SETTING THE STAGE

- No. 21 Navy and No. 16 Notre Dame will meet on the gridiron for the 93rd straight year when they square off on Saturday afternoon at Notre Dame Stadium (77,622) in South Bend, Ind. in what is the longest continuous intersectional rivalry in college football. Kickoff is set for 2:30 pm. Navy and Notre Dame have played annually since 1927, making it the third-longest uninterrupted college football rivalry overall after Minnesota vs. Wisconsin (since 1907) and Kansas State vs. Iowa State (since 1917).
- Navy is coming off a 56-10 pounding of UConn (Nov. 1) that saw the Mids score 14 points in every quarter, while piling up 573 yards of total offense and holding the Huskies to 313 yards of total offense.
- Navy has won five consecutive games and is looking to win six straight within the same season for the first time since 1978 when the Mids started 7-0. Navy won eight straight games over two seasons in 2014-15 (last four games of 2014, first four games of 2015). Navy last started 8-1 in 2015.
- Notre Dame improved to 7-2 last Saturday with a 38-7 domination of Duke as quarterback Ian Book threw for 181 yards and four touchdowns and ran for 139 yards. Meanwhile, the Notre Dame defense completely shut down the Duke offense, giving up just 10 first downs and 197 yards of total offense.
- Notre Dame has won 16 consecutive games at home, which is the third-longest home winning streak for the Irish since Notre Dame Stadium opened in 1930.
- Navy is off to a 7-1 start for the second time in the Ken Niumatalolo era and for just the sixth time since 1960.
- Under Niumatalolo, Navy is 29-21 (.580) with more than one week to prepare for an opponent.
- This marks the fourth time in the last five years that Navy has cracked the top 25 (2015, 2016, 2017, 2019), which also coincides with Navy joining the American Athletic Conference. Prior to joining the American, Navy hadn't been ranked in the Associated Press top 25 since the final poll of the 2004 season when the Mids were ranked 24th after a 10-2 season.
- This is the first time that both Navy and Notre Dame are ranked in the top 25 entering their annual game since 1978 when No. 15 Notre Dame knocked off No. 11 Navy, 27-7.
- Navy last beat a ranked opponent in 2016 when the Mids stunned No. 6 Houston, 46-40, in Annapolis. Navy last beat a ranked Notre Dame team in 2009 when the Mids upset the 19th-ranked Irish, 23-21, in South Bend. Navy also beat a ranked Notre Dame team in 1957, 1944 and 1936.
- Ken Niumatalolo has led Navy to four top 25 wins during his tenure, which is tied with George Welsh for the second most in school history. Eddie Erdelatz beat 10 top 25 teams from 1950-58.
- Ken Niumatalolo's three wins against Notre Dame is tied with Wayne Hardin for the most in school history. Hardin coached both of Navy's Heisman Trophy winners (Joe Bellino-1960 and Roger Staubach-1963).
- NBC will televise Saturday's game with Mike Tirico (play-by-play), Doug Flutie (color), Kathryn Tappen (sideline), Chris Simms (field analyst) and Terry McAulay (rules analyst) on the call. Liam McHugh and Chris Simms will handle halftime.
- The Navy Football Insider Show with host Joe Miller and with contributions from Pete Medhurst, Keith Mills and Scott Wykoff will air on Thursday night from 7:00-8:00 pm on WBAL Radio (1090 AM).
- The Navy Football Tailgate Show on WNAV Radio 1430 AM / 99.9 FM will air from 12:30-1:30 pm with Wylie Baker and Bill Lusby serving as the hosts.
- The Navy Football Insider Show Game Day Edition with Wykoff serving as the host and with contributions from Medhurst, Miller and Mills will air from 1:00-1:30 pm on WBAL Radio (1090 AM).
- The Navy Football Pregame Show with Medhurst, Miller, Mills and Wykoff will get underway at 1:30 pm on the Navy Radio Network, followed by game action beginning at 2:30 pm with Medhurst, Miller and Mills on the call. The radio broadcast is presented by Navy Federal and Navy Mutual.

BOWL ELIGIBLE

- Navy is bowl eligible for the 15th time in the last 17 years. However, for the first time during that run, Navy will not know which bowl game it will go to until bowl announcements are made on Sunday, Dec. 8, since the Mids now fall under the American Athletic Conference umbrella for bowl games.
- Possible bowl game locations for the Mids include the Tropical Smoothie Cafe Frisco Bowl in Frisco, Texas on Dec. 20 (Conference USA, MAC,); The AutoNation Cure Bowl in Orlando, Fla. on Dec. 21 (Sun Belt); the Cheribundi Boca Raton Bowl in Boca Raton, Fla. on Dec. 21 (MAC, Conference USA); the Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl in Tampa, Fla. on Dec. 23 (Conference USA); the SoFi Hawai'i Bowl in Honolulu, Hawai'i on Dec. 24 (BYU, Mountain West); the Military Bowl presented by Northrop Grumman in Annapolis, Md. on Dec. 27 (Notre Dame, ACC); the Birmingham Bowl in Birmingham, Ala. on Jan. 2 (SEC) or the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic on Dec. 28 in Arlington, Texas (at-large opponent) if Navy is selected as the top team from the Group of 5.
- The AAC also has secondary bowl agreements with the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. on Dec. 31 (Big 12 vs. SEC) and with the Walk-On's Independence Bowl on Dec. 26 in Shreveport, La. (SEC vs. ACC or Notre Dame). If either of those bowls can't fill their slots, an AAC team could be placed in one of those two bowls.

