STORYLINES

◀ Cards Host Nationally Ranked Notre Dame: The University of Louisville hosts its first nationally ranked opponent in 2023 when No. 10 Notre Dame travels to L&N Stadium for a Saturday night game that will be televised on ABC. It's the first game that will be broadcast on the network since 2020 when No. 18 Louisville and No. 17 Miami faced off in a match-up of nationally ranked teams.

◀ 5-0 for the First Time in 10 Years: The Cardinals moved to 5-0 for the first time since 2013 with a 13-10 win over NC State on Friday night. Louisville's 3-0 conference record is the best since 2012 when the Cards were members of the Big East Conference. With the win, the Cardinals are 3-0 in the ACC for the first time in school history. Paced by its defense, the Cardinals allowed just 201 yards of offense and limited NC State to 3-of-15 on third down to grind out its sixth-straight win dating back to last season.

◀ Jeff Brohm is the Second: Louisville head coach Jeff Brohm is the second UofL head football coach to begin his coaching stint with a 5-0 record, joining Tom King who won his first 10 games coaching the Cardinals in 1925 and 1926.

◀ Home Winning Streak: The Cardinals bring a seven-game home winning streak into Saturday's game versus the Fighting Irish. Louisville won five-straight home contests after losing its home opener 35-31 to Florida State. The seven-game streak is tied for the 11th longest in school history and the best since UofL won eight during the 2000-01 season.

◀ New School Record: Placekicker Brock Travelstead sent the Cardinals to their sixth-straight win dating back to last season with a school record 53-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to put the Cards ahead 13-10 with 5:32 to play. The field goal breaks the old mark of 52 yards set by Wilbur Summers, Ron Bell, Klaus Wilsmeier, Nate Smith, and Chris Philpott. Travelstead kicked two field goals in the game to improve to 6-of-8 on the season. He booted four field goals in the opener versus Georgia Tech and two in Friday night's win over NC State.

BY THE NUMBERS

Brock Travelstead booted a school record 53-yd field goal to put the Cards ahead 13-10 in the win over NC State.

DEPARTMENT ADDRESS

Phone: 502-852-6581
2100 S. Floyd St.
Louisville, Ky. 40208

• Media Credentials: To obtain credentials for a U of L home contest, please make the request to Rocco Gasparro (rocco.gasparro@louisville.edu) or Stephen Williams (s.williams@louisville.edu). Credentials are held at Media Will Call, located near Gate 7 on the press box side of the stadium. Credentials will not be mailed. The press box is accessible through Gate 8, accessing the elevator to the Fifth Floor. Work space is available for media and photographers. Professional scouts will also be accommodated in the press box while space is available.

• Internet/Phone Service: Wireless internet access is available in the press box. The network appears as CardsWiFi. There is no password required.

• Photographers: Photographers may work in designated areas behind the dotted lines on the sidelines at L&N Stadium. All photographers must obtain an vest at the game in the press box or from a sideline representative. Work space with wireless internet access is available in the field level photo room.

• Parking: Limited media parking is available in the Yellow Lot south of the stadium. Requests should be made well in advance to (rocco.gasparro@louisville.edu). Approved parking passes will be e-mailed during game week.

• Notes/Stats: Updated notes and statistics are maintained on the football page of the Cardinals' web site at www.GoCards.com, or specifically at the media center at http://www.gocards.com/sports/football/media_center.html. Please contact us if you would like any materials emailed to your attention. Follow Cardinal Football on Twitter at @UofLFootball and Cardinal Athletics at @GoCards.

• Postgame: Coach Brohm will be available in the UofL defensive team meeting room in the football complex following the game. Please enter through the door to the right when facing the football complex from the field. Players will be brought to the defensive team meeting room following Brohm's remarks. A media interview area is available for the visiting coach across from the visiting locker room beneath the East stands (opposite the press box side).

• Media Relations/ Football Offices Location: The UofL Media Relations office is located in the Swain Student Activities Center on the UofL campus near the corner of Floyd and Brandeis Streets (2100 South Floyd Street). Visitor's parking is available in the Floyd Street garage adjacent to the Student Activities Center. The football offices are located in the Schnellenberger Football Complex on campus in the north end zone of L&N Stadium.

NOTING LOUISVILLE-NOTRE DAME SERIES

◀ The Cardinals and Fighting Irish will meet for the fourth time in school history when the two teams square off on Saturday night.

◀ Notre Dame owns a 2-1 series advantage after winning a 12-7 contest during the COVID season in 2020.

◀ Ian Book scored on a 13-yard run late in the third quarter to overcome a 7-6 UofL lead.

◀ The Cardinals announced a sellout for Saturday's game versus the Fighting Irish, the program's first since 2019 when ND opened the 2019 season at L&N Stadium. Notre Dame won that contest 35-17.

◀ Tony Jones Jr. rushed 15 times for 112 yards, including an 11-yard TD. Notre Dame trailed 14-7 in the first before Jones' score tied it, and Book followed with an 11-yard score just before halftime.

◀ Book's TD came after a bizarre sequence featuring three consecutive fumbles between the teams, the last of which Notre Dame recovered at Louisville's 20. The Irish forced five fumbles overall and recovered three.

◀ Quarterback Jawon Pass rushed for touchdowns of 8 and 17 yards in the first quarter.

◀ Louisville's lone win in the series came in 2014 when Brandon Radcliff rushed for 136 yards and a touchdown and Reggie Bonnafon threw for 180 yards and a score in the 31-28 win over the Irish in South Bend.

Noting Last Week's Game

- The Cards are off to a 5-0 start overall for the first time since 2013.
- Louisville is 3-0 in conference play for the first time as an ACC member, last achieving a 3-0 conference start in 2012 when it was a member of the Big East.
- Jeff Brohm is the second Louisville coach to begin his UofL career 5-0, joining Tom King who won his first ten games coaching the Cardinals in 1925 and 1926.
- Louisville holds NC State to 201 yards of total offense, its lowest total since a 198-yard performance against Notre Dame in 2016.
- NC State's 112 yards passing is also its lowest total since passing for 41 yards in the 2016 Notre Dame game.
- Louisville holds its opponent scoreless in the first quarter for the sixth straight game, the longest streak since doing so for seven straight games in 1973.
- Louisville is shut out in the first half for the first time since a 43-24 loss to Mississippi on Sept. 6, 2021.
- Louisville wins for just the third time in program history when being held to 20 yards rushing or less.
- Louisville holds an opponent scoreless for at least one half for the fourth time in its last six games.
- K Brock Travelstead set a new Louisville record for longest field goal made, connecting from 53 yards to break the record of 52 yards shared by Wilbur Summers, Ron Bell, Klaus Wilmsmeyer, Nate Smith, and Chris Philpott.
- CB Quincy Riley intercepted an NC State pass with 1:33 left in the game to clinch the victory for Louisville. Riley's interception was the fourth of his Louisville career.
- QB Jack Plummer finished 21-of-35 for 286 yards passing with one touchdown pass and two interceptions. He was sacked four times for 40 yards.
- WR Chris Bell scored his first career touchdown, hauling in a 39-yard pass from Plummer for Louisville's only trip to the end zone. Bell finished with three receptions for a career-high 85 yards

Quarterback Jack Plummer has tossed a touchdown pass in each of his last seven starts. He's thrown 11 touchdowns in the first five games of the 2023 season.

