SOUTH BEND, Ind. (EMUEagles.com) -- Following a two-week break in action for finals, the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team returns to action Sunday, Dec. 15, as the Eagles will take on No. 8/No. 9 University of Notre Dame in a 2 p.m. contest inside Purcell Pavilion at the Joyce Center in South Bend, Ind. The Eagles (1-5) are coming off their first win of the year, a 72-60 defeat of Xavier University after trailing by 20 at the half, while the host Fighting Irish (8-2, 1-0 ACC) are coming off a 79-68 home win over No. 2 UConn, Dec. 12.

The game is set to tip off at 2 p.m. and will be streamed live on ACC Network Extra (ACCNX) with Karen Keyes and Tyler Reidy on the call. Live stats will be available at EMUEagles.com/livestats while periodic updates will be posted on the team's official X account (@EMUWBB).

FREE THROWS

- » The Eagles picked up their first win of the season and the first under Head Coach Sahar Nusseibeh with their 72-60 win over visiting Xavier, Dec. 1. Not only did EMU secure its first win of the season against Xavier, it did so by coming back from a 21-point deficit. After trailing, 43-22, with 2:38 remaining in the second, the Eagles went on a 50-17 run to win, including a 24-3 third quarter.
- » Sisi Eleko averaged 27.0 points and 10.5 rebounds in her last two games to be named the MAC Player of the Week (Dec. 3). Eleko leads the MAC in scoring (23.2) and rebounds (11.0) and ranks 10th and third, respectively, among all NCAA Division I players. As of Dec. 10, Eleko is the only player in the nation that is averaging 21.0 points and 11.0 rebounds per game.
- » Two other Eagles are ranked among the top 10 nationally with Mackenzie Amalia sitting 10th with 6.5 assists per game and Olivia Westphal eighth with 3.2 made three-pointers per game.
- » The Eagles have tallied 5+ made three-pointers in their last seven games (including all six this season), which is the longest streak for the program since the 2019-20 season.
- » Eastern enters its game at Notre Dame Sunday with an all-time record of 0-18 against teams ranked in the AP Top 25 at the time of the game. The last game with a ranked foe was Dec. 20, 2020, in a 77-68 loss to then-No. 20 Gonzaga at the Las Vegas Holiday Hoops Classic.
- » Sahar Nusseibeh, the ninth head coach in Eastern program history, she spent the previous three seasons leading the Canisius program. She is the first sitting head coach to be hired as EMU's head coach since 1998 when Suzy Merchant came from Saginaw Valley.

ON THE WEB

Information on the EMU women's basketball team is available at EMUEagles.com. To receive the EMU updates via email, please send a request to Alex Ryan (alex.ryan@emich.edu). Information on the MAC and all member institutions is also available through the league's web site at GetSomeMACtion.com.

LIVE STATISTICS

Live in-game statistics will be available via StatBroadcast. Following each home game, EMU will be happy to email whatever information media members need to their respective agencies. Please ask any member of the staff for assistance on this matter.

INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless Internet is available in the press area and throughout the George Gervin GameAbove Center. Members of the Athletics Media Relations staff will be available to assist you. There is no access fee.

MOBILE APP

The EMU Athletics app for iPhone, iPad and Android devices offers fans a wide variety of information on the Eagles, home and away. The free app is available in the App Store and Google Play.

CREDENTIALS • MEDIA

Requests for official working media credentials should be directed to the EMU Athletic Media Relations Office. All requests should be received no later than noon, three (3) days prior to the game. Visit EMUEagles.com to request credentials online.

All credentials will only be issued on a single-game basis and no passes will be mailed out prior to gameday. Freelance photographers WILL NOT be permitted to shoot games this season. On gameday, media should park in any available space outside the George Gervin GameAbove Center. Credentials will be available inside the Gervin GameAbove Center at the Media Will Call window one hour (60 minutes) prior to the schedule tip-off.

CREDENTIALS • SCOUTS

Professional scouts may obtain credentials through EMU's Athletic Media Relations Office. Scouts will be issued seating in the upper corner of the George Gervin GameAbove Center if a ticket is not purchased for the game.

CREDENTIALS • COURT ACCESS

EMU follows NCAA and Mid-American Conference guidelines regarding media representatives on the court. All photographers are required to stay within the photo boxes at each end of the floor unless prior arrangements are made with Alex Ryan.

Credentialed Scouts may be on the floor during warm-ups, but are asked to return to their purchased seat (with ticket) or the provided media seating (northeast corner) with no less than eight (8) minutes remaining in warm-ups.

PRESS SERVICES

All media members will be provided with access to game notes via EMUEagles.com. To limit touch points, EMU will not be printing game notes or stats unless requested at least one hour prior to the game. Following the game, a complete post-game statistics package will be distributed via email and in person to those media members wishing to attain a copy.

The designate media working areas include the broadcast table (east side of the court) and working press/postgame room (Team Film Room) on the Arena Level, along with the media seating area above Section 118 (Concourse Level). In conjunction with NCAA and College Sports Communicators (formerly CoSIDA) policies, there is to be absolutely no cheering and/or criticizing players, coaches or other game officials at any point before, during or after the contest. Failure to abide by this will result in your removal from the press areas and potential forfeiture of future credentials to EMU Athletics events.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Head Coach Sahar Nusseibeh is available to speak to the media throughout the week. To set up an interview and discuss availability, please contact Alex Ryan in Media Relations.

Individual players are available for interviews, but please contact the EMU Athletic Media Relations Office to set up interviews. One note to the media: home phone numbers for players and coaches will not be given out by the EMU Athletic Media Relations Office.

Following a mandatory 10-minute cooling off period, Coach Heath and selected players will be made available. Any special requests should be brought to the attention of the media relations staff, and we will do our best to assist you. The lockerroom is closed at all times.

EMU women's basketball photos & b-roll video is available upon request. Photos can by accessed via EMUEaglesPhoto.com, while video will be provided via Dropbox or Google Drive.

KNOW THE FOE: NOTRE DAME

The Fighting Irish enter the game with an 8-2 record and stand 1-0 in ACC play. Winners of three consecutive games, including home victories over then No. 4 Texas (80-70 OT) and No. 2 UConn (79-68), Notre Dame has climbed as high as No. 3 in the national rankings this season. Hannah Hidalgo leads the way offensively with 25.0 points per game, which ranks second nationally, Liatu King ranks fifth nationally with 11.1 rebounds per contest and Kate Koval stands second in the NCAA with 3.5 blocks.

ALL-TIME VS. NOTRE DAME

The Eagles are 0-4 all-time against the Fighting Irish and 0-2 when playing in South Bend. The last meeting between the two teams was Dec. 2, 2009, a 69-59 win for No. 5 Notre Dame on its home court. Additionally, the Eagles are 0-2 when playing against a nationally-ranked UND squad after dropping an 83-63 home decision, Dec. 2, 2008, to the visiting and No. 11-ranked Fighting Irish.

