BALL STATE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

PRESEASON ALL-MAC

The Ball State women's basketball team continues to make a name for itself in the Mid-American Conference as the Cardinals were picked to finish second in the MAC Preseason Coaches' Poll for the second-straight season. In addition, junior guard Ally Becki was tabbed to the Preseason All-MAC First Team while junior Nyla Hampton was named to the All-MAC Second Team. The Cardinals also received two votes to win the MAC Tournament.

SALLEE ENTERS YEAR 12

Sallee enters his 12th season at the helm of the Cardinals, already the winningest coach in program history. He touts a record of 213-141 in just 12 seasons and has guided Ball State to eight postseason Women's National Invitation Tournaments, a WNIT Final 16 appearance, a Mid-American Conference West Division title (2014), 10 MAC Tournament appearances and sixth 20-plus win seasons, a feat no head coach at Ball State had done before him.

BACKS, CRASHERS AND KEYS

For the third-straight season, the Cardinals are forgoing "traditional" positions and using their own such as backs, crashers, and keys, to bring a sense of team unity.

GAME DAY TIDBITS

- The Cardinals have shot over 50 percent from the field in all three of their four games this season

- Ball State continues to dominate offensively on all areas of the court which includes 52 percent from the field (129-246) and 42 percent from behind the arc (37-89).

- In her first three contests as a Cardinal, Nyla Hampton has stolen the ball 16 times and has dished out 19 assists. Hampton is ninth in the nation currently in steals (16) and 10th in steals per game (4.0).

- After four games the Cardinals rank eighth nationally in field goal percentage (52.4), 29th in steals per game (12.5), 16th in bench points (34.5), 17th in assists per game (19.2), 25th in turnover margin (8.25), 15th in three-point percentage (41.5) and 29th in scoring offense (85.8).

- The Cardinals have outscored their opponents in every quarter but one so far this season.

CAREER MILESTONES

- Ally Becki needs 207 points for 1,000, 132 assists and 100 rebounds to reach the 500 mark.

- Nyla Hampton needs 91 points for 1,000.

- Marie Keifer has 100 blocks for her career -- needs five blocks to move into second place all-time and 53 to move into first place.

BALL STATE AMONGST THE ELITE

The Ball State women's basketball team is one of 50 NCAA DI programs that remain undefeated this season with a 4-0 ledger. The Cardinals also remain the only team in the Mid-American Conference without a loss this season. Ball State made history in 2017 after ending non-conference action with an 11-0 record which included road wins over ACC foe Vanderbilt and Big Ten foe Purdue. The Cardinals were just one of seven teams that season that were undefeated prior to conference play. For their efforts, Ball State received votes in the Associated Press Top 25 poll and in the USA Today Top 25 poll.

HOME SWEET HOME

John E. Worthen Arena has been very good to the Cardinals for the past decade. Ball State has a record of 176-85 (.654) at Worthen Arena from 2004-present. In 12 seasons Brady Sallee has compiled a 111-50 (.659) record in Worthen Arena. His best season at home was last season as the Cardinals finished 15-1 at home.

COLLEGE INSIDER

The Ball State Cardinals were recently ranked sixth in the College Insider Women's Mid-Major Top-25 Poll. Only the Cardinals and the Rockets from the Mid-American Conference were ranked in the top-10.

12-year head coach Brady Sallee has made his mark on the Ball State women's basketball program since his arrival in May 2012. In 11 seasons, Sallee has guided the Cardinals to eight postseason Women's National Invitation Tournaments, a WNIT Final 16 appearance, a Mid-American Conference West Division championship and six 20-plus win seasons, a feat no head coach at Ball State had done before him.

In 2017-18, Sallee etched himself even further into the program record books. He became the all-time winningest Ball State women's basketball coach on March 3, 2018 with an 88-63 victory at Eastern Michigan. He guided Ball State to an 11-0 non-conference mark in 2017, which marked the best start in program history and the second-longest winning streak in school annals. He also became the only coach to guide the Ball State women's basketball program to six straight postseason tournaments.

Just last season, Sallee and the Cardinals finished with an overall record of 26-9. The Cardinals' 26 wins a season ago tied the program record for most wins in a season.

Sallee has led Ball State to wins over five Power 5 schools -- Vanderbilt, Purdue, Iowa, Minnesota and Pitt. For his head coaching career, he has mentored 33 all-conference selections, and 15 of his former players have gone on to compete professionally. He has also coached three league freshmen of the year, two defensive players of the year, two sixth players of the year, one MAC Player of the Year and one Associated Press All-America selection.

Sallee has coached some of the program's most prestigious players, including all-time leading scorer Nathalie Fontaine, all-time rebounder Oshlynn Brown and all-time assists leader Carmen Grande and all-time 3-point shooter Thelma Dis Agustsdottir.

MARCH MADNESS

Ball State made some national noise in March 2009 when the Cardinals earned their first NCAA Tournament victory in their first appearance and did it against powerhouse Tennessee.

The Lady Vols were the two-time defending national champions and had never lost in the tournament's first two rounds. But Porchia Green scored 23 points to lead the Cardinals to a 71-55 victory. Ball State finished the year 26-9, winning both the MAC regular season and tournament championships.

POSTSEASON REGULARS

The Cardinals made six straight WNIT appearances starting with the 2012-13 season. That team, coach Brady Sallee's first season at BSU, won its first two games -- at Minnesota and home versus Northern Iowa -- to reach the Final 16 before eventually falling at Kansas State.

Ball State also won postseason games at Iowa in 2016 and at home versus Middle Tennessee in 2018.

HOOPS SCHOLAR

Kate Endress was honored as the 2005 Academic All-American of the Year, tops among all women's basketball players to earn Academic All-America recognition that year.

Endress scored more than 1,800 career points and graduated with a 3.96 GPA in entrepreneurship. She was also named Indiana's NCAA Woman of the Year in her senior campaign.
