FAST BREAK

- Louisville has one of the toughest schedules among ACC teams and in the nation this season. Heading into Sunday's game against Notre Dame, the Cardinals have the 15th toughest schedule in the NCAA, which ranks third in the ACC. Looking at their remaining schedule, the Cardinals rank 13th nationally, which is the toughest remaining schedule in the ACC. The second toughest remaining schedule in the league is Miami, which ranks 21st overall
- Louisville has a grueling remaining schedule as the calendar flips to February. Six of the eight remaining games are against teams that are ranked in the Top 25. Three of those six games are against teams that are ranked in the Top 10. Five of the eight games will be at home as the Cardinals have had just eight home games so far this season. The eight homes games are the fewest of any ACC team and tied for the fewest among teams ranked in the Top 50 of the NET Rankings.
- Senior guard Jayda Curry has been lights out at the free throw line this season. She leads the ACC and ranks third nationally with a 95.5 free throw percentage on the season. In her 17 games this season, she is 42-for-44 from the free throw line. In ACC games, Curry is 26-for-27 from the line and leads the league with a 96.3 free throw percentage. The Louisville program record for free throw percentage in a single season is 92.1 (116-126) by Kristin Mattox during the 1995-96 season.
- Junior forward Nyla Harris has been the most consistent shooter for the Cardinals this season. She leads the team with a 60.8 field goal percentage (90-for-148) this season and has an even better mark in ACC play. In conference games, Harris is shooting 64.9 percent (50-for-77) from the floor. That mark leads the league in conference games this season and is significantly higher than the second-best mark in conference play. Rose Micheaux is second in ACC play with a 54.0 field goal percentage (54-for-100).
- Head coach Jeff Walz (480-141) is the winningest coach in program history; directing the Cards to 15 NCAA Tournament appearances, including 12 Sweet 16's, eight Elite Eight's, four trips to the Final Four (2009, 2013, 2018, 2022) and two appearances in the national title game (2009, 2013). Prior to his arrival, the Cardinals had never reached a Sweet 16 and only had four tournament wins in 11 appearances. Walz has averaged 27.4 wins per season and has guided the Cardinals to 14-straight 20-win seasons, the fifth longest active streak in the country. Before Walz took over in 2007-08, the program only had 10 20-win seasons in its entire history.

ABOUT THE FIGHTING IRISH

Notre Dame comes into Sunday's matchup with an 18-2 overall record and are 9-0 in ACC play this season. The Irish have won 13-straight games heading into Sunday and are ranked No. 3 the AP and Coaches Poll. This will be the first of two regular season meetings between the two teams, as they will square off in South Bend for the regular season finale on March 2. The Irish lead the league and have some of the nation's best marks in a number of categories heading into the weekend. The Irish lead the ACC in assists per game (18.9), blocks per game (6.0), field goal percentage (49.7), rebounds per game (44.7), scoring margin (+25.3), steals per game (11.5), three-point percentage (41.3) and three-point percentage defense (25.8). The Irish lead the nation in three point percentage and rank top-five nationally in field goal percentage. Individually, Hannah Hidalgo and Olivia Miles are two of the best guards in the country. Hidalgo leads the ACC and ranks top-five nationally in steals per game (4.1), she ranks second nationally in points per game (25.3) and is second in the ACC in three point percentage (43.0). Miles leads the nation in triple doubles (3) and leads the ACC in assists per game (6.8). Liatu King is also one of the best rebounders in the league as she is second in the ACC with 10.8 rebounds per game.

- Series History This will be the 35th meeting between the two schools as they have been conference foes going back to the BIG EAST days. The Cardinals trail the all-time series 14-20 but have seen more success over the past few years. Louisville has won eight of the last 12 matchups dating back to the 2018-19 season. The Cardinals are 6-6 all-time in games played in Louisville but have won five of the last six home matchups dating back to the 2017-18 season.
- Last Meeting (Mar. 8, 2024) The No. 5 seed Louisville Cardinals (24-9) dropped its quarterfinal matchup to No. 4 seed Notre Dame (24-6), 77-68, Friday afternoon at the ACC Women's Basketball Tournament. Louisville struggled from the floor in the first half and faced a big halftime deficit. The Cardinals fought back in the second half and got the deficit down to three but were unable to come all the way back. Jayda Curry had her best game in a Louisville uniform as she sparked the comeback bid in the second half. She scored a team-best 26 points on 8-for-16 shooting, 3-for-6 from behind the arc and added three rebounds, three assists and two steals. 23 of Curry's 26 points came in the second half as the Cardinals made their comeback bid. Nyla Harris had a team-best 10 rebounds and was one point shy of a double-double with nine points.

