CLEMSON HOSTS NOTRE DAME FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 2015 ON SATURDAY

After meeting twice in South Bend and twice in postseason play in the previous five years, Clemson will welcome the Notre Dame Fighting Irish back to Death Valley for the first time since 2015 when the teams square off this Saturday, Nov. 4. Kickoff at Memorial Stadium in Clemson, S.C., is scheduled for noon ET.

Notre Dame has visited Memorial Stadium only twice, first in 1977 and again in 2015. The Irish's 2015 visit ranks among the most memorable contests in the facility's history, as 12th-ranked Clemson defeated sixth-ranked Notre Dame in ESPN College GameDay's featured contest. Amid a torrential downpour from the remnants of Hurricane Joaquin, Clemson jumped out to a 21-3 third quarter lead. The Tigers withstood a furious Notre Dame rally and snuffed out a Notre Dame two-point conversion attempt with seven seconds remaining to hold on to a 24-22 victory that spawned Head Coach Dabo Swinney's famous "Bring Your Own Guts" postgame comments.

This Saturday, Swinney will again attempt to pass College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard for sole possession of Clemson's all-time head coaching wins record. Swinney tied Howard with his 165th career victory in a 17-12 win against Wake Forest on Oct. 7.

Clemson enters the game having scored a rushing touchdown in 50 consecutive games at Death Valley, the nation's longest active home streak. The last team to hold Clemson without a rushing touchdown at Memorial Stadium was Troy in 2016.

One of the bright lights of an otherwise disappointing two-week span for Clemson has been the emerging productivity of its tight ends. Against Miami (Fla.) two weeks ago, Jake Briningstool set the Clemson tight-end record with 126 yards while posting the first multi-touchdown game of his career. Last week at NC State, he added a career-high eight receptions, and his 93 yards combined with Sage Ennis' 28-yard reception gave the tight end group 121 yards against the Wolfpack. Clemson's last two games rank No. 1 and 3, respectively, for the most receiving yards by tight ends in single games during Swinney's tenure.

In addition to being designated as IPTAY Day in celebration of one of the nation's most successful athletic fundraising organizations, Saturday's contest has also been designated as an Orange Out game. Fans are encouraged to wear orange to Memorial Stadium on Saturday.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 34-9 in games following a loss under Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 20-9 under Dabo Swinney in rematches with opponents to whom he's lost his most recent meeting.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 5-3 all-time against Notre Dame.

Clemson's three-game homestands in both September and November this year represent Clemson's 34th and 35th homestands of three or more games in school history (1911, 1920, 1922, 1949, 1959, 1962, 1969, 1974, 1979, 1982, 1983, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991 (2), 1993, 1998, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2014, 2015, 2020, 2022 and 2023 (2)).

- Briningstool (eight) needing two more touchdown receptions to become the seventh tight end in school history to record 10 career touchdown catches. He would tie Bennie Cunningham (10 from 1972-75) for the sixth-most touchdown receptions by a tight end in school history.

He is already closing in on Myles Murphy's true freshman school record of 12 and more than halfway to the school record for any freshman (true or redshirt) set by Michael Dean Perry in 1984 (15). Parker is also tied for third nationally in sacks by a freshman (4.0).

AT HOME IN NON-CONFERENCE PLAY

Clemson has been right at home in non-conference contests at Memorial Stadium in recent years, compiling victories in 28 of its last 29 non-conference home games.

Clemson had won 26 straight until a one-point loss to South Carolina in November 2022. Previously, Clemson's longest unbeaten streak (including ties) in non-conference home games was a 20-game unbeaten streak from 1978-84 that saw ties against Boston College and Georgia interrupt winning streaks of 12 games, four games and two games.

Since joining the ACC as a charter member in 1953, Clemson is 130-33-4 at home against opponents from other conferences. That includes a 38-4 mark in non-conference games at Death Valley under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

CLEMSON VS. FBS INDEPENDENTS

Since the NCAA split Division I into the divisions now known as the Football Bowl Subdivision and Football Championship Subdivision in 1978, Clemson has a 30-7-2 record against FBS independents. Prior to a loss at Notre Dame last season, Clemson had won each of its 13 previous games against FBS independents dating to 1988.

Before a 2022 loss to the Irish, Clemson's most recent loss to an independent program was in 1988, when Florida State utilized its infamous "Punthrookie" to beat Clemson, 24-21, at Memorial Stadium. Of note: Clemson lost to Notre Dame in 2020, but the Irish were temporary members of the ACC during that pandemic-impacted season.

SERIES HISTORY AGAINST NOTRE DAME

Saturday's game will be the eighth game all-time between Clemson and Notre Dame but only the programs' third all-time meeting in Death Valley.

Four of the five all-time on-campus regular season meetings have been decided by one possession. Clemson won both postseason matchups, a 30-3 win in the 2018 Cotton Bowl in Arlington, Texas, and a 34-10 win in the 2020 ACC Championship Game in Charlotte, N.C.

Only five current FBS schools have played Notre Dame at least five times and have a winning record against the Irish. At 4-2 against Notre Dame all-time, Clemson stands with Florida State (6-5), Michigan (25-17-1), Nebraska (8-7-1) and Ohio State (6-2) in that category.

Clemson ranked in the top 15 in the nation in each of the first seven meetings in the series, including a No. 2 vs. No. 3 matchup in the 2018 Cotton Bowl that was the first meeting of undefeated teams in College Football Playoff history and a No. 1 vs. No. 4 matchup in 2020 that was the highest-ranked matchup of ACC teams in conference history.

PREVIOUS GAMES VS. NOTRE DAME

Notre Dame 21, Clemson 17

Nov. 12, 1977 at Memorial Stadium

Clemson held a 10-7 lead at intermission and the lead could have been larger. The Tigers held a 213-101 advantage in total offense and Steve Fuller was on fire in the first 30 minutes, hitting 9-of-12 passes for 124 yards. Joe Montana was held to 3-of-9 passing for 53 yards by the Clemson defense by intermission.

Clemson controlled much of the third quarter. On the Tigers' first possession, Fuller hit Warren Ratchford for a 35-yard completion. Four plays later, Lester Brown scored around left end from two yards out, a play that drew the ire of Notre Dame coach Dan Devine because an official had gotten in the way of Notre Dame defensive back Ted Burgmeier as he was trying to make the tackle.

It was still 17-7 Clemson entering the fourth period when Montana led Notre Dame on one of his famous comebacks. On the last drive of the third period, which continued into the fourth, Montana led the Irish on a drive that officially gained 119 yards in total offense. Devine picked up an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty when he went on the field and picked up a flag that negated a 30-yard-run by Vagas Ferguson. It set up a second-and-31, but Montana overcame his coach's tirade, hitting Ken MacAfee for 27 yards then 16 yards on fourth-and-two. Montana finished off the drive with a one-yard run to make it 17-14.

After a Clemson turnover, Notre Dame got the ball back at midfield. Montana connected with Ferguson on a screen for 36 yards, bringing the ball to the Clemson 14. Montana scored later in the possession to make the count 21-17 in favor of the Irish.

Clemson, which was going for its 100th all-time win in Memorial Stadium, had two more possessions but could not get a first down and the Irish escaped Death Valley with the four-point win, keeping Notre Dame's hopes for a National Championship alive.

Clemson 16, Notre Dame 10

Nov. 17, 1979 at Notre Dame Stadium

Notre Dame had a 10-0 lead at halftime and appeared to briefly hold a 16-0 lead for a few seconds. The Irish were up 10-0 in the second period when quarterback Rusty Lisch scored on a 10-yard run to make it 16-0, but a holding call nullified the play. The Irish could not get the first down, and when Chuck Male missed a 32-yard field goal, the score remained 10-0.

Clemson had to punt on its first possession of the second half, but Notre Dame return man Ty Dickerson fumbled David Sims' punt at the Notre Dame 21 and Chuck Rose recovered for Clemson. It was the last time Dickerson would touch the ball in a Notre Dame game. Clemson drove to the Notre Dame four, but the drive stalled and Obed Ariri kicked the first of his three field goals on the day.

The momentum had changed, as Notre Dame failed to move the ball and Dick Boushka punted to Hollis Hall. The Clemson defensive back tried to return the favor and fumbled, but he recovered his own fumble at the Clemson 18. Clemson then drove for another field goal by Ariri.

On the next Notre Dame possession, Ferguson, who would break George Gipp's 59-year Notre Dame record for 100-yard rushing games in a season on this day, fumbled on the first play after being hit by Bubba Brown, and sophomore Jeff Davis recovered for the Tigers.

Four plays later Billy Lott, who had a team-best 73 yards rushing on the day, kept the ball around right end and raced 26 yards for a touchdown. It was Clemson's third score in its last three possessions and gave the Tigers the lead, 13-10. The Tigers then scored on a fourth straight possession on a 15-play drive that culminated with a 37-yard field goal by Ariri, giving Clemson a 16-10 lead.

There was still 8:30 left in the game, but just as turnovers had hurt Clemson in the game in Death Valley two years earlier, turnovers were the difference in this game. The Irish drove to the Clemson 25 and had a third-and-nine, but Lisch's pass was deflected by Notre Dame receiver Tony Hunter and then intercepted by redshirt freshman safety Terry Kinard.

Clemson could not move the ball and Notre Dame got it back at its own 16 with 2:34 left. Devine called an end-around pass with Pete Holohan, who had been a high school quarterback. His long pass was intercepted by Kinard again, and he returned it 40 yards to the Notre Dame 19.