TIME TO GET READY

- Under head coach Ken Niumatalolo, Navy is 29-21 (.580) with more than one week to prepare for an opponent.

- Navy, who came into the game ranked No. 1 in the country in rushing yards per game (350.7), finished the game with 408 yards rushing.
- Navy's defense held UConn scoreless over the final 43:31 of the contest. It's the third time this season (Holy Cross, USF, UConn) Navy has held the opposition without a point in the second half.
- The 573 yards of total offense are the most by the Mids this season and the 26th most in program history. It's the most since posting 629 yards against Lehigh on Sept. 15, 2018. It's the second time this season Navy has totaled 500-plus yards of total offense this season (531 vs. Holy Cross).
- With 408 yards rushing, Navy has rushed for 300-plus yards in each of its last four contests (388 Tulsa, 434 USF, 385 Tulane, 408 UConn). It's the longest consecutive streak since putting four straight together in 2017 (Cincinnati, Tulsa, Air Force, Memphis).
- Sophomore safety Kevin Brennan led the team with a career-high 12 tackles. His previous best was nine against Air Force on Oct. 5. The 12 tackles ties as the most by a Navy player this season.
- Sophomore fullback Jamale Carothers carried the ball eight times for 65 yards and three touchdowns. He has now scored nine TDs (8 rushing, 1 receiving) in the last four games. He has scored a rushing touchdown in each of the last four games.
- Senior slot back Tazh Maloy caught a career-long 33-yard pass.

- Junior wide receiver Ryan Mitchell caught a career-long 74-yard pass from Malcolm Perry which set up a six-yard TD run by Jamale Carothers. His previous long reception was a 47-yarder at Memphis on Sept. 26. He finished with 74 yards receiving for the game. Mitchell's previous high in a game was 52 against Tulane in 2018 and Memphis in 2019).
- Freshman kicker Bijan Nichols was 8-for-8 on PATs, marking the most by a Navy player since Bennett Moehring connected on nine against SMU on Nov. 26, 2016.
- Freshman quarterback Perry Olsen carried the ball five times for 34 yards and a TD. His 1-yard run with 3:16 left in the game capped a 15-play, 94-yard drive that covered eight minutes. It was his first career touchdown.
- Junior defensive end Jackson Perkins finished with a career-best 6 tackles. His previous high was four against East Carolina on Sept. 14. Perkins recorded his first collegiate interception, picking off UConn QB Jack Zergiotis on 4th and 11.
- Senior quarterback Malcolm Perry carried the ball 11 times for 108 yards and two touchdowns and completed three of his six passes for a career-high 165 yards and a TD. With his 15-yard gain (8:40, 1Qtr), he eclipsed 1,000 yards, becoming just the second player in program history to reach 1,000 yards rushing three times in his career. Reached the 100-yard rushing mark for the 16th time in his career, including 12 of his 16 starts at quarterback. The 16 100-yard rushing games by Perry are the third most in program history. Perry has rushed for 100 or more yards in five straight games, the longest consecutive 100-yard game streak since he put together five in a row beginning with the 2017 Army game and ending with Lehigh a year ago.
- Perry has put together 100-yard rushing AND passing games three times this season - East Carolina, Air Force and UConn.
- Senior linebacker Tyler Pistorio, making just his fourth career appearance and third this season, recovered a Jack Zergiotis fumble that was forced by Jacob Springer. It was his first career fumble recovery.
- Junior fullback Nelson Smith carried the ball five times for 86 yards. He busted free for a career-long 77-yard run that set up a 2-yard TD run by Malcolm Perry. His previous long was a 49-yarder against Holy Cross in the opener.

- Junior striker Jacob Springer stripped UConn QB Jack Zergiotis with teammate Tyler Pistorio recovering the fumble. It was Springer's third forced fumble of the season. Springer has now recorded a sack in five of the last six contests (none against Tulsa) and has a total of seven sacks on the season. The seven sacks are the most by a Navy player since Will Anthony had 7.5 sacks in 2015. Springer has either a sack or tackle for loss in every game this season except the opener against Holy Cross.

CLOSE CALLS

- 64 of the 153 games (.418) under Ken Niumatalolo's watch have been decided by one possession.
- The Mids are 37-27 (.578) under Niumatalolo in games decided by eight points or less.
- The 1-0 record in 2019 is misleading as Navy had to score with 23 seconds left to take the lead against Air Force and then returned a fumble for a touchdown on the final play of the game to make the final margin nine points.

IN THE CLASSROOM WITH THE CAPTAINS

- The rigors a student-athlete faces at a Service Academy are unlike those a typical student-athlete might encounter on a day-to-day basis. Whether it's the added military training, mandatory room or uniform inspections or the academic schedule, Service Academy student-athletes are in a league of their own.
- The Naval Academy's academic day is divided into six 50-minute class periods beginning at 7:55 am and concluding at 3:20 pm. Unique to the Academies, all 4,400 Midshipmen reside on the Yard in Bancroft Hall and dine together in King Hall.

- Newberry and his staff have authored a stunning turnaround in a short period of time, as the Mids are better in every major statistical category by a significant margin.