Key Storylines

- ◀ The Cardinals look to go 6-0 overall for the first time since 2013 when they opened the season at 6-0 before dropping a 38-35 decision at home to UCF. Louisville's best start came in 2012 when they opened the year at 9-0 before suffering a loss at Syracuse.
- ◀ The Cardinals host nationally ranked Notre Dame on Saturday night on ABC — the first broadcast on ABC since the 2020 season against Miami. The Cardinals are hosting a ranked opponent for the first time since a 48-21 win over No. 10 Wake Forest last season. Louisville is 3-2 in match-ups against AP ranked opponents at home. It will be the first match-up when both schools are ranked since 2020 when No. 17 Louisville and No. 18 Miami faced off.
- ◀ This is the second time Notre Dame is coming to L&N Stadium as top-10 opponent, defeating the Cards 35-17 in the 2019 season opener. Louisville is 7-27-1 against top-10 foes, but did defeat No. 18 Wake Forest 48-21 last season at L&N Stadium.
- ◀ After rushing for over 180 yards in the first four games, the Cardinals were held to 20 yards on 29 carries and went without a rushing touchdown for the first time in 11 games — since a 24-10 win over Pitt on Oct. 22 last year. Louisville won for just the third time in program history when being held to 20 yards rushing or less. The last win came in 2014 when the Cards rushed for just 12 yards in a 3-43 victory over FIU. Louisville is 3-39-1 when rushing for less than 20 yards in a game.
- ◀ Quarterback Jack Plummer tossed his 11th touchdown pass of the season, throwing a touchdown in his seventh-straight game dating back to his last season at Cal. Plummer tossed a 39-yard pass to Chris Bell in the third quarter.
- ◀ Louisville has won 27-straight games when shutting out its opponent for at least one half last losing such a game 14-7 at North Carolina in 2011.
- ◀ Louisville's 13-10 win at NC State was the fewest points in a road win since a 13-10 victory over Kentucky in 1995. The win represented the lowest point total in a victory since a 10-9 win over Syracuse at L&N Stadium in 2009.
- ◀ The Cardinals have outscored the opposition 34-0 in the first quarter this season. They have held opponents scoreless in the first quarter for six-straight games, the longest streak since doing so for seven consecutive game in 1973.
- ◀ Entering the NC State game, the Cardinals were 2-9 in their last 11 games in contests decided by seven points or less. In the first five games of 2023, head coach Jeff Brohm is 3-0 in decisions of seven points or less and 2-0 in games decided by five or fewer points. Prior to the 13-10 win over NC State, the Cardinals had lost six-straight games that were decided by five or less points. The last win was a 62-59 win at No. 19 Wake Forest in 2019.
- ◀ The Cardinals have won three of its first five games by five or fewer points for just the third time in school history. The first time coming in 2012 when they beat North Carolina 39-34, FIU 28-21 and Southern Mississippi 21-17. The other time came in 1925.
- ◀ Louisville held NC State to 201 yards of total offense, its lowest total since a 198-yard performance against Notre Dame in 2016. The Wolfpack had 13 drives in the game and six ended in three-and-outs.

Louisville limited NC State to 4-of-14 on third down and the average distance to go on the money down was 9.3 yards. The Cardinals held the Wolfpack to 115 yards of total offense and forced three turnovers to overcome a 10-0 half-time deficit.

Scouting Notre Dame

◀ The University of Notre Dame football team took over on it’s own five-yard line trailing Duke by a score 14-13 with 2:35 left in regulation and needing to come away with a victory. The Irish put together a 10-play, 95-yard drive that was capped off by a 30-yard touchdown run from Audric Estime with just 31 seconds left in the game to deliver Notre Dame the 21-14 victory at Wallace Wade Stadium on Saturday evening.

◀ The defining play on the drive was a 17-yard scramble from quarterback Sam Hartman on 4th-and-16 to put the ball on Duke’s 30-yard line, setting up the game-winning touchdown from Estime.

◀ The defense then stood tall one more time, this time via a strip sack from Howard Cross III, which was recovered by Marist Liufau to put an exclamation mark on the victory.

◀ Sam Hartman, who transferred from Wake Forest, has yet to throw an interception in the first six games. The senior has thrown for 1,458 yards and 14 touchdowns this season. Audric Estime has ran for 672 yards and seven scores. Tight end Mitchell Evans is their top target in the passing game with 18 receptions for 272 yards.

◀ Defensively, the Fighting Irish are one of the best teams against the pass, allowing just 146.8 yards through the air and allowed just three touchdowns.

◀ Howard Cross is the team’s top tackler with 35 and Xavier Watt has a team high two interceptions.

◀ The Fighting Irish is off to a 5-1 record and have played a pair of ranked opponents, defeaing No. 17 Duke and losing at home against No. 6 Ohio State on the game’s final play.

ACC Mark

◀ The Cardinals own a 40-37 all-time mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference since joining the league in 2014. Louisville is 3-0 for the first time in school history after a 13-10 win over NC State.

◀ Louisville is looking to go 4-0 in the ACC for the first time since joining the league in 2014 and are attempting win its first four league games since they went 4-0 in the BIG EAST during the 2012 season.

◀ The Cardinals are 24-14 all-time at home in the ACC and picked up its fourth consecutive league win at L&N Stadium since falling to Florida State 35-31 to open the home league schedule last season.

◀ The Cardinals are 15-23 all-time in the ACC on the road after a 13-10 win at NC State – its first league road win since a 34-17 win at Virginia in 2022.

