' leading receiver, Quintin Morris, plays the position.
- In the Falcons' 43-point win over Morgan State on Aug. 29, Bowling Green's tight ends combined for nine catches for 105 yards and three touchdowns.
- Junior Quintin Morris led the charge with five catches for 65 yards and two touchdowns. His two touchdowns tied a career high. True freshman Christian Sims caught two passes, including an 18-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter. Indiana graduate transfer Austin Dorris added two catches for 13 yards.
- Additionally, true freshman Joey Carroll and redshirt junior Presley Motes saw action for the Orange and Brown. Three of BGSU's five tight ends used in the game had not played for the Falcons prior to the contest, while Motes appeared in just one game in 2018. Morris, the player on the unit with most experience wearing the Orange and Brown, was playing in his first contest as a tight end.
- Morris had six catches for 90 yards in Bowling Green's game versus Louisiana Tech. Morris leads all BGSU pass catchers in receptions (16), yards (218), touchdowns (2), yards per game (54.5) and longest catch (59).

PROVIDING CLAIR-ITY

- Junior Andrew Clair has proven to be one of the most dangerous multi-purpose backs in the country and is climbing the charts in the BGSU record book.
- Clair sits 20th all-time in career rushing yards with 1,585 career rushing yards. His seven career 100-yard rushing games ranks 12th in program history.
- Against Oregon in the 2018 season opener, Clair carried for 113 yards. He has a 100-yard rushing game against every MAC East Division school except for Buffalo.
- Clair averaged 6.8 yards per carry as a freshman to break a school record that stood since 1951, when Fred Durig averaged 6.7 yards per touch. Willie Geter tied Durig's mark in 2008.
- According to Pro Football Focus, Clair averaged 4.5 yards after contact in 2017, the fifth-best average in the country among returning running backs.
- The St. Louis native finished the 2017 season with a team-best 1,184 all-purpose yards, ranking fifth in the country among true freshmen with 107.6 all-purpose yards per game.
- Clair followed up his rookie season with an equally productive 2018 campaign, rushing for 702 yards and adding 19 catches for 102 more yards.
- Pro Football Focus ranked Clair as the most explosive running back in the MAC with a 47.4 percent breakout percentage, highest among all ball carriers with at least 115 rushes.

bye week.

- BGSU and Eastern Michigan are the only Mid-American Conference schools with that favorable schedule. Georgia Tech, Tulsa, Charlotte, Florida Atlantic, Old Dominion, BYU and New Mexico State are the other seven.

- Notre Dame plays an NCAA-high seven teams (including Bowling Green) coming off of bye weeks. No other school in the country plays more than five such games.

SACKING THE COMPETITION (AND NOT ALLOWING SACKS)

- In recent years, BGSU has struggled to create pressure on opposing quarterbacks but the Falcons already have 12 sacks in 2019.

- The Falcons recorded just 15 sacks through the entirety of the 2018 season and, heading into their game at Kent State, had not posted 11 sacks through the first three games of a season in more than two decades.

- Just as impressively, BGSU has allowed just two sacks in 2019 after allowing 29 a year ago and 10 through the first three games of the 2018 season.

- In fact, BGSU has not allowed two sacks or fewer through the first two games of a season since the 2004 squad gave up just two sacks through three games.

- BGSU has given up only four sacks, which is the top mark in the conference. The Falcons rank fifth in the league with 12 sacks on the defensive side of the ball.

ICE THAT LEG

- Matt Naranjo punted nine times against Kansas State, averaging 44.0 yards per punt and tying his career-long with a 72-yarder.

- Naranjo's day included a pair of 50-yarders, two punts that were fair caught, just one touchback, and a net punting average of 40.9 yards.

- The 396 yards punting was the most since All-American Joseph Davidson had 407 yards on nine punts against Northwestern in 2017.

- Naranjo had three more punts down inside the 20 at Kent State, running his total to 10 on the season.

- Against Louisiana Tech, Naranjo punted eight times for 319 yards. He had an average of 39.9 yards per punt, but four of his kicks buried Louisiana Tech inside the 20 yard line, and he had a long of 55 yards.

- Since taking over punting duties midway through the 2018 season, Naranjo has a career average of 40.8 yards per punt, which has ranked eighth all-time at BGSU.

100 YEARS OF BG FOOTBALL

- BGSU Football will be celebrating the 100th anniversary of the first game in the program's history all year long. Although this is the 101st season of Bowling Green Football, the program officially began on Oct. 3, 1919 in a home game against Toledo.

- Bowling Green's first victory came in a 7-0 win at Kent State on Nov. 6, 1920 and the Falcons have rarely looked back.

- BGSU has won 17 conference titles (12 in the Mid-American Conference) and played in 13 bowl games.

- Through 100+ seasons, Bowling Green is 543-394-52 (.577)all-time, including 284-185-11 (.604) in MAC play. The Falcons have a winning record all-time against every current MAC school except for Miami and Toledo (though BGSU has the opportunity to even the all-time series against Toledo this year).

WOMEN RULE THE WORLD

- The Bowling Green football program has a pair of women in critical positions within the football program, a rarity at the FBS level.

