what you need to know about spartan hockey

• Michigan State heads out on the road for a two-game set at No. RV/20 Notre Dame. MSU is 70-58-5 all-time against the Irish, but Notre Dame holds a 32-28-11 edge in games played in South Bend. MSU holds a four-game winning streak in the series, which includes two wins in December at Munn (5-2, 2-1) and a pair of 4-2 victories in the Big Ten quarterfinal series last March.   MSU earned its second straight split of a B1G series last weekend against Minnesota, snapping a 16-game winless streak against the Gophers.

• With 17 victories, the Spartans have more total wins than in 9 of their last 11 seasons.   MSU is 11-2-2 in Big Ten play, matching its previous best of 11 B1G season victories in both 2014-15 and 2019-20. The Spartans currently hold down the top spot in the Big Ten standings with 37 points, five ahead of second-place Wisconsin (32) and 11 ahead of third-place Minnesota (26).

• With 107 goals (third nationally) through 26 games, MSU has matched its goal total in 38 games a year ago. Last year, the Spartans surpassed the 100-goal plateau for the first time since 2011-12. MSU has six players (five forwards, one defenseman) with 20 points or more through 26 games. That is the most 20-point scorers for the Spartans since the 2009-10 season, when they had seven (five forwards, two defensemen).   In addition, nine players have established a new single-season best in at least one offensive category.

• Artyom Levshunov averages a point per game (7-19-26) and ranks fourth in the B1G in assists and tied for 12th in points. Among league defensemen, he and partner Nash Nienhuis share the lead in goals (7). Nationally, Levshunov ranks seventh among defensemen in points, and is second in scoring among freshmen defensemen. He is a team-best +24, the best of any player in the country through Jan. 28.   In conference games only, Levshunov owns a 4-14-18 scoring line, which is tied for second among all league players and tops among defensemen. His 14 assists is tied for the overall league lead.

• Joey Larson leads MSU in goals (15) and points (28). Among Big Ten players, his 15 goals is tied for fourth, his seven power-play goals ranks third (11th nationally), and his 28 points is tied for ninth. His 0.58 goals per game is sixth in the league, and his +11 is second on the team among forwards. Larson's 15 goals is the most for a Spartan since Patrick Khodorenko's 16 in 2019-20. Khodorenko had 18 in 2018-19.

• The all-sophomore line of Karsen Dorwart centering Isaac Howard and Daniel Russell is the second-highest producing line for the Spartans with a combined 24-39-63 in 26 games.   Dorwart had a shorthanded goal in Friday's game against Minnesota to match his freshman-season total of 10 goals and owns a 10-12-22 scoring line.   Russell owns a 8-11-19 scoring line to match his freshman year goal total, notching MSU's game-winner last Friday with just four seconds remaining in regulation off an assist from Howard. (6-16-22).

• Michigan State heads out on the road to kick off a stretch of four straight games away from Munn Ice Arena. Awaiting the Spartans is a two-game set at No. RV/20 Notre Dame, the first of three February series for MSU.

• Scott Moore and Rob Woodward have reunited for a 19th season calling Spartan hockey for the Spartan Media Network. The games will air live on WJIM 1240 AM (Friday) and WVFN 730 AM (Saturday), and will also be available on the web via MSUSpartans.com.

• Both games will stream live on Peacock this weekend. Links to all broadcasts, webstreams, and live statistics can be found on MSUSpartans.com.

the notre dame series

• MSU is 70-58-5 all-time against the Irish, but Notre Dame holds a 32-28-11 edge in games played in South Bend.

• MSU holds a four-game winning streak in the series, which includes two wins in December at Munn (5-2, 2-1) and a pair of 4-2 victories in the Big Ten quarterfinal series last March.

• The Irish are coming off a bye weekend, and have won their last three games - sweeping Penn State (4-1, 6-3) and splitting at Ohio State the weekend prior. Notre Dame is 13-11-2 overall on the season and enter the series with the Spartans at 7-7-2 in conference play, currently sitting in fourth place with 24 points, two behind third-place Minnesota.

• Jeff Jackson (Michigan State '78) is in his 19th season behind the bench in South Bend and his 25th season overall as a head coach in Division I hockey. He is the winner of more than 400 games at Notre Dame and nearly 600 games overall. Jackson guided Lake Superior State to two national championships (1992, 1994) and Notre Dame to four Frozen Fours.