On Clemson's second play, Lott fumbled the snap and freshman Mark Zavagnin recovered for the Irish with 2:02 left. It was Clemson's only turnover of the day. On Notre Dame's first play, Steve Durham sacked Lisch back at the Notre Dame two-yard-line. Three more passes fell incomplete and Clemson ran out the clock for the 16-10 victory.

Clemson 24, Notre Dame 22

Oct. 3, 2015 at Memorial Stadium

No. 12 Clemson battled sixth-ranked Notre Dame through torrential rains from Hurricane Joaquin under the lights, but the wet weather did not hold the Tigers back in a hard-fought 24-22 victory.

Dashaun Watson led the Tigers to an explosive start. He had a 38-yard run on the first offensive play of the game and finished the possession with a touchdown pass to Jordan Leggett. Clemson took an early 14-0 lead with another Watson touchdown, this time a 13-yarder to Artavis Scott. Clemson held a 14-3 lead at intermission.

On the opening kickoff of the second half, Ammon Lakip, Clemson's kicker, jarred the ball loose from C.J. Sanders. The Tigers recovered and Watson led the Tigers on another touchdown drive. He completed the drive with a 21-yard touchdown run to give Clemson a commanding 21-3 lead.

DeShone Kizer led the Irish back while throwing for 321 yards on the night. He threw a 56-yard touchdown pass to C.J. Prorise on a wheel route, then scored another touchdown himself on a three-yard run.

The Fighting Irish pulled within two at 24-22 on a touchdown by Torii Hunter Jr., but Kizer's designed quarterback run was stuffed by Carlos Watkins and Kevin Dodd, and Clemson survived the furious rally.

Clemson held Prorise to 50 yards rushing in 15 attempts and his longest run all night was 10 yards. He came in averaging 150 yards a game on the ground. Will Fuller, who entered the game averaging 113 receiving yards and had scored six touchdowns, had just two receptions for 37 yards.

Dodd posted 3.5 tackles for loss, with two sacks and a forced fumble. Linebacker B.J. Goodson had two takeaways in the fourth quarter, the first Tiger to do so in a game won by seven points or less since Terry Kinard, who also did it against Notre Dame in 1979.

Clemson 30, Notre Dame 3

Dec. 29, 2018 at AT&T Stadium (Arlington, Texas)

No. 2 Clemson advanced to its third College Football Playoff National Championship Game in four years by defeating No. 3 Notre Dame, 30-3, in the Cotton Bowl Classic at AT&T Stadium.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence, the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player, completed 27-of-39 pass attempts for 327 yards and three touchdowns, including 19-of-26 for 264 yards and three touchdowns in the first half alone. Travis Etienne ran for 109 yards on 14 carries, including a 62-yard touchdown run that pushed him past Wayne Gallman's 2015 school mark for the most rushing yards in a single season. Austin Bryant added two sacks and six total tackles en route to Most Outstanding Defensive Player honors.

Both defenses proved stout in the first quarter, as the teams traded field goals by Clemson's Greg Huegel and Notre Dame's Justin Yoon. Yoon's field goal proved to be the only scoring Clemson allowed all game.

The Tigers first found the end zone on a 52-yard scoring connection from Lawrence to Justyn Ross that gave Clemson a 9-3 advantage. Ross also hauled in a 42-yard pass from Lawrence for his second touchdown of the day 11 minutes later. Tee Higgins then sealed the second quarter with an acrobatic, juggling 19-yard touchdown reception that gave Clemson a 23-3 lead with two seconds remaining in the half.

The first score of the third quarter, which would ultimately be the final score of the game, came with two minutes remaining in the quarter, when Etienne broke away for the 62-yard touchdown rush that was set up by a Nolan Turner interception three plays earlier. A scoreless fourth quarter left the final score at 30-3. It was the fewest points scored by Notre Dame in a bowl game in its history.

Notre Dame 47, Clemson 40 (2OT)

Nov. 7, 2020 at Notre Dame Stadium

Top-ranked Clemson fell to No. 4 Notre Dame in double overtime by a score of 47-40 in the highest-ranked matchup of conference opponents in ACC history. The loss ended Clemson's ACC-record 36-game regular season winning streak and its FBS-record 50-game winning streak on Saturdays.

After the two teams traded touchdowns in the first overtime period, Notre Dame punched in a three-yard touchdown run and the Tigers failed to respond with their possession, ultimately handing them their first loss of the season and dropping them to 7-1.

The loss came despite an incredible statistical performance by freshman quarterback DJ Uiagalelei, who threw for 439 yards and two touchdowns in place of Trevor Lawrence. His 439 yards were the most ever thrown by a quarterback against Notre Dame in Fighting Irish history.

The Fighting Irish jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, highlighted by a 65-yard touchdown run on the first play from scrimmage following a Clemson penalty. The Tigers responded with a 53-yard touchdown bomb from Uiagalelei to Cornell Powell, at the time the longest of both their careers. Powell totaled a then-career-high 161 yards on six receptions with the touchdown.

The second quarter saw the two teams exchange field goals before a fumbled pitch was recovered by Notre Dame and returned for a touchdown to give the Irish a 20-10 advantage.

Clemson turned the ball over on the following drive as well, but the Tiger defense held stout and the Irish were forced to settle for a field goal. The Tigers responded with a 45-yard B.T. Potter field goal that cut the halftime deficit to 23-13.

The Tigers came out of the break firing, scoring 10 consecutive points on another Potter field goal and a 10-yard touchdown reception by Davis Allen. The game-tying score capped a 13-play, 60-yard drive spanning 6:29 of game time.

The Irish looked to regain the lead on the following drive, but Jake Venables stripped Ian Book on a run that would have set Notre Dame up for first and goal at the Clemson five-yard line. The forced fumble was the first of Venables's career and kept the game in a 23-23 draw entering the final frame of regulation.

Another Notre Dame field goal gave the Irish a 26-23 lead that was quickly erased by Potter's career-high fourth field goal of the game.

With 9:14 remaining and the score locked at 26-26, Uiagalelei led the Tigers on a 12-play, 74-yard touchdown drive lasting 5:41 capped by a Travis Etienne three-yard touchdown run that gave Clemson the lead.

On their last possession of regulation, Notre Dame cashed in on a 91-yard touchdown drive that sent the game into overtime. Both teams scored touchdowns in the first frame, but when Notre Dame opened the second overtime period with a score, the Tigers took two sacks and ultimately came up short.

Clemson 34, Notre Dame 10

Dec. 19, 2020 at Bank of America Stadium (Charlotte, N.C.)

No. 4/3 Clemson avenged its November loss to Notre Dame with a 34-10 victory at Bank of America Stadium to win the Tigers' sixth straight ACC title. The victory was highlighted by stellar performances from standouts Trevor Lawrence and Travis Etienne.

Lawrence, who did not play against Notre Dame in November, was 25-of-36 passing for 322 yards and two touchdowns to go along with a 34-yard touchdown run. Etienne ran for 124 yards on 10 carries and a touchdown, marking the fourth ACC Championship Game in which he scored in his career. The offense combined for 541 total yards.

The Tigers' defense held the Fighting Irish to just 263 yards and sacked quarterback Ian Book six times. James Skalski, who became the first player to ever appear in five ACC Championship Games, recorded a sack and five total tackles.

Notre Dame opened the scoring with a 51-yard field goal on the first drive of the game but failed to cash in on a 24-yard attempt on its next possession. The Tigers quickly capitalized on the missed field goal with a 67-yard touchdown bomb from Lawrence to Amari Rodgers to take a 7-3 lead entering the second quarter.

After stopping the Irish on fourth down, Clemson went on a six-play, 72-yard scoring drive culminating in a 33-yard E.J. Williams touchdown reception. B.T. Potter's 27-yard field goal extended the Tigers' lead to 17-3.

On fourth-and-one with 29 seconds remaining in the half, Etienne took a handoff 44 yards to the end zone, capping off a run of 24 unanswered first-half Clemson points, sending the Tigers into halftime with a 24-3 advantage.

Lawrence opened the second half scoring with a 34-yard touchdown scamper that closed out an 83-yard scoring drive. Potter added another field goal and the Fighting Irish scored their first points of the second half on a 21-yard rushing touchdown to bring the score to 34-10 with 8:09 remaining in the contest.

On the ensuing drive, Lawrence and the rest of the Clemson offense exited the game to a standing ovation and the Tigers closed out the victory to clinch their sixth consecutive ACC Championship.

Notre Dame 35, Clemson 14

Nov. 5, 2022 at Notre Dame Stadium

Notre Dame took advantage of a pair of non-offensive touchdowns and an interception deep in Tiger territory that led to another score to defeat No. 5 Clemson, 35-14. The loss dropped the Tigers to 8-1 on the season and snapped Clemson's nation-leading 14-game winning streak.

Defensively, Clemson held the Irish to 348 yards and just 85 through the air, but the Irish accumulated 263 rushing yards. Running back Will Shipley led Clemson with 101 all-purpose yards, 63 of which came on the ground, and added a rushing touchdown. Tight end Davis Allen led the team in receptions with seven for 60 yards.

The Fighting Irish got on the board first. With 9:08 left in the first quarter, Prince Kollie returned a blocked punt 17 yards for a Notre Dame touchdown. The Irish would score another touchdown with 38 seconds left in the first half, making the score 14-0 at the half.