ALL-TIME VS. THE ACC

Eastern Michigan is 3-15 all-time against the current membership of the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC). The Eagles, who have played 10 of the current teams in the league, hold wins over Pittsburgh (2-2) and Boston College (1-1).

AGAINST RANKED FOES

The Eagles enter the game at No. 8/No. 9 Notre Dame in search of the program's first victory over a nationally ranked team. Eastern is 0-18 all-time against teams appearing in the Associated Press Top 25 with the most recent meeting coming Dec. 20, 2020, in a 77-68 loss to then-No. 20 Gonzaga at the Las Vegas Holiday Hoops Classic.

MAC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

The Eagles last played Dec. 1, a 72-60, come-frombehind home win over Xavier, to cap a 1-1 week of action. In those two games, which included a 72-61 loss at Detroit Mercy, Nov. 30, Sisi Eleko averaged 27.0 points and 10.5 rebounds to earn recognition as the MAC Player of the Week (Dec. 3). Eleko scored a career-high 31 points and added 14 rebounds at UDM before scoring 23 points in the win over Xavier, including 21 points in the second half to help the Eagles to their first victory this year.

BEEN A WHILE

The weekly MAC honor for Sisi Eleko is her first with Eastern and the first for an EMU player since Dec. 8, 2020, when Areanna Combs earned the accolade. Overall, Eleko is the 33rd EMU player to earn a weekly honor from the MAC with her award standing as the 68th in program history.

FIRST WIN

Not only did the win over Xavier snap a five-game skid to open the season, it also marked the first victory for Sahar Nusseibeh as the head coach of the EMU program. Nusseibeh, who spent the previous three seasons as the head coach at Canisius, is 33-65 all-time as a collegiate head coach.

COMEBACK COMPLETE

In EMU's last game, the Eagles played host to Xavier, Dec. 1, and found themselves trailing by 20 points at halftime, 45-25. Despite the deficit, the Eagles went to work in the third quarter and outscored the Musketeers, 24-3, to take a 49-48 lead after three. From there, Eastern continued its hot hand to outscore the visitors, 23-12, in the fourth and 47-15 combined in the second half to win by 12, 72-60. The last time the Eagles trailed by 10+ points in a game and came back to win was nearly one year ago as EMU came back to defeat IU Indy, 84-74 in overtime, Dec. 15, 2023, on the road. In that game, the Eagles trailed by 18 (27-9) with 1:03 remaining in the first quarter before chipping away at the lead. A 22-15 fourth guarter forced overtime where the Eagles outscored the Jaguars, 13-3, for the win.

NATIONALLY KNOWN

Through games played Dec. 10, Sisi Eleko holds the distinction of being the only player in NCAA Division I to average 21.0+ points and 11.0+ rebounds this season. The junior is currently averaging 23.2 points, which ranks seventh nationally, and 11.5 rebounds, which ranks third. In addition to also leading the MAC in both categories, Eleko's four double-doubles this year rank 23rd nationally as she leads the MAC in all three categories.

NOT THE ONLY ONE

Two other Eagles are among the best in the nation in a statistical category, including Olivia Westphal in three-pointers and Mackenzie Amalia in assists. Westphal leads the MAC and ranks eighth nationally with 3.2 made triples per game while Amalia tops the league and rank 10th in the NCAA with 6.5 helpers per game.

MOVING TOWARD MILESTONES

Four Eagles are nearing career milestones with three on track for scoring marks and one in assists. Sisi Eleko has tallied 882 points, leaving her 218 shy of 1,000 for her career while Olivia Smith (478) and ZaNiya Nelson (446) are 22 and 54 points, respectively, from reaching 500 career points. Mackenzie Amalia has dished 297 assists in her career, leaving her three shy of 300.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER

Sisi Eleko finished the Xavier game with 23 points and seven rebounds to record 20+ points in back-to-back games for the third time in her career and the first timeas a member of the EMU program. Eleko, who last accomplished the feat with Canisius in road games against St. Peter's (24 points) and Rider (20), scored 21 points in the second half after recording just two in the opening 20 minutes of play. Eleko tallied 20+ points for the 12th time in her career and the fourth time in six games with the Eagles.

SISI WITH DUR-DURS

Sisi Eleko has tallied a double-double four times this year, which ties for the most in the MAC and ranks 23rd nationally. Her four double-doubles are tied for 21st on the EMU all-time list (since 1999-00) and leaves her one shy of entering the top 20 where Kris Kachaturoff (1999-01), Erika Ford (2001-04), and Danielle Minott (2017-19) are all tied for 18th with five.

through Xavier game (Dec. 1)

TRENDING UPWARD

Although just six games into the season, Sisi Eleko is already on pace to do something that hasn't happened in nearly 15 years: have an Eagle average 20.0 points for a season. EMU Hall of Famer and Ring of Honor inductee Tavelyn James was the last to do so when she ended the 2009-10 season averaging 20.7 points per game.

SHE'S HEATING UP

Prior to the Xavier game (Dec. 1), Sisi Eleko had made multiple three-point baskets in the same game just four times, including the four she made at Detroit Mercy, Nov. 26. With two triples against Xavier, Eleko marked the first time in her career she has made multiple three-pointers in back-to-back games. She also has made at least one three-pointer in four consecutive games, tying the longest streak of her career.

FINDING HER TOUCH

Brooklyn Thrash finished the Xavier game with 16 points, including four made three-point baskets, while adding six rebounds and three steals. She tied her career high, which she scored against Binghamton, Nov. 20, 2022, while playing for Canisius, and surpassed her season high of 15 points scored against Alabama A&M, Nov. 9. Additionally, the four makes from beyond the arc doubled her career high of two recorded nine times, including against AAMU earlier this year.

LONG RANGE SHOOTING

Through the first six games of the season, the Eagles are averaging a league-best 7.7 made three-pointers per game and, when including the five makes at home against Bowling Green, March 9, 2024, have connected on at least five triples in seven consecutive games. The current streak is the longest since the team accomplished the feat over seven games during the 2019-20 season, starting Nov. 8, 2019, against Olivet and ending with eight makes at Wichita State, Dec. 7, 2019. Should the Eagles connect on at least five made three-pointer at Notre Dame, they will match the 2018-19 squad with an eight-game streak that started Jan. 5, 2019, at Kent State and ended with five makes at home against Northern Illinois, Feb. 2, 2019.

LET IF FLY

Olivia Westphal connected on two more triples against Xavier, bringing her season total to 16 after making at least two from behind the arc in all five games she has played this season. Currently on a sixgame streak of making two or more three-pointers, Westphal leads the MAC and ranks eighth nationally with 3.2 three-pointers per game. Prior to her current streak, she had only one instance of making two or more three-points in consecutive games which came last year with three at Ohio, Jan. 20, 2024, and two at Kent State, Jan. 24, 2024.

