IT'S ALWAYS CLOSE

Notre Dame will kickstart non-stop ACC play on New Year's Eve with a team it's waged epic battles with over the course of time. That's right, the Fighting Irish will head to Atlanta to challenge the Yellow Jackets of Georgia Tech. The Irish lead the overall series 18-13 and executed a perfect 3-0 sweep over GT last season, which included an 84-80 victory in Washington D.C. in the opening round of the ACC Tournament. But that doesn't paint the whole picture of this rivalry.

Twenty-one of the last 23 games between these two have been decided by single digits. Five of those games have gone to overtime. Of those 21 games that have been decided by single digits, the average margin of victory has been 4.9.

It was the usual suspects who performed best against the Yellow Jackets last season. In the three wins, both Braeden Shrewsberry and Markus Burton averaged 17.0 ppg, while Tae Davis rounded out those double-digits with 13.0 ppg. Shrewsberry shot 45.7 percent from the floor and 11-of-25 from deep. Davis shot 51.7 percent from the field and averaged 6.3 rpg. Kebba Njie averaged 7.7 ppg and a team best 8.3 rpg.

NEW YEAR'S TABLE SETTER

With a win on NYE, the Irish can win their fourth straight, matching their four straight to start the season. They can also pick up a coveted road ACC win - something they only managed to do twice last season - at Georgia Tech and at Louisville. A win would move Notre Dame to 2-0 in ACC play for the first time since the 2017-18 campaign. That year they started 3-0 with wins over Georgia Tech, NC State and Syracuse.

Also both Braeden Shrewsberry and Tae

Davis are riding career best double-digit scoring streaks heading into the match. Shrewsberry has produced eight in a row, averaging 18.3 ppg in that span. Davis has earned seven straight, averaging 18.1 ppg in said stretch.

BUILDING CONFIDENCE AFTER 3 STRAIGHT WINS

When Markus Burton went down in Vegas, there was no time to practice nor strategize how to play without their All-ACC guard. There was only time to move on to the next game. After Georgia, the Irish finally had time to regroup and learn to play and win without him. Notre Dame banded together and have won three straight, which includes a conference win at home over Syracuse. They've been led by the dynamic duo of Shrewsberry and Davis.

Over the last three games, Shrewsberry is averaging 20.3 ppg on 54.1 percent shooting (20-37). He's 11-of-24 (.458) from three-point range.

Davis has produced back-to-back games with 20+ points for the first time of his career. During this three game win streak, Tae is averaging 19.7 ppg on a blistering 67.7 percent shooting. He's averaging 6.0 rpg as well.

Since December 7 (last three games for the Irish), Shrewsberry's scoring average ranks as the fourth highest amongst ACC players while Davis' ranks sixth.

As a team, the Irish have averaged 79.0 ppg on 48.8 percent shooting over the last three.

FRESHLY SQUEEZED WIN

Notre Dame is 1-0 in ACC play this season after coming together down the final stretch to dispose Syracuse, 69-64, on Dec. 7. Neither team had a lead greater than three in the second half until 2:11 remaining in the game. The player that broke that one-possession margin was Braeden Shrewsberry. The sophomore had a huge game, tying his career high of 25 points behind six made three-pointers. He shot 8-of-15 overall and 6-for-11 from deep. Two of those triples came in the final four minutes of the game.

J.R. Konieczny was a spark off the bench with a season-high 15 points - 13 of which came in the first half. Despite getting into foul trouble, Tae Davis was a crucial piece of the Notre Dame offense with 15 points, going 6-8 from the floor while also chipping in two assists and two steals. Kebba Njie was just shy of a double-double as he finished with nine points and nine rebounds for the Irish.

The Orange were held to without a three for the first time since Holy Cross on Nov. 28, 2014.

FINDING THEIR WAY

Another reason the Syracuse win was so big was that it helped build confidence in a group that they can win without Markus Burton. The reigning ACC Rookie of the Year was averaging just over 21 ppg heading into Vegas for the Players Era Festival. Burton then got hurt in the first four minutes of the Rutgers game and will be out of competition on a week-to-week basis. Not to mention Sir Mohammed, Notre Dame's primary guard off the bench, was already out indefinitely recovering from his respective knee injury.

And despite losing their top scorer and primary ball handler, all three games in Vegas were there for the taking.

