THE GAME

- Saturday's game will mark the fifth time that NC State and Notre Dame have met on the gridiron and the fourth regular season meeting between the two teams.
- The teams faced off following the 2002 campaign in the Toyota Gator Bowl, when the Wolfpack capped off the winningest season in school history (11-3) with a 28-6 victory over the 11th-ranked Irish. That was the only time NC State has won a game involving two teams that had 10 wins entering the game.
- On the day that NC State celebrated the 50th anniversary of the first game in Carter-Finley Stadium, the two teams slugged it out in the torrential rain caused by the outer bands of Hurricane Matthew. A blocked punt return by FS Dexter Wright early in the fourth quarter was the game's lone touchdown and gave the Pack a 10-3 victory.
- The No. 14 Pack traveled to South Bend to take on the ninth-ranked Irish on Oct. 28, 2017. Notre Dame won that contest handily: 35-14.
- In 2023, the 10th-ranked Irish visited Carter-Finley, for what turned out to be a disjointed game due to a lengthy weather delay (the game kicked off at 12:08 pm and didn't conclude until 5:24 pm). The Irish jumped out to a 10-0 lead and never trailed in the contest, but led by just a touchdown heading into the final frame before scoring three straight TDs. The final score was 45-24, marking the first time since 2021 that an opponent had scored more than 30 points on the Wolfpack.
- The Wolfpack has blocked a punt for a touchdown in two of the four games against the Fighting Irish. In 2016, Pharoah McKeever blocked a punt that was returned by Dexter Wright for the game's only TD by either team, while in 2017, James Smith-Williams blocked a punt that was recovered by Germaine Pratt in the end zone.
- Notre Dame head coach Marcus Freeman played against the Pack during his freshman year at Ohio State. Although he did not record a tackle in that contest, which was played in Raleigh on Sept. 18, 2004, he was listed in the participation.
- NC State's McMurray Family Director of Athletics Boo Corrigan is a 1990 Notre Dame graduate. His father, the late Gene Corrigan, served as the AD for the Fighting Irish from 1981-87 before being named the Commissioner of the ACC. Boo's daughter Finley, also graduated from Notre Dame and was a cheerleader for the Irish.
- Wolfpack head coach Dave Doeren and Notre Dame defensive coordinator Chris Ash were college teammates at Drake, then coached together there and again at Wisconsin in 2010.
- NC State and Notre Dame also have some common ties in their respective histories. The most obvious is Lou Holtz, who coached the Pack from 1972-75 posting a 33-12-3 record and three top 20 final rankings and an ACC title. Holtz served as head coach of the Irish from 1986-96.
- Holtz isn't the only former Wolfpack head coach with Notre Dame connections. John "Clipper" Smith played at Notre Dame under the legendary Knute Rockne, where he was a consensus All-American in 1927. Just a few years later, he took the head coaching job at NC State, leading the Pack to a 10-11-5 record between 1931-33. Smith, who was inducted into the NFF Hall of Fame was honored in August on AP's All-Time All-America team (second team).
- Although this week's game is the Wolfpack's first road trip of the season, it's the first time the team has boarded a plane in 2025. The first road game was a 100 mile bus trip to Wake Forest and the other was a 22 mile ride over to Duke.

In the Wolfpack's 56-10 win over Campbell, the offense gained 607 yards of total offense. That was the seventh-highest total in school history and the highest since 2018.

Even more impressive? The Wolfpack gained those yards on just 60 total plays - an average of 10.9 yards per play. That's the highest mark in school history. The only game that came even close was way back in 2003, when the Wolfpack gained 9.6 yards per play against Kansas in the Citrus Bowl (incidentally, the Jayhawks' line-backer coach that season was none other than Dave Doeren).

The 371 yards passing in the contest was the most since 408 yards vs. Wake Forest in 2021.

The Wolfpack is averaging 447.7 yards of total offense this season - a mark that would rank fourth in school history if the season ended today.

UPPING HIS AVERAGE

He might have only played 14 snaps in the Wolfpack's 56-10 win over Campbell last week, but Hollywood Smothers definitely put in a full day's work.

Smothers rushed for 123 yards in just four carries, including a career-long 59-yard touchdown scamper. That 30.8 yards per carry average upped his season mark to 6.9 - the ninth-best mark in the P4 for the season. That average in second in the FBS among players with 100 or more carries in 2025.

Incidentally, he also caught two passes for another 30 yards, including a 16-yard TD.

So what was he doing on the other eight snaps? Head coach Dave Doeren said he was "outstanding" in protection.

100 YARDS

Hollywood Smothers has now rushed for 100+ yards in four games this season.

The Charlotte native posted what was then a career-high 140 yards in the win over Virginia, topped that with 164 yards the next week at Wake Forest and then turned in 123 yards at Duke and 123 vs. Campbell.

He is the first Pack player since Nyheim Hines in 2017 to rush for 100+ yards in three straight contests. In the P4 this season, he is one of just three players with four or more 100-yard rushing games.

Here's a look at the P4 leaders in 100-yard games this season:

Name	School	100-yd Gms
Ahmad Hardy	Missouri	5
Justice Haynes	Michigan	5
Hollywood Smothers	NC State	4

HOLLYGOOD

More on Hollywood Smothers.

The redshirt sophomore leads the ACC in rushing with 693 yards - the second-best mark in the FBS. His 115.5 yards per game is also the best in the league (sixth nationally) and is 20.5 yards per game higher than any other ACC player.

Just 17 games into his NC State career, Smothers already ranks eighth in NC State history in career rushing yards per game with 74.4, while his career 6.7 yards per carry mark would blow the school record (5.46) out of the water if he had enough attempts to qualify (the mark is 200 attempts, he has 189).

Smothers broke the 1,000 yard mark in the loss at Duke and now boasts 1,264 yards in his NC State career.

