TALKING POINTS

MATCH-UP PREVIEWS

NOTRE DAME FIGHTING IRISH: The University of Notre Dame opens up its 2024-25 campaign by hosting the Under-18 Team Friday night in South Bend. The contest will be Notre Dame's lone exhibition matchup before they kick off their season October 11-12 in New York, taking on St. Lawrence (Fri.) and Clarkson University (Sat.).

The Irish lost last season's two leading scorers, NTDP alums Landon Slaggert and Patrick Moynihan, to the professional ranks. Their returning leading scorer from 2023-24 is another program alum, and IIHF U18 and World Junior champion, Danny Nelson. Nelson tallied nine goals and added 14 assists for 23 total points in just 30 games played.

Along with Nelson, fellow NTDP graduates Nick Kempf (2022-24), Paul Fischer (2021-23), Maddox Fleming (2020-22), Justin Janicke (2019-21), Carter Slaggert (2021-23) and Hunter Strand (2018-20) all grace the Irish lineup this season.

This meeting will be the 13th all-time matchup between the NTDP and Notre Dame, with the Irish holding a 6-4-2 series lead. But the U18s have won the last two matchups, including a 5-3 win in their last meeting back on October 2, 2022 in Indiana.

MINNESOTA ELITE LEAGUE ALL-STARs: The U17s return to Minnesota this weekend for their annual trip to the Minnesota Elite League in New Hope, Minn. For the second consecutive season, Team USA will take on the Upper Midwest High School Elite League All-Star squad, instead of individual competing teams.

The Elite League showcases high school-aged players, allowing them to stay home and play against top-level competition while simultaneously attending their own high schools. During the week, they skate with their high school teammates, attend a regular class schedule and participate in extra-curricular activities at their schools. Then they play weekend games for a variety of teams throughout the UMHSEHL.

The All-Star squad is led this year by Brooks Cullen, older brother of U17 forward Wyatt Cullen (Moorhead, Minn.). Last season, the elder Cullen posted six points (1G-5A) in 16 Elite League games, while also captaining Moorhead High School and posted 21 points (15G-6A) in 27 contests.

In last season's matchups, the NTDP got the best of the Elite League, taking home 4-2 and 4-3 (OT) wins, including a game-winning overtime score from Jack Murtagh (East Greenbush, N.Y.) to close the weekend.

WESTERN MICHIGAN BRONCOS: The U18s wrap their weekend on the west side as they travel to Kalamazoo to square up with the Broncos.

Just as with Notre Dame, this is the lone exhibition contest for Western before they stay in state for a home-and-home set with Ferris State next weekend to begin their regular-season schedule.

The Broncos lost their top-3 scorers from last season, but still return a pair of NHL draft picks in Alex Bump (PHI) and Matteo Costantini (BUF), who both eclipsed the 30-point mark in 2023-24.

The lone NTDP alum on the WMU roster is netminder Cameron Rowe, who is playing his graduate year in Kalamazoo. Last season, Rowe appeared in 38 games for the Broncos, earning a 21-16-1 record with a 2.47 GAA and .903 SV% to help lead the team to an NCAA Division I men's ice hockey tournament bid.

The two teams have only previously played twice, both wins by WMU, including in the second-ever collegiate game played by the NTDP all the way back in 2000.

BURRRRR-CHILD NOT COLD: U17 forward Mikey Berchild (Minnetonka, Minn.) continued his rip-roaring start to the season as he potted two more goals last weekend at the NAHL Showcase.

The University of Denver commit grabbed both his scores in the same game, a 3-2 win over the Shreveport Mudbugs on Friday night. He put Team USA on the board late in the opening period, ripping a slap-shot from the center point on the power play to tie the game at one goal apiece. Berchild went on to win the game for the U17s, grabbing the game-winning tally late in the middle frame, another play score as he wired a wrister from the top of the left circle for the team's third score of the night.

Berchild is the lone U17 scorer at a point-per-game through six contests, as he leads the team with five goals, seven points and a +3 rating.

BARNEY AND FRIENDS: U18 defenseman Asher Barnett (Wilmette, Ill.) had a career night in the team's 5-2 win over Fargo on Saturday evening in North Dakota.

The blueliner tied a career high with three points as he registered a goal and two helpers. Barnett put the team on the board at 6:46 of the first, finding the back of the net off a screen shot after a Team USA faceoff win.

The future Michigan Wolverine added two third-period assists, first taking the initial shot that Richard Gallant (Concord, Mass.) tapped in and then feeding Will Belle (Minnetonka, Minn.) towards the empty net to ice the game late in regulation.

Through six games, Barnett is leading the U18 defensemen in goals, assists, points and shots on goal. After averaging 0.33 points-per-game in 2023-24, Barnett has doubled that thus far to begin this year's campaign.

BACK TO SCHOOL: The 2024-25 Under-18 Team begins its Kroger College Series this weekend with contests against Notre Dame and Western Michigan.

This year's series sits at 18 games, all but one against Division I opponents. Team USA will host Lake Superior State, Robert Morris, Augustana, Michigan State and Bowling Green at USA Hockey Arena throughout the season, while being on the road for the other dozen. For more information, visit USAHockeyNTDP.com/krogercollegeseries.

HOCKTOBERFEST: Team USA will open its 2024-25 home schedule by hosting Kroger College Series doubleheaders on October 11-12. Lake Superior State, Robert Morris University and Simon Fraser will all be at the rink over the weekend, with two games played per day. Friday will see Robert Morris and Simon Fraser in the matinee (3pm puck drop) before the U18s open their home slate against Lake State. On Saturday, Lake State and Simon Fraser take the afternoon action while Team USA and Robert Morris face off in the nightcap.

Fans can go home with their 2024-25 Team USA magnet schedules (Fri.) and the U18 Team poster (Sat.), while staying after the game to get autographs from the players. Tickets are good for both games on each day, getting two games for the price of one. Call the USA Hockey Arena box office at 734-453-8400!
