Notre Dame's Hat Trick History

Notre Dame players have combined to score 74 hat tricks in 35 seasons. Kerri Hanks, Jenny Heft and Melissa Henderson share the school record with six career hat tricks, while Heft, Henderson and Cindy Daws each have a school-record three hat tricks in one season. Hanks also kicked off her career in grand fashion with a hat trick in the 2005 opener against New Hampshire, setting a new Notre Dame record for the earliest hat trick in a season, based on date (Aug. 26) and joining Rosella Guerrero as the only Irish freshmen to register a hat trick in their debut matches. The complete list of Notre Dame hat tricks is as follows.

*italics indicates freshman // * - indicates season opener // (4) indicates four-goal match // + - indicates NCAA tournament match // ^ - indicates conference tournament match (BIG EAST 1995-2012; ACC 2013-p)*

BIG EAST/ACC CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

Notre Dame ranked first all-time with 11 BIG EAST Championship titles, 13 appearances in the tournament final, 37 tournament victories and a .872 tournament winning percentage. The Fighting Irish also were second only to Connecticut in terms of tournament appearances, having successfully qualified for the BIG EAST Championship in 17 of their 18 seasons as a conference member (all but 2002). Notre Dame debuted in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) in 2013.

The first three teams to win the BIG EAST Championship – Providence, St. John's and Notre Dame – did so in their first appearances in the event. Providence won the first championship in 1993, St. John's in 1994 (after not playing in the '93 event), and Notre Dame won in '95 in its first year in the BIG EAST (the Fighting Irish won seven consecutive titles once they joined the BIG EAST).

SHANNON BOXX

Against all odds, Shannon Boxx enjoyed one of the most remarkable careers in U.S. Women's National Team history.

She earned her first cap at 26, when many of her teammates already had dozens of international appearances under their belts. She then went on to represent the Red, White and Blue 195 times, ranking 12th all time — and the most by an American Black woman.

She was a member of three Olympic gold medal-winning sides and finished third in the 2005 FIFA Women's World Player of the Year voting before capping her career at the age of 38 as a member of the 2015 Women's World Cup championship side.

Boxx also overcame a torn cartilage hip injury and a torn MCL, and she battled two autoimmune diseases during her 12-year USWNT career.

The Fontana, Calif., native forged her reputation as one of the most influential defensive midfielders in USWNT history. She also scored 27 goals.

In recognition of her achievements and her career, Boxx was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame on May 21, 2022

KATE MARKGRAF

The soccer world doesn't have its own version of an EGOT — someone who has won an Emmy, a Grammy, an Oscar and a Tony award. At least not yet. Aside from perhaps Heather O'Reilly, Kate Markgraf probably has come as close as any American soccer player.

She has celebrated:

- A high school title.
- Three state youth championships.
- An NCAA Division I crown.
- Several CONCACAF titles.
- Two Olympic gold medals.
- One World Cup championship.

The former U.S. Women's National Team standout now adds another honor: induction into the National Soccer Hall of Fame. Markgraf, who was elected on the Veteran Ballot, was inducted on May 6, 2023.

Markgraf enjoyed a 13-year career as one of the team's best and most important defenders. She made 201 international appearances and started for the 1999 Women's World Cup champions and two Olympic gold medal-winning sides.

The success and impact of the Notre Dame women's soccer program has not been limited to the collegiate level. Notre Dame has had at many FIFA Women's World Cups, particularly in the 1999 World Cup won by the homesteading United States. Former three-time All-American Kate (Sobrero) Markgraf played a key role in helping the U.S. claim its second World Cup in '99, as a starting defender and one of the youngest players on the roster. Markgraf started five of six games, missing only the North Korea game when she rested a sore ankle after the U.S. already had clinched the top spot in its pool.

Former high-scoring Notre Dame forward Monica Gerardo and 2002 graduate Monica Gonzalez (a former forward who converted to a defender role) represented Mexico in that country's first appearance in the World Cup in '99. The Irish pair both started Mexico's first World Cup game against Brazil, while Gerardo – who wrapped up her career at Notre Dame following the 1998 season – also started against Italy. Four-time All-America midfielder Holly Manthei's earlier appearance with the U.S. national team in the 1995 World Cup in Stockholm, Sweden, marked the first World Cup duty for a Notre Dame women's soccer player. The second-youngest player on the team following her freshman season at Notre Dame in 1995, Manthei played in two games for the third-place Americans, including a reserve stint in a 3-3 tie with China and a start in the 4-1 win over Australia. Markgraf and former Notre Dame defensive midfielder Shannon Boxx played for the U.S. third-place team at the 2003 World Cup (also played in the U.S.), with Boxx selected to the prestigious All-World Cup team. Another Notre Dame standout Candace Chapman was set to start for Canada at flank midfielder but missed the 2003 World Cup due to injury.