8: 2019 NAVY FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

GET 6

- Navy defensive coordinator Brian Newberry has challenged his defense to "Get 6" every game this fall.
- What does Get 6 mean? It's a combined total of six three-and-outs, fourth down stops and turnovers.
- If that turnover is returned for a score, it counts as an extra point towards the goal of six.
- Newberry believes that if his defense can accomplish the challenge, the Mids will have a great chance to win.
- In Navy's 45-7 win over Holy Cross, the Mids got two three-and-outs, a fourth down stop and one turnover for a total of four in nine possessions.
- In Navy's 42-10 win over East Carolina, the Mids came up with five three-and-outs and two turnovers for a total of seven in 11 possessions.
- In Navy's 35-23 loss at Memphis, the Mids came up with three three-and-outs, a fourth down stop (Memphis missed field goal) and one turnover for a total of five in 10 Memphis possessions.
- In Navy's 34-25 win over Air Force, the Mids forced three three-and-outs, had a fourth down stop, came up with two turnovers (actually had three turnovers, but fumbled the ball back to Air Force on a fumble recovery return) and returned one of the fumbles for a touchdown for a total of seven in 13 possessions.
- In Navy's 45-17 win over Tulsa, the Mids forced five three-and-outs and had two fourth down stops for a total of seven in 14 possessions.
- In Navy's 35-3 win over USF, the Mids forced three three-and-outs, had two fourth down stops (downs and a missed field goal) and an interception for a total of six in 11 possessions.
- In Navy's 41-38 win over Tulane, the Mids forced three three-and-outs, had a fourth down stop (missed field goal) and two turnovers, one of which was returned for a touchdown to give the Mids a total of seven in 12 possessions.
- In Navy's 56-10 win over UConn, the Mids fell short of the goal getting just five in 11 UConn possessions (three turnovers, one three-and-out, one fourth down stop).

GET 6 CHAIN

- Navy's defensive players introduced the Get 6 chain during the East Carolina game.
- It started when linebackers coach P.J. Volker talked about "locking up" the East Carolina offense in his position meetings and used a chain to symbolize it.
- Junior linebacker Austin Talbert-Loving took that to heart and found a chain to bring onto the sidelines for the ECU game. The chain was given to the player that came up with a Get 6 play (third down stop on a three-and-out, fourth down stop or turnover) and that player wore it on the bench until the defense took the field again.

THREE-AND-OUT

- The Navy defense has gotten off the field without giving up a first down on 33 of 91 (.363) drives this year (4.13/gm).
- Navy's 4.13 three-and-outs per game ranks as the 20th most in the country. The Mids' percentage of three-and-outs (.363) ranks 15th nationally.
- A 3-and-out counts if ...
- The offense runs three plays and then punts or the defense gets a turnover before giving up a first down.
- If the defense stops the offense in three plays and they miss a field goal.
- If the offense goes for it on fourth down and doesn't get it.
- It does NOT count when a team takes a knee to end half/game – nor does that count as a drive in the percentage

THUNDER AND LIGHTNING AT FULLBACK

- Smith (thunder) started the first seven games for the Mids and hits the hole faster than any fullback Navy has had during the triple option era. He has been a workhorse for the Mids, rushing for 505 yards and seven touchdowns on 104 carries (4.9 yds/carry). He had a career-long 77-yard run in Navy's last game against UConn.
- Carothers (lightning) has been a revelation for the Mids at fullback after moving there in the fall from slot back. The 2016 Kentucky Gatorade Player of the Year and Kentucky's Mr. Football his senior year started the year on the JV team and played against Jireh Prep in the junior varsity opener. He saw his first real varsity action on Oct. 12 against Tulsa (played a few plays at the end of the Holy Cross game, but did not get a carry) and all he's done over the last four games is rush for 355 yards and eight touchdowns on 36 carries (9.9 yds/carry) and catch two passes for 57 yards and a touchdown (28.5 yds/catch). He is the fastest fullback that Navy has ever had.
- Combined, thunder and lightning have carried the ball 140 times for 860 yards (6.1 yds/carry) and 15 touchdowns, while catching two passes for 57 yards and a touchdown.

EXPLOSIVE ON THE GROUND

MALCOLM IN THE MIDDLE

- In 16 career starts at quarterback (11-5), senior Malcolm Perry has carried the ball 341 times for 2,272 yards (6.7 yds/carry, 142.0 yds/gm) and 29 touchdowns.
- Perry has rushed for more than 100 yards in 12 of his 16 career starts at quarterback and for over 200 yards in four of those (SMU and Army in 2017, Lehigh in 2018 and Tulsa in 2019). He has rushed for over 100 yards in five-straight games.
- Perry also rushed for more than 100 yards four times as a slot back giving him 15 for his career. The 15 100-yard rushing games is tied with Chris McCoy (1995-97) for third most in school history. He is four behind Napoleon McCallum for second.
- In 2017, Perry became one of just five Navy players in school history to have two 200-yard rushing games in a single season, joining Zach Abey (2017), Keenan Reynolds (2013 and 2014), Chris McCoy (1996 and 1997) and Napoleon McCallum (1983).
- Perry is one of just four Navy players in school history to have four 200-yard rushing games in a career. Chris McCoy holds the school record with five 200-yard rushing games, while Perry, Keenan Reynolds and Napoleon McCallum have four each.
- There have been only five runs of 90 yards or more in the history of Navy football and Perry has two of them - both in 2017.
- He is just the third player in FBS history to have two runs of 90 yards or more in the same season.
- Perry's 4,345 all-purpose yards (rushing, receiving, returns) is the fourth most in school history. He is 261 yards behind Keenan Reynolds for third all-time.