His career average doesn't tell the whole story. He averaged just 28.5 yards in his first four games in NC State uniform, then missed two games with an injury. Two games later vs. Stanford, he rushed for an even 100 yards and has never looked back.

WITH A PURPOSE

More on Smothers.

Not only does he lead the ACC in rushing, but he ranks second in the league in all purpose yards as his 136.2 yards per game is the 10th-best mark in the FBS as well.

Smothers has 21 receptions this season - tied for second on the team.

CJ RUNS

In the postgame press conference following the win over Virginia, running back Hollywood Smothers declared "the baby giraffe can run."

That nickname referred to the Pack's long-legged QB, CJ Bailey, and he can, indeed, run. He rushed for three scores in the first three games of the season, including a 30-yarder and a 12-yard in the win over Virginia.

Last season, Bailey rushed for 279 yards, the 11th-highest rushing total for a quarterback in school history. With 357 rushing yards in his career, he already ranks seventh on the career list for rushing yards by a QB.

Bailey's eight career rushing scores is the most for a Wolfpack QB since Jacoby Brissett had nine (2014-15).

Rk	Name	Years	Rush
			GP	TD
1.	Philip Rivers	2000-03	51	17
	Russell Wilson	2008-10	36	17
3.	Jamie Barnette	1996-99	45	16
4.	Jacoby Brissett	2014-15	26	9
5.	CJ Bailey	2024-pres	14	8

CJ THROWS

Since Dave Doeren became HC prior to 2013 season, Wolfpack quarterbacks have passed for 300+ yards 38 times.

With just 15 career starts, CJ Bailey has reached that threshold five times, including three games in 2025. He threw for 318 yards passing in the season opener vs. East Carolina, posted a career-high 364 yards at Duke and turned in 337 yards while playing just one half (+ one series) vs. Campbell.

Ryan Finley had 18 300-yard outputs in 39 games started from 2016-18 while Devin Leary posted eight 300+ yard passing games in 25 career starts.

With 4,073 career passing yards, Bailey ranks 12th in school history, but his career average of 226.3 passing yards per game ranks fifth.

ON TARGET

Not only is CJ Bailey piling up the passing yardage, but his throws have been accurate - particularly in 2025

The Miami native has connected on 75% of his throws this season (.746), the best mark in the ACC and the No. 5 mark in the FBS.

To put that in perspective, the school record for season completion percentage is .721 by Philip Rivers in 2003 (before Bailey was born).

For his career, Bailey boasts a .686 completion mark. The school record for career completion percentage is .645, set by Ryan Finley (2016-18).

NOT SO SPECIAL ...

Special teams has been one of the Wolfpack's strong points under Dave Doeren, particularly in recent seasons. In 2025, however, special teams has struggled in various ways in various games.

In the season opener, the Pack missed two field goals (40, 46) as new kicker Nick Konieczynski struggled in game situations.

Against Wake Forest, the Deacs took the opening kickoff back 98-yards for a score.

At Duke, NC State missed an extra point and had a field goal blocked, while an offside call on the punt return unit gave the Blue Devils a first down that led to a score.

In the loss to Virginia Tech, only one of Charlie Birtwistle's four kick-offs went for a touchback as the Hokies had three kickoff returns for 69 yards.

And last week vs. Campbell, freshman punt returner Teddy Hoffmann dropped two returns, one of which was recovered at the NC State 14 and resulted in Campbell's only touchdown of the day.

... BUT PRETTY YOUNG

Many of the Wolfpack's special teams units are being manned by young players in 2025. True or redshirt freshmen have played 548 total snaps on special teams for the Wolfpack so far this season, with 184 snaps coming from true freshmen..

WHERE THERE'S A WILL

They say where there's a Will, there's a way. That has certainly been true for the Wolfpack in 2025. Wilson has converted for a first down or touchdown eight of the 11 times he's rushed the ball this season (and two of his three pass completions have been for first downs as well).

Wilson has scored three touchdowns in just 18 snaps during his true freshman campaign. He is three-of-three on fourth down conversions.

South Carolina's Mr. Football for 2024 came in and converted on two fourth-and-ones in the win over Virginia. At Wake Forest, he made the first down on a fourth-and-one (in all three instances, the Pack went on to score).

At Duke, Wilson wasn't called in for any fourth down plays, but he did score touchdowns on short yardage: a 1st-and-goal from the one and a one yard rush on third down in the fourth quarter to pull the Pack within five.

Against Virginia Tech, Wilson converted for first downs on two of his three attempts and versus Campbell, he scored the Wolfpack's first touchdown on a second-and-goal.

Here's a look at Wilson's conversions on rushes this season:

	4th	3rd	2nd	1st	Total Conv

TERRELL ME SOMETHING GOOD

Sophomore wide receiver Terrell Anderson probably wasn't on anybody's bingo card as being the Wolfpack's top wideout in 2025, but he has certainly become the leader of that unit.

Anderson is tied for second on the team in receptions with 21 (only tight end Justin Joly has more and running back Hollywood Smothers also has 21).

Anderson entered the game vs. Duke with 23 receptions for 265 yards in his 16 career games played. In the three games since (Duke, Virginia Tech and Campbell), he has hauled in 12 catches for 281 yards (a 23.4 yards per catch mark) and scored three touchdowns.

The Greensboro native racked up 166 receiving yards on six receptions at Duke - the most for a Wolfpack player since the 2018 season, when Kelvin Harmon had 247 yards vs. Syracuse.

MORE BISCUITS, PLEASE

When linebacker Caden Fordham was just a little guy, his dessert of choice was his grandma's biscuits topped with cane syrup. As a toddler, he would waddle up to the kitchen table, time and time again, and ask for "more biscuits, please." From that time forward, he affectionately became known as "Biscuit" to his family and friends.

Since then, Fordham has been known by that name to his coaches and teammates as well.