1. Matt Allocco put the team on his back against Rutgers and had a 'March worthy' performance. He forced overtime with a last-second three in regulation. Then in OT, he converted three triples in under 30 seconds to force a tie with under 15 seconds left. He ended up with a 24-point, 10-rebound double-double with 5 assists. He was 6-for-9 from three.

2. Versus #6/7 Houston, the Irish recorded a 7-0 run in the second half to pull within one at 44-45. Unfortunately, ND only scored 10 points in the final 13 minutes as Houston pulled away to win 65-54. Tae Davis led the Irish in scoring with 22 points on 9-of-15 shooting. It marked his second 20+ point performance of the season. He also tallied a team-high eight rebounds and a team-high four assists.

3. #21/19 Creighton was very similar. The Irish ultimately erased a 17-point deficit to take a lead 53-52 lead with 10:19 remaining. Yet, Creighton countered with four triples over the next four minutes and that ended up being the difference maker. Tae Davis and Braeden Shrewsberry led the Irish with 17 points each.

MAKING UP POINTS

Before Vegas, Burton was the only player in the country averaging 20+ points, 5+ assists, and 5+ rebounds. Now the Irish continue to work together to make up the 20+ points per game lost along with Burton's ability to create shots for his teammates.

Two players that have stepped up have been Tae Davis and Braeden Shrewsberry.

Tae has this explosiveness and innate ability to attack the rim like no other on the team. He's been using that to his advantage and currently averaging a career best 15.8 ppg on a career high 53.3 percent shooting. Tae ranks third in the ACC in field goal percentage.

Where is the Indy native getting it done? Well, he's shooting 43-of-64 (.672) from around the rim. He leads the team in free throw attempts (6.3) and free throws made (4.7) per game. He's shooting a career best 74.7 percent from the stripe.

Then there's Shrewsberry, who is averaging a career best 16.5 ppg, which ranks ninth in the ACC. In addition, his 2.8 threes per game rank second in the league, while his .354 clip from three ranks fourth.

Shrewsberry is hot from corner threes this year, knocking down 47.6 percent (10-for-21), which is 12.9 percent above the D1 average.

So who's next?

Well there's Matt Allocco, who is averaging 11.0 ppg since Burton went down. Allocco is shooting a team best 46.4 percent from deep in that seven-game span.

Allocco also boasts a 4.2 assist-to-turnover ratio which ranks sixth in the nation and leads all ACC players. It's obviously way too early for comparisons, BUT, the highest A/TO ratio in program history for a season was 3.16 by Martin Inglesby back in 2000-01.

BRAEDEN'S OFFENSIVE GAME

We know what Braeden is capable from three. Last season, he drained 55 three-pointers in conference play which set a new program record for ACC threes. He ultimately hit 78 treys which were second most by a D1 freshman.

This season, he's averaging a team best 2.8 made threes per game which ranks second in the ACC. But that's not what he's added to his arsenal in year two. He's developed a dangerous floater that keeps defenders guessing. Oh you think he's shooting a three, well he's gonna pump fake and drive the baseline now.

Braeden is shooting 56.7 percent from two-point range. He's shooting 47.8 percent from the midrange and 51.7 percent from the paint. He's 12-for-15 around the rim.

PROTECT PURCELL

For the most part, the Irish have done just that, going 6-1 inside Purcell Pavilion during non-conference play. If it weren't for the let down vs. Elon, the Irish could have been looking at 7-0.

This is their best start at home since the 2021-22 season in which they were a dominant 14-1 inside Purcell and qualified for the NCAA Tournament.

The Irish are averaging 80.6 ppg at home on 49.6 percent shooting. They boast a scoring margin at home of +13.4.

NOTRE NOTABLES

- The Irish have been cleaning up around the glass. They are averaging 27.8 defensive rebounds per game which ranks fourth in the ACC and 45th in the nation.

- Notre Dame is shooting 47.5 percent from the field which ranks fourth in the ACC as well.
- According to HaslamMetrics.com, Notre Dame's mid range percentage vs. the average opponent (47.7) is the best its been since the 2015-16 squad. Also Notre Dame's near proximity percentage vs. the average opponent (63.5) is the highest its been since the 2020-21 season.
- Another thing the Irish have done well is create tough three-point looks for its opponents. Notre Dame's three-point field goal percentage defense of .296 ranks fourth in the ACC. According to HaslamMetrics once again, ND's three point percentage allowed against the average opponent (28.4) ranks 12th nationally. That's the highest ranking they've had in that category in a decade.
- Logan Imes recorded a breakout game vs. Le Moyne on Dec. 22. Imes recorded a career high 11 points on 3-5 shooting, plus 5-6 from the free-throw line. He also tied his career high in assists (4) and steals (2).
- Kebba Njie is averaging a career best 6.8 ppg and a career high 5.9 rpg.