Cade Klubnik entered the game with 1:30 left in the third quarter, but an interception on his first pass attempt gave Notre Dame the ball on the Clemson 14-yard line. The Irish scored three plays later to take a 21-0 lead.

DJ Uiagalelei returned at quarterback on their following possession and led the Tigers 56 yards before Benjamin Morrison intercepted his pass and returned it 96 yards for a touchdown, increasing Notre Dame's lead to 28-0 with 12:58 left to play.

Shipley got the Tigers on the board with 10:14 left in the fourth quarter, punching the ball into the end zone with a one-yard rushing touchdown. Notre Dame added one more touchdown with 4:16 left in the fourth quarter.

Clemson scored the game's final points, as Uiagalelei threw a four-yard touchdown pass to Joseph Ngata.

NOTES

CLEMSON-NOTRE DAME CONNECTIONS

Joe Montana and Dwight Clark: Montana (Notre Dame, 1975-78) to Clark (Clemson, 1975-78) was one of the top passing combinations in the NFL from 1979-87. The duo combined on what is regarded as "The Catch" in the 1982 NFC Championship game between the 49ers and the Cowboys. Clark led the NFC in receiving in 1981 and 1982 and was the NFL MVP in 1982. They played on Super Bowl Championship teams at the end of the 1981 and 1984 seasons. The two were on opposite sides of the field when the two schools met at Clemson in 1977.

Frank Shaughnessy: Shaughnessy holds the Notre Dame record for the longest play of any kind in school history. In 1904, the field was 110 yards long, so Shaughnessy caught a mid-air Kansas fumble and raced 107 yards for a score. Just three years later he was the head football coach at Clemson. Shaughnessy's fascinating life included playing Major League Baseball, managing a team to the Stanley Cup Finals, serving as a minor league baseball manager in the Dodgers organization, and acting as President of the AAA International Baseball League when Jackie Robinson played in the league (1946). But, among his many stops, he was the head football coach at Clemson in 1907, leading the Tigers to 4-4 record. He beat John Heisman's Georgia Tech team in the season finale by a 6-5 score.

Frank Leahy: Leahy was the head coach at Boston College in 1939 and 1940. His first Boston College team lost to Clemson in the 1940 Cotton Bowl, the only bowl loss of his career. He won a bowl game as Boston College's head coach the next year over Tennessee, then went to Notre Dame as head coach for the 1941 season. Notre Dame had a self-imposed ban on bowl participation his entire tenure (1941-53) with the Notre Dame program due to the school's academic schedule. He is still the second-winningest coach in college football history on a percentage basis, trailing only his mentor, Knute Rockne, but he was 0-1 in his career against Clemson.

Ricky Gray: Gray lettered for both schools. The former DeMatha High School player enrolled at Clemson as a freshman in 1980 and lettered for the Tigers that season as a tight end. He transferred to Holy Cross Junior College, a school across the street from the Notre Dame campus in 1981, then matriculated to Notre Dame and lettered for the Irish from 1982-84 under Gerry Faust.

Troy and Thad Ridgley: Troy Ridgley was a defensive lineman who was a letterman on Notre Dame's 1988 National Championship team. He also lettered in 1989 and 1991. Thad Ridgley, his brother, lettered at Clemson in 1992 and 1993. It is the only known brother combination to play for both schools in football.

Banks McFadden and Moose Krause: Only eight athletes in college sports history have earned All-America honors in football and basketball over their careers. Clemson and Notre Dame each had one of the eight. McFadden was an All-American in basketball first in 1938-39 when he took Clemson to the Southern Conference championship. He then made All-American as a quarterback and defensive back in the fall of 1939 when he led Clemson to a 9-1 record and a win in the Cotton Bowl.

Krause was better known for his basketball and was a three-time All-American from 1931-33. He was the second three-time All-American in college basketball history. The first was Purdue's John Wooden, later the coach at UCLA. Krause, who was recruited to play football by Knute Rockne before the legendary coach died in a plane crash, was an All-America tackle in 1932 on the gridiron. Later as Notre Dame Director of Athletics, Krause brokered the deal with Frank Howard to play a two-game series between Clemson and Notre Dame in 1977 and 1979.

Chansi Stuckey: Notre Dame Wide Receivers Coach Chansi Stuckey starred at Clemson from 2003-06, playing quarterback as a freshman before transitioning to wide receiver at the behest of Dabo Swinney, who was Clemson's receivers coach at the time. In his three years as a receiver, he totaled 139 receptions, 1,750 yards and seven receiving touchdowns. Following a successful NFL career after being drafted by the New York Jets, Stuckey served as a graduate assistant at Clemson in 2019 and as an offensive player development assistant in 2020. Back in 2001, Swinney, who was part of a staff at Alabama that was let go after the 2000 season, attempted to get the wide receivers coaching job at Notre Dame vacated that offseason by new Bowling Green State head coach Urban Meyer. Though Swinney never got the job, 21 years later, one of Swinney's receiver protégés — Stuckey — did.

Tim Bourret: Bourret spent 40 years with Clemson Athletics in sports information prior to his retirement in 2018. Though no longer overseeing Clemson's football communications efforts, the CoSIDA Hall of Famer now serves as a color analyst for the Clemson Athletic Network and will be on the call of Saturday's radio broadcast. Bourret earned his undergraduate degree from the Notre Dame in 1977 and added a master's degree from Notre Dame in 1978. He worked as an undergraduate and graduate assistant under Hall of Fame SID Roger Valdiserri in Notre Dame's sports information office from 1975-78, including traveling with Notre Dame in 1977 for the Irish's first all-time meeting with Clemson in Death Valley.

1978 Final UPI Poll: The only time Clemson has been tied with another school in a final poll was in 1978 when Clemson and Notre Dame were tied for sixth in the nation in the final UPI Coaches poll. The two schools played in 1977 and 1979, but not 1978.

NOTES

first downs. It was Clemson's first loss when holding an opponent to nine or fewer first downs since 2007 (nine against Virginia Tech in 41-23 loss).

- Clemson held NC State to 138 passing yards and has now held four straight opponents to fewer than 200 passing yards for the first time since a 10-game streak in 2019.

- Running back Phil Mafah rushed 16 times for 84 yards with two touchdowns.

- The game was Mafah's second multi-touchdown game of his career, as his two rushing touchdowns tied his career high set against Charleston Southern on Sept. 9.

- Mafah recorded his career-high fifth touchdown run of the season on a one-yard plunge in the second quarter. The rushing touchdown was the culmination of a nine-play, 75-yard drive.

- Mafah extended his single-season career high with his sixth touchdown of the season on a one-yard run in the fourth quarter.

- With Mafah's scores, Clemson has now scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best 74 of its 77 games since the start of the 2018 season.

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 33-of-50 passes for 263 yards.

- Klubnik's 33 completions were a career-high and tied for the eighth-most in school history. They were the most by a Clemson quarterback since the Sugar Bowl to end the 2020 season (33 by Trevor Lawrence).

- Klubnik's 50 pass attempts were four shy of his career high of 54 attempts set in last year's Orange Bowl.

- Tight end Jake Briningstool recorded a career-high eight receptions for 93 yards. Briningstool has combined for 13 receptions for 219 yards over Clemson's last two contests.

- Wide receiver Adam Randall matched his career high with three receptions, gaining 23 yards.

- Wide receiver Troy Stellato gained 29 yards on a career-high seven receptions.

- Tight end Sage Ennis recorded a career-long 28-yard reception in the third quarter.

- Defensive end Ruke Orhororo recorded his third sack of the season in the first quarter. He now has a full sack in three of Clemson's last four games.

- Orhororo recorded a career-high 3.0 tackles for loss. He became the first interior Clemson defensive lineman to post 3.0 tackles for loss in a game since Grady Jarrett in the 2014 season finale (3.5 vs. Oklahoma).

- Linebacker Wade Woodaz added to his single-season career high with his third sack of the season in the second quarter.

- Linebacker Barrett Carter recorded his second sack of the season in the third quarter.

- Defensive tackle Tyler Davis made his 47th career start to tie five other players for the eighth-most in Clemson history. Last week, he set the Clemson record for starts by a defensive tackle.

- During the contest, center Will Putnam passed Landon Walker (3,131) for third-most career snaps from scrimmage in school history.

- The game concluded Clemson's streak of 161 games since losing consecutive games in a single season, a streak that dated to November 2011. The 161-game span was a Clemson record and had been the nation's longest active streak.

- Clemson is now 33-9 in games following a loss under Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale.

- Clemson is now 60-30-1 all-time against NC State and dropped to 17-3 in its last 20 meetings with the Wolfpack.

- Clemson dropped to 36-11 in one-possession games since 2011, still the highest winning percentage in the

ONE OF THE ERA'S WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

Alabama and Clemson rank No. 1 and 2 in the country in wins since 2015, with the two teams combining for five out of eight national championships in that time frame. With a dominating win in the 2022 ACC Championship Game, Clemson became only the second program in the FBS to win 100 games since 2015.

MOST WINS (SINCE 2015)

2.	Clemson	104	17	.860
3.	Georgia	99	18	.846
4.	Ohio State	98	12	.891
5.	Oklahoma	91	22	.805

Clemson has a 146-28 record since 2011. Only Alabama has more wins in that span.

4.	Georgia	139	32	.813
5.	Oklahoma	130	35	.788

Clemson's lofty perch in that ranking reflects not only its dominance against middle- and lower-tier opponents, but also its success in matchups with other premier programs. From 2011-22, 37 different programs currently in Power Five conferences recorded at least 85 wins in that span. Clemson has played 15 of those 37 programs since 2011 and is 62-22 (.738) in those contests and is .500 or better against 14 of the 15 teams.

