GAME INFO

TAR HEELS AND FIGHTING IRISH

- North Carolina and Notre Dame meet for the 21st time in a series that began in 1949.
- Notre Dame leads the series 18-2-0. Both Carolina victories occurred in Chapel Hill. The Tar Heels scored a 12-7 decision in 1960 and beat the Fighting Irish, 29-24, in 2008.
- This will be just the the second game in the series when both teams are ranked. In the only previous time in 1950, No. 1 Notre Dame won 14-7 over No. 20 UNC in South Bend.
- In the previous 20 meetings, Notre Dame has been ranked in 13 of those. The Irish was ranked No. 1 in the country in three of the previous meetings and in the top 10 on eight occasions.
- North Carolina faced Notre Dame every season from 1949 to 1956 and 12 times between 1949 and 1962. This season will be the fourth meeting since 2006.

LAST TIME OUT

- Sam Howell set school records for passing yards (550), total touchdowns (7) and passing touchdowns (6) in leading Carolina to a 59-53 victory over Wake Forest on Saturday, Nov. 14.
- Notre Dame extended the nation's longest winning streak to 14 games following a 45-31 win at Boston College on Nov. 14. Brian Kelly recorded his 100th career win at Notre Dame, tying Lou Holtz for the second most all-time wins in program history.

BROWN VS. NOTRE DAME

- Mack Brown has never faced Notre Dame in his head coaching career that spans 32 seasons.

UP NEXT

- Carolina hosts Western Carolina on Dec. 5.

2020-21 ACC MEDIA PORTAL & ACC DIGITAL LICENSE

ACC MEDIA PORTAL (Highlights & Press Conferences): The ACC and XOS Digital have partnered to provide individual highlight packages from all ACC-controlled regular season football and men's basketball games to approved TV news affiliates for the 2020-21 seasons. Upon the conclusion of each game, highlights will be available for local TV news affiliates to download and use in televised news programming at no cost. Outlets may access the highlights, along with any weekly head coach press conferences, through the ACC Media Portal. This portal replaces the ACC Video Clip Service (AVCS). The use of ACC game highlights provided through the ACC Media Portal remain subject to those restrictions outlined in the ACC News Access Guidelines. Interested affiliates should email licensing@xosdigital.com to register for the ACC Media Portal and for additional information. Approved affiliates will receive a confirmation email along with credentials to access the ACC Media Portal.

ACC DIGITAL LICENSE: Per the ACC News Access Guidelines, game footage (station shot or broadcast) may not be distributed through digital platforms without a license. The ACC and XOS Digital now offer a turnkey digital highlight license specifically designed for local TV affiliates. This license will cover the use of ACC game footage across official station websites, apps, and social media platforms. Distribution of in-game highlights on any platform during the broadcast window is strictly prohibited, regardless of a digital license. Interested affiliates should email licensing@xosdigital.com to receive more information or to purchase a digital license.

ACC DIGITAL CONTENT: Agencies with interest in accessing or licensing ACC digital content beyond what is provided for in the ACC News Access Guidelines and as set forth in the preceding paragraphs should contact Chad Swofford, Senior Director of New Media and Business Development at Raycom Sports, at cswofford@raycomsports.com.

KOMAN GAME PLAN/BLUEPRINT 919

• The University of North Carolina football program has launched the Bill Koman Game Plan for Success and its branding initiative, Blueprint 919, to provide football student-athletes the skill set to thrive on and off the field, while providing resources to understand and effectively navigate potential name, image and likeness opportunities that may arise in the future.

• The Koman Game Plan for Success, which was created thanks to a generous gift from Jim and Jennifer Koman in honor of Jim's father Bill, follows the motto of the football program; attending Carolina is not a four-year decision, it's a 40-year decision. It provides training and support for football student-athletes throughout their time at Carolina and into their post-graduate lives. Programming centers on preparing student-athletes for their college career and beyond through academic assessment, study and learning skills preparation, leadership development, community involvement and career opportunities.

• To complement the personal development initiatives in the Koman Game Plan for Success, the football program has developed a unique branding initiative, Blueprint 919, which will combine both internal and external experts to develop and foster each individual's personal brand. The branding program contained in Blueprint 919 seeks to help football student-athletes determine who they are, define their key traits, develop their image, recognize their target audiences, and maximize their external presence.

• To learn more about these programs, visit goheels.com/KGPS-Blueprint919.

CHRIS SMITH FIELD AT KENAN STADIUM

• The Eddie and Jo Allison Smith Foundation made a transformational gift in 2020 to support the Carolina football program with resources to build on its recent success and secure future excellence. The field at Kenan Stadium is now Chris Smith Field, recognizing the Smith Family and their son Chris, a 1987 graduate of Carolina.

• The family foundation is headed by longtime Carolina leader and benefactor Eddie Smith Jr. '65 of Greenville, North Carolina, and was cofounded with his late wife Jo Allison Smith. Their gift will support staffing needs, fund facility improvements and help build an endowment to cover future operating costs.

CAROLINA ALL-AMERICANS

• The Carolina football program has developed 69 student-athletes, who combined to earn 86 All-America honors. Of those 86 honors, 16 were earned under Mack Brown's guidance from 1988-97. Of note, current cornerbacks coach Dre Bly garnered three first-team honors, two of which came with Brown at the helm.

CAROLINA AND THE NFL DRAFT

• The Carolina football program has produced 248 NFL Draft picks. Of those selections, the Tar Heels have produced 24 first-round selections, which are the most of any school in the state of North Carolina, ahead of NC State (17), Duke (6) and Wake Forest (5).

FAMILY AFFAIR

• The UNC football lettermen have taken to calling themselves the Carolina Football Family, and nowhere is that more evident than this year's roster. The 2020 Tar Heels have two sets of brothers and four players who are sons of former Tar Heels, who all played for Mack Brown. The Fox brothers, Tomon and Tomari, are a pair of defensive menaces from Lawrenceville, Ga, while Dyami and Khafre Brown are two dynamic wide receivers from Charlotte. In addition, cornerbacks coach Dre Bly is the uncle of freshman wide receiver Josh Downs.

• As for the second generation Tar Heels, Jefferson Boaz's father Jay Boaz played for Coach Brown at UNC from 1991-94. Christopher Holliday is the son of Tar Heel great and current Associate Athletic Director for Football Corey Holliday (1990-93). Jeffrey Saturday is the son of Jeff Saturday, who played at Carolina from 1994-97; and Will Crowley is the son of Pat Crowley, who spent his time at UNC from 1986-89.

BARTON, PEPPERS NAMED ON HOF BALLOT

• Carolina legends Harris Barton and Julius Peppers are included on the 2021 ballot for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

• Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle as one of the best offensive linemen ever to play in college football. A first-team All-American in 1986, Barton was named first team All-ACC as a senior when he led an offensive line that helped Carolina rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense.

