SMU WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

LAST TIME OUT

DALLAS (SMU) – The SMU women's basketball program fell 77-59 at home to Boston College on Thursday.

In a wire-to-wire game heading into the fourth quarter, SMU (9-18, 2-13 ACC) was unable to complete its second-half comeback as Boston College (5-24, 1-15 ACC) outscored the Mustangs 22-9 in the final quarter for BC's first ACC win of the season.

Down five at the start of the fourth, the Mustangs cut the lead to one at the line with seven left in the game. Boston College increased its lead to seven after three straight baskets with five minutes to go. SMU cut to the lead four after an Ayana Brown three with just under five to go. A pair of free throws and a layup from BC pushed the lead to nine with just over two minutes left. A dagger three put the Eagles up by double-digits, who held on for the win.

The Mustangs shot 39% from the floor and knocked down nine three pointers but it was not enough to keep pace late with Boston College. The Eagles scored 18 points on turnovers and went 18-21 from the line in the game.

Anaya Brown led the Mustangs with 19 points and six rebounds. Brown shot 8-of-14 from the floor and went 3-of-5 from downtown. The forward also had two blocks while Grace Hall added three.

Hall led the Mustangs in rebounds with seven and had six points in addition to her three blocks. Ayanna Thompson also went 3-of-5 from downtown and had 13 points. Both Zahra King and Sahnya Jah each had nine points.

SMU opened the game on a 7-2 run, highlighted by a Brown three-pointer. BC responded with five straight points. Both teams traded buckets with neither team claiming an advantage early in the game. Thompson hit a three-pointer as the quarter ended to cut the BC lead to one. Brown had five points in the period as SMU trailed 16-15.

It was a slow start to the second quarter for both teams as Brown tried to spark the SMU offense. After BC led by six with four minutes left in the quarter, SMU tied the game in the final second after two free throws from Thompson. The Mustangs outscored BC 11-10 in the quarter as the game was tied at 26 heading into the half.

Brown led the Mustangs with eight points, shooting 2-of-3 from downtown in the half. SMU was 5-of-11 as a team from beyond the arc in the half.

SMU scored five straight points to start the third, but BC would answer with back-to-back threes to tie the game. Each team kept fighting to grab control of the game, as momentum swung in favor of BC after the Eagles hit another three-pointer. After extending the lead to five, SMU answered with a three-pointer from Thompson. King scored five points in the final minutes to keep the lead from growing too large as BC led heading into the fourth. SMU made four straight field goals to close the quarter as both teams' offense exploded in the period, scoring a combined 53 points (BC 29-24). Thompson had eight while King had five.

- Under Barnes, the program ascended to new heights - reaching the national championship game, signing elite recruiting classes and cementing deep connections with the local community. She led UA to six straight post-season appearances and five straight 20-win seasons, highlighted by an impressive run to the NCAA Championship Game in 2021.
- Barnes was the first coaching hire by new SMU Athletic Director Damon Evans, who called the SMU women's basketball program "a sleeping giant."

// ROSTER OVERHAUL

ADIA BARNES

HEAD COACH
ARIZONA '98
1ST SEASON

@AdiaBarnes

@adiab32

Adia Barnes was named Head Women's Basketball Coach at SMU on April 5, 2025.

Boasting an impressive resume, Barnes arrived on the Hilltop after spending nine seasons in Tucson as the head coach of the Arizona women's basketball team. During that time, she compiled a record of 169-114, reaching the post-season six consecutive seasons and collecting five consecutive 21-plus win seasons.

The 2021 WBCA of the Year Finalist and Naismith Coach of the Year Semifinalist led the Wildcats to four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and finished the 2020-21 season as the national runner-up.

Barnes is one of four coaches to lead their alma mater to the title game and one of seven to lead their alma mater to a Final Four. She was the youngest coach since 2014 to make the Final Four and the first coach since 2016 to make the Final Four in their first five seasons as a head coach.

The 2024-25 season marked Arizona's inaugural year in the Big 12 Conference, where the Wildcats finished 10-8 in league play and 19-14 overall. The 19 wins extended her streak to seven consecutive seasons with at least 18 victories and included a marquee win over No. 16 West Virginia.

The 2023-24 season saw the Wildcats earn their fourth-straight NCAA Tournament bid. Arizona concluded the season with 18 wins that included victories over No. 15 Utah and No. 3 Stanford. Barnes coached both Helena Pueyo and Esmery Martinez who earned All-Pac 12 and Pac-12 All-Defensive honors and were both selected in the following WNBA Draft.

In 2022-23, Barnes led the program to another NCAA Tournament berth and its fifth 20-win season in as many years. Her squad recorded five top-25 wins and remained ranked in the AP Top 25 for the entire season.

The 2021-22 season was another banner season that saw Barnes eclipse four consecutive seasons with 20 or more wins. Arizona hosted and participated in the opening weekend of the NCAA Tournament.

In her fifth season, Barnes was a finalist for the WBCA Coach of the Year and was a semifinalist for the Naismith Coach of the Year. Heading into the NCAA Tournament, she became the 11th coach to play and coach in the NCAA Tournament at their alma mater. Once the Wildcats reached the National Championship game, she became the fourth coach to lead her alma mater to the title game.

During the NCAA Tournament, Arizona defeated UConn in the Final Four, which was the first time in school history that Arizona knocked off both the No. 1 team in the nation and a 1-seed in the NCAA Tournament. During the shortened 2020-21 season, Arizona managed to win 20 games for the third consecutive year. The Wildcats finished the season with a 24-7 record and Barnes was named a finalist for the WBCA and Naismith Coach of the Year Award. It also marked her second season in a row, eclipsing 24 total wins.

SMU WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Barnes also has international experience as she was an assistant coach on the 2021 gold-winning USA AmeriCup team.

Prior to returning to her alma mater as head coach in April of 2016, Barnes spent four seasons at Washington. After three seasons on staff, Barnes was promoted to recruiting coordinator, where she handled all aspects of recruiting including budget, compliance and planning, in addition to her role in player development.

A three-time all-conference selection and '98 graduate of Arizona, Barnes was voted USBWA first-team All-American and Pac-10 player of the year in 1997-98. Her 2,237 career points currently rank ninth on the Pac-12's all-time scoring list. Following her collegiate career, Barnes played professionally for 12 seasons in the WNBA and overseas. She won a WNBA Championship with the Seattle Storm in 2004, was named to the Storm's All-Decade Team, and also played for Cleveland, Minnesota and Sacramento. Her overseas career included stops in the Ukraine, Israel, Turkey, Russia and Italy.

In addition to her playing and coaching career, Barnes has been extremely active in the community through the Adia Barnes Foundation, which mentors under-served youth and conducts charitable events and community service projects such as school supply drives. Barnes spent 10 years as the Seattle Storm's TV analyst for NBA TV and FOX Sports Northwest and also spent time as the color commentator for Storm radio broadcasts.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Barnes is married to Salvo Coppa, who coached for 14 seasons prior to arriving at Arizona, including 10 professionally in Italy and with three separate national teams. She is also the mother of one son, Matteo and one daughter, Capri.