Non-Conference Success

◀ After opening the season with a conference win, the Cardinals stepped out of ACC play with the 56-0 win over Murray State and a 21-14 win over Indiana.

◀ Since joining the league, the Cardinals are 27-15 in non-conference action.

◀ Louisville has won six of its last seven non-league games after going 4-1 last season in games played out of the ACC.

◀ Head coach Jeff Brohm is 22-13 in non-conference games in his 10 seasons as a head coach. He’s guided his teams to four wins in its last five non-league games.

Home Winning Streak

◀ First-year Louisville head coach Jeff Brohm helped extend his team’s home winning streak to seven games after the 56-28 win over Boston College. Brohm’s team has won seven consecutive home games dating back to last season after losing the home opener against Florida State. After dropping a four-point decision to the Seminoles, the Cards went on to win the next five games at L&N Stadium and added on to it with a pair of home wins to open the season.

◀ Louisville’s seven-game home winning streak is the eighth-longest home winning streak in the nation. Georgia leads the nation with 22-straight home wins, Michigan is second with 19, and Utah is third with 17-straight home wins. Tennessee is fourth at 11-straight wins and USC and Washington are tied with 10.

◀ The current seven-game home winning streak is tied for the 11th longest in school history and the best since the Cards had nine ending in 2016.

Head Coaches At Alma Mater

◀ Head coach Jeff Brohm, a 1994 graduate of Louisville, is one of 19 current FBS head coaches to lead his alma mater.

◀ A three-year starter, he still ranks among the Cardinals' career leaders in touchdown passes (tied for eighth, 38), total offense (ninth, 5,410), completion percentage (ninth, .562), passing yards (10th, 5,451), and passing efficiency (ninth, 129.97), passing attempts (10th, 715) and completions (10th, 402) through the 2022 season. Brohm was voted the team's Most Valuable Player during both his junior and senior seasons, and his No. 11 became part of the Louisville Ring of Honor in 2006.

Halftime Adjustments

- ◀ Head coach Jeff Brohm can’t keep making a habit of his teams falling behind at the half, but so far, there can’t be too many complaints. For only the third time in school history, the Cardinals have overcome two 10-point deficits in the same season. Louisville trailed Georgia Tech 28-13 in the season opener to only come back to win 39-34. Louisville trailed NC State 10-0 at the break before scoring 13 second-half points to win 13-10 to move to 5-0.
- ◀ The last time it happened twice in the same season came during the 2000 campaign under John L. Smith. Louisville opened the year trailing Kentucky 19-7 before roaring back for a 40-34 overtime win at L&N Stadium. Five games later, the Cardinals trailed Cincinnati 24-14 at the break but battled back to win 38-24. Louisville also pulled the trick during the 1965 season.
- ◀ The two comeback wins this year marks the first time in school history that the Cards have fought back from two 10-point deficits on the road in the same season.

Nationally Ranked Opponents

- ◀ Head coach Jeff Brohm can’t keep making a habit of his teams falling behind at the half, but so far, there can’t be too many complaints. Epic Starts

- ◀ The Cardinals have scored first quarter points in four of the first five games, and are outscoring the opposition 34-0 in the first stanza this season.
- ◀ Head coach Jeff Brohm's teams have tallied touchdowns in the first quarter of three of the first five contests, and booted two field goals in the opener versus Georgia Tech. Louisville was shutout in the first half for the first time against NC State for the first time since a 43-24 loss to Mississippi to open the 2021 season.
- ◀ The Cardinals were held without a point in the first half of the win over NC State. Louisville has scored 34 first quarter points this year.
- ◀ Brohm's teams are 50-11 when scoring first during his coaching career, including a 4-0 mark in his first season at Louisville.
- ◀ Brohm's team has scored on its first drive in three of the first five games and is 40-11 when his teams get on the board on their initial drives.
- ◀ The Cardinals have outscored the opposition 104-52 in the first half and 81-34 in the second half, including 33-13 in the final period.
- ◀ Of the 30 scoring drives this season, the Cardinals have scored in less than a minute on 10 of those drives.

Early Enrollees

- ◀ The Cardinals welcomed 18 scholarship student-athletes who enrolled in classes in January and participated in spring practice.
- ◀ The early January enrollees were: wide receivers Jamari Thrash, Jimmy Calloway, William Fowles, Cataurus Hicks, and Jadon Thompson, linebackers Stanquan Clark, Gilbert Frierson, and Adonijah Green, quarterbacks Pierce Clarkson and Jack Plummer, running back Isaac Guerendo, defensive backs Marquis Groves-Killebrew and Devin Neal, defensive lineman Rodney McGraw, tight end Jamari Johnson and offensive linemen John Paul Flores, Luke Burgess and Madden Sanker.

First-Year Head Coaches at Louisville

- ◀ The 104th season of Louisville football will feature a new look on the sidelines this fall as Jeff Brohm took over as the 24th head coach in program history. Brohm will be looking to send the Cardinals back to a bowl game for a third-consecutive season in his debut. If history repeats itself, Brohm could be in store for a solid debut season as 10 of the 14 previous head coaches have recorded a winning record in their first year. Louisville has advanced to a bowl game in five of those seasons previously, most recently in the Music City Bowl in 2019 under Scott Satterfield.
- ◀ First-year head coaches have found success in their debut season over the past decade as six of the last seven leaders of the football program have boasted a winning record in their debut season. That list features: Ron Cooper (1995), John L. Smith (1998), Bobby Petrino (2003, 2014), Charlie Strong and Scott Satterfield (2019.).
- ◀ Brohm is the third head coach all-time to inherit a football program coming off a bowl appearance. He joins the likes of Bobby Petrino, who did it in both 2003 replacing John L. Smith and when he was re-hired in 2014 after Charlie Strong led the Cards to the Russell Athletic Bowl.

Seven-Straight Scores

- ◀ Louisville's offense was rolling in the 56-28 win over Boston College. The Cards opened the game with seven-straight touchdowns to hold a 49-14 lead in the third quarter. It marked the first time since 2007 when Louisville opened with 10-straight scores in a 73-10 win at home against Murray State.

- ◀ In the 56-28 win over Boston College, after forcing a punt, the Cards marched 59 yards for a touchdown. It was the third time in four games that the Cards scored on its opening drive – two touchdowns and a field goal.
- ◀ Louisville went on to score six more times on just 32 plays that covered 398 yards (66.3 yards a drive).
- ◀ Of the 63 drives this season, the Cards have scored on 30 of them, 24 resulting in touchdowns.
- ◀ The Cards rank 16th nationally with 24 touchdowns scored this season.