• In the first series between the teams, MSU scored seven goals - all by different players - in posting 5-2 and 2-1 wins over the Irish at Munn Arena in December. Both Isaac Howard and Artyom Levshunov had a goal and two assists in the series, and Trey Augustine stopped 66 of 69 shots against (.957) to earn Big Ten First Star of the Week honors for the second time in three weeks.

team notes

• MSU earned its second straight split of a Big Ten series, winning 3-2 in dramatic fashion last Friday before No. 9/9 Minnesota came back with a 5-1 win on Saturday.

• With 17 victories, MSU has more total wins than in 9 of its last 11 seasons. MSU won 18 games a year ago, and 17 games in 2014-15.

• MSU is 11-2-2 in Big Ten play, matching its previous best of 11 B1G season victories in both 2014-15 and 2019-20. The Spartans have four Big Ten series remaining in the regular season, with a bye week on the schedule Feb. 16-17.

• The Spartans currently hold down the top spot in the Big Ten standings with 37 points, five ahead of second-place Wisconsin (32) and 11 ahead of third-place Minnesota (26).   Wisconsin and Michigan each have two games in hand on the remainder of the Big Ten teams, who each have a bye weekend remaining.

• In losing the second game of the series to the Gophers, MSU lost for the first time this season on a Saturday night (6-1-0).

• The Friday victory over Minnesota snapped a 16-game winless streak against the Gophers dating back to the 2020-21 season. MSU had earned a tie and lost in OT in the November meetings.

• Adam Nightingale has now recorded a win against every Big Ten squad with the victory over the Gophers on Friday.

• MSU had its lowest-scoring weekend of the season against the Gophers, with just four goals. Its previous low was seven, against both Wisconsin and Notre Dame in the first half.

• MSU's last 10 goals – six in the Saturday game against Michigan and all four in the series against Minnesota – were scored in the final 30 minutes of the game.

• All three ties on the MSU ledger have come on Fridays. Two of those ties came in B1G contests, with MSU winning the shootout at Minnesota and losing it to Penn State.

• Every one of MSU's Big Ten games this season have come against ranked competition, and MSU is currently in a stretch of 10 straight games against conference competition which was or will be ranked: No. 20/19 Penn State, No. 15/14 Michigan, No. 9/9 Minnesota the last three weeks, and Notre Dame and Michigan on the schedule the next two weeks before a bye week.

• MSU has scored 107 goals this season, third behind Denver (130) and Michigan (113) nationally. The Spartans are second in the league and rank third nationally in both assists (190) and points (297).

• With 107 scores through 26 games, MSU has matched the 107 goals it scored in 38 games a year ago. Last year, the Spartans surpassed the 100-goal plateau for the first time since 2011-12. MSU has scored fewer than three goals just four times this season: at Boston College (5-1 L), its second win over Notre Dame (2-1), its first game vs. Michigan (7-1 L), and last Saturday against Minnesota (5-1).

• MSU has six players (five forwards, one defenseman) with 20 points or more through 26 games. That is the most 20-point scorers for the Spartans since the 2009-10 season, when they had seven (five forwards, two defensemen).

• The Spartan penalty kill extinguished eight of nine chances against in the series against Minnesota, and scored shorthanded. The Spartan penalty kill is at .805 (91-113), which is third in the Big Ten.

• MSU's seven shorthanded goals is tied for the highest total in the country. It is the most shorthanded goals for MSU since the 2002-03 campaign (10). Three of the Spartans' shorthanded markers have been scored by defensemen.

• With a 1-for-4 weekend against Minnesota, MSU's power play is operating at .270 (20-of-74) on the year (third B1G, seventh nationally). The Spartans have a power play goal in 17 of 26 games, and five of the last seven.

• Opposing goalies have posted 50 or more saves twice this season: Notre Dame's Ryan Bischel made 51 on Dec. 8 (a 5-3 MSU win) and Tech's Blake Pietila made 54 in a 3-3 tie in the GLI final.

• MSU holds the No. 8 slot in both the USCHO and the USA Hockey polls. MSU has been ranked between No. 5 and No 12 in each of the previous polls this season.

• All 24 Spartan skaters have played at least two games, 22 players have scored at least two points, and MSU has two players averaging a point per game.

• MSU has compiled 16 all-time weekend sweeps since the start of the Big Ten Conference. MSU has four weekend sweeps of a conference opponent this season: in road series at Ohio State and Penn State, and home sweeps of Wisconsin and Notre Dame. The four weekend sweeps are the most ever for a Spartan team in B1G play.

