LAST TIME OUT

The Syracuse women's basketball (4-5, 0-0 ACC) team was edged by Texas A&M (5-4, 0-0 SEC), 57-45, on Wednesday night at Reed Arena in the SEC/ACC Challenge. The Orange opened the game strong, scoring the contest's first seven points and ending the first quarter with a 15-10 lead. The Aggies narrowed the gap in the second quarter, outscoring Syracuse 14-11, but the Orange held on to a 26-24 advantage at halftime. Texas A&M claimed its first lead of the night with back-to-back jumpers to start the second half and extended the advantage to eight points by the end of the third quarter, 45-37. Syracuse opened the final frame with a 6-0 run to cut the deficit to two, but the Aggies maintained control, holding a seven-point lead with just over two minutes to play. A 10-0 run to close the game secured Texas A&M's 57-45 victory.

#40 GOES INTO THE JMA DOME RAFTERS

Kayla Alexander's #40 jersey will be retired at halftime of Sunday's game. Alexander is the all-time leader in points, with 2,024 and 970 rebounds during her career from 2009-13. She is the only player in program history to score over 2,000 points at Syracuse. Additionally, she holds program records in blocks (350), field goals (736), free throws (552) and is tied for the most games played in program history with 140 appearances. An Associated Press All-American during her tenure, she helped the Orange to four-straight postseason appearances including the NCAA Tournament, just the third in program history at the time, as a senior in 2013. She was drafted by the San Antonio Silver Stars eighth overall in the 2013 WNBA Draft, becoming the first first-round draft pick in program history. Alexander went on to have a successful professional career in the WNBA and overseas and is a two-time Olympian as a member of Canada's Senior Women's National Team.

THE HISTORY

Sunday is the 46th meeting in program history between Syracuse and Notre Dame. The Irish lead the series 39-6 but Syracuse has won each of the last two meetings having swept ND for the first time in program history last season. Syracuse upset #12 Notre Dame on Dec. 31, 2023 to begin the 2023-24 ACC season, 86-81, inside the JMA Wireless Dome. Syracuse was led by Dyaisha Fair who had 27 points in the win. Syracuse then made the trip to South Bend in late January where the Orange earned their first win at Purcell Pavilion in program history with a 79-65 win over the Irish on their home court. Again, Fair led the Orange with a 26 point performance while Alaina Rice and Georgia Woolley added 19 points and 12 points respectively. Kyra Wood had 13 rebounds helping SU outrebound ND 50-34 in the win. Syracuse is 3-2 in their last five home games against the Irish.

WHEN FOLLOWING A LOSS

Syracuse is 0-4 when following a win this season. The Orange have not won back-to-back games since beating Miami and Virginia in back-to-back road games on Feb. 15 and Feb. 18, 2024.

HAND HER THE 'KEY'

Freshman Keira, or Key as she's known by her teammates, led the Orange in scoring against Creighton on in Destin, FL. Her 11 points were a team high and the second double figure scoring game of her young career. She shot 4-for-9 from the field in the loss.

Scott then made her first career start when the Orange returned home to face Yale on Sunday (12/1). Scott had four points, three rebounds, a steal and one assist in 18 minutes on the floor. She topped that performance scoring a team-best and a career-high 14 points in SU's SEC/ACC Challenge loss at Texas A&M on Wednesday night (12/4).

JOURNEY FROM THE BENCH

Thompson is emerging as a go-to player off the bench for the Orange. She had a season-high 14 points (two shy of her career high) in Syracuse's win over Missouri (11/25) in a season-high 21 minutes. She shot 70% from the field going 7-for-10 in the 82-59 win. Thompson had nine points and six rebounds in 19 minutes off the bench against No. 11 Maryland (11/13).

WATCH OUT FOR WOOLLEY

Senior Georgia Woolley is leading the team in scoring with 15.3 ppg. She had a team-high 19 points against No. 11 Maryland in Syracuse's 84-73 loss and poured in a season high 23 against UAlbany on 11/20. She led the Orange with 17 points, 7 assists, 6 rebounds and three steals in SU's win over Missouri (11/25) en route to winning the team's ALCO Hard Hat.

777

All three starting guards for Syracuse tallied seven assists in Syracuse's win over Missouri (11/25). Olivia Schmitt and Sophie Burrows recorded career highs in helpers. Joined by teammate Georgia Woolley, it marked the first time in the FLJ era that three or more players dished out 6+ assists in the same game.

IZ THAT STAT LINE SERIOUS?!

In the season opener against Niagara, Izabel Varejão was the first Syracuse player since Emily Engstler in 2018 to record 10 points and 4+ rebounds, blocks, steals and assists. She stuffed the stat sheet in the final season opener of her college career and earned the team's celebratory ALCO Hard Hat.