GETTING HIS MIND RIGHT

After the Syracuse win, J.R. Konieczny was asked how he stayed ready and locked in to help lift the team after previous games of limited minutes:

"Want to give a huge shoutout to Coach Getter, he was telling me all week we need you to get back to the old J.R. and the joy you had out there. I admit, my body language sucked the last week, so trying to come out here with some confidence. Give credit to the coaches for sure," Konieczny said.

J.R. came off the bench and supplied 13 first half points against the Orange. He ultimately finished with a season high 15.

Overall on the year, J.R. boasts the fourth highest +/- on the team with +81. He's shooting 56.3 percent from two.

BURTON'S IMPACT

When Burton was in the lineup the offense was vastly improved from a year ago. Case in point, Notre Dame posted six straight games to start the year with 75+ points, which hadn't happened since the start of the 2009-10 season.

With Burton:

The Irish were shooting 51.9 percent from the field which ranked 14th nationally and led the ACC at the time. They were also a hot 61.0 percent from two, which ranked 17th in the country. CBB Analytics had Notre Dame's offensive rating at 122.3 (34th nationally) while KenPom's offensive efficiency ranking put the Irish at No. 51.

Irish Numbers Heading Into Game 13:

Notre Dame is now shooting 47.5 percent from the field and are converting 55.2 percent from two. CBB Analytics have them with a 114.2 offensive rating (77th overall). KenPom's Offensive Adj. Efficiency of 112.7 places them at No. 71.

SHREWSBERRY SIGNS HIGHEST-RATED ND RECRUITING CLAS IN THE MODERN ERA

When Micah Shrewsberry became the Glenn & Stacey Murphy Notre Dame Men's Basketball Head Coach he told fans to jump on now because the train was taking off. Said recruiting train built massive momentum that ultimately materialized in Notre Dame's highest-rated recruiting class in the modern era.

Tommy Ahneman, Ryder Frost, Jalen Haralson and Brady Koehler all signed their Athletic Aid Agreement on Wednesday and officially became Irish. The class is ranked fourth in the nation by 247Sports, fifth by ESPN, fifth by Rivals and sixth by ON3. It's also the top-rated class in the state of Indiana; second overall in the ACC.

"We are very proud of the four who signed with us this morning. They are all tremendous young men and fantastic basketball players who will represent Notre Dame on and off the court at a high level. When we as a staff began focusing on this class, we had a clear vision for what we wanted. We were looking to improve our skill level, size, and athleticism, and we were able to land four of our top priority recruits, in what can only be described as an elite recruiting class." - Coach Shrews

PRESEASON ACCOLADES FOR BURTON

Point guard Markus Burton looks to continue his ascent in collegiate basketball for his sophomore season. He went from winning Mr. Indiana Basketball as a high school senior to stepping on his home court in Purcell Pavilion and making an immediate impact with the Irish. He won the 2024 ACC Freshman of the Year Award (the first ND player to do so) and also took home Third Team All-ACC honors.

Before the 2024-25 season has officially gotten underway, Burton has collected more awards/recognition. First, the ACC named him a Preseason First Team selection.

Burton's 17.5 ppg is the third highest returning scoring average in the ACC behind North Carolina's RJ Davis (21.2) and Wake Forest's Hunter Sallis (18.0 ppg).

Next, it was the Naismith Starting 5 - Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year Top 20 Preseason Watch List. This prestigious award honors the best point guards in men's college basketball and is presented by the Basketball Hall of Fame. Burton is the first Irish point guard to be named to the Bob Cousy Top-20 Preseason Watch List since Matt Farrell (2017-18 Watch List).

Shortly after, ESPN.com announced its top-100 players ahead of the 2024-25 season. Burton landed at No. 40. They stated: "(Burton) averaged 17.5 PPG as a freshman, finishing with 20 points or more in 11 games. If he can become a consistent threat from the 3-point line (30%), the All-ACC third team pick could mature into one of the expanded conference's best players."

Last but not least, the Naismith Trophy added Burton to their College Player of the Year Watch List. A total of 50 players were named to the preseason list.