WELCOME BACK!

Jada Williams made her Eastern Michigan debut against Xavier as the transfer from St. Peter's came into the game in the second quarter and made an immediate impact. In the six minutes she played, Williams scored on a post move and drained both of her free throw attempts for four points, marking her first points since Nov. 15, 2023, at Illinois. Williams, who also added one rebound and one steal, last played in a game Nov. 19, 2023, at Marquette with SPU.

FIRST TIMES

Six players have made their EMU debuts this year with Jada Williams the latest to join the list after playing six minutes against Xavier, Dec. 1. Previously, rookies Chelsea Bishop (Nov. 21) and Olivia DiFranco (Nov. 9) saw their first action while transfers Mackenzie Amalia, Brooklyn Thrash, and Sisi Eleko each started in the opener against Texas State (Nov. 4). Additionally, Elena Cabello entered the game against Texas State, which marked her first game action since March 8, 2023, against Bowling Green in the MAC Tournament, after sitting out all last season with an injury.

NEW TO THE LINEUP

Elena Cabello made her first career start for the Eagles in the Xavier game after appearing in 23 games during the 2022-23 season and all five this season. Cabello, who missed the 2023-24 season with an injury, scored eight points, which tied her career high set Feb. 18, 2023, at Toledo, while tying a career high with two made three-point baskets, which she had done three times previously.

The start comes one game after her strong play at Detroit Mercy, Nov. 26. In the game, she opened the second quarter by scoring with a pair of layups to give her four points, her first of the season. Those points also marked her first in 633 days after she last scored for the Eagles March 4, 2023, when she tallied five points at Ohio. She sat out the entire 2023-24 season with an injury.

DISTRIBUTION

Mackenzie Amalia remains among the best passers in the league as her 6.5 assists per game rank her first in the MAC and 10th in NCAA Division I. She is coming off back-to-back games with double-digit point totals as well with 13 at Detroit Mercy and 10 at home against Xavier. She has accumulated 39 assists this year to bring her career total to 297.

ON THE HORIZON

Eastern returns to the road for two games next week when the Eagles take part in the UTRGV Holiday Classic, Dec. 19-20, in Edinburg, Texas. The Eagles will open competition Dec. 19 with a 6:30 p.m. CT (7:30 p.m. ET) game with the host Vaqueros of the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley before closing the event Dec. 20 with a 4 p.m. CT (5 p.m. ET) meeting with the Islanders of Texas A&M University Corpus Christi.

PREVIOUSLY NOTED... PILING UP POINTS

Sisi Eleko continued to pile up the points and rebounds as she recorded her fourth consecutive double-double as she finished the game at Detroit Mercy, Nov. 26, with 31 points and 14 rebounds. Eleko's 31 points are the most for an Eagle since Areanna Combs scored 32 points at the University of Akron, Jan. 26, 2022. The 31 points also marks the second time she has recorded a career high point total after opening the season with 28 points against visiting Texas State, Nov. 4. Additionally, Eleko has played 65 games in her career and scored at least 10 points in 47 contests (72.3 percent).

MITTEN MEETINGS

The Eagles are 172-166 all-time against teams from the Mitten State following their losses at Michigan State, Nov. 11, and Detroit Mercy, Nov. 26. Eastern will have three more games to play this season against Michigan schools, starting Nov. 26 with a road trip to Detroit Mercy. The final three games come in MAC play when the Eagles face Western Michigan once (home, Jan. 1) and Central Michigan twice (away, Jan. 18, and home, Feb. 19).

WESTPHAL, THE SCHOLAR

The 4.0 three-point baskets per game is not the only 4.0 Olivia Westphal has produced as she currently sports a 4.0 GPA while working on a graduate degree in Cybersecurity. For her athletic and academic efforts, Westphal was selected as the MAC Female Scholar-Athlete of the Week, Nov. 14, earning the accolade for the first time in her career.

BEEN A WHILE

The honor attained by Olivia Westphal was not only her first, but just the 11th earned by a member of the program since 2002 when Shani Charles earned the accolade (Jan. 28, 2002). In fact, the Eagles have only earned the weekly accolade twice in recent years with Ce'Nera Skanes being honored Jan. 4, 2023. Prior to Skanes, Phillis Webb was the last to earn the honor, which came Dec. 16, 2015.

ROLLIN' ON 20'S

With 28 points scored by Sisi Eleko and 20 added by Olivia Westphal, in the opener against Texas State, Nov. 4, the Eagles boasted two 20-point scorers in the same game for the first time in nearly six years. The last time it happened was Jan. 23, 2019, when Corrione Cardwell and Courtnie Lewis each scored 20 against Western Michigan in a home MAC contest.

BROOKLYN'S FINEST

Brooklyn Thrash has done a bit of everything for the Eagles in her first two games after transferring from Canisius. After she stuffed the stat sheet in her debut against Texas State (Nov. 4) as she scored four points and added three blocks, two steals, two assists, and three rebounds, she was back to work against Alabama A&M (Nov. 9) with stats in all but one category. Against the Bulldogs, she finished with 15 points, which is just one shy of career high (16, vs. Binghamton, Nov. 20, 2022), five rebounds, two assists, and one steal. She also was a perfect 2-of-2 from beyond the arc.

SIGNED ON THE DOTTED LINE

The early signing period for NCAA basketball was held last week with the Eagles signing four players that will continue their academic and athletic careers at Eastern. The four players, all of whom will join the program this summer to prepare for the 2025-26 season, mark the first full signing class for Sahar Nusseibeh and her staff at Eastern. The class includes Adrena Gordon (5-11, G) from Akron, Ohio (Example Academy); Peyton Hill (5-10, G) from St. Louis, Mo. (Incarnate Word Academy); Believe Tshibangu (6-0, F) from Courtice, Ontario (Royal Crown School); and Alli Zajac (6-2, F) from Tecumseh, Mich. (Tecumseh), who is a second generation Eagle after both of her parents played basketball at Eastern, including her dad, Jon Zajac, and her mom, the former Kristy Maska, who ranks No. 18 in scoring at EMU.

NEW YEAR, NU ERA

The 75-71 home loss, Nov. 4, to Texas State marked the start of the Sahar Nusseibeh era at EMU. The ninth head coach in program history and the first sitting head coach hired away to lead EMU since Suzy Merchant in 1998, Nusseibeh came to Ypsilanti following three years as the head coach at Canisius. A rising coaching star while in the MAAC, Nusseibeh is no stranger the MAC as she previously served as an assistant coach at Miami (2019-21) and Bowling Green (2013-16). A 2009 graduate of American, Nusseibeh got her start as a graduate assistant at Cincinnati (2009-11) before coaching stints at Holy Cross (2011-13), and Manhattan (2016-19), where she was tabbed as the associate head coach.