Fordham, whose dad Tom was a four-year letterman as an offensive lineman at Florida State and played 10 years with 44 starts in the NFL with the Jaguars, Steelers, and Panthers, entered game seven last season as the team's leading tackler in his first season as a starter. The WLB (who was taking the spot vacated by Butkus and Bednarik Award winner Payton Wilson) had tallied 49 total stops before suffering a torn ACL in practice leading up to the Cal game.

Fordham attacked his rehab like he used to attack his grandma's biscuits, and was cleared to return prior to preseason camp. He is a preseason candidate for the national comeback player of the year award and is on the watch list for the Bednarik Award. He also earned the honor of wearing the No. 1 jersey for 2025.

In his first six games back after the injury, Fordham has tallied 59 tackles and leads the ACC (12th in the FBS) in tackles per game with 9.8.

CAN YOU SPARE A NICKEL?

Or a safety?

The nickel and safety positions have been like the Bermuda Triangle for the Wolfpack defense in 2025.

Before the season had even started, the Pack had lost three players for the season at those spots: Isaiah Crowell and Terrente Hinton. In game 1, Jaren Sensabaugh went down with a season-ending injury. In game 3, Jackson Vick was injured and has missed the past three games. In game 5, Brody Barnhardt went down with an injury and missed the Campbell contest.

Last week vs. Campbell redshirt freshman Jivan Baly got the start at nickel, playing 65 snaps on defense and tallying seven tackles. The number of snaps from scrimmage Baly had played prior to that game? 0!

Against Duke on Sept. 20, redshirt freshman Asaad Brown got the start at nickel. Prior to that game, he had played just 10 snaps on defense (he also started the VT game at nickel before starting at strong safety vs. Campbell).

Here's a look at the different starters at nickel and safety in 2025:

Nickel	Jackson Vick (3), Asaad Brown (2), Jivan Baly (1)
SS	JJ Johnson (4), Ronnie Royal (1), Asaad Brown (1)
FS	Ronnie Royal (3), Brody Barnhardt (3)

FOUR MEN AND A BABY

One of these things is not like the other.

Four players have started every game this season on the offensive line for the Wolfpack: center Jalen Grant, left guard Anthony Carter, Jr., left tackle Jacarrius Peak and right tackle Teague Andersen . Those four players have combined to play in 171 career games and start 126 contests.

In game 5, true freshman Spike Sowell entered the starting lineup Sowell got the nod at right guard (he has also seen limited time at center this season).

He became the first true freshman to start a game on the offensive line since Ickey Ekwonu in 2019 (Ekwonu would go on to be a first round NFL draft pick).

Name	Career		At NC State
	GP	GS	GP	GS
Jalen Grant	52	45	6	6
Anthony Carter	40	32	30	32
Jacarrius Peak	30	25	30	25
Teague Andersen	29	24	6	6
Spike Sowell	6	2	6	2

MADE YOU MISS!

Hollywood Smothers has escaped the opponent defender 34 times this season. That number of missed tackles forced ranks second in the country in 2025 according to PFF.

Smothers also ranks second nationally with 481 yards after contact.

BOOMER NOONER

Graduate student Caden Noonkester has been a sneaky weapon for the Wolfpack, starting the last 36 games at punter. That's the longest starting streak on the 2025 Wolfpack squad.

His 45.9 yard punting average would rank second in the ACC (15th in the FBS) if he had enough attempts to qualify.

Noonkester boasts the third-best career punt average in school history (43.4 ypp). His 168 career boots ranks seventh in the record book, while his 7,279 yards is also the seventh-best mark ever for a Pack punter.

TAKE AWAY THE BIG PLAY

Despite holding three opponents to less than 100 yards rushing this season, the Wolfpack ranks 57th nationally in rushing defense. In three of six games this season (East Carolina, Wake Forest and Campbell) the NC State defense didn't give up a run longer than 15 yards.

In the three other games this season (in which the Wolfpack posts a 1-2 mark), the opponent has posted runs of 60+ yards, as Virginia busted a 66 yard run, Duke also had a 66-yarder and Virginia Tech scored on an 85-yard run.

Take away those three runs and the Wolfpack defense has allowed 574 yards rushing on the season (which would be just 95.7 ypg).

NC State has given up passes of 79 yards and 70 yards, but has not given up five explosive passes (20 or more yards) in a game this season. Virginia Tech had a season high of 11 explosive plays against the Wolfpack, but only two came through the air. The Wolfpack defense has allowed just one opponent to throw for more than 300 yards this season (ECU).

ON THE ROAD EARLY

This season marked the first time in 26 years that the NC State's first two conference games were on the road. The Wolfpack opened ACC play with a win at Wake Forest on Sept. 11 and then took the quick trip to Duke on Sept. 20.

In 1999, the Pack opened league play with games at Florida State and Wake Forest - dropping both contests. The Pack also had two road games to open ACC play in 1978, winning at Wake Forest and then falling at Maryland.

You have to go back another decade - to 1968 - to find the previous time the Pack had opened the league with two road games.

DOWN NOT OUT

In two of its five games this season, NC State was down at the half (10 points vs. Virginia and seven vs. Wake Forest) and came back to win the contest.

It marked the first time since 2014 that the Wolfpack won games in back-to-back weeks after being down at the half (17-3 to Georgia Southern and 21-18 to Old Dominion).

In the playoff era, only three ACC teams have won back-to-back games after trailing by seven or more points at the break. Miami did it in 2024 vs. Virginia Tech and Cal and BC did it last year vs. Michigan State and Western Kentucky.

BAILEY IS RED-DY

In his Wolfpack career, quarterback CJ Bailey has had 85 touches in the redzone (passes/rushes/receptions). In those 85 touches, he's scored 30 TDs and has not turned the ball over.

Bailey was 5-5 (all touchdowns) in the red zone last week vs. Campbell.

FOURTH AND NO

The Wolfpack defense made crucial fourth down plays in each of the first two games of 2025 to preserve the victories for the Wolfpack.

