NCAA HISTORY

Notre Dame will compete in its 28th NCAA Tournament this year. Their streak of 24 straight appearances came to an end in March of 2021. It was the fourth longest active streak in the country and fifth best all-time.

denotes active streak

The Irish are 69-25 all-time in the NCAA Tournament, and their 69 wins rank fourth all-time.

Notre Dame joins Louisiana Tech, USC and South Carolina with two NCAA titles behind UConn (11), Tennessee (8), Baylor (3) and Stanford (3).

Notre Dame is one of three schools (Tennessee & UConn) to reach seven NCAA Title games. Their nine Final Four appearances are the fifth-most of any school behind UConn (22), Tennessee (18), Stanford (15) and La Tech (10).

The Irish have reached 10 Elite Eights. In fact, Notre Dame and UConn are the only teams to reach the Elite Eight eight times over the last 11 tournaments. Yet, the Irish have been more successful than any other regularly appearing school at that stage, as their .900 winning percentage (9-1) is the best of any program to play in at least five Elite Eights.

Finally, Notre Dame has advanced to 18 Sweet 16s.

MILES' HISTORIC SEASON CUT SHORT

It's far from surprising, but Olivia Miles 2021-22 dominance continued into her second full season. Miles was named the ACC Player of the Week on Dec. 5 and Dec. 19, and she posted her third career triple-double against Merrimack. With the 13 points, 13 rebounds and 14 assists, Miles passed Skylar Diggins and Jackie Young for the most career triple-doubles in a Notre Dame uniform. There have been just 11 triple-doubles in the history of the program.

Unfortunately, she will miss the remainder of the 2023 season with a knee injury. Miles will have surgery the week of the Sweet 16.

Notre Dame's leader in rebounds (7.3), assists (6.9) and steals (2.1), the dynamic passer turns heads and drops jaws each time she steps onto the court. She had 10 double-doubles this year after posting a total of nine last year. The school record for a guard is 12 (Jackie Young, 2018-19).

Known for her passing capabilities, Miles ranks sixth in the nation in assists per game and leads the ACC. On just six occasions this year, an ACC player has posted 12+ assists in a game. Miles owns three of those performances. No other player has more than one.

And her game didn't fall off when she saw some of the nation's best. Against ranked teams this year, Miles averaged 13.9 points, 6.9 rebounds and 5.1 assists per game. She shot .459 from the floor in those contests.

In total, Miles produced 17 5-5-5 'Stat-Sheet Stuffer' games last season, and she had 18 this year. A stat-sheet stuffer is when you get five or more in the three major stat categories. No other Irish player had more than four last year.

EBO'S ELEVATED PLAY
Ivey brought three transfers in this offseason — Brown, Ebo and Watson — and each of the women has made an impact at some point this season.

But Ebo, a Texas transfer, has stolen the show despite coming off the bench in 20 games this year. In addition to a .497 success rate from the floor, Ebo is posting 8.9 points and 6.5 rebounds every time she takes the floor. She has three double-doubles this year.

While the Irish faced a disappointing finish at North Carolina, Ebo blew her previous rebounding record out of the water. The graduate center had 19 boards, topping her old best of 14 set at Texas.

Despite missing five games this season with a lower body injury, Ebo's name peppers the ACC rankings amongst bench players. Excluding the stats from her starts, Ebo is tied for second in the conference with 132 rebounds, third in total points (188) and tied for fourth in total made field goals (69). She finished second in the ACC voting for Sixth Player of the Year.

IRISH (LARGELY) PASS BIG NON-CON TESTS
Before seeing an ACC foe, Notre Dame saw five Power Five teams. The Irish went 4-1 against those squads, their one loss coming against Maryland in the ACC/B1G Challenge. The Terrapins' do-it-all superstar Diamond Miller's 31 points and buzzer-beating shot gave them the 74-72 win. The game remains a very solid loss, as Maryland checked in at No. 13 in the most recent AP Poll.

