SYRACUSE NEWS AND NOTES

LAST TIME OUT

Syracuse hosted over 8,300 local students and teachers from the greater Syracuse area for School Day on Dec. 21. The 9,109 total fans in attendance marked the second-most attended game in program history. The Orange defeated Saint Francis 85-43 behind double doubles from Alyssa Latham, Kyra Wood and Alaina Rice while Georgia Woolley led the team with 19 points and Dyaisha Fair came off the bench to score 17.

SERIES HISTORY - NOTRE DAME

Sunday is the 44th meeting between the two teams in program history. Notre Dame leads the all-time series 39-4 and has won four straight games in the series. Last time the two met, Notre Dame earned a 72-56 win in the JMA Dome on Jan. 15, 2023.

WWWWWWWE'RE GOING STREAKING

Syracuse enters Sunday's ACC opener with the third-longest win streak in the conference. The Orange have won seven-straight games entering Sunday's tilt with the Fighting Irish who have the second-longest win streak in the conference. Notre Dame has won nine-straight games since dropping the season opener to South Carolina.

BIGGEST COMEBACK OF THE FLJ ERA

Syracuse's 14-point come-from-behind win over Cornell was the largest comeback win of the Felisha Legette-Jack Era at Syracuse. The Orange trailed by eight at halftime and fell behind by as many as 14 with just over five minutes to play in the third quarter. It was the first halftime deficit of the season for SU. The Orange hadn't erased a double digit deficit and won since beating Clemson on the road last January. The largest come from behind win under FLJ previously was SU's victory over Yale on the road in Dec. 2022.

3K IS NOT FAR AWAY

Dyaisha Fair is closing in on 3,000 career points. The fifth-year guard enters Monday's game with 2,900 points and is the second among active players in all three NCAA Divisions behind Caitlin Clark, who reached the 3K milestone earlier this season against Iowa State.

Fair currently sits 20th on the NCAA Division I Career Scoring List and is six points away from tying Joyce Walker for 19th with 2,906.

NCAA Career Scoring List:

15. Cindy Blodgett	USC, 1994-1998	3,005
16. LaToya Thomas	Miss. St., 1999-2003	2,981
17. Valorie Whitesi	App. St., 1984-88	2,944
18. Kelly Mazzante	Penn State, 2000-04	2,919
19. Joyce Walker	LSU, 1980-84	2,906
20. Dyaisha Fair	UB/Syracuse, 2019-pres.	2,900

WOOLLEY FROM DOWNTOWNUNDER

Junior Georgia Woolley, a Brisbane, Australia, native, scored her 1,000th career point in Syracuse's last outing. She drained a three to land perfectly on 1k in front of her parents and sister who are visiting from Australia and watching her play in person for the first time in her college career.

Prior to tip-off on Sunday, Woolley will be presented with a commemorative ball to celebrate the career milestone reflecting the 497 points she scored at Buffalo and the 503 (and counting) she has tallied at 'Cuse.

BUBBLE WATCH

In the latest Bracketology by ESPN's Charlie Creme (Dec. 26), the Orange are projected as an No. 9 seed facing No. 8 seed Washington State in Iowa City, IA. The Orange began the season listed as one of the first four teams out and have slowly found their way into the projected field with an 10-1 record.

ON A ROLL

Syracuse has won 26-consecutive home non-conference games at The Dome. The last home non-conference loss for the Orange was against No. 1 Oregon on Nov. 24, 2020.

ACC VS. SEC - WHO'S THE BEST

Women's college basketball fans will have to continue the debate for another year after the inaugural ACC/SEC Challenge saw a 7-7 split in 2023. The Orange were one of two ACC schools to have both its men's and women's basketball teams win their respective games; Virginia was the other.

Ironically, the men's ACC/SEC Challenge also was split 7-7 in the 14 games.

ORANGE IN THE POLLS

Syracuse received 19 votes in the USA Today/WBCA Coaches Top-25 Poll this week (Week 8). Syracuse started receiving votes in Week 4 marking the first time Syracuse received votes in either poll since Feb. 16, 2021.

The Orange are once again receiving votes in the Associated Press Top-25 Poll. This week SU had 1 vote in the Week 8 poll.