A DECADE OF ACC SUCCESS

Since Louisville joined the ACC back in the 2014-15 season, they have been one of the most successful teams in the conference during the regular season and in the NCAA Tournament

- Since the 2014-15 season, Louisville leads the league with 146 ACC wins and a .820 winning percentage in conference games. They are one of just two schools in the league to have a winning percentage of .800 or better in ACC games during that timeframe.
- Louisville has had five players named ACC Player of the Year, the most by any school during that time span.
- The Cardinals have won 10 or more ACC games every season since they joined the league. They are the only program in the conference to have 10 or more ACC wins in each of the last 10 seasons.
- Louisville has finished in the Top-5 of the league standings every season they have been in the league. They are the only school to finish in the Top-5 in the ACC standings in each of the last 10 seasons.
- The Cardinals have also reached the quarterfinals or farther in each of the last 10 ACC Tournaments, the only school to reach the quarterfinals or farther in each of the last 10 conference tournaments.
- Over the last four NCAA tournaments (2021, 2022, 2023, 2024), Louisville leads the ACC with 10 total wins in the NCAA Tournament.
- In two of those four years (2021, 2022), the Cardinals were the farthest ACC team to advance in the bracket.
- In the past six NCAA tournaments (2018, 2019, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024), Louisville has the most wins among ACC teams in the NCAA Tournament with 17. The Cardinals reached the Elite Eight or farther in five of the six of those tournaments.
- Overall since the 2014-15 season, Louisville is second in the conference in NCAA Tournament wins (22) and second in years they have been the last ACC team standing in the tournament (2).

ROBERTS IS ROLLING

Freshman Tajianna Roberts wasted no time making an impact early on in her collegiate career.

- Roberts earned the start in her first collegiate game and was one of two freshmen (Mackenly Randolph) in the starting lineup for the season opener.
- She scored a game-high 21 points, hit four three-pointers and did not have any turnovers against #5/#6 UCLA.
- Roberts is the first Louisville freshman to score 20+ points in their debut since the 2020-21 season.
- She followed it up with 11 points, four rebounds and a team-best four assists in the win over Southern Indiana.
- Roberts was named ACC Rookie of the Week following her performance over the opening week of the season.
- Roberts scored in double-figures in each of the next three games against UT Martin (13 points), #20/#19 Kentucky (12 points) and Morehead State (11 points).
- In the win over Colorado, Roberts scored 13 points on 5-for-10 shooting and had a season-high four steals.
- She went on a 5-0 run on her own in the fourth quarter to regain the lead for the Cards. Her run sparked a larger 16-0 run in the fourth quarter as the Cards closed out the win.
- Roberts earned ACC Rookie of the Week honors following her game against the Buffaloes.
- Roberts tallied 10 points, a season-high four assists and four steals in the win over Grambling State.
- She scored a career-best 23 points on 10-for-17 shooting to go with three steals and two assists in the win over Memphis. The 23 points were the most scored by a Louisville player this season.
- Roberts tallied 13 points and tied for the team lead with four assists in the road win over Boston College.
- She scored 14 points and tied a season high with four assists and four rebounds to go with two steals in the win over Miami.
- In the road win over Wake Forest, Roberts scored 17 points (6-for-13 shooting) with three three-pointers and three assists.
- Roberts led the team with 17 points and set a season high with five three-pointers in the win over Pitt and led the team in scoring with 16 in the win over #13 Georgia Tech.

HEAD COACH JEFF WALZ

Head coach Jeff Walz, in his 18th season as a head coach, has compiled a 480-141 record as the Cardinals' leader. Walz and the Cardinals boast quite an astounding resumé that includes 12 trips to the NCAA Sweet 16, eight trips to the Elite Eight, four trips to the final four and two trips to the national title game. Overall, he has compiled a 40-15 record in NCAA Tournament games and ranks 10th all-time and fifth among active coaches with a 72.7 NCAA Tournament winning percentage. All of this for a program that had just four NCAA Tournament wins and had never reached a Sweet 16 prior to Walz being named head coach.