COACH SHREWS LOOKS TO RECREATE YEAR TWO MAGIC

Last year, Notre Dame was projected to finish dead last in the conference. The Coach Shrewsberry led squad came together and ultimately doubled its ACC win total from the 2022-23 season, finishing 7-13 in league play to earn the 12-seed in the conference tourney. Coach Shrewsberry received several votes for ACC Coach of the Year. This year, the Irish are picked to finish tenth in the ACC and look to defy expectations again.

Now, the rebuild at Notre Dame is obviously quite different from the one at Penn State, but let's look at the year one to year two improvement that Coach Shrews accomplished in Happy Valley.

After a 14-17 first season, Shrewsberry produced a 23-14 mark in 2022-23, just the 12th 20-win season in the 127-year history of Penn State basketball. The Nittany Lions then made their first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 2011.

Statistically speaking, the 2022-23 squad set the BIG and Penn State single-season team record for three-pointers made in a season with 385. The Nittany Lions compiled a total of five top-15 national statistical rankings.

Notre Dame practiced with a 24-second shot clock to quicken their pace ahead of the 2024-25 season.*

FROM LEAST TO MOST

When Coach Shrewsberry took over the Notre Dame job, he had to start at the ground-level. In fact, Notre Dame only returned 35 points at this point last year, which equated to 1.6% of scoring returning. That number ranked in the bottom five of Division-I schools. However, this year is quite a different story.

The Irish return the most scoring in the ACC by a landslide. With a solid young core of seven returnees (Markus Burton, Braeden Shrewsberry, Tae Davis, Julian Roper II, J.R. Konieczny, Kebba Njie, Logan Imes), Notre Dame returns 85.6 percent of its scoring. The next highest is Wake Forest at 59.8 percent.

In addition, the Irish return the third highest percentage of minutes in the country at 83.9 percent. Navy (91.3) and Wofford (84.3) hold the top two spots.

IRISH GO 3-0 IN SPAIN

Every four years at Notre Dame the program is allowed to go on a Foreign Tour. That time had come for the Irish men's hoops squad, as they went on a 10-day trip to Spain. They made stops in Madrid, Valencia and Barcelona and played a game in each city vs. a semi-pro all-star squad. Notre Dame went 3-0 on the trip and here are some highlights:

- Burton recorded 58 points, 12 assists, 11 steals and 17 rebounds in three games

2024-25 Notre Dame Men's Basketball

- Sundra - 18 points, 24 rebounds
- Davis - 20 points, 20 rebounds
- Shrewsberry - 32 points with eight made triples
- Njie - 24 points, 21 rebounds

ACC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR RETURNS FOR MORE

The 2024 ACC Rookie of the Year Markus Burton has trained hard this summer to make year two even better. Last spring, Burton brought home the program's first ACC Rookie of the Year award and third ever Rookie of the Year award of any conference, joining Chris Thomas (2002) and Troy Murphy (1999) - who each won it in the Big East.

Below is a short recap of Burton's stellar and historic rookie campaign:

- His 17.5 ppg led all ACC freshmen
- He ranked 3rd nationally amongst DI freshmen in scoring
- His 577 points set a new ND freshman scoring record, surpassing the previous holder Troy Murphy and his 519 points (1998-99).
- Burton's 17.5 ppg ranked 3rd all-time for a freshman behind Troy Murphy (19.2) and Adrian Dantley (18.3)
- His 63 steals tied Jerian Grant for third most in a single season
- ACC play only rankings: 17.5 points (6th), 2.2 steals (1st), 4.8 assists (3rd).
- Dished out 95 assists in ACC play - ranked as the 4th most by an ND player
- Produced two games with 15+ point, 5+ assists, 5+ steals. Since 1996, only one other Irish player (Chris Thomas) had produced two games in the same regular season with at least 15-5-5.
- Burton averaged the 2nd most points in the ACC from Feb. 24 on aka to the end of the season, averaging 22.1 ppg in that span (over five games). Burton produced a whopping 6 20+ point games in that span, with one of 30+.
- Four-time ACC Rookie of the Week - set a new ND record.

BEST YOUNG BACKCOURT IN THE ACC

Freshman guards Markus Burton and Braeden Shrewsberry showed no fear in the first year in the ACC. Burton averaged 17.5 points both on the season and in league play, while Shrewsberry was the lone other Irish to finish in double figures, averaging 10.2 points on the year and 11.3 points in ACC play.