The FBS record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 15, as Alabama's 15th consecutive 10-win season in 2022 broke Florida State's record of 14 from 1987-2000. With its 12th consecutive 10-win season in 2022, Clemson joined Florida State and Alabama as the only programs ever to reach 10 wins in a dozen straight seasons.

At 4-4 with four regular season games remaining, Clemson's streak is set to end at 12 following the 2023 season.

SENIOR SUCCESS

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Several of Swinney's senior classes placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 13 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

HISTORIC CONFERENCE REIGN

Clemson's 2022 ACC title was the program's seventh in eight years, as the Tigers became the first team in an active Power Five conference to win seven outright conference titles in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight SEC titles in nine seasons from 1971-79.

Two years earlier, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships. That year, Clemson became the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games. Clemson also became the first ACC program to win six consecutive outright titles, as Florida State had a streak of nine straight ACC titles, but that streak included two co-championships that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning more than three straight titles outright.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 27 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC. Swinney matched Howard with his eighth conference title in 2022.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers. On Nov. 12, 2022, Clemson became the first program to reach 100 victories against Power Five opponents since 2013.

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic has annually assumed that role in recent years, re-ranking every recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g.: For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Even in its current stretch of recruiting success, Swinney has pointed out that Clemson often falls in rankings as its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes, as well as noting that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's impressive track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

2019	10	5	+5	45-9
Average	11.5	3.5	+8.0

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson ranked 11.5 in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-19 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 3.5 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of eight spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 11 wins a season during their careers.

CHASING HOWARD'S CLEMSON RECORD

Dabo Swinney earned his 165th career win on Oct. 7 against Wake Forest, tying the school-record 165 wins compiled in 30 seasons by College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard. Howard, known as "The Bashful Baron of Barlow Bend," compiled a 165-118-12 record in 30 seasons at Clemson from 1940-69.

Swinney matched Howard's perch as the winningest coach in school history despite Howard's sizeable lead in career games coaches.

The 2022 Orange Bowl was the 200th game in Dabo Swinney's head coaching career. Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, 17 coaches had earned at least 150 victories in their first 200 career games as head coach as of the conclusion of the 2022 season.

At 161-39 through 200 games, Swinney tied Bob Stoops and Robert Neyland (162 each) for the fifth-most wins through 200 career games in major college football history.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

Included below are the number of games needed for a sample of other notable coaches to reach 150 victories: John Vaught (201), Mark Richt (205), Red Blaik (207), Dan Devine (208), Woody Hayes (209), Bear Bryant (212), Ara Parseghian (212), Pat Dye (212), Bobby Bowden (213), Pop Warner (214), LaVell Edwards (214), Jim Tressel (214), Vince Dooley (214), Amos Alonzo Stagg (225), John Cooper (225), Frank Beamer (230), Lou Holtz (230), Bill Snyder (231), Johnny Majors (255), George Welsh (261), Hayden Fry (277).

FIRST 15 SEASONS

Dabo Swinney completed his 15th season (and his 14th full season) in 2022 with a 161-39 record. Swinney amassed the second-most wins through a coach's first 15 seasons in FBS history despite not having the benefit of a full season in his first year, as he went 4-3 on an interim basis in his first season in 2008 after taking over for Tommy Bowden in October.

HEAD COACH CONTINUITY

Over the last decade, Clemson became a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 21st overall season at Clemson in 2023, including his 15th full season as head coach (and his 16th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2022, there were more than 435 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims) but only one such tenure at Clemson.

Clemson is the only school in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 14 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson and Alabama have had only one head coach since 2009.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney had Clemson among the sport's final four teams six times from 2015-20, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

* - Men's Basketball Final Four or College Football Playoff

^ - indicates streak of at least six consecutive Final Fours

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. Every Clemson signing class under Swinney except its current freshmen has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class from 2012-20 earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

Prior to topping out at No. 3 in 2021, Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll in six consecutive years from 2015-20. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (14) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (15 from 2008-22) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) remain the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

The streak ended in Clemson's 2023 season opener against Duke.

-- OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR --

CLEMSON WELCOMES GARRETT RILEY

On Jan. 9, Garrett Riley coached Cinderella TCU in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game. On Jan. 13, he was formally announced as Clemson's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for 2023.

"Garrett has an incredible track record," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said. His body of work — including this past season when his ninth-ranked scoring offense helped TCU transform from a five-win team into a 13-win national championship game finalist in their coaching staff's first season — speaks for itself. As I contemplated this change, Garrett was at the top of my list. I am thankful that he shared my belief in Clemson University and our football program, and I am thankful that he wants to be part of our tradition and family."

After two years as offensive coordinator of SMU's prolific offenses from 2020-21, Riley arrived at TCU following a 2021 campaign in which the Horned Frogs finished 5-7 and produced the nation's 65th-ranked scoring offense. In his lone season in Fort Worth, he transformed the unit into the nation's ninth-ranked scoring offense at 38.8 points per game as the Horned Frogs went 13-2 with a berth in the national championship game.

Riley's tutelage led quarterback Max Duggan to a multitude of honors for his play in 2022, including the Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top quarterback, a runner-up finish in Heisman Trophy voting, All-America honors from several selectors and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year.

All three offenses coordinated by Riley prior to his arrival at Clemson finished in the top 15 nationally in scoring offense. His units as coordinator at SMU and TCU from 2020-22 combined would rank third in the nation in points per game in that span.

SHIP'S MAIDEN VOYAGE IN 2021

Despite missing three games of his debut season due to multiple injuries, Shipley led Clemson in rushing touchdowns (11), total touchdowns (11), rushing attempts (149) and rushing yards (738) as a true freshman in 2021.

Shiple's freshman performance in 2021 was another entry in Clemson's recent history of feature backs declaring their arrival immediately. Clemson was led in rushing yards in each of the previous seven years by either Wayne Gallman (2014-16) or Travis Etienne (2017-20), both of whom led Clemson in rushing in their freshman seasons (Gallman's redshirt freshman season in 2014 and Etienne's true freshman season in 2017). Before Shipley, the last time someone other than Etienne or Gallman led Clemson in rushing in a season was 2013

(Rod McDowell), when Shipley was in fifth grade.

Shiple's 2021 performance ranked second in rushing touchdowns by a Clemson true freshman since 1972.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

From Sept. 9 against Charleston Southern until Oct. 21 at Miami (Fla.), Cade Klubnik threw 170 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. His streak ended 12 attempts shy of the top three by a quarterback in school history. Clemson's streak as a team ended at 184 pass attempts.

MATRICULATING THE BALL

One of NFL Films' most famous videos of its early days featured wired-up Kansas City Chiefs Head Coach Hank Stram encouraging his team to "Just keep matriculating the ball down the field, boys!"

In Klubnik's first three collegiate starts, Clemson's offense heeded Stram's words, collecting 100 first downs, Clemson's most in a three-game span on record.

Clemson accrued 484, 422 and 679 yards in Klubnik's first three career starts. He is one of four Clemson quarterbacks ever to help the Tigers accrue 1,500-plus yards in their first three career starts.

SPREADING THE BALL AROUND

Offensive Coordinator Garrett Riley's scheme places importance on spreading the ball to various playmakers, and coaches have praised Klubnik's natural penchant for distributing the ball to his various weapons.

In Week 2, Klubnik and his fellow quarterbacks completed passes to 16 different receivers, Clemson's second-most in a single game in Dabo Swinney's tenure.

FROM THE SIDELINE TO THE STAGE

Klubnik's national breakout came in the 2022 ACC Championship Game against North Carolina. He entered the game on Clemson's third possession and completed 20-of-24 passes for 279 yards and a passing touchdown and added seven carries for 30 yards and a rushing touchdown. His 83.3 completion percentage set an ACC Championship Game record and led to his selection as the game's Most Valuable Player in Clemson's 39-10 victory. He became the third freshman (and second true freshman) in the game's history to earn the honor.

300+ IN FIRST CAREER START

In the 2022 Orange Bowl, Cade Klubnik completed 30-of-54 passes for 320 yards and also rushed 20 times for 51 yards with a touchdown. His 74 plays of total offense (combined rush attempts and pass attempts) were the fifth-most by an individual in Clemson history.

Klubnik's 320 yards were the fourth-most by a Clemson quarterback making his first career start since 1953, as he became only the fourth Clemson quarterback to exceed 300 passing yards in their first start.

Klubnik became the first Clemson freshman quarterback on record to make his starting debut in postseason play. He also became the first Clemson quarterback to make his first career start against an AP Top 6 opponent since his former offensive coordinator, Brandon Streeter, did so against No. 5 Florida State in 1997.

Klubnik became only the eighth true freshman to start at quarterback for Clemson since the NCAA instituted permanent freshman eligibility in 1972, joining Steve Fuller (1975), Willie Jordan (1975), Patrick Sapp (1992), Nealon Greene (1994), Deshaun Watson (2014), Trevor Lawrence (2018) and DJ Uiagalelei (2020).

-- NO. 6 WR TYLER BROWN --

INSTANT IMPACT

Tyler Brown's hometown of Greenville, S.C., is roughly 30 miles from Clemson, so perhaps it should have come as no surprise that he's seemed to feel right at home in Clemson's offense as a true freshman.

Brown has been one of the revelations of the early portion of Clemson's season, giving the Tigers a dynamic playmaker in slot.

