- » Scheyer compiled an 89-22 record (.802) in his first three seasons at the helm, establishing new benchmarks in conference and national history.
- » Scheyer's 89 victories surpassed the standard set by Bill Guthridge (80, North Carolina, 1997-2000) for the most wins by an ACC coach in their first three seasons and tied Brad Underwood and Brad Stevens for the most by any Division I men's basketball head coach over that span.
- » Scheyer also became the first coach in conference history to win two ACC Tournament championships within his first three seasons.
- » During the 2022-23 campaign, Scheyer became the first coach in the conference's storied history to post an undefeated home record in a debut season and the first to lead a team to an ACC title as both a player (2009, 2010) and as a head coach (2023).
- » In 2024-25, Scheyer guided the Blue Devils to one of the most dominant seasons in program history and the school's 18th Final Four appearance, becoming the youngest head coach to reach the Final Four since 2011.
- » Under Scheyer, Duke posted a 35-4 overall record in 2024-25, joining a rare group as only the sixth team in school history to notch at least 35 wins and the first in a decade to do so.
- » Ranked inside the AP Top 25 throughout the 2024-25 campaign, Duke spent two weeks at No. 1 and finished the season No. 3 in the final poll, marking the 41st top-10 finish in school history. The Blue Devils closed the year by winning 31 of their final 33 games, riding impressive win streaks of 16 and 15 games, and storming through the NCAA Tournament with an 86.80 points-per-game average - the second-highest by a Duke team in tournament history (min. five games), behind only the 2001 national champions.
- » Scheyer's Blue Devils were a statistical powerhouse, leading the nation in scoring margin (+20.5) and becoming the first team in ACC history to lead the conference in both scoring offense (83.2) and scoring defense (62.8).
- » Duke also tallied 394 made three-pointers, the second-most in program history, while becoming the only Division I team to both average over 80 points per game (83.2) and allow fewer than 63 (62.8).
- » The Blue Devils achieved a KenPom net rating of 39.29, the second-highest in the site's history since 1996-97 - trailing only the 1998-99 Duke squad (43.01).
- » Scheyer, one of four finalists for the 2025 Naismith Coach of the Year award, was honored as the recipient of the 2024-25 John McLendon National Coach of the Year Award (presented by College Insider) and was named NABC South Atlantic District Coach of the Year.
- » The Northbrook, Illinois, native has been integral in the recruiting and development of several young Duke stars since joining the staff in 2013-14, and as head coach has landed the nation's No. 1-ranked recruiting class three times (2022, 2024, 2025) and a No. 2-ranked recruiting class (2023).
- » Duke has signed a top-three recruiting class per ESPN in every season since Scheyer joined the staff, including the No. 1 class seven times in 12 seasons (2014, 2015, 2017, 2018, 2022, 2024, 2025).

- » The three-player group includes five-star prospects Cameron Williams, the No. 3 overall recruit and top-ranked power forward from St. Mary's High School in Phoenix, and Bryson Howard, the No. 12 overall prospect and No. 5 small forward from Heritage High School in Frisco, Texas, along with four-star recruit Maxime Meyer, ranked 94th overall and 11th among centers nationally from IMG Academy in Bradenton, Florida.
- » Ranked as the fourth-best recruiting class in the country through the early signing period, according to 247Sports, Scheyer has signed a top-three class in each of his 12 seasons on the Duke coaching staff with seven No. 1 classes during that stretch, including in 2022, 2024 and 2025.

NBA Champion Jayson Tatum Named Chief Basketball Officer

- » Duke men's basketball head coach Jon Scheyer announced Tuesday the creation of a groundbreaking new opportunity within the men's basketball program and within college basketball - Chief Basketball Officer. NBA Champion and former Blue Devil standout Jayson Tatum has been named to this first-of-its-kind responsibility.
- » As Chief Basketball Officer, Tatum will volunteer his time as a special advisor to Scheyer and the Duke program, bringing championship-level insight and professional basketball experience to player development, leadership, and life as an elite athlete. Tatum, who starred for the Blue Devils in 2016-17 before launching a decorated NBA career, will leverage the lessons he first learned in Durham to help prepare current Blue Devils for success both on and off the court.
- » The creation of the Chief Basketball Officer signals a bold and innovative step in college basketball. It underscores Duke's deep connection to the NBA while affirming Scheyer's vision for a program that not only develops champions in college, but also prepares players for life and success at the game's highest level. By embedding a player of Tatum's caliber directly into the program, Duke is redefining how alumni can actively shape the future of student-athletes.
- » The appointment of Tatum as Chief Basketball Officer further reinforces the power of The Brotherhood - Duke's lifelong network of players, coaches, and alumni - and illustrates how Scheyer is reimagining the college basketball model. For current student-athletes, it offers a rare and invaluable opportunity: direct access to the mindset, standards, and habits required to excel at the game's highest level.

NBA Season Begins with 24 Blue Devils on Opening Day Rosters

BIO

Former Duke All-American and two-time team captain Jon Scheyer is the 20th head coach in Duke University's storied basketball history. He was named to the position on June 4, 2021, succeeding Hall of Fame head coach Mike Krzyzewski.

Scheyer, who enters his fourth season as head coach in 2025-26, has vast experience on the Duke bench, having served on Krzyzewski's staff since the 2013-14 season. His previous roles with the Blue Devils include special assistant, assistant coach and the previous three years as associate head coach. Scheyer and Duke agreed to a new contract in October of 2025, extending him through the 2030-31 season.

He was named to The Athletic's 40 Under 40 in college sports in 2022, and was previously touted as one of the best assistant coaches in college basketball.

In his first three seasons as head coach, Scheyer led the Blue Devils to two ACC Tournament titles and three NCAA Tournament appearances, including trips to the Elite Eight and Final Four.

As a player, Scheyer sparked the Blue Devils to two ACC championships and the 2010 NCAA title as a player from 2007-10. In his time on the coaching staff, he has helped Duke compile a 272-80 (.773) record, a national championship (2015), two Final Fours (2015, 2022) and three ACC Tournament crowns (2017, 2019, 2023).

The Northbrook, Illinois, native has been integral in the recruiting and development of several young Duke stars since joining the staff, and landed the nation's No. 1-ranked recruiting class in 2022, 2024 and 2025, and No. 2-ranked class for 2023.

Duke has signed a top-three recruiting class per ESPN in every season since Scheyer joined the staff, including the No. 1 class seven times in 12 seasons (2014, 2015, 2017, 2018, 2022, 2024, 2025).