The Notre Dame women's soccer program once again was well-represented on multiple national teams at the 2007 World Cup in China. Boxx (recovering from an '06 knee injury) and Markgraf ('07 pregnancy) were not at 100 percent entering the tournament, but both started every match except the group-play win over Sweden (Boxx was a halftime substitute) and the third-place win over Norway (neither played), with Boxx scoring in a 3-0 quarterfinal win over England. Chapman, along with fellow former Notre Dame All-America selections Melissa Tancredi (2000-04) and Katie Thorlakson (2002-05) nearly helped Canada get out of group play, but an injury-time goal by Australia in the final group-play game gave it a 2-2 draw and a pass to the quarterfinals. Chapman scored Canada's first goal of the tournament (in a 2-1 loss to Norway), while Tancredi scored 37 seconds into the Australia contest, the second-fastest goal in tournament history.

Boxx returned with the United States at the 2011 World Cup in Germany, helping the Americans to the final match, where they fell to Japan on penalties, 3-1, following a 2-2 draw. Boxx started and went the distance in five of six matches for the U.S. (including two double-overtime contests), setting up the first American goal in the quarterfinals against Brazil with a cross that led to an own-goal (the United States won 5-3 on penalties after a 2-2 deadlock). Meanwhile, Chapman and Tancredi played in all three group-stage matches for Canada in 2011, with Chapman starting all three and Tancredi twice for the Maple Leafs, who did not advance to the knockout round.

Boxx was a member of the 2015 23-woman U.S. roster that secured FIFA Women's Cup gold for the first time since 1999, entering in the 74th minute to close out a 1-0 victory over Nigeria in the final match of Group D on June 16 in Vancouver, Canada. Tancredi capped her third career FIFA World Cup appearance with Canada during her home country's first time hosting the event. Team Canada reached the knockout stage for just the second time in seven World Cup starts, with Tancredi playing in all five matches while logging 336 total minutes and five shots (two on-goal) during the tournament.

Kiki Van Zanten ('23) made a splash with the Reggae Girlz in Qualifying, scoring the game-winning goal to deliver the Concacaf bronze medal to Jamaica. A summer later in 2023, Van Zanten made the National Team roster for the Women's World Cup.

Six different Notre Dame women's soccer players – midfielder Cindy Daws (1996), goalkeeper Jen Renola (1996), midfielder Anne Makinen (1998 and 2000) and forwards Katie Thorlakson (2004), Kerri Hanks (2006 and 2008) and Melissa Henderson (2010) – each have received a major national player-of-the-year honor during a 16-season span (1996-2011). Most notably, Notre Dame is one of only two women's soccer programs ever to produce four or more different recipients of the prestigious M.A.C. Hermann Trophy

The Hermann Trophy is named after Robert Hermann, founding Chairman of the North American Soccer League. First presented in 1967, the Hermann honors the best college soccer player as determined by a panel made up of more than 500 coaches and journalists. The Hermann Trophy merged with the M.A.C. Award in 2002.

Yu more than doubled her single-season career highs in points, goals and assists ... Yu tallied a career-best five points against No. 24 NC State scoring two goals and notching an assist ... she also added a second performance with two goals in Notre Dame's 4-0 victory at Toledo ... for the third straight season, she started all of the team's matches, extending her streak to 63 straight games started over a three-year span ... Yu was recognized by the United Soccer Coaches with a spot on the USC All-Region First Team ... the Strongsville, Ohio, native then landed on the United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-America First Team and the United Soccer Coaches All-America Third Team, receiving the first such honor of her career ... following her storied career with the Irish, she will return to compete with the United States U-23 Women's National Team.

Not only did Korbin Albert earn First Team All-America honors in her sophomore season in 2022, but she also took the soccer world by storm. A meteoric rise and dubbed a generational talent, Albert was also named a 2022 Mac Hermann Trophy Top-3 Finalist - the first Irish National Player of the Year finalist since 2010. She also earned the distinction of Top Drawer Soccer's National Player of the Year. Prior, she was named the ACC's 2022 Midfielder of the Year - the first in program history. With all that said and done, Albert left Notre Dame after two seasons when she signed a three-year contract with global power Paris Saint-Germain, trailblazing a new path for future Irish.

Career-wise, in such a short timeframe, Albert scored 28 career goals over 44 games. She accomplished eight career game-winners. She also dishd out nine career assists to finish with 65 career points.

