ACCNX

This will mark the sixth overall meeting between the two programs with three of the previous five meetings taking place on a neutral court. Notre Dame has won all five contests and will be making its first-ever trip to Berkeley.

Cal is 1 of 23 schools in the country to have played at least seven Quad 1 games this season. The Bears have been competitive in each of those contests with the average margin of defeat at 8.0 points.

Going back to the 2024-25 season, Cal is 26-2 overall at home. Going back to the 2023-24 season, Cal has won 19 straight nonconference regular season games.

The Bears are coming off their best season under Smith in which they:

- Earned an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2018-19,
- Won 25 games for the first time since 2012-13
- Maintained an Associated Press Top 25 ranking for eight straight weeks (going as high as No. 18)
- Set a program record for home wins in a season (16), going 16-1 at Haas Pavilion
- Set a program record for 3-pointers in a season (297).
- Defeated multiple ranked teams
- Advanced to the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament.

Cal went 2-2 in nonconference play against teams from the 2025 NCAA Tournament with wins over Grand Canyon and Harvard and losses to Vanderbilt and USC.

Lulu Twidale was named to the Ann Meyers Drysdale Award Preseason Watchlist and Sakima Walker was named to the Lisa Leslie Award Preseason Watchlist.

On Nov. 17, Morris was named the ACC's Rookie of the Week after helping power Cal to a 3-0 week. For the week, she averaged 9.7 points and 4.3 rebounds per game while leading the team with 13 assists and seven 3-pointers.

Charmin Smith is an award-winning coach, former professional player, and active board member who has dedicated her career to progressing equity and opportunity. The true definition of a trailblazer, Smith is the first-ever Black Head Coach for the Cal women's basketball program and is on a mission to leverage her platform to lead societal change through sports.

Fresh off her best season as head coach at Cal, Smith signed a new five-year contract in the spring of 2025 that will retain her through the 2029-30 season.

In her sixth year as head coach in 2024-25 Smith guided the Golden Bears to their first NCAA Tournament appearance (earning an at-large bid as an eight seed) since 2018-19, their first 25-win season which mark the most since the 2012-13 season and Cal's first AP Top 25 ranking since the 2018-19 season coming in as high as No. 18. That season also saw the Bears break the program record for home wins (16) and 3-pointers in a season (297), earn multiple victories over nationally-ranked opponents (No.19 Alabama and No. 21 NC State) resulting in the team being named the NCAA's Team of the Week and complete their first sweep of Stanford since the 1985-86 season. For the second straight year, Smith also signed a Top 25 (ESPN) recruiting class that features Cal's first McDonald's All-American since Kristine Anigwe (2015) in No. 20 ranked Puff Morris and No.70 ranked Taylor Barnes.

In her fifth year as head coach in 2023-24, the Bears won their most overall (19) and conference (seven) games since the 2018-19 season. Smith also guided Cal into the postseason as the Bears earned an at-large bid and a No. 2 seed in the inaugural NCAA Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament. Under Smith's guidance that season, the team also had its first weekend home and road sweeps of Pac-12 schools (both against Washington and Washington State) since 2018-19, swept Oregon for the first time since 2012-13 and set a program record for 3-pointers (282) in a season. The season sweeps of Oregon, Washington and Washington State marked the first time Cal has swept three different Pac-12 schools since 2017-18. The Bears also advanced to the quarterfinals of that season's Pac-12 Tournament for the first time since 2019-20. Smith was named ESPN's Coach of the Week on Jan. 8 of that season.

Smith's unwavering dedication to empowering players to surpass their potential, her commitment to enhancing the representation of Black individuals in the sport, and her resolute drive to inspire action toward racial justice solidify her position as an influential leader in basketball and beyond.

Regarded as a 2025, 2024 and 2020 Top 100 Most Influential Figures in Women's College Basketball (Silver Waves Media), Smith's legacy at Cal Berkeley—beginning with her transition from Associate Head Coach to Head Coach, highlights her strategic acumen and commitment to player development. Her storied tenure includes a 2013 Final Four appearance and an impressive 10 postseason appearances.

Currently serving on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) board, Smith is renowned for her role as a Board Member and co-chair of the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Committee. Her dedication extends far beyond the basketball court, as evidenced by her impactful contributions to the Cal Athletics Equity Inclusion and Diversity Task Force and her pivotal role in the Chancellor's Counsel for Students of Color and Multicultural Engagement.