Top 25 Match-ups

- ◀ The Louisville-Notre Dame top 25 match-up will only be the sixth time in school history that two ranked teams will take the field together at L&N Stadium, and the first since No. 17 Miami defeated No 18 Louisville 47-34 during the COVID season of 2020.
- ◀ Louisville is 3-2 at home against ranked opponents, but have dropped their last two games – falling to Miami and No. 3 Clemson in 2017. The last win came back in 2016 when Lamar Jackson and the Cards defeated No. 2 Florida State 63-20.
- ◀ The two others came in 2006 when head coach Jeff Brohm was quarterbacks coach and his brother, Brian, who was the team's starting quarterback led the Cardinals to a win over No. 3 West Virginia and No. 17 Miami.
- ◀ Louisville is 8-14 overall in games that pair two top 25 teams and have lost its last six encounters, most recently a 23-20 loss at Pitt in 2020.

Who is Jack Plummer?

- ◀ In five seasons, one at California (2022), and four at Purdue (2018-21), quarterback Jack Plummer made 24 starts in 33 games played, connecting on 601 of his 943 passes for 6,500 yards and 47 touchdowns. In that time, he had just 19 interceptions.
- ◀ In his lone season at Cal, Plummer completed 282-of-451 passes (62.5%) for 3,095 yards that ranked sixth on Cal's all-time single-season list with 21 touchdowns , which tied for him eighth and nine interceptions for a 131.5 rating. He ranked third in the Pac-12 and tied for 16th nationally in completions per game (23.50) through the end of the 2022 regular season and completed at least 20 passes in 10 of 12 games including each of the last eight. The native of Gilbert, Ariz., threw for three touchdowns or more five times and at least one touchdown pass in 10 of 12 games .
- ◀ While at Purdue, Plummer played in 21 games with 13 starts over the final three seasons of his four campaigns at Purdue and completed 319-of-492 passes (64.8%) for 3405 yards with 26 touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a 136.35 quarterback rating. Plummer played in a career-high-tying nine games including starts in each of the first four and helped his squad post a 3-1 record in those contests as a 2021 junior when he completed 87-of-127 passes (68.5%) for 864 yards with seven touchdowns and no interceptions for a 143.84 quarterback rating playing for a team that finished 9-4 overall and defeated Tennessee in the Transperfect Music City Bowl.

Plummer in the Red and White

- ◀ In his first season with the Cardinals, Jack Plummer has completed 86 of his 132 passing attempts (65.3 percent) for 1,406 yards, 11 touchdowns and six interceptions through five games.
- ◀ Plummer has thrown for at least 240 yards and at least one touchdown in each of his first five games at Louisville.
- ◀ Through five games, Plummer ranks eighth and leads the ACC in passing yards per completion with an 16.35 average and is sixth nationally and also leads the league in yards per attempt at 10.65. The 6-foot-5 signal caller ranks 26th in the nation in total offense with an average of 297.0 yards per game and is 17th in passing efficiency. His 11 touchdowns are 16th in the country.
- ◀ The Cal transfer had an efficient 18-of-21 passes for 388 yards and a career high five touchdowns. The 388 yards was the eighth 300-yard game of his career and his 17th multi-touchdown game of his career.

Plummer accounted for six touchdowns in Louisville's 56-28 win vs. Boston College, passing for five and running for another. This was the eighth time in program history that a Louisville player has been responsible for six or more touchdowns.

Plummer completed five passes of at least 40 yards each, giving him nine on the season.

Plummer completed 15 straight passes before an incomplection on his final attempt, tying him for the fourth longest completion streak in program history.

The 388 passing yards were the most by a UofL quarterback since Lamar Jackson passed for 393 yards against North Carolina in 2017.

Plummer guided the Cardinals to 39 points, the most by a UofL quarterback in his debut since Stefan LeFors led UofL to a 40-24 win at Kentucky. Dave Ragone also led UofL to a 40-34 overtime win over Kentucky in 2002.

After throwing an incomplection to go 10-for-21 to open the game against Georgia Tech, Plummer would connect on eight of 10 passes to close the game, which included a pair of touchdowns. Plummer accounted for 298 yards of total offense in the win after also rushing for 51. The 51 yards rushing were the second most of his career and the most since he recorded 61 against Nebraska while at Purdue during the 2019 season. It was only the 11th time in 32 games that Plummer recorded a positive rushing total.

He currently has the 26th-most career yards passing and touchdowns among active players in the FBS (7,930) and (58), respectively.

Jordan's ACC Top Rusher

The Cardinals need running back Jawhar Jordan to rush for over 100 yards more often. In 21 career games with the Cards, Jordan has seven 100-yard rushing games, all coming in the last 10 games. Entering the Notre Dame game, Jordan leads the conference and ranks 12th nationally with 510 yards despite being held to a season low 32 yards in the win over NC State.

He totaled 135 yards in the win over Murray State and came back with 113 yards against Indiana. In the win over Boston College, Jordan equaled a season high with 18 carries for 134 yards and two scores — his seventh 100-yard game of his career.

Through the first five games, Jordan ranks sixth in the nation in yards per carry at 7.3 yards an attempt. He stands 14th nationally in rushing touchdowns with six and is 15th in rushing yards per game at 102.0.

Jordan leads all FBS players with three scrimmage plays of 70+ yards and two rushes of 70+ yards. He is third with seven scrimmage plays of 30+ yards, and fourth with four of 40 or more yards. He owns six rushes of over 20 yards and five of over 30.

In the win over Boston College, Jordan rushed 18 times for 134 yards and two scores and also caught one pass for a 75-yard touchdown — the third touchdown of over 70 yards this season.

Jawhar Jordan's 75-yard TD catch is tied for the fourth longest by a UofL running back.

Jordan scored on a 72-yard run and also had a 74-yard run against Georgia Tech in the season opener, becoming the only player nationally with two runs of over 70 yards this season.

The redshirt junior has a rushing touchdown in five of six games dating back to last season.

As an all-purpose payer, Jordan ranks seventh nationally and leads the ACC in all-purpose yardage, averaging 146.4 yards per game. He's caught seven passes for 159 yards and also returned a kick for 63 yards this year.

Over the last 10 games, seven ending with 100 yards contests, Jordan has rushed for 1,043 and nine touchdowns, an average of 104.3 yards per contest.