But talk about a bounce back. On Dec. 4, archrival UConn visited Notre Dame to reignate arguably the best rivalry in women's basketball. The Huskies led the series 39-13 all-time, but recent years had yieleded mixed results. Prior to the 2022 game, the Huskies had won two straight games and had not lost at Notre Dame since 2013.

That changed in front of a sold-out crowd. The Irish came out on fire, shooting 65.4 percent in the first half and holding the third-ranked Huskies to just 24 points, their third-worst first-half output since the 2017-18 season.

Notre Dame walked away with a 74-60 victory and a renewed confidence after the heartbreaker to Maryland. It was Coach Ivey's first win over UConn as a head coach after decades of involvement in the rivalry both as a player and an assistant.

KK BRANSFORD: SIGNED, SEALED, DELIVERED
Ivey was extremely high on her only summer-enrollee this year, KK Bransford (No. 29 overall in the 2022 class). The head coach compared her body type to that of Jackie Young, who went on to be the 2019 No. 1 overall WNBA Draft pick after averaging 12.4 points, 6.3 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game over her three-year career in South Bend.

Bransford has proven she will take on anyone. A noticably physical player, she had a career-high 39 minutes against NC State in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament, and she's posting 8.1 points and 2.7 rebounds per game with a 48.9 percent success rate from the floor. She ranks second in the ACC in points per game amongst true freshmen when they come off of the bench (8.6). She leads in total bench points (181) despite starting nine games. Finally, Bransford has 12 games in double figures this year. She was named to the All-ACC Freshman Team at the conclusion of the regular season.

A PREMATURE END TO MABREY'S IRISH CAREER
Notre Dame lost its leader for the year on Jan. 22, as graduate student and captain Dara Mabrey went down with an injury just a couple of minutes into the game against Virginia. She will miss the remainder of the year due to an ACL injury.

A transfer from Virginia Tech, the 3-point specialist finished her collegiate career with 301 deep buckets (146 at Notre Dame). She topped both of her sisters in that category, as Michaela made 228 and Marina made 274. Both of them started and finished their careers at Notre Dame, and Marina holds the program record for career 3s in an Irish uniform. All-in-all, the Mabreys totaled a whopping 803 splash-downs.

Dara's on-court performance (and stout defense) was important to Notre Dame over the last three years, but perhaps what has been even more crucial is her emotional leadership. She poured her heart and soul into the team, and she served as the heart and soul for the girls who came through the program.

CASS' DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE
Ivey's roster gained another elite recruit as the sun set on the 2022 calendar year. Five-star 2023 signee Cassandre Prosper announced in early December that she would enroll early, and she officially joined the team for practice on Dec. 26. Prosper is just the second recruit to ever make the early transition to South Bend (Olivia Miles).

She made her Irish debut at Miami and recorded a rebound and a block in three minutes of play. It was Prosper's home debut, however, that really served as her coming out party. The rookie played nearly 17 minutes, put up 7 points and came down with 9 rebounds against Boston College. She led the Irish in the latter category on the day. Her first collegiate basket was from behind the arc and was met with a standing ovation from both the bench and the Purcell Pavilion crowd. She hit two treys and posted 12 points against Wake Forest. Her back-to-back 3-pointers against NC State in late January got the Irish back into the game.

While she has hit a few clutch shots since arriving, Prosper's defense accumen is particulary stellar. Despite averaging just 20.7 minutes per game in 19 contests, Prosper has notched 68 rebounds, 15 blocks and 18 steals. She is third in the ACC in total blocks amongst freshmen.

Basketball runs in the Prosper family. Her older brother, Olivier-Maxence, is a forward at Marquette. Prosper's mother played college basketball for both Manhattan College and Concordia University, while her father played the duration of his college days at Concordia.