Brown earned ACC Rookie of the Week honors against Florida Atlantic after recording three receptions for 49 yards and two touchdowns against the Owls, becoming the first Clemson freshman wide receiver with two receiving touchdowns in a single game since Justyn Ross against Notre Dame in the 2018 Cotton Bowl. Brown also added a 44-yard punt return in that contest. A week later, he recorded team highs and then-single-game career highs in receiving yards (84) and receptions (five) vs. No. 4 Florida State despite missing a portion of the game with a shoulder injury.

Against Syracuse the following week, he again recorded career highs in receptions (nine) and receiving yards (153). He became only the seventh player in Clemson history to record a 100-yard receiving game within the first five games of a career.

His total represented the most receiving yards by a Clemson player of any grade classification since Cornell Powell's 176 yards against Pitt in 2020.

Brown earned both ACC Rookie of the Week and ACC Receiver of the Week for his performance at Syracuse. He joined Sammy Watkins and Deshaun Watson as the only players in school history to win multiple ACC weekly honors in a single week.

Brown's 316 receiving yards in his first five games were the third-most by a Clemson freshman (and second-most by a Clemson true freshman) through the first five games of a season since 2000.

Brown ranks eighth in the nation and fourth in the Power Five in receiving yards by a freshman this season.

-- NO. 80 WR BEAUX COLLINS --

IT'S BEAUX TIME

As a true freshman in 2021, wide receiver Beaux Collins debuted a touchdown celebration in which he pointed to an invisible watch on his wrist. The message? "It's Beaux Time."

The clever play on the "It's Bo Time" motto of fast food giant Bojangles was on display early in the 2022 season, as Collins caught a touchdown pass in each of the Tigers' first four games that year. In doing so, he became the first Clemson player to record a receiving touchdown in each of the first four games of a season since freshman phenom Sammy Watkins in 2011.

After being held out of the end zone for the first time in Clemson's fifth game of the season, Collins scored his fifth touchdown of the season in Clemson's sixth game of 2022, a prime-time win at Boston College. With the score, Collins became the first Clemson player to catch a touchdown in five of the first six games of a season since 2012 when DeAndre Hopkins accomplished the feat as part of his ACC-record 18-touchdown campaign.

Collins' first signature performance of 2023 came in Week 2, when he recorded a career-high seven receptions for a career-high-tying 137 yards, including a 69-yard touchdown catch-and-run that was Clemson's longest pass since 2020. He added a 47-yard touchdown catch in Clemson's win at Syracuse in late September, with Swinney calling his double move on the play "an elite, elite route."

-- TIGHT ENDS --

TIGHT END PRODUCTION

Clemson enjoyed a renaissance from its tight ends in 2022, when the unit produced 67 catches (most by a tight end unit under Dabo Swinney) and 10 touchdowns (tied for its most under Swinney). Jake Briningstool, a junior on Clemson's 2023 squad, joined current Los Angeles Ram Davis Allen to mark the first time in Clemson history that two tight ends caught at least four touchdown passes in a single season.

With Allen gone this season, Briningstool has emerged to lead Clemson's tight end unit.

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

Since 2015, Clemson has produced a total of 27 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 11 first-team honors. Clemson's 27 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are the second-most of any Power Five program, and its 11 first-team selections are tied with Washington for the fourth-most in that span.

SportSource Analytics produces an Offensive Line Efficiency metric that takes into account tackle for loss percentages, sack percentages, percentages of rushes gaining 4+ yards and success on third-or-fourth-and-short. Clemson ranks second in the nation in that total metric since 2015.

Clemson's success in its 64-13 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 251-120 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +131 margin in sacks since 2018 is the highest differential in the country.

AXE MAN JR.

For 12 seasons, NFL offenses attempted in vain to limit opportunities for four-time Pro Bowler Jeremiah "Axe Man" Trotter to trot out his signature axe chopping celebration after big stops. With the next generation of the Trotter middle linebacker bloodline — Jeremiah Trotter Jr. — now patrolling the box at Clemson, the college football world shared in their pain in 2022.

Jeremiah Jr., about whom both Head Coach Dabo Swinney and Defensive Coordinator Wes Goodwin joked "has been a middle linebacker since he was in diapers," elevated his game in the second half of Clemson's 2022 season. After producing 18 tackles (3.0 for loss) in Clemson's first six games, the coaches credited Axe Man Jr. with 74 stops (10.5 for loss), including six games with nine or more tackles, in Clemson's final eight contests, including with a team-high-tying nine tackles in the ACC Championship Game.

Though he was snubbed in official conference balloting, Trotter collected second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press, third-team All-America status from Pro Football Focus and collected All-ACC honors from select individual outlets.

In the 2022 regular season finale, Trotter recorded 2.0 sacks against South Carolina (in addition to scoring on a 35-yard interception return), and a week later, he set an ACC Championship Game record with 3.0 sacks against North Carolina. He became the first Clemson player with at least 2.0 sacks in consecutive games since former No. 4 overall pick Clelin Ferrell early in the 2018 season.

Trotter is among several Power Five players from notable NFL bloodlines in 2023. One of the most notable, Ohio State wide receiver Marvin Harrison Jr., was a high school teammate of Trotter's at St. Joseph Prep in Philadelphia.

BARRETT CARTER

Head Coach Dabo Swinney has routinely sung the praises of the versatility of linebacker Barrett Carter, a 2023 preseason All-American.

"He's one of the best football players in my 20 years at Clemson," Swinney said. "He's a pure football player. I mean, the guy can play anywhere. He could go play tailback, he could play corner, he can play safety, he can play Nickel/Sam, he can play Mike, he can play Will. He's special... He's so smart and he's got unbelievable instincts for the game."

Close observers of Clemson in 2022 quickly recognized Carter's impact in his first year as a starter, but Carter served notice of his arrival to the country with a signature performance against Louisville last November. In that game, Carter recorded eight tackles (3.5 for loss), two sacks, an interception and a pass breakup, becoming the first player to record 3.5 or more tackles for loss, 2.0 or more sacks and an interception in a game between two Power Five teams since South Carolina's Melvin Ingram against Auburn in 2011.

Carter finished 2022 credited by the coaching staff with 77 tackles (10.5 for loss), tied for third-most on the team, with 5.5 sacks, eight pass breakups, two interceptions and two forced fumbles in a unit-high 832 snaps over 13 games (all starts). His 832 snaps were the sixth-most by a Clemson linebacker on record.

Carter was one of only three players in the Power Five with at least 10 tackles for loss, 5.0 sacks, multiple interceptions and multiple forced fumbles in 2022. Before Carter and two others reached the marks in 2022, the last two Power Five players to reach Carter's numbers in all four categories were both Butkus Award winner: Georgia's Nakobe Dean (2021) and Clemson's Isaiah Simmons (2019).

No. 0 has also been a hero in the community. He has volunteered his time for the Our Friend Christopher organization in the memory of his late former teammate Christopher Miles, who died of a brain tumor. He also routinely reads to local elementary schools and serves as a mentor to local youth and has aspirations of one day opening a training facility for young athletes.

"I remember I was that young kid that looked up to football players," Carter said. "Now that I have the opportunity to give back, I have no choice but to do so. I just put myself in those shoes and remember when I was that kid."

OPENING A CAN OF WOODAZ

As conference and national acclaim began to accrue for Clemson's young linebacking duo of Barrett Carter and Jeremiah Trotter Jr. in late 2022, Dabo Swinney was quick to advise observers not to sleep on Wade Woodaz, now a true sophomore.

"He's a baller," Swinney said in September. "The kid is tough, physical, he can really run. He really understands the game at a high level. He played most of his [prep] career as a quarterback and as a safety, so he has a great understanding of the game. He plays really, really hard; he's a great effort guy, he's a great preparer and he loves it. He's a fun guy to coach and a fun guy to watch play because he plays the way you want everybody to play."

The first career start for versatile hybrid linebacker from Tampa actually came at safety in the 2022 ACC Championship Game. He then served as Clemson's primary Sam linebacker in the 2022 Orange Bowl.

Woodaz opened the 2023 season with a takeaway in three straight games. He recovered a muffed punt in the season opener at Duke, his second straight season opener with an impact special teams play after blocking a punt in his collegiate debut a year earlier. In Clemson's second game against Charleston Southern, he recorded his first career interception and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown to help Clemson blow the game open.

A week later against Florida Atlantic, he returned another interception 59 yards. In doing so, he became the first Clemson linebacker with an interception in consecutive games since Isaiah Simmons accomplished the feat in the ACC Championship Game and Fiesta Bowl of his Butkus Award-winning 2019 campaign.

The only Clemson player since 1996 other than Woodaz to have a takeaway in each of the team's first three games of a season was DeAndre McDaniel, Clemson's current Senior Defensive Assistant, who posted a takeaway in each of Clemson's first three games in 2009 en route to All-America honors that season.

SURPRISE RETURNS ALONG D-LINE

Clemson's defensive line got a boost when defensive tackles Tyler Davis and Ruke Orhorhoro and defensive end Xavier Thomas all elected to return to Clemson for 2023 despite receiving draftable grades and feedback from NFL talent evaluators prior to the 2023 NFL Draft.

The returns of Davis (15.5 sacks from 2019-22) and Thomas (14.5 from 2018-22) made Clemson the only Power Five program to return multiple players with at least 14.0 career sacks for 2023. The addition of Orhorhoro's 7.0 sacks from 2019-22 gave the Tigers 37.0 returning career sacks from a trio that was previously presumed NFL-bound.