With a record of 42-60 with the Golden Griffins. Nusseibeh built a team that went from six wins her first year to 17 in her third and did so by bringing in strong talent. Both Athina Lexa (2021-22) and Sisi Eleko (2022-23) were unanimous selections to the All-MAAC Rookie Teams before Lexa was named the 2023-24 MAAC Sixth Player of the Year and Eleko was the lone unanimous All-MAAC First Team selection.

IN DEBUT GAMES

Eastern is now 5-4 in the first game of a head coach's tenure in Ypsilanti following the 75-71 setback to Texas State, Nov. 4, in Sahar Nusseibeh's debut. The team had won the previous three debut games with the last loss coming Nov. 15, 1998, when the Eagles dropped a 75-64 home decision to St. Peter's in Suzy Merchant's first game at the helm at Eastern.

SEASON OPENERS

The Eagles now hold a 32-17 all-time record in their first game of the season following the 75-71 loss to Texas State, Nov. 6. Despite the back-to-back losses in openers, the Eagles are 17-7 since 1999-00 season, including winning streaks of 10 and seven games during that time. Additionally, EMU is 21-6 when its first game of the season is played at home.

HOME OPENERS

The Eagles are 36-13 all-time in their first home game of the season and has now dropped two consecutive games following the loss to Texas State. Eastern is 1-4 in its last five home openers after a streak of 20 consecutive home-opening wins.

EMU'S RING OF HONOR

The George Gervin GameAbove Center is now adorned with the names of 15 distinguished alumni as the inaugural introduction into the Ring of Honor took place Saturday, Oct. 7, 2023. The group, comprised of 11 men and four women, make up the newly established Ring of Honor and pays tribute to the very best of EMU basketball, recognizing individuals who have made exceptional contributions to the sport.

To be eligible for inclusion in the Ring of Honor, individuals must have received All-American status from a major publication or played in an official Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA). These honorees have rightfully earned their distinguished place of honor within the George Gervin GameAbove Center, and their names will serve as an enduring source of inspiration for generations of athletes.

HELLO! MY NAME IS...

Of the eight new faces on the roster, six are transfers into the program, including five who followed Sahar Nusseibeh from Canisius. Those five include Mackenzie Amalia, Brooklyn Thrash, Athina Lexa, Sisi Eleko, and Adrien LaMora. The sixth transfer is Jada Williams, who played at MAAC foe St. Peter's.

Two of the players were highly decorated during their time at Canisius, including Eleko and Lexa. Eleko was named to the All-MAAC Rookie Team as a freshman before becoming a unanimous selection the All-MAAC First Team last year. Lexa also earned a spot on the rookie squad her freshman year (2021-22) before being named the MAAC Sixth Player of the Year last season.

ROOKIES ON BOARD

The final two members of the team are freshmen Olivia DiFranco and Chelsea Bishop. Both standing at 5-foot-10, DiFranco hails from Elyria, Ohio, and Midview High School, while Chelsea Bishop played her prep basketball at Grand Blanc High School in Grand Blanc, Mich.

DiFranco was a two-time captain that earned all-county, all-district, and all-state honors for the Middies while setting four school records, including career points (1,127). A three-sport standout, she also played golf and softball, a sport she earned allcounty honors in twice.

Bishop averaged 17 points per game as a senior and helped her team to the state title game. A member of the first team in GBHS history to win a regional title and a state semifinal game, she was named first-team all-state. A two-year member of the track & field squad, she competed in the hurdles and long jump and advanced to the state meet in both as a freshman.

BACK FOR MORE!

Seven Eagles returned to the 2024-25 roster after being members of the program last year. Olivia Smith (junior) and ZaNiya Nelson (graduate) are the top two returning scorers following the departure of the team's top three from last year. Smith and Olivia Westphal (redshirt junior) were 1-3 last year on the team in three-point shooting while Nelson is the top returning rebounder at 4.1 per contest. Joining the trio are Ashley Hassett, Kyndal Lewis, Dara Capaldi, and Elena Cabello.

ON THE LIST

According to several ranking services and their respective preseason prognostications, the Eagles are currently scheduled to face one team in the national top 10, one that is just outside the top 25, and five on the mid-major ledgers. Nationally, Eastern is slated for a Dec. 15 game at No. 6/No. 5 Notre Dame (Associated Press / USA Today/WBCA) after traveling to face Michigan State, Nov. 11, who receiving votes in the preseason AP poll.

In the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25 preseason poll, five EMU opponents appear on the list, including No. 3 Ball State and No. 16 Kent State. Three teams are receiving votes, including Buffalo, Bowling Green, and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi.

MAC PRESEASON POLL

The Mid-American Conference announced its 2024-25 MAC Women's Basketball Preseason Coaches Poll. Oct. 22, with Eastern predicted to finish 11th. Based upon points tied to votes from the league's coaches, Ball State was predicted to win the MAC with 120 points (10 first-place votes) while Kent State (104, 2 FPV), Buffalo (98), Bowling Green (96), and Toledo (82) rounded out the top five. To make the 2025 MAC Basketball Tournament, a team will need to finish in the top eight of the final league standings to punch to its ticket to Cleveland.

IN THE HALL

On Sept. 20, 2024, the E-Club Athletic Club Hall of Fame welcomed its four newest members, including Tavelyn James from the EMU women's basketball team. Perhaps the greatest player in program history, James graduated from EMU in 2012 and, to this day, ranks among the top three in 10 career statistical categories, including holding the program record in five. The only EMU player to reach 2,000 points in a career, James is the record holder with 2,470 points, 863 made field goals, 2,187 field goal attempts, 291 made three-point baskets, and 946 three-point attempts. She also ranks second with 19.1 points per game and 453 free throws made.

The 2012 recipient of the France Pomeroy Naismith Award (the nation's outstanding female collegian 5'8" and under) and a two-time Honorable Mention All-American, James was selected to the Team USA roster for the 2011 Pan American Games, making her the first EMU and MAC student-athlete to represent the U.S. in the games. A five-year player in the WNBA and several international leagues, James was a member of the inaugural class of the Ring of Honor at EMU.

THE RING OF HONOR

The George Gervin GameAbove Center, the home of Eastern Michigan University men's and women's basketball, is now adorned with the names of 15 distinguished alumni as the inaugural introduction into the Ring of Honor took place Saturday, Oct. 7, 2024. The group, comprised of four women and 11 men, made up the newly established Ring of Honor and pays tribute to the very best of EMU basketball, recognizing individuals who made exceptional contributions to the sport.

The list of inaugural inductees included women's greats Laurie Byrd (1978-82), Ryan Coleman (2002-06), Tavelyn James (2008-12), and Stephanie Smiley (1998-02) and men's greats Earl Boykins (1995-98), Fred Cofield (1983-85), Derrick Dial (1995-98), George Gervin (1970-72), Earle Higgins (1967-70), Grant Long (1984-88), Harvey Marlatt (1966-70), Kennedy McIntosh (1967-71), Lindell Reason (1969-72), Carl Thomas (1987-91), and Charles Thomas (1987-91). Combined, the 15 players accounted for 16 All-America honors and played professionally for nearly 77 years.