HOME COOKIN'
While Notre Dame has struggled at times on the road this season, the Irish have been hot at home. In addition to a 13-2 record in South Bend, Notre Dame is posting 79.1 points each time the team steps onto the court in Purcell. They also have a scoring margin of +22.3.

Citron has had the most success at home this year, as she is shooting .516 from the floor and .482 from deep. The guard has hit 27 of Notre Dame's 75 treys in Purcell (36 percent). She leads the team with 215 total points at home this season.

Notre Dame is 520-108 at home all-time, an .828 winning percentage. They went 13-1 at Purcell last season and won 11+ games in South Bend every year between 2006-07 and 2018-19.

REBOUNDING AND THE RECORD BOOK
The NCAA Tournament still lies ahead, but this year's marks are hovering around historic.

Through 30 games, the Irish are averaging 42.7 rebounds per game with a rebounding margin of +9.9. The Notre Dame record in the latter category is +10.9 and was set in 2012-13. The top rebounding mark in school history was set in 1979-80 and is 45.2. Notre Dame's most recent national title team from 2018-19 averaged 44.3 rebounds per game.

Multiple Notre Dame players have crushed it on the boards this season. Miles (7.3), Ebo (6.5) and Westbeld (6.5) are all averaging at least six rebounds per game. Miles has 200 total.

HISTORY MADE
On Feb. 28, Ivey earned 2023 Coach of the Year honors in the ACC. It is her first award of the sorts, and she also became the first Black head coach to ever win the ACC regular season on the women's side.

Ivey led the team to a 24-4 regular season record and the regular season title after downing Louisville on Feb. 26. It is Notre Dame's first regular season title since 2019. She has a 54-29 record over three years of leading the program.

IRISH CLEAN UP ACC AWARDS
In addition to Ivey's accolades, Notre Dame landed three players on the All-ACC First and Second Teams. Miles and Citron were members of the First Team. The sophomore duo leads Notre Dame with 14.7 and 14.3 points per game, respectively. Miles is the queen of the assists, leading the ACC with 6.9 per contest. Citron has become the sharp shooter from deep, making 43.9 percent of those buckets.

Westbeld is back in the ACC award spotlight for the first time since earning 2021 Rookie of the Year honors. She is a member of the 2023 Second Team, leading Notre Dame with 1.2 blocks per game and posting 11 points and 6.5 rebounds per game. Westbeld is shooting 36.3 percent from deep.

After a standout freshman season that included bench play, nine starts and numerous heads up plays, Bransford landed on the ACC All-Freshman Team. She continued Notre Dame's tradition of rookie excellence after Citron won 2022 Rookie of the Year last season.

SISTER-SISTER
When Westbeld hit her first bucket of the 2023 ACC Tournament against NC State, she became the 42nd player in Notre Dame history to reach 1,000 points. As of March 4, Westbeld remains at 1,023.

Perhaps even more special is the fact that Maddy gets to share the honor with her older sister and best friend, Kat. The elder Westbeld played for the Irish from 2014-2018 and was a part of Notre Dame's most recent national title. She finished her career in South Bend with 1,076 points and ranks 36th in program history. The Westbeld sisters are the only sibling pair in NDWBB history to both reach 1,000 points in a Notre Dame uniform.

HIGHS AND LOWS FOR AN IVEY-LED TEAM
With nearly three complete years under her belt at the helm, it's clear that Ivey's teams are getting better and better.
Three-year highs:
- Points (108) (tie) - vs Merrimack (12/10/22)
- Offensive rebounds (24) (tie) - at NU (11/16/22)
- Free throws made (34) - vs Merrimack (12/10/22)
- Steals (21) - at Clemson (1/19/23)
- Forced turnovers (29) - at Clemson (1/19/23)

- Steals/Turnover (2.0) - vs NIU (11/7/22)
Three-year lows:
- Points allowed in ACC play (43) - at Pitt (2/19/23)
- FG allowed in ACC play (16) - 2 times, most recently at Pitt (2/19/23)
- Turnovers (8) (tie) - 2 times, most recently vs ASU (11/26/22)

Additionally, this was the first year Ivey's defense has not allowed more than 80 points in a game in an entire season. This year's high was Cal, who posted 79 on the Irish on Nov. 12.