• Of MSU's 16 all-time B1G sweeps, 12 have come at home, and one was a home-and-home series with Michigan. MSU has earned two of its all-time three road sweeps this season: at Ohio State and at Penn State.

• MSU owns home sweeps of both Notre Dame and Wisconsin. The Badgers were No. 1 in the polls when they came to East Lansing in November, and MSU's 4-2 and 3-2 victories were its first sweep of a No. 1 team since 1974.

• In the history of the Big Ten conference, MSU has never had a four-game regular-season sweep of an opponent, but have chances remaining against Notre Dame, Ohio State, and Wisconsin. MSU went 3-0-1 against Penn State and 1-2-1 against Minnesota, and split the first series against Michigan.

• MSU's cumulative schedule is ranked as the fifth most difficult in Division I hockey and the third hardest in the Big Ten behind Notre Dame and Minnesota. The Spartans completed their non-conference schedule with a 6-3-1 overall record, and it included two games at No. 3/3 Boston College and RV Michigan Tech in the GLI.

• MSU ranks 11th nationally in total attendance (83,967) and sixth in average attendance (6,459).

• Including both games against Minnesota, MSU has sold out 13 of 14 home games this season, (which included a sellout crowd for the USNTDP exhibition on Jan. 5.) With the recent Munn renovations, seating capacity was established at the current 6,117 with a SRO capacity of 6,555.

• Michigan State has sold out 20 of its last 21 home games (including the USNTDP exhibition), and 17 consecutive home Big Ten Conference games.

• The Spartans have had just one crowd below 6,000 this season- MSU had 5,992 in the building for a Thursday night game (10/19) vs. Canisius.

player notes - forwards

• Through 26 games, MSU has five forwards with 20 points or more, seven with seven goals or more, and 11 who have at least one multiple-point game. In addition, six forwards have established a new single-season best in at least one offensive category.

• The all-sophomore line of Karsen Dorwart centering Isaac Howard and Daniel Russell is the second-highest producing line for the Spartans with a combined 24-39-63 in 26 games.

• Dorwart had a shorthanded goal in Friday's game against Minnesota and the primary assist on Matt Basgall's goal in the Saturday game. He has matched his freshman-season total of 10 goals and owns a 10-12-22 scoring line.

• Dorwart is the third Spartan to reach double-digit goals this season. Among his 22 points is a goal and five assists on the power play in addition to two shorthanded markers.

• Russell owns a 8-11-19 scoring line overall, but he had his hand in some big goals over the last two weekends: he forced a neutral-zone turnover to set up Howard's goal at Michigan (1/20) which began a run of six consecutive MSU goals, and then scored MSU's game-winner last Friday with just four seconds remaining in regulation off an assist from Howard.

• Russell has matched his freshman season total of eight goals, and he is the only Spartan with a point in each of the last three games.

• Isaac Howard assisted on Russell's game-winner on Friday vs. Minnesota. He is just under a point per game (6-16-22, 24 GP) and he is tied for third on the team and 13th in the Big Ten in assists.

• A pair of MSU's fourth liners came through with a important plays that helped the Spartans defeat Minnesota on Friday. Griffin Jurecki, dressing in his sixth career game, scored his first collegiate goal to get the scoring started for MSU on Friday night, and then Tommi Männistö rushed out of his own defensive zone on the PK, split the defenders, and ended up with the primary assist on Karsen Dorwart's shorthanded marker that tied the game later in the period.

• Jurecki has played each of the last three games for MSU and seven total. He picked up his first career assist in the GLI semifinal win over Ferris State (12/28), and then had the goal on Friday off a setup by classmate Maxim Štrbák.

• Six of the seven points for Tommi Männistö on the season (1-6-7) have come in Big Ten play. Two of them have come in the last three series since he returned to the lineup after his stint with Team Finland for World Juniors.

• Tiernan Shoudy centers the fourth line. He owns a 2-5-7 scoring line and leads the team in faceoff winning percentage (.568, 172-131).   He went 17-4 in the faceoff circle against the Gophers, and leads all forwards with 18 blocked shots on the year.

• The line of Gavin O'Connell-Red Savage-Joey Larson is MSU's top producing unit, with 31-40-71 in 26 games (+36).