Walz is the all-time winningest coach in program history and averages 27.4 victories per season. He directed Louisville to a program-record 36 victories in 2017-18 en route to being named ACC Coach of the Year, 34 victories in 2008-09, 33 wins in 2013-14, 32 wins in 2018-19 and 29 wins in 2021-22.

Walz has been with the Cardinals for 18 seasons and is tied for 17th for the longest active streak at the same school. Among the power conferences, Walz is sixth behind Geno Auriemma (40 years, UConn), Bill Fennelly (30 years, Iowa State), Jose Fernandez (25 years, USF), Brenda Frese (23 years, Maryland) and Jim Flanery (23 years, Creighton).

The Cardinals have reached 20 wins 14 consecutive times and they have won at least 20 games in 16 of Walz's 17 full seasons. The longest run previously was three, achieved twice, and UofL had just 10 20-win seasons in its 32 previous years.

Walz led Louisville to four consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference regular season titles in 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021, and over that four-year span, the Cardinals went a combined 122-15, which marked the fewest losses and best winning percentage over a four-year period in program history.

From 2016-2021, he coached the ACC Player of the Year in five of six seasons as Myisha Hines-Allen won the award in 2016, Asia Durr in 2018 and 2019, and Dana Evans in 2020 and 2021. He also coached Angel McCoughtry to Big East Player of the Year honors in 2007.

After being hired as the Cardinals' head coach on March 27, 2007, the Bluegrass State native used little time to make a splash. His first year featured the program's first NCAA Sweet 16 and it culminated with Louisville earning the No. 12 ranking in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. For his efforts, Walz was named the WBCA Maggie Dixon Rookie Coach of the Year.

Prior to taking the reins at Louisville, Walz spent five seasons at Maryland, including his final season as the associate head coach in 2006-07. The season prior, he helped lead the Terrapins to a school-record 34 wins and the program's first national title.

Walz has four children: daughter Kaeley, son Jacob, and daughters

Walz has four children: daughter Kaeley, son Jacob, and daughters Lola and Lucy. He married the former Lauren Lueders in September of 2012, and the couple resides in Louisville.

- She has scored in double figures in a team-best 17 of 21 games this season, the most by any ACC freshman this season.

CURRY IS COOKING

Senior guard Jayda Curry has been an impact player in her second season with the Cardinals after transferring from Cal in the summer of 2023.

- She made her season debut against Morehead State after missing the first four games due to injury.
- Curry scored in double figures in each of her first four games, including a team-best 14 points in the road win over Colorado on Nov. 30.
- In the WBCA Showcase against South Florida, Curry had a season-best six assists to go with 12 points in the win.
- Curry tied a season high with 14 points and tallied five assists in the road win over Memphis on Dec. 21.
- She scored 14 points for the second-straight game as she led the team in the road win over Boston College.
- Curry had her best game of the season against Miami when she scored a season-best 21 points on 6-for-12 shooting and tied a career high with four three-pointers made.
- She scored seven of her 11 points and made back-to-back threes in overtime in the road win over Wake Forest.
- She tied a career high with four made three-pointers and had 12 points in the win over Syracuse.
- Curry set a career high with five three-pointers and tied a career high with a teambest eight assists to go with a team-high 19 points in the road win over Virginia.
- She scored in double figures with 15 points on 5-for-9 shooting and 3-for-5 from behind the arc with four assists in the road win over SMU.
- Curry leads the ACC and ranks third nationally with a 95.5 (42-for-44) free throw shooting percentage. In ACC games, she is 26-for-27 and leads the league with a 96.3 free throw percentage.
- She has scored 10 or more points in 13 of her 17 games this season.

HOW ABOUT HARRIS

Nyla Harris made a big jump in her second season with the Cardinals and is ready to continue the upward trend during her junior season.