- Liv Passey is just the second female Director of Football Operations in Mid-American Conference history. A graduate of Boston College, she is in her first year working with the program.

- Dani Coppes is one of just 11 females who serves as the primary care provide (sports medicine) for an FBS football program. After getting her undergraduate degree at Ohio State, she earned her master's degree at Bowling Green and is beginning her third year working with the BGSU Football team.

- BGSU is one of only two schools in the country to have females in both of these positions, along with Kansas State.

TRENDING TOWARDS SUCCESS

- College football expert Phil Steele tracks the success of teams that lost at least 34 games to injury the previous season. Of teams that had to manage injury-plagued campaigns since 2006, 68 percent have equaled or exceeded their record the next year.

- Bowling Green lost 36 starts to injury in 2018, tied for the 11th most in the country. Virginia Tech lost the most games to injury, 63, while Boston College lost the fewest -- three.

GRADUATING CHAMPIONS

- Five active players have already earned their undergraduate degrees – Austin Dorris, Jack Kramer, Nico Lautanen, Davon Jones, and Darius Wade.

- Jack Kramer and Nico Lautanen were true freshmen on the 2015 MAC Championship team.

- Austin Dorris earned his undergraduate degree from Indiana, while Davon Jones and Darius Wade are both graduates of Boston College.

2019 BGSU FOOTBALL

SCOT LOEFFLER

Scot Loeffler was named the 20th head coach of the Bowling Green football program in Dec. of 2018. He came to BGSU after serving as Deputy Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator at Boston College.

Loeffler's coaching career, which spans back to his time as a student assistant at Michigan during the 1996 season, includes stops at Michigan, Central Michigan, Florida, Temple, Auburn, Virginia Tech and Boston College. He also spent a year coaching quarterbacks for the Detroit Lions.

Loeffler has coached seven quarterbacks who went on to play in the NFL – Tom Brady, Tim Tebow, Brian Griese, Chad Henne, Drew Henson, John Navarre and Logan Thomas. He has also directed a potent rushing attack at Boston College behind AJ Dillon, who ranked 13th nationally in rushing yards per game in 2018. Dillon was the ACC Rookie of the Year in 2017 and the nation's second-leading rusher among freshmen.

In 2018, Boston College scored 40+ points in four of its first five games, including an average of 52.7 points in consecutive wins over Massachusetts, Holy Cross and Wake Forest. The Eagles then defeated Temple 45-35 and Louisville 38-20. The team ended the regular season at 7-5 overall.

Including the 2018 season, Loeffler's teams will have played in 15 bowl games in the past 16 seasons he has been a college coach.

In 2017, Loeffler's offense posted 35+ points in three consecutive games for the first time in 15 years at Boston College. The team scored 40+ points in consecutive conference games for the first time in the program's Big East and ACC history. The rushing offense climbed from 96th to 25th in the country and the Eagles were one of the faster teams in the nation, ranking 18th nationally in total plays.

In 2016, his first year on staff at Boston College, the Eagles won a bowl game for the first time in nine years.

Prior to his tenure at Boston College, Loeffler served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Frank Beamer at Virginia Tech from 2013-15. He mentored Logan Thomas, who finished his collegiate career by breaking career records for passing yards, attempts, touchdown passes and rushing touchdowns by a quarterback. He oversaw a trio of wide receivers who became the first group in Virginia Tech history to each record 40 or more receptions in a season.

As the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Auburn in 2012, Loeffler mentored Tre Mason, a 1000-yard rusher who became the first non-quarterback to lead Auburn in total offense since Bo Jackson in 1985.

Loeffler guided Temple to the seventh-best rushing average in the nation as offensive coordinator in 2011 and running back Bernard Pierce ranked sixth nationally, including 107 yards on the ground in Doyt L. Perry Stadium in a 13-10 BGSU victory. That team went on to win the program's first bowl game since 1979.

Prior to his time at Temple, he was quarterbacks coach at Florida under former BGSU head coach Urban Meyer, helping the unit to the best pass efficiency in the nation in 2009. He guided Tebow in his final season in Gainesville as he passed for 2,895 yards and 21 touchdowns. Tebow graduated from Florida with five NCAA, 14 SEC and 28 school record.

In 2008, Loeffler worked with the Detroit Lions' quarterbacks, following his tenure at Michigan. From 2002-07, he coached quarterbacks for the Wolverines. Chad Henne became the first true freshman quarterback to lead his team to a Big Ten title and start in a BCS game, while John Navarre became Michigan's first All-Big Ten first team quarterback since 1997.

Along with his time at Temple, Loeffler has familiarity in the Mid-American Conference as he was Central Michigan's quarterbacks coach from 2000-01. Prior to that, he was a graduate assistant and student assistant at Michigan, working with Brady and Griese. He was part of the Wolverines' undefeated national championship season in 1997.

A native of Barberton, Ohio and Barberton High School, Loeffler played quarterback at Michigan from 1993-96. A 1998 graduate of Michigan, Loeffler earned his undergraduate degree in history with a minor in political science.

Loeffler is married to Amie, who holds an undergraduate degree in chemistry from Bowling Green in 1999 and a graduate degree in chemistry in 2005. The couple has three children – Luke, Alexis and Mary Elizabeth.