In his third season with the Cards, Jordan has rushed for 1,419 yards and 10 touchdowns after transferring from the Orange, where he totaled 177 yards in two seasons.

Jordan owns seven 100-yard games over the last two seasons after closing the 2022 season with three consecutive games over the century.

Jordan's 10 touchdown runs in his Louisville career have averaged 29.8 yards and his 11 offensive touchdowns have totaled a 33.9 yard average.

Thrash Making Plays

◀ Wide receiver Jamari Thrash continues to lead the Cardinals in receiving after catching three passes for 44 yards but was held out of the end zone for the first time this season. The Georgia State transfer has caught 22 passes for 444 yards, which ranks second in the ACC and five touchdowns, which is also second in the ACC.

◀ He caught four passes for 159 yards and a touchdown against Indiana, which included an 85-yard touchdown reception –recording the eighth longest touchdown reception in school history. The 159 yards receiving were the fourth-highest of his career and the fifth 100-yard game of his career – four coming at Georgia State.

◀ Thrash has five receiving touchdowns this season, which is 12th in the country and second in the ACC. He’s scored at least one touchdown in each of the first four games. He’s totaled six touchdowns this season, which puts him 11th in the country and fourth in the ACC.

◀ Through four games, Thrash is averaging 100.0 yards receiving per game, which is second in the ACC, and his 440 yards receiving is 21st in the country.

◀ Thrash set a new school record by averaging 39.8 yards per reception (minimum four catches). DeVante Parker held the previous record of 38.3 yards in a 45-35 win at Pittsburgh on Oct. 13, 2012.

◀ Thrash is averaging 20.2 yards per reception this season, which is second in the ACC and is 23rd in the country. The junior has four receptions of 40 or more yards, which is the third-best total in the nation.

◀ The native of LaGrange, Ga., is averaging 39.5 yards per play on his touchdowns this season. He’s scored six total touchdowns this year – five receiving and one rushing score to rank 26th nationally and sixth in the ACC.

◀ Thrash shares the FBS lead with two receptions of 70+ yds and is one of 20 players with at least one 80-yard catch.

◀ The 6-foot-2 receiver has caught 126 passes for 2,196 yards and 17 touchdowns in 42 career contests.

Keeping Plummer Upright

◀ Featuring two new starters on the offensive line, the Cardinals’ offensive line has been solid in the first five games, allowing just nine sacks and 21 tackles for loss. Louisville has lost only 108 yards rushing this season on 187 attempts. Quarterback Jack Plummer has been sacked nine times in 132 attempts and the team has allowed those nine sacks in 144 drop backs.

◀ Louisville’s offensive line held Georgia Tech without a tackle for loss for only the third time in a game since the since 1980 when tackles for loss became a stat. It marked the first time since a 34-17 win at Virginia last season that the opposition didn’t register a TFL, with the only other time coming versus Cincinnati in 2003.

◀ In the win over Georgia Tech, the Cardinals ran 65 plays and only had two negative yards, which came as a team rush in the victory formation to close out the game. Louisville rushed 34 times for 227 yards and one score, while averaging 6.7 yards per carry. The Cardinals had five rushes of 10 or more yards, including the 74-yard touchdown run by Jawhar Jordan.

◀ Louisville also held Georgia Tech without a sack in 31 drop-back attempts.

◀ The offensive line has featured two new starters in Eric Miller, a transfer from Purdue, and Willie Tyler, who joined the Cards from Rutgers. Both started at tackle, while Renato Brown has moved inside after starting 13 games at offensive tackle last season. Miller started all 13 games at tackle for Purdue last season, while Tyler started nine times for the Scarlet Knights.

Brohm Selling Tickets, Too

◀ There was no question that the hiring of hometown hero Jeff Brohm would have a considerable impact on the bottom line, but no one thought the impact would reach these heights as the 2023 season begins on Sept. 1.

◀ Within the first couple months of his hiring, approximately 4,000 new season tickets were sold to celebrate the hiring of the Louisville native.

2023 Louisville Football | Game 6: Notre Dame

◀ Football season ticket sales have increased of about 20% over last season, which were a little over 28,000 in 2022. There is hope that the final number of new season ticket holders could be an increase of almost 25 percent before the home opener against Murray State on Sept. 7.

◀ Brohm's hiring has had a huge financial impact on the program with a more than 10 percent increase in ticket revenue and seat donations.

◀ The Notre Dame should bring the largest crowd in the history of L&N Stadium as the game was announced as a sellout, which was the first since 2019 when the Cards hosted Notre Dame to open the season.

Wisconsin Transfer Adding Backfield Depth

◀ The Cardinals entered the transfer market for a running and found Wisconsin standout Isaac Guerendo. The former Badger has made an impact in the first five games, totaling 31 carries for 142 yards and a touchdown, which is second on the team. He's averaging a solid 4.6 yards a carry.

◀ Out of the backfield, Guerendo has caught nine passes for 102 yards.

◀ In the win versus Murray State on Sept. 7, Guerendo tied a team high 11 carries for 63 yards and a touchdown — a one-yard run in the second quarter.

◀ He also tied for the team lead with four receptions for 47 yards.

◀ He is third on the team with an average of 61.3 all-purpose yards per game. While at Wisconsin last season, Guerendo carried 64 times for 385 yards and four scores, while averaging a healthy 6.0 yards per carry. He also caught 17 passes for 115 yards and a score out of the backfield.

More Than Thrash

◀ While wide receiver Jamari Thrash has stolen most of the headlines, the Cardinals have other wide receivers who have stepped up this season.

◀ Ahmari Huggins Bruce is second on the team in receiving with 13 catches for 191 yards and two scores. He became the 50th wide receiver in school history to record over 1,000 yards receiving in his career. He's averaging 14.7 yards per carry and scored touchdowns from 45 and 55 yards this season. The junior had a breakout game in a win over Boston College, catching three passes for 110 yards.

◀ A transfer from Jackson State, Kevin Coleman has caught 10 passes for 167 yards and one score, while averaging a solid 16.7 yards per reception. He's caught a pass in five-straight games, including a season high three for 66 yards and a touchdown in the opener versus Georgia Tech.

◀ Sophomore Chris Bell had his best game as a Cardinal in the win over NC State, catching three passes for 85 yards and his first career touchdown — a 38-yard reception for the team's only touchdown. He's already tied his career high with seven catches for a career high 175 yards.

◀ Jimmy Calloway, a Tennessee transfer, has also caught seven passes for 84 in the first five games.