With that said, Burton and Shrewsberry became the 9th ACC freshmen duo in league history to rank No. 1 and No. 2 for their team in scoring, proving the future is bright in South Bend.

There is only one scoring duo in the ACC that returns a higher combined number than Burton's and Shrewsberry's 27.7 ppg and that's Wake Forest's Hunter Sallis and Cameron Hildreth. That duo return a combined 31.8 ppg.

Burton and Shrewsberry also proved they aren't afraid of a hostile environment. In true road games, Burton and Shrewsberry averaged 16.3 points and 12.8 points, respectively.

Lastly, don't forget that this duo went off in the nation's capital for the first round of the ACC Tournament in the win over Georgia Tech. Shrewsberry scored a team-high 23 points, shooting 8-of-12 from the field, including 5-of-8 from three-point range. Four of Shrewsberry's threes came in the second half. It marked his third game of 20+ that season. Next, Burton followed right behind with 21 points on 8-of-15 shooting. Burton also tied his season high in assists with eight.

NON-STOP SUMMER FOR SHREWS

There was no time off or time wasted for Coach Shrewsberry this summer. We've already broached his recruiting efforts, but he also found time to serve as an assistant coach on the U.S. U18 squad during their gold medal run at the 2024 FIBA U18 Americup. The U18 USA squad spent the first week in June competing in Buenos Aires, ultimately downing Brazil to take the top seed in Group B. The U.S. then cruised past Canada in the semifinals to soar right into the gold-medal game where they defeated Argentina 110-70.

A day after landing back in the States, Coach Shrews hopped on a plane to Boston to catch game five of the NBA Finals. Coach got to celebrate with his former players and staff in the locker room afterwards and has the championship goggles hanging in his office. You can find a video on the NDMBB social accounts of Coach Shrews congratulating his former protegee and NBA Finals MVP Jalen Brown.

SHREWSBERRY/STEVENS CONNECTION

Celebrating Boston's NBA Title is a great segue into the long-standing friendship between the Shrewsberry and Stevens family.

The connection with Brad Stevens and Micah Shrewsberry dates back to their days at Butler. Then again for six years together with the Boston Celtics. Braeden Shrewsberry states he's been friends with Brady Stevens (Brad's son and now freshman walk-on on the team) for as long as he can remember. Braeden also claimed to be Notre Dame's top recruiter when Brady was deciding on a college.

THE NEW ADDITIONS

Now let's talk about the new pieces starting with the incoming freshman class. ESPN's final recruiting class rankings had the incoming Irish trio at 19th in the country and 1st in the state of Indiana.

DEFENSE / NEVER GIVE UP

The year one Coach Shrewsberry stamp on the program was the squad's defensive intensity and never give up attitude. 20 ACC games and 14 different ACC opponents - all but three (Virginia Tech on March 9, UNC on March 5 & Syracuse on Feb. 24) were held under their season average, with Miami, Duke and Louisville each held to season low point totals.

Of the 20 ACC matchups only 6 opponents reached the 70-point park against the Irish defense.

Notre Dame's scoring defense of 67.2 finished with a national ranking of 49th, plus 3rd in the ACC. According to KenPom, Notre Dame's defensive efficiency ranked 39th.

In ACC play, Notre Dame ranked 2nd in scoring defense (66.4) and 2nd in field goal percentage defense (.417).

COACH SHREWS CULTURE TAKES SHAPE

Coach Shrewsberry achieved two of his priorities in the 2023-24 season: establish the right culture at Notre Dame and have the team playing its best basketball at the end of the year.

The 13 ACC losses certainly don't reflect how close Notre Dame really was in almost every league game. Case in point, Notre Dame recorded an early ACC stretch in which they had been in eight straight tight battles, with the average margin of defeat of 7.5. To sum it up, Notre Dame played in 18 games in which the margin of victory was 10 points or less and went 8-10 in those instances. Diving deeper, the Irish were 4-5 in games decided by five points or less.

There were two moments during the season which could have broken the Irish, but instead they learned from it and grew. The first instance was a 20-point loss to Citadel. The Irish then rebounded with an emphatic 76-54 win over Virginia. What Shrews' crew accomplished had never been done by an Irish team against Virginia .. ever. It was the largest margin of victory against the Cavaliers in the all-time series. In addition, the 76 points were the most scored by an Irish squad against the Cavaliers in regulation in program history. Furthermore, right after the Virginia contest, the Irish almost pulled off the upset to two teams who made the Elite Eight in NC State and Duke.

