CHICAGO – It is one of those games you carefully mark on your calendar because it is usually one of the highlights of the nonconference season.

No. 16/16 DePaul is set to renew its long-standing, traditional rivalry with Notre Dame at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday at Purcell Pavilion. The game is being televised on the ACC Network and is also available on ESPN3.

These are two elite programs who have left their imprint on the NCAA women's basketball landscape. Both are among just five teams (Connecticut, Stanford, Tennessee) that have advanced to the NCAA tournament the last 17 years.

Coach Doug Bruno and his Blue Demons come into the game with a 7-1 record including a big win over then-No. 16/17 Miami. Those results combined with their strength of schedule rewarded the program with the No. 7 ranking in the first NCAA RPI index released on Monday.

Four of the top 10 RPI teams are on DePaul's schedule---No. 1 Oregon State, No. 3 Connecticut, No. 9 Creighton and No. 10 Northwestern. The Blue Demons defeated Northwestern and fell to Oregon State with UConn coming up on next week Monday and Creighton twice during the BIG EAST season.

Heading up the attack are three players averaging in double figures, Chante Stonewall (17.4 points), Sonya Morris (16.5) and Lexi Held (14). Senior point guard and the glue of this team Kelly Campbell is scoring nearly eight points a game while leading DePaul in rebounding (7.4 per game) and assists (6.4 a game).

Dee Bekelja, Jolene Daninger and Keke Rimmer have been making timely contributions even as the team was further encouraged by the return of 6-foot, 2-inch Kiara Dallmann in last Saturday's 76-65 victory at Green Bay.

Dallmann had been sidelined by an injury forcing her to miss the first seven games. Her length, inside presence and shot-blocking capability helps to balance a guard-oriented attack.

points and 11.4 rebounds for her career while Holmes led the Redwings in scoring and three-point shooting.

Life At the Top: Since the BIG EAST realignment in 2013-14, DePaul is the league's winningest team going into 2019-20 with an impressive six-year record of 91-17 which translates to an .843 winning percentage... Villanova is second at 68-40 (.630) with Marquette No. 3 at 67-41 (.620)... the Blue Demons have won 14 or more out of 18 league games each season in the realigned conference.

BIG Numbers: DePaul leads the BIG EAST in scoring, three-pointers, three-points attempts, threes per game, assists, assists per game, offensive rebounds, steals, free throw percentage and turnover margin... Stonewall leads the league in steals while Campbell is third in steals... Campbell is No. 1 in assists and assist-turnover ratio.

What is "DePaulBall": Nickname given by TV broadcaster LaChina Robinson, "DePaulBall" is in-your-face swarming defense forcing turnovers, uptempo transition, finding the open player with the extra pass, making three-pointers and playing fearless.

Blue Demons On a Mission: Playing ball at DePaul can be much more than sharing the rock and knocking down threes... for example, freshman guard Marisa Warren from O'Fallon, Mo. is enrolled in the Air Force ROTC program at Illinois Institute of Technology and has already flown a plane... Warren's dream is to become a cargo pilot and take off on humanitarian missions to deliver supplies and relief goods to areas in need all over the globe... fellow freshman Kayla Caudle heads down to Haiti whenever she gets the chance to work at the Spirit of Truth Orphanage and School founded by her parents in 2003... the Caudles' fundraising resulted in a faith-based school that now serves more than 300 at-risk children... Kelly Campbell has spent parts of two summers on service missions to children's home and orphanages in Guatemala and the Dominican Republic where she did construction work around the orphanages and also worked in the fields.

Scouting Report: Notre Dame is having an uncharacteristic slow start at 5-6 having lost four of its last five games. The Fighting Irish have played four Top 25 teams so far with a victory over Michigan and losses to Connecticut, Tennessee and Michigan State. In the most recent game, ND fell to UConn 81-57 on the road. Katlyn Gilbert tops the Irish averaging 14.9 points a game while Anaya Peoples averages 13.8 points and 7.6 rebounds. Sam Brunelle scores 13 a game and Destinee Walker 12.5.