◀ At the tight end position, Nate Kurisky, who redshirted last season, stepped up with three receptions for 28 yards against NC State. He's caught four passes for 29 yards this season, including his first touchdown against Boston College. Josh Lifson caught a career high two passes for 12 yards against NC State.

Spread the Ball Around

◀ Head coach Jeff Brohm likes to spread the football around to his playmakers, and he has a lot of them. Through five games, 16 different players have contributed with receptions and 11 players have scored touchdowns. Three players have three or more this season in Jawhar Jordan (7), Jamari Thrash (6), and Ahmari Huggins-Bruce (3).

◀ A total of 16 players have caught at least one pass and seven different players have four or more receptions and 13 players have registered at least one rushing attempt.

Brohm to Have Jersey Honored

◀ Quarterback Brian Brohm will have his jersey honored at against Notre Dame on Oct. 7.

◀ Brohm is one of the top quarterbacks to ever go under center for the Cardinals. Brohm starred from 2004-07, and still ranks among the Cardinals' career leaders in passing attempts (second, 1,185), passing yards (second, 10,775), passing efficiency (second, 157.92), completions (third, 780), completion percentage (third, .658), total offense (fourth, 10,819) and touchdown passes (fourth, 71). Brohm guided the 2006 Cardinals to a school best 12-1 record, including a 24-13 victory over Wake Forest in the Orange Bowl, and a No. 6 national ranking in the Associated Press final poll.

◀ He was named the Orange Bowl Most Valuable Player after completing 24 of 34 passes for 311 yards against the Demon Deacons. His 30 touchdown passes in 2007 are tied for second in school history with 2016 Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson. Brohm set school records with 45 completions and 65 passing attempts against Syracuse on Sept. 22, 2007, while his 555 passing yards against the Orange rank second all-time. He was Big East Offensive Player of the Year in 2005 and was invited to play in the Senior Bowl in 2007.

Kelly and Neal Leading Safety Position

◀ The Cardinals have had injury issues at safety this season with M.J. Griffin suffering a knee injury during the start of fall camp and safety Josh Minkins has missed two contests before returning against Boston College. With those injuries, the Cardinals have relied on a pair of Power 5 transfers Devin Neal and Cam'Ron Kelly to step in and bolster the defense.

◀ A transfer from Baylor, Neal has started all five games. He's second on the team in tackles with 24 and is fifth on the team lead with 2.0 tackles for loss. He's second on the team with one interception. Neal recorded eight tackles in the win over Indiana and totaled five in the win over Murray State. He's second on the squad with three pass break-ups.

◀ Last season with the Bears, Neal totaled 41 tackles, 2.0 tackles for loss and registered two interceptions in 11 games.

◀ Kelly, a transfer from North Carolina, made his third start versus NC State, and was the star of the game versus the Hoosiers and the Wolpack. In the win over Indiana, Kelly equaled his career high with 12 tackles — the same number he had in a game against Notre Dame during the 2020 season with the Tar Heels. He was named the ACC Defensive Back of the Week. He added six tackles, his second interception and forced a fumble in the win over NC State.

◀ In five games, Kelly is tied for second on the team with 24 tackles.

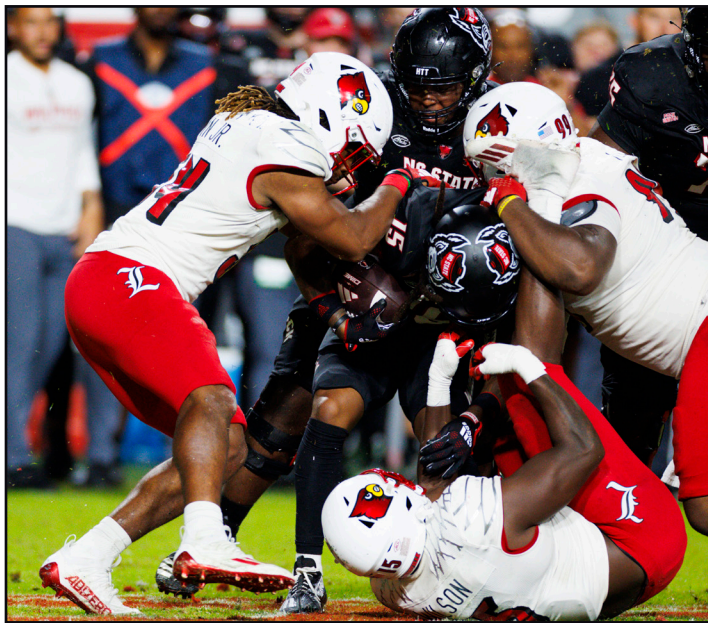

◀ In limiting the Hoosiers to 357 yards of total offense, Kelly also recorded 2.0 tackles for loss and his sixth career interception and first with the Cards.

◀ In four seasons with the Tar Heels, Kelly had 180 career tackles and five interceptions in 42 career contests.

More Turnovers Are Good

◀ Louisville was one of the best in the country last season in creating turnovers, finishing 23rd nationally with 30 turnovers gained in 2022. Through five games, the Cardinals have forced nine turnovers, which ranks 24th nationally and third in the ACC.

◀ Louisville has recorded at least one turnover in four of the five games and five of the last six dating back to last season. Louisville tied a season high with three turnovers against NC State.

- ◀ The lone turnover, an interception by Cam’Ron Kelly, led to a Louisville touchdown in the first half in the win over Indiana.
- ◀ The Cards forced two big turnovers, which led to 10 points in the 39-34 win over Georgia Tech.
- ◀ Against Murray State, the Cards forced three more miscues in the 56-0 win.
- ◀ Devin Neal recovered a fumble and intercepted a pass versus the Racers, becoming the first Louisville player to do so in a single game since Kei’Trel Clark did it vs. Syracuse on Nov. 20, 2020.
- ◀ Ramon Puryear recorded his first interception on the game’s first drive which led to a field goal.
- ◀ With the Cardinals clinging to a 29-28 lead in the fourth quarter, Dez Tell sacked Hunter King and forced a fumble that was recovered by Kam Wilson. The Cards would score on the next play to take a 36-28 lead over the Yellow Jackets.
- ◀ Last season, Louisville forced 22 miscues that lead to its eight wins, including a season best eight in a win over Georgia Tech.