The second instance was the seven-game losing streak. They rallied together and won five of their next six, which included the final four at home:

- W, 74-66, vs. Virginia Tech
- W, 58-55, vs. Georgia Tech
- W, 72-50, at Louisville
- L, 85-88, at Syracuse
- W, 70-65, vs. Wake Forest
- W, 69-62, vs. Clemson

Here's a stat to conclude it all - when the first NET rankings came on Dec. 4, the Irish were 238. On March 10, the Irish were up to 126.

IN-STATE TALENT

The Irish boast 5 players from the state of Indiana on the 2024-25 roster. That marks the most in-state talent since the 2015-16 Notre Dame squad, who also had five.

The Indiana ties go even further. Coach Shrewsberry grew up right outside of Indianapolis and has coaches all over the state. Kebba Njie played high school ball in Indiana at La Lumiere. Juilan Roper II played in AAU ball in Indy. Brady Stevens spent some time here as a kid when his dad coached at Butler. Plus, Development & Recruiting Coordinator Grady Eifert played at Purdue.

2024-25 Notre Dame Men's Basketball

GLENN & STACEY MURPHY HEAD COACH

MICAH SHREWSBERRY GLENN & STACEY MURPHY HEAD COACH

@Coach_Shrews

2nd Season at Notre Dame
4th as a Head Coach at the DI Level

On March 24, 2023, an Indiana native came home to kickstart a new era of Notre Dame men's basketball. Vice President and James E. Rohr Notre Dame Director of Athletics Jack Swarbrick announced Micah Shrewsberry as the 18th head coach in Fighting Irish men's basketball history.

Shrewsberry brought a wealth of experience and success to the helm of the Notre Dame program. All-in-all he's coached in six NCAA Tournaments, two NCAA Final Fours, five NBA Playoffs and two NBA Conference Finals – in addition to coaching all-NBA honorees Jayson Tatum and Jaylen Brown.

Year One with the Irish

Coach Shrewsberry achieved two of his priorities in the 2023-24 season: establish the right culture at Notre Dame and have the team playing its best basketball at the end of the season. It was a program that returned 1.6% of its scoring and was projected to finish dead last in the ACC. The young Irish team came together and doubled its ACC win total from the year prior, finishing 7-13 in league play. Coach Shrewsberry even received several votes for ACC Coach of the Year. Notre Dame finished with a 13-20 overall record and won one game (First Round vs. Georgia Tech) in the ACC Tournament.

The first key moment of the season included an emphatic 76-54 win over Virginia. What Shrews' crew accomplished had never been done by an Irish team against the Cavaliers ... ever ... it was the largest margin of victory against UVA in the all-time series. In addition, the 76 points were the most scored by an Irish squad against the Cavaliers in regulation in program history. Furthermore, right after the Virginia contest, the Irish almost pulled off the upset to two teams who made the Elite Eight in NC State and Duke.

Next, the Irish bonded together by winning five of six during the final portion of the regular season, which included the final four at home (Georgia Tech, Virginia Tech, Wake Forest, Clemson). From Feb. 1 to March 1, Notre Dame was the biggest mover in kenpom AdjEM across the Power-Five conferences. Another fun stat: when the first NET rankings came on Dec. 4, the Irish were 238. On March 10, the Irish were up to 126.

An early Coach Shrewsberry stamp on the program was the defensive intensity. Notre Dame scoring defense of 67.2 finished with a national ranking of 49th in the country, plus 3rd in the ACC. According to KenPom, Notre Dame's defensive efficiency ranked 39th nationally. In ACC play, Notre Dame ranked 2nd in scoring defense (66.4) and 2nd in field goal percentage defense (47). Of the 20 ACC games – all but three (Virginia Tech on March 9, UNC on March 5 & Syracuse on Feb. 24) were held under their season average, with Miami, Duke and Louisville each held to season-low point totals.

Lastly – two freshman guards flourished under Coach Shrewsberry in Markus Burton and Braeden Shrewsberry. Burton became the program's first ACC Rookie of the Year. He also broke the program freshman scoring record after dropping 577 points. Burton averaged 17.5 points both on the season and in league play, leading the Irish. Shrewsberry was the lone other Irish to finish in double figures, averaging 10.2 points on the year and 11.3 points in ACC play. With that said, Burton and Shrewsberry became the 9th ACC freshmen duo in league history to rank No. 1 and No. 2 for their team in scoring, proving the future is bright in South Bend.

