GAME 28: at NOTRE DAME

• The Tar Heels hope to end a two-game losing streak when they travel to Notre Dame, Ind., to play the Fighting Irish on February 22 at 9 p.m.

• Carolina beat the Irish, 81-64, in Chapel Hill on January 7.

• UNC is 16-11 overall, 8-8 in the ACC. The Irish have lost five straight, including the last four games by a total of just 14 points, and are 10-17 overall, 2-14 in the ACC.

• Carolina has dropped five of its last six games, all to teams with winning records in ACC play, including 77-69 at NC State on Sunday.

• This is Carolina's second-to-last ACC road game. The Tar Heels have lost three straight on the road by six, seven and eight points, and are 2-7 in road games this season (not counting the Thanksgiving Day win at Portland, which officially is considered a neutral-site game).

• UNC plays its final ACC away game on February 27 at Florida State. Notre Dame is the second of four games in an nine-day stretch for the Tar Heels, which began Sunday in Raleigh.

• Carolina led NC State, 54-48, midway through the second half but the Wolfpack went on a 21-6 run to beat the Tar Heels for just the sixth time in 24 seasons at PNC Arena.

• NC State turned the ball over twice – the first with 9:25 to play and the second with 24 seconds remaining. That helped the Pack outscore UNC, 16-3, in points off turnovers. State also had a decisive 42-26 scoring advantage in the paint and 25-7 in fastbreak points.

• The two turnovers equaled the fewest by an opponent since turnovers became an official stat in 1978-79. Notre Dame had two in an 80-76 win in the Joyce Center on 2/6/2016.

• The Tar Heels are 5-8 this season when the opponents score more points off turnovers.

• Carolina lost for the fifth time in seven games this season when it shot under 40% from the floor.

• Check page 18 for more details on the UNC-NC State game.

• Armando Bacot had his 66th career double-double in the loss at NC State, tying Wake Forest's Len Chappell for fifth in ACC history.

• Bacot continues to be the only player in the ACC in the top five (and the top 10) in scoring, rebounding and field goal percentage. He is fourth in scoring, first in rebounding and fifth in field goal accuracy. The Richmond, Va., native also leads the league in offensive

• Bacot leads Carolina in scoring (career-high 17.3 ppg), rebounding (11.1 rpg), offensive rebounding (career-high 4.3), blocks (28) and field goal percentage (.563). Last season, he became the first Tar Heel ever to lead UNC in scoring, rebounding, field goal percentage and blocked shots in consecutive seasons, and he is on pace to accomplish that again this season.
• The last player to lead the Tar Heels in scoring and rebounding in three straight seasons was Tyler Hansbrough, who is the only Tar Heel to accomplish that in four consecutive seasons (2006-07-08-09).
• Bacot is one of three Tar Heels with 1,700 career points, 1,000 rebounds and 150 blocks with Sam Perkins and Brice Johnson (block totals are unknown for Billy Cunningham).

TAR HEELS W/1,700 POINTS/1,000 REBOUNDS/150 BLOCKS
Sam Perkins, 1980-84 (2,145/1,168/245)
Brice Johnson, 2012-16 (1,716/1,035/163)
Armando Bacot, 2019- (1,750/1,290/155)

• Carolina is 12-3 this season and 33-10 in his career when Bacot attempts more than six free throws in a game. The Tar Heels are 4-7 this season and 43-40 over the last four seasons when he attempts six or fewer.
• Carolina's bench has outscored the opponents seven times this season. The Tar Heels are 4-3 in those games.
• The opponents are averaging 4.9 more bench points per game. The UNC bench combined for 25 points vs. Clemson, which was its highest point production since it scored 26 at Louisville on January 14.
• The 25 bench points vs. the Tigers were the third most in a game this season (42 vs. The Citadel and 26 at Louisville).
• Freshman Tyler Nickel's 16 points vs. The Citadel were his season high and the most by a Tar Heel non-starter this season. They were the most by a Tar Heel non-starter (in a non-Senior Day game) since Johnson had 16 in the win at NC State last February.

Hubert Davis led the Tar Heels to the 2022 NCAA East Region championship, a win over Duke in a historic Final Four matchup and a berth in the national championship game, all in his first season as a head coach. The 1992 graduate of the University of North Carolina received two National Coach-of-the-Year awards as UNC won 17 of its last 21 games and came within a few possessions of securing the program's seventh NCAA Tournament title.

Davis was named the 20th head coach of the University of North Carolina men's basketball program on April 5, 2021. He became the fourth former Tar Heel player to become UNC's head coach and the first Black head coach in Carolina men's basketball history.

Davis played for Dean Smith at Carolina from 1988-92 and was an assistant coach on Roy Williams' staff from 2012-21. He played a key role coaching, recruiting and scouting and was the head coach of the UNC junior varsity program for six seasons from 2013-19.

"I said (to Coach Davis) keep what's good but don't get stuck," UNC Director of Athletics Bubba Cunningham told the media at the 2022 Final Four. "Change what needs to be changed to be modern and current. And I think that's what Hubert brings — a current mentality to the historical tradition and success that we've had."

Davis led the Tar Heels to a 29-10 record, including 15-5 in the ACC to tie Notre Dame for second place, just a game out of first. The Tar Heels went 7-3 on the road in league play, including five straight victories at Clemson, Louisville, Virginia Tech, NC State and fourth-ranked Duke when UNC won 11 of 13 games to conclude the regular season.

The 29 wins were the second most by an individual in his first season as Carolina's head coach and equaled the 10th most in NCAA history for a first-year head coach.

The Tar Heels shook up the college basketball scene in a 94-81 win at Duke when they scored 55 second-half points, all five starters played the entire second half and four scored 20 points for the first time in UNC history in Mike Krzyzewski's final game at Cameron Indoor Stadium.

UNC entered the NCAA Tournament as an eight seed but played some of its best basketball in winning the East Region. The Tar Heels had 51 assists on 62 field goals and sank 24 three-pointers in the first- and second-round wins over Marquette and Baylor, when it crushed the Golden Eagles by 32 points and eliminated the defending NCAA champion Bears in overtime after leading by 25 points in the second half in front of a heavily partisan Baylor crowd in Fort Worth, Texas.

Carolina trailed UCLA with two minutes left in the Sweet 16 but went on an 8-0 run to beat the Bruins and overpowered Saint Peter's, 69-49, in the regional final to send the Tar Heels to the Final Four for a record 21st time.

"I want every player that played for Coach Smith, Coach Guthridge and Coach Williams, whether it's in person, TV, highlights — I want them to be able to identify and go, That's the Carolina I went to," Davis said during the Final Four. "It's really important for me that this program, with my own personality in my own shoes, looks exactly like the program that Coach Smith, Coach Guthridge and Coach Williams ran."

Davis became just the second individual to play for and serve as head coach of the same school in Final Four history; the fourth to take his team to the national championship game in his first season as a head coach; the seventh to play in and be a head coach in the Final Four; and the 10th to lead his team to the Final Four in his first season as a head coach.

The Tar Heels defeated Duke, 81-77, in the national semifinals, the first time the two great rivals ever played in the NCAA Tournament. The game featured a dozen ties and 18 lead changes, 13 of which came in the second half. Over the final 15:42, the margin for either team exceeded a single possession for a little more than just one minute. Carolina would score nine different times in the second half either to break a tie or reverse the lead, including field goals or free throws by all five Tar Heel starters.

"Hubert Davis may be the nicest person I know, and he's the best father I've ever seen," Jay Bilas said to the Washington Post in New Orleans. "He's a perfect balance of cutthroat competitor and incredibly nice, thoughtful, empathetic person. He is an amazing person, and I'm not at all surprised knowing him that he is having this level of success this early."

"I tell the parents, 'I'm not your son's parent, but every decision I make will be filtered through what is in the best interests for your son and what I think you would do for your son,'" says Davis. "So, the same way I care for my three children is the same way I care for the players. I just want things to work out for them. Being a father helps me relate to the players because that's the way I coach."

Davis led Carolina to wins in March and April over the No. 4 (twice), No. 9 and No. 11-ranked teams in the AP poll. He won the Big House Gaines Award (National Sports Media Association) and John McLendon Award (CollegeInsider.com) as National Coach of the Year.

Each of Carolina's starters made significant contributions to the team's success in Davis's first season as head coach.

Armando Bacot earned third-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors, setting the single-season UNC record with 511 rebounds and tying David Robinson's NCAA record with 31 double-doubles; Brady Manek was named the top transfer in the country, coming to UNC after four seasons at Oklahoma, led the ACC in three-point percentage and averaged more than 18 points in three games vs. Duke; RJ Davis and Caleb Love alternated at point and shooting guard – Davis had 12 assists in the NCAA first round and 30 points vs. Baylor in round two; Love scored 30 against UCLA then 28 in the Final Four win over Duke; and Black became a lockdown defender, earning ACC All-Defensive team honors.

"It shows how much he cares about us and cares about the game," Love said during the NCAA Tournament. "We knew all along his passion, and we carried that with us. We feed off him and his energy. That's why you see us playing so hard for him."

"I just think Hubert is perfect for the job," Williams told USA Today during the Final Four. "He's the nicest person I've ever known but then he's also fiercely competitive. When you put those two together, it's a pretty good mix. It's why I asked him to join our staff. But he hasn't just had me as an influence. He had Coach (Dean) Smith, Don Nelson and Pat Riley

In nine seasons on the bench with Williams, the Tar Heels played in eight NCAA Tournaments, advanced to the Final Four and national championship games in 2016 and 2017 and won the NCAA title in 2017. The Tar Heels went 228-95, including 107-60 in Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season play, winning the regular-season ACC title in 2016, 2017 and 2019 and the ACC Tournament title in 2016.

Carolina earned three No. 1 seeds and a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament in those nine seasons. The four-year run from 2016-19 was the best four-year NCAA seed average in UNC basketball history.

Davis helped coach 14 players who have played in the NBA, including 10 first-round draft picks – Cole Anthony, Tony Bradley, Reggie Bullock, P.J. Hairston, Justin Jackson, Brice Johnson, Cameron Johnson, Nassir Little, Day'Ron Sharpe and Coby White.

Brice Johnson and Jackson were consensus first-team All-America and first-team All-ACC selections; Jackson was the 2017 ACC Player of the Year and Cameron Johnson earned first-team All-ACC honors.

Jackson and Cameron Johnson rank one-two in UNC single-season history in three-pointers. Johnson transferred to UNC from Pittsburgh and blossomed into the 11th pick in the first round of the 2019 NBA Draft.

Davis also coached Marcus Paige, who earned second-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors as a sophomore in 2014 and set the UNC career record with 299 three-pointers, and Joel Berry II, the 2017 Final Four Most Outstanding Player.

Anthony set the ACC record for most points in a college debut and had the second-highest single-season scoring average by a Tar Heel freshman.

White set the UNC single-season record for most threes by a freshman and became the seventh pick in the first round of the 2019 NBA Draft.

Prior to beginning his coaching career, Davis worked for seven years with ESPN as an analyst and co-host of the College GameDay program.

Born in Winston-Salem, N.C., Davis grew up in Burke, Va., where he attended Lake Braddock High School, the same high school UNC and US Soccer star Mia Hamm attended. Davis was a high school football teammate of future Olympic 110 hurdles gold medalist Allen Johnson.

Davis played in 137 games as a Tar Heel from 1988-92, during which time UNC went 102-37, won the 1989 and 1991 ACC Tournaments and played in the 1991 Final Four. He scored 1,615 points, an average of 11.8 per game. He still holds the UNC record for career three-point percentage at .435 (197 of 453). He scored in double figures 80 times with 23 games scoring 20 or more points.

"In 1987-88, I went with Coach Smith into Hubert Davis's home," says Williams, who was an assistant at UNC when Davis was being recruited. "Coach Smith said, 'I don't know if you're ever going to be able to play here, Hubert, and I don't want to do this.' I got in the car with Coach and I said, 'Coach, I think he'll play more than you think he will because I think he's so competitive and so driven.' Hubert told Coach Smith, 'You'll never know unless you give me a chance.' Coach Smith a couple days later called him and said, 'I listened to what you said and I'm going to offer you a scholarship to North Carolina.' Hubert committed to Coach Smith right then."

He scored in double figures in each of his last eight NCAA Tournament games, averaging 18.5 points in those games. That included 19 against Temple in the 1991 NCAA East Regional final and 25 against Kansas (coached by Williams) in the 1991 Final Four.

Davis averaged 21.4 points and earned second-team All-ACC honors as a senior. He scored in double figures in 32 of 33 games that season, including 20 games with 20 or more points and 30 or more in four games. He netted a career-high 35 points at Duke on March 8, 1992. That 35-point game was part of a seven-game stretch late in the season in which he averaged 28.7 points.

The New York Knicks selected Davis with the 20th pick in the first round of the 1992 NBA Draft. He played 12 seasons in the NBA, scoring 5,583 points, an average of 8.2 per contest. He made 728 three-point field goals and is currently second in NBA history in three-point percentage at .441.

Davis averaged double-figure scoring in four different seasons – a career-high 11.1 with Dallas in 1997-98 and with the Knicks in 1993-94 (11.0), 1994-95 (10.0) and 1995-96 (10.7).

He scored a career-high 32 points twice – as a second-year pro with the Knicks vs. Minnesota and in 2000 with Dallas against Seattle.

In 1993-94, he was fourth on the Knicks in scoring behind Patrick Ewing, John Starks and Charles Oakley as New York won 57 games and advanced to the NBA Finals, where they took Hakeem Olajuwon, Clyde Drexler and Kenny Smith to seven games (Doc Rivers and Greg Anthony were also Knicks that season).

He shot 40 percent or better from three-point range in eight seasons, including 1999-2000, when he led the NBA with a career-best 49.1 percent as a Maverick.

Davis shot 80 percent or better from the free throw line nine times. He connected on 83.7 percent of his career free throw attempts.

Davis played for NBA head coaches Pat Riley, Don Nelson, Jim Cleamons, Leonard Hamilton, Doug Collins, Rick Carlisle and Larry Brown. His NBA teammates included Anthony, Chauncey Billups, Ewing, Michael Finley, Richard Hamilton, Michael Jordan, Jason Kidd, Steve Nash, Dirk Nowitzki and Rivers.

"Hubert carved out a remarkable career in both longevity and achievement," said ABC/ESPN analyst and former NBA head coach Jeff Van Gundy when Davis was named head coach. "He will go down as one of the GREAT shooters of his era and had an under rated pick and roll game. Hubert was what you want in a player...dependable, reliable, trustworthy and his work ethic were second to none. Hubert's character, basketball acumen and love of UNC will drive him in his quest to continue the long and storied championship tradition that he helped create as a player and as an assistant coach. I have no doubt that Hubert will be the next in line of Hall of Fame coaches from Chapel Hill with an NCAA championship in the near future."

Hubert's uncle, Walter, starred at UNC from 1973-77 and was a six-time NBA All-Star. He was the NBA Rookie of the Year in 1978 with the Phoenix Suns, who retired his jersey.

"I've never known a finer person in my entire life, who has a switch he turns on and can be as competitive as anybody around," says Williams. "He loves this program and has the same passion I do, and he'll be better than me."

Davis graduated from UNC in 1992 with a degree in criminal justice. He and his wife, Leslie, have three children – Elijah, Gracie and Micah. Elijah is a sophomore on the basketball team at the University of Lynchburg.