Wintrust Arena to Host 2020 BIG EAST Tournament

Wintrust Arena in the South Loop will be the home of the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament presented by Jeep for 2020 after hosting the 2019 NCAA Chicago Regional.

"We are very excited to bring the 2020 BIG EAST Tournament to Wintrust Arena, a spectacular addition to the Chicago sports and entertainment landscape," said BIG EAST Commissioner Val Ackerman. "We look forward to working with Jean Lenti Ponsetto and her staff at DePaul to produce a first-class event."

In six years since conference realignment, DePaul has won four tournament titles and five BIG EAST regular-season titles.

For the seventh consecutive year, FS1 and FS2 will provide coverage of the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament. FS2 will air the quarterfinal round on March 7, with games set for noon, 2:30, 6 and 8:30 p.m. (CT). FS1 picks up the remainder of the tournament, with the semifinals on March 8 slated for 5 and 7:30 p.m., and the championship game set to tip off at 7 p.m. on March 9. The BIG EAST Digital Network will air both first-round games on March 6.

"We are proud to host the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament," said DePaul Athletics Director Jean Lenti Ponsetto. "DePaul Athletics has had the good fortune to host several NCAA and BIG EAST women's basketball events and looks forward to hosting the BIG EAST Women's Tournament once again at Wintrust Arena. The excitement in the city for Wintrust Arena and coach Bruno's program are building as we welcome not only our team to Chicago's McCormick Square neighborhood, but also the entire BIG EAST."

Doug Bruno's powerful impact on the game he loves resonates across the entire spectrum of women's basketball as not only a highly successful college coach and staunch advocate of academics, but a passionate and undaunted promoter of the sport itself.

The former DePaul basketball player is heading into his 33rd season as the head coach at his alma mater. Born and raised in Chicago and a product of Quigley South High School, Bruno has transformed DePaul women's basketball into a perennial national power.

He has guided the Blue Demons to 16 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances after making the postseason in 2018---a feat only the NCAA elite of Connecticut, Notre Dame, Stanford, Tennessee and Oklahoma can also claim. Since his return in 1988, DePaul has won 641 games entering the 2018-19 season, competed in 23 NCAA Tournaments and four Sweet 16s (2006, 2011, 2014, 2016). Win No. 600 made Bruno the fourth active Division I coach to do so at the same school. Bruno has won 708 games as a head coach going into the 2018-19 season, 668 as DePaul's leader.

Bruno has worked with athletes at the highest level through his involvement with USA Basketball. Since 2009, Bruno has been an assistant coach for the USA Women's Basketball National Team. He has helped lead the USA to FIBA World Championships in 2010 and 2014, and to its fifth and sixth straight Olympic gold medals in London in 2012 and again in Rio in 2016. Bruno is the only coach to be recognized twice as USA Basketball's Developmental Coach of the Year after leading the U18 team in 2006 and the U19 team in 2007 to gold medals at the FIBA Americas and World Championships.

Bruno's influence on the game extends to the WNBA as a consultant to the Chicago Sky pro franchise. The WNBA has drafted 14 DePaul players including Allie Quigley (Chicago Sky).

DePaul has been ranked 11 times in the

HEAD COACH DOUG BRUNO 34TH YEAR AT DEPAUL

WBCA Academic Top 25 since 2006--No. 2 in 2013. DePaul won the BIG EAST Team Academic Award nine of the last 10 seasons. Bruno has been conference Coach of the Year numerous times. In 2005, Bruno was selected as Conference USA's Coach of the Decade. The IBCA has named him coach of the Year 22 times. He has been inducted into the DePaul Athletics Hall of Fame, Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame, IBCA Hall of Fame Italian-American Sports Hall of Fame. Bruno was also awarded the Leonardo Da Vinci Outstanding Achievement in Education Award by the Sons of Italy.

He completed a two-year term as president of the WBCA beginning in the summer of 2007. He was chairman of the WBCA/ State Farm All-American Committee and is the East Regional representative for the NCAA Division I Tournament selection. He serves on the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Committee. He has grown the women's game through his Doug Bruno Girls Basketball Camps and mentored over 75 000 young athletes.