SAHAR NUSSEIBEH

FIRST YEAR • AMERICAN, '09

Sahar Nusseibeh was named as the Head Women's Basketball Coach at Eastern Michigan University on March 27, 2024. A rising star with three seasons of experience as a Division I head coach, Nusseibeh (pronounced noo-SAY-beh) arrived in Ypsilanti with an extensive coaching resume which includes a pair of stops as an assistant coach within the Mid-American Conference.

The ninth full-time head coach in program history, Nusseibeh had been the head coach for the past three seasons at Canisius University in Buffalo, N.Y. The Uniontown, Ohio, native has helped resurrect a program that won a combined five games in the two seasons prior to her arrival to a 17-victory campaign in 2023-24. The Golden Griffins' 17 wins were the most since the 2008-09 season and it marked the school's first season with double-digit wins since 2018-19.

Nusseibeh is the first active head coach to be hired at Eastern Michigan since Suzy Merchant in 1998. Merchant was the head coach at Saginaw Valley State University (1995-97) before taking over the EMU program and leading it to its first MAC Tournament Championship in 2004.

A long-time assistant coach with 12 years of Division I coaching experience, Nusseibeh took over the Canisius program after spending time as an assistant coach at the College of the Holy Cross (2011-13), Bowling Green State University (2013-16), Manhattan College (2016-19), and Miami University (2019-21).

One of the top young coaches in the country, Nusseibeh was named in 2016 to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's (WBCA) inaugural "Thirty Under 30" list, which recognizes the top 30 upand-coming coaches 30 years old-or-younger at all levels of the game. A graduate of the NCAA's Women Coaches Academy, she has also participated in the WBCA's Center for Coaching Excellence.

The 2023-24 season at Canisius was a historic one for the program, as the Blue and Gold finished with 17 wins. Canisius' 11 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) wins also were the most since the 2008-09 campaign when CU won 14 games during conference play and advanced to the WNIT. The Griffs lead the MAAC in three-point field goal percentage at .338 (229-of-677), ranked second in defensive rebounds per game (11.4), and tied the program record for threepointers made in a game with 15 at Binghamton (Dec. 8). As a team, the Griffs finished fifth after being picked ninth in the MAAC Preseason Poll.

From Nov. 30 through Dec. 21, Nusseibeh coached the Griffs to five consecutive road wins, marking the first five-game winning streak for Canisius since the 2015-16 season and five-game road winning streak since the 2008-09 campaign.

In the postseason, Nusseibeh led the Blue and Gold to a 58-55 win over Manhattan, advancing the team to the semifinal round of the MAAC Championship for the first time since the 2008-09 campaign. She also helped the Griffs earn a pair of postseason awards as guard Athina Lexa was tabbed the Sixth Player of the Year, becoming the second Canisius player to ever earn the honor, while forward Sisi Eleko was named a unanimous All-MAAC First Team selection and selected for the All-MAAC Championship Team.

Individually, Eleko set the program record for rebounds by a sophomore and ranked second all-time for rebounds in a single season with 328. Eleko led the MAAC in both points-per-game (15.9) and reboundsper-game (10.6). Lexa, meanwhile, ranked top-15 in the MAAC for both points-per-game (11.7) and total points

During her second season at the helm, Nusseibeh helped Canisius earn two all-conference accolades as Dani Haskell was named to the All-MAAC Third Team and Sisi Eleko was tabbed to the All-MAAC Rookie Team. The 2022-23 season saw the Griffs finish the season ranked second in the MAAC and 84th nationally for free-throw percentage at 73.9 percent. The Blue and Gold also saw their overall and conference win total increase by three compared to the 2021-22 season.

Individually, Eleko finished the season with 96 field goals made, which is the fifth most all-time by a freshman in program history. The Montreal, Quebec, native also made 53 free throws, tving her with Rachel Decker for the fifth-most made free throws in a season by a freshman.

In her first season at Canisius, Nusseibeh led the squad to a MAAC opening-round win, becoming the first No. 11 seed to win a game in the tournament's history. Two Golden Griffins also received allconference accolades as sophomore Dani Haskell was named an All-MAAC Third Team honoree and freshman Athina Lexa was a unanimous selection to the All-MAAC Rookie Team.

The 2021-22 campaign saw the Griffs set a program record for three-pointers made in a contest with 15 in an 81-78 win versus Siena on Jan. 29, 2022. The team was also one three-pointer shy of tying the program record for three-pointers made, set during the 2008-09 season (252). Canisius also led the MAAC and ranked 28th in the nation with its 251 three-point field goals

Individually, freshman Rhay Porter's 43 blocks were the most by a Canisius freshman in the Division I era.

As the defensive coordinator at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, Nusseibeh was responsible for developing and implementing all aspects of team and individual defensive concepts. She also worked on game planning the team's defensive strategies and was in charge of all defensive play calls and in-game adjustments during timeouts and in-game action.

During her tenure three Miami players received allconference honors as Lauren Dickerson was named All-MAC Second Team, Savannah Kluesner was named

All-MAC Third Team and Peyton Scott was named MAC All-Freshman Team. Dickerson became Miami's all-time leading scorer in addition to breaking five other Miami career records and one single-season record. Kluesner broke the program record for single-season doubledoubles (14) and Miami's single-game block record (7).

Prior to joining the RedHawks' staff, she spent three seasons (2016-19) as the associate head coach, recruiting coordinator, and defensive coordinator at Manhattan College in Riverdale, N.Y.

During her time at Manhattan, Nusseibeh played a key role in recruiting and coaching five All-MAAC selections, two MAAC All-Rookie Team honorees, and the 2019 MAAC Women's Defensive Player of the Year. Nusseibeh led the Jaspers' defensive efforts which saw Manhattan rank among the top five in the MAAC in scoring defense, blocked shots, and turnovers forced in three straight seasons. In her final year at Manhattan, the Jaspers ranked 17th nationally in scoring defense (56.3 points per game allowed), while also placing in the top 100 nationally in field goal percentage defense (75th), steals per game (76th), blocked shots per game (63rd) and turnovers forced (79th).

Nusseibeh was a part of the Bowling Green coaching staff for three seasons (2013-16) and helped lead the Falcons to a 2013-14 Mid-American Conference regular-season crown after the team went 30-5 overall and 17-1 in league play. She recruited and coached five All-MAC honorees, including an All-America selection, and she played a key role in helping Bowling Green earn three-straight WBCA Top-25 Team Academic Awards.