LAST FIRST TIME AROUND
Notre Dame's first-round game last season was played against UMass in Norman, Okla. The Irish won 89-78 after a first quarter offensive explosion (32 points).

Westbeld was Notre Dame's leading scorer, putting up 19 points and going 8-11 from the field. Mabrey and former Irish forward Maya Dodson each posted 18. In total, Notre Dame shot 57.6% from the floor in Norman that day.

Olivia Miles' triple-double is what stole the show, however. The then-freshman had 12 points, 11 rebounds and 11 assists, becoming the first freshman — male or female — to record a triple-double in an NCAA Tournament game.

Notre Dame has a 23-4 record all-time in the first round of the NCAA Tournament (.852) and a 51-11 record as a top-four seed.

LUCK OF THE IRISH
Friday's game against Southern Utah will be the seventh time in program history that Notre Dame has played on St. Patrick's Day. The Irish have a 4-2 record in those contests.

The last 3/17 game was also played at Purcell Pavilion, a Tournament game against Robert Morris that ended with a 79-49 victory for the home team. Marina Mabrey and Arike Ogunbowale paced the group with 15 points a piece, and Ogunbowale and Brianna Turner each had 10 rebounds.

Notre Dame's most noteworthy St. Patrick's Day game came in 1997, as the sixth-seeded Irish topped No. 3 seed Texas at the Irwin Center to advance to the program's first Sweet 16. That team ultimately became the first ND team to make the Final Four as well.

Like the current situation, Notre Dame began its Tourney journey to the 2001 national title with a March 17th drubbing of Alcorn State, 98-49. The Irish were a No. 1 seed and faced the 16.

NIELE IVEY

KAREN & KEVIN KEYES HEAD COACH

3RD SEASON

14 COMBINED YEARS AS A COACH

19 COMBINED YEARS ON CAMPUS

IG & TWITTER: @IRISHCOACHIVEY

IVEY BIO

One of the finest point guards ever to wear the Notre Dame uniform, Niele Ivey (first name pronounced knee-elle) was announced as the fourth Karen & Kevin Keyes Family Head Women's Basketball Coach on April 22, 2020, just mere minutes after Muffet McGraw stepped down from her post after a Hall of Fame career.

Ivey is the common link to all nine of the program's Final Four appearances, two as a player and seven as an assistant coach, logging a combined 18 years on Notre Dame's campus (13 as a coach and five as a player).

"I am so honored to be able to follow in the legacy that Coach McGraw built here at Notre Dame," Ivey stated. "My love and appreciation for Coach McGraw is beyond anything I can express. She's more than a mentor, more than a friend, she's one of the most influential people in my life. I am full of gratitude for Coach McGraw and what she has done for me. She was the first to give me an opportunity to play for Notre Dame and coach here as well. I will forever be grateful for her love and support. I would also like to thank Jack Swarbrick and Father Jenkins for having the faith to move this program forward with me. I can never thank you enough for this incredible opportunity."

In her first year at the helm, Ivey not only had to balance settling into her new role with a young roster but also navigating the waters of both a national pandemic. In a shortened season due to Covid-19, Ivey's squad went 10-10 (8-7). In her first week on the job, Coach Ivey received verbals from now-sophomores Sonia Citron and Olivia Miles, who made up a top-five nationally ranked recruiting class.

As an assistant, the Irish went 386-55 (.875) during Ivey's time patrolling the sidelines. Notre Dame's recent decade of dominance (2010-19) had Ivey's handprints all over it – no other program had produced more trips to the national title game (six), and the Irish posted the third-most wins in that span as well (339).

