BEARS ON NBC

– Former Cal greats from both the field and hardwood will be a part of Saturday's broadcast with Shane Vereen (pregame, halftime and post) and Jason Kidd (interview) featured on the NBC telecast.

ABOUT THE SERIES

- This will be the fifth all-time meeting between California and Notre Dame, but first since 1967.
- It will be the first game in 55 years between the two programs with the Fighting Irish having won all four of the previous matchups in 1959, 1960, 1965 and 1967

OTT-STANT IMPACT

- Freshman running back Jaydn Ott has immediately made his presence known in the first two games of the season, rushing for 156 yards on 17 carries while adding five receptions for 42 yards and his first career touchdown. Ott was named Pac-12 Freshman of the Week for the second consecutive time on Monday, the first Bear to earn the honor in back-to-back weeks since its inception in 2019. Lu-Magia Hearn III is the only other Cal player to pick up the honor after the Golden Bears' 2021 Big Game victory at Stanford.
- Ott has proven to be a threat both running the ball and receiving out of the backfield, currently ranking eighth in the Pac-12 in all purpose yards through the first two weeks of the season. The Chino, California native is averaging 99 yards per game with 156 rushing and 42 receiving yards in two games. Ott is the only freshman to rank in the Top 10 of the conference in all purpose yards.
- With 156 yards rushing in the first two games of the season, Ott ranks fourth in the Pac-12 Conference. Ott is the top freshman rusher in the Pac-12 and sixth overall in the conference.

EASTERN TIME, NO PROBLEM

– Cal has played a pair of games in the eastern time zone under current head coach Justin Wilcox and has returned to the west coast victorious both times. The Bears opened the 2017 season with a 35-30 triumph at North Carolina in Wilcox's first game as head coach and won 28-20 at Ole Miss in 2019.

ROAD OPENERS

- The Bears have a 3-2 record in road openers under head coach Justin Wilcox.
- Cal won 35-30 at North Carolina in 2017, 21-18 at BYU in 2018 and earned a 20-19 victory at No. 12 Washington in 2019.
- The last two road openers have been defeats to UCLA in 2020 (34-10) and a back-and-forth loss at TCU to open last season (34-32).

DEFENSIVE MINDED

- California's defense has been strong in several areas through the first two games of the season, ranking third in the Pac-12 and No. 23 nationally in scoring defense. The Bears have held six of their last eight opponents to 14 points or less dating back to last season.
- The Bears are tied for second in the Pac-12 and tied for seventh in the country with one defensive touchdown.
- Cal is second in the Pac-12 and No. 18 in the nation with three interceptions through the first two weeks. Craig Woodson, Jeremiah Earby and Isaiah Young have each grabbed a pick, with Young's sealing the week two win over UNLV.
- Woodson returned from an injury that cost him the entire 2021 season and took an interception back 39 yards for a touchdown, the first score of his career in Cal's season-opening 34-13 win over UC Davis.
- Cal's starting inside linebacker duo of Jackson Sirmon (17) and Oluwafemi Oladejo (16) have been all over the field for the Bears, leading the team in tackles.

STARKEY'S FINAL PLAY

- Legendary Hall of Fame broadcaster Joe Starkey, best known for his "the band is out on the field" call of "The Play" in 1982, announced Thursday that he will retire as Cal's football radio play-by-play announcer following the 2022 campaign.

- In Starkey's 48th and final season on the mic, the 2022 Golden Bears will travel to Notre Dame to face the Fighting Irish for the first time in 55 years, celebrate the 125th Big Game and 40th anniversary of The Play in Berkeley, and host "Joe Starkey Day" for the regular-season finale in Strawberry Canyon against UCLA.

- Starkey has also had an array of broadcasting duties with professional sports organizations during his career that he mostly fulfilled in conjunction with his Cal duties, highlighted by a 22-year stint on the San Francisco 49ers' radio broadcast team (1987-2008) that included the final 20 campaigns as the play-by-play voice. The 49ers won their most recent three Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIV, XXIX) during Starkey's tenure with the team as he described plays for Pro Football Hall of Famers Joe Montana, Jerry Rice and Steve Young, among others.

