LAST MEETING WITH NOTRE DAME

PITTSBURGH – The Panthers saw their ferocious come-from-behind attempt come up just short on Thursday night in their second ACC contest of the season as the Notre Dame Fighting Irish squeaked by the Panthers at the Petersen Events Center, 60-52. The Panthers grabbed a season-high 53 rebounds in the losing effort, the most in a game by Pitt since Jan. 10, 2016 when they notched 61 boards against NC State.

The difference in the game for Notre Dame was forcing Pitt turnovers and cashing in on those opportunities as they forced 21 mishaps by the Panthers and they scored 18 points off of those chances. Pitt was only able to net nine points off of 16 Notre Dame turnovers in the eight-point loss. The Irish also dominated the paint, outscoring the Panthers 40-22 down low.

Both teams struggled offensively in the first quarter as they the Fighting Irish used a layup at the buzzer to send it to the second all square, 8-8, despite a pair of triples from Gabbie Green to open things up.

The second quarter proved to be the turning point for the Irish as they were able to outscore Pitt 22-14 in the second frame. The two teams began the quarter by exchanging some buckets before Emy Hayford was able to net a pair of free throws to tie things up, 16-16, midway through the quarter. After a quick run by the Irish, Hayford again responded with a layup in the paint after a great feed from Brown to cut the Irish lead to two, 24-22. Unfortunately for the Panthers they wouldn't score again in the quarter as the Irish closed the half on a 6-0 run to take the 30-22 lead into the locker room. For the quarter, Pitt had eight turnovers which turned into 11 Notre Dame points.

After a disastrous start to the third quarter saw the Irish race out to a 17-point lead, 41-24, Pitt began to claw their way back into the contest on the heels of some strong rebounding and defense. The Panthers responded with an 8-0 spurt as Green knocked down her third triple of the game and Rita Igbokwe grabbed an offensive rebound and finished off the layup to cut the Irish lead to nine, 41-32, with two minutes to play in the third. The Irish scored the next five but Harris and Brown netted back-to-back layups to close out the quarter with Pitt trailing by 10, 46-36.

Pitt continued to creep back into the game early in the fourth quarter as Igbokwe finished off a pair of layups inside the paint and Aysia Bugg knocked down a pair of free throws to cut the Notre Dame lead to four, 48-44, with eight minutes to play. Brown then connected on two free throws to get Pitt within three, 51-48, midway through the final quarter but the home team wasn't able to get any closer down the stretch. Pitt went just 1-for-18 from the floor down the stretch as the Irish were able to escape with the 60-52 win.

Brown continued her great play for the Panthers on Thursday night as she netted her fifth double-double of the season with 12 points, 11 rebounds and three assists. The three assists tied a career-high and her 11 rebounds give her seven games with 10+ boards this season. Green led the Panthers in scoring for the third time this season as she netted 13 points and three rebounds while knocking down a trio of three-pointers across 36 minutes of work.

Harris had a solid game off the bench as she netted nine points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals while Hayford finished off her night with eight points and six rebounds across 18 minutes of work. Igbokwe was a monster down low as she netted six points, eight rebounds and four rejections in the loss.

As a team, Pitt shot just 25.4% from the floor while holding the Irish to just 33.3% shooting in the loss. The Panthers won the rebounding battle 53-46 while snagging 21 offensive rebounds, 19 in the second half, and turned those chances into 15 second chance points.

LANCE WHITE

HEAD COACH | 2ND SEASON | TEXAS TECH '96

Lance White enters his second season at the helm of the Panthers in 2019-20 after being named as the ninth head coach in Pitt women's basketball history on April 19, 2018.

Heading into the 2019-20 campaign, White will be looking for major impacts from his first signing class, a highly-touted class of seven student-athletes. A pair of transfers and five freshman highlight a class that White is hoping will turn the Pitt program back into an ACC and national contender.

The five player freshmen class consists of 2000+ point scorer Dayshanette Harris, Arkansas State Champion and All-State performer Amber Brown, three star forward Rita Igbokwe and a pair of International student-athletes, Emy Hayford (Netherlands) and Cynthia Ezeja (Greece).

The two transfers include NJCAA All-American Gabbie Green and center Marcel-la Lamark who comes to Pitt from Texas Tech.

White notched his first career head coaching victory in the Panthers second game of the season on Nov. 9, 2018 as he led Pitt to the dominant 90-38 victory over New Orleans, their seventh largest defeat in program history and their largest in over a decade.

White collected his first ACC victory on Feb. 14, 2019 when the Panthers knocked off the North Carolina Tar Heels inside the Petersen Events Center, 91-78. The 91 points scored for the Panthers were their most scored in a game since 2014 and their most ever in an ACC contest. Another historic win for the Panthers during White's first season was the road victory over Duquesne in the City Game as they downed the Dukes by the score of 66-58.

With White at the helm, Pitt upped its offensive efficiency as they had four players average over 9.5 points/game including leading scorer Danielle Garven who finished off her impressive senior campaign averaging a career-high 11.8 points and 4.3 rebounds. Fellow senior Cassidy Walsh also had a great season under White's watchful eye as she quadrupled her scoring production from her junior season, averaging a career-high 9.7 points/game for the Panthers. Pitt also posted the fourth best season in school history from behind the arc as they connected on 32.7% from behind the arc while also bumping up their rebounding average to 35.5 rebounds/game.

Off the court, White had a pair of student-athletes, Jasmine Whitney and Cassidy Walsh, named to the All-ACC Academic Team, the most for Pitt since 2015 when they placed three on the team.

THE WHITE FILE COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Earned first career victory as a head coach on Nov. 9, 2018 as Pitt downed New Orleans 90-38.
- Notched his first ACC of his head coaching career on Feb. 14, 2019 as the Panthers beat North Carolina, 91-78 at the Petersen Events Center.
- Named WBCA National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2017.

White came to Pitt after spending 15 years at Florida State, where he helped the Seminoles to a 350-145 (.707) record, including 12 seasons of 20+ wins.

During his final season at Florida State (2017-18), the Seminoles posted 25 or more wins for the fourth consecutive season, finishing with a 26-7 overall record and averaged the second-most points in a season in program history with 81.0 points per game. It was just the second time FSU averaged 80 or more points per game in a season. He was a student assistant on Tech's 1993 national championship team and a graduate assistant coach for two seasons before being elevated to a full-time coach in 1998.

While in Lubbock, White worked with some of the best players the game has ever seen, including National Player of the Year and three-time WNBA MVP Sheryl Swoopes as well as Plenette Pierson, who was named 2007 WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Texas Tech, White earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He went on to receive a master's degree in sports administration in August 1998. He attended Lubbock Christian University for three semesters before transferring to Texas Tech in January 1993.