Prior to Notre Dame

Prior to Notre Dame, Shrewsberry produced a historic turnaround as the head coach at Penn State. After a 14-17 first season, Shrewsberry produced a 23-14 mark in 2022-23, just the 12th 20-win season in the 127-year history of Penn State basketball. Furthermore, he collected more Big Ten wins (17) in his first two seasons than any other Penn State head coach.

Shrewsberry certainly captured the nation's attention in late February and into March, going 9-3 over their last 12 games. Shrewsberry then made plenty of noise in the 2023 Big Ten Tournament in Chicago, defeating No. 7 Illinois, No. 2 Northwestern and No. 3 Indiana to reach the championship game as the No. 10 seed. It marked the program's second-ever Big Ten title game appearance. Penn State was just the third double-digit seed to reach the Big Ten Tournament championship game and the first since 2008.

The Nittany Lions then made their first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 2011. In the first round, Shrewsberry and the Nittany Lions knocked off No. 7 seed and SEC Tournament runner-up Texas A&M, winning the program's first NCAA Tournament game since 2001.

In year one at Penn State, Shrewsberry engineered the Big Ten's best scoring defense and guided the squad to their best defensive season (65.0 points allowed per game) in 11 years. The Nittany Lions advanced to the quarterfinal round of the Big Ten Tournament after winning two postseason games, making Shrewsberry one of just two first-year Big Ten coaches since 2008 to win two Big Ten Tournament games.

Recruiting-wise, Shrewsberry made an instant splash in Happy Valley. In his first year, Shrewsberry signed the highest-ranked recruiting class in program history, a consensus top-30 class. A year later, he signed his second-straight top-30 recruiting class, marking the first time in program history that the Nittany Lions had signed back-to-back top-30 recruiting classes.

Development-wise, Shrewsberry proved himself there as well, turning Jalen Pickett and Seth Lundy into 2nd Round NBA Draft picks. It marked the first time in program history that two Nittany Lions were selected.

Statistically speaking, the 2022-23 squad set the BIG and Penn State single-season team record for three-pointers made in a season with 385. The Nittany Lions compiled a total of five top-15 national statistical rankings. In addition, Shrewsberry tutored an Associated Press All-American in Jalen Pickett and a total of three All-Big Ten players during the 2022-23 season.

Prior to his time with Penn State, Shrewsberry experienced two separate stints at Purdue – one as assistant coach from 2011-13 and another as associate head coach from 2019-21. Highlights include the 2020-21 season, in which Shrewsberry helped lead the Boilermakers to a 13-6 fourth-place finish in the Big Ten and an 18-10 overall mark, culminating in an NCAA Tournament at-large bid. Trevion Williams claimed first-team All-Big Ten honors, while Zach Edey and Jaden Ivey were All-Freshman Team selections. Shrewsberry played a major role in recruiting Ivey, who grew up in South Bend and is the son of Karen and Kevin Keyes Family Head Women's Basketball Coach Niele Ivey.

Another highlight from his time in West Lafayette includes the 2011-12 squad that produced a 22-13 record and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Under Shrewsberry, Terone Johnson was one of the most improved players in the BIG, netting accolades from conference and national entities.

In between his Purdue stints, Shrewsberry spent six seasons (2013-19) with the NBA's Boston Celtics as an assistant coach under Brad Stevens. During his tenure, the Celtics reached the playoffs in five consecutive seasons, including back-to-back appearances in the Eastern Conference Finals in 2017 and 2018.

Shrewsberry played a key role in the development of current NBA stars Brown and Tatum, who were the No. 3 picks in the 2016 and 2017 NBA Drafts, respectively. Tatum was an NBA All-Rookie Team first-team selection, while Brown earned second-team All-Rookie honors.

The Brad Stevens connection was previously made at Butler University, where Shrewsberry spent one year as the director of operations then three as an assistant coach. With Shrewsberry on the sidelines, the Bulldogs compiled an 87-21 record, won two Horizon League regular-season championships and two Horizon League Tournament titles and made three NCAA Tournament appearances – which included back-to-back runs to the national championship game in 2010 and 2011.