In the season opener, with the Pack holding a 24-17 lead, ECU drove down to the NC State nine with under a minute remaining. On 4th-and-1, Jamel Johnson tackled the receiver for a one-yard loss.

In week two vs. Virginia, NC State came back from a 10-point half-time deficit and had held the Cavaliers to a single second-half score. With just over a minute to play, Virginia had 1st-and-10 at the Wolfpack 12, but Cian Slone intercepted the ball in the end zone to preserve the victory.

DENYING THE RUN

The win over Campbell marked the 56th time under Dave Doeren that the Wolfpack has held the opponent to less than 100 yards rushing. It was the third time in 2025 that the opponent failed to reach 100 yards rushing.

ECU's 30 total rushing yards in the season opener tied as the 14th-lowest for Pack opponent in the Doeren era. It was the lowest rushing total for an opponent since 2023. Wake Forest rushed for just 59 yards.

ONE SCORE WONDERS

Since 2020, NC State has played in 32 one-score games (+/- 8 points). That ranks as the fourth-highest tally in the FBS during that time frame.

No other FBS squad has boasted more one-score victories during the Pack, however, as Dave Doeren's squad has posted a 20-12 mark in those close games. That one-score win total ties with Texas Tech, followed by UTSA with 19, and Oklahoma State, and Washington with 18.

In 13 seasons under Dave Doeren, the Wolfpack has finished 55 games with just a one-score differential. Overall, Doeren is 32-23 in one-score games. Three of the Pack's contests this season have been by one score.

SEVEN FOR SIX

Tight end Justin Joly scored 12 of the Wolfpack 34 points in the win at Wake Forest, as CJ Bailey found him in the end zone for five and four yard scores.

Joly caught four passes on the day (he was targeted four times), but spent the other 59 plays helping pave the way for the Pack's 205 rushing yards and was even credited with a pancake block.

After just 19 games in Wolfpack uniform, Joly's 71 career receptions is tied for fifth all time for an NC State tight end, while his 917 receiving yards is also the fifth-best career mark for a player at his position. He has seven touchdown receptions for the Wolfpack (plus four at UConn).

Joly was named to the preseason watch list for the Biletnikoff and Mackey Awards.

MULTIPLE MULTIPLES

The Sept. 6 win over Virginia marked the seventh time in the Dave Doeren era at NC State that multiple players rushed for multiple touchdowns in a single game.

In the Pack's 35-31 win, QB CJ Bailey and RB Hollywood Smothers each rushed for a pair of TDs.

Here's a look at the other multiple multiples since 2013:

9/6/25	W, UVA	Hollywood Smothers, 2	CJ Bailey, 2
11/2/24	W, Stan	Hollywood Smothers, 2	Jordan Waters, 2
12/29/17	W, Az St.	Nyheim Hines, 3	Reggie Gallaspy 2
11/25/17	W, UNC	Nyheim Hines, 2	Ryan Finley, 2
9/1/16	W, W&M	Jaylen Samuels, 2	Matthew Dayes, 2
9/26/15	W, S. Ala.	Matthew Dayes, 3	Reggie Gallaspy, 3
			Shadrach Thornton, 2
9/5/15	W, Troy	Jaylen Samuels, 3	Matthew Dayes, 2

THICK SIX

When 280-lb. defensive tackle Isaiah Shirley rumbled and stumbled 41 yards to the end zone after picking off a pass in the win at Wake Forest, it marked the first 'thick six' for the Pack since the 2020 season. Shirley was named the ACC's Defensive Lineman of the Week for his performance in the victory.

Here's a look at the Pack's "thick sixes" since 2000:

Name	Yds	Opponent	Year
Isaiah Shirley	41	@ Wake Forest	2025
Alim McNeill	18	@ Virginia	2020
Darian Roseboro	20	Syracuse	2015
Pharoah McKever	82	@ Syracuse	2014
Willie Young	34	@ Clemson	2006
Alan Hallaway	43	Florida St.	2003

SELLING OUT

NC State has not only sold out its first four home games of 2025, but the next two (vs. Georgia Tech and Florida State) are already sold out as well.

That will make 26 straight sellouts for Wolfpack football, - the longest sellout streak in school history. The streak dates back to Sept. 17, 2022 vs. Texas Tech.

The 2024 season marked the first time in school history that the Pack had sold out of single-game tickets in consecutive seasons. Season tickets have also sold out each of the past three years (and eight times under head coach Dave Doeren).

CONTINUITY

NC State has a distinct advantage that few programs in the FBS can boast, as head coach Dave Doeren is now in his 13th season at the helm of Wolfpack football (and no, he doesn't think the number 13 is unlucky, because his wife Sara's birthday is on the 13th!).

It marks the second-longest tenure in school history (Earle Edwards was coach for 17 seasons between 1954-70).

It's also the second-longest current tenure in the ACC (behind Clemson's Dabo Swinney) and a mark that is tied for fifth among current FBS coaches.

Here's a look at the longest tenured coaches in the FBS:

Rk.	Name, School	Year
1.	Kirk Ferentz, Iowa	26th
2.	Kyle Whittingham, Utah	21st
3.	Troy Calhoun, Air Force	19th
4.	Dabo Swinney, Clemson	18th
5.	Dave Doeren, NC State	13th
	Mark Stoops, Kentucky	13th

DOEREN IT RIGHT

In Dave Doeren's 12 campaigns at NC State, his teams have had seven 8+ win seasons, four nine-win seasons and qualified for 10 bowl games. Five of his players have won seven national awards, three have been first-round draft picks and NC State posted what tied as the longest home winning streak in school history (16 wins between 2020-22).

Doeren is the winningest coach in NC State history with 91 victories.

CJ + LBs

When 17-year-old CJ Bailey arrived on NC State's campus in January of 2024, he weighed in at 187 lbs. The lanky 6'6 freshman ended up playing in 12 games and getting nine starts under his belt.