- She led the team with 16 points on 6-for-8 shooting in the road win over UT Martin.
- Harris tallied eight points on 4-for-6 shooting and three rebounds in just 10 minutes of action against Morehead State.
- In her return to her hometown, Harris led the Cards with nine rebounds and had eight points on 3-for-3 shooting from the floor in the win over South Florida.
- Harris had a team-best 14 points on 5-for-7 shooting and a team-best four rebounds to go with three steals in the win over Colorado.
- She was one of five players in double figures with 10 points, six rebounds, three steals, two blocks and two assists against No. 11 Oklahoma.
- Harris joined Cochran in the double-double party with 14 points and 10 rebounds against Grambling for her first double-double of the season.
- She tallied 12 points on 5-for-6 shooting to go with five rebounds in the win over Boston College.
- Harris led the team with a season-best 18 points on 8-for-10 shooting with four rebounds and two steals in the road win over Wake Forest.
- She was perfect from the field with 5-for-5 shooting for 11 points and six rebounds in the win over #13 Georgia Tech.
- Recorded her second double-double of the season with 10 points and a season-best 11 rebounds in the win over Syracuse.
- Harris tallied 15 points on 7-for-10 shooting in the road win over Virginia.
- She had another strong effort in the road win over SMU with 14 points on 4-for-5 shooting from the field and 6-for-6 from the line with four rebounds, three steals and two assists.

RUNNING IT BACK AGAIN FOR OC

Olivia Cochran is back for her fifth and final collegiate season with the Cardinals for the 2024-25 season.

- Cochran has started every game in each of the last three seasons and has started in 116-straight games for the Cardinals through 21 games in the 24-25 season.
- She has played in 155 career games at Louisville and is second in program history for most career games played.
- She currently ranks third all-time on the career rebound list at Louisville with 974 for her career.
- Cochran scored in double figures in back-to-back games against USI (team-best 15 points) and UT Martin (14 points).
- She led the team with six rebounds and had six points, two steals, an assist and a block against Morehead State.
- Cochran was named WBCA Showcase Most Outstanding Player after she led the Cards with 13 points and nine rebounds in the win over South Florida on Nov. 24.
- She led the Cards with 17 points and nine rebounds against No. 11 Oklahoma.
- Tallied her first double-double of the season with a season-best 18 points and 11 rebounds in the win over Grambling State.
- She picked up her second double-double of the season with 12 points and 13 rebounds in the win over Memphis. The 13 rebounds are the most by a Louisville player in a game this year.
- Cochran scored 13 points on 6-for-9 shooting and led the team with seven rebounds, four assists and three steals in the win over Boston College.
- She tallied 13 points on 6-for-9 shooting and tied a season high with three steals in the win over Miami.
- Cochran tied a career high when she went 9-for-9 from the free throw line and scored in double figures for the fourth-straight game with 13 points to go with a team-best seven rebounds and four assists in the road win over Wake Forest.
- Led the team with 14 points and eight rebounds against Virginia Tech.
- Tallied her team-leading third double-double of the season with 10 points and 11 rebounds in the road win over Virginia.
- She has shot 50 percent or better from the field in 12 of her 20 games this season.

WILLIAMS IS WORKING

Transfer guard Ja'Leah Williams has been stuffing the stat sheet this season for the Cards.

- In the season opener against #5/#6 UCLA, she set a career high with nine assists to go with a team-high four steals, team-high seven rebounds and 11 points.
- The nine assists were the second most by an ACC player in a game over the first week of the season.
- Williams led the team again with four assists to go with six rebounds, four points and two steals in the win over Southern Indiana.
- In the win over UT Martin on Nov. 12, Williams had nine points on 4-for-4 shooting to go with three rebounds, two steals, an assist and a block.
- Against #20/#19 Kentucky, Williams tallied nine points, a team-high six assists and had five rebounds and a block.
- Williams was efficient against Morehead State as she had a game-high eight assists to go with six points in 14 minutes of action.
- She came up clutch with the go-ahead layup in the final minute of the team's win over South Florida on Nov. 24 and led the team with seven assists.
- Williams led the team with four assists to go with six points and two steals and a block against Grambling State.
- She had a team-best seven assists to go with six points on 3-for-3 shooting with three steals and three rebounds in the win over Memphis.
- Williams had a season-best 12 points to go with six rebounds, two assists and two steals in the win over Boston College.
- Facing her former team, Williams led the team with seven assists, seven rebounds and four steals and tallied eight points in the win over the Hurricanes.
- She led the team with seven rebounds and scored in double figures with 13 points to go with three assists and three steals in the win over #13 Georgia Tech.
- Tallied her first career double-double with 11 points and a season-best 10 rebounds

IN RARE AIR

Jeff Walz is among a select few coaches in all of college basketball when it comes to making four or more Final Fours.