JOHNSON LOST FOR THE YEAR

- Cal's Travers Family Head Football Coach announced Saturday that Brett Johnson will miss the 2022 season due to a lower-body injury sustained during a team practice on Thursday. The injury is unrelated to the broken hip that Johnson had surgically repaired after an automobile accident in March of 2021 that caused him to miss all of the 2021 campaign.

- "Brett is one of the toughest and most dedicated football players I have ever been around," Wilcox said. "Although this is a difficult situation for him, I am confident that he will return to the field in 2023. He has the unwavering support of all his coaches, teammates and everyone in our football program. It is important for us to rally around each other as a team and respond positively to this adversity."

PROMOS AND GIVEAWAYS

- Cal football fans will have plenty of exciting reasons to be in attendance at FTX Field at California Memorial Stadium in 2022. The long list is highlighted by special giveaways, including a Cameron Jordan Bobblehead and Replica Axe for the first 10,000 fans through the gates at each of the Golden Bears' final two home contests against Stanford and UCLA.

- Special ticket offers for healthcare workers, scouts and teachers will be available, respectively, for the first three contests (UC Davis, UNLV, Arizona), while another one will be available to youth sports organizations for the regular-season finale against the Bruins.

- The home schedule also includes traditional events including Homecoming (Arizona), the Cal Athletics Hall of Fame Game (Washington), and the Joe Roth Game/Senior Day (UCLA).

- In addition, the Bears will celebrate the 40th anniversary of The Play and the 125th Big Game against Stanford as well "Joe Starkey Day" against UCLA - honoring longtime radio broadcaster Joe Starkey, who will retire at the end of the season after 48 years calling Cal games.

BUILDING SUCCESS UNDER JUSTIN WILCOX

- Cal has a long list of achievements during the first five seasons under Travers Family Head Football Coach Justin Wilcox including ...

- Back-to-back winning seasons and bowl game appearances in 2018 and 2019 for the first time since 2008 and 2009

- Two landmark victories over both Stanford and USC to end lengthy losing streaks to both schools

- Back-to-back Big Game road victories at Stanford in 2019 and 2021 to make Wilcox only the fifth Cal head coach in history to accomplish the feat and only the second along with Jeff Tedford to do so in the last 70 seasons since Pappy Waldorf won three straight on The Farm from 1947-51

- Four victories that knocked off a combination of five reigning or current Pac-12 champions with the Bears beating USC (2017 champion) and Washington (2018 champion) in 2018, defending champion Washington again in 2019, and in 2020 an Oregon squad that had captured the Pac-12 crown in both 2019 and 2020

- A strong second half of the season in 2021 with a 4-2 record over the final six games with home victories over Colorado, Oregon State and USC with the win over the Trojans the first in Berkeley since 2003, as well as the second straight Big Game road triumph at Stanford

- Victories over ranked teams during each of the first four campaigns of Wilcox's tenure (2017 vs. No. 8/9 Washington State; 2018 vs. No. 15/13 Washington; 2019 vs. No. 14/12 Washington; and 2020 vs. No. 23/21/20 Oregon)

- An 11-3 record in non-conference games during Wilcox's tenure, including a 5-2 mark against Power 5 teams with home and away wins over North Carolina (ACC) and Ole Miss (SEC), as well as a 2019 Redbox Bowl win over Illinois (Big Ten)

- Finished the 2019 season with an 8-5 record that equaled Cal's best since the Golden Bears were 9-4 in 2008 and tied for second place in the Pac-12 North for their highest finish in the division since the conference went to two divisions in 2011

- Posted back-to-back seasons of .500 or better records on the road for first time since 2004 (5-1) and 2005 (3-2) when they went 4-2 in 2019 after going 3-2 in 2018

- Reclaimed The Axe in both 2019 by defeating Stanford for the first time since 2009 and then got The Axe back in 2021 with a 41-11 victory over the Cardinal that was its largest in the series since 2004, both at Stanford Stadium

- Won back-to-back road games in Los Angeles (USC in 2018 and UCLA in 2019) for the first time since 1970-71 (the Bears also won in 1999 at UCLA and 2000 at USC, but the 1999 victory at UCLA was later forfeited due to the use of ineligible players)

- Won on the road in 2018 and 2019 at all three of its California rivals (Stanford, UCLA, USC) over a two-year span for the first time since 1949-50

A NEW ERA IS UNDERWAY

– With a trio of fifth-year senior tight ends from 2021 having moved on (Collin Moore, Gavin Reinwald Jake Tonges), sophomore Jermaine Terry II and Keleki Latu have taken the top two spots on the depth chart after making their debuts a year ago. Latu is coming off the most productive game of his career in his most recent outing against UNLV when he had career highs of four receptions and 45 yards receiving, while Terry has made both starts at the position in 2022.