That belt may be a little tighter than this time a year ago, as he has added 25+ lbs. to his lanky frame and has weighed in at as much as 213 (although his playing weight is closer to 205)!

GETTING COORDINATED

Although NC State boasts a new coordinator on both sides of the ball this season, only one is a new face for the Wolfpack.

On offense, 30-year coaching veteran Kurt Roper is now calling the plays. Roper has been on Dave Doeren's Wolfpack staff since 2019, coaching quarterbacks, running backs and now running that side of the ball. He has previously served as the OC at Duke, Florida and South Carolina.

On defense, DJ Eliot has taken the reins and will coach the linebackers. A 27-year coaching veteran, the 2025 campaign will mark Eliot's 10th as a coordinator.

This season (technically) marks the first under Doeren with new coordinators on both sides of the ball. (Although in 2020, Tim Beck joined the staff as offensive coordinator and Tony Gibson was named defensive coordinator after serving as Co-DC the previous season).

BLOOD IN THE BRICKS

One thing you might hear often if you hang around NC State football, is the phrase "blood in the bricks." It references those whose hard work and dedication helped build the success and culture of the Wolfpack program.

NC STATE IN OVERTIME

Year	Opp. Site	Result
2022	¹⁸ UNC	A	W, 30-27 ^{20T}
2021	⁹ Clemson	H	W, 27-21 ^{20T}

This season, the Wolfpack coaching staff is made up of several players who can claim "blood in the bricks." Former Pack wide receiver Gavin Locklear was named tight ends coach in the offseason after serving as a quality control analyst. He originally walked on under Doeren before earning a scholarship prior to the 2016 season. The Apex native, who saw action in 38 career games, came back from a horrific leg fracture during his playing career.

Former Pack linebacker Isaiah Moore is now serving as a defensive QC, working mainly with the linebackers. Moore was a five-year starter during his career under Doeren and a three-time team captain. He also suffered a serious injury during his playing career, coming back from a torn ACL.

Nick Treco played safety for the Pack from 2019-23, mainly on special teams. Now working as a graduate assistant for the defense, Treco was a two-time defensive scout team player of the year.

Former Pack linebacker Dantonio Burnette has served as the Director of Strength & Conditioning for Pack Football since 2016. He played for Coach Chuck Amato from 1999-2002.

Alvis Whitted, who played wide receiver under Mike O'Cain from 1994-97, is working with the team as a senior offensive analyst. Also a standout track performer, Whitted played in the NFL from 1998-2006.

Former Pack running back Reggie Gallaspy is working in the Pack's strength and conditioning department, while former offensive lineman Tyler Jones is working with recruiting and DD Hoggard is the longtime Director of Player Development. Even the team chaplain, Al Byrd, is a former player.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

To gauge the importance of Wolfpack Nation on the NC State football team's success, you only need to check the records. NC State has won 30 of its last 38 games in Carter-Finley Stadium (since 2020).

In 2022, NC State tied the school record for the longest home winning streak at 16 before falling in the last home game of the season. That streak, which tied the mark set under head coach Lou Holtz from 1972-75, was the sixth-best active home winning streak in the FBS at the time.

Since the beginning of the 2017 season, the Wolfpack has posted a 45-12 mark in games played at Carter-Finley Stadium.

As far as ACC games go, the Pack has won 14 of its last 20 at home.

ADDING A LIMB

The Dave Doeren head coaching tree added another limb following the 2024 regular season, when Tony Gibson, who has served as defensive coordinator for the past five seasons, was named the head coach at Marshall.

Gibson became the fourth coach who has worked under Doeren at NC State to become a current head coach, joining Mike Uremovich (Ball State), Eliah Drinkwitz (Missouri), and Tim Beck (Coastal Carolina). Rod Carey, who was an assistant under Doeren at Northern Illinois in 2011 and 2012, would go on to be named the Huskies head coach, a position he held from 2013-18.

Here’s a look at Doeren’s former assistants who have gone on to become head coaches

Years
Name	under Doeren	School	Years
Rod Carey	2011-12	Northern Illinois	2013-18
Mike Uremovich	2013-15	Ball State	2025-pres.
Eliah Drinkwitz	2016-18	Missouri	2020-pres.
Tim Beck	2020-22	Coastal Carolina	2023-pres.
Tony Gibson	2020-24	Marshall	2025-pres.

ACC-OMPLISHMENT

Since the beginning of the 2020 season, NC State ranks second in the ACC in conference victories. The Wolfpack has posted a 27-18 mark in league play over the past six seasons, second only to Clemson’s 34-10 mark.

Here’s a look at the league records since 2020:

School	ACC Record Since 2020
Clemson	34-10
NC State	27-18
Miami	25-17
Louisville	24-20
UNC	23-20
Pitt	23-21
Florida St.	20-22

Virginia Tech	20-23
Wake Forest	17-24
Boston College	16-29
Duke	17-27
Virginia	17-26
Syracuse	15-30

Cal, SMU and Stanford not included since 2024 is their first year in the league, however results against those teams are included.

MAKING THE GRADE

NC State’s football program has excelled in the classroom during head coach Dave Doeren’s tenure, but recently has enjoyed unprecedented success.

The Wolfpack posted its highest spring term GPA ever for the spring of 2025 and its GPA for the 2024-25 academic year was also the highest in program history. It also marked the first time that the term and cumulative GPAs for the program were both above a 3.0.

THIS AIN’T TEXAS

But the Wolfpack football squad is certainly getting a good sample of the Lone Star State.

In the offseason, NC State added four defensive players and a tight end who hail from Texas. That group includes three talented transfers and two true freshmen: DE Joseph Ade-dire (Arlington), LB Ke’Von Carter (San Antonio), LB LaCori-an Hodge (Arlington), CB Brian Nelson II (Pearland) and TE Ian Flynt (Katy).