- In Women's Basketball, he is one of just four active head coaches (Geno Auriemma, Dawn Staley, Kim Mulkey) and one of 11 all-time to make four or more Final Fours.
- Of those 11, Walz is one of nine to have all of his appearances come at the same school.
- Including Men's Basketball, Walz is one of seven active and one of 32 all-time to make four or more Final Fours.
- Of those 32, he is one of 25 to make all of his appearances at the same school.

WALZ IN THE BIG DANCE

Walz boasts a 40-15 record in NCAA Tournament games. He is 10th all-time in winning percentage and fifth among active coaches who have coached in at least 25 tournament games or more. He has directed UofL to a pair of national runner-up finishes (2009, 2013), four Final Fours (2009, 2013, 2018, 2022), eight Elite Eights (2009, 2013, 2014, 2018, 2019, 2021, 2022, 2023), 12 trips to the Sweet 16 and 15 NCAA Tournaments. ONE OF THE BEST IN THE COUNTRY

Louisville has been one of the best teams in the country since the start of the 2017-18 season. The Cardinals have totaled 216 wins and an .818 winning percentage. The wins rank fifth and the winning percentage is sixth in the NCAA during that span. Louisville is just one of nine teams to win 200 games or more over the past eight seasons.

ROAD WARRIORS

Since the start of the 2017-18 season, the Cardinals are 77-19 in true road games. Louisville is tied for third in the NCAA in road wins and fifth in road winning percentage (.802) during that span.

70-PLUS POINTS

The Cardinals are 112-8 in their last 120 games when they have scored 70 points or more, dating back to the 2018-19 season. UofL is 341-31 when surpassing the 70-point plateau under Walz.

50/50

Last season, the Cardinals were 9-0 in games when they shot 50 percent or better from the floor and they are 7-0 this season after they shot 52.6 percent (30-57) from the field in the win over SMU on Jan. 30. Overall, they boast a 159-3 record when shooting 50 percent or better from the field under Walz.

ALLOWING 59 POINTS OR LESS

The Cardinals have great success when allowing 59 points or less in a game over the past few seasons. Louisville has won 49-straight games when allowing 59 points or less in a game after the 65-56 win over Pitt on Jan. 9. The 49-straight wins dates back to the 2020-21 season. Over the past 10 seasons, the Cardinals are 156-4 when allowing 59 points or less in a game.

CARDS ECLIPSE CENTURY MARK IN WIN OVER MOREHEAD STATE

Louisville had an offensive explosion in its 107-70 win over Morehead State on Nov. 21.

Louisville had all 14 players score in the win, the most players to score in a game this season. It is the first time in the Jeff Walz era that the Cardinals had 14 different players

- The Cards had 25 assists in the win, the most in a single game since they had 25 against Syracuse on January 29, 2023.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

Louisville returns five players that played for last year's team and brings in nine newcomers to the 2024-25 squad.