In her breakout 2022 season, Albert poured in 16 goals, which ranked 8th in the country and tops for a midfielder. In fact, she scored 14 of her goals over the last 12 games. Breaking it down even more, she had 3 PK goals, so when looking at the other 13 - 10 came from outside the box - with three coming via direct free kicks. Also get this - nine of her 16 came against top-25 ranked opposition. In one of the best individual performances of her career, she registered an impressive hat trick against Florida State on Nov. 3, 2022. All-in-all, she finished with 37 points for the season, which ranked ninth in the country.

In 2021, she was named to the All-ACC Third Team, the ACC All-Freshman Team and the Top Drawer Soccer Freshman Best XI Team. She finished with the second most goals on the team with 12, which also ranked fourth in the ACC and 29th in the country.

Albert has since received many USWNT call-ups. She started in all but one game in the 2024 Gold Cup where she helped Team USA win the championship.

Gaetino put the collegiate soccer landscape on notice with a stellar defensive performance in 2022. She started in all 23 matches and was the anchor of the three-woman backline. The defensive trio only allowed 16 goals on the year. Furthermore, they only allowed 70 shots on goal, which equated to a stout 3.0 SOG per game. With Gaetino leading the charge, Notre Dame posted 14 shutouts in 2022, their most since 2016. Their shutout percentage ranked 8th in the country and 1st in the ACC. Before the Irish fell to UNC in the Elite Eight, they were the only team up to that point who had not surrendered a goal in the NCAA Tournament. For her efforts, Gaetino picked up many accolades, including the program's first ACC Defender of the Year.

Other major awards include: Mac Hermann Trophy Semifinalist (Top-15), First Team All-American, Top Drawer Soccer Best XI Third Team, All-ACC First Team.

In 2023, Gaetino continued to dominate, earning First Team All-American status once again. She also became the third player to win ACC Defender of the Year twice since the award's inception in 2004. She was the second player to win in back-to-back years. Gaetino also posted career numbers up top - with career highs in goals (4), assists (3) and points (11).

All-in-all, Gaetino started in 75 of 76 games played. She was a two-time First Team All-American, two-time Mac Hermann Trophy Semifinalist and a two-time ACC Defender of the Year. She also was the 2023 United Soccer Coaches National Scholar Player of the Year.

Olivia Wingate saved her best season for last and made the most of her fifth year, which was granted due to Covid in 2020. For the 2022 season, Wingate poured in a career best 14 goals, doubling her previous career best from the year prior. Those 14 goals ranked 3rd in the ACC and 10th in the country. She also recorded three game-winners.

Wingate also did more than just score, tallying five assists to notch a career-best 33 points on the year. Those 33 points ranked 4th in the ACC and 14th in the country. All-in-all, she earned four multi-goal performances, with the most memorable one being a dominant 4-0 win at home over then No. 3 Florida State. She also scored three goals in the NCAA Tournament, spurring the Irish on to the Elite Eight round. Both her goals and points per game ranked 3rd in the ACC while her shot accuracy of .607 ranked 2nd.

With that said, Wingate became Notre Dame's third All-American in 2022 (Third Team honors), joining Korbin Albert and Eva Gaetino. She also earned FirstTeam All-ACC honors as well. After the season ended, Wingate was selected No. 6 overall in the NWSL Draft by the North Carolina Courage.

Career-wise, Wingate played in 95 games with 74 starts. She scored a total of 26 goals with 11 assists to tally 63 points over her storied ND career.

In 2021, Wingate was named a Third Team All-ACC selection after recording seven goals with 19 points. Two of said goals came in the NCAA Tournament.

Wingate was drafted and still plays for the North Carolina Courage.

The most dominant freshman in the country in 2024, Izzy Engle took the collegiate soccer world by storm. Engle picked up many accolades come season's end: Mac Hermann Trophy Semifinalist, ACC Freshman of the Year, All-Atlantic Region First Team, Top Drawer Soccer Freshman of the Year and First Team All-ACC.

The rook played in all 22 games which included 12 starts. She finished the season with 19 goals, which ranked as the sixth most by a Notre Dame freshman all-time.

Her 19 goals were tied for the second-most in the country this past season and were the most by a freshman since 2014.

Engle scored nine of her goals over the last nine games, being one of the primary reasons the Irish made a run to the NCAA Quarterfinal Round. She led the Irish in NCAA Tournament goals with three, scoring against Milwaukee, Kentucky and top-seed Mississippi State. The latter was the game-winner to advance the Irish to the Quarterfinals

Engle ultimately finished with 39 points which ranked second in the ACC and sixth nationally. Her 0.86 goals per game ranked second nationally. Her 1.77 points per game ranked 11th nationally. All-in-all, she recorded five game-winners.