In the past 30 years, the most players on the Wolfpack roster from Texas was three in 2000, 2001 and 2002, when George Anderson, Rod Johnson and Victor Stephens brought their talents east to Raleigh.

All five Texans saw action in the win over Campbell.

BEFORE THE FOURTH

One of the points of emphasis for NC State football heading into 2025 was to come out of the gates stronger. NC State outscored the opposition 155-85 in the fourth quarter last season, but was outscored 307-216 in the first three quarters.

This season, the Pack has reversed that trend: scoring a combined 179 points and averaging 29.8 points in the first three quarters and just 24 (4.0) in the fourth.

MARGIN CALLS

Winning the turnover battle has been a must for NC State in recent years.

In the past six seasons (2020-25), the Pack posts a 26-2 record when winning the TO margin and is 6-16 when committing more than the opponent (last week’s win over Campbell was only the 11th victory when the Pack has lost the TO margin under Doeren!).

The Pack has won 15 of its last 16 games when winning the TO margin.

LEADERS OF THE PACK

The week prior to the opener, NC State head coach Dave Doeren announced the Wolfpack's team captains for the 2025 season. These leaders, as voted on by their teammates: QB CJ Bailey, LB Sean Brown, OG Anthony Carter, Jr., and LB Caden Fordham.

"All four of these men have earned their place as leaders by their words and their actions," said Doeren. "They represent the best of what we are, on and off the field, and have earned the respect of their teammates and their coaches."

Postgraduate linebacker Sean Brown earned the honor for the second-straight season. An honorable mention All-ACC performer last season, Brown has played in 48 career contests for the Wolfpack at linebacker (2024, '25) and safety (2023).

Fellow linebacker Caden Fordham suffered a season-ending knee injury in 2024, his first year as a starter. Also a postgraduate, Fordham has been named to the ACC Academic Honor Roll each of the past three years.

Brown and Fordham are both on the preseason watch list for the Bednarik Award.

Sophomore QB CJ Bailey is the youngest player ever to be voted a team captain for the season under Doeren. The preseason candidate for the Manning and Maxwell Awards posted some of the top numbers in school history for a freshman quarterback last season.

Graduate Anthony Carter, Jr. is the most experienced returning offensive player on the squad, with 40 career games played under his belt. He has started 32 career contests at guard and has been a three-time All ACC Academic performer. The three-time All-ACC Academic honoree will earn a master's degree in December and has been named a finalist for the William Campbell Trophy.

FAMILY TRADITION

Ropers run deep on the Wolfpack football staff and football runs deep in the Roper family.

Offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Kurt Roper and his brother Zac, the Pack's special teams QC coach, are coaching together at their third different school. The brothers have also crossed paths on the staffs at Ole Miss (1999-2004) and Duke (2008-13).

Along with brother Dan, Kurt and Zac grew up in the nomadic life of a football coach's family.

Their father Bobby played for Frank Broyles at the University of Arkansas, where he was a member of the 1964 national championship Razorback team.

He went on to enjoy a successful career in coaching that began under Bear Bryant at the University of Alabama and included stops at Wichita State, The Citadel, Virginia, Iowa State, Pitt, Tennessee, Oregon State, and Texas A&M. Roper was the defensive coordinator of the 1976 national championship Pitt Panthers.

FAMILY TRADITION, Part 2

Redshirt sophomore quarterback Lex Thomas is the third member of the Thomas family to play for the Wolfpack, following in the footsteps of his older brothers Thayer and Drake.

Thayer played wide receiver from 2018-22, tallying 215 career receptions - the second-highest total in school history. He is now on the practice squad for the Minnesota Vikings.

Drake, a first-team All-ACC performer at linebacker, played from 2019-22 and was the Pack's leading tackler twice in his career. He now plays for the Seattle Seahawks.

Lex redshirted last season and his 14 snaps in 2024 versus Clemson were the first of his career. He is the second Thomas brother to throw for a touchdown, as Thayer threw for four in his career. Lex's first collegiate TD throw was a 40-yarder to Terrell Anderson. Thayer also had 24 receiving TDs.

Drake scored a touchdown of his own during his Wolfpack career, reaching the end zone on a 38-yard pick six vs. Syracuse in 2021.

LEAGUE LEGACY

The Wolfpack has three players whose fathers played significant time in the NFL: LB Caden Fordham, NIC Jaren Sensabaugh and C Spike Sowells.

Fordham's father, Tom, played at Florida State and then on to play 10 years in the NFL with the Jaguars, Steelers and Panthers, starting 44 games.

Gerald Sensabaugh played at East Tennessee State and UNC before his eight-year NFL career, where he played for the Cowboys and Jaguars.

Spike's dad, Isaac Sr, played collegiately at Indiana before his six-year NFL career.

FREAKY PACK

Three Wolfpack players made the list of 101 "freaks" as selected by The Athletic's Bruce Feldman. The annual list recognizes the most athletic players in college football.

Offensive tackle Jacarrius Peak was ranked 31st on the list. In the offseason, Peak clocked in at 4.86 in the 40 and hit 19.8 mph on the GPS. He jumped 32.5 inches, broad jumped 9-3 and timed a very impressive 4.37-second shuttle. (That would've been the fastest shuttle time of any offensive lineman at the 2024 NFL combine). He bench pressed 405 pounds, squatted 585 and cleaned 350.

Duke Scott came in at No. 66 on the list, which called him "one of the strongest running backs in college football." The redshirt freshman power cleaned 375 pounds this offseason and squatted 550. His vertical jump was 37.5 inches, he ran the 40 in 4.35 40 and clocked a 4.23 shuttle time.

Linebacker Sean Brown was No. 75 on the list. Although Brown has added weight since his days as a safety, the publication said he "still runs like a DB, and a fast one at that." His 40 time was a 4.47 with a 3.97 shuttle. He boasts a 10-3 broad jump and a 38.5-inch vertical jump, while squatting 530 pounds, benching 365 and cleaning 325.