- Returnees The Cardinals returned two starters from last year's team in graduate forward Olivia Cochran and junior forward Nyla Harris. Both Harris and Cochran played in all 34 games last season and led the team with 6.6 rebounds per game. Cochran eclipsed the 1,000-career point plateau last season and was second on the team in points with 10.8 points per game. She also led the team with 0.6 blocks per game and 1.4 steals per game. Harris led the team with six double doubles last season and was one of four players to average 10 points or more per game (10.4). Joining the two starters are graduate guard Merissah Russell, senior guard Jayda Curry and sophomore forward Elif Istanbulluoglu. Curry played in all 34 games last season and was one of five players to average nine points or more per game (9.2). Russell also played in all 34 games last season and earned her first collegiate start. She was one of seven players to average five points or more per game (5.1). Istanbulluoglu played in all 34 games in her first collegiate season and collected a double-double in just her third career game against Bellarmine.
- Newcomers Louisville brings in a large crop of newcomers with eight freshman and one collegiate transfer.
- Senior Ja'Leah Williams joins the Cardinals after playing her first three collegiate seasons in the ACC at Miami. She played in 99 career games and made 81 starts at Miami and was part of the 2022-23 squad that reached the Elite Eight. She was selected to the 2022 ACC All-Freshman team after her first season with the Hurricanes.
- Imari Berry was the highest-rated recruit by ESPN.com as she was No. 19 overall and a five-star recruit. She was a McDonald's All-American and the 2024 Tennessee Girls Basketball Gatorade Player of the Year. She was the first player from Clarksville High School to be named Ms. Basketball in the state of Tennessee.
- Mackenly Randolph was also a five-star prospect and ranked No. 23 overall by ESPN.com. She was a McDonald's All-American with Berry and played in the All-American Game. Randolph also played in the Jordan Brand Classic with two other Louisville recruits (Roberts, Arenas). She was named a Third Team Naismith Trophy All-American.
- Tajianna Roberts was one spot behind Randolph as she was ranked No. 24 overall by ESPN.com and a five-star recruit. Roberts played with Randolph and Arenas in the Jordan Brand Classic. She played in the Chipotle National Finals in her senior season with IMG. Roberts was named a Naismith Trophy Honorable Mention All-American
- Izela Arenas rounded out the Cardinals ranked in the Top-100 by ESPN.com as she came in at No. 88 overall. She was high school teammates with Randolph at Sierra Canyon. The duo won a CIF Open Division championship, a CIF State Open Division championship, an ESPN national championship and four league championships while playing at Sierra Canyon. Arenas also played in the Jordan Brand Classic with Randolph and Roberts.
- Reagan Bender is a local product from Louisville and played at Sacred Heart. She won a state championship in all four years at Sacred Heart becoming the only program, boys or girls, to win four-straight titles in the state of Kentucky. Bender earned first team all-state honors and was a finalist for Miss Basketball in the state of Kentucky.
- Isla Juffermans comes to Louisville from Australia where she had a successful prep and international career. She is coming off a season in the NBL where her team won the East Championship before coming to Louisville. She was the 2023 New South Wales Champion and won MVP. Competing for her country, she was named the MVP of the 2022 FUBA Under 18 Women's Asian Championship.

RETURNING STARTERS

The Cards returned five players that made a start in a Louisville uniform led by Olivia Cochran (150) and Nyla Harris (70), who both started all 34 games last season. Jayda Curry (14), Elif Istanbulluoglu (2) and Merissah Russell (5) have also made starts in a Louisville uniform. Between the five players, they have started 241 career games for the Cardinals. Louisville also brings in transfer guard Ja'Leah Williams, who has started 102 career games between Miami and Louisville.

PRESEASON HONORS FOR BERRY, COCHRAN, CURRY & HARRIS

Olivia Cochran, Jayda Curry, Nyla Harris and Imari Berry all earned preseason honors ahead of the 2024-25 season.

- Cochran was named to the Katrina McClain Award Watch List for the fourthstraight season. She was one of just two players that has been on the McClain Award Watch List in each of the last four seasons.
- Curry was named to the Ann Meyers Drysdale Award Watch List which highlights the best shooting guard in the country. This is the first time she has been named to a positional watch list in her collegiate career.
- Harris was selected for the Lisa Leslie Award Watch List prior to the season, which honors the best center in college basketball. It is Harris' first positional watch list nomination for her collegiate career.
- Berry was selected as one of five players on the ACC Newcomer Watch List, the Blue Ribbon Panel selected prior to the season. The Cardinals have had a player on the ACC Newcomer Watch List in five of the last six seasons.

ANOTHER 20-WIN SEASON

UofL defeated #12/14 Notre Dame 73-66 last season to reach 20 wins for the 14th-straight season and extended the program record. The 14-straight seasons with 20 or more wins is the fifth-longest active streak in the country. The longest run previously was three, achieved twice. The Cards have won at least 20 games in 16 of Walz's 17 seasons. Prior to Walz's arrival, Louisville had just 10 20-win seasons in its history.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

Since the KFC Yum! Center opened its doors for the 2010-11 season, the Cardinals have had one of the best home court advantages in the country. Louisville is 210-35 all-time at the KFC Yum! Center over the past 15 seasons. During that span, the Cardinals have won at least 11 home games every season. In six of those seasons, the Cardinals lost one home game or less. The Cardinals program record for consecutive home wins is 21 games, a streak that spanned over three seasons. Over the past eight seasons, Louisville is 105-11 at home.

BEST FANS IN THE COUNTRY

During the 2023-24 season, Louisville averaged 8,640 fans at the KFC Yum! Center, which was first in the ACC and eighth in the country. The 8,640 fans per game ranked ninth in ACC men's basketball last season. For 14 straight-seasons, they have led the ACC and ranked in the top 10 in the country in attendance. Last season, they had a season-best 12,249 fans against Virginia Tech, the largest home