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK HONORS

Alyssa Latham was named ACC Freshman of the Week on Monday, Dec. 4. Her 23 point, 12 rebound performance helped lift the Orange to a win over Alabama in the ACC/SEC Challenge. Latham was the first Orange freshman to win ACC Freshman of the Week honors since Kamilla Cardoso in 2021.

30-PLUS WINS

Syracuse started the season with three-straight 30+ wins for the first time since the 1974 season and just the second time in program history.

ORANGE OVERSEAS

Syracuse will travel overseas for a summer foreign tour in 2024. Felisha Legette-Jack and her squad is currently fundraising to take the team to Greece for an educational, cultural and competitive trip. It will be the first international trip for the Orange in almost a decade.

WATCH LIST SEASON

Dyaisha Fair has been named to multiple preseason watch lists including the Nancy Lieberman Award Watch List which is for the nation's top point guard. She was also featured on the preseason watch lists for the John Wooden Award (Most Outstanding Player) and the Naismith Award (National Player of the Year).

ORANGE PICKED 9TH IN THE ACC

Syracuse was picked to finish ninth in the ACC this season. The Orange went 9-9 in FLJ's first season and earned the No. 9 seed to the ACC Tournament. Additionally, Dyaisha Fair was selected as Preseason All-ACC.

NEW FACES TO THE SQUAD

Syracuse added five newcomers for this season's team. Graduate transfers Dominique Camp and Izabel Varejao add experience while the freshman class of Sophie Burrows, Alyssa Latham and Marilena Triantafylli add athleticism and height to the Orange roster.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN!

Dyaisha Fair, Dominique Camp and Kyra Wood will serve as team captains for the 2023-24 season. Team captains were decided by the student-athletes and coaching staff prior to the start of the season. This is the second-consecutive year Fair and Wood were named captain.

FLJ IS HOME

Felisha Legette-Jack returned home to Syracuse on March 26, 2022 when she was named the eighth head coach in Syracuse women's basketball history. The Syracuse, N.Y., native led Nottingham High School to a pair of New York State Championships before playing for the Orange. In her freshman season, she was named BIG EAST Freshman of the Year and helped guide the team to the 1985 BIG EAST Tournament Championship and its first appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

By the time of her graduation, Legette-Jack was the all-time leader in career points and rebounds. Her 1,526 career points currently rank eighth in program history and she is fourth in career rebounds with 927. Legette-Jack was the first player in program history to be named Fast Break Magazine All-American honorable mention. She served as an assistant coach for the Orange for seven seasons from 1993-2000.

Her jersey became the first women's jersey to be retired in Syracuse Athletics history on Nov. 14, 2021.

CHARACTER. ACADEMICS. BASKETBALL.

Coach Jack's program stands on the three pillars of CHARACTER, ACADEMICS, and BASKETBALL.

Character: Choose the harder right over the easier wrong

Academics: Excel in the classroom

Basketball: Passion every play

Hard work, determination and perseverance will be the key ingredients to the team's success. Fans can expect the team to play aggressively, together and to fight for each other every minute of the game. The Orange will pursue greatness in the classroom and on the court.

LEGACY LEX

Sophomore guard Lexi McNabb is no stranger to Syracuse University. She was born to BLEED ORANGE. The daughter of legendary Syracuse football and NFL quarterback Donovan McNabb '99 and women's basketball alumnae Raquel 'Roxy' (Nurse) McNabb '98, Lexi is here at Syracuse to write her own story and leave her own legacy. Originally committed to Buffalo, Lexi made the easy decision to join Coach Jack at Syracuse when she was named head coach. Roxy McNabb was a four-year letterwinner and point guard for the women's basketball team when Coach Jack was an assistant coach in the mid-1990s.

FLI AND WEEZY REUNITED

Felisha Legette-Jack's biggest recruit when she was named head coach was former teammate and best friend of 38 years, Sue Ludwig. Fli and Weezy, their beloved college nicknames, reunited this past March when Ludwig stepped down as girl's basketball head coach of Westhill High School after 31 years. Ludwig is the all-time winningest high school girls basketball coach in the state of New York with a state championship and many federation championships under her belt.

Despite having never coached at the collegiate level, Legette-Jack knew that one day Ludwig would join her on the sidelines if she became the head coach of their alma mater. That dream came true in March.

