 - Since the 2014-15 season, Louisville is second in the conference in NCAA Tournament wins (23).

ANOTHER 20-WIN SEASON

UofL defeated Stanford on Jan. 29 to reach 20 wins for the 16th-straight season and extended the program record. The 16-straight seasons with 20 or more wins is the third-longest active streak in the country (UConn, Baylor) and the longest active streak in the ACC. The longest run previously was three, achieved twice. The Cards have won at least 20 games in 18 of Walz's 19 seasons. Prior to Walz's arrival, Louisville had just 10 20-win seasons in its history.

CARDS POST-THANKSGIVING STREAK

The Cardinals have been running on all cylinders on both sides of the ball since the Thanksgiving holiday.

- Over the last 24 games, the Cardinals have averaged 82.8 points per game, hold a +23.2 scoring margin and have shot 46.4% from the field and 34.3% from three.

HEAD COACH JEFF WALZ

Head coach Jeff Walz, in his 19th season as a head coach, has compiled a 511-151 record as the Cardinals' leader. Walz and the Cardinals boast quite an astounding resumé that includes 12 trips to the NCAA Sweet 16, eight trips to the Elite Eight, four trips to the final four and two trips to the national title game. Overall, he has compiled a 41-16 record in NCAA Tournament games and ranks 10th all-time and fifth among active coaches with a 71.9 NCAA Tournament winning percentage. All of this for a program that had just four NCAA Tournament wins and had never reached a Sweet 16 prior to Walz being named head coach.

Walz became the third fastest active and fourth fastest coach all-time to reach 500 wins for his career after collecting his 500th against Virginia Tech on Jan. 4 of this season.

Walz is the all-time winningest coach in program history and averages 27.1 victories per season. He directed Louisville to a program-record 36 victories in 2017-18 en route to being named ACC Coach of the Year, 34 victories in 2008-09, 33 wins in 2013-14, 32 wins in 2018-19 and 29 wins in 2021-22.

The Cardinals have reached 20 wins 16 consecutive times and they have won at least 20 games in 18 of Walz's 19 full seasons. The longest run previously was three, achieved twice, and UofL had just 10 20-win seasons in its 32 previous years.

Walz led Louisville to four consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference regular season titles in 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021, and over that four-year span, the Cardinals went a combined 122-15, which marked the fewest losses and best winning percentage over a four-year period in program history.

From 2016-2021, he coached the ACC Player of the Year in five of six seasons as Myisha Hines-Allen won the award in 2016, Asia Durr in 2018 and 2019, and Dana Evans in 2020 and 2021. He also coached Angel McCoughtry to Big East Player of the Year honors in 2007.

Walz has been with the Cardinals for 19 seasons and is tied for 14th for the longest active streak at the same school. Among the power conferences, Walz is fifth behind Geno Auriemma (41 years, UConn), Bill Fennelly (31 years, Iowa State), Brenda Frese (24 years, Maryland) and Jim Flanery (24 years, Creighton).

After being hired as the Cardinals' head coach on March 27, 2007, the Bluegrass State native used little time to make a splash. His first year featured the program's first NCAA Sweet 16 and it culminated with Louisville earning the No. 12 ranking in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. For his efforts, Walz was named the WBCA Maggie Dixon Rookie Coach of the Year.

Prior to taking the reins at Louisville, Walz spent five seasons at Maryland, including his final season as the associate head coach in 2006-07. The season prior, he helped lead the Terrapins to a school-record 34 wins and the program's first national title.

Walz has four children: daughter Kaeley, son Jacob, and daughters Lola and Lucy. He married the former Lauren Lueders in September of 2012, and the couple resides in Louisville.