Injury limited Thomas to only three games in 2022. After missing the first five games of the season, he returned to action at Boston College, where despite playing only six snaps, he earned ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week after posting two sacks, a forced fumble and an additional quarterback hit, collecting the Leather Helmet Award from the Boston College Gridiron Club as the game's MVP.

Davis was a 2022 FWAA and Phil Steele All-American and is already a three-time All-ACC selection (2019, 2021 and 2022). Davis' three career All-ACC selections are tied with Christian Wilkins (2016-18), Dexter Lawrence (2016-18) and William "Refrigerator" Perry (1982-84) for the most by a defensive tackle in Clemson history, company befitting a player nicknamed "Baby Dex" by Dabo Swinney and "Mini Fridge" by former teammate K.J. Henry.

As of Oct. 29, Thomas and Davis represented one of only five active FBS duos with 15 career sacks each.

WE SEE YOU, T.J. PARKER 🤪🤪

While preseason praise and accolades for Clemson's true freshmen defensive linemen were aimed primarily at preseason Freshman All-American Peter Woods, Woods' best friend, defensive end T.J. Parker, has emphatically announced his arrival in the 2023 season.

In his fifth career game, Parker recorded 2.0 sacks against Syracuse, factoring into three different sacks with one full sack and two split sacks. He became only the fourth Clemson freshman under Dabo Swinney to record 2.0 sacks in a game. Two of the other three — Myles Murphy and Dexter Lawrence — were eventual first round picks in the NFL Draft.

*Note: Wright was known at the time by the surname Hawkins

Parker is a product of Central High School in Phenix City, Ala., a school that has become a Clemson hotbed in recent years. Parker became Clemson's fourth signee (and fifth overall player including walk-on safety Caleb Nix) from Central since 2018, a pipeline that started with Justyn Ross in Clemson's 2018 recruiting class.

Parker initially committed to Penn State but coveted a Clemson offer. He decommitted from the Nittany Lions in hopes of soliciting Clemson, and Clemson's 2023 recruiting class immediately went to work.

"CV [Christopher Vizzina], Peter and a few other guys on the team, they hit me up with the eyes emoji on Instagram," Parker said. "It was like, 'You know what time it is.' I texted Coach Ski [Clemson Defensive Ends Coach Lemanski Hall] the eyes emoji, the same thing they sent me, and from there we got in contact and a few days later they offered and I committed."

Parker leads all freshmen nationally with 8.5 tackles for loss. Additionally, his 4.0 sacks rank tied for the third nationally among freshmen.

THE OTHER SWINNEY DYNASTY

Like the Colquitt family punting at Tennessee, the Swinney family holding for placekicks at Clemson has become a dynasty of its own.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's oldest son, Will, arrived at Clemson in 2017 and immediately earned Clemson's starting holder position on placekicks. He played five seasons and a record-tying 69 games at Clemson through 2021. In those five seasons, Clemson scored 565 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs, and he held for 555 of those 565 points. The only 10 Clemson kicking points not held by Will in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew, who was Clemson's starter at the position in 2022.

Will and Drew are succeeded by the youngest of the three Swinney boys, Clay, a redshirt freshman who is Clemson's starting holder for 2023. Clay's presence creates a plausible scenario in which every Clemson placekick in a full 10-year span from 2017-26 could be held by a Swinney.

Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship, as Seth Ryan, coincidentally also the son of a famous long-time coach (Rex Ryan), held the PAT following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

SWANSON'S SURGE

Punter Aidan Swanson is in his fifth year at Clemson and his second year as Clemson's starting punter. In his first season as starter in 2022, Swanson averaged 42.3 yards on 62 punts, including 16 downed inside the 20, 13 of 50 or more yards and only two touchbacks.

This season, he has improved his punting average by 1.4 yards and is successfully placing his punts inside the 20 at a higher rate.

2022	62	42.3	67	16	25.8%

Swanson had a career day against Florida State on Sept. 23. His 53.2-yard average was a single-game high for his career, surpassing his 52.5-yard average against Syracuse in 2022. It was the best average by a Clemson punter with a minimum of three punts since Will Spiers' 53.6-yard average against Syracuse in 2020.

Swanson's four punts in that game included a 60-yarder in the first quarter and a 62-yarder in the third quarter. He joined Pittsburgh's Daniel Sparks (2022), Wake Forest's Dom Maggio (2019) and Miami's Pat O'Donnell (2013) as the only ACC players since 2008 with multiple 60-yard punts in a single game, according to Stats Perform.

Clemson has lost 17 games since 2015. Seven of Clemson's 17 losses since 2015 have come against AP Top 5 teams.

Clemson has not lost to a team that finished with a losing record since 2017 and has not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of the game since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010, Dabo Swinney's second full season as head coach.

A HISTORY OF RESPONDING

In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, the Tigers have typically responded well in the face of recent adversity.

Clemson is 33-9 in games following a loss under Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale.

Losses to Top 5 opponents Ohio State and Georgia across the 2020 and 2021 seasons ended a streak of 127 games since losing back-to-back contests, which had been the longest active streak in the nation and the longest in ACC history.

Clemson had not lost back-to-back games in a single season since November 2011, a streak that was snapped with losses to Miami and NC State in October 2023. It snapped a streak of 161 consecutive games played in which Clemson hadn't lost back-to-back games in a single season, a Clemson record, and, at the time, the nation's longest active streak.

WINNING ONE-SCORE GAMES

Since 2011, the Tigers have played 47 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .766 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that time frame.

RETURNING EXPERIENCE

According to traditional accounting, Clemson entered the 2023 season returning 15 of its 22 primary offensive and defensive starters from 2022. However, Clemson has 32 different players (including K/P/LS) who have started at least one game during their Clemson careers.

Clemson's 32 players with at least one career start prior to this season combined for 893 career game appearances and 403 career starts through 2022.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson has fielded one of the nation's most balanced offenses since 2018. In 2018, Clemson set a school record with 3,723 rushing yards. Just two years later, Clemson set a school record with 348.5 passing yards per game in 2020.

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in 60 games under Dabo Swinney. Clemson was perfect in those contests — 58-0 under Swinney and 108-0 all-time — until a defeat at Duke to open the 2023 season in which the Tigers reached the double-century mark in both categories. The defeat was also a statistical anomaly nationally, as from 2014 through the 2023 season opener, there had been 1,789 instances in which an FBS team had passed for 200-plus yards, rushed for 200-plus yards and given up 28 or fewer points in a single game. Teams who accomplished all three metrics were a combined 1748-41 (97.7 percent).

Clemson's 26 games reaching both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards since the start of the 2018 season are among the most in the country.

Clemson was also the only program in the country to rush for 175+ rushing touchdowns (184) and throw 140+ passing touchdowns (144) in that span.

GROUND GAME

Clemson has scored at least one rushing touchdown in 74 of its 77 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson's three games without a rushing touchdown in that span were all road losses: Georgia (2021), Duke (2023) and Miami (2023). Clemson has an active streak of 50 consecutive home games with a rushing touchdown at Death Valley; the last team to hold Clemson out of the Memorial Stadium end zones on the ground was Troy in the 2016 home opener.

Clemson's 74 games with a rushing touchdown in that span are the most in the nation. Clemson has scored multiple rushing touchdowns in 62 of those games, also the nation's best.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

Since 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game" on each side of halftime. SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 68 times since 2015, posting a 66-2 record in those contests.

Clemson is 1-2 in games this season in which neither team won that time frame.

PLAYERS PER GAME

In four of the last six seasons, Clemson led all Power Five conference teams in average players per game. Prior to the 2021 season in which Clemson's playing rotations were limited by significant attrition, the last time Clemson did not lead Power Five teams in that category was in 2016, when Clemson finished second in that category.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

Plenty of experience was accrued in Clemson's home opener against Charleston Southern when Clemson played a school-record 117 players in a 66-17 win. A week later, Clemson played 93 players in a 48-14 victory against Florida Atlantic.

YOUTH IS SERVED

In the first year of new redshirt regulations in 2018, Clemson played a then-school-record 20 true freshmen. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight true freshmen made their debuts to push that 2019 total to a school-record 36.

Clemson had 27 true freshmen appear in Clemson's Week 2 win against Charleston Southern. That game alone pushed Clemson's number of true freshmen played this season into second in a year since 1982. The number moved to 28 a week later when Misun "Tink" Kelley made his collegiate debut.

Coinciding with redshirt rule changes in 2018, Clemson's five most recent seasons have resulted in the most game action for first-year freshmen since 1982.

650-POINT SEASONS

Clemson remains responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history and two of only 16 since Division I split in 1978. Clemson was the first school with back-to-back 650-point seasons since Yale in 1888-89, predating the start of official NCAA recordkeeping in 1937 and the second year of which was coincidentally the year Clemson was founded.

FINISH

In 2018, Clemson debuted a new version of its "This is Why We Work" fourth quarter video at Death Valley, a hype video imploring the team to finish and featuring Director of Strength and Conditioning Joey Batson

bellowing:

"Let me tell you something right now: they don't put championship rings on smooth hands! You gotta go earn it! You gotta go earn it six seconds at a time! You win championships when the stadium is empty, when the band ain't playing, when the cheerleaders ain't cheering, when it's just you and your brothers right beside you. That's when you win championships! In the fourth quarter, that is when we shine!"