– Cal also returns Nick Alftin and Elijah Mojarro with Alftin having seen action at the position in each of the last five seasons while also briefly spending time at outside linebacker in 2019. Alftin is also one of the team's top special teams' players and recorded a pair of blocked punts in 2021, while Mojarro has played both tight end and on special teams each of the past three campaigns since making his debut in 2020.

– Jake Muller is also back after redshirting without seeing any action as a 2021 true freshman, while the Bears have two players who made the switch from linebacker to the tight end in the spring of 2022 in ILB Andy Alfieri and OLB Jeffrey Johnson with Alfieri appearing in both 2022 games and making his first career reception for five yards against UNLV.

YOUNG RECEIVER GROUP IMPRESSIVE IN FIRST TWO GAMES

– Cal's seven returning receivers had made just a single start between them prior to the 2022 season but that previous inexperience hasn't proven to be an issue in the first two games of the campaign with the position having combined to haul in 33 receptions and 416 yards of the team's 51 catches for 546 yards overall.

– The trio of Jeremiah Hunter (11-157, 1 TD), J.Michael Sturdivant (10-104) and Mavin Anderson (7-60, 1 TD) have led the way and rank as the team's top three receivers in both receptions and yards receiving in 2022. Hunter is also fifth in the Pac-12 in receiving yards (157) and receiving yards per game (78.5), as well as seventh in receptions per game (5.5) Sturdivant is ninth (5.0).

– Hunter equaled his previous career highs with six receptions, 78 receiving yards and one touchdown catch in the season opener against UC Davis then bettered his career high by a single receiving yard with 79 against UNLV on five catches.

– The receiving numbers for the redshirt freshmen Sturdivant and Anderson are the first of their careers with Sturdivant seeing limited action in four games mostly on special teams and Anderson not playing in 2021.

– Fifth-year senior Monroe Young (3-47) has seen the next most action among the wide outs. Mason Mangum had a career-long 31-yard catch against UNLV, while Tommy Christakos' 17-yard reception against UC Davis was the first of his career.

– The 2022 group is being tasked with replacing the departed trio of Kekoa Crawford (40-513), Nikko Remigio (38-238, 2 TD) and Trevon Clark (33-658, 4 TD), who combined for 111 catches, 1409 yards receiving and six touchdowns catch in 2021.

– 2022 No. 1 National Draft Eligible Long Snapper (Phil Steele)

– Has played in each of the past 29 Cal games over the last three campaigns after redshirting as a 2018 true freshman and has made every snap on punts although he did not snap on field goals or PATs for three consecutive contests in 2021 (Oregon, Colorado, Oregon State) before resuming those duties on Cal's lone field goal attempt and make at Arizona

Justin Wilcox is in his sixth season as the Travers Family Head Football Coach at Cal in 2022. Wilcox signed a contract extension through the 2027 campaign this past January.

“I appreciate the opportunity to be the head football coach at Cal and am excited about the future of our program,” Wilcox said in the announcement of his extension. “I have thoroughly enjoyed every minute I have spent with the extraordinary young men who have been in our program. We are in a great position and strongly aligned with our university thanks to the leadership of Chancellor Carol Christ and our Director of Athletics Jim Knowlton. I thank both of them for their continued trust and confidence in me to lead a football program that will make the entire Cal community proud. We have very high expectations. I think we’ve earned the right to expect more, and that’s exactly what we’re going to do.”

Wilcox has already compiled a long list of accomplishments and signature wins in his first five-plus seasons as the head coach at Cal including landmark victories over Stanford and USC in the final month of his most recent full campaign in 2021. The victory over the Trojans in Cal’s 2021 season finale was the Golden Bears’ first home win over USC since 2003 but its’ second in the last four seasons against the Trojans under Wilcox, who also led Cal to a road victory at USC in 2018. The back-to-back road wins in the Big Game at Stanford in 2019 and 2021 made Wilcox only the fifth Cal head coach to be victorious at least twice in a row on The Farm and, along with Jeff Tedford, one of only two in the last 70 years since Pappy Waldorf won three straight from 1947-51.