That decade also consisted of 14 conference championships (eight regular-season plus six tournament titles split between the BIG EAST and ACC), seven Final Fours and a 2018 national championship.

Ivey expanded her basketball prowess when she stepped away from Notre Dame to accept an assistant coaching position with the Memphis Grizzlies for the 2019-20 season. Ivey proved to be a true trailblazer, becoming the ninth active female coach in the NBA.

Over that year, Ivey helped develop a young team, with a new coaching staff, into a playoff contender. Ivey worked with several different position groups with the Grizzlies, but primarily with standout guards Jarien Jackson and Ja Morant, as the latter won 2020 NBA Rookie of the Year honors.

Ivey originally joined the Fighting Irish women's basketball coaching staff in May 2007 (she added the title of recruiting coordinator in 2012 and was promoted to associate head coach in the summer of 2015). Ivey went on to spend 12 seasons under Coach McGraw before departing for the Memphis Grizzlies.

Over her last eight years in particular as an assistant, Notre Dame ranked in the top-12 in field goal percentage (led the country in 2013-14 season), scoring offense and assists. In fact, Notre Dame's offense over its back-to-back title game runs in 2018 and 2019 was one for the record books. The 2018 championship squad ranked in the top five in all the aforementioned categories. Meanwhile, the 2019 Irish took home the statistical championship for top-scoring offense in the country, averaging a program-record 88.6 points per game. In addition, they broke the program record for assists (804) while finishing second in shooting percentage (50.8 percent). The stat that is the icing on the cake to all of this —— the 2019 starting five of Ogunbowale, Mabrey, Shepard, Turner and Young went down as the most prolific scoring fivesome in the history of NCAA Division I basketball (men's or women's), amassing an astonishing 10,230 combined career points.

In addition to her achievements in player development with such proteges as All-Americans Skylar Diggins, Jewell Loyd, Lindsay Allen and Arike Ogunbowale, Ivey emerged as a rising star on the recruiting trail, with a sharp eye for young up-and-coming talent. In fact, she helped Notre Dame attract top-12 incoming classes in nine of her last 10 years. In her last class, Coach Ivey nabbed No. 6 Samantha Brunelle and No. 18 Anaya Peoples. Fast forward to now and Coach Ivey nabbed a top-five recruiting class in year one.

What's more, Ivey displayed brilliant prowess when it came to scouting and in-game strategy. In her last six years as an assistant, she was directly responsible for creating the game plans that led to victories over Duke (12 times), Tennessee (8 times), Florida State (7 times), Connecticut (5 times), Maryland (three times), Louisville (8 times), Syracuse (7 times), UCLA (three times), Baylor (twice), Texas A&M (3 times) and South Carolina, among many others.

In fact, Notre Dame is 5-3 all-time against UConn in the NCAA Tournament, which more than doubles the next best team's win total. Overall, over her last 12 years, the Irish have knocked off the Huskies nine times, while all other Division I teams combined for 10 wins.

All things considered, it was no surprise when Ivey was chosen as the inaugural recipient of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Division I National Assistant Coach of the Year award in 2016.

Most notable players under Ivey's tutelage: Arike Ogunbowale, Jewell Loyd and Skylar Diggins-Smith. Ogunbowale was a two-time All-American, two-time Ann Meyers Drysdale Award finalist and the 2018 Final Four MVP after her famous Ice Twice. Ogunbowale graduated as the program's all-time leading scorer. Ivey helped mold Loyd into one of the country's top players from 2012-15. Loyd finished with 1,909 points and a 17.0 career points-per-game average. Loyd's best performances came against Top 25 teams, in which she averaged 22.8 points, 6.5 rebounds and 3.2 assists per game, including a school record-tying 41 at DePaul. Then there's Skylar Diggins-Smith. Under Ivey's guidance, Diggins-Smith made a seamless transition from shooting guard to point guard during her final three seasons, emerging as one of the nation's elite players to become one of just three two-time recipients of the Lieberman Award and a two-time consensus first-team All-America and BIG EAST Player of the Year selection. Diggins-Smith graduated in 2013 as the holder (or co-holder) of no fewer than 32 game, season or career records at Notre Dame, and ranks among the top five on an astounding 105 of the program's game, season or career charts.

