Gia Kvaratskhelia
2014-present (326-39, .893)

Giorgie "Gia" Kvaratskhelia (GEE-uh KLAU-duh-SKELL-ee-uh) became the seventh head coach in Notre Dame fencing history in 2014, succeeding Janusz Bednarski after having spent the previous three years as associate head coach and five as an assistant. Kvaratskhelia is a foil specialist, and is quickly building his legacy as one of the nation's top collegiate coaches after leading the Irish to consecutive national championships in 2017 and 2018 and earning national coach of the year honors by the United States Fencing Coaching Association in 2018.

Since joining the Irish staff in 2007, Kvaratskhelia has overseen a thriving foil program. Irish foilists have qualified the maximum of four foilists each year for NCAA championship play. Since 2008, seven foilists have achieved four-time All-America status with Kvaratskhelia at the helm. Irish foilists have captured eight NCAA individual championships since 2010, including a four-time winner in Lee Kiefer (2013-'14-'15) and two-time winners in Gerek Meinhardt (2010, 2014) and Nick Itkin (2018, 2019). Ariel DeSmet also captured a men's foil championship as a freshman in 2011.

In four of his first five seasons at the helm of the Irish, Kvaratskhelia steered his program to consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference titles on both men's and women's sides, while both teams placed second in the conference in 2018. The Irish have claimed 26 of 30 individual weapons titles since the conference was re-formed prior to the 2014-15 season. Kvaratskhelia was named the 2015 ACC

Men's Coach of the Year, the 2016 Co-ACC Men's Coach of the Year, the 2016 Co-ACC Women's Coach of the Year and the 2017 ACC Women's Coach of the Year for his efforts.

Prior to joining the Notre Dame coaching staff, Kvaratskhelia spent 10 years as coach of the Kanza Fencing Club in Salina, Kansas. In that time, Kvaratskhelia transformed Kanza from a small recreational club into one of the nation's top foil centers. His fencers at Kanza combined to win three USFA national men's open foil team championships, with six of his Kanza fencers going on to compete at the Division I level as scholarship athletes. His Kanza fencers combined to be national finalists 15 times, while receiving nearly 50 national medals.

Kvaratskhelia — who became a U.S. citizen in 2004 — immigrated to the United States in 1994 from the former Soviet Republic of Georgia. After coming to the U.S., he remained active in his own fencing career by competing in domestic and international events. He first ventured into coaching in 1994, assisting Vladimir Nazlymov (now head coach at Ohio State) at Central Fencing Club in Kansas City and at the satellite Lawrence Fencing Club. Two years later, he accepted the challenge in Salina and spent 10 years building Kanza into a nationally recognized club.

Kvaratskhelia began fencing in 1988 at the age of 13, progressing quickly and becoming a member of the Georgian National Foil Team from 1990-94, fencing alongside the likes of Vladimir Aptiaouri (a member of the U.S.S.R. foil team that won gold at the 1988 Olympics). Kvaratskhelia took home the bronze medal at the 1990 Soviet Junior National Championship — shortly before Georgia declared its independence — and later had an impressive 11th-place finish at the 1992 European Championship.

Noted for his tremendous communication skills, Kvaratskhelia is fluent in Russian, Georgian and English. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education and sport in 1993 from the Georgian State Physical Training Institute in his hometown of Tbilisi. He also earned a sports journalism certificate from that institution ('92) and pursued graduate studies in journalism at Tbilisi State University in 1993 prior to coming to the United States.

Kvaratskhelia and his wife, Dani Edson, have one daughter, Maya, and one son, Alexander.

CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

IRISH AT THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The storied history of Notre Dame fencing has produced ten national title teams, as well as another 13 national runner-up finishes. Since the NCAA Championship became a co-ed team title in 1990, the Irish have claimed five championships. From 1982-89, Notre Dame claimed one men's and women's title each, with another two men's-only titles from 1941-81. The Irish fencing program has seen 35 individuals snag individual titles in their various weapons and have had at least one national champion crowned in 14 of the last 18 seasons (as of 2019).

2017 NCAA National Champions

The Irish won the ninth national title in program history with a dominating performance as the host school at the Indiana Farmers Coliseum in Indianapolis at the 2017 National Collegiate Fencing Championships. The Irish tallied 186 points, the most for the Irish in a title victory and most for a winning team since Penn State's 191-point total in 2010. The team victory was secured in the fourth round of the five-round women's round robin on Day 4 of the tournament when eventual women's foil champion Lee Kiefer defeated Cornell's Lyubov Kiriakidi. The Irish were led in points by Kiefer, Francesca Russo (women's sabre) and Amanda Sirico (women's epee), who each went 20-3 in round-robin play. Kiefer and Russo took home national titles, while all three nabbed first-team All-America honors. Men's epeeist Ariel Simmons was also a first-team All-American with a third-place finish.