- Perry, who played both slot back and quarterback as a sophomore, rushed for more than 100 yards in three consecutive games as a slot back (Cincinnati, Tulsa and Air Force) in 2017. He was the first Navy slot back to have three consecutive 100-yard rushing days since Shun White in 2008.
- Perry rushed for 100 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries against Cincinnati and a then career-best 104 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries against Tulsa. He had an incredible day against Air Force rushing for 127 yards and a touchdown on four carries, while catching two passes for 45 yards and a touchdown. His 91-yard touchdown run against the Falcons was at that time tied for the second-longest run in school history and the longest run in stadium history.
- Against UCF, Perry caught a 75-yard touchdown pass from Zach Abey and had a long touchdown run called back because of holding.
- Against Temple, Perry caught four passes for 94 yards and carried the ball five times for 23 yards. He also threw a five yard touchdown pass to Abey.
- Perry took over the starting quarterback job against SMU and rushed for an AAC-record 282 yards and four touchdowns on 33 carries to lead Navy to a 43-40 win. The 282 rushing yards was the fourth most in the country in 2017 and the second most by a quarterback. It was also the fifth most in FBS history by a quarterback. His 92-yard touchdown run now stands at the longest run in Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium history and the second-longest run in program history. He was named the FBS Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week for his performance.
- Against Army, Perry was the starter at quarterback and rushed for 250 yards and a touchdown on 30 carries.
- He made his third career start at quarterback against Virginia in the Military Bowl and rushed for 114 yards and two touchdowns on just 16 carries before leaving early in the third quarter with an injury.
- Perry's 250 rushing yards against Army were the second most in series history. Eddie Meyers rushed for 278 against Army in 1979.

- Perry was the only player in the FBS in 2017 to have two runs of 70 or more yards and one reception of 70 or more yards and is one of only two players (Denard Robinson of Michigan) in FBS history to have rushed for 100 or more yards in a game as both a running back and quarterback in the same season. His four offensive touchdowns of 65 yards or more in 2017 tied for the second most in the country.
- Perry averaged a school-record 8.6 yards per carry in 2017 and averaged 6.3 yards per carry in 2018, which ranked 25th nationally.

- Perry was the starting quarterback at Hawai'i in Navy's 2018 season opener and rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries. His TD run came on a 75-yard scamper, marking his fifth career touchdown of 65 yards or more.
- Against Memphis in the AAC opener, Perry carried the ball 36 times for 166 yards and two touchdowns in Navy's thrilling 22-21 victory over the Tigers. Perry became the second player in school history to lead the team in rushing (166 yds), passing (22 yds) and receiving (17 yds) in a single game, joining Keenan Reynolds, who did it in his final collegiate game against Pitt in the 2015 Military Bowl.
- Perry had his third-career 200-yard rushing day when he amassed 223 yards and three touchdowns on 19 carries in Navy's 51-21 victory over Lehigh.
- Perry got the start at slot back vs. Temple because Navy had two key slot backs out (Garret Lewis started at quarterback) and he rushed for 48 yards on 12 carries. He had a 30-yard touchdown run called back.
- Perry was back at slot back against Houston and carried the ball 10 times for 97 yards and a touchdown in the first half before leaving the game with an injury.
- Perry had an outstanding game as a starting slot back against Notre Dame carrying the ball 12 times for 133 yards and catching three passes for 18 yards.
- He had a solid game as a starter at slot against UCF, rushing for 69 yards on nine carries.
- Perry rushed for 76 yards on six carries against Tulsa, as he once again got the start at slot back.
- Against Tulane, Perry threw a 37-yard touchdown pass to Zach Abey on a trick play and on the very next play caught a 73-yard touchdown pass from Abey.

- Perry had his first career 100-yard passing day against Holy Cross in the 2019 season opener, completing six of his nine pass attempts for 103 yards.
- Perry lit up East Carolina in the second game of the year, rushing for 156 yards and a career-high tying four touchdowns on 24 carries, while completing five of his seven pass attempts for 151 yards and two touchdowns. His six touchdowns accounted for was a career-high and the most since Keenan Reynolds accounted for seven against Georgia Southern in 2014. He was also the first Navy player to rush and pass for more than 150 yards in a game since Ricky Dobbs did it against Arkansas State in 2010.
- Perry had a gutsy effort at Memphis rushing for 91 yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries, while completing six of his 10 pass attempts for 82 yards and a touchdown.
- Perry was phenomenal against Air Force, willing the Mids to a thrilling victory. He carried the ball 23 times for 111 yards and two touchdowns, while completing five of his seven pass attempts for 144 yards. He led Navy on a 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive in 2:52 with the Mids trailing 28-25. His three-yard touchdown run with 23 seconds left put Navy up 28-25 (Mids would return an Air Force fumble for a touchdown on the final play of the game for the final margin of nine points).

NIUMATALOLO ANNOUNCES TEAM CAPTAINS

- Navy head football coach Ken Niumatalolo announced that raider Nizaire Cromartie, linebacker Paul Carothers, center Ford Higgins and quarterback Malcolm Perry have been named team captains for the 2019 season. The captains are elected by a team vote of returning players. This will mark the first time in 139 seasons of Navy football that the Mids will feature four team captains.
- "This year we waited to elect our team captains instead of announcing them at the team banquet in January," said Niumatalolo. "We wanted to go through winter conditioning, our fourth quarter workouts and spring practice before our team voted to give everybody ample opportunity to select captains based on who earned that privilege. I couldn't be more excited about the captains that our team selected."

NAVY PICKED TO FINISH FIFTH IN THE AAC WEST DIVISION

- The UCF Knights were selected as the favorite to win the 2019 American Athletic Conference Championship in the conference's preseason media poll.