Ivey sat out most of her freshman season at Notre Dame (1996-97 Final Four campaign) after suffering a season-ending knee injury five games in. However, she was awarded a fifth year of eligibility in 2000-01 and made the most of it, earning third-team AP All-America honors, the first Fighting Irish point guard to be so recognized. She also was the recipient of the 2001 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award (nation's top senior player standing 5-foot-8 or under) and was a finalist for the 2001 Lieberman Award. In addition, Ivey made the 2001 NCAA Women's Final Four All-Tournament Team after averaging 16.5 points and 5.5 steals per game as the Fighting Irish defeated Connecticut and Purdue to win their first national title.

All told, Notre Dame went 109-22 (.832) during Ivey's last four seasons, reaching the NCAA Sweet 16 three times (1998, 2000, 2001) and rolling up a (then) school-record 34 wins in 2000-01. The Fighting Irish also won a share of their first BIG EAST regular-season championship in 2000-01 and were ranked in the top 10 of either or both the Associated Press and WBCA/USA Today polls for all but two weeks during her final three campaigns. While at Notre Dame, Ivey was a three-time all-BIG EAST selection (1999-2001), collecting first-team honors in 2001, and was tapped as the BIG EAST Player of the Week five times. She also led the Fighting Irish in steals in each of her final four seasons (1997-98 to 2000-01) and was the team's assist leader in her last three years, setting school records with 95 steals in 1999-2000 (since topped by Diggins) and 247 assists in 2000-01, along with a school-standard 2.67 assist/turnover ratio the latter season.

Ivey went on to play five seasons in the WNBA, beginning with her selection by the Indiana Fever in the second round (17th overall pick) of the 2001 WNBA Draft. She spent four seasons with the Fever, helping them to the first playoff berth in franchise history in 2002. Ivey signed with the Detroit Shock as a restricted free agent in 2005, and subsequently was acquired by the Phoenix Mercury later that season.

A native of St. Louis, Ivey graduated from Notre Dame's College of Arts and Letters in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in history.

GRADUATE SEASON (2022-23)

Suffered an ACL tear and tibial plateau fracture against Virginia, which ended her college career

Hit her 300th career 3-pointer at Syracuse, 145 of which have been at Notre Dame (other 155 were at Virginia Tech)

Made five three-pointers in the first half against Ball State, finished with 19 points

Sunk her 275th career three-point shot against Northwestern, becoming the all-time leading three-point shooter amongst her sisters. Marina made 274 three-pointers (first all-time at Notre Dame, while Michaela made 228 (sixth all-time at Notre Dame).

SENIOR SEASON (2021-22)

Started all 33 games, averaging 32.4 minutes. The team's leader and biggest talker on the floor.

Dara's 13 three-pointers tied for the 2nd most in the NCAA Tournament, behind 14 from South Carolina's Destanni Henderson, despite Dara playing just 3 games. In fact, Dara's 12 three's over the first two rounds were the most of any men's or women's player in the 2022 NCAA Tournament.

Dara tied her sister Marina for an ND record, 7 made three-pointers in an NCAA Tournament game, against Oklahoma. Dara was unconscious in the first quarter, making 5 three's in a row, totaling 17 points in the opening period.

Led the Irish in scoring in the NCAA Tournament, averaging 18.7 points. Dara shot 21-of-35 (.600) from the field and 13-of-23 (.565) from beyond the arc

Overall, her 2.2 threes/game led the team and ranked 4th in the ACC. Meanwhile, Dara connected on 36.9 percent from three, which ranked 5th in the league.