SEEING DOUBLE

Kyra Wood recorded her first double double of the season with 16 points and 11 rebounds against No. 11 Maryland. She had her second double double of the season on Wednesday night against Texas A&M with 11 points and 11 rebounds.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

Syracuse welcomed five newcomers this offseason, freshmen Shy Hawkins, Olivia Schmitt and Keira Scott while grabbing Journey Thompson (Arizona State) and Angelica Velez (LSU) out of the portal.

COACH OF THE YEAR

Felisha Legette-Jack was named the 2024 ACC Coach of the Year. In just her second season, the Syracuse native and 1989 graduate led the Orange to the national spotlight that included tying program records in regular season wins (23), conference wins (13) and ACC road wins (6). The Orange were ranked in the Associated Press in every poll since Week 9 and ranked as high as No. 17. She was the first Syracuse coach, men's or women's, to be named ACC Coach of the Year in basketball. Legette-Jack is the third SU basketball coach to earn Coach of the Year honors in their respective conference joining her former head coach Barbara Jacobs (BIG EAST, 1988) and Quentin Hillsman (BIG EAST, 2007). Legette-Jack was a finalist for Naismith National Coach of the Year.

ORANGE PICKED 11TH IN THE ACC

Syracuse was picked to finish 11th in the ACC Preseason Poll of 18 teams. The ACC expanded this past offseason to include Stanford, SMU and Cal. The Orange were projected to finish 9th last season and went 13-5 in ACC play and was tied for the second-best mark in the league.

ORANGE IN THE POLLS

Syracuse received one vote in the Preseason AP Top-25. The Orange were ranked in every poll since Week 9 last season and peaked as high as No. 17 during the 2023-24 season.

BIGGEST COMEBACK OF THE FLJ ERA

Syracuse erased a 19-point deficit on Jan. 14, 2024 to defeat Clemson, 83-82, at the JMA Wireless Dome. Syracuse stormed back, with the help of 19 second half points from Dyaisha Fair, to win by the hands of an Alyssa Latham layup with seven seconds to play in regulation.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN!

Syracuse players selected four captains for the 2024-25 season, seniors Kyra Wood and Georgia Woolley and sophomores Sophie Burrows and Angelica Velez. This is the third year Wood has been elected as a team captain.

DME PIPELINE

Syracuse freshmen Olivia Schmitt and Keira Scott played their senior year of high school together at DME Academy in Jacksonville, Florida. Together the future Orange duo led DME to a 20-7 record.

LEGACY LEX

Sophomore guard Lexi McNabb is no stranger to Syracuse University. She was born to BLEED ORANGE. The daughter of legendary Syracuse football and NFL quarterback Donovan McNabb '99 and women's basketball alumnae Raquel "Roxy" (Nurse) McNabb '98, Lexi is here at Syracuse to write her own story and leave her own legacy. Originally committed to Buffalo, Lexi made the easy decision to join Coach Jack at Syracuse when she was named head coach. Roxy McNabb was a four-year letterwinner and point guard for the women's basketball team when Coach Jack was an assistant coach in the mid-1990s.

CHARACTER. ACADEMICS. BASKETBALL

Coach Jack's program stands on the three pillars of CHARACTER, ACADEMICS, and BASKETBALL.

Character: Choose the harder right over the easier wrong

Academics: Excell in the classroom

Basketball: Passion every play

Hard word, determination and perseverance will be the key ingredients to the team's success. Fans can expect the team to play aggressively, together and to fight for each other every minute of the game. The Orange will pursue greatness in the classroom and on the court.

THE HARD HAT

The blinged-out hard hat is a symbol of the blue collar mentality Coach Jack has instilled in the Syracuse program. The hard hat, decorated with rhinestones and glitter, is given out by the coaching staff to the player that “came to work and did their job”. It’s not always the player with the best stat line, but the player that does “all the little things” to help SU win.

HEAD COACH FELISHA LEGETTE-JACK

Felisha Legette-Jack, a 1989 graduate of Syracuse University and Orange All-American, is home. The Syracuse native and 20-year collegiate head coach took the reins of the Orange basketball program on March 26, 2022. In her first two seasons at Syracuse, she guided the Orange to the postseason. Her 2022-23 squad reached the Super 16 of the WNIT and followed that performance by advancing to second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2024.

