TALKING POINTS

NOTRE DAME FIGHTING IRISH: The U18s open up the Kroger College Series at USA Hockey Arena as it's set to play host to the University of Notre Dame Fighting Irish for a sole game. Puck drop for the Under-18 Team is set for 7:00 p.m. ET this Friday.

Overall, the NTDP is 4-7-2-0 (W-L-T-OTL) against the Fighting Irish and look to get back in the win column after it fell during its last meeting. The two teams met last season (Oct. 4, 2024) as the U18s made the trek to South Bend, Ind., and fell, 5-2. Prior to that matchup, the U18s came out on top during the 2022-23 season (Oct. 2) where the U.S. came away with a 5-3 win.

The Fighting Irish currently have seven NTDP alumni on its roster as all return to USA Hockey Arena. Of the seven, three played for the U18s during its last win in Paul Fischer (2021-23), Danny Nelson (2022-23) and Carter Slaggert (2021-23). Will Belle (2023-25), Nick Kempf (2022-24), Charlie Pardue (2022-24) and Maddox Fleming (2020-21) make up the other four.

The Fighting Irish open its season against the U18s after it finished the 2024-25 season 12-25-1. Notre Dame welcomes in a new head in Brock Sheahan after he served two seasons as an associate head coach. Sheahan took over for long-time coach Jeff Jackson who announced the 2024-25 season would be his last prior to the start of last season. Furthermore, Jackson previously served as the national coach and senior director of the then newly founded NTDP in 1996.

The Fighting Irish return 17 players from the 2024-25 season, made up of five defenseman, 10 forwards and two goaltenders. Five of the seven NTDP alumni are returners as Belle and Pardue enter their first season with the program.

Cole Knuble returns as the teams top point getter as he tallied 12 goals and 27 assists in 34 games. Danny Nelson returns as the leading goal scorer with his 13 in 36 games.

On the back end, Axel Kumlin and Fischer lead the charge with 21 points each (Kumlin: 38GP - 6G, 15A, Fischer: 36GP - 2G, 19A).

Between the pipes, Kempf returns after seeing the ice in 13 games last season, posting a 3.74 GAA, a .895 SV% and a 2-10-1-0 record. Jack Williams returns after he saw 10:26 minutes of ice time last season and allowed one goal and eight saves.

Current Team USA forward Sammy

Nelson (Maple Grove, Minn.) hits the ice against brothers Danny and Henry.

WESTERN MICHIGAN BRONCOS: After the U18s face the Fighting Irish, it will travel to the west side of the mitten to take on the defending national champions - the Western Michigan University Broncos. Puck drop from Kalamazoo, Mich., inside Lawson Ice Arena is set for Saturday at 6:00 p.m. ET.

This marks the fourth time these two teams have met in NTDP history with its last meeting coming last season (2024-25) which, like this year, came the day after facing Notre Dame. The U18s fell, 4-1 (Oct. 5), and will look for its first win against the Broncos. The NTDP fell in its first meeting (10/7/2000), 5-1.

The Broncos open up its season as well against the U18s after it went 34-7-1 last season and won the NCAA championship. On top of its first-ever championship, the Broncos won the NCHC conference tournament for the first time and had the regular season title.

En route to its first national championship win, the Broncos took down Minnesota State, University of Massachusetts, the University of Denver and Boston University. Two of the four games required double overtime, and scored six in the tournament title game to win, 6-2.

Cole Spicer (2020-22) faces off against his former team as the only full-time NTDP alum on the Broncos roster. During his time with the NTDP, Spicer tallied 40 points (20G, 20A) in 79 games played.

Led by 2024-25 NCAA coach of the year Pat Ferschweiler, the Broncos return 17 players from the national championship-winning team, made up of 10 forwards, five defenseman and a pair of goaltenders.

Forward Owen Michaels and Grant Slukynsky lead the way and both finished last season with 36 points in 42 games. Michaels returns as the top goal scorer with 18, as Slukynsky led the Broncos with 26 assists.

On the back end, Samuel Sjolund leads as the top returning defenseman after he tallied four goals and 25 assists in 42 games played. Right behind Sjolund is Joona Vaisanen who finished last season with 26 points (4G, 22A) in 42 games.

Between the pipes, Hampton Slukynsky returns as the top netminder, playing and starting in 25 games last season. He posted an overall record of 19-5-1 (W-L-T) with a 1.90 GAA and a SV% of .922.

MADISON CAPITOLS: The U17s open up a three-in-three weekend road trip with a Friday tune-up against the Madison Capitols. The Under-17 Team USHL opener is set for 8:05 p.m. ET inside Bob Suter's LEGACY20 Arena.

The Capitols enter the game coming off a win at Chicago, 5-3, and are 2-2-0-0 (W-L-OTL-SOL) overall. At home, the Capitols are 0-1-0-0 as it dropped its sole home game of the season so far last Friday (Sept. 26) against the Dubuque Fighting Saints, 3-2.

Forward Gustavs Griva leads the Capitols with four points (2G, 2A) in four games with both assists coming on the power play. USHL Forward of the Week Sam Kappell leads the team with three goals, two of which came on the power play, along with a game winner.

On the blue line, Harper Frey leads all defenseman with three points, all assists, in four games, and is tied for second in the USHL amongst defenseman. Four defensemen trail with two points each as no Capitol defender has scored a goal yet this season.

Rookies Caleb Pittsley and Michael Tang lead the new group of four with a goal and assist each.

In the crease, Cash Cruitt and Caleb Heil have split time in net as Cruitt leads with a 2.00 GAA with a 1-0-0-0 record. On the contrary, Heil leads with a .891 SV% and has a 3.04 GAA with a 1-1-0-0 record.

GREEN BAY GAMBLERS: The U.S. National Under-17 Team caps off its Wisconsin road trip with a visit to the Resch Center Saturday and Sunday (Oct. 4 & 5) to face off against the Green Bay Gamblers. Puck drop is slated for 7:05 p.m. ET Saturday and 4:05 p.m. ET Sunday.

The Gamblers enter the weekend 0-3-0-1 and have yet to play a regular season game at home. Its sole point of the year came at the USHL Fall Classic as it fell to Sioux Falls in a shootout, 3-2. The Gamblers are one of two teams (Lincoln) that have yet to record a win.

The Gamblers have three NTDP alumni on its team, one at each position, with Joey Slavick (goaltender), Maceo Phillips (defenseman) and Landon Hafele (forward). Hafele has one goal and one assist in three games, while Phillips has skated in a pair of games. Slavick has played a pair of games and holds a 4.04 GAA with a .830 SV% for a 0-2-0-0 record.

As a team, Gavin Katz leads the forwards in points (4) and goals (3) in four games played and has an assist to his name. On the back end, Andrew O'Sullivan leads the defensemen with a pair of assists.

In net, along with Slavick, Leo Henriquez has played two games with a 0-1-0-1 record and 2.40 GAA and a .918 SV%.