He was associate head coach under Gene Sullivan at Loyola and won three conference titles, reaching the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1985. Bruno also spent two seasons as coach and player personnel director of the WBL's Chicago Hustle and won a division title in 1979.

He began his coaching career as an assistant coach in 1973 with Francis Parker boys team and coached St. Vincent de Paul's boys team in 1974-75.

He was a three-year letter winner for DePaul and Hall of Fame coach Ray Meyer after playing high school basketball at Quigley South for the legendary Dick Flaiz. Bruno was a two-year starter at DePaul and led the 1971-72 squad in assists. He received his B.A. in English in 1973, and later returned to earn his M.A. in English in 1988.

Doug and his wife Patty have six sons--- Bryan, Kevin, David, Brendan, Patrick and Bradley and are proud grandparents of 10.

No. 18/20 DePaul Signs Two Dynamic Recruits

CHICAGO – One of the nation’s top women’s basketball programs added two dynamic recruits Wednesday on the first day of the National Letter of Intent signing period that will help sustain a top 25 stature.

Coach Doug Bruno announced that No. 18/20 DePaul has received signed letters of intent from dominant Lake Park West guard Darrione Rogers and the driving force behind perennial state contender Benet---guard Kendall Holmes.

Just yesterday, Rogers was recognized among the top 50 high school players in the country with her selection to the Jersey Mike’s Naismith High School Girls Trophy watch list.

The 5-foot, 11-inch guard was an IBCA All-State First Team selection that has 1,258 points in her sophomore and junior years. For her Lancer career, she is averaging 26.6 points, 11.4 rebounds, four steals and 3.3 three-pointers per game.

She is the No. 51-ranked prospect in the country by ESPN and her junior-year highlights include 49 points against Hinsdale South and a 45-point, 21-rebound effort against Batavia.

Scouts describe the DuKane Conference Co-Player of the Year as among the elite scoring guards in the class of 2020 and a shot-maker off the dribble with a scorer’s mentality and green-light range beyond the arc. She plays for the Mac Irvin Lady Fire in the AAU season.

“Darrione Rogers has been recognized as one of the best players in the state of Illinois and in the nation,” said DePaul coach Doug Bruno. “While we are definitely excited about her talent, we are even more excited about her work ethic.

“She is a throwback in her beliefs and commitment to getting in the gym when no one is watching. Darrione can score the ball in a variety of different ways but is also an unselfish, great passer that plays right into our DePaulBall system.

"For helping to develop all those outstanding qualities, I’d like to thank Lake Park West head coach Brian Rupp and head coach Mac Irvin of the Mac Irvin Fire, her AAU team.”

That same Puritan work ethic is evident in the relentless 5-11 Holmes who led the Redwings to the Class 4A Final Four last season. She is the latest success story in a Benet program that won back-to-back 4A state titles in 2015 and 2016 and was ranked No. 15 in the nation by MaxPreps early in the 2018-19 season.

Holmes was an Associated Press and IBCA Class 4A second-team All-State selection as a junior after leading the state semifinalist in scoring at 11 points per game and also in three-point shooting with 50- of-125 (.400) along with converting 80 percent of her free throws.

As a sophomore, Holmes was a state finalist in the Class 4A Queen of the Hill three-point shooting contest.

She was named to the All-East Suburban Catholic Conference Team as a junior and the DuPage County, Naperville Sun and My Suburban Life All-Area teams. She was equally competitive in the classroom with a 3.89/4.00 grade-point average and a 27 score on the ACT.

“Kendall Holmes has been the best player on one of the best programs in the state after winning back- to-back titles in 2015 and 2016,” Bruno said. “She is simply a tough, all-purpose guard who can score the ball deep, get to the rim, facilitate and do all the little things that make players special.

“Kendall also brings a work ethic and a drive to improve that is still so necessary in today’s highly successful, modern student-athlete. For helping Kendall develop and take her game to the next level, I’d like to thank Benet head coach Joe Kilbride and head coach Ryan Haun of M14 Hoops, her AAU program.”