Nusseibeh came to BGSU after spending the previous two seasons at the College of the Holy Cross. She helped the Crusaders win a total of 37 games over those two years, and the team advanced to the championship game of the Patriot League Tournament both years. Among a myriad of duties, Nusseibeh was the team's post coach and also was the program's video coordinator.

In 2012-13, Holy Cross finished 18-14 overall. The fourth seed for the league tournament, the Crusaders advanced to the title game before falling to Navy.

The 2011-12 Crusaders had a 19-15 record, upsetting top-seeded American in the PL Tournament's semifinal round. Holy Cross was invited to the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI) and posted a first-round win in that national postseason tournament.

Prior to joining the Holy Cross program, Nusseibeh spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati. While with the Bearcats, she coordinated video, served as the team's post coach, and was the academic liaison between the players, academics department and coaches.

In addition, Nusseibeh served internships with both the Atlanta Dream (2007) and Washington Mystics (2009) of the WNBA. Additionally, she spent time in Colorado working with USA Basketball, helping prepare the U-19 and World University Games teams that competed in Thailand and Serbia, respectively.

She was among just 30 assistant college basketball coaches to take part in the U.S. Marine Corps Coaches Leadership Workshop in Quantico, Va. The three-day, invitation-only program is designed to teach smallunit leadership. She has also attended numerous other professional development events, including the 2017 BDS Agency Head Coaching Training Center, the "A Step Up" Assistant Coaching Symposium in Charlotte, N.C., and the Assistant Coaches Immersion Program in Denver, Colo.

Nusseibeh played four seasons at American University from 2005-09, and was named to the Patriot League All-Rookie Team in her initial season. She made 116 career appearances with 39 starts, helping the Eagles to the conference regular-season titles in both 2007-08 and 2008-09.

Off the court, Nusseibeh served as the president of the school's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) during her senior season and was a women's basketball team representative to that committee throughout her undergraduate career. She also participated in the WBCA's "So You Want to Be a Coach" program.

The 37-year old Nusseibeh attended Hoover High School in North Canton, Ohio, playing basketball for the storied Vikings program.

She graduated cum laude from AU in 2009, earning her bachelor's degree in International Relations/ International Business. She received her master's degree in Business Administration from Cincinnati in May of 2011.

GAME		10	20	30	40	 101
1	Texas State	17	13	26	19	75
	Eastern Michigan	15	21	22	13	71

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) - Eastern built a big lead in the third quarter, but was unable to hang on for the victory as the Eagles dropped a 75-71 season-opening contest to visiting Texas State, Nov. 4. The Eagles (0-1) and Bobcats (1-0) met for the first time in series history with the visitors earning a point for their conference in the opening round of the 2024-25 MAC/SBC Challenge.

The game, the first with Sahar Nusseibeh leading the program, saw both teams eager to move the ball up and down the court. The fast-paced first quarter closed with the Bobcats in the lead, 17-15, despite Sisi Eleko pouring in 10 points. The Eagles, however, responded in the second with a 21-13 quarter to stake the hosts to a 36-30 lead at the break. Eastern grew its lead to 17 points with 5:34 remaining in the third, but a barrage of points for the Bobcats saw the visitors bring the third to close with EMU ahead, 58-56. In the fourth, both teams went back and forth, but the hosts were unable to climb back ahead before the final buzzer.

Game Notes

- » Sisi Eleko recorded a trio of career highs in the game as she scored 28 points on 11-of-16 shooting from the floor. Her previous bests came last year while playing for Canisius as she scored 24 points three different times with the last coming in the MAAC Tournament against Manhattan (March 14). Her 11 made field goals are one better than her previous best of 10 makes against Mount St. Mary's (Jan. 4, 2024) while her 16 attempts tie her career mark set twice before with the last coming against Siena (Feb. 17, 2024). Eleko, who averaged a double-double in 2023-24, was one rebound shy of the accolade as she finished with nine caroms.
- Olivia Westphal also had a career day on the court as the junior opened the game 5-of-5 from three and finished the game with a career-high 20 points, surpassing the 16 points she tallied in last year's finale against Bowling Green (March 9). Westphal reached double-digit points for just the sixth time in her career but has done so in backto-back games for the first time. Additionally, her long-range shooting was the best it has been as her previous single-game high for three-pointers made was three, which she accomplished six times, including the game against BGSU last season.
- » Mackenzie Amalia entered her first game with EMU with a career-best eight assists recorded three different times, including against Siena (Feb. 17) last season. She finished the game with 12, bettering her best by four dimes. Additionally, as a team last year, the Eagles recorded 12+ assists just nine times in 29 games.
- » Brooklyn Thrash stuffed the stat sheet in her debut with the Eagles as she not only scored four points, but she also added a team-high three blocks, two steals, two assists, and three rebounds. No other Eastern player had at least one of each category in the game.
- » The Eagles scored 71 points in their opener, a marked improvement from the 2023-24 opener in which they were held to 38. Eastern scored 70+ points just three times last season with the first instance coming in the fifth game of the campaign.

- Brooklyn Thrash, and Sisi Eleko each earning a place in the starting lineup. Elena Cabello also saw her first action since March 8, 2023, against Bowling Green in the MAC Tournament after sitting out all last season with an injury.

- The game between Eastern and Texas State marked the first in the all-time series.
- » The loss dropped the Eagles to 10-8 all-time against members of the Sun Belt.
- » The Eagles are now 32-17 all-time in their first game of the season and 21-6 when the season-opener is played at home.
- » Eastern saw two of its players score 20+ in the same game for the first time in nearly six years as Sisi Eleko scored 28 points and Olivia Westphal added 20. The last time the feat was accomplished was Jan. 23, 2019, when Corrione Cardwell and Courtnie Lewis both scored 20 points in a MAC contest at Western Michigan.

TOT GAME 10 20 30 40 Alabama A&M 17 16 12 21 66 2 Eastern Michigan 13 15 15

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) - The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team saw Sisi Eleko record a 17-point, 16-rebound double-double and Brooklyn Thrash post 15 points, but it was not enough as the Eagles dropped a 66-57 decision to visiting Alabama A&M University, Nov. 9, inside the George Gervin GameAbove Center. The loss dropped the Eagles to 0-2 on the season while the Bulldogs improved to 1-1.

How It Happened

In a fast-paced, up-and-down game, the visitors claimed a 16-13 lead after the first quarter of play before the Eagles out-scored their foes, 15-12, in the second quarter to knot things at 28-28 at halftime. From there, both teams battled back and forth for the lead with the Bulldogs taking a 45-43 lead into the fourth guarter where the Eagles tried to stay in it, but a 21-14 scoring burst led AAMU to the win.