Quinn and Alderman Bolster Linebacker Position

- ◀ There were question marks on the defense heading into 2023, especially at the linebacker position where the Cards were starting a pair of new linebackers in T.J. Quinn and Jaylin Alderman. Quinn was a special teams performer for the Cards in 2022 and Alderman didn’t see the field.
- ◀ Quinn is the team’s top tackler through five games, totaling 33 tackles after recording a career high 11 tackles in the win over NC State and five against Boston College and had the stop on fourth down on the one-yard line against Indiana.
- ◀ Alderman is fourth on the team with 23 tackles after registering a career high eight tackles versus Boston College and a previous career best four against Indiana.
- ◀ Quinn responded in his first start against Georgia Tech, recording six tackles and a pass break-up in the win. Alderman, who was making his fourth start and first since 2021, totaled three tackles.

Sack Master

- ◀ The junior season could be one of the biggest for junior Ashton Gillotte. Playing on the edge for the first time in Ron English’s defense, Gillotte recorded a career high 3.0 sacks in the 56-28 win over Boston College and added one versus NC State. His previous best for sacks was 2.0 Florida State in 2021.
- ◀ Gillotte has recorded 5.0 sacks in the last four games.
- ◀ Through five games, Gillotte leads the team with 5.0 sacks, which ranks fifth nationally. With the 3.0 sacks against BC, it marked the third multi-sack game of his career.
- ◀ He recorded his first sack of the season in the win over Murray State to give him 12 for his career.
- ◀ The native of Boca Raton, Fla., made an impact on the game on the first possession of the season in the win over Georgia Tech. On the third play of the game, Gillotte hit Haynes King and the ball popped into the hands of Ramon Puryear for an interception.
- ◀ In the win over Georgia Tech, Gillotte registered two tackles and a pair of hurries in the 39-34 win over the Yellow Jackets.
- ◀ In his first four seasons, Gillotte has recorded 60 tackles and 15 sacks in his first 29 games as a defensive lineman. He’s also been credited with 20.0 tackles for loss in his first three years.
- ◀ The junior from Boca Raton, Fla., is coming off his best season in 2022 where he recorded a personal best 24 tackles and 7.0 sacks. He posted a career high 2.0 sacks in a season-opening loss to Syracuse and added 4.0 tackles in a win over NC State.
- ◀ His freshman season in 2021 saw him record 8.0 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks as a true freshman.

56-0 Shutout

- ◀ The Cards recorded their first shutout victory since a 30-0 win vs. Syracuse on Nov. 20, 2020, and their largest shutout victory since a 72-0 win vs. Florida International on Sept. 21, 2013. It marked the 95th shutout victory all-time in school history.
- ◀ It was the first shutout win in a home opener since the Cards blanked Kentucky 28-0 to open the 2004 home schedule.
- ◀ Louisville amassed 690 yards of total offense while holding Murray State to 166 yards.
- ◀ The 524-yard margin in total offense is the second highest in a game, trailing only the 596-yard margin vs. Murray State on Sept. 30, 2017.
- ◀ The Cardinals forced eight three-and-outs and allowed the Racers into Louisville territory just three times.
- ◀ Louisville forced 10 punts and turned the Racers over three times, forcing two fumbles and recording an interception.

Shutting Down the Wolfpack; Defense Continues to Improve

- ◀ The Cardinals have had one of the best offenses in the country this season, but the defense helped preserve its undefeated season with a 13-10 win over NC State. The Louisville held NC State to 201 yards of total offense, its lowest total since a 198-yard performance against Notre Dame in 2016.
- ◀ NC State’s 112 yards passing was also its lowest total since passing for 41 yards in the 2016 Notre Dame game. Brennan Armstrong, who threw for 487 yards in a 34-33 win over Louisville while he was at Virginia, was held to 13-of-25 for 112 yards and a pair of interceptions.
- ◀ Quincy Riley picked off a pass in the closing minutes to preserve the 13-10 win over NC State. It was his 11th career interception and the fourth since joining the Cards over the last two seasons.

◀ Louisville is allowing just 218.2 yards through the air after five games, which ranks 55th in the country. Opponents are just completing 55.2 percent of their passes and have thrown just seven TD passes.

◀ Louisville held its opponent scoreless in the first quarter for the sixth straight game, the longest streak since doing so for seven straight games in 1973.

◀ The Cardinals are allowing only 327.8 yards per game through five games and are yielding only 5.2 yards per play.

◀ On third down, the Cardinals are allowing opponents to convert on 33.2 percent after holding NC State to just 3-of-14 on the money down. In wins over Murray State and NC State, opponents converted just 6-of-28.

◀ Louisville held the Wolfpack to just 89 rushing yards on 31 carries, an average of 2.9 yards per carry. The Cards have allowed just five rushing touchdowns this season and are yielding just 109.6 yards on the ground this season, which ranks 33rd nationally.

◀ The Cards own the sixth-best red zone defense, letting the opponent score just six touchdowns in 11 attempts inside the 20-yard line.

◀ After recording his two sacks in the first two games, the Cards have registered seven in the last two contests, including a season best 5.0 in the 56-28 win over Boston College.

◀ Louisville forced 10 punts and turned the Racers over three times, forcing two fumbles and recording an interception.

Travelstead from Long Distance

◀ The Cardinals lack special teams experience with the punter and placekicker having very little game experience, but it didn't matter because Brock Travelstead has been a one-man show.

◀ The junior has handled both the punting and field goal duties so far this season through the first four games. He's the first UofL combination punter/kicker since Chris Philpott handled both duties in 2011.

◀ Travelstead set a new Louisville record for longest field goal made, connecting from 53 yards to break the record of 52 yards shared by Wilbur

Summers, Ron Bell, Klaus Wilmsmeyer, Nate Smith, and Chris Philpott.

◀ Travelstead made two of three field goals and his only extra point attempt, connecting from 33 and 53 yards while missing his first attempt from 52 yards. On the year, Travelstead is 6-of-8 on field goal attempts and is 4-of-5 tries from 30-39 yards.

◀ The native of Acworth, Ga., made the record-setting 53-yarder with 5:25 left in the fourth quarter, providing the Cards a 13-10 lead which they never relinquished.

◀ Travelstead helped preserve the victory by drawing a running-into-the-punter penalty with 2:44 left in the game, giving the Cards a first down, forcing NC State to use its last two timeouts, and taking another minute off the clock.

◀ As a punter, he's punted 18 times for an average of 38.2 yards and had a long of 55. He punted a pair of times for a 52.5 yard average against Murray State.