- Cincinnati was projected as the overall conference champion on eight ballots, while Memphis received six votes for the league title, while Houston was the choice on four ballots.
- UCF finished the regular season unbeaten for the second straight season in 2018, as the Knights went on to capture their fourth AAC Championship and advance to the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl. HONORING A LEGEND, JOE BELLINO

- In August, Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk announced that Joe Bellino's #27 will be placed on the turf at the 27-yard line at both ends of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium facing Navy's sideline as a tribute and in memory of the 1960 Heisman Trophy winner, who passed away on March 27.
- Additionally, Navy will wear a helmet sticker in Bellino's memory.
- Bellino was the first Navy player to win the Heisman Trophy and the first to have his number retired.
- Bellino, a native of Winchester, Mass., was known as the player who was never caught from behind. In just three seasons, he scored 31 touchdowns, rushed for 1,664 yards on 330 carries, returned 37 kicks for 833 yards and set 15 school records.
- Bellino was a unanimous All-America selection at halfback in 1960 and was also the winner of the Maxwell Award. His end zone interception preserved Navy's 17-12 win over Army that season. The Midshipmen were ranked as a high as fourth in the country and went on to play in the Orange Bowl on Jan. 1, 1961.
- Bellino was also an outstanding catcher and outfielder on the Navy baseball team. He hit .428 in 22 games in 1959 and led the Eastern Intercollegiate League in stolen bases. He had a .320 average in 1960 and was the baseball team captain in 1961.
- Army partisans can hardly forget the 1959-60 academic year for what Bellino did to the Cadets. In addition to his three-touchdown performance in the 1959 Army-Navy football game, he was equally sensational in the Army-Navy baseball game in 1960. Bellino went 4-for-4 at the plate, drove in three runs, stole two bases and threw out two Army runners attempting to steal as Navy carved out a 9-1 win.
- Bellino capped off his senior year (1960-61) by winning the school's top two athletic awards, the Thompson Trophy and the Naval Academy Athletic Association Sword. It marked the first time in 41 years that one midshipman received both of these awards.
- Bellino's #27 football jersey was retired after the 1960 season. He had a three-year stint with the Boston Patriots after he had completed his four-year service obligation. He stayed in the Navy Reserves for 24 more years and reached the rank of Captain.
- Bellino was a 1977 inductee into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. In 2009, he was named to the Navy-Marine Corps Memorial All-Stadium Team. During its annual season-ending football banquet, Navy presents the Joe Bellino Award to the varsity football player whose inspiring on-field performance made a significant impact on the team and contributed to its overall success during the season.
- Bellino is survived by his wife of 57 years, Ann; his son, John, a 1989 graduate of the Naval Academy; and his daughter, Therese, as well as his daughter-in-law, Annette, and three grandsons, Ian, Evan and Eric; and his son-in-law, Cary.

DUAL ROLES BEHIND THE MIC

- Pete Medhurst, the Voice of Navy Athletics, is one of just seven college football play-by-play announcers that also calls major league baseball. Medhurst is the part-time voice of the Washington Nationals on the radio.
- Others on the list include Kevin Eschenfelder (Houston and Houston Astros TV); Tom Helmer (Eastern Michigan and the Boston Red Sox TV); Ted Leitner (San Diego State and the San Diego Padres Radio); Matt LePay (Wisconsin and the Milwaukee Brewers TV); Josh Lewin (UCLA and the Boston Red Sox Radio) and Matt Shepard (Eastern Michigan and the Detroit Tigers TV).

2020 NAVY-NOTRE DAME GAME TO BE PLAYED AT AVIVA STADIUM IN DUBLIN, IRELAND

- Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk, Notre Dame Vice President and Director of Athletics Jack Swarbrick and the Prime Minister of Ireland Leo Varadkar announced this year that the 2020 Navy-Notre Dame game will be held at Aviva Stadium in Dublin, Ireland on Saturday, Aug. 29. This will be the third time the two schools have played in Dublin (1996 and 2012 were the other two times).
- "We are thrilled and excited to return to Aviva Stadium in Dublin for the 94th playing of the Navy-Notre Dame game," said Gladchuk. "In 2012, it was one of the greatest airlifts in all of sports with more than 35,000 people coming from the United States to witness the beauty of Ireland and the extravaganza that is Navy-Notre Dame and we expect just as many people to return in 2020. The support and enthusiasm for the game in Ireland is magnificent with the complete support from the Prime Minister and the Irish government agencies. We are looking forward to a great matchup in a country that knows no bounds for hospitality."
- "The University of Notre Dame, our football program, our alumni and fans had such a wonderful experience in 2012," said Swarbrick. "The people of Ireland were incredibly welcoming and made our time on the Emerald Isle unforgettable. It wasn't long after our return from that trip that Navy initiated conversations with the hopes of bringing this matchup back to Dublin. Chet and his staff at Navy deserve a ton of credit for making this a reality. I'm so excited, not only for our student-athletes and those that will travel from the states, but for the people of Ireland and all of those that will make this another experience to cherish."
- The announcement by Prime Minister Varadkar in Dublin is part of a five-game American Football Series that will bring a $250 million economic value to the country. Aer Lingus was unveiled as the title sponsor for the series and all five games will be played in Aviva Stadium, starting with the Navy-Notre Dame game. The classic will be called The Aer Lingus College Football Classic.
- "College football is one of the greatest spectacles in world sport and to bring it back to Ireland for a five-year series is wonderful news for Irish tourism and for sports fans," said Varadkar. "Over 35,000 fans travelled to Ireland when Notre Dame and Navy last met in Dublin in 2012 and we will warmly welcome them and many others back for the Aer Lingus College Football Classics. Major games such as this one showcase Ireland as a location for international events and tournaments and put our world-leading hospitality and tourism sector front and center. I look forward to the first game of the series with the return of Notre Dame vs. Navy in August 2020; I have no doubt it will be a hugely popular occasion."
- The games will be organized by Irish American Events Ltd. which is a joint venture between Corporate.ie and Anthony Travel who have been involved in college football games in Ireland previously.
- The other key partners who will drive the game in both Ireland and America are Failte Ireland, Tourism Ireland and Dublin City Council.
- The Aer Lingus College Football Series will have a very strong Irish-American influence. Not only will there be the usual college football fanfare with lots of fun events celebrating the red, white and blue including marching bands, cheerleaders and tailgating parties, but there will also be a great celebration of the close Irish-American links that are so highly valued. The teams will compete each year for the Keough-Naughton College Football Trophy, acknowledging the contribution to Irish-American society of Don Keough and Martin Naughton.