JOHN A. LALLY ATHLETICS COMPLEX

A The John A. Lally Athletics Complex entranceway is complete! The first milestone in the ongoing multi-million dollar, multi-year capital campaign to build a new home for the Orange welcomes alumni, friends, staff, coaches, student-athletes and prospective student-athletes and their families. When completed, the Lally Athletics Complex will stand as a state-of-the-art academics and athletics village serving all 20 Syracuse teams and more than 600 student-athletes.

A key priority of Forever Orange, Syracuse University's comprehensive capital campaign, the Lally Athletics Complex will elevate the student-athlete experience and provide a first-rate facility to help the department continue to develop, recruit and retain high caliber student-athletes. Thanks to the leadership support of Lally, a three-time Orange football letterwinner, and his wife, Laura, this vision is steadily becoming a reality.

Lally, a graduate of the Martin J. Whitman School of Management and an offensive guard for the Orange from 1977-82, made a $25 million gift commitment in 2019 to jumpstart the campaign and help inspire fellow alumni, fans and donors to support.

The new front entrance and expanded meeting space that features engaging interactive technology and state-of-the-art video boards opened on February 20, 2023. Future plans for the complex call for the second level of the entranceway to be expanded into a student-athlete academic success center.

Momentum for the campaign is building as the 'Cuse Athletics Fund ('CAF) and Syracuse University continue to fundraise for the next phases of the Lally Athletics Complex, which was known as Manley Field House for nearly 60 years. The $150 million campaign includes the creation of a new Football Operations Center and the 'One Team' Olympic Sports Center, which house updated dining and nutrition facilities, renovated locker rooms, medical training and strength and conditioning facilities, and modernized displays honoring the history of Syracuse Athletics.

To date, the Phase 1 fundraising goal to continue construction on the Lally Athletics Complex is 90% complete. In just two years, the Legends Society, a leadership group of fans, family and alumni who join in a shared vision to provide current and future student-athletes with a championship experience through philanthropy, has grown to almost 170 donors who have made major gift commitments to support Syracuse Athletics and the Lally Athletics Complex.

JMA WIRELESS DOME & UPGRADES

On May 19, 2022, Syracuse University announced that JMA Wireless, a global leader in the wireless industry and 5G technology headquartered in Syracuse, entered a 10-year naming rights partnership, ending the 40-year legacy of the Carrier Dome name and ushering in the JMA Wireless Dome era (or JMA Dome for short).

The University announced last winter that it will build on that momentum with the installation of upgraded chairback seating and the introduction of new premium offerings throughout the venue. Bench seating will be replaced throughout the 100, 200 and 300 levels, resulting in added comfort and accessibility. It also means the JMA Dome will have a new seat map and revised capacities for football, men's basketball, women's basketball, men's lacrosse and women's lacrosse competitions.

THE HARD HAT

The blinged-out hard hat symbol of the blue collar mentality Coach Jack has instilled in the Syracuse program. The hard hat, decorated with rhinestones and glitter, is given out by the coaching staff to the player that "came to work and did their job". It's not always the player with the best stat line, but the player that does "all the little things" to help SU win.

HEAD COACH FELISHA LEGETTE-JACK

Felisha Legette-Jack, a 1989 graduate of Syracuse University and Orange All-American, is home. The Syracuse native and 20-year collegiate head coach took the reins of the Orange basketball program on March 26, 2022.

Legette-Jack is synonymous with Syracuse women's basketball success. The 1985 BIG EAST Conference Freshman of the Year, three-time All-BIG EAST selection and Syracuse's first two-time honorable mention All-American. Legette-Jack helped lead the Orange to their first BIG EAST Championship and NCAA Tournament appearance in school history. More than 30 years later, she still ranks in the top-10 on Syracuse's career scoring and rebounding lists. She is one of three players in program history to score more than 1,500 points (1,526) and grab more than 900 rebounds (927).

The Orange laid a solid foundation in Legette-Jack's first season as head coach in 2022-23. The Orange legend led Syracuse to its first postseason appearance since 2021 and became the first head coach in program history to guide SU to the postseason in their first season at the helm. Syracuse posted a 20-13 record overall and reached the Super 16 of the Women's NIT. Under Legette-Jack's guidance, senior guard Dyaisha Fair was named All-ACC First Team and garnered WBCA All-America honorable mention.