◀ He kept the Cards in the game versus Georgia Tech by going 4-of-4 on field goal attempts, connecting on two in the first half. He became the sixth Louisville kicker to make 4-of-4 field goal attempts in a game, joining Nate Smith, Art Carmody, Chris Philpott, Blanton Creque, and James Turner.

◀ Travelstead also is only the third kicker in Louisville history to make his first four field goal attempts, joining James Turner and John Wallace. The Acworth, Ga., native didn't attempt a field goal in his first two seasons with the Cards.

◀ Turner also made his first four attempts with the Cards, while Wallace made his first five.

Jordan as the Kick Returner

◀ Kick returner/running back Jawhar Jordan has been a special teams weapon for the Cardinals the last two seasons since transferring from Syracuse. Jordan has returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in only 19 attempts with the Cardinals. He's returned 21 kickoffs for 599 yards, an average of 28.5 yards a return.

◀ The junior returned a kickoff 98 yards for a score in a win over NC State last season and tied a school mark with a 100-yard kickoff return for a

HEAD COACH JEFF BROHM
FIRST SEASON • 71-44 OVERALL • 5-0 LOUISVILLE

Jeff Brohm, one of the most accomplished signal callers in school history, returns to his alma mater to lead the University of Louisville football program.

The 24th head coach in school history, Brohm's No. 11 jersey is one of 26 to be honored by the program throughout its history.

Brohm ushers in a new era of UofL football after elevating the Purdue program to unprecedented success during his six seasons as head coach.

Hired on Dec. 5, 2016, he guided the Boilermakers to four bowl appearances and the school's first Big Ten West Divisional title in 2022. The Boilermakers fell to No. 2 Michigan in the Big Ten title game, but Purdue was awarded a trip to the Citrus Bowl.

Prior to his arrival in West Lafayette, the Boilermakers won a combined nine games over four seasons. In his six seasons at Purdue, Brohm compiled a 36-34 overall mark with the Boilermakers. He led the program to notable victories, posting three wins over Top 3 teams: No. 2 Ohio State in 2018; No. 2 Iowa in 2021; and, No. 3 Michigan State in 2021.

Over the last two seasons, Brohm's teams compiled a 17-9 record, including a 9-4 mark in 2021 – the school's first nine-win season since 2003. The school achieved back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 2006-07.

In nine seasons as a head coach, Brohm boasts a career record of 66-44, a .600 winning percentage, and has positioned himself as one of the top offensive minds in the country. His passing offenses have placed in the top 20 in eight of his nine seasons as an FBS coach, which ranked 13th on average over that span.

The 2021 season featured a 9-4 record, the second-most wins in Purdue history. The Boilermakers tied for second in the Big Ten West, which included a pair of Top 5 victories over No. 2 Iowa and No. 3 Michigan State, which handed both teams their first loss of their respective campaigns. The Boilermakers capped the campaign with a 48-45 overtime victory over Tennessee at the TransPerfect Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn.

Prior to taking over in West Lafayette, Brohm spent three seasons at Western Kentucky, where he compiled a remarkable 30-10 overall record (.750 winning percentage), including a 19-5 Conference USA mark (.792), from 2014 to 2016. The Hilltoppers were league champions in 2015 and 2016, the school's first back-to-back titles as an FBS member. They won the 2014 Bahamas Bowl (49-48 over Central Michigan) and the 2015 Miami Beach Bowl (45-35 over Miami).

One of the top quarterbacks in school history, Brohm returns to UofL where he enjoyed an outstanding collegiate career from 1989-93. A three-year starter, he still ranks among the Cardinals' career leaders in touchdown passes (tied for eighth, 38), total offense (ninth, 5,410), completion percentage (ninth, .562), passing yards (10th, 5,451), and passing efficiency (ninth, 129.97), passing attempts (10th, 715) and completions (10th, 402) through the 2022 season.

L&N FEDERAL CREDIT UNION STADIUM

L&N Stadium, which already was in a class of its own, received a substantial renovation in 2018, and now sits as one of the best facilities in all of college football.

L&N Federal Credit Union, a cooperative, financial institution located in Louisville, has inked a naming rights deal with the University of Louisville that renames Cardinal Stadium to L&N Federal Credit Union Stadium on January 30, 2023.

A 20-year, $41-million commitment secures the naming rights with the university through 2042. Opened in 1998 and renovated in 2010 and 2019, Cardinal Stadium is a 60,800-seat facility located at the corner of Floyd Street and Central Avenue and is home to the UofL football program.

The Cardinals completed a $63.3-million dollar expansion of the stadium, which also included a major upgrade to the Howard Schnellenberger Football Complex.

In the recent construction, 5,900 seats were added, providing a unique look in the end zone structure and increasing the total capacity to about 60,800. The construction also generated an additional 25,000 square feet of space.

The expansion included 800 modern club seats, 68 premium loge level boxes, and 12 exclusive field level suites. The club seats have access to a premier gathering area that provide viewing access to the field. Fans in that area have an exclusive view of the players, as they exit the football complex through a tunnel and run onto the gridiron from a middle of the field level entrance.

While the seating areas have drastically improved many of the sightlines, fans also will notice additional amenities that will enhance the game day experience. Two 40-foot by 80-foot LED videoboards were installed in the north end zones and a 24-foot by 92-foot football videoboard was installed in the south end zone. The stadium possesses over 8,000-square feet of ribbon boards throughout the stadium, while a total of 344 feet of ribbon boards are mounted on the east and west sides of the stadium.

L&N Stadium, which opened in 1998, featured a capacity of 42,000. In 2010, over 10,000 additional chairback seats were added to a second deck on the east side of the stadium in the UPS Flight Deck. The project included 33 new luxury suites on the Stites & Harbison Suite Level and 2,000 premium loge seats were added to the east side.

A 60-foot wide Norton's Terrace was constructed at the top of the south end zone, connecting the east and west sides of the stadium. A part of the previous expansion was the PNC Club, a 20,000-square-foot, glass-enclosed area that stretches from end zone to end zone at the loge level on the east side of the stadium.

The temperature-controlled club features a full-service bar, concessions, large-screen televisions, lounge seating and tables. It has more than 1,700 outdoor seats under cover with heaters and fans.

In addition to being available during football games, the PNC Club is used for other community and campus events throughout the year.

The newly renovated Angel's Envy Bourbon Club highlights the stadium's west side. The space extends the length of the football field and contains 28 suites. It has served as host to numerous banquets and parties.