NUMBER ONE

Since 2014, the honor of wearing the No. 1 jersey has been awarded to the Wolfpack player who exhibits elite work ethic and practice and training habits, while also serving as an exemplary leader. This season, LB Caden Fordham has earned that honor.

Fordham was the team's leading tackler last season before suffering a season ending knee injury in practice. The postgraduate attacked his rehab in order to return full strength for 2025.

"Caden is the alpha wolf of our football team," said Doeren. "He learned under some of the best linebackers in school history - Payton Wilson, Drake Thomas and Isaiah Moore - and is carrying that tradition forward. I look forward to watching him lead on and off the field this season."

Here's a look at who has worn the honorary No. 1 for the Pack: under Doeren

Year	Name, Pos.
2014	Jarvis Byrd, CB	2020	Isaiah Moore, LB
2015	Hakim Jones, SAF	2021	Isaiah Moore, LB
2016	Jaylen Samuels, TE	2022	Isaiah Moore, LB
2017	Jaylen Samuels, TE/H	2023	Davin Vann, DE
2018	Stephen Louis, WR	2024	Davin Vann, DE
2019	James Smith-Williams, DE	2025	Caden Fordham, LB

AWARD WINNERS

Head coach Dave Doeren has coached five different Wolfpack players to seven different national awards.

2017	Bradley Chubb, DE	Nagurski Trophy
		Hendricks Award
2018	Garrett Bradbury, C	Rimington Trophy
2022	Christopher Dunn, PK	Groza Award
2023	Payton Wilson, LB	Bednarik Award
		Butkus Award
	Joe Shimko, LS	Mannely Award

CHANGE OF PLANS

Head coach Dave Doeren's original plan was not to be a football coach.

In fact, when he left Kansas to attend college at Drake, his plan was to play football, earn a pre-med degree, go to med school and become an orthopedic surgeon.

He ended up accomplishing the first two.

Doeren majored in pre-medical biology, earning Academic All-America honors as a senior and took the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT).

After his junior year at Drake, he needed to have both of his knees scope and was so interested, he asked to watch his own surgery. But as he went through the rehab process, he realized that his surgeon didn't have much time to talk to his patients or to build relationships - something that was very important to him in his career choice.

That summer, he coached 7-on-7 drills for his old high school coach and never turned back. He realized that coaching was the way he could impact others and be involved in their lives and more than three decades later, he's still in the game.

THE GOATS

We've got goats. Seriously.

In an ongoing effort to improve sustainability, NC State Athletics is partnering with Triangle Goatscape to clear land adjacent to the outdoor practice facility on Westchase Blvd.

Known as 'nature's weed-whackers,' a group of goats will graze the invasive weeds and brush that damage the landscape, helping the Pack avoid the use of harmful chemicals or noisy, gasoline-powered equipment.

NC State Athletics has long been recognized for its sustainability programs, earning Front Office Sports' 2024 Most Sustainable Award, as well as recognition from the City of Raleigh, Carolina Recycling Association, and Green Sports Alliance.

The Wolfpack community is invited to help NC State Athletics strive for zero waste at every home football game by properly sorting their waste on game day between recycling, compost or landfill.

NON-CONS WON

NC State has lost just two non-conference home contests under head coach Dave Doeren, who is now in his 13th season at the helm of the Wolfpack program. During his tenure, the Pack has posted a 32-2 mark in non-ACC home games (the 32nd one was against an ACC team, but did not count as a conference game).

One of those losses was vs. No. 10 Notre Dame in 2023, while the other was at the hands of East Carolina on Nov. 23, 2013 - Doeren's first season in Raleigh.

The Wolfpack has won 30 of its last 31 non-conference home games.

QUICK NOTES

- The Wolfpack has lost just one fumble on offense this season (CJ Bailey vs. Duke). The other lost fumble was on a punt return.
- NC State has had 17 scoring drives of 75 yards or more this season. Six were for 80+ yards and two were for 90+ yards.
- The Wolfpack defense has not recovered a fumble this season and has forced just one (the defense DID force and recover a fumble on fourth down in the win over Campbell, but the officials did not signal the fumble, so the stats don't register it).
- The defense has just three interceptions this season, but one was returned for a touchdown.
- Hollywood Smothers has rushed for 100+ yards four times this season. The last NC State player to post four 100-yard rushing games in the first six games of the season was Matthew Dayes in 2016 (he had five in six games).
- Defensive coordinator DJ Eliot did not serve as defensive coordinator in two games this season following the death of his 18-year-old daughter Drue on Sept. 26. Co-DC Charlton Warren called the defense in the Virginia Tech (9/27) and Campbell (10/4) games, although Eliot was back on the sideline last week vs. Campbell.

WOLFPACK TRADITIONS

Lighting It Red: After ACC wins in football, the Memorial Belltower on campus is lit RED to celebrate. It's a unique celebration that is often imitated, but never duplicated.

The Wolf Sign: Touch your ring finger and middle finger to your thumb and raise your pinkie and pointer fingers. You've made the sign of the Wolf!

Law of the Jungle: After wins, when Coach Doeren calls the team up in the postgame locker room, the entire team chants a verse from Rudyard Kipling's poem Law of the Jungle.

*Now this is the Law of the Jungle – as old and as true as the sky;
And the Wolf that shall keep it may prosper, but the Wolf that shall break it must die.
As the creeper that girdles the tree-trunk the Law runneth forward and back –
For the strength of the Pack is the Wolf, and the strength of the Wolf is the Pack.*

Alpha Wolf Starter: Before every home game, a fan favorite serves as the 'starter of the game.' This could be a former player, famous alum or just somebody special to Wolfpack nation. The starter gets the crowd going in a chant of "WOLF!" "PACK!" prior to the team's entrance.