Cal has started the 2022 season with a pair of victories over UC Davis and UNLV to mark the fourth time in Wilcox’s six seasons that the Bears have won at least their first two games with the 2019 squad’s 4-0 start the best. The Bears have also now won five straight home games at FTX Field at California Memorial Stadium dating back to the final three home contests of 2021 to match their longest home win streak since also taking five in a row in Berkeley from Nov. 14, 2015 – Oct. 21, 2016. The last time Cal has won more than five in a row in Berkeley came during a nine-game home win streak from Aug. 30, 2008 – Sept. 12, 2009 when Cal followed up a 7-0 home record in 2008 by winning its first two games in Berkeley in 2009. Cal’s 2022 squad is one of the least experienced in the nation with 21 playing for the Bears for the first time and 11 making their first start.

Wilcox’s team came on strong at the end of the 2021 campaign with four victories in its final six contests including arguably its most impressive performance of the season in a 41-11 Big Game win that marked Cal’s largest margin of victory against Stanford since 2004. Cal had a Big Game-record 636 total yards in the contest including 352 on the ground that were the most rushing yards in a game by the Bears since 2008. The 2021 Cal offense was capable of producing big numbers that included over 500 yards of total offense three times and more than 200 yards rushing on four occasions. The Bears’ 2021 offense also took tremendous care of the football with its 10 turnovers the fewest ever by a Cal team playing a full schedule with the previous low 13 by Wilcox’s 2019 squad. Cal lost only two fumbles in 2021 to rank tied for second nationally and lead the Pac-12 for fewest fumbles. The Bears were also second in the Pac-12 and 11th nationally in turnover margin (+10, 0.83), while their 10 total turnovers lost were second in the Pac-12 and tied for seventh nationally. Wilcox’s defense shone in the second half of the 2021 season by holding four of its final six opponents to 14 points or less. The Bears finished the campaign second in the Pac-12 in scoring defense (22.2 ppg), fourth in total defense (366.7 ypg) and fourth in rushing defense (137.2 ypg).

Wilcox’s 2020 team was just getting on track when the COVID-19 pandemic ended the often-delayed season after four games with its final performance a second-half shutout of eventual Pac-12 champion Oregon in an inspiring 21-17 home victory over the Ducks.

Wilcox began the 2019 season with four straight victories to move the Bears into the No. 15 spot in the AP Top 25 and No. 16 in the Coaches Poll. The victories included road wins at then-No. 14/12 Washington and Ole Miss, with the latter the first road triumph by a Pac-12 school at an SEC foe since 2010. The two signature victories helped the Bears to a 4-2 mark in true road games to give Cal back-to-back winning seasons on the road for the first time since 2004.

Wilcox guided the Bears to the Cheez-It Bowl and a 7-6 overall record in his second campaign in 2018 with the bowl appearance Cal’s first in three seasons and first in a Pac-12 affiliated bowl since 2011. Cal reached a high point of 7-4 after winning four of five Pac-12 games during one stretch highlighted by signature victories over eventual Pac-12 champion and then-No. 15/13 Washington, as well as at USC with the victory over the Trojans clinching bowl eligibility. Cal also started the season with a 3-0 mark and in Week 5 made its first appearance since 2015 in the AP Top 25 at No. 24.

The highlights of Wilcox’s first season as the head coach in Berkeley in 2017 included a 3-0 start and non-conference wins over Power 5 programs North Carolina and Ole Miss, as well as a 37-3 victory over then No. 8/9 Washington State in an ESPN nationally-televised Friday night home game. The victory against the Cougars snapped Cal’s 17-game losing streak to top-10 teams, was the Bears’ first victory against a top-10 team since 2003 and only its second top-10 win dating back to 1977. Cal finished 5-7 overall by adding a Pac-12 victory over Oregon State.