The 2023-24 team was tabbed to finish ninth in the ACC and went on to finish 24-8 overall with a 13-5 ACC record – tied for second in the league standings. Legette-Jack was named 2023-24 ACC Coach of the Year after her squad earned the +No. 3 seed to the ACC Tournament. Syracuse peaked as high as No. 17 in the Associate Press Top-25 Poll during the season and earned a first round win over Arizona in the NCAA Tournament before falling to UConn in the second round. Dyaisha Fair became the sixth player in program history drafted to the WNBA when she was selected 16th overall by the Las Vegas Aces. Fair graduated as third all-time in NCAA history for career points with 3,403.

Legette-Jack is synonymous with Syracuse women's basketball success. The 1985 BIG EAST Conference Freshman of the Year, three-time All-BIG EAST selection and Syracuse's first two-time honorable mention All-American. Legette-Jack helped lead the Orange to their first BIG EAST Championship and NCAA Tournament appearance in school history. More than 30 years later, she still ranks in the top-10 on Syracuse's career scoring and rebounding lists. She is one of three players in program history to score more than 1,500 points (1,526) and grab more than 900 rebounds (927).

One of the all-time Orange greats, Legette-Jack returns to her hometown with more than 30 years of coaching experience. She spent the last 10 years building the University at Buffalo's women's program into one of the perennial powers in the Mid-American Conference (MAC), leading the Bulls to four NCAA Tournaments, including the 2018 Sweet Sixteen. She is the all-time winningest coach in Bulls history with a 202-115 record and four MAC Tournament Championships. During her career she has guided three different Division I programs to a combined 13 winning seasons, nine postseason berths and six 20-win seasons, and has accrued a 343-279 record.

Legette-Jack led Nottingham High School to a pair of state titles before attending Syracuse, where she was a standout on Coach Barbara Jacobs' teams from 1984-89.

At Syracuse, Legette-Jack earned BIG EAST Freshman of the Year honors after helping lead the Orange to their first BIG EAST Championship in school history. As a sophomore, Legette-Jack averaged a double-double (15.8 ppg and 10.1 rpg) en route to honorable mention All-America honors and All-BIG EAST recognition.

The next year she earned honorable mention All-America and All-BIG EAST Second Team recognition. After missing the 1987-88 season due to a knee injury, she returned to earn the court earn All-BIG EAST honors for the fourth time in 1988-89. She finished her career as the program's all-time leader in points, rebounds, field goals made and attempted, and free throws made and attempted.

After graduating from Syracuse with bachelor's degrees in child and family studies and psychology in 1989, Legette-Jack began her coaching career at Westhill Senior High School on the city's West side in 1989. She made the move to the collegiate level as an assistant at Boston College from 1991-93 and never looked back.

Following her stint at BC, Legette-Jack returned home to Syracuse as an assistant on Coach Marianna Freeman's staff from 1993-2000. She left in 2000 to become an assistant coach at Michigan State for two seasons, before landing her first head coaching job at Hofstra in 2002.

In four years, Legette-Jack turned Hofstra's program around. During her final season Hofstra was 19-12 and advanced to the second round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT).

Named head coach at Indiana University in 2006, Legette-Jack guided the that program for six years. She led the Hoosiers to consecutive WNITs in her first three seasons, including a 20-win season and WNIT Quarterfinal appearance in 2009.

In 2012, she returned to the Empire State when she was named the head coach at Buffalo. Legette-Jack put the UB program on the map during her decade in the Queen City. She led four Buffalo teams to four NCAA Tournaments, most recently this season, and developed the first WNBA Draft pick in school history, Cierra Dillard, who was selected by the Minnesota Lynx in 2019. Her UB teams have had five 20-win seasons and averaged more than 19 wins a campaign during her tenure.

The 2021-22 Bulls posted a 25-9 record, including a 16-4 mark in MAC play, and were 14-1 at home. Legette-Jack developed three All-MAC honorees in Dyaisha Fair, Georgia Woolley and Summer Hemphill. Fair finished the season ranked fourth in the nation in scoring average (23.4 points per game) and Woolley also earned MAC Freshman of the Year honors.

The Bulls had their most successful season in 2017-18, posting a 29-6 record, including 12-0 at home. UB earned the first NCAA at-large bid for the MAC since 1996 and danced its way to the Sweet Sixteen for the first time in school history.

Legette-Jack is enshrined in multiple halls of fame, including the Greater Syracuse Hall of Fame, the Syracuse Urban Sports Hall of Fame and the Syracuse University Orange Plus Hall of Fame. She was named to the BIG EAST Silver Anniversary team in 2004 and became the first female in Syracuse University history to have her jersey retired last fall when her No. 33 jersey was raised to the rafters of the Carrier Dome on Nov. 14, 2021.

Born Sept. 4, 1966, in Syracuse, Legette-Jack and her husband David, have one son, David Maceo, who is currently playing professional basketball in France.