The video and the speech became a part of Clemson lore, buoyed by its playing during Clemson's comeback win against Syracuse that year en route to a 15-0 national championship season. Over the years, the video has changed but the speech remains the same, with many Clemson fans yelling it in unison as it plays.

Clemson holds a 131-4 record since 2011 when leading after three quarters. And though Head Coach Dabo Swinney frequently reiterates the phrase, "There is nothing less important than the score at halftime," Clemson has the third-best winning percentage in the nation among Power Five teams since 2017 in games in which it leads at halftime. Clemson has recorded a halftime lead in a national-best 72 games in that span.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Through the summer of 2023, of the 357 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 14+ full years as head coach, 351 (98 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.

- Clemson broke program multi-year APR records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years.

- Most recently, Clemson posted a 995 multi-year APR covering 2018-19 through 2021-22, tied for third in the FBS and trailing only Northwestern and Wisconsin (996). Clemson's lofty academic success in that period coincided with on-field excellence that included three ACC titles, three College Football Playoff berths, two national championship game berths and the 2018 national championship.

3.	2018-19	993
4.	2017-18	992
5.	2016-17	987

- Clemson, Air Force and Northwestern are the only FBS programs to produce a 990+ multi-year APR in each of the last four reported cycles.

- Clemson is the only program in the country to finish among the Top 25 in APR rate among FBS schools and the AP Top 25 in each of the last 12 years.

- Prior to the suspension of APR Public Recognition Awards during the COVID-19 pandemic, the NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual honor, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of the award's last 10 reported academic cycles. Only 37 of the 130 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award 9+ times in that 10-year span.

- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

Clemson's national academic success has understandably resulted in the shattering of its own internal metrics. Clemson posted a program-record 90 players with a 3.0 GPA or better during the Fall 2022 term. Of the 90 players, 30 earned a 3.5 GPA or better and 17 earned a 4.0. Clemson's team GPA of 3.04 was a program record for a fall semester and its second-highest on record across all semesters behind its 3.11 GPA for the spring of 2022.

The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the marquee in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson enters 2023 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 42 straight seasons.

DEATH VALLEY RENOVATIONS

Clemson embarked on a two-year improvement cycle for Memorial Stadium during the 2022 and 2023 offseasons.

New in 2023 is an expanded gameday locker room behind Memorial Stadium's west end zone. In addition to a visual facelift, the expansion increased the space's footprint from roughly 6,400 square feet to approximately 8,100 square feet. The space connects to a new tunnel directly behind the west goalposts for the team to use for field ingress and egress at all times other than the team's famous pregame run down the Hill.

Outside the stadium, Clemson turned Lot 5 — the parking lot immediately to the west of the stadium — into a 365-day Tiger Walk destination honoring the team's history. Upon being promoted to interim head coach on Oct. 13, 2008, one of Dabo Swinney's first actions was to create Tiger Walk, which has since become a staple of the Clemson gameday experience. Rather than the previous procedure of buses dropping the team directly at the stadium's entrance, Swinney sought the support of Clemson officials to instead drop them amid throngs of fans at the entrance to the parking lot, allowing the team to further immerse itself in Clemson's legendary gameday atmosphere. That pregame tradition will now take place in the updated plaza lined with the names of every captain in Clemson football history, including era-specific jersey graphics.

In 2022, Clemson's video board got its first major upgrade since 2005, with nearly five times the surface area of the previous board, which was last updated before the 2012 season. The new video system, affectionately and unofficially nicknamed "DaboTron," measures 126 feet wide by 56.5 feet tall, eighth-largest in the NCAA. It also sits 20 feet off the ground, giving fans a 365-day open view into the stadium. The new board also features color LED fixtures on the inside and custom portal LED lights for the team entrance. Ribbon boards on the north, south, and west, along with new corner video boards in the west were also upgraded to be higher quality, easier to read, and more immersive.

That year, the eight main stadium light poles were updated to an LED system, which allows for individual light fixture control, spotlighting of Howard's Rock, and higher-quality field lighting. As part of stadium facade updates, Clemson also installed new signage honoring the all-time greats, championship years, and backlighting the traditional "Clemson Welcomes You To Death Valley" signage.

Renovations in 2022 also included the addition of IPTAY's Masters Club, a 688-seat premium area on the concourse level of the stadium's west side. Concessions and restrooms in the west were also relocated and expanded to the terraces, allowing easier pedestrian flow and access.

ALL-ACC SELECTIONS IN 2022

Clemson once again led the ACC in all-conference selections in 2022, as 10 different players recorded a total of 12 All-ACC selections. Will Shipley earned first-team honors as a running back, return specialist

5.	Georgia	9

Additional nuggets on Clemson's recent success in the NFL Draft are included below:

- Clemson has had at least one first-round draft choice in nine of the last 11 years. Clemson is one of only five schools with at least one first-round pick in at least eight of the last 11 drafts, alongside Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Ohio State.

- Clemson is one of only seven schools to have produced multiple draft picks in each of the last 21 NFL Drafts (Florida, LSU, Michigan, Oklahoma, Ohio State and USC).

- Clemson is one of six schools to have produced five or more selections in at least eight of the last 10 drafts.

- Since 2013, Clemson has produced first-round picks from the QB, RB, WR, DE, DT, LB and DB position groups. The only other school with at least one first-rounder at all those positions in that span is Alabama.

*Note: For listing purposes, Clemson chose to progress classes as though 2020 was a normal year of eligibility. For example, players listed as redshirt juniors in 2023 following a "redshirt year" in 2020 may not have officially redshirted in 2020, but would have qualified for one in a normal year. Clemson will denote extra years of eligibility on the back end of players' careers (i.e.: "Super Seniors" in 2023 are listed with the "+Sr." designation).

2023 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1	CLEMSON	7
	DUKE	28
	SEPT. 4, 2023 WALLACE WADE STADIUM • DURHAM, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Duke took advantage of three second-half turnovers to pull away from No. 9 Clemson, 28-7, at Wallace Wade Stadium.

The game marked the first time in Clemson history that the Tigers both rushed and passed for 200 yards and lost. Entering the game, Clemson had been 108-0 — including a 58-0 mark under Dabo Swinney — when reaching 200 yards in both categories. Clemson out-gained Duke, 422-374, and led the Blue Devils in first downs, 29-17, in the defeat.

After two Duke field goals, Wade Woodaz recovered a muffed punt on Duke's 18-yard line, setting up Will Shipley's first career receiving touchdown on a pass from Klubnik for a 7-6 lead the Tigers would carry into halftime.

On the first possession of the second half, Duke quarterback Riley Leonard escaped from the pocket and scored on a 44-yard touchdown run, giving Duke a 13-7 lead. Clemson drove the ensuing possession deep into Duke territory but suffered its second blocked field goal attempt of the evening.

The Tigers again drove deep into Duke's end late in the third quarter and appeared poised to take the lead, but a Mafah fumble on the one-yard line ended the scoring threat. Klubnik saved a touchdown, running nearly 60 yards to track down Jaylen Stinson, but the Blue Devils added a touchdown on the ensuing six-play scoring drive.

Clemson got the ball back on their own 20-yard line with 5:43 left on the clock in search of 14 points. However, a Duke interception on the fourth play of the drive gave the Blue Devils the ball back with a two-possession lead. A 30-yard touchdown run from Jordan Waters sealed a 28-7 Duke victory.

GAME 2	CHARLESTON SOUTHERN	17
	CLEMSON	66
	SEPT. 9, 2023 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 25/21 Clemson scored 45 unanswered points over the final three quarters to defeat Charleston Southern, 66-17, in Clemson's home opener at Memorial Stadium. The Tigers played a school-record 117 players in the contest.

Clemson overcame a couple of critical early mistakes. A Clemson fumble on fourth down in its own territory set up a one-yard Charleston Southern touchdown, and a 67-yard pick six gave the Buccaneers a 14-7 lead late in the first quarter. The game was tied 14-14 after the first quarter despite a 198-6 Clemson advantage in offensive yardage and 12-0 Clemson edge in first downs at the quarter break.

Clemson outscored Charleston Southern, 52-3, over the remaining three quarters. Phil Mafah (two rushing), Antonio Williams (two receiving) and Jay Haynes (one rushing, one receiving) all found the end zone twice during the contest, and Beaux Collins led the Tigers with seven receptions and 137 receiving yards, including a 69-yard catch-and-run for a score. Clemson's 37 third downs were the third-most in school history.

Defensively, Clemson held the Bucs to only 73 total yards and four first downs. Linebacker Wade Woodaz returned his first career interception 35 yards for a score.

The game was Dabo Swinney's 100th home game as head coach, improving him to 92-8 in Death Valley.

GAME 3	FLORIDA ATLANTIC	14
	CLEMSON	48
	SEPT. 16, 2023 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Twenty first-quarter points sparked RV/22 Clemson to a 48-14 prime-time win against Florida Atlantic at Memorial Stadium.

Quarterback Cade Klubnik was responsible for four total touchdowns — three passing and one passing. Wide receiver Tyler Brown caught two touchdowns, becoming the first Clemson freshman with two receiving touchdowns in a game since Justyn Ross in the 2018 Cotton Bowl.

Clemson forced four turnovers in the victory. Cornerback Nate Wiggins jumpstarted Clemson and opened the scoring with a 46-yard interception return for touchdown, become the first Tiger with a pick-six in consecutive season since Rex Varn in 1977-78. Khalil Barnes recorded his first career interception later in the quarter, and Wade Woodaz notched his second interception in as many weeks later in the contest, becoming the first Clemson linebacker with a pick in back-to-back games since Isaiah Simmons in 2019.