Walk of Champions: A couple of hours before kickoff, NC State's team buses arrive at the stadium on Trinity Rd, in front of the Murphy Football Center. The team walks down the steps through the cheerleaders, band and Wolfpack Nation before entering the building on the far side and heading to the locker room.

El Lobo: Leading the band onto the field (and the team down Trinity Rd. before the Walk of Champions) is the helmet cart, also known as "El Lobo."

Equipped with it's own sound system and smoking 'tailpipes', the cart was originally given by a donor in the late 70s, then restored a couple of decades ago.

The cart brings the Pack's beloved mascots (see next note) onto the field.

Mr. and Ms. WUF: NC State's Mr. WUF mascot has been around since the 60s, and he was joined by a female version in 1975. On Feb. 28, 1981, the two were married in a mock ceremony by the Wake Forest Demon Deacon mascot during halftime of a men's Basketball game at Reynolds Coliseum. The two were joined in "canis matrimonium," and Chancellor Joab Thomas gave the bride away.

Tuffy III: A dog named Tuffy became the new live mascot for football games in 2010. Tuffy was a Tamaskan - a breed of dog that resembles a wolf. Tuffy II took over in 2016, followed by Tuffy III in 2021.

Wagon Wheel: The song "Wagon Wheel" has long been a Wolfpack favorite due to its lyrics about our state and city.

However, in the past several years, it's become a tradition to play the song between the 3rd and 4th quarter and for Wolfpack Nation to sing it together:

*Headin' down south to the land of the pines
I'm thumbin' my way into North Caroline
Starin' up the road and pray to God I see headlights
I made it down the coast in seventeen hours
Pickin' me a bouquet of dogwood flowers
And I'm a-hopin' for Raleigh, I can see my baby tonight*

ONEPACK EMPOWERED

A generous gift from Dave and Sara Doeren established a new initiative at NC State in 2023-24 to support students with executive functioning challenges and those who are neurodivergent. Their $1.25 million commitment is among the largest made by a college football coach to his NCAA-member institution.

Launched through the Doeren Family Fund, OnePack Empowered benefits NC State students who face challenges with executive function skills critical to academic success, such as organization, planning, setting priorities, task completion and decision making.

The program has grown from 15 participants in the spring semester of 2025, to 50 this fall. The group include seven freshmen, 10 sophomores, 17 juniors, 14 seniors, on associate and one Prague Connect student.

OnePack Empowered also has student representation from all the university's undergraduate schools/colleges plus the Agriculture Institute.

With a focus on one-on-one mentoring, individual support plans, career readiness and additional specialized assistance, the program was designed to bolster academic and personal success and ensure students can complete their degrees.

In addition, students in the OnePack Empowered program can take part in the Howl Together program, which covers topics spanning academic, professional, and personal development.

The Doerens' commitment will pilot the program for five years, and the hope to inspire other donors to join them in contributing to OnePack Empowered as a sustainable source of support and guidance for an expanding number of participants over the next several years.

HEAD COACH DAVE DOEREN

- In his 13th season at NC State, his 15th season as a head coach overall. Boasts the second-longest tenure in the ACC and tied for sixth in the FBS.
- Has taken 10 of his last 11 teams to bowl games - 12 in his 14 total previous years as a head coach.
- NC State has qualified for five straight bowl games under his leadership.
- The all-time NC State leader in coaching victories with 91.
- Has more nine-win campaigns than any coach in school history (four) and the Pack has at least eight wins in six of the last eight seasons.

- Between 2017-25, 23 of his players have been drafted by the NFL - including an ACC-best seven in 2017 - the sixth-highest total nationally. Three of his players have gone on to be first-round picks.
- The Wolfpack ranks second in the ACC in conference wins since 2020.
- The Wolfpack has boasted 75 Academic All-ACC performers under his guidance - including a program-high 13 in 2022 - and in 2018 had a player named to the prestigious NFF National Scholar-Athlete Team.
- Five of his players have won seven national awards: Bradley Chubb (2017 Nagurski Trophy, 2017 Hendricks Award), Garrett Bradbury (2018 Rimington Trophy), Christopher Dunn (2022 Lou Groza Award), Payton Wilson (2023 Butkus Award, 2023 Bednarik Award), Joe Shimko (2023 Mannelly Award).
- Over the 2021 and 2022 seasons, the Pack won 16 straight home games, tying the longest home winning streak in school history (1972-74).
- 2022 NC State squad was the first since 1980 not to give up more than 30 points in a single game all season.
- He and his wife Sara have donated $1.25 million to establish a new initiative at NC State to support students with executive functioning challenges and those who are neurodivergent. Their commitment to inaugurate the OnePack Empowered program is among the largest made by a college football coach to his NCAA-member institution.
- Led Northern Illinois to the most successful two years in program history.
- His first Husky squad won the school's first MAC Championship since 1983 and tied the school record with 11 wins.
- His 2012 NIU team repeated as league champ and set a new school mark with 12 victories, earning a trip to the Orange Bowl - the first BCS berth ever for a MAC school.
- Was a finalist for several national coach of the year awards in 2012.
- NIU boasted the nation's longest conference winning streak (17) and never lost a home game during his tenure.
- Spend five seasons in the Big Ten, serving as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Wisconsin.
- Spent four seasons at Kansas and was on staff when the Jayhawks ended a seven-year bowl drought.
- In 2000 and 2001, coached the secondary at NCAA Division I-AA powerhouse Montana. The Grizzlies advanced to the national title game in 2000, losing by two points, but returned in 2001 to win the championship.
- Montana posted a 28-3 record and won two Big Sky titles during his tenure.
- Planned to go to medical school following college and become an orthopedic surgeon. He took the MCAT but after helping coach high school between his junior and senior years, fell in love with coaching.
- Lettered at tight end at Drake and was an Academic All-American.
- Earned his undergraduate degree in pre-medical biology. Earned his master's from Drake in educational leadership and began work on a Ph.D. while serving as a graduate assistant at the University of Southern California.