Also at Butler, he aided in the development of Gordon Hayward, who was the 2009 Horizon League Newcomer of the Year, the 2010 Horizon League Player of the Year and a 2010 Final Four All-Tournament Team selection. Hayward was the ninth overall pick in the 2010 NBA Draft by the Utah Jazz.

Continuing on Shrewsberry's basketball journey, he spent time as the director of basketball operations at Marshall University (2003-05) and an assistant coach at DePauw University (2001-03) and Wabash College (2000-01). At DePauw, Shrewsberry led the Tigers to a 42-12 record with a pair of conference championships.

Shrewsberry was also the first men's basketball head coach at Indiana University South Bend. Shrewsberry started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis in 1999-2000.

An Indianapolis area native, Shrewsberry earned his bachelor's degree from Hanover College in 1999 and a master's degree from Indiana State in 2003. As a player at Hanover, Shrewsberry was a three-year starting guard and team tri-captain.

He and his wife, Molly, have four children, Braeden, Nicholas, Caitlin and Grace.

- Exited the Rutgers game on Nov. 26 with a knee injury that will hold him out of competition on a week-to-week basis. Burton is progressing but there is no set date on his return.

- Averaging 18.2 ppg

- Totaled 54 points in the last 2 games, shooting a combined 23-for-38 (60.5%). He's 6-for-11 from deep.

- Shooting 52.3% from two-point range on the season.

- A bucket shy of a career-high and a rebound shy of his first career double-double against North Dakota (11/19). Burton dropped 29 points & tied his career high of 9 rebounds.

- A quiet first half at Georgetown (11/16), but turned it on in the second when he scored 12 of his 16 points. He was a perfect 8-for-8 from the free-throw line.

- Burton flirted with what would have been just the program's second ever triple-double. The sophomore recorded 19 points, a career high nine rebounds and a career-high tying eight assists.

Freshman Season [2023-24]

- His 17.5 ppg led all ACC freshmen. Ranked 3rd nationally amongst DI freshmen

- Burton's 577 points set a new ND freshman scoring record, surpassing the previous holder Troy Murphy and his 519 points (1998-99).

- Only rookie in the country who averaged at least 17 points, 4 assists and 1.9 steals. In fact, he's just 1-of-2 P5 players (other is Syracuse's Judah Mintz)

- ACC play only rankings: 17.5 points (6th), 2.2 steals (1st), 4.8 assists (3rd).

- 63 steals - tied Jerian Grant for 3rd most in an ND season.

- Burton averaged the 2nd most points in the ACC since Feb. 24 to the end of the season. He averaged 22.1 ppg in that span, second to just Syracuse's Judah Mintz and his 22.4 ppg. Burton produced a whopping 6 20+ point games in that span, with one of 30+

- Dished out 95 assists in ACC play - ranked as the 4th most by an ND player

- Career high 31 points in the win over Wake Forest on Feb. 27. Dropped 19 in the first half. Career high 11-for-11 from the free-throw line. Now 1-of-4 freshmen in program history to record a 30-point game: Troy Murphy, Chris Thomas and Adrian Dantley.

- Since 1996, only one other Irish player had produced two games in the same regular season with at least 15 points, 5 assists and 5 steals. His name was Chris Thomas back in the 2001-02 season. Burton has not only achieved this feat but did it in back-to-back games.

- Set the program record for most points in a freshman debut, pouring in 29 to lift the Irish to a 70-63 win over Niagara. Laphonso Ellis previously held the record with 27 set back in 1988. Burton took over the end of the Niagara game - from 8:38-2:20 in the second half, Burton recorded 16 points on 6-for-6 shooting.

- 12 of his 16 points vs. Dartmouth (12/11) were scored in the 2nd half.

- Players Era 3-game Stats -- 44 points (14.7 ppg), 14-33 FG (424), 8-16 3PT (500); team best 13 AST (4.3 apg); just 2 TO; co-team best 16 REB (6.0 rpg).

- His heroics against Rutgers (11/26) in the Players Era almost led to an incredible win. He forced overtime with a last-second three in regulation. Then in OT, he converted three triples in under 30 seconds to force a tie with under 15 seconds left. He ended up with a 24-point, 10-rebound double-double with 5 assists. He was 6-for-9 from three.

- Big-game moment at Georgetown (11/16), dropping 15 points in the first half on 5-of-6 shooting, 4-of-5 from three-point range. Finished with 17 points, 7 assists, 5 rebounds.