Neither team was able to find a shooting rhythm in the game as the Eagles finished shooting 34 percent to the Bulldogs' 33 percent shooting that included a 0-of-10 clip from three, where EMU was 5-of-25. The major difference came at the free throw line where the visitors hit 28-of-40 attempts from the charity stripe compared to the Eagles'

Game Notes

- » Sisi Eleko collected her first double-double of the season and the 19th of her career as she finished the game with 17 points and 10 rebounds, including seven offensive rebounds. Eleko, who scored 28 points in her debut, Nov. 4, was 5-of-11 from the floor and 7-of-10 from the stripe while adding one assist.
- Brooklyn Thrash finished the game with a season-high 15 points, leaving her just one shy of her career high of 16 points that she scored with Canisius, Nov. 20, 2022, against Binghamton. Thrash was 6-of-9 from the floor, including a perfect 2-of-2 from three, while adding five boards, two assists, and one steal.
- Olivia Westphal continued to have a hot hand as she drained three more triples bringing her season total to eight. Westphal, who finished with nine points, recorded multiple made three-pointers in back-to-back games for just the second time in her career after hitting three at Ohio, Jan. 20, 2024, and two at Kent State, Jan. 24, 2024. A career 4.4 points per game scorer, Westphal is averaging 14.5 points per game through two contests this year.
- Both of EMU's games in 2024 have finished with a margin of 10 points or less, including the four-point loss to Texas State, Nov. 4. Last year, the team played 29 games with only 12 finishing within a 10-point margin, of which, the Eagles were 3-9 overall.

- » With the loss, the Eagles fell to 0-2 on the year while the Bulldogs moved to 1-1.
- » Eastern is 0-1 in its series with Alabama A&M and 3-1 all-time against members of the SWAC (3-0 vs. Florida A&M).

NOV. 11, 2024 • REGULAR SEASON BRESLIN CENTER • EAST LANSING, MI

TOT GAME 20 30 10 40 Eastern Michigan 9 15 14 11 49 3 Michigan State 29 29 15 22

EAST LANSING, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) - The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team fell in its road opener as the Eagles were downed by Michigan State University, 95-46, inside the Breslin Center in East Lansing, Mich., Nov. 11. The Eagles (0-3) were paced by Sisi Eleko, who recorded her second consecutive double-double as she scored 25 points and added 12 rebounds in the game as EMU held the Spartans (3-0) under 100 points for the first time this year.

How It Happened

The high-powered offense of the Spartans helped the hosts to a 29-14 lead following the first quarter with Sisi Eleko scoring 11 points for the Eagles while Olivia Smith added a triple of her own in the stanza. It was more of the same in the second as the Spartans added 29 points while the Eagles were held to just 11 as Eleko added four while Olivia Westphal (three), Mackenzie Amalia (two), and Brooklyn Thrash (two) each chipped in points

Following intermission, the game slowed a bit as the hosts outscored the Eagles, 15-9, in the stanza for a 73-34 lead. Eastern was limited to 1-of-7 shooting from the floor but was 7-of-10 from the free throw stripe. In the final quarter, MSU added 22 points to the Eagles' 15 as Eastern became the first team this season to hold the Spartans under 100 points.

Game Notes

- » Sisi Eleko recorded a double-double for the second consecutive game as she finished with 25 points and 12 rebounds, one game after scoring 17 points and grabbing 16 boards against Alabama A&M (Nov. 9). The 25 points scored by Eleko are the highest by an individual against MSU this year, surpassing the 19 scored by Oakland's Maddy Skorupski.
- Olivia Westphal drained four, three-point baskets in the game, making it three consecutive games to open the season in which she has connected on three or more triples in the same game. She opened the season with a career-best five makes against Texas State before adding three against Alabama A&M last time out.
- Mackenzie Amalia handed out a team-high six assists, giving her 22 on the year. She added five points as well.
- » The 25 points scored in the first half by Eastern marked the most Michigan State allowed in the opening half this year after holding Oakland Yale to 18 points each. Additionally, the halftime deficit of 33 points for Eastern marked the second lowest of the season for an MSU opponent after leading Yale by 32 and Oakland by 40.

- Historical Notes

 » With the loss, the Eagles fell to 0-3 on the year while the Spartans improved to 3-0.
- » Eastern is now 1-17 all-time against Michigan State and 0-10 when playing the Spartans in East Lansing. The Eagles have lost six consecutive meetings against the Spartans as well.
- » The Eagles are now 172-165 all-time against teams from the state of Michigan.
- » Eastern holds a 14-52 record when playing a member of the current membership of the Big Ten Conference.

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) - The Eastern Michigan women's basketball team fell at home to visiting Purdue Fort Wayne, 94-49, Nov. 21, inside the George Gervin GameAbove Center in Ypsilanti. The Eagles (0-4) were paced by Sisi Eleko, who posted 15 points and 11 rebounds for her third consecutive double-double, and Olivia Smith, who chipped in a season-high 12 points. The Mastodons (3-2) saw four players reach double-digit scoring totals, including Lauren Ross, who scored a game-high 18.

How It Happened

The guests came out hot in the opening quarter as an 8-0 lead turned into a 21-11 advantage at the break. Eleko led the way with seven points while Smith and Brooklyn Thrash added two points each.

In the second quarter, the visitors hit 64.7 percent of their shots while the Eagles were limited to 15.4 percent as a 30-9 quarter gave PFW a 51-20 lead at halftime.

Following intermission, the Mastodons built their advantage to 80-35. Eleko collected six more points and three more boards to bring her game totals to 13 points and 10 rebounds to record her third double-double of the season. In the same stanza, freshman Chelsea Bishop, who made her debut in the game, drained a three-pointer for her first collegiate points.

The final quarter saw both teams post 14 points for the final 94-49 score. Smith scored seven of her 12 points in the final 10 minutes while rookie Olivia DiFranco tallied her first collegiate points with a corner three.

Game Notes

- » Sisi Eleko led Eastern Michigan on offense with 15 points and added 11 rebounds to record her third consecutive double-double. She currently leads the MAC in doubledoubles while ranking tied for 22nd on the program's all-time double-double list (since 1999-00).
- Diivia Smith finished with her first double-digit scoring output of the season as she tallied 12 points, including two made three-pointers after hitting on just two from behind the arc in the previous three games. She also finished a perfect 6-of-6 from the free-throw line to tie a career high for both makes and attempts that she had accomplished three times prior with the most recent instance coming Jan. 3, 2024, at Northern Illinois.
- » Chelsea Bishop made her collegiate debut and recorded three points and three rebounds in 13 minutes played. Her first collegiate points came on a three from the wing in the third quarter.
- » Freshman Olivia DiFranco, who played in her second collegiate game, also recorded her first collegiate points as she drained a corner three. DiFranco added on rebound and one blocked shot in the game.

DETROIT, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) - Sisi Eleko scored a career-high 31 points and added 14 rebounds for her fourth consecutive double-double, but it was not enough as EMU battled to the end before falling at the Detroit Mercy, 72-61, Nov. 26. The Eagles (0-5) kept things close throughout much of the game, but a 25-12 second quarter in favor of the Titans (4-1) proved to be the difference inside Calihan Hall in Detroit.