Smith experienced a number of successes in her first year as head coach, leading the Golden Bears to three upsets over higher-ranked opponents. The first came in the form of a 4-point victory over No. 20 Arkansas on November 24 and then a win over No. 13 Arizona on the road in the regular season finale. The Bears completed their second upset in the same week as just four days later, they defeated 5-seeded and No. 22-ranked Arizona State in the opening round of the 2020 Pac-12 Women's Basketball Tournament in Las Vegas. The win over the Sun Devils made the Golden Bears just the second 12-seed to win a game in the Pac-12 Tournament.

Smith has helped coach the Bears to the top three individual seasons in program history. In her first two years in Berkeley, Cal set then-school records for wins in a season, finishing both years with 27-7 marks before Cal pushed itself into elite status with the record-breaking 32-4 Final Four campaign in 2012-13. The Bears also recorded their best Pac-12 record (17-1) and won their first conference regular-season crown that season. Smith has helped lead the Bears to the postseason in 11 of her 13 seasons and was also part of the staff that led the Bears to the 2010 WNIT championship.

Smith's previous roles at Stanford and Boston College allowed her to build upon impact, leading her teams to multiple NCAA appearances and historic victories. Her experience as a point guard for the WNBA's Minnesota Lynx and Seattle Storm later influenced her time as an Assistant Coach for the New York Liberty.

As a standout player on the Stanford women's basketball team, Smith was a crucial component of the team's three NCAA Final Four Appearances and three Pac-10 Conference Championships between 1995 to 1997. Following her collegiate playing career, Smith joined the professional ranks in the ABL from 1997-98 as a member of the Portland Power and played three years in the WNBA, along with one year in the Swedish Basketball League.

Coupled with her impressive career in basketball, Smith also pursued the challenging discipline of Muay Thai martial arts. As a testament to her relentless spirit, Smith applies the lessons from her passion off the court to her coaching approach on the court.

Her leadership extends to a realm where the core values are honor and discipline, where she embodies the ethos that actions must follow words. And her steadfast commitment and achievements have set her apart to lead the future of sports.

This will mark the sixth overall meeting between the two programs with three of the previous five meetings taking place on a neutral court. Notre Dame has won all five contests and will be making its first-ever trip to Berkeley.

About Notre Dame

Notre Dame is currently 13-7 overall and 5-4 in ACC play with ranked wins over USC and North Carolina. The Irish are led by sixth-year head coach Niele Ivey who has guided the team to four straight Sweet 16 appearances. Notre Dame features reigning ACC Player and Defensive Player of the Year Hannah Hidalgo who set an NCAA record with 16 steals in a game earlier this season.

Last time out vs the Irish

The seventh-seeded California women's basketball team went toe-to-toe with the second seeded and sixth-ranked Notre Dame taking a six-point lead late in the third quarter but ultimately came up short losing 73-64 in the quarterfinal round of the ACC Tournament, North Carolina on Friday night. The Golden Bears held the Fighting Irish to just four 3-pointers on 28.6%, well below their season average of 40.3%.

Marta Suarez registered her second-straight double-double and sixth of the season with 14 points and 11 rebounds. Lulu Twidale and Kayla Williams tossed in four and three 3-pointers respectively. Twidale hit two 3-pointers in the first quarter, but Cal turned it over 10 times and went scoreless from the field after the 5:00 mark and was down 16-10 going into the second quarter.

The Bears' next bucket didn't come until Ioanna Krimili hit a layup at the 8:25 mark of the second quarter which sparked a 7-0 run that got Cal to within 18-17. The Irish responded however with a 6-0 run aided by a four-point play by Hannah Hidalgo. Williams got Cal to within three points on a triple with 3:14 left in the half. The Bears held the Irish to just one field goal over the last five minutes of the quarter and were down just 31-28 heading into the break.

Twidale's third triple of the game tied the game at 36-36 with 7:47 to go in the third and she followed up with another 3-pointer on the next possession to give Cal the lead. The Bears used an extended 14-3 run to go up 45-39 and force a Notre Dame timeout at the 5:06 mark. The Irish, however closed the quarter on a 14-3 run and went up 55-50 going into the final frame.

A layup from Michelle Onyiah got Cal to within three with 8:10 to go but Notre Dame scored two quick unanswered buckets to keep Cal at bay. Williams converted a 3-point play to bring Cal to within six with just under four minutes to go. The Bears were not able to close the gap any further.

Notre Dame was led by Hannah Hidalgo's 25 points.