FWAA NAMES NAVY ONE OF THE TOP 11 SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICES IN THE COUNTRY IN 2018

- Four first-time winners and seven previous ones comprise the 10th Annual Super 11 Awards, which the Football Writers Association of America gives out annually to the best performing sports information departments in the Football Bowl Subdivision for the 2018 season.
- These 11 sports information departments have done an outstanding job of not just fulfilling the needs of media members, but of understanding the importance of strong working relationships between programs and the reporters who cover them," 2019 FWAA President Matt Fortuna said. "Additionally, Coach Edwards went above and beyond the norm in his first season at Arizona State, a refreshing approach that we feel deserves special recognition."
- As for the 2018 SID department awards, Clemson, Colorado and Nebraska each won for a sixth time. It was Clemson's fourth straight award and Colorado's fifth award in six seasons.
- Pittsburgh claimed a Super 11 Award for the fourth time and Navy a third time. Iowa State and Mississippi State each won for the second time.
- The four first-time recipients in the award series, which dates back to the 2009 season, are Arizona State, Miami (Fla.), UAB and Wisconsin.
- This year's winners were deemed by FWAA observers to have had good accessibility during the week of the game and after the game – with a program's players, coaches and assistant coaches – along with the other listed criteria.
- "That was a special point of emphasis in 2018 and will be again in 2019," FWAA Executive Director Steve Richardson said. "Our membership wants access to players after games, of course, but also for human interest and analytical stories during the week. Over the years, for a variety of reasons this access has been restricted. We believe there are many good stories out there that can be told if they are allowed to be told."

Oct. 26, 2013 – One week after missing an extra-point against Toledo in the second overtime, Nick Sloan booted a 30-yard field goal against Pitt as time expired to give Navy a thrilling 24-21 come-from-behind victory.

Dec. 28, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds wrapped up his record-setting career by rushing for three scores and passing for another to lead Navy to a 44-28 win over Pitt in the Military Bowl. Reynolds' final touchdown clinched the win and gave him 88 total touchdowns for his career, breaking the tie with La. Tech's Kenneth Dixon for most touchdowns in FBS history. The win was the 11th on the year for Navy, setting a school record.

Oct. 8, 2016 – Will Worth ran for a touchdown and threw for two more, while Josiah Powell picked off a pass and returned it 34-yards for a touchdown to lead Navy to a 46-40 upset of #6 Houston. It was Navy's first win over a top 10 opponent since beat #2 South Carolina in 1984.

Oct. 7, 2017 – Zach Abey fired a 16-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Carmona with 15 seconds remaining to give Navy a thrilling 48-45 victory over Air Force in front of a stadium-record crowd of 37,792. It was the highest scoring game in the history of the Navy-Air Force series.

Nov. 11, 2017 – Malcolm Perry, making his first career start at quarterback, rushed for 282 yards and four touchdowns on 33 carries to lead Navy to a 43-40 victory over SMU and make the Mids bowl eligible for the 14th time in the last 15 years. Perry had a stadium-record 92-yard touchdown run in the game.

Oct. 5, 2019 – Malcolm Perry scored on a three-yard touchdown run with 23 seconds left to give Navy a 28-25 lead, and Tony Brown recovered an Air Force fumble on the ensuing possession and ran eight yards for a touchdown to give Navy a stunning 34-25 victory over Air Force.

GM 1 NAVY 45, HOLY CROSS 7

AUG. 31, 2019 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NMC MEMORIAL STADIUM • 28,531

- (AP) Nelson Smith ran for 96 yards with three touchdowns, Diego Fagot had nine tackles and the Midshipmen dominated Holy Cross 45-7 in the regular-season opener.
- "I thought it was a great team win," Navy coach Ken Niumatalolo said. "I thought we played well today. We still have a lot of room for improvement. You can't take any of these wins for granted."
- One of Niumatalolo's main areas of focus is improving the passing offense, which ranked last (130th) among FBS programs, averaging 72.8 passing yards per game in 2018. He wants to attack teams with elements of the run-and-shoot and Navy gained 103 yards through the air Saturday.
- After passing for just 12 yards through much of the first half, Malcolm Perry found Mychal Cooper for a 44-yard gain in the final minute. Two plays later, Perry scored from the 1, boosting the lead to 24-7 and the Midshipmen were never threatened the rest of the way.
- Perry was 6 of 9 for 103 yards and a 162.8 quarterback rating.
- Navy still builds its offense around the triple-option and amassed 428 yards on the ground against the Crusaders.
- The Midshipmen plan to be more aggressive under new defensive coordinator Brian Newberry and finished with three sacks, seven tackles for a loss and a forced fumble.
- Quarterback Connor Degenhardt was 16 of 29 for 167 yards for Holy Cross, a member of the Patriot League in the Football Championship Subdivision.
- Running back Domenic Cozier, who led Holy Cross with 643 yards rushing and eight touchdowns last season, did not play because of an illness. Miles Alexander filled the void and had a 16-yard touchdown run that cut the margin to 17-7 late in the first quarter.
- Bijan Nichols is the first freshman to start as the placekicker for Navy since Nick Sloan in 2012. Nichols converted a 44-yard field-goal attempt late in the first quarter that provided a 10-0 lead.