Off the court, the Orange were active in the community and posted the best fall and spring semester grade point averages (GPAs) in the last decade. A record eight Orange were named to the ACC All-Academic Team paced by College Sports Communicators (previously CoSIDA) Academic All-District honoree Darianna Lewis.

One of the all-time Orange greats, Legette-Jack returned to her hometown with more than 30 years of coaching experience. She spent the last 10 years building the University at Buffalo's women's program into one of the perennial powers in the Mid-American Conference (MAC), leading the Bulls to four NCAA Tournaments, including the 2018 Sweet Sixteen. She is the all-time winningest coach in Bulls history with a 202-115 record and four MAC Tournament Championships. During her career she has guided three different Division I programs to a combined 13 winning seasons, nine postseason berths and six 20-win seasons, and has accrued a 343-279 record.

Legette-Jack led Nottingham High School to a pair of state titles before attending Syracuse, where she was a standout on Coach Barbara Jacobs' teams from 1984-89.

At Syracuse, Legette-Jack earned BIG EAST Freshman of the Year honors after helping lead the Orange to their first BIG EAST Championship in school history. As a sophomore, Legette-Jack averaged a double-double (15.8 ppg and 10.1 rpg) en route to honorable mention All-America honors and All-BIG EAST recognition. The next year she earned honorable mention All-America and All-BIG EAST Second Team recognition. After missing the 1987-88 season due to a knee injury, she returned to earn the court earn All-BIG EAST honors for the fourth time in 1988-89. She finished her career as the program's all-time leader in points, rebounds, field goals made and attempted, and free throws made and attempted.

After graduating from Syracuse with bachelor's degrees in child and family studies and psychology in 1989, Legette-Jack began her coaching career at Westhill Senior High School on the city's West side in 1989. She made the move to the collegiate level as an assistant at Boston College from 1991-93 and never looked back.

Following her stint at BC, Legette-Jack returned home to Syracuse as an assistant on Coach Marianna Freeman's staff from 1993-2000. She left in 2000 to become an assistant coach at Michigan State for two seasons, before landing her first head coaching job at Hofstra in 2002.

In four years, Legette-Jack turned Hofstra's program around. During her final season Hofstra was 19-12 and advanced to the second round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT).

Named head coach at Indiana University in 2006, Legette-Jack guided the that program for six years. She led the Hoosiers to consecutive WNITs in her first three seasons, including a 20-win season and WNIT Quarterfinal appearance in 2009.

In 2012, she returned to the Empire State when she was named the head coach at Buffalo. Legette-Jack put the UB program on the map during her decade in the Queen City. She led four Buffalo teams to four NCAA Tournaments, most recently this season, and developed the first WNBA Draft pick in school history, Cierra Dillard, who was selected by the Minnesota Lynx in 2019. Her UB teams have had five 20-win seasons and averaged more than 19 wins a campaign during her tenure.

The 2021-22 Bulls posted a 25-9 record, including a 16-4 mark in MAC play, and were 14-1 at home. Legette-Jack developed three All-MAC honorees in Dyaisha Fair, Georgia Woolley and Summer Hemphill. Fair finished the season ranked fourth in the nation in scoring average (23.4 points per game) and Woolley also earned MAC Freshman of the Year honors.

The Bulls had their most successful season in 2017-18, posting a 29-6 record, including 12-0 at home. UB earned the first NCAA at-large bid for the MAC since 1996 and danced its way to the Sweet Sixteen for the first time in school history.

Legette-Jack is enshrined in multiple halls of fame, including the Greater Syracuse Hall of Fame, the Syracuse Urban Sports Hall of Fame and the Syracuse University Orange Plus Hall of Fame. She was named to the BIG EAST Silver Anniversary team in 2004 and became the first female in Syracuse University history to have her jersey retired last fall when her No. 33 jersey was raised to the rafters of the Carrier Dome on Nov. 14, 2021.

Born Sept. 4, 1966, in Syracuse, Legette-Jack and her husband David, have one son, David Maceo, who is currently playing professional basketball in England for the Cheshire Phoenix.