After Wiggins' opening salvo, the Tigers added four more touchdowns in the first half, including scoring passes from Klubnik to Brown and Jake Briningstool as well as rushing touchdowns by Phil Mafah and Klubnik, giving Clemson a 34-0 lead at halftime.

Both teams added 14 points in the second half. Clemson's 14 second-half points included Brown adding his second touchdown of the game from Klubnik and running back Domonique Thomas rushing for his first touchdown of his NCAA career after walking on from NAIA Union College in Kentucky in 2022.

2023 GAME RECAPS

GAME 4	FLORIDA STATE	31
	CLEMSON	24 ^(OT)
	SEPT. 23, 2023 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Despite never trailing until overtime, RV/25 Clemson fell to No. 4/3 Florida State, 31-24, at Memorial Stadium. Clemson outgained Florida State, 429-311, and had a 25-16 edge in first downs in the loss.

Cade Klubnik completed 25-of-38 passes for 283 yards and one touchdown and added a rushing touchdown as well. Will Shipley added a touchdown both on the ground and through the air. Clemson limited Florida State to just 22 yards rushing on 20 carries and registered five tackles for a loss.

Clemson scored first on Jonathan Weitz' first career field goal less than a week after he re-joined the team out of retirement. Clemson and Florida State traded a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter to bring the halftime score to 17-14 in favor of Clemson.

A Florida State field goal on its first possession of the second half tied the game, but Clemson re-claimed the lead on Shipley's one-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. Clemson was in Florida State territory poised to push the lead to two scores, but Kalen DeLoach strip-sacked Klubnik and returned the fumble 56 yards for a touchdown to even the score at 24-24.

Clemson drove 44 yards in 11 plays to the Florida State 12 in the final minutes, but Weitz missed a 29-yard field goal attempt that would have given the Tigers the lead. Clemson then forced a Florida State turnover on downs in the waning seconds of regulation to force overtime.

Florida State opened the extra frame with a 24-yard touchdown pass from Jordan Travis to Keon Coleman on its second play. Clemson's attempt to force a second overtime ended when a Klubnik pass was tipped at the line of scrimmage and fell incomplete on fourth down.

GAME 5	CLEMSON	31
	SYRACUSE	14
	SEPT. 30, 2023 JMA WIRELESS DOME • SYRACUSE, N.Y.

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – A diving interception by Jeremiah Trotter Jr. with 6:45 to play combined with Phil Mafah's 32-yard touchdown run on the ensuing play helped secure Clemson's 31-14 win over previously unbeaten Syracuse at the JMA Wireless Dome. The win was Head Coach Dabo Swinney's 100th career regular season victory in ACC play, as he joined Bobby Bowden as the only coaches to accomplish the feat.

Wide receiver Tyler Brown turned in a magnificent nine-catch, 153-yard receiving effort in his fifth career game. Quarterback Cade Klubnik finished 23-of-37 for 263 yards and a pair of touchdown passes.

Defensively, Clemson recorded five sacks and held Syracuse's offense, which entered the week in the Top 10 nationally in points per game and yards per game, to 14 points and 281 yards of offense.

Clemson set the tone when Justin Mascoll crushed Syracuse quarterback Garrett Shrader for a fumble on Syracuse's opening drive that was recovered by Payton Page. The Tigers jumped out to an early 14-0 lead in the first 10 minutes on the back of a pair of turnovers that resulted in touchdowns for Troy Stellato and Will Shipley.

A 28-yard second-quarter touchdown pass from Shrader to Dan Villari cut the score to 14-7, but Clemson re-extended the lead on a 47-yard touchdown pass from Klubnik to Beau Collins. Jonathan Weitz added a field goal early in the third quarter to give Clemson a 24-7 advantage.

Syracuse got as close as 10 points in the second half, turning a Jake Briningstool fumble into seven points on a five-play scoring drive to make the score 24-14.

With the Orange driving in search of a comeback, Trotter dove in front of a Shrader pass for an interception on the 32-yard line with 6:45 to play. On the ensuing play, Mafah took a handoff and burst down the left side nearly untouched for the touchdown to set the final margin.

	CLEMSON	17
	OCT. 7, 2023 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. – Dabo Swinney tied Frank Howard's Clemson record for career wins with his 165 victory as the Tigers earned a 17-12 win over Wake Forest at Memorial Stadium on Homecoming.

Clemson's defense produced eight tackles for loss, four sacks and a fumble recovery. Additionally, Clemson allowed only two third down conversions on 12 attempts. The Tigers kept Wake Forest out of the end zone for the first 58 minutes of the game.

Cade Klubnik completed 18-of-28 passes to total 131 yards and added 48 rushing yards, including a seven-yard touchdown scamper in the first quarter. Shipley led Clemson in rushing yards with 97 on 19 carries. Defensively, safety R.J. Mickens recorded nine tackles (one for loss) and his first career fumble recovery, while linebacker Wade Woodaz had two of Clemson's four sacks.

Clemson's two touchdowns came on scoring drives of 16 plays and 15 plays, marking Clemson's first time producing multiple 15-play scoring drives since the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl.

Clemson held a 7-3 lead at halftime and the teams traded field goals to bring the score to 10-6 entering the final frame. Shipley scored on a one-yard touchdown run with 5:49 remaining to extend the score to 17-6. Wake Forest mounted an 11-play, 75-yard touchdown drive late in the contest, finishing the drive with a three-yard touchdown run by Demond Claiborne. An attempted two-point conversion by the Demon Deacons failed when a Mitch Griffis pass to Jahmal Banks was ruled out-of-bounds near the goalpost.

Wide receiver Hamp Greene recovered Wake Forest's ensuing inside kick attempt to give Clemson the ball at Wake Forest's 44-yard line. Phil Mafah rushed for 33 yards on four carries on Clemson's final drive to help run out the clock and seal the victory for Clemson.

2023 GAME RECAPS

GAME 7	CLEMSON	20
	MIAMI (FLA.)	28 ⁽²⁰¹⁾
	OCT. 21, 2023 HARD ROCK STADIUM • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. – Miami overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to defeat Clemson, 28-20, in double overtime at Hard Rock Stadium. Clemson dropped to 4-3 (2-3 ACC) with the defeat.

Sophomore quarterback Cade Klubnik was 18-for-34 for 314 yards. Klubnik connected with tight end Jake Briningstool five times for 126 yards and two touchdowns. Briningstool's 126 yards broke Clemson's school record for single-game receiving yards by a tight end, surpassing Jordan Leggett's 122 yards against Florida State in 2016.

Turnovers once again played a major role for Clemson, as the Tigers' recorded one takeaway against three giveaways.

Clemson appeared poised to take an early lead, but Miami recovered a Clemson fumble in the Hurricane end zone. On the ensuing play, Miami opened the scoring on an 80-yard touchdown, as Brashard Smith broke free on a rush up the middle, and though Nate Wiggins chased him down and forced a fumble at the one-yard line, Miami's Jacoby George recovered the fumble in the end zone for a touchdown. Klubnik and Briningstool's first scoring connection in the second quarter evened the game at 7-7 at the half.

Clemson added 10 points in the third quarter on a 41-yard Jonathan Weitz field goal and an acrobatic 19-yard touchdown by Briningstool. However, Miami responded with 10 points of its own in the fourth quarter to send the game to overtime.

The teams traded field goals in the first overtime period. After Miami's Ajay Allen rushed for a touchdown and a two-point conversion in double overtime, Miami finished a goal-line stand by chasing down Klubnik on the edge on fourth down to earn the win.

GAME 8	CLEMSON	17
	NC STATE	24
	OCT. 28, 2023 CARTER-FINLEY STADIUM • RALEIGH, N.C.

RALEIGH, N.C. - Clemson outscored NC State 10-0 in the fourth quarter but the Tigers' comeback attempt fell short as NC State defeated Clemson, 24-17, at Carter-Finley Stadium.

Clemson's defense held NC State to 202 yards, and the Tigers outgained the Wolfpack, 364-202, but NC State converted two takeaways into 14 points in the Wolfpack's seven-point win.

NC State took advantage of an early Klubnik interception on its own 40-yard line, scoring first after a 50-yard rush set up a nine-yard touchdown reception from Kevin Concepcion with 7:18 to play in the first quarter.

NC State extended the lead to 10-0 on a Brayden Narveson 41-yard field goal in the second quarter. On its ensuing drive, Clemson went 75 yards in nine plays as Phil Mafah punched in his fifth touchdown of the season with 8:24 to play before halftime.

The Wolfpack upped their lead to 17-7 when Payton Wilson returned a deflected Klubnik pass 15 yards for a touchdown. NC State scored again on a 72-yard connection from MJ Morris to Concepcion with 4:35 to play in the third quarter, taking a 24-7 lead.

Early in the fourth quarter, Mafah capped a 10-play 75-yard drive with another one-yard score, which cut the deficit to 24-14. After Clemson's defense forced a pair of three-and-outs, Mafah jump-started another Clemson scoring drive with a 41-yard gain on the first play of a possession to carry the Tigers to the NC State nine-yard line. A 19-yard field goal by Jonathan Weitz at the end of that possession pulled the score to 24-17.

Clemson forced NC State to punt, giving the Tigers the ball back trailing by seven points with 4:23 left to play in the game. An incompletion on 4th-and-19 kept the score at 24-17 and gave NC State the ball and the eventual victory.