GM 2 NAVY 42, EAST CAROLINA 10

SEPT. 14, 2019 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NMC MEMORIAL STADIUM • 28,531

- (AP) Malcolm Perry ran for four touchdowns, threw for two scores and accounted for 307 yards in offense to guide Navy to a 42-10 rout of East Carolina.
- Navy scored TDs on each of its first four possessions and coasted to the finish. The Midshipmen have won four straight against the Pirates, averaging 52 points per game.
- Perry carried 24 times for 156 yards and completed 5 of 7 passes for 151 yards. He is the first Navy quarterback to amass at least 150 yards both running and passing since Ricky Dobbs against Arkansas State in November 2010.
- Perry ran for touchdowns of 18 and 11 yards before capping an 85-yard drive with a 29-yard pass to CJ Williams for a 21-0 lead. After the Pirates temporarily interrupted the one-sided show with a field goal, Perry scored from the 6 to cap an 11-play march during which the Midshipmen converted a fourth-and-4.
- Slithering through the East Carolina defense with remarkable ease, Perry topped the 100-yard mark rushing before the middle of the second quarter and had 128 yards on 18 attempts by halftime.
- Perry has rushed for at least 100 yards in seven of his 10 career starts at quarterback.
- Navy opened the second half with a 75-yard drive that lasted more than seven minutes and ended with Perry scoring from the 1. After an ECU punt, Perry immediately hit a wide-open Williams for an 80-yard TD, Navy's longest pass play since an 85-yarder by Dobbs that 2010 game against Arkansas State.
- After that throw, with the score 42-3, Perry's work was done.
- Defense was not the Pirates' lone shortcoming in their third game under coach Mike Houston. Unable to reach the end zone until the fourth quarter, East Carolina displayed none of the firepower it showed one week earlier in a 48-9 win over Gardner-Webb.
- Holton Ahlers went 11 for 23 for 138 yards and an interception.

46: 2019 NAVY FOOTBALL GAME NOTESGM 3 MEMPHIS 35, NAVY 23
SEPT. 26, 2019 • MEMPHIS, TENN. • LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM • 33,909

- (AP) Brady White threw for 196 yards and three touchdowns as Memphis used big plays to defeat Navy ,35-23.
- Kenneth Gainwell rushed for 104 yards, including a 75-yard touchdown on the Tigers opening play from scrimmage as Memphis knocked Navy from the unbeaten ranks.
- Malcolm Perry led the Midshipmen with 82 yards passing and 91 yards rushing. He ran for two touchdowns and threw for another. Keoni-Kordell Makekau rushed for a career-high 101 yards for Navy.
- The game was a contrast in styles with Navy grinding out yards and maintaining possession, while Memphis capitalized on big plays. The Tigers scored on long runs, a 99-yard kickoff return by Gabriel Rogers and the trio of touchdown passes from White.
- After Navy took a 20-7 lead, Memphis scored three unanswered touchdowns to pull away in the second half.
- During the first half, the Memphis defense, which entered the game allowing opponents an average of 226 yard, was mystified by Navy's triple option. The Midshipmen grabbed chunks of yards in the rushing game, while Perry kept the Tiger defense off balance with occasional passes, including a 17-yarde scoring toss to Chance Warren for an early lead.
- It was the Navy defense that initially was living up to its billing, stifling the Memphis offense. Even when Memphis reached the red zone, a fumble stalled the drive. Penalties and a missed field goal only contributed to the Memphis woes as the Tigers collected only 98 yards of offense, including Gainwell's opening burst.

GM 4 NAVY 34, AIR FORCE 25
OCT. 5, 2019 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NMC MEMORIAL STADIUM • 37,957

- (AP) Navy quarterback Malcolm Perry had a 3-yard touchdown run with 23 seconds remaining to give the Midshipmen a stunning 34-25 victory over Air Force.
- The Falcons had scored 16 consecutive points in the final quarter and took the lead on a 1-yard run by Taven Birdow with 3:15 left in the game.
- However, Perry led an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive to claim the victory in the first leg of the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy. Navy linebacker Tony Brown returned a fumble 8 yards in the closing seconds to round out the scoring.
- Perry finished with 111 yards on 23 carries with a pair of touchdowns. He also completed 5 of 7 passes for 144 yards.
- A fumble by Navy fullback Nelson Smith gave Air Force the ball on the Midshipmen 37 midway through the fourth quarter. The Falcons capitalized on a 1-yard plunge by quarterback DJ Hammond III that pulled them within 21-19 with 7:38 left in the game.
- The Falcons then put together a six-play, 72-yard scoring drive, capped by the scoring run by Birdow to take their first lead since the first quarter before the Midshipmen rallied.
- Air Force kicker Jake Koehnke converted all four of his field-goal opportunities, including a career-long 49-yard kick that pulled the Falcons to within 14-9.
- Hammond had 77 yards on 12 carries. He also competed 10 of 25 pass attempts for 205 yards with an interception.
- Jacob Springer managed a key sack in the third quarter that gave Navy a short field, setting up the 20-yard scoring run by Malcolm Perry that provided a 12-point margin.
- The Midshipmen used an almost identical strategy to boost the lead to 14-3. Perry completed a 28-yard pass to Mychal Cooper and Smith capped the drive with a 3-yard scoring run.

