- With the win:
 - Notre Dame improved to 10-2 on the season, and 21-13* all-time vs. Stanford.
 - Brian Kelly posted his third career win over the Cardinal, and first at Stanford Stadium.
 - The Irish reach 10 wins for the third consecutive season, the first time since the 1991-93 seasons that Notre Dame has accomplished the feat.
- With less than two minutes remaining in the first half, the Irish received the ball and compiled a three-play, 76-yard drive in 21 seconds to score their second touchdown in a minute and 41 second span.

STUDENT-ATHLETE NOTES

No. 12 Ian Book Notes

- With his play in today's game, Ian Book became the first Notre Dame quarterback with 2,500 passing yards, 500 rushing yards and 30 touchdown passes in a season. Jalen Hurts is the only other collegiate student-athlete to hit these marks in the 2019 season and, since 2017, only Book, Hurts, Kyler Murray, JT Barrett and D'Eriq King have hit these marks in the regular season.
- Book moved into fourth all-time in program history for career touchdown passes (56) with four TDs vs. Stanford, passing Ron Powlus (52).
- Ian Book's 33 touchdown passes this season rank second all-time in program history. Brady Quinn's 37 touchdown passes in the 2006 season is the only more-prolific QB scoring campaign.
- With another four-touchdown passing game, Book has now hit that mark in six games in his career (one behind Notre Dame all-time leader Brady Quinn).

- This is the fifth time this season that Book has notched at least four TD passes in a game — most all time in Notre Dame history.
- QB Ian Book hit RB Tony Jones Jr. with a 16-yard touchdown pass on Notre Dame's first drive of the game, his 30th touchdown pass of the season to become just the second player in program history to throw for 30+ in a single campaign.
- On the three-play, 76-yard drive that took place in just 21 seconds, Book completed three straight passes of more than 10 yards to Cole Kmet (21 yards), Chase Claypool (14) and Claypool (41, TD).

Additional Student-Athlete Notes

- Jalen Elliott and Asmar Bilal each played in their 50th career game against the Cardinal. They become just the fifth and sixth players in Notre Dame history to play in 50 or more games during their career (Manti Te'o, Harrison Smith and Drue Tranquill with 51; Tyler Newsome with 50).
- DL Isaiah Foskey blocked a Stanford punt with less than five minutes remaining in the second half, the second blocked punt this season by the Irish (Bo Bauer) and Foskey's first of his career. It was recovered by DL Justin Ademilola at the Cardinal 1-yard line, his first career recovery.
- TE Tommy Tremble's second-quarter touchdown catch was the sophomore's fourth receiving TD of the season. For the first time in school history, two TE's have had four touchdown receptions or more in the same season (Kmet 6, Tremble 4).
- WR Chase Claypool caught two touchdown passes on the day, the first a 41-yard TD pass from Book to cap a three-play, 76-yard drive to take the lead, 21-17, heading into halftime; and the second an eight-yard reception to help put the Irish up, 28-17.
- Claypool passed Jim Seymour (16, 1966-68) to move into 10th place in the Notre Dame record book for career touchdown receptions (18). Claypool also passed the 2,000 career receiving yard plateau with the first TD reception, ending the day with 2,013 career receiving yards.
- LS John Shannon recovered a muffed punt by Stanford in the third quarter, reclaiming possession for the Irish at the Cardinal 48-yard line.