How It Happened

The Eagle's came out strong in the first quarter with the team hitting four threepoint baskets to build an 18-15 lead at the first break. The 18 points mark the most the team has scored in the opening quarter of a game this year, surpassing the 15 scored in the opener against Texas State, Nov. 4. Eleko lead the charge with nine points while Mackenzie Amalia splashed home a pair of three-pointers as well.

In the second quarter, the Titans came out strong and built a 10-point lead by halftime. Elena Cabello got the Eagles on the board in the quarter as she scored on a pair of layups, marking her first points in 633 days after missing all last year with an injury. Eleko continued her host start as she added eight more points and five rebounds, leaving her one rebound shy of her fourth double-double of the year.

After the break, Detroit Mercy kept widening its lead in the fourth, constructing a 71-49 advantage before Eastern Michigan went on a 12-0 run to shrink the deficit to 71-61 with 25 seconds to go in the contest. Eastern Michigan took advantage of seven Detroit Mercy turnovers in the quarter, scoring eight points off those takeaways. Eleko scored nine points in the quarter, including two three-point baskets.

Game Note

TITANS

- » Sis IEleko continued to pile up the points and rebounds as she recorded her fourth consecutive double-double as she finished the game with 31 points and 14 rebounds against the Titans. Eleko's 31 points are the most for an Eagle since Areanna Combs scored 32 points at Akron, Jan. 26, 2022. She finished the night with four made triples to better her previous career high of three at Binghamton, Dec. 8, 2023.
- » Sisi Eleko entered the game with two three-pointers in her first four games (2-of-7) before hitting on 4-of-7 against the Titans. Not only did she record at least one made three in her third game this year, she recorded multiple made triples for just the fourth time in her career.
- » Sisi Eleko's 31 points marked a career best, bettering the 28 she scored in the season-opener with Texas State, Nov. 4. Additionally, she has now scored at least 20 points in 3-of-5 games played for the Eagles and has tallied double-digit points in 72.3 percent of her collegiate games played (47-of-65).
- » Mackenzie Amalia finished the game with a season-best 13 points as she hit three triples and added two free throws to along with her six assists. Her point total surpassed the eight she scored against Alabama A&M (Nov. 9) and were seven shy of her career high 20 points scored at St. Bonaventure, Nov. 20, 2023, with Canisius.
- » Early in the first quarter, Olivia Westphal drained a three in the corner to extend her streak to five consecutive games with at least one made triple, a streak that includes last year's season finale against Bowling Green and the first four games she has played this year. Westphal, the MAC leader at 4.0 made threes per game, finished with six points on two made threes, marking the fifth game in a row she has connected on multiple deep shots. In her career, she had previously made two or more threes in back-to-back games on one occasion after draining three at Ohio, Jan. 20, 2024, and two at Kent State, Jan. 24, 2024.
- » The first four points of the second quarter were scored by Elena Cabello. The points marked the first points she scored since tallying five at Ohio, March 4, 2023, a stretch of 633 days. Cabello, who had not scored in her first four appearances this season, last played March 8, 2023, against Bowling Green in the MAC Tournament before an injury forced her out of the 2023-24 season.

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) - Eastern Michigan secured its first win of the season as the Eagles, who trailed by 20 at halftime, outscored visiting Xavier, 47-15, in the second half to claim a 72-60 win over the Musketeers (4-3) inside the George Gervin GameAbove Center in Ypsilanti, Dec. 1. The Eagles (1-5), who drained a seasonbest 13 three-point baskets, including 8-of-13 in the second half, recorded the first win for Head Coach Sahar Nusseibeh, who is in her first season with the program.

How It Happened

The Eagles struggled out of the gate and trailed by 12 (23-11) at the end of the first quarter, a stanza in which the Musketeers shot 71.4 percent from the floor, including 75.0 percent from three. The visitors extended their lead to 20 points at halftime (45-25) as Xavier shot 70.4 percent in the opening 20 minutes while the Eagles were held to just 32.0 percent.

In the second half, however, the tables turned in a big way as Eastern opened the third quarter on an 18-1 run that saw the third ended with the Eagles on a 24-3 run to grab a 49-48 lead, their first of the season when entering the fourth quarter. In the final period, the Eagles continued their hot play as they scored 23 more points to Xavier's 12 to turn the 20-point halftime deficit into a 12-point victory. The win marked the first time since Dec. 15, 2023, when the Eagles trailed by 10+ points before eventually winning the game after defeating IU Indy, 84-74 in overtime.

Game Note:

- » The win for the Eagles snapped a five-game losing streak to open the season while also recording the first victory for Sahar Nusseibeh as the team's head coach.
- » Sisi Eleko finished the game with 23 points and seven rebounds to recorded 20+points in back-to-back games for the third time in her career and the first time as a member of the EMU program. Eleko, who last accomplished the feat with Canisius in road games against St. Peter's (24 points) and Rider (20), scored 21 points in the second half after recording just two in the opening 20 minutes of play. Eleko, who entered the game ranked sixth nationally in scoring, tallied 20+ points for the 12 time in her career and the fourth time in six games with the Eagles.
- » Prior to the game, Sisi Eleko had made multiple three-point baskets in the same game just four times, including the four she made at Detroit Mercy, Nov. 26. With two triples against Xavier, Eleko marked the first time in her carer she has made multiple three-pointers in back-to-back games. She also has made at least one three-pointer in four consecutive games, tying the longest streak of her career.
- » Brooklyn Thrash finished the game with 16 points, including four made three-point baskets, while adding six rebounds and three steals. She tied her career high, which she scored against Binghamton, Nov. 20, 2022, while playing for Canisius, and surpassed her season high of 15 points scored against Alabama A&M, Nov. 9. Additionally, the four makes from beyond the arc doubled her career high of two recorded nine times, including against AAMU earlier this year.
- » Mackenzie Amalia scored 10 points while dishing out a team-high eight assists in the game. Amalia, who tied her season high with four rebounds as well, tied a career high with one block (vs. Fairfield, March 15, 2024, with Canisius) while reaching double-digit scoring for the second time in as many games after scoring 13 at UDM.
- » Jada Williams made her Eastern Michigan debut as the transfer from St. Peter's came into the game in the second quarter. In the six minutes she played, she scored on a post move and drained both of her free throw attempts for four points, marking her first points since Nov. 15, 2023, at Illinois. Williams last played in a game Nov. 19, 2023, at Marquette, before an injury sidelined her until the game with Xavier.
- » Elena Cabello made her first career start for the Eagles after appearing in 23 games during the 2022-23 season and all five this season. Cabello, who missed the 2023-24 season with an injury, scored eight points, which tied her career high set Feb. 18, 2023, at Toledo, while tying a career high with two made three-point baskets, which she had done three times previously.