Bill Musgrave (OC/QB)

Musgrave is in his third season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Cal in 2022, as well as his 16th campaign as an offensive coordinator and 25th in coaching at the NFL or collegiate ranks. Cal's offense had several strong moments during Musgrave's first full season at Cal in 2021 (his first campaign in 2020 was shortened to four games by COVID-19). The offense played a key role in the Golden Bears' second-half surge in 2021 when Cal won four times in its final six contests including arguably its most impressive performance of the season in a 41-11 Big Game win. Cal had a Big Game-record 636 total yards in the contest including 352 on the ground that were the most rushing yards in a game by the Bears since 2008. Cal also took tremendous care of the football in 2021 with its 10 turnovers the fewest ever by a Cal team playing a full schedule. Musgrave has first-year Cal starters throughout most of the offensive in 2022 including the quarterback position where Purdue graduate transfer fifth-year senior Jack Plummer earned the starting nod.

Peter Sirmon (DC/ILB)

Sirmon is in his fifth season at Cal and his third campaign as the team's defensive coordinator in 2022, while he also continues to work with the inside linebackers for the fifth consecutive campaign. Sirmon started at Cal in 2018 as the Golden Bears' inside linebackers coach before adding co-defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator duties to his role in 2019. He also served as the team's recruiting coordinator for three seasons from 2019-21. Sirmon's 2021 defense improved throughout the season in his first full campaign as the team's defensive coordinator (his first season in the role in 2020 was shortened to four games by COVID-19) and has picked back up where it left off in 2022, allowing just six of its last eight opponents to 14 points or less while also winning six of its last eight contests. Cal finished the campaign second in the Pac-12 in scoring defense (22.2 ppg) and thru the first two games in 2022 is third (13.5 ppg).

Terrence Brown (DB)

Brown is in his first season at Cal in 2022 and shares duties with Tre Watson coaching the Golden Bears' defensive backs. Brown was among a group of 30 coaches on 247Sports' 30Under30 list in both 2019 and 2020.

Andrew Browning (DL)

Browning is in his fourth season as the defensive line coach at Cal in 2022 and his fifth campaign with the program having also served in a quality control role on the defensive side of the ball in his first season with the Golden Bears in 2018.

Geep Chryst (TE)

Chryst is in his second season as the tight ends coach at Cal in 2022 after having spent the majority of the previous three decades coaching in the NFL most recently as the tight ends coach with Denver (2017-18). The tight end room has developed nicely under Chryst's guidance and has a pair of talented sophomores leading the way in 2022 in Jermaine Terry II and Keleki Latu after both got their feet wet behind a veteran group of tight ends in 2021.

Angus McClure (OL)

McClure is in his third season as the offensive line coach at Cal in 2022, as well as in his 26th campaign of collegiate coaching and 31st year in the coaching profession. McClure began at Cal in 2020 after previous experience in the collegiate ranks at UCLA, Nebraska, Nevada, Buffalo and Sacramento State. Center Matthew Cindric and left tackle Ben Coleman are back after earning Pac-12 honorable mention selections in 2021.

Vic So'oto (OLB)

So'oto in his first season as the outside linebackers coach at Cal in 2022 after spending the previous two seasons in 2020 and 2021 on the USC coaching staff following a prior four-year stint at Virginia (2016-19).

Aristotle Thompson (RB)

Thompson is in his third season as the running backs coach at Cal in 2022 after spending the previous 11 campaigns in the same role at Cal Poly. Cal's run game has shown moments of brilliance under the guidance of Thompson highlighted by a 352-yard rushing game to a key 41-11 blowout at Stanford in 2021 that were the most rushing yards in a game by the Bears since 2008. In 2022, the Bears have added two true freshmen who ranked among the nation's top 30 at the position in the 2021 recruiting class in Jaydn Ott (Rivals, No. 14) and Ashton Hayes (No. 30 Rivals). Ott had 104 rushing yards in his Cal debut against UC Davis to become the first Cal player to rush for more than 100 yards in his first game for the Golden Bears since Shane Vereen against Michigan State in 2008.

Burl Toler III (WR/RC)

Toler III is in his eighth season on the coaching or football staff at his alma mater Cal in 2022, as well as his fifth as a full-time assistant coach and fourth working with the wide receivers. He is also in his first campaign as the team's recruiting coordinator in 2022. Toler is working with a talented wide receiver group in 2022 led by the trio of Jeremiah Hunter, J. Michael Sturdivant and Mavin Anderson, who have combined for 28 receptions, 321 yards receiving and two touchdown catches in the first two games.