• Peppers played in Chapel Hill from 1999-2001 becoming one of the most disruptive defensive players the sport has ever seen. A unanimous first-team All-American in 2001, he won the Chuck Bednarik Award for the nation's top defensive player and the Rotary Lombardi Award, which at the time was given to the nation's top interior lineman. He finished 10th in the Heisman Trophy balloting, was a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy and was honored as Chevrolet's Defensive Player of the Year.

• An announced is expected in early 2021.

MACK FACTS

ACTIVE CAREER WINS LEADER

With 257 career victories, Mack Brown has produced the most wins of any active coach in the nation. He is trailed by Nick Saban at Alabama (249), Brian Kelly at Notre Dame (247), Willie Fritz at Tulane (179), and Gary Patterson at TCU (175). Brown's 257 wins rank ninth on the NCAA all-time list for coaches with at least 10 years at an FBS institution. He has won 158 games at Texas, 82 at UNC, 11 at Tulane and six at Appalachian State.

ONE OF SIX WITH A TITLE

Mack Brown is one of only six active head coaches who has won a National Championship. Brown, who won the title with Texas following the 2005 season, is accompanied by Jimbo Fisher (Texas A&M), Les Miles (Kansas), Ed Orgeron (LSU), Nick Saban (Alabama) and Dabo Swinney (Clemson).

BROWN BECOMES UNC'S WINS LEADER

Mack Brown took over as the Tar Heels' all-time wins leader after the 20-17 victory over Duke on Oct 26, 2019. Brown's 73rd win surpassed Dick Crum, who posted 72 victories from 1978-87.

10-WIN SEASONS

Mack Brown has led his teams to 12 seasons of 10 or more victories during his career. He led UNC to three 10-win campaigns in his first stint with the program before guiding Texas to nine consecutive seasons of 10 wins or more. Brown posted his first 10-win season in 1993 and the Tar Heels went on to post 10 wins in 1996 and '97.

BROWN IN THE POLLS

Mack Brown-led teams have finished ranked in the final Top 25 polls 16 times during his coaching career. He led Texas to 12 Top-25 finishes and UNC to four. Of the 16 occasions, Brown's teams have finished in the Top 10 nine times, including six Top-5 finishes.

BROWN AND THE NFL DRAFT

Mack Brown has produced 110 NFL Draft picks, including 22 first-round selections and 15 second-round picks. During his first stint at UNC, Brown guided 47 players who would go on to be drafted, including six first rounders and seven second rounders. Of note, Brown's 1996 Carolina roster saw 22 players go on to have their names called at the NFL Draft.

SCORING SPREE

• UNC is second in the ACC to Clemson in scoring offense with 43.1 points per game. That figure is 7th nationally among teams playing at least four games.

• Carolina ranks fourth nationally and leads the ACC with 563.4 yards per game of total offense.

• UNC is on pace to shatter the school record of 486.9 yards per game set in 2015.

• The Heels are 10th in the country with 233.5 rushing yards per game among teams that have played at least four games.

• UNC set the school record with 742 total yards of offense against Wake Forest, breaking the previous record of 721 vs. ODU in 2013.

• UNC has gained 500 or more yards in six-straight games. That's the first time it's happened in at least 50 years, dating back to existing records that begin in 1971.

• Carolina has more than 400 yards of total offense in each of its last 16 games.

• UNC has scored 40 or more points in four-straight games and seven times in the last 11 games dating back to 2019. That's the most consecutive games with 40 or more points since 1914 when Carolina did that in 6 straight.

• This is the second season in Carolina history the Tar Heels have scored 50 or more points against three ACC opponents. 2015 was the other.

TWO-BACK SYSTEM

• Carolina boasts the top running back tandem in all of college football in the likes of senior Michael Carter and junior Javonte Williams.

• Carter and Williams combine for the most yards from scrimmage (268.9) by a running back duo since USC's 2005 combo of Reggie Bush and LenDale White (287.6).

• Carter and Williams are the only pair of teammates nationally to average more than 100 yards rushing per game. The two have combined to average 209.4 yards on the ground this season. Among ACC backs, Williams leads with 108.5 yards per game, while Carter is 4th with 100.9 yards.

• Williams' 18 total TDs (15 rush, three receiving) are the most in the country. Alabama's Najee Harris has 16 rushing TDs and Iowa State's Breece Hall has 16 total TDs (15ru/1re).

• Carter and Williams are the only players nationally with 800+ rushing yards and 200+ receiving yards. Williams is fifth nationally with 1,115 scrimmage yards (868 rush, 247 receiving), while Carter is 9th with 1,036 (807ru, 229re).

• Carter is 9th nationally with 149.0 all-purpose yards per game (min. 4 games played).

• Williams has scored a rushing TD in eight-straight games, the longest streak at UNC since Giovanni Bernard in 2012 (8 straight games).

• Williams and Carter rank No. 1 and No. 5 in the nation in rushes of 10 or more yards, respectively. Williams tops the list with 35, while Carter checks in with 27.

• 62 of their 236 carries (26.2%) have gone for 10 or more yards this season.

• Williams leads the nation with 58 first downs

• Williams leads the nation with 62 avoided tackles this season. The next closest player is 49 by Iowa State's Breece Hall. Carter is 16th with 32.

• Williams tied a school record with four first-half touchdowns at Duke. Williams became the first ACC player in the last 20 seasons with 150+ rushing yards, 3 rushing TD and a receiving TD in a game against the Blue Devils.

• Against Virginia Tech, Carter (229) and Williams (224) became the first pair of Power 5 teammates to post at least 224 yards from scrimmage since Michael Crabtree (237) and Danny Amendola (233) did it for Texas Tech in 2007.

• Carter and Williams combined for 475 all-purpose yards against Virginia Tech. That is the most by a pair of running backs in the ACC going back at least 15 seasons.

• Carter rushed for a career-high 214 yards against Virginia Tech. He averaged a school-record 12.6 yards per carry (min. 15 attempts) to break the record of Gio Bernard, who averaged 11.4 vs. the Hokies in 2012.

• Williams also set a new career high with 169 rushing yards against VT. They are the first pair of Tar Heels to rush for 160 or more yards in the same game, and the first pair of 100-yard backs for UNC since Elijah Hood gained 220 and T.J. Logan had 100 yards vs. NC State in 2015.

• The two star backs combined to rush for 1,936 yards one year ago. Carter led the way with 1,003 yards, while Williams wasn't far behind with 933 yards of his own - both career highs.

• Carter began his senior campaign on the watch list for the Hornung Award (most versatile player) and both backs are listed on the Doak Walker Award Watch List for the top running back.

• Williams was added to the Maxwell Award Watch List in mid November.

AERIAL ATTACK

• Sam Howell leads the ACC with 23 passing touchdowns (T4th nationally) and 328.9 passing yards per game.

• Howell has thrown 13 touchdown passes over the last three games, and seven of those strikes have gone for 20 yards or longer.

• Howell found Khafre Brown for a 76-yard TD against Virginia, the longest pass of his career, and hit Dyami Brown for a 54-yard TD against the Hokies.

• Howell ranks top-5 nationally with 105 passes of 10+ yards, 40 passes of 20+ yards, 23 passes of 30+ yards and 12 passes 40+ yards. His six passes of 50+ yards ranks 6th.

UNC SCHEDULE NOTES

- North Carolina's 11 opponents combined for a 75-66 (.532) record in 2019.
- Eight of the 11 opponents competed in a bowl game during the 2019 campaign: Boston College (Birmingham), Charlotte (Bahamas), Florida State (Sun Bowl), Miami (Independence), Notre Dame (Camping World), Virginia (Orange), Virginia Tech (Belk) and Wake Forest (Pinstripe).
- The Tar Heels will open the season with a home conference game for the first time since 2003 vs. Florida State.
- Boston College: This is just the third game the Tar Heels have ever played in Chestnut Hill, Mass., and the first since a 31-13 win in 2009.
- Florida State: UNC's first trip to Tallahassee since the last-second Nick Weiler field goal that lifted Carolina to a thrilling 37-35 win during the 2016 season.
- Syracuse: The first visit to Kenan Stadium since the Orange joined the ACC. The last time Syracuse played in Chapel Hill was a 49-47 three-overtime classic that went to the visitors in 2003.
- Wake Forest: After playing a non-conference game last season in Winston-Salem, 2020 marks the first time the two in-state foes will play in back-to-back seasons since 2011 and 2012.

- Howell and Dazz Newsome hooked up for a pair of 75-yard and 44-yard TDs against Wake.
- Dyami Brown, who tied the school record with 12 receiving TDs in 2019, has hauled in eight touchdowns in the last six weeks.
- Brown's 21 career receiving TDs are tied for the second most in program history.
- Brown's 240 receiving yards at Virginia were the second highest single-game total in program history.
- Dazz Newsome notched a career-high 189 receiving yards and scored twice through the air against Wake Forest.
- Newsome is tied ninth at UNC with 16 receiving touchdowns.
- Beau Corrales averaged 35.3 yards per catch at Florida State. He had a career-high 141 yards and scored his 12th career TD.

CONVERTING ON OFFENSE

- Carolina is second in the ACC to Notre Dame in third-down conversions at 48.9 percent.
- The Tar Heels lead the league in touchdown percentage in the red zone at 73.7 percent.

MEET YOU AT THE QUARTERBACK

- Carolina is fourth in the league with 27 sacks this season. That figure is only four shy of last season's total with at least three games remaining on the 2020 schedule.

WINNING THE 4Q

- Carolina has picked up right where it left off in 2019 by dominating its opponents in the fourth quarter.
 - Carolina is +64 in 2020 thus far in the fourth.
 - Last season, Carolina ranked third in the FBS (1st ACC) with a +69 (120-51) point differential in the fourth quarter. UNC ranked ninth worst in FBS in 2017-18 at -72.
 - For his career, Sam Howell is 88 of 133 (66.2%) for 1,430 yards and 17 TDs (0 INTs) in the fourth quarter.
 - Howell is 26 of 40 for 483 yards and five touchdowns in the fourth quarter this season, and was 62 of 93 for 947 yards and 12 TDs (0 INTs) in the fourth quarter during his Freshman All-America season. He ranked second nationally in TD passes and third in passing yards in the fourth quarter in 2019.
 - Howell has still yet to throw an interception in the fourth quarter in his collegiate career.
 - Javonte Williams leads the nation with 236 rushing yards and six rushing touchdowns in the fourth quarter this season.
- Top 4th Quarter Scoring Margin (FBS since – 2019)
- | | |
|-----------------------|-------------|
| North Carolina | +133 |
| Appalachian State | +84 |
| Clemson | +89 |
| Ohio State | +71 |

DOWNING THE DEMON DEACONS

- Carolina rallied from a 21-point deficit, which matches the largest comeback and is the largest second-half comeback, in UNC football history.
- Wake Forest led 45-24 with 4:44 to play in the third quarter before the Tar Heels scored 35 consecutive points to take a 59-45 lead. UNC also trailed at Georgia Tech by 21 points in a 38-31 Tar Heel victory in 2015. The Yellow Jackets led UNC 21-0 in the second quarter in that game.
- This was the 108th time Carolina and Wake Forest played in football. With the win, UNC leads the series 70-36-2.
- The 59 points are the most Carolina has scored against Wake Forest in an ACC game. The previous high was 50 in 1994 and 2015. UNC scored 65 against Wake Forest in 1928 and 62 in 1922 prior to the start of the ACC.
- The 112 combined points are the second most in a UNC football game and the second-most ever at Kenan Stadium. This was the fifth time UNC played in a game with 100 or more combined points and was the most combined points in any Tar Heel victory. This was the second time this season UNC played a game at Kenan Stadium in which the teams combined for 100 or more points (also vs. Virginia Tech on October 10).

DUKE DOMINATION

- Carolina had 573 total yards of offense against Duke, the fifth-straight game going over 500 yards for the first time in at least 50 years, dating back to available records that begin in 1971.
- The 56 points scored were the second most ever away from home against Duke.
- Carolina's 42 points in the first half were the most in a half against a Power 5 team since scoring 52 first-half points against Duke on Nov. 18, 2000.
- UNC scored a touchdown on its opening drive for the sixth time in seven games.
- Javonte Williams became the first Tar Heel to score four touchdowns in a game since Hakeem Nicks against Boston College in 2008. The four first-half TDs tied Kelvin Bryant (ECU, 1981) for the most in program history for a half.
- The defense had five sacks, led by Chris Collins with two.

VETTING THE VIRGINIA GAME

- Sam Howell was 23 of 28 for 443 yards and four passing TDs. The 443 yard are the most in his collegiate career and third most in program history. Howell has six of the top 25 single-game passing totals in Tar Heel history.
- Dyami Brown had a career-high 11 catches for 240 yards and three receiving TDs. He has 442 yards and six TDs over the last two seasons against the Cavaliers.

SORTING OUT NC STATE

- For just the second time in school history, the Tar Heels had two rushers over 100 yards (160 by Javonte Williams, 106 by Michael Carter), a 100-yard receiver (105 by Dyami Brown) and a passer with 200 yards (252 by Sam Howell). The only other time was against Maryland in 1993 (Curtis Johnson and Leon Johnson were the rushers, Jason Stanicek the quarterback and both Bucky Brooks and Corey Holliday the receivers).
- Carolina is 3-0 against NC State when both teams are ranked in the AP poll.
- The 27-point victory over No. 23 NC State is UNC's largest win over an AP-ranked opponent since a 38-3 win over No. 13 Clemson in 2001. This is UNC's third-largest win ever over a ranked team (also a 41-9 win over No. 6 Florida State in 2001).
- Carolina rushed for 326 yards and passed for 252. NC State passed for 358, but the Tar Heel defense allowed only 34 rushing yards.
- NC State's 34 rushing yards were the fewest allowed by the Tar Heels since holding Rutgers to one yard on Sept. 10, 2011.
- The 48 points scored by the Tar Heels were the most against NC State since 1996, when UNC produced 52.
- Carolina's 34 first downs were a season-high and its possession time of 39:08 is also the best so far in 2020.

FSU FALLOUT

- UNC's defense pitched a shutout in the second half to get within 31-28, after trailing 31-7 at halftime.
- The offense managed 558 total yards with Sam Howell throwing for 374 yards, second most in his collegiate career. He had 283 yards alone after halftime.

CLOSE CALLS

- Since the return of Mack Brown to take over the program in 2019, Carolina owns a 13-8 overall record.
- All eight losses have been by seven points or less with two setbacks coming in overtime.
- Both losses in 2020 have come by a mere three points at FSU and at Virginia.
- Nine of Carolina's 13 games in 2019 were decided by seven points or fewer. That was the most by any team in the AP Poll era going back to 1936.
- UNC lost 43-41 in six overtimes at Virginia Tech in the longest game in ACC history.
- Carolina won 20-17 over Duke, marking the first time since 2010 that three or more wins have come by four points or less.

THROWING RECORDS OUT THE WINDOW

- Carolina and Virginia Tech flashed on offense all game long in what turned out to be a record-setting game by ACC standards on Oct. 10.
- The 101 combined points were the most ever scored in a game that featured both conference teams ranked in the AP poll.
- The 56 points were the most UNC has ever scored against an AP-ranked opponent. The previous high was 45 on three occasions (No. 17 Pitt in 1974, No. 23 Boston College in 2008 and No. 25 Duke in 2014).

HAMMERING THE HOKIES

- Carolina's 656 yards of total offense was the fifth highest total in school history and third most in an ACC game.
- The 656 yards are the second most ever allowed by Virginia Tech (Alabama gained 833 in 1973).
- UNC rushed for 399 yards, its highest total against an ACC opponent since 1988 against Duke (408) and most in any game since 1993 versus Ohio (432).

JAVONTE'S HARD TO HANDLE

- Junior RB Javonte Williams was a lightly-recruited back out of Wallace, N.C. despite rushing for over 2,000 yards and 27 TDs, while leading Wallace-Rose Hill to its fourth-straight state championship.
- In fact, his only scholarship offer was from East Carolina before UNC's staff jumped in. Not only was Williams an excellent athlete, but he was Valedictorian of his high school class.
- He produced over 5 yards after contact on 30.8% of his runs in 2019, the second-highest rate in the FBS behind only Clemson's Travis Etienne. Overall, Williams broke an impressive 56 tackles on 165 carries, according to PFF.

NO TD'S ALLOWED

- Carolina's defense did not surrender a touchdown against Syracuse in the season opener, the first time since shutting out Idaho, 66-0, on Sept. 9, 2012.
- It was the fewest points allowed against an ACC opponent since Duke scored six on Nov. 7, 2009.

SIBLING RIVALRIES

- Carolina features a pair of brothers that have played critical roles in 2020. On offense, wide receivers Dyami Brown and Khafre Brown have combined for 57 catches, 1,102 receiving yards and 10 TDs.
- Tomon and Tomari Fox have wreaked havoc on defense for the Tar Heels. The two standouts have totaled 8.5 sacks, 14.0 TFL and 63 tackles thus far in 2020.

HOWELL, SURRATT LAND ON ESPN TOP 50

- Carolina is among a group of 15 programs that placed multiple players on ESPN's annual ranking of the top 50 players in college football.
- QB Sam Howell checked in at No. 22, while LB Chazz Surratt is listed at No. 43.
- Among ACC schools, Clemson, Florida State, Miami, Wake Forest and the Tar Heels each have two players on the list. Louisville and Pitt have one player each on the list.

SENIOR BOWL WATCH LIST

- Michael Carter, Dazz Newsome and Chazz Surratt have been placed on the 2021 Reese's Senior Bowl Top 250 Watch List. All three players were named All-ACC as juniors in 2019.
- After posting career high figures in rushing (1,003) and all-purpose (1,623) yards in 2019, Carter has been tabbed for the Doak Walker (top running back) and Paul Hornung Award (top versatile player) Watch Lists this fall.

- Newsome was a second-team All-ACC selection after hauling in 10 receiving touchdowns and 1,018 receiving yards, both career highs, in 2019. He is listed on the 2020 Biletnikoff Award Watch List, given annually to the season's outstanding FBS receiver.
- Surratt was the runner-up for ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors last season after recording 115 tackles in his first season at linebacker. The converted quarterback finds himself on the watch lists for the Bednarik, Butkus and Nagurski awards.

SURRATT THE LINEBACKER

- Junior Chazz Surratt made the decision at the end of the 2018 season that his best opportunity to keep playing football after college was to switch from quarterback to linebacker.
- An interesting choice from a player who once held the state of North Carolina's record for total offense. In his first game after the switch, Surratt, a Denver, N.C. product, was called upon to start against South Carolina at LB in the 2019 opener, a position he hadn't played since his freshman year of high school and hadn't played a full game at since middle school.
- Surratt went on to have a stellar 2019, finishing runner-up as ACC Defensive Player of the Year and was named first-team All-ACC.
- Entering 2020, Surratt has received plenty of buzz in the preseason. He has been named to the watch lists for the Bednarik Award, Butkus Award, Lott Trophy and Nagurski Trophy. He is also a preseason first-team All-America selection by CBS Sports, Sporting News and Street & Smith's.

SURRATT AMONG MOST EXCITING CFB PLAYERS

- Chazz Surratt is the No. 12 most exciting player in college football according to ESPN. According to ESPN staff writer Alex Scarborough, the qualifications are simple: If you can't take your eye off them, they qualify.
- The converted quarterback turned linebacker was sensational last season as a junior ranking second in the ACC with 115 tackles. Now cross-training this offseason as an edge rusher, Surratt could make an even bigger impact as a senior in 2020.

ASANTE DRAWS INSPIRATION FROM BROTHER

- Sophomore LB Eugene Asante has enjoyed a strong preseason and Mack Brown has spoken numerous times about his growth in his second season with the Tar Heels.
- In fact, his development has allowed the coaching staff to move Chazz Surratt outside as a possible edge rusher this fall.
- Asante draws inspiration from his older brother, Larry Asante, who played at Nebraska and then spent six years in the NFL, before seeing his career end in 2015 when he was cut by the Oakland Raiders.

- "His career didn't end the way me and my family dreamed of ... I need to go 110 percent because in the real world your dreams can get cut at any time."

BROWN, NEWSOME BREAK OUT IN 2019

- Dazz Newsome had a breakout year in 2019, raising his receiving grade from 67.3 to 84.7 according to Pro Football Focus. He was one of the biggest deep threats in the slot in college football, logging the most deep catches of 20-plus yards with 13 and tying for the most deep touchdowns in the slot with six. Dating back to 2018, Newsome has been one of the most elusive receivers in the college game by breaking an incredible rate of tackles after the catch (45 broken on 134 catches).
- While Newsome put up numbers in the slot, Brown did the same on the outside. Brown produced nine deep touchdowns on the outside, which trailed only LSU's Ja'Marr Chase and was three more than anyone else in the FBS in 2019. Brown was also one of the most difficult receivers to face in contested situations — Brown hauled in the 11th-best rate of contested catches at 61.9%.

GROVES GIVEN MUSCLE MILK

MALE ATHLETE OF THE YEAR AWARD

- Wide receiver Rontavius 'Toe' Groves was awarded the Muscle Milk Male Athlete of the Year award in May 2019, presented by the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitians Association (CPSDA). The award recognizes one male and one female collegiate, Olympic, professional or tactical (military, police or fire) athlete whose athletic accomplishments reflect dedication to sports nutrition. Groves was nominated by Director of Sports Nutrition Kelsee Gomes.
- Through a diligent regimen of high-protein, high-carbohydrate diet supplemented with high-calorie shakes, Groves has transformed his body from a 160-pound incoming freshman to a 187-pound junior. He took advantage of UNC's nutrition program after suffering patellar tendon injuries in the spring of his redshirt freshman season (2016) and during the 2017 campaign.

KIERNAN'S DUBLIN BEGINNINGS

- Sophomore punter Ben Kiernan played his high school football at Raleigh's Wakefield High School, but he didn't arrive in the U.S. until he was 15. Kiernan spent the first decade and a half of his life in Dublin, Ireland, where he played rugby and soccer. Seeking more opportunities and better colleges, Kiernan's parents decided to move to the Raleigh area. After moving just two weeks prior to the start of the 8th grade, Kiernan's father Mike had a chance encounter with the football coach at Food Lion and he told him to have Ben try out for football, where he would punt a football for the first time.
- Kiernan's twin older brothers, Tom and Jack, played rugby at NC State.
- Kiernan's 13-year-old sister Freya is in a lifetime battle with cerebral palsy. The Kiernan's adopted Freya, who was born in China, when she was nine months old.

SAM HOWELL SOPHOMORE SUPERLATIVES

- Sam Howell's 23 touchdown passes are tied for fourth in the country and leads the ACC.

- Sam Howell set UNC single-game records with 550 passing yards, seven total touchdowns and six touchdowns against Duke on Nov. 14, 2020. Marquise Williams held the previous yardage record with 494 against Duke in 2015; six other Tar Heels had previously passed for five touchdowns in a game (Bryn Renner did that twice).

- Howell's seven total touchdowns against Wake Forest are the most in Kenan Stadium history.

- Howell's 550 passing yards were the third most in ACC history. Only Clemson's Deshaun Watson (580 vs. Pittsburgh in 2016) and Miami's Steven Morris (566 vs. NC State in 2012) passed for more yards in a game than Howell.

- Howell is just the third FBS player since 2000 to throw for 550 yards and six touchdowns and also score a rushing touchdown in a single game. Buffalo's Drew Anderson accomplished the feat against Western Michigan in 2017. Texas Tech's B.J. Symons did so vs. Ole Miss in 2003.

- Howell's six passing touchdowns tied the ACC record set eight previous times, and most recently by Miami's Jarren Williams vs. Louisville in 2019.

- Howell has thrown a touchdown pass in all 21 games as a Tar Heel, tied for the longest active streak in the country with Shane Buechele (SMU) and Dillon Gabriel (UCF).

- Howell has thrown multiple TD passes in 19 of 21 career games. He has tossed three or more touchdowns 13 times, four or more five times, five or more twice.

- Howell's 61 career touchdown passes are the third most in ACC history by a sophomore quarterback. He trails only Clemson's Trevor Lawrence (66) and Florida State's Jameis Winston (65).

- Howell's 61 career passing touchdowns (in 21 games) also equals the third most in Carolina football history. Darian Durant passed for 68 in 2001-04, Bryn Renner had 64 in 2010-13 and Marquise Williams also tossed 61 from 2012-15.

• Sam Howell's 38 passing touchdowns in 2019 were the most by a true freshman in FBS history. The previous record was 30 from Clemson's Trevor Lawrence in 2018.

• Howell's 38 touchdowns were the second most ever by an ACC freshman quarterback. Florida State's Jamies Winston threw 40 touchdown passes in 2013 as a redshirt freshman.

• Howell's 38 touchdowns were the third most in ACC history, trailing only Deshaun Watson's record 41 TD passes for Clemson in 2016 and Winston's 40 in 2013.

• Howell set the UNC single-season record with 38 touchdown passes, surpassing Mitch Trubisky's 30 in 2016.

• Howell ranked fourth nationally and led all ACC QBs with 38 passing TDs. His 3,641 passing yards led the ACC and ranked 14th nationally.

• Howell's 3,641 passing yards were the most ever by an ACC true freshman quarterback.

• Howell was second in the ACC in pass efficiency at 160.3 and third in total offense (277.4 ypg).

• Howell threw multiple touchdowns in all 13 games last year.

• Joined James Winston as the only ACC QBs in the last 15 years to throw 35+ TDs (38), throw 10 or fewer INTs (7), throw for 3,000 yards (3,641), average eight yards per attempt (8.6), and complete 60% of the passes (61.4).

• Howell had eight games in 2019 with three or more touchdown passes.

• Howell's touchdown-interception ratio of plus 31 (38-7) was the best in UNC history. Mitch Trubisky was plus 24 (30/6) in 2016. Howell's plus 31 was eight better than UCF's Dillon Gabriel (+22) and nine better than USC's Kedon Slovis (+21).

• Led or tied among ACC QBs in completions of 10+ yards (154), 30+ yards (30) and 40+ yards (17).

• Tied then UNC school record and set freshman record with 5 TD passes at Virginia Tech. Set UNC freshman records for completions (33) and attempts (51) at Georgia Tech and yards (401) at NC State.

• In leading Carolina to seven wins and a bowl victory in 2019, Howell won more games last season than the Tar Heels did in the two previous seasons combined (5).

HEAD COACH MACK BROWN

MACK BROWN

HEAD COACH
12TH YEAR AT UNC
(1988-97, 2019-20)

Mack Brown, whose charismatic style and disciplined approach propelled the University of North Carolina to the Top Five and the University of Texas to the 2005 BCS National Championship, began his second stint as head coach in Chapel Hill on Nov. 27, 2018 with the goal of leading another Carolina resurgence.

A 42-year veteran of collegiate coaching, Brown has served as a head coach for 31 seasons with stops at Texas (1998-2013), North Carolina (1988-97, 2019), Tulane (1985-87), and Appalachian State (1983). Over his 31 seasons, Brown has posted a record of 250-128-1 (.661). Those 250 career victories rank ninth on the FBS all-time list and are the most among active coaches. The 2005 Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year and the 2008 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year, Brown is one of a handful of coaches in college football history to lead two separate programs to Top-Five national finishes.

In his first season back at the helm at North Carolina in 2019, Brown led the Tar Heels to a 6-6 record and the Military Bowl. The six wins are one more than UNC had won in its previous two seasons combined (5) and the Heels qualified for a bowl game for the first time since 2016. Carolina played close games seemingly all season. Its nine games decided by seven points or less were the most since 1936. The Tar Heels' six losses came by a total of just 26 points and the combined records of those teams was 57-18.

At the completion of his Texas tenure in 2013, Brown was one of just four active coaches to reach the 200-victory plateau. He was also one of only two coaches nationally to lead his teams to 21 bowls in 22 seasons, and the only one to have 23 winning seasons in the previous 24 years. His 225 wins from 1990 to 2013, which combined the last eight years of his first stint at UNC and his entire Texas tenure, were the most of any coach in the country.

As a result, Brown was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in December of 2018. He is the sixth Tar Heel to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and the second coach, joining innovator Carl Grey Snively, who was inducted in 1965. In addition to the College Football Hall of Fame, Brown is also a member of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, the Longhorn Hall of Honor, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame and the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame.

MACK BROWN AND THE NFL DRAFT

- Mack Brown had a player selected in 28 straight NFL Drafts prior to 2014. In fact, Brown has had a player selected in the NFL Draft in 30 of his 31 drafts as a head coach.
- Mack Brown has coached 20 players (16 Texas/four UNC) who have been drafted in the first round in his past 18 NFL Drafts.
- Mack Brown has coached a first-round selection in 12 of his last 20 NFL Drafts.
- Mack Brown has coached 73 NFL Draft picks over his last 18 years.
- Of those 73 NFL Draft picks, 56 picks were chosen in the first four rounds.
- In 31 drafts as a head coach at North Carolina (1988-97, 2019), Texas (1998-2013), Tulane (1985-87) and Appalachian State (1983), Mack Brown has seen 110 of his former players selected in the NFL Draft.

Brown has also succeeded in preparing his student-athletes for the next level. In the 31 NFL Drafts during Brown's time as a head coach, the NFL has picked 110 of his student-athletes, and at least one was selected in 28 straight drafts. He had 20 players selected in the first round of the draft from 1998 to 2013, and three members of his 1997 Carolina squad were picked in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft, which tied for the most of any collegiate program.

With all of the success on the field, the primary emphasis has remained the same with Brown's squads -- maintaining a high level of achievement in the classroom and in the community. Eighty percent of his players at North Carolina received their degrees and he increased the pace at Texas, while more than a third of his players at UT regularly earned 3.0 grade point averages and achieved spots on the Big 12 Commissioner's and Athletics Director's Honor Rolls.

Prior to returning to Carolina, Brown served as both a college football studio analyst and color analyst for ESPN.

Brown's first stint as head coach of the Tar Heels came from 1988-97. He led Carolina to a record of 69-46-1 (.599), which included three 10-win seasons, six consecutive bowl games, a Top-Five finish, a Top-10 finish and two Top-20 finishes.

At UNC, Brown recruited and coached several of the finest players in school history. From his 1997 squad alone, DE Greg Ellis (No. 8, Dallas Cowboys), LB Brian Simmons (No. 17, Cincinnati Bengals) and DT Vonnie Holliday (No. 19, Green Bay Packers) were selected among the first 19 picks in the 1998 NFL Draft.

Along with that trio of first-rounders, Brown also helped develop several other Tar Heel standouts. CB Dré Bly, who is currently Carolina's DBs coach, was a three-time All-American who recorded an ACC-record 20 interceptions during his career and played 11 seasons in the NFL. Corey Holliday, who currently serves as UNC's Associate A.D. for Football Administration, finished his career as the leading receiver in Carolina history, was a CFA/Hitachi Scholar-Athlete, and is a former member of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Dwight Hollier, who currently serves as UNC's Senior Associate A.D. for Student-Athlete Health, Well-Being & Program Outreach, made more than 500 tackles during his Carolina career and also played in the NFL. RB Natrone Means, who rushed for more than 1,000 yards in his final two seasons at UNC, went on to lead the San Diego Chargers to Super Bowl XXIX and the Jacksonville Jaguars to the 1996 AFC title game.

QB's Jason Stanicek and Mike Thomas combined to rewrite Carolina's passing and total offense records. DT Marcus Jones, a consensus first-team All-American, earned ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors in 1995. CB Thomas Smith came to UNC in 1989 as a walk-on from a small high school in North Carolina and departed as a first-round pick of the AFC Champion Buffalo Bills. RB Leon Johnson, one of the premier all-purpose offensive threats in ACC history, played eight seasons in the NFL. TE Freddie Jones, a second-round draft choice of the San Diego Chargers in 1997, was one of the NFL's top pass-catching tight ends and played eight seasons in the NFL.

During his first 10 seasons at Carolina, the Tar Heels featured a Lombardi Award finalist, a two-time Thorpe Award finalist, a Butkus Award finalist and semifinalist, 16 All-Americans, 34 first-team All-ACC selections, an ACC Defensive Player of the Year and an ACC Rookie of the Year. Brown also helped his players with professional aspirations as 38 of his Tar Heels heard their names called in the NFL Draft, including 16 in the first three rounds. In addition to the three first-rounders in 1998, Marcus Jones (Tampa Bay Buccaneers '96) and Thomas Smith (Buffalo Bills '93) were first-round selections; Freddie Jones (San Diego Chargers '97), Rick Terry (New York Jets '97), Bucky Brooks (Buffalo Bills '94) and Natrone Means (San Diego Chargers '93) were second-round picks; and James Hamilton (Jacksonville Jaguars '97), William Henderson (Green Bay Packers '95), Jimmy Hitchcock (New England Patriots '95), Rondell Jones (Denver Broncos '93), Brian Bollinger (San Francisco 49ers '92), Kevin Donnalley (Houston Texans '91) and Darrell Hamilton (Denver Broncos '89) were chosen in the third round.

2020 GAME RECAPS

Carolina 31, Syracuse 6
Sept. 12 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Javonte Williams ran for three fourth-quarter touchdowns and No. 18 North Carolina overcame a mistake-filled performance to beat Syracuse 31-6 on Saturday in the season opener for both teams.

Michael Carter added 138 yards of total offense for the Tar Heels (1-0, 1-0 Atlantic Coast Conference), who won in an empty home stadium after the school opted to open with no fans in attendance due to the coronavirus pandemic.

The Tar Heels opened with a touchdown drive only to sputter well into the third quarter in a performance plagued by turnovers and penalties. But they gradually settled into a rhythm, looking much more like the team expected to be a contender in the ACC race.

By the fourth quarter, they were rolling, with Williams scoring from 1 yard out on the first play of the period followed by a 6-yard score on the next drive. And by the time he bounced off a tackler and scored on another 6-yard run, the Tar Heels had turned a 10-6 lead into a 25-point margin.

Syracuse's offense did little well, generating little from its running game unless it came on quarterback Tommy DeVito scrambling to keep plays alive. But DeVito completed just 13 of 31 passes for 112 yards while taking seven sacks, as the Orange (0-1, 0-1) finished with 202 total yards.

Chestnut Hill, Mass.

CHESTNUT HILL, MASS.—Sam Howell threw for two touchdowns and Trey Morrison scored after intercepting the potential tying 2-point conversion with 45 seconds left on Saturday to lead No. 12 North Carolina to a 26-22 victory over Boston College.

With the cancellation of one game because of the virus and a scheduled off week leaving North Carolina idle since Sept. 12, the Tar Heels (2-0, 2-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) sent BC (2-1, 1-1) to its first loss under new coach Jeff Hafley.

Howell completed 14 of 26 passes for 225 yards, including a 41-yard score to Javonte Williams that gave Carolina a 21-13 lead with just over a minute left in the first half. Williams ran for 57 yards and caught two passes for 56, and Michael Carter carried 16 times for 121 yards for the Tar Heels.

UNC led 24-16 with just under six minutes left before Phil Jurkovec drove BC into Tar Heels territory and completed three passes in the end zone. The first two were negated by penalties, but a 6-yard pass to C.J. Lewis made it a two-point game with 45 seconds left, with the 2-point conversion to come.

Jurkovec scrambled and threw to the end zone, but Morrison picked him off and ran down the left sideline for the rare defensive 2-point conversion.

Jurkovec completed 37 of 56 passes for 313 yards and two touchdowns, hitting tight end Hunter Long nine times for 96 yards. Boston College, which led the ACC in rushing last year behind A.J. Dillon's third straight 1,000-yard season, totaled just 40 yards rushing.

The Eagles traded field goals for touchdowns most of the game but still had a chance after forcing a 47-yard field goal attempt that Grayson Atkins missed wide to the left with 5:46 to play. Jurkovec connected on a 10-yard pass to Lewis, who was called for offensive pass interference, and later a 22-yard strike to Long that was negated by a holding call.

Carolina 56, Virginia Tech 45
Oct. 10 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Michael Carter ran for a career-high 214 yards and two touchdowns -- including a 62-yarder midway through the fourth quarter -- to help eighth-ranked North Carolina beat No. 19 Virginia Tech 56-45 on Saturday.

The Tar Heels (3-0, 3-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) leaned on a dominating running game. Javonte Williams also ran for a career-best 169 yards and two scores of his own, with both backs finding gaping lanes and weaving through defenders to keep the chains moving on the way to 399 yards on the ground.

UNC said it was only the second time in program history that the Tar Heels had seen two players crack the 150-yard mark in the same game, the other coming 39 years earlier.

Throw in Sam Howell's three touchdown passes, and UNC finished with its highest scoring output ever against the Hokies along with 656 total yards -- the No. 2 total ever posted against Virginia Tech's defense, which was severely depleted in the secondary.

Carter's huge run around the right side with 8:49 left finally gave the Tar Heels some cushion after they had seen the Hokies rally from a 42-17 deficit early in the third quarter to make it a one-possession game entering the fourth quarter.

Khalil Herbert ran for 138 yards and two touchdowns for Virginia Tech (2-1, 2-1), which again played shorthanded due to a combination of coronavirus and injury issues. Hendon Hooker, a returning starting quarterback who had yet to play this year, threw for two scores and ran for another.

This was UNC's first home game since Gov. Roy Cooper announced the state would ease public-gathering restrictions related to the pandemic by allowing schools to fill 7% of their stadium capacity for fans. That cleared the way for 3,535 fans scattered about the 50,500-seat Kenan Stadium.

2020 GAME RECAPS

Florida State 31, Carolina 28
Oct. 17 • Doak Campbell Stadium
Tallahassee, Fla.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Jordan Travis ran for two touchdowns and threw a scoring pass to help Florida State build a big first-half lead, and the Seminoles held off No. 5 North Carolina 31-28 on Saturday night.

Travis guided an offensive that generated 434 yards for Florida State (2-3, 1-3 Atlantic Coast Conference), but was shut out in the second half.

North Carolina quarterback Sam Howell led three second-half touchdown drives to pull to 31-28, but the Tar Heels (3-1, 3-1) had drops on third and fourth down in the final seconds to end the comeback bid.

The Seminoles gave coach Mike Norvell a signature victory in his first season in Tallahassee following a shaky start that included a blowout loss at Miami.

Travis, a redshirt sophomore, completed 8 of 19 passes for 191 yards and ran 16 times for 107 yards as the Seminoles jumped out to a 31-7 halftime lead, the most dominating performance for the program in recent memory. What followed was a nail-biting second half as the Tar Heels mounted a comeback attempt.

Howell completed 20 of 36 yards for 374 yards against the Seminoles, whom he was committed to for about six months in 2018 before signing with North Carolina just weeks after Mack Brown was hired.

North Carolina was 13th in FBS in third-down conversions (51%) coming into the game, but the Tar Heels were just 2 of 11 on third-down conversions and 0 for 3 on fourth-down tries.

Florida State ran for a season-high 241 yards on 36 carries. La'Damian Webb had 109 yards on 12 carries.

The win was the Seminoles' first over an AP Top 25 team since Boston College on Nov. 17 2018. Florida State's last win over a Top 10 team was No. 6 Michigan in the Orange Bowl on Dec. 30, 2016.

Carolina 48, NC State 21
Oct. 24 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Javonte Williams ran for 160 yards and three touchdowns to help No. 14 North Carolina beat No. 23 North Carolina State 48-21 in Saturday's renewal of the longtime state rivalry.

Michael Carter ran for 106 yards and a score of his own for the Tar Heels (4-1, 4-1 Atlantic Coast Conference), who used a run-through-and-over-tacklers ground game that helped them take control in the third quarter.

"I said it earlier in the year and they reinforce it every week: I think they're probably the best combination of two backs in the country," UNC coach Mack Brown said, adding: "When we get them going, the rest of it works."

UNC ran for 326 yards and finished with 578 overall, bouncing back from an upset loss at Florida State to beat the Wolfpack (4-2, 4-2) by a lopsided margin for the second straight season.

Williams had three touchdowns in last year's 41-10 win, then had a pair of short TD runs as UNC ran off 21 straight points after leading just 17-7 at halftime. He punctuated another big rivalry performance by blowing through a huge hole up front, then cutting past multiple defenders to the pylon for a 27-yard score that made it 45-14 with 14:11 left.

Sam Howell threw for 252 yards and a TD for the Tar Heels, while Dyanami Brown had 105 yards on a career-best seven catches.

The Wolfpack had little go right offensively in the first game without injured starting quarterback Devin Leary. Bailey Hockman started but was pulled after three series for true freshman Ben Finley, only to see the Wolfpack go back to Hockman in the third after Finley threw two interceptions — one off a bobbled pass by Dylan Parham in the end zone that should've been a first-half touchdown — and lost a fumble on a sack.

Finley threw for 143 yards and a 42-yard score to Emezie Emezie, while Hockman scored on a short keeper and threw for a TD after returning with the Tar Heels up big. But N.C. State managed just 34 yards rushing and had four turnovers.

"We just didn't play good enough to win, didn't give ourselves a chance with the turnovers," Wolfpack coach Dave Doeren said. "Like I told them in the locker room, if you don't stop the run and you turn the football over, it's a really hard day. And that's what happened today."

This was the first meeting with both teams ranked in the AP Top 25 since 1993.

Virginia 44, Carolina 41
Oct. 31 • Smith/Harrison/Scott Stadium
Charlottesville, Va.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) — Brennan Armstrong threw for three touchdowns and ran for another, and Virginia scored 28 consecutive points before holding on to beat No. 15 North Carolina 44-41 on Saturday night.

Armstrong hit Shane Simpson for 71 yards, Ra'Shaun Henry for 18 and Tony Poljan for 17, the latter giving the Cavaliers (2-4, 2-4 Atlantic Coast Conference) a 41-20 lead with 5:34 left in the third quarter on their way to their fourth consecutive victory in the series.

The Tar Heels (4-2, 4-2) made it close behind a fantastic performance from quarterback Sam Howell and receiver Dyanami Brown. The pair hooked up for three of Howell's four touchdown passes, covering 54, 10 and 13 yards. Howell also hit Khafre Brown with a slant pass that he took 76 yards to the end zone.

After pulling within 41-27, UNC intercepted Armstrong and scored to get within 41-34 early in the fourth quarter, held Virginia to a field goal after a 15-play drive and needed just four plays to score again, with Howell hitting Dyanami Brown for 19 and 47 yards to start the drive.

Armstrong hobbled off after a 3-yard run when the Cavaliers got the ball back, but Keytaon Thompson came on and, on fourth-and-4 from the Virginia 41, took the snap out of punt formation and ran 6 yards to allow Virginia to run out the clock.

Howell finished 23 for 28 for 443 yards and Dyanami Brown caught 11 passes for 240. Last year, as a sophomore, he had six receptions for 202 yards and three more TDs against the Cavaliers.

Armstrong was 12 for 22 for 208 yards and ran for 66 yards as the Cavaliers piled up 210 yards on the ground while limiting the Tar Heels, who arrived averaging 249 rushing yards, to 93. Virginia sacked Howell five times, four by linebacker Charles Snowden.

The Cavaliers used two gifts to grab a 27-20 lead 1:14 before halftime. Armstrong was sacked for a 7-yard loss, but a personal foul against Trey Morrison kept the drive alive.

The Cavaliers eventually punted, but Rontavius Groves muffed the punt and long snapper Tucker Finkelston recovered at the 20. Three plays later, Thompson ran it in.

The Cavaliers, who allowed a touchdown on the second play at Miami last week, waited twice as long this time. After Howell hit Garrett Walston for 15 yards on third-and-4, hit hit Dyanami Brown behind De'Vante Cross for 54 yards and a 7-0 lead after just 1:25.

North Carolina had another drive that took even less time when Howell, on the first play after a fair catch at the 24, hit Khafre Brown on a slant.

The Tar Heels almost pulled even before halftime. After passes of 36 yards to Dyanami Brown and 29 yards to Dazz Newsome, a pass interference call against Antonio Clary moved the ball to the 2. North Carolina tried a lateral to Newsome, who bobbled the ball. In the ensuing scramble to recover the loose ball, time ran out on the half.

2020 GAME RECAPS

Carolina 56, Duke 24
Nov. 7 • Wallace Wade Stadium
Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — North Carolina found the ideal way to get back on track.

The Tar Heels scored at just about every opportunity for a half and steamrolled rival Duke in a 56-24 victory Saturday afternoon, rebounding from a devastating loss a week earlier.

"Not sulk on it," linebacker Chazz Surratt said. "Just be ready for this week."

Javonte Williams scored four first-half touchdowns and North Carolina made amends for a stunning setback to Virginia.

"You can't let a loss beat you twice," Tar Heels coach Mack Brown said.

Sam Howell threw three touchdown passes and rushed for another score for the Tar Heels (5-2, 5-2 Atlantic Coast Conference), who were playing without a national ranking for the first time this season. Just like last month, they responded from a three-point loss to whip a neighboring rival, with North Carolina State the previous victim.

Discounting the one snap after getting the ball back with a second left to play in the first half against Duke, the Tar Heels scored touchdowns on their first seven possessions.

"When everything is clicking, it feels amazing," Williams said. "Just keeping them off balance."

Williams gained 151 rushing yards on 12 carries as part of North Carolina's output of 573 yards of total offense.

"He does everything right," Brown said of Williams. "He's as good as anyone in the country breaking tackles."

Backfield mate Michael Carter scored two touchdowns, posting 85 yards on the ground on 17 attempts. Howell finished 18-for-27 for 235 yards and an interception.

"We know how important this game is," said Howell, whose team retained the Victory Bell with its second win in a row in the series. "How much it means to our fans."

The Tar Heels realized they couldn't afford any more hiccups if they want to have crucial games later in the season. Combining that with another date with an in-state opponent, this matchup had their attention.

"That's something that everybody took seriously through the week," North Carolina linebacker Jeremiah Gemmel said of Duke's likely motivation.

Duke quarterback Chase Brice was 11-for-23 for 155 yards. Team-mate Mataeo Durant gained 132 yards on 11 carries, highlighted by a 46-yard touchdown run.

The Blue Devils (2-6, 1-6) are guaranteed a losing regular-season record for the third time in five seasons.

"You've got to give them credit for coming out with that game plan," Duke defensive end Chris Rumph II said. "They executed. We've got to go back to the drawing board."

North Carolina posted two touchdowns less than five minutes into the game. Howell's 2-yard fourth-down pass to Williams accounted for the first score and Howell ran 3 yards untouched for the next TD.

It was 21-0 with 2:06 left in the first quarter after Williams' 4-yard touchdown run.

Carolina 59, Wake Forest 53
Nov. 14 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Sam Howell threw for program records of 550 yards and six touchdowns, and scored the go-ahead rushing TD with 4:11 left to help North Carolina rally past Wake Forest 59-53 on Saturday.

Howell's 20-yard keeper capped a comeback from 21 down midway through the third quarter for the Tar Heels (6-2, 6-2 Atlantic Coast Conference), tying the program record for biggest comeback in a win. That was part of a run of 35 unanswered points after falling behind 45-24, with Howell and the Tar Heels' offense rolling nearly all day at a record-setting pace.

UNC finished with a program-record 742 yards, highlighted by huge performances from receivers Dazz Newsome (10 catches for 189 yards) and Dyami Brown (eight catches for 163 yards) as each hauled in two of Howell's scoring throws.

Javonte Williams added a 15-yard touchdown run with 2:39 left that helped keep UNC in control late.

Sam Hartman threw for a career-best 429 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Demon Deacons (4-3, 3-3), who had their own huge offensive output with 606 yards. Jaquarii Roberson had 12 catches for 167 yards and two scores while Donavon Greene added eight catches for 170 yards and two scores of his own — the second being an 18-yarder that put Wake Forest up by 21 with 6:56 left in the third.

But UNC's defense hung in and finally slowed the Demon Deacons, forcing punts on the next four drives to give the Howell-led offense an opening. Then, after Howell's go-ahead keeper, Chazz Surratt sacked Hartman on fourth down to set up Williams' score that made it a two-possession game.

Hartman led one final scoring drive, but Williams recovered the onside kick with 56 seconds left to all but end a wild afternoon in the longtime instate series.