2018 NCAA National Champions

Notre Dame was again dominant in the second back-to-back championship performance in school history. The team led wire-to-wire at Penn State's Multi-Sport Facility, totaling 185 points — besting second-place Columbia by 15 and far outpacing third-place Ohio State (147) — and securing the first consecutive championships since winning men's titles in 1977 and 1978. The Irish boasted 10 All-Americans — including seven first-teamers and a new individual champion in freshman men's foilist Nick Itkin. Women's epeeist bronze medalist Amanda Sirico led the Irish in points with 20 for the second year in a row, while Itkin, Elyssa Kleiner (women's foil bronze medalist) and Francesca Russo (women's sabre bronze medalist) each tallied 18 bout wins and Sabrina Massialas (women's foil silver medalist) added 17. Men's epee bronze medalist Ariel Simmons scored the title-clinching win in the fifth round of the men's round robin.

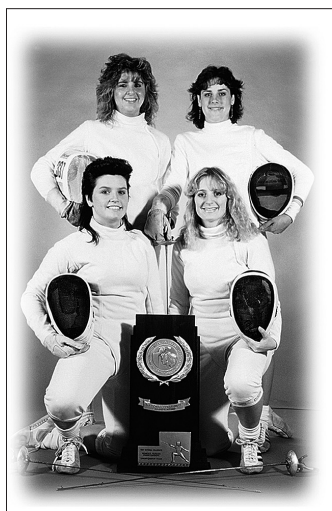

IRISH AT THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

1977 NCAA Men's Champions

The Irish finished the round-robin at the Notre Dame Joyce Center tied with NYU for first place (at 114), with the new fenceoff tiebreaker used to declare a winner. Sullivan rallied to beat Miklos Benedek in the first bout (5-3) and an electric atmosphere encircled the strip as Gerard shut out Tom Valjasic (5-0, after splitting earlier 5-4 bouts) before being mobbed by the Notre Dame faithful. Glass never had to compete in the fenceoff and DeCicco picked up his third of four national Coach of the Year awards.

1987 NCAA Women's Champions

(kneeling from left) Anne Barreda and Kristin Kralicek combined with (standing, from left) Janice Hynes and third-place finisher Molly Sullivan (13-2) to help win the 1987 NCAA women's title, with the competition held at Notre Dame's Joyce Center.

1978 NCAA Men's Champions

1994 NCAA Combined Champions

The Irish won the combined NCAA title in 1994 at Brandeis, under the team-scoring format that saw Notre Dame place third in women's foil, first in men's foil and fourth in men's sabre — with men's epee rallying to beat Air Force in pool-play before besting Wayne State in the semifinals for the clinching points. Top performers included All-Americans Jeremy Siek (5th in foil), Chris Hajnik (10th in sabre) and Rakesh Patel (12th in epee).

(seated, from left) Sabreist Destanie Milo (6th), epeeist Meagan Call (10th), foilist Andrea Ament (3rd), sabreist Maggie Jordan (21st), foilist Alicja Kryczalo (1st) and epeeist Kerry Walton (5th); (standing, from left) sabreists Gabor Szelle (11th) and Matt Fabricant (6th), foilist Derek Snyder (5th), epeeist Michal Sobieraj (2nd), foilist Ozren Debic (4th) and epeeist Jan Viviani (10th) combined for 182 points, edging Penn State (179) for the 2003 title at Air Force.

2011 NCAA National Champions

For the eighth time in program history and third under the direction of head coach Janusz Bednarski, the University of Notre Dame fencing team claimed the NCAA National Championship. Aided by two individual gold medalists (Ariel DeSmet — men's foil; Courtney Hurley — women's epee) and two runner-up performances (Avery Zuck — men's sabre; Eileen Hassett — women's sabre) the Irish held off two-time reigning champion Penn State, 174-168. Additionally, Hassett, along with men's sabreists Barron Nydam and women's foilist Hayley Reese, became the 19th, 20th and 21st Irish fencers to be four-time All-America recipients.

FOUR-YEAR NCAA ALL-AMERICANS

The fencing program has played a lead role in Notre Dame's storied athletic history, which has produced 35 student-athletes who have been four-year All-Americans in the same sport (12 men's fencers, 12 women's fencers, four women's soccer players, five distance runners, a men's basketball player and a baseball player). Prior to freshman eligibility, foilist Jim Russamano ('58-'60) was Notre Dame fencing's only three-year All-American. In 2013, epeeist Courtney Hurley became the program's first four-time first-team All American since Alicja Kryczalo in 2005 (foil). She was followed a year later by Gerek Meinhardt, who claimed his second NCAA men's foil title with a 15-12 victory over David Willette.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

Notre Dame has been a member of four fencing conferences in the program's history. Prior to joining the Atlantic Coast Conference prior to the 2014-15 season, the Irish were members of the Great Lakes Conference (1974-91), the Midwest Intercollegiate Conference (1992-98) and the Midwest Fencing Conference (1999-2014). In its history of participating in conference championships, Notre Dame has captured 22 men's titles, 13 women's titles, 11 combined titles and 103 individual champions.

BYRON V. KANALEY AWARD

The most prestigious honor awarded to a Notre Dame student-athlete, the Byron V. Kanaley Award has been presented since 1927 to senior monogram athletes who have been exemplary as students and leaders. The awards are named in honor of a 1904 graduate who was a member of the Notre Dame baseball team, went on to a successful banking career in Chicago and served as a lay trustee from 1915 until his death in 1960. Fourteen members of the men's fencing team and seven women's fencers have received the award:
