NCAA HISTORY

Notre Dame has competed in 27 NCAA Championships. Their streak of 24 straight appearances came to an end in March of 2021. It was the fourth longest active streak in the country and fifth best all-time.

The Irish are 69-25 all-time in the NCAA Tournament, as their 69 wins rank fourth all-time.

Notre Dame joins Louisiana Tech, USC and South Carolina with two NCAA titles behind UConn (11), Tennessee (8), Baylor (3) and Stanford (3).

Notre Dame is one of three schools (Tennessee & UConn) to reach seven NCAA Title games. Their nine Final Four appearances are the fifth-most of any school behind UConn (22), Tennessee (18), Stanford (15) and La Tech (10).

The Irish have reached 10 Elite Eights. In fact, Notre Dame and UConn are the only teams to reach the Elite Eight eight times over the last 11 tournaments. Yet, the Irish have been more successful than any other regularly-appearing school at that stage, as their .900 winning percentage (9-1) is the best of any program to play in at least five Elite Eights.

1.	Notre Dame	9-1	.900
2.	UConn	22-5	.815
3.	Stanford	15-7	.682
4.	Tennessee	18-10	.643

Finally, Notre Dame has advanced to 18 Sweet 16s.

IRISH (LARGELY) PASS BIG NON-CON TESTS

Before seeing an ACC foe, Notre Dame saw five Power Five teams. The Irish went 4-1 against those squads, their one loss coming against Maryland in the ACC/B1G Challenge. The Terrapins' do-it-all superstar Diamond Miller's 31 points and buzzer-beating shot gave them the 74-72 win. The game remains a very solid loss, as Maryland checked in at No. 13 in the most recent AP Poll.

But talk about a bounce back. On Dec. 4, archrival UConn visited Notre Dame to reignite arguably the best rivalry in women's basketball. The Huskies led the series 39-13 all-time, but recent years had yielded mixed results. Prior to the 2022 game, the Huskies had won two straight games and had not lost at Notre Dame since 2013.

That changed in front of a sold-out crowd. The Irish came out on fire, shooting 65.4 percent in the first half and holding the third-ranked Huskies to just 24 points, their third-worst first-half output since the 2017-18 season.

Notre Dame walked away with a 74-60 victory and a renewed confidence after the heartbreaker to Maryland. It was Coach Ivey's first win over UConn as a head coach after decades of involvement in the rivalry both as a player and an assistant.

CRUNCH TIME

The NCAA Committee revealed its most recent top 16 seeds last week, and Notre Dame checked in at No. 3 in one of two Greenville Regionals. No. 1 Indiana, No. 2 UConn and No. 4 Arizona rounded out the group.

Notre Dame made the tournament last year as a No. 5 seed, so 3 would be the highest seed under Ivey. Notre Dame was a No. 1 seed in the tournament every year from 2012-19.

The most important metric in college basketball, the NET Rankings incorporate wins and losses, strengths of opponents, game location and metrics for both offensive and defensive efficiency. It is the foundation for the NCAA selection committee's process come March. Notre Dame is currently the No. 6 team on the list.

HOME COOKIN'

While Notre Dame has struggled at times on the road this season, the Irish have been hot at home. In addition to a 13-2 record in South Bend, Notre Dame is posting 79.1 points each time the team steps onto the court in Purcell. They also have a scoring margin of +22.3.

Citron has had the most success at home this year, as she is shooting .516 from the floor and .482 from deep. The guard has hit 27 of Notre Dame's 75 treys in Purcell (36 percent). She leads the team with 215 total points at home this season.

Notre Dame is 520-108 at home all-time, an .828 winning percentage. They went 13-1 at Purcell last season and won 11+ games in South Bend every year between 2006-07 and 2018-19.

FEBRUARY MADNESS

For the first time since 2019, Notre Dame is your regular season ACC champ.

On Sunday, the 10th-ranked Irish went to Louisville for the second of two regular season matchups. Notre Dame won the first in dramatic season, as Olivia Miles hit a buzzer-beater in OT to win 78-76 and snapped a six-game losing streak to Louisville.

The Irish had not won at the KFC Yum! Center since 2016, and they needed to earn a victory to guarantee at least a share of the ACC title. Forty minutes and a Duke loss later, they were bringing the whole thing back to South Bend.

Notre Dame came out hot in the first few minutes of the contest before cooling off a bit from the floor. Louisville had a 33-24 halftime lead, which was the team's largest halftime deficit to date. Notre Dame lost Miles midway through the second for the remainder of the game.

But the Irish didn't falter, playing for both Mabrey (back home) and Miles. They won the third quarter 19-13 and a late offensive surge gave them a 25-19 advantage to close out the game. The No. 1 seed in the ACC Tournament belonged to the visitors.

HISTORY MADE

On Tuesday, Ivey earned 2023 Coach of the Year honors in the ACC. It is her first award of the sorts, and she also became the first Black head coach to win the ACC on the women's side.

Ivey led the team to a 24-4 regular season record and the regular season title after downing Louisville on Sunday.

IRISH CLEAN UP ACC AWARDS

In addition to Ivey's accolades, Notre Dame landed three players on the All-ACC First and Second Teams. Miles and Citron were members of the First Team.

Westbeld is back in the ACC award spotlight for the first time since earning 2021 Rookie of the Year honors. She is a member of the 2023 Second Team. She led Notre Dame with 1.3 blocks per game and posted 10.9 points and 6.5 rebounds per game. Westbeld is shooting 35.7 percent from deep.

After a standout freshman season that included bench play, seven starts and numerous heads up plays, Bransford landed on the ACC All-Freshman Team. She continued Notre Dame's tradition of rookie excellence after Citron won 2022 Rookie of the Year last season.

IVEY BIO

One of the finest point guards ever to wear the Notre Dame uniform, Niele Ivey (first name pronounced knee-elle) was announced as the fourth Karen & Kevin Keyes Family Head Women's Basketball Coach on April 22, 2020, just mere minutes after Muffet McGraw stepped down from her post after a Hall of Fame career.

Ivey is the common link to all nine of the program's Final Four appearances, two as a player and seven as an assistant coach, logging a combined 18 years on Notre Dame's campus (13 as a coach and five as a player).

"I am so honored to be able to follow in the legacy that Coach McGraw built here at Notre Dame," Ivey stated. "My love and appreciation for Coach McGraw is beyond anything I can express. She's more than a mentor, more than a friend, she's one of the most influential people in my life. I am full of gratitude for Coach McGraw and what she has done for me. She was the first to give me an opportunity to play for Notre Dame and coach here as well. I will forever be grateful for her love and support. I would also like to thank Jack Swarbrick and Father Jenkins for having the faith to move this program forward with me. I can never thank you enough for this incredible opportunity."

In her first year at the helm, Ivey not only had to balance settling into her new role with a young roster but also navigating the waters of both a national pandemic. In a shortened season due to Covid-19, Ivey's squad went 10-10 (8-7). In her first week on the job, Coach Ivey received verbals from now-sophomores Sonia Citron and Olivia Miles, who made up a top-five nationally ranked recruiting class.

As an assistant, the Irish went 386-55 (.875) during Ivey's time patrolling the sidelines. Notre Dame's recent decade of dominance (2010-19) had Ivey's handprints all over it – no other program had produced more trips to the national title game (six), and the Irish posted the third-most wins in that span as well (339).

That decade also consisted of 14 conference championships (eight regular-season plus six tournament titles split between the BIG EAST and ACC), seven Final Fours and a 2018 national championship.

Ivey expanded her basketball prowess when she stepped away from Notre Dame to accept an assistant coaching position with the Memphis Grizzlies for the 2019-20 season. Ivey proved to be a true trailblazer, becoming the ninth active female coach in the NBA.