Tre Watson (DB)

GAME 1: CAL PUTS AWAY UC DAVIS FOR SEASON-OPENING WIN

BERKELEY – AJack Plummer threw three touchdown passes in his debut for California and Craig Woodson returned an interception for a score to lead California to a 34-13 victory over UC Davis on Saturday.

The Golden Bears (1-0) shook off a rough start on offense with minus-1 yard in the first quarter to improve to 11-0 all-time against the Aggies (0-1).

"Getting out there on the field the first time, I'm sure there was a little bit of nerves going on," Cal coach Justin Wilcox said. "A good thing was, as we talked about on the sideline after the first quarter was over, it was like, 'Guys, it probably couldn't have gone too much worse. ... We got that out of us and then settled down and moved the ball down the field.'"

Plummer threw TD passes of 3 yards to Jeremiah Hunter and 8 yards Jaydn Ott in the second quarter, and a 14-yarder to Mavin Anderson in the fourth quarter of his first appearance since transferring from Purdue.

Plummer finished 23 for 35 for 268 yards.

"I think we just got into a little bit of rhythm, did a little tempo," Plummer said. "I think once we started to kind of see ourselves move that kind of gave us a little confidence and got them on their heels a little bit."

Woodson helped take control of the game when he intercepted Miles Hastings on the opening drive of the second half and returned it 39 yards for a touchdown that made it 24-7.

Hastings threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Chaz Davis in the first quarter Ulonzo Gilliam Jr. scored on a 60-yard run in the third quarter for the Aggies.

Hastings finished 32 for 50 for 242 yards with two interceptions.

"It's not about being perfect, it's about being excellent," coach Dan Hawkins said. "But we played hard. Guys battled. Thought we had a good camp. But it's a tough road so we got to learn from it, flush it and move on."

GAME 2: LATE STAND LEADS BEARS PAST UNLV

BERKELEY – Jaydn Ott scored two touchdowns, one on the ground and one through the air, and California's defense stiffened late to lead the Bears to a 20-14 victory over UNLV on Saturday.

Cal (2-0) made three fourth-down stops in the second half, including a fourth and goal opportunity for the Rebels from the Cal 8 with 2:46 remaining that preserved Cal's six-point lead.

UNLV got the ball back one more time with 1:03 remaining, but Isaiah Young intercepted UNLV quarterback Doug Brumfield deep in Cal territory on the game's final play. That clinched the Bears' first 2-0 start since 2019 as they turn their attention to next week's game at Notre Dame, the marquee opponent on Cal's schedule.

"I think it's huge for us, giving us a little bit of confidence and momentum going into a tough game," Cal safety Daniel Scott said. "We've got to keep building. At the end of the day, we're 2-0 and that's the best part about it."

Jack Plummer threw for 278 yards and a touchdown as the Golden Bears got off to a fast start on offense. But after taking a 20-7 lead on a Dario Longhetto field goal midway through the third quarter, Cal's offense stalled and UNLV (1-1) grabbed momentum.

Aidan Robbins rushed for 84 yards for UNLV, including a 31-yard score in the third that brought the Rebels to within 20-14.

Three times Cal drove to UNLV's 10-yard line or deeper and didn't get touchdowns. The Bears settled for two field goals and Plummer was intercepted on the third drive.

"The goal, No. 1, is to win the game, and it carries more weight than any other goal," California coach Justin Wilcox said. "We also recognize where we need to be better."

After being held to minus-1 yard of offense in the first quarter last week against UC Davis, the Bears led 14-0 after the first on Saturday. Plummer completed his first eight passes and found open receivers against a UNLV secondary that also was called for pass interference three times in the game.

Ott scored on a 2-yard run and added a 12-yard touchdown catch later in the first, taking a short pass in the flat and making a leaping dive into the end zone on fourth-and-2 to give Cal a 14-0 lead.

Kyle Williams got UNLV on the board with an 11-yard touchdown catch on the first play of the second quarter, but Dario Longhetto's 20-yard field goal gave Cal a 17-7 lead at halftime.