GM 6 NAVY 35, USF 3
OCT. 19, 2019 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NMC MEMORIAL STADIUM • 29,774

- (AP) The Navy defense backed another dominant performance on the ground by senior quarterback Malcolm Perry in a 35-3 victory over USF.
- Perry finished with 188 yards on 22 carries with a pair of touchdowns. He surpassed more than 3,000 career yards rushing in his career, joining Keenan Reynolds, Napoleon McCallum and Chris McCoy as the only Navy players to accomplish that feat.
- The Midshipmen have a three-game winning streak for the first time since 2017 when they won five straight to start the year.
- Junior linebacker Jacob Springer notched a career-high three sacks and freshman safety Chelen Games had an interception for Navy. The Midshipmen have 17 sacks on the year after finishing with 10 last season.
- South Florida stacked the box with 11 defenders most of the game but Navy still managed to find seams and finished with a season-high 434 yards rushing.
- Bulls redshirt freshman quarterback Jordan McCloud, who took over the starting job for the injured Blake Barnett (ankle), was 11 of 23 for 50 yards with an interception.
- Perry opened the scoring with 67-yard touchdown run with 3:56 left in the first quarter. Navy had a couple of key stops and capitalized with a 58-yard rumble by fullback Jamale Carothers on the opening play of the second quarter that extended the lead to 14-0.
- The Bulls could not capitalize on three forced turnovers (two interceptions and a fumble recovery).
- Navy used some creativity to pull further away when slotback CJ Williams took the pitch from Perry and threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to OJ Davis for a three-score margin.
- Bulls' cornerback KJ Sails gave them some life with an apparent pick-6, but the score was nullified because of an illegal block. South Florida had to settle for a 33-yard field goal by Spencer Shrader and trailed 21-3 at the break.
- After a scoreless third quarter, Navy completed the rout on a 21-yard run by Perry and a 26-yard scamper by Tazh Maloy.

48: 2019 NAVY FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

GM 7 NAVY 41, TULANE 38 OCT. 26 2019 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NMC MEMORIAL STADIUM • 31,118

- (AP) Bijan Nichols kicked a 48-yard field goal as time expired, and Navy edged Tulane, 41-38, on Homecoming.
- Nichols' kick - a yard shy of a career long - capped a seven-play drive in the final 61 seconds to secure bowl eligibility for the Midshipmen for the 15th time in 17 years.
- Sophomore fullback Jamale Carothers rushed for a career-high 154 yards and accounted for four touchdowns and quarterback Malcolm Perry rushed for 142 yards and threw for a touchdown for the Midshipmen.
- Diego Fagot returned an interception for a touchdown late in the first half for Navy, which scored on its first four possessions and never trailed the Green Wave.
- Tulane quarterback Justin McMillan threw for 290 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for another two scores in the loss.
- Carothers capped Navy's first two possessions with touchdown runs of 52 and 35 yards, running nearly untouched into the end zone on both occasions. He then collected a 31-yard touchdown catch from Perry to cap the Mids' third series.
- Navy would push the lead to 24-0, but Tulane stitched together a pair of second-quarter touchdown drives to climb back in it. The Green Wave was starting a push for another score just before halftime, but Fagot collected a carom off running back Tyjae Spears and returned it 17 yards for a score to make it 31-14 at the break.
- Tulane drew closer on McMillan's short touchdown passes to Jaetavian Toles and Ygenio Booker in the third quarter. The Green Wave finally tied it on Merek Glover's 39-yard field goal with 10:17 to play.
- Carothers scored his fourth touchdown of the day on a 15-yard rumble with 5:23 to go, but Tulane responded with McMillan's sneak with 1:01 remaining to tie it at 38.

GM 8 NAVY 56, UCONN 10 NOV. 1 2019 • EAST HARTFORD, CONN. • PRATT & WHITNEY STADIUM • 16,659

- (AP) Navy quarterback Malcolm Perry ran for 108 yards and two touchdowns and threw for a career-high 165 yards and another score in leading the Midshipmen to a 56-10 rout of UConn. It was Navy's largest margin of victory since beating Rice, 63-14, in 2009.
- It was the fifth straight 100-yard rushing game for the senior, who eclipsed 1,000 yards rushing for the third consecutive season, joining Keenan Reynolds as the only two players in school history to have three 1,000-yard rushing seasons.
- Freshman Zack Zergiotis threw for 205 yards and a touchdown for UConn, but had three turnovers including two first-half interceptions that led to Navy scoring drives.
- Perry scored on his first carry, spinning past the line of scrimmage and going 58 yards down the numbers on the right side of the field. He also had a 58-yard touchdown pass in the first half, hitting Mychal Cooper down the middle one play after Zergiotis' second interception. It was one of just six passes thrown by Perry, who completed three of them, all for more than 30 yards.
- Zergiotis' first pick set Navy up on a 49-yard Navy drive that ended with a 13-yard run up the gut by Jamale Carothers. The sophomore fullback added touchdown runs of 23 and 6 yards in the second half.
- The Huskies were still in the game with a first down on Navy's 2-yard line and less than a minute to play in the first half. But Jacob Springer forced a Zergiotis fumble on third down and the Midshipmen led 28-10 at intermission.
- Navy finished with 573 yards of offense, including 408 on the ground.
- Kevin Mensah had 107 yards rushing for UConn.