Over that year, Ivey helped develop a young team, with a new coaching staff, into a playoff contender. Ivey worked with several different position groups with the Grizzlies, but primarily with standout guards Jarlen Jackson and Ja Morant, as the latter won 2020 NBA Rookie of the Year honors.

Ivey originally joined the Fighting Irish women's basketball coaching staff in May 2007 (she added the title of recruiting coordinator in 2012 and was promoted to associate head coach in the summer of 2015). Ivey went on to spend 12 seasons under Coach McGraw before departing for the Memphis Grizzlies.

Over her last eight years in particular as an assistant, Notre Dame ranked in the top-12 in field goal percentage (led the country in 2013-14 season), scoring offense and assists. In fact, Notre Dame's offense over its back-to-back title game runs in 2018 and 2019 was one for the record books. The 2018 championship squad ranked in the top five in all the aforementioned categories. Meanwhile, the 2019 Irish took home the statistical championship for top-scoring offense in the country, averaging a program-record 88.6 points per game. In addition, they broke the program record for assists (804) while finishing second in shooting percentage (50.8 percent). The stat that is the icing on the cake to all of this — the 2019 starting five of Ogunbowale, Mabrey, Shepard, Turner and Young went down as the most prolific scoring fivesome in the history of NCAA Division I basketball (men's or women's), amassing an astonishing 10,230 combined career points.

In addition to her achievements in player development with such proteges as All-Americans Skylar Diggins, Jewell Loyd, Lindsay Allen and Arike Ogunbowale, Ivey emerged as a rising star on the recruiting trail, with a sharp eye for young up-and-coming talent. In fact, she helped Notre Dame attract top-12 incoming classes in nine of her last 10 years. In her last class, Coach Ivey nabbed No. 6 Samantha Brunelle and No. 18 Anaya Peoples. Fast forward to now and Coach Ivey nabbed a top-five recruiting class in year one.

What's more, Ivey displayed brilliant prowess when it came to scouting and in-game strategy. In her last six years as an assistant, she was directly responsible for creating the game plans that led to victories over Duke (12 times), Tennessee (8 times), Florida State (7 times), Connecticut (5 times), Maryland (three times), Louisville (8 times), Syracuse (7 times), UCLA (three times), Baylor (twice), Texas A&M (3 times) and South Carolina, among many others.

In fact, Notre Dame is 5-3 all-time against UConn in the NCAA Tournament, which more than doubles the next best team's win total. Overall, over her last 12 years, the Irish have knocked off the Huskies nine times, while all other Division I teams combined for 10 wins.

All things considered, it was no surprise when Ivey was chosen as the inaugural recipient of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Division I National Assistant Coach of the Year award in 2016.

Most notable players under Ivey's tutelage: Arike Ogunbowale, Jewell Loyd and Skylar Diggins-Smith. Ogunbowale was a two-time All-American, two-time Ann Meyers Drysdale Award finalist and the 2018 Final Four MVP after her famous Ice Twice. Ogunbowale graduated as the program's all-time leading scorer. Ivey helped mold Loyd into one of the country's top players from 2012-15. Loyd finished with 1,909 points and a 17.0 career points-per-game average. Loyd's best performances came against Top 25 teams, in which she averaged 22.8 points, 6.5 rebounds and 3.2 assists per game, including a school record-tying 41 at DePaul. Then there's Skylar Diggins-Smith. Under Ivey's guidance, Diggins-Smith made a seamless transition from shooting guard to point guard during her final three seasons, emerging as one of the nation's elite players to become one of just three two-time recipients of the Lieberman Award and a two-time consensus first-team All-America and BIG EAST Player of the Year selection. Diggins-Smith graduated in 2013 as the holder (or co-holder) of no fewer than 32 game, season or career records at Notre Dame, and ranks among the top five on an astounding 105 of the program's game, season or career charts.