Late-game hero in win at No. 16 Georgia Tech on Feb. 17. Dara hit a shot clock buzzer-beater at 2:56 in the 4th then a big and-one at 1:23. She then scored 6 of her 11 points in OT.

Called sharpie on Virginia Tech when she iced the game with a dagger three with 3:12 remaining to keep the Irish up double digit ppoints.

Hit a pivotal three at 7:34 in the 4th, followed by a tough layup in traffic at 5:16 in the win over No. 3 NC State on Feb. 1. Dara finished with 7 points.

Dara produced back-to-back season highs in the wins over Wake and No. 21 UNC, which resulted in her first ACC Player of the Week honor. She was also named the Naismith Trophy's National Player of the Week. Dara dropped 22 points at Wake, then 24 points over UNC, converting a season high 6 made three-pointers against the latter. She ultimately hit 9 three's on the week, including one from the WF logo.

Dara has started all 117 games played. When looking at all Division I players who have played at least 117 games over the last 4 years, just 17 others have started in every one.

1	Double-Figure Scoring	2

JUNIOR SEASON (2022-23)

Has seen increased minutes as center Lauren Ebo dealt with a lower body injury

Had 13 points against Merrimack, a career-high

Posted a career-high seven rebounds against Northwestern

After spending the entire 2020-21 season rehabbing her ACL injury, Marshall finally made her Irish debut in the Nov. 9 season opener vs Ohio. It had been 22 months without playing an official game.

Scored in 9 of 13 games played, averaging 8.5 minutes off the bench.

Tied her career high of 5 rebounds vs Pitt on Dec. 19.

Posted the best plus/minus (+7) in the win at Michigan State on Dec. 2. Marshall supplied 8 points in 14 minutes on 4-of-9 shooting.

When given 28 minutes of action vs Bryant, Marshall delivered with her first career double-digit scoring effort with 11 points. She was all over the court – she grabbed 5 rebounds, dished out 4 assists, blocked 2 shots and earned 4 steals.

Provided some key minutes in the 1st half at Syracuse when Westbeld/Dodson were sitting with early fouls.

Missed the 2nd half of the season due to surgery on her left knee – medial meniscus tear

FRESHMAN SEASON (2020-21)

Senior year in high school was cut short due to an ACL tear in December of 2019.

Spent the 2020-21 season rehabbing an ACL tear from high school.

PREP AND PERSONAL

Ranked 32nd overall in the 2020 class and eighth in her position

Invited to 2020 Jordan Brand Classic

Leads current ND roster with 1.023 points in blue and gold. She was the 42nd player to reach the mark in an Irish uniform. Maddy and her sister, Kat, are the only sister pair to reach 1,000 points each in Irish history.

Wooden Award Watch List // Katrina McClain Award Watch List

2021-22 Preseason All-ACC // Wooden Award Preseason Watch List // Wooden Award Midseason Top 25

Picked up right where she left off from her Rookie of the Year campaign - averaging 11.8 ppg which ranked 4th on team.

March Maddy - 5 straight games scoring double-digit points. Averaged 7.8 rebounds and 15.2 points in the month of March.

Averaged 15.0 points and 7.3 rebounds during the NCAA Tournament. Maddy shot 60.6 percent, which ranked as the 4th best of all players in the Big Dance who played in multiple games.

Near identical performances in the second round and Sweet 16 --> 13 points, 9 rebounds, 6-of-10 shooting at Oklahoma; then 13 points, 8 rebounds, 6-of-12 shooting against NC State in Bridgeport.

Speaking of her performance in Bridgeport vs NC State, Maddy had to play the five and defend All-American Elissa Cunane after Dodson got into foul trouble. The result, one of her best defensive performances of the year. Westbeld tied her career high of 3 steals.

In her NCAA Tournament debut, Maddy led the team in scoring with 19 points in the win over UMass. She shot 8-for-11 from the field.