• Larson is one of three transfer student-athlete this season to surpass his previous single-season high in points. He had 26 points last year at Northern Michigan and now has 28; Miami forward Red Savage had 16 points as a freshman in 2021-22 (and 14 as a sophomore) and now has 24 as a Spartan, and Isaac Howard had 17 points as a freshman at Minnesota-Duluth and has 6-16-22 in 24 games at MSU.

head coach adam nightingale

Adam Nightingale, a Spartan alumnus with hockey experience at the international, professional, collegiate and youth levels, was named the eighth head coach in Michigan State hockey history in May 2022 and had an impressive first season at the helm in 2022-23.

Nightingale's coaching trajectory includes quality experience at every level of competitive hockey. Whether at the top high school for developing young talent (Shattuck-St. Mary's), the United States National Team Development Program (USNTDP), collegiately at Michigan State, and with experience as both a video and bench coach in the NHL, the Spartan mentor has built a reputation of exceptional player development. At every steo of his career, Nightingale has developed strong recruiting ties and professional relationships through all levels of hockey, helping him identify, coach, and develop young talent to reach their goals both on the ice and for life beyond hockey.

Nightingale's goal to recreate a culture of winning hockey within the Spartan program took a huge step forward in his first season. Winning 18 games – the third-most for a first-year head coach in program history – the Spartans finished in fifth place in the Big Ten standings after being selected seventh in the pre-season coaches poll. The squad posted a six-win improvement from the 2021-22 campaign, which was also the most victories for a Spartan team in more than a decade. In the postseason, Michigan State earned its first-ever Big Ten Tournament victory over Notre Dame, and went on to defeat the Irish in the best-of-three quarterfinal series to earn their way into the semifinals against top-ranked Minnesota. Nightingale was one of three finalists for Big Ten Coach of the Year at season's end.

While asking his charges to focus on process and improvement, nine Spartans posted career-best offensive numbers during Nightingale's first season, including two seniors – Nicolas Müller and Jagger Joshua – who more than doubled their three-season career totals. Joshua and graduate transfer Dylan St. Cyr (who also far surpassed his previous career bests in all statistical categories) both earned postseason All-Big Ten honors.

The summer of 2023 yielded a pair of NHL draft picks - MSU had two picks in the top two rounds of the same draft for the first time since 2006. Trey Augustine (41st overall, Detroit Red Wings) and Maxim Štrbák (45th overall, Buffalo Sabres) went just four picks apart in the second round.

Prior to coming back to his alma mater, Nightingale served as head coach at the US National Team Development Program in Plymouth, Mich. Guiding some of the top talent in world in the age group, he led his team to a silver medal at the U.S. Under-18 Men's World Championships in 2022. His roster boasted 22 Division I commitments.

Nightingale has supported seven U.S. teams on the international stage, which includes his head coaching duties with the U18's in 2022 and as a coach for the bronze medal-winning 2021 U.S. Men's World Championship Team. Previously, he was video coach for the U.S. Men's National Team three consecutive years (2017-19), including for the bronze medal-winning 2018 squad. He was also the video coach for the 2015 U.S. National Junior Team.

Prior to his time with the USNTDP, the Cheboygan, Michigan, native spent four seasons on NHL staffs. From 2017-20, he was a member of the Detroit Red Wings organization. As an assistant coach in 2019-20, he was responsible for player development, pre-scouting opponents and running the penalty kill. He worked as the video coach for his first two years in Detroit, a role he also held for the Buffalo Sabres in 2016-17.

Before joining the pro ranks, Nightingale served as head coach of the Shattuck-St. Mary's 14U (Bantam) Team in Faribault, Minnesota for two seasons (2014-16), leading the team to a national championship in 2016 as well as two years (2008-10) as the head coach of the Shattuck midget AA squad.

Between his stints at Shattuck, Nightingale was the director of hockey operations at Michigan State, serving at his alma mater overseeing all team video as well as team travel.

While he began his collegiate career at Lake Superior State, (2000-02), the final two seasons of Nightingale's collegiate playing career came at Michigan State (2003-05). Over a combined 118 games, he totaled 37 points (18g-19a). At MSU, he served as alternate captain for both of his playing seasons, and won the Spartan Fitness Award in 2004. Nightingale then went on to play parts of four seasons in the ECHL with the Gwinnett Gladiators, Greenville Grrrowl and Charlotte Checkers.

Nightingale's family includes his wife, Kristin, and three children, Trevor, Emmerson and Keeton. His older brother, Jason, is the Assistant Director of Amateur Scouting for the Buffalo Sabres, while his younger brother, Jared, is also a Spartan alumnus and is currently the assistant coach for the Rockford Ice Hogs of the AHL.