Ivey sat out most of her freshman season at Notre Dame (1996-97 Final Four campaign) after suffering a season-ending knee injury five games in. However, she was awarded a fifth year of eligibility in 2000-01 and made the most of it, earning third-team AP All-America honors, the first Fighting Irish point guard to be so recognized. She also was the recipient of the 2001 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award (nation's top senior player standing 5-foot-8 or under) and was a finalist for the 2001 Lieberman Award. In addition, Ivey made the 2001 NCAA Women's Final Four All-Tournament Team after averaging 16.5 points and 5.5 steals per game as the Fighting Irish defeated Connecticut and Purdue to win their first national title.

All told, Notre Dame went 109-22 (.832) during Ivey's last four seasons, reaching the NCAA Sweet 16 three times (1998, 2000, 2001) and rolling up a (then) school-record 34 wins in 2000-01. The Fighting Irish also won a share of their first BIG EAST regular-season championship in 2000-01 and were ranked in the top 10 of either or both the Associated Press and WNBA/USA Today polls for all but two weeks during her final three campaigns. While at Notre Dame, Ivey was a three-time all-BIG EAST selection (1999-2001), collecting first-team honors in 2001, and was tapped as the BIG EAST Player of the Week five times. She also led the Fighting Irish in steals in each of her final four seasons (1997-98 to 2000-01) and was the team's assist leader in her last three years, setting school records with 95 steals in 1999-2000 (since topped by Diggins) and 247 assists in 2000-01, along with a school-standard 2.67 assist/turnover ratio the latter season.

Ivey went on to play five seasons in the WNBA, beginning with her selection by the Indiana Fever in the second round (17th overall pick) of the 2001 WNBA Draft. She spent four seasons with the Fever, helping them to the first playoff berth in franchise history in 2002. Ivey signed with the Detroit Shock as a restricted free agent in 2005, and subsequently was acquired by the Phoenix Mercury later that season.

A native of St. Louis, Ivey graduated from Notre Dame's College of Arts and Letters in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in history.

SENIOR SEASON (2021-22)

Started all 33 games, averaging 32.4 minutes. The team's leader and biggest talker on the floor.

Dara's 13 three-pointers tied for the 2nd most in the NCAA Tournament, behind 14 from South Carolina's Destanni Henderson, despite Dara playing just 3 games. In fact, Dara's 12 three's over the first two rounds were the most of any men's or women's player in the 2022 NCAA Tournament.

Dara tied her sister Marina for an ND record, 7 made three-pointers in an NCAA Tournament game, against Oklahoma. Dara was unconscious in the first quarter, making 5 three's in a row, totaling 17 points in the opening period.

Led the Irish in scoring in the NCAA Tournament, averaging 18.7 points. Dara shot 21-of-35 (.600) from the field and 13-of-23 (.565) from beyond the arc Overall, her 2.2 threes/game led the team and ranked 4th in the ACC. Meanwhile, Dara connected on 36.9 percent from three, which ranked 5th in the league.

Late-game hero in win at No. 16 Georgia Tech on Feb. 17. Dara hit a shot clock buzzer-beater at 2:56 in the 4th then a big and-one at 1:23. She then scored 6 of her 11 points in OT.

Called sharpie on Virginia Tech when she iced the game with a dagger three with 3:12 remaining to keep the Irish up double digit ppoints.

Hit a pivotal three at 7:34 in the 4th, followed by a tough layup in traffic at 5:16 in the win over No. 3 NC State on Feb. 1. Dara finished with 7 points.

Dara produced back-to-back season highs in the wins over Wake and No. 21 UNC, which resulted in her first ACC Player of the Week honor. She was also named the Naismith Trophy's National Player of the Week. Dara dropped 22 points at Wake, then 24 points over UNC, converting a season high 6 made three-pointers against the latter. She ultimately hit 9 three's on the week, including one from the WF logo.

Dara has started all 117 games played. When looking at all Division I players who have played at least 117 games over the last 4 years, just 17 others have started in every one.
