THE CITADEL SIX

LAST TIME OUT

- A QMB scoop layup put CIT ahead 13-11 at the first media timeout after a back-and-forth start.
- A CofC 3-pointer gave the home team a 25-19 edge with 7:50 to go in the half, forcing CIT to talk things over.
- Elijah Morgan's step back three paused a CofC run at 28-22, but the Cougars responded with an 8-0 spurt to extend the margin to double digits, 36-22.
- The Bulldogs responded as another 3-pointer by Morgan, this time with less than a minute to go, cut the deficit back to single digits, 41-32 CofC, however the Cougars answered with the last of their seven first-half threes to hold a 44-32 lead at intermission.
- QMB found Morgan on a nice cut to the basket as the Bulldogs stayed within striking distance, 53-42 CofC, at the 12-minute media timeout.
- Off a baseline inbound, Madison Durr found Winston Hill for a layup in the lane to trim the margin to less than 10, 56-48 CofC, halfway through the second half.
- The Cougars once again answered, this time with a 19-8 stretch, due in part to two more makes from beyond the arc, to extend the differential back to double figures, 76-56, with five minutes to go as CofC closed out an 86-71 home win.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE MACHINE

- Quentin Millora-Brown has recorded a double-double in four straight games, a program record, after he registered 13 points and 10 rebounds at The College of Charleston last Thursday.
- Over the last four games, the grad transfer is averaging 13.8 ppg, 11.0 rpg and 2.8 blocks while shooting 60.5% from the floor.

HITTING THE GLASS

- The Bulldogs were outrebounded for the first time this season at CofC but by just one board as the Cougars held a slim 36-35 edge.

IF THIS, THEN THAT...

- If the Bulldogs win, it would be their first win over a Power 5 opponent since they defeated Pittsburgh 78-63 on November 9, 2021.
- If the Bulldogs lose, they'll fall to 0-5 in their last five games against Power 5 foes.

THE RETURN OF ELIJAH

- Elijah Morgan returns to his old stomping grounds of Notre Dame as he was a three-year member of the Fighting Irish squad from 2019-22.
- In those three seasons, the walk-on appeared in 28 games for Notre Dame under former Head Coach Mike Brey.

NO SOPHOMORE SLUMP HERE

- AJ Smith responded to his first single-digit point effort of the season, netting 18 points vs the Cougars.
- The Charlotte native is averaging a team-high 16.6 ppg, while shooting over 50% from the field (50.8%) and over 45% from three (46.7%).
